School Progress Cited

The community effort in behalf of our schools has meant decided progress and improvement during the past two years. The additional revenue from the increased voted tax has been used for the betterment of the educational program and improved safety and welfare of the children.

Included among these improvements are the following items which were promised as expenditures if the money was made available.

No. 1—Transportation has been restored for all children, on new buses, under contract for the next five years. No child need cross Highway 80 on foot unless the parents choose to allow them to do so.

No. 2—Summer School has been made available for all children to explore new ideas as well as gain background information and help in areas where they have been experiencing difficulty.

No. 3—Special teaching aids including maps, globes, science carts, science apparatus, encyclopedias, dictionaries, foreign language aids, and audio-visual equipment have been purchased with matching funds from N. D. E. A.

No. 4—Along with the use of these purchases has come expanded curriculum offerings and a general updating and expansion in the school program, re: Spanish program for grades 4 through 8, New Math programs, enlarged Kindergarten staff, inauguration of a gifted program, and other additions.

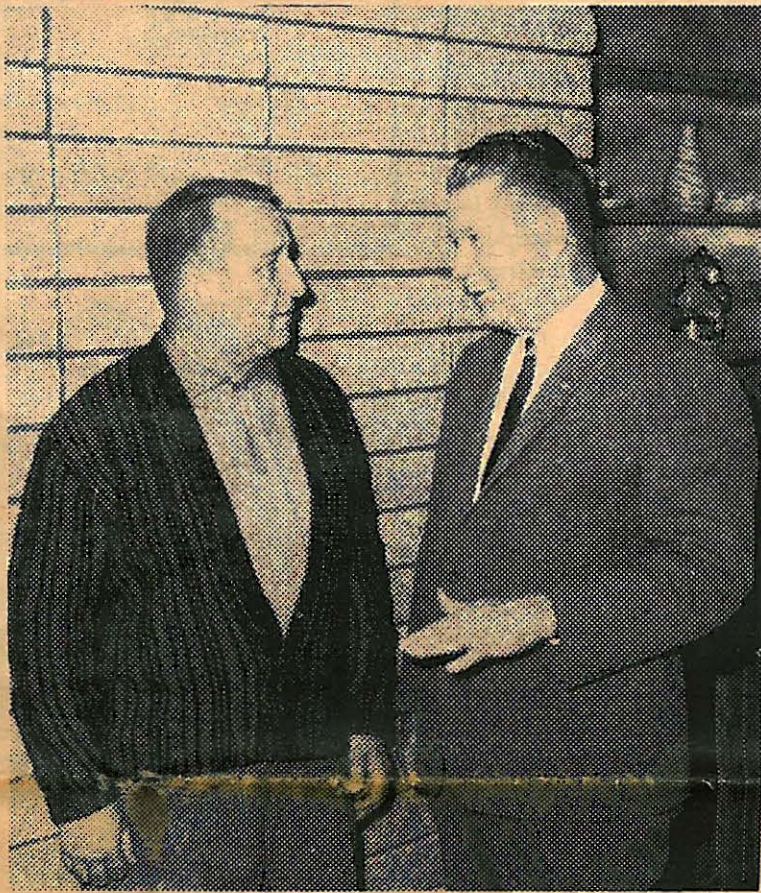

No. 5—a maintenance program has been started which has included complete painting of the primary school inside and out and roof coated with protective seal. Some outside wall and trim and inside multi-use kitchen and office at Alpine School has been painted and part of the roof has been coated. Doors also have been painted at Harbison Canyon. A heavy duty combination mower rototiller and scraper has been purchased and used primarily in weed control at Harbison Canyon. Many other needed repairs and relocation of equipment have been made. This is a continuing program and will include more painting, installation of sand pits and other items still to be added.

No. 6—Increased salary scheduled have been put into effect and fully credentialed teachers are being employed. This adds to stability within the district and is aiding in the development of a well rounded educational program for the students of Alpine.

Without the increased funds these and other improvements would have been impossible. It is for this reason that the Board of Trustees is asking that the present tax rate be maintained for the next five years. The District is growing, and a sound educational program needs to be continued within the area. Children are our greatest asset, and well educated children provide a community with enlightened leadership in the future.

Among those who have endorsed the maintenance of the present tax rate is the Alpine Chamber of Commerce whose board went on record at their last meeting as wholeheartedly in favor of this move.

Fire Commissioners Meet

A meeting was held Wednesday night by the Alpine Fire Commissioners to discuss the proposed rules and regulations of the Alpine Fire Department.

Real estate sales recorded for the County, South Central, which includes Jamul, Dehesa, Alpine and Cuyamaca, for the month of December, rose with 70 sales as compared to 43 recorded the previous month and 50 recorded in December a year ago.

Editor Gives Real Estate Trends

According to James E. Downs, Editor of San Diego County Real Estate Trends, the key to the 1965 market—as far as real estate's "condition" is concerned is the volume of new construction which is undertaken in that year. Logically, this construction (especially residential) should decline. Reason: In the past year additions to the space supply exceeded de-

Boney Hails Recount Result

Pleasure and relief have been expressed by Henry Boney at the results of the recount of November's Supervisorial election.

Supervisor Boney said he was "extremely pleased" and "... as relieved as Mr. Bird that the matter was finally settled."

The vote counting machines were complimented by Boney.

"I am especially pleased that the vote counting machines have been proved accurate," Boney stated.

Boney lauded former Supervisor David W. Bird for his "dedicated and distinguished career in County Government."

"Mr. Bird has my very best wishes for success in his future activities," Boney said.

BONEY VISITS ALPINE

On the eve of his triumph in the disputed Supervisorial election in the Second District, Henry Boney visited with various heads of organizations in Alpine, at the home of Paul Clay, Superintendent of Schools.

Many organizations were represented in the gathering which numbered about 30 people.

An informal question and answer period was held, and Boney was presented with many problems that face this particular area.

One of the issues presented was the question of a resident sheriff. Boney advised the group that since the sheriff's position is an elective one, it is not under his particular jurisdiction. He had, however, talked to Joe O'Connor, and advised the group that a committee could best serve the Alpine interests in this matter.

It was agreed that the evening was a most informative one, and that this type of gathering can do much to meet the needs of the community.

WRECKING YARDS PROPOSED

SAN DIEGO (CNA)—A proposal to allow back country auto wrecking yards has the County Planning Commission split and unable to agree to set a public hearing on the matter.

The suggestion to allow the wrecking yards in agriculturally zoned areas came from the County Board of Supervisors which requested the commission to hold a hearing on the proposal.

The general idea is that wrecking yards could not be allowed in remote or shielded canyons without disturbing neighboring property valuations. Special use permits would be required in any case.

Opposition has already developed from the San Diego County and Farm Bureau and the Cattlemen's Association.

The farm bureau is against the yards in any agricultural zones while the association is against the yards in "prime" agricultural areas.

Wrecking yards are now allowed in only the M-1 and M-3 manufacturing zones.

Awards To Be Presented

Four mayors and the chairman of the County Board of Supervisors will be among those presenting Silver Beaver Awards to 11 Scout leaders Saturday, Jan. 30 at the annual Beaver Dinner of the San Diego County Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The presentors are: Mayor Frank Curran, San Diego; Mayor James Fotheringham, Vista; Mayor Carl Neiswender, Carlsbad; Mayor Walter Vestal, Coronado.

Honorable Frank Gibson, chairman of the County Board of Supervisors; Don Keller, San Diego County district attorney; Richard Johnston, president of the San Diego Downtown Kiwanis Club; James D. Slayton, president of the North Island Association; Dan Turner, vice president of the La Jolla Town Council; Superior Court Judge John Hewicker, and William B. Enright, president of the San Diego County Bar Association.

Names of the recipients are kept secret until the presentations.

The Silver Beaver is the highest adult volunteer award the local Council is authorized to confer.

More than 3,000 are expected for the potluck dinner to be held in the Convention Hall at the San Diego Community Concourse, First and C streets.

The dinner is the biggest annual potluck in the county.

Japatul Valley Work Delayed

The County Board of Supervisors has cancelled the proposed project regarding the realignment and widening of the Japatul Valley Road until final arrangements are made regarding rights of way with the property owners of the area.

Plans are now being formulated to have the Honor Camp construction crews improve the Lyons Valley Road which will include the entire old road. Work will begin in Lyons Valley and progress toward Highway 94 according to Howard Taylor of the County Road Department.

Editorial

It is our pleasure to present Mrs. Myrtle Hoffelder, secretary to the Alpine Chamber of Commerce. She has written our guest editorial for this week.

It has been an interesting experience working in the office of the Alpine Chamber of Commerce this past year. People stop by who have heard of Alpine from others or who have passed by many times and suddenly decide now they'll take time to investigate. They are always surprised when they leave Highway 80 and drive around the many attractive settlements scattered all over the hills.

Written inquiries come from all parts of the country and from all sorts of people, from school children soliciting information for their classes and to those who have heard of the wonderful curative powers of our superlative climate.

One of the most frustrating experiences for an enthusiastic newcomer to any small town which is beginning to show signs of growth is those underlying feuds one runs into whenever a new idea is advanced. It's a subtle and curious thing. You may be talking with someone about an idea and he's all for it. Of course, he'll help. But then you mention someone's name who might help and suddenly you've lost contact. What happened? You've run smack up against some old antagonism — and your beautiful idea falls flat. So does your enthusiasm.

It seems to me this is one of the areas in which residents of any small town emerging into a pattern of advancement and growth need to take a firm stand and work together, forgetting things which have gone before, and push forward to a new era of community cooperation.

The Chamber of Commerce could, and should, act as a coordinating agent for the various organizations and interests. Working together and supporting each other the many active groups here could achieve much better results with their respective projects with less duplication of effort.

Another thing I've noticed in Alpine is that many folks have come here to get away from responsibility they had assumed in a larger town. They'll tell you frankly they don't intend to become involved. Well as has been said, no one is an island and each one must assume some responsibility. If everyone just sat back and basked in the quiet, the beautiful scenery and the charm of our town, there would be no roads, substandard schools, no water district, library, churches, clubs or any of the things which make a community desirable.

It would surprise you to know how few of the approximately 3,500 residents of Alpine carry a Chamber of Commerce membership. Everyone knows there are things which should be done and many folks can tell you exactly what the "Chamber" should be doing — but, consider this, how can the few dedicated members achieve such perfection?

To many persons the "Chamber" is like the "Government" — not "my" responsibility, but "theirs"; not realizing that we are the "Government" and the "Chamber." In order to function properly, a Chamber of Commerce must have adequate membership, both business and residential, for financial support and for personnel to work on the various projects. Every good thing which the Chamber is able to do for Alpine will help every resident and, conversely, every thing which should be done and is not, has an adverse effect on everyone.

As I meet these many different experiences each day, I just wish I could project my own enthusiasm for the wonders of Alpine to the many persons who take them for granted and assume no responsibility toward the town where they reside, vote and call their home.

Taking into account the many organizations and needs in our community, it is a fact that there are needed many individuals who give of their time and effort in not one but many projects — and it is these who give and do so much for so many.

OPEN HOUSE

By RUTH FULLER

Remodelling chores on the little house we have acquired must take place on weekends and unoccupied evenings, because both my husband and I are otherwise employed during the day. Robert helps other people with their building activities in a variety of ways, and lately, he seems to have developed some acquisitive characteristics which include bringing home strange assortments of articles, obviously cast-offs which he is firmly convinced we might be able to use someday. Why these bits and pieces always appear to him to be heaven-sent additions to our stockpile of materials, I cannot understand.

From where I sit I have an excellent, if depressing, view of one broken and battered louvered window, an old chest of drawers needing "only a coat of paint," a huge battered and discolored fire screen (we have a small, hood-type fireplace, which the screen would literally dwarf) and a large pile of assorted lumber. This I shall not touch, having recently burned up some valuable oak or mahogany which had to be replaced at great cost, at the lumber yard.

One of my most expensive errors involved a huge cylindrical object, hideously green in color, which I found in the front yard one day when I came home from work. It was stationed directly in front of my kitchen window and I was forced to gaze at it while performing daily kitchen tasks, and I hated it. I have never seen anything so ugly. As is my wont, I said nothing and suffered in silence.

It had been there nearly a month and was obviously putting down roots, when a truckload of junkmen came by one morning and asked if I had anything to dispose of, any article I didn't want and could do without. I could hardly contain my gratification when they agreed somewhat reluctantly, to take the object I disliked so much. I was ready to give them a dollar or two as an added inducement but they said it wasn't necessary, and after spending half an hour loading it on the truck, they left, and I sat down to gloat. I was never so happy in my life. I even washed a few extra dishes to celebrate; the uncluttered view from my window was wonderful!

When Robert came home for dinner it was nearly dark and he didn't notice anything. I said tentatively: "Dear, about that thing in the front yard. . . ."

"I mean the propane tank," he replied. "I've been meaning to tell you how much I appreciate your putting up with it all this time, but your troubles are over. I have found a customer for it."

"You don't actually mean anyone would buy a gruesome thing like that," I asked incredulously.

His superior manner was annoying. "A propane tank that size with all the necessary copper, brass, pressure fittings and connections is easily worth two hundred dollars — maybe more, and I think I've sold it."

When I said "I gave it to a junk dealer this afternoon" I think it is a real tribute to my husband's kind and generous nature that he merely clenched his teeth, muttered "two hundred dollars!" a couple of times and went to bed without his dinner. That is why, no matter how cluttered and crowded we get around here, I never dispose of anything. If I am tempted, something in my subconscious whispers "two hundred dollars" and I forget the whole thing!

EDITOR'S NOTE:

Once again we have received a letter from those who are grateful for the way that Alpine responded to the needs of the young people who were stranded here on Thanksgiving Day. It is with a great deal of pleasure that we publish this letter.

To The Friendly People of Alpine
c/o Alpine Journal

Dear Friends,

We have learned about the wonderful way you helped the six stranded strangers, one of them, Kick Schouten being our son.

We express our heartfelt thanks to all of you who gave them the support they so badly needed.

Whenever you visit the old world we hope you'll see us at our place of which a picture postcard is included.

Once again our best greetings to all those who gave such an admirable example of helpfulness.

Hands across the Sea
Yours very truly,
Mr. and Mrs. Schouten

Mr. Hall said each machine will be able to sort, as well as read, at the rate of 35,000 letters an hour. The offices to get the address readers have not been announced but the local postmaster said they will have significant effects on the mail in and out of each community regardless of whether it gets the new machines. This is because they will speed incoming mail to smaller offices from major cities and step up the dispatch of mail deposited in smaller communities but which must be processed enroute at major mail massing points. The postmaster emphasized, however, introduction of the "seeing eye" device next year does not mean ZIP Code isn't already useful. "ZIP Code," he explained, "is important in mail handling under the system of mail processing already in use which will continue to be in use as the basic system at most points. These machines will be just another step - in conjunction with the mechanical mail sorting machines we have developed - to help keep pace with the growing volumes of mail. Neither will the machines endanger jobs - they will only help us meet mail expansion with minimum manpower expansion."

PLANS TO BE DISCUSSED

DESCANSO — Spring planning is just around the corner and that will be the subject for the next meeting of the Descanso PTA on January 28.

All parents and interested parties are urged to attend this meeting. The new stage curtains have been installed and a new rod was found to be needed. This was also purchased with PTA funds but the school district aided in the installation which was greatly appreciated.

Mr. Darnall, principal of the Descanso school, along with two men from Campo, assisted with the installation of the rod. To them goes a vote of thanks. And to Mr. Craig who transported the rod, go sincere thanks.

CORRESPONDENTS:

REPUBLICANS ELECT OFFICERS

JAMUL — The South Central County Chapter of the California Republican Assembly comprising Jamul and Dulzura elected the following officers for 1965 at the regular meeting held on January 15.

Chosen as president was John Jeffers. First vice president is Charles Small; second vice president, Dan Borneman; secretary, June Shrin; and the treasurer is Rose Cottam.

MEMORIAL SERVICES SCHEDULED

Friends of Carl Brenner, 84, formerly of Descanso, will be saddened to learn of his passing. He died in a Portland, Oregon hospital.

After residing in Descanso for 50 years, Mr. Brenner moved to Gold Hill, Oregon in 1960. He was the first one to occupy the Cleveland National Forest Ranger Station. He then retired to a homestead at Hulbard Grove.

Memorial services will be held Sunday, Jan. 21, at 3:00 p.m. at the Alpine Community Church, Dr. Roger Larson officiating.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Jean Peebles of El Centro and Helen Riley of La Mesa. Also two sons, George of Flint, Mich. and Walter of Gold Hill, Oregon, and Mrs. Lewis Wisler of El Cajon.

The family suggests that in lieu of flowers, contributions may be sent to: Cardio Vascular Research Laboratory, at the Providence Hospital in Seattle, Washington.

HOURS ANNOUNCED

DEERHORN VALLEY — The Deerhorn Valley Lodge announces that it will be closed except for take-out service until February 12.

PROPERTY CHANGES

DESCANSO — Escrow closed this week on the Seward cabin. The new owners are Mr. and Mrs. Lester Loeser. They plan a complete remodeling schedule in the near future.

Also, just this past week, Johnny and Mildred Van Oost acquired the Cross property which adjoins theirs, consisting of two lots and a cabin.

FAMILY REUNION

DEHESA — Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Holden are visiting the Joseph Stephens at Big Oak Ranch Frontier Town. Also visiting is Mrs. Stephens' brother and wife who are from Minnesota. Mrs. Holden is Mrs. Stephens' sister.

The Holdens drove from Bismarck, North Dakota where Mr. Holden has a welding supply business. They encountered no bad weather enroute and had a very pleasant trip. However, their French poodle, Suzzette, isn't too fond of traveling and wanted no lagging or loitering for sight-seeing.

The Holdens usually spend their winters in Florida, but this year chose Southern California.

TRAIL RIDE ANNOUNCED

The International Trail Riders Association announce their third annual 100-mile Competitive Trail Ride to be held on April 24 and 25.

The ride will start at the Lemon Grove Rod & Gun Club on the Sycuan Truck Trail south of Alpine and will end 100 miles later, at the Golden Sands Paddock at Borrego Springs.

Entry fee for this ride will be $50 with a first prize of $400, second prize of $200 third prize of $100, and trophy belt buckles for everyone who finishes the ride.

Details of this event may be obtained from either John Penn at 273-9032 or Steve Penner at 445-2973.

WATER CASE CLOSED

DESCANSO — Examiner Kent Rogers of the Public Utilities Commission held a hearing on Jan. 20 at the Descanso school regarding the operation of the Hulbard Grove Water Co.

After testimony by many water users, the case was officially closed by Mr. Rogers. It now goes to the Commission in San Francisco with recommendations of a lower monthly water rate and an order to the owner, A. G. Hinds to bring this system up to P. U. C. standards.

WARDROBE PARTY HELD FOR FIRE VICTIM

HARBISON CANYON — Rose Anderson had a fire in her home last week. And during this fire, all of her clothes were lost, as they were hanging in a closet next to the furnace where the fire originated.

In a real act of neighborliness, her friends gathered in the home of Mary Strope last Thursday and they had a party. It was not the usual type of party, but rather a work party. All came armed with material to be made into new garments and clothes to be remodeled. And since it was the birthday of Rose Anderson, they also had a party for that anniversary.

And when it was all over, the wardrobe that Rose had lost, was close to being complete again.

In a true spirit of giving help where it is needed, these friends responded when help was needed.

HERE and THERE

Just about two weeks ago, Jerry Evans, riding Florida Lea IV, owned by Willow Glen Farms, was high point rider at the Lakeside Frontiers' Riders show. This is the second high-point Jerry has won on this young mare since R. H. Blue Bonnet was temporarily retired to have her foal. . . . And by the way, a more perfect and livelier little filly we have never seen! And, as we understand, Lisa Pierce came up with a lot of awards at that same show in Lakeside. Lisa is becoming a wonderful horsewoman, according to the experts we've talked to. . . . Bea Funk left last Thursday to be with her mother who has become seriously ill again. She resides in the mid-West and Bea flew to be at her side. Our prayer is that we will have better news to report about her condition next week. . . . Carmen Hoistad has also gone to be with her ailing mother who lives in Mexicali. Carmen was called in the middle of the night last week and rushed to be with her mother who had a serious heart attack. She improved slightly but after a quick trip home on Sunday, Carmen returned so that she could be with her mother as much as possible in the days ahead. Our best to Carmen and her family. . . . Ben and Vera Cerveny say that their daughter and son-in-law leave for Germany where their son-in-law's father has been seriously ill. He is reported somewhat improved but they felt it best to go at this time. . . . Al Hinkle Jr., along with all the other college students in the area, is burning the midnight oil in anticipation of final exams. When they are all over he will begin training for what we are sure will be a wonderful and successful season with a farm club of the Los Angeles Angels. . . . Another one on the sick list: Bill Brown of Pierce Realty office in town, is checking in for a more or less routine operation. But any operation is serious and we're all remembering Bill and trust he will have a speedy recovery. . . . And who is the handsome bachelor who has joined the ranks of the married folks recently? We are all waiting to hear more about him and his lovely bride. . . . Mrs. Stan Noice, of Alpine reports that her cousin, Mrs. Gertrude Ramsdell, died in Ocotillo last week. She was noted for her dramatic ability and played the lead in the first production of "The Winning of Barbara Worth." Her home was in Redford, Mich, and she wintered in Ocotillo. . . . The handsome couple dancing the "Anniversary Waltz" at the Kiwanis installation dinner dance was none other than Van and Fred Rushing. It was their -- anniversary. We're not telling how many, because actually, they looked like teenagers. . . . And speaking of teenagers, Bud Cooper and Al Adams along with their lovely wives didn't appear to be very far from the teenage as they danced the "Twist" at the same affair Saturday night.

And up Descanso way, we learn that Dorothy and Noel Loomis left for three weeks in Mexico. Sounds like a wonderful vacation is in store for them. . . . And congratulations to Margaret Van Oost who gave birth to a 9 1/2-pound baby boy. We understand Mother and son are doing beautifully. . . . Heard that chain saw lately? In case you're interested, it belongs to the Stanley Browns and they have been removing a large dead oak on their property. Mr. Brown, now retired from the Navy, is planning inside remodeling soon. . . . Anyone passing the old Town Hall will notice the grounds are clean and that cars are coming and going. The reason is that Boo Bibb has opened an upholstery shop there. . . . Good to see Thor Simpson getting around after his recent heart attack. Son Paul was home for a few days before returning to his U. S. Army base. . . . The Tom Head family have a new addition to their family, namely Cleo, a 3-year-old doxie. . . . And the "Speed" Wilson's have left for Japan for an extended tour of duty there.

Roy Wallin, our correspondent from down Deerhorn Valley Way sends the following: "This hain't one of 'em continuous daytime serials, but for you Doubtin' Thomases and Thomasinas that read the story in my column last week about Charley Armstrong's man-to-cat encounter with a 40-pound bog-cat and are a wee bit skeptical—here's visual proof that Charley, the ex-officio mayor of Monte Robles Acres, emerged the victor. . . . And about encounters between man and beast, Bill Hensley came out with the upper hand agin a rattler, but he ain't quite sure HOW! Two weekends ago, Bill was in the brush in the lower valley and felt a sharp prick on his upper arm. He dismissed it as a thorn and never bothered even to look. After feeling out of sorts for a few days, he noticed a black area around his upper arm — a closer examination revealed the two tell-tale punctures of a rattler bite, but seeing as how he was feeling better, t'weren't no reason to worry about it anymore. Talk about tough mountain men! Wonder if the rattler lived??? . . . The intermittent sprinkles we've experienced so far this year have initiated an epidemic of roofing activities in the community so we should be all set for the BIG RAIN of '65 which is due anytime now (let's hope!!)

A few more notes from Descanso. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Milton Pierce of North Dakota visited over the past weekend with Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Meir. Mr. Pierce is the brother of Mrs. Meir. . . . The C. E. Eubanks are in the process of moving into their recently completed home. It's located directly across from Oakzanita on Highway 79. May we wish you good health and much happiness in your new home. . . . And it's welcome to Descanso, Mr. and Mrs. "Al" Allen, formerly of Jamul. "Al" is in the Navy and stationed at the Naval Training Center. . . . And our correspondent from Descanso, Elva Rehdorf adds a note: "To the person who sent in some items for this column this week, I wish to express my appreciation. Thanks!

Mary Strope, another correspondent, is very ill this week, but she managed to bet in a few notes that will be of interest. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Carter Kiser have recently moved back to the area after having spent several months in Sequoia. The Kisers are now full-fledged parents, with the final adoption of their little son, John Robert. Needless to say, they are a pair of the proudest parents we know. . . . The Willis' at Gunsmoke Ranch have been losing ducks and livestock

EL CAPITAN

By COLEEN MOORE

The students that will be going to Santana High School in the fall are really busy. They will be voting on the school theme from the following, Condors, Conquistadores, Sentinels, Saxons, and Thunderbirds. After the theme has been chosen, then the student body will vote on the school colors from the following list, black, blue and white; Blue, green, white; Green and green and white; Blue and orange; and green and silver. Next fall they will be rivals of El Capitan but we wish them luck in all this advance planning.

Our teams didn't do so well this past Friday. Monte Vista was too strong for us in basketball and wrestling. Our basketball team lost in a heart breaking overtime period. We hope our team will be in the winning column when Monte Vista plays at El Cap.

We are all looking forward to exams this year. Not because we think they will be easy, but because we are going to have a new schedule. Before the tests were given over three full days, but this year we will have two exams a day and school will be in session just a half day. School will be dismissed at 12:30 after the second exam. Everyone will have more time to study.

apparently caused by predatory animals. Traps were set on the property by a State Trapper. They recently caught one of the culprits, a large bob-cat.

Harbison Canyon's correspondent, Lorna Ferguson, tells us that the Firemen's Auxiliary wishes to thank all who turned out and supported them at their fund raising chili dinner. "You who missed the affair, missed some very delicious chili and a very wide variety of pie that melted in the mouth. . . . The teen group took advantage of an invitation to a party at the Frank Vidal home Saturday night. The kids enjoyed dancing and of course the refreshments! . . . The boys of the Teen Club who appeared at the bake sale with their goods proved themselves real fine cooks and the merchandise didn't last long. The girls lived up to their end of the bargain and added quite a little cash to their treasury through the collecting and cashing of pop vottles. . . . Viki Cartwright, Kay McFarland, of Pine Valley, and this correspondent, Lorna Ferguson, enjoyed a couple of days visiting in the Imperial Valley and fishing at the Salton Sea last week. The weather man favored us with sunshine and a real good time was enjoyed. . . . Former canyonites, Bill and Jane Mockler, and Rube and Dorothy Baker were visiting friends locally last week and over last weekend. Bill and Jane reside in Ocean Beach and Rube and Dorothy most of the time reside along the Colorado in a trailer at whichever place they fancy, for fishing and fun. . . . The hospitals around the area have been far too popular during the last couple of weeks, having confined several of our local residents, Mrs. Hilda Naylor, at El Cajon Valley; Mr. Paul Cress, Naval Hospital; and Mr. Cole, County. We're glad to report that all have returned home and are feeling better with the exception of Mrs. Arnold and we hope she will be home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Deitrich of Salem, Ill., are visiting Mrs. Crystal of the Willows and will continue on to their daughter's home in Newhall. . . . Mr. Brabazon is getting over the flu. . . . Mrs. Caroline Thanner, the recent winner of the Empire Market's $25 cash drawing, has as her guest, her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schneider. They are spending the winter in California. . . . Mr. H. H. Hunter reports that his son just made it over the Jacumba pass before it was closed. . . . It was learned that Carl Fisher of San Diego, who owns property at the Willows, is planning soon to build. . . . Miriam Schultze, sister of Mrs. J. A. Pinkerton, spent three weeks with her other sister, Eva Long, in the East. Now Mrs. Long is spending three months in Alpine with her two sisters. . . . The Gamma Gammas had a very enjoyable bowling social early this week. And on Feb. 6, they are planning a party for the husbands. Should be quite a night. . . . Theater goers from our community enjoyed a performance of "Auntie Mame" at the Civic Arts Theater Sunday. The party included Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Rood, the Joe Lyman, the John Peters, Mrs. Marian Schultze, Mrs. Eva Long, and Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Lore. . . . And weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Peters were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford DeVore. These folks all are former Grinnell, Iowa residents.

Life would be a lot tougher if every work day made a man as tired as a holiday.

GAME AND DANCE

M. E. Redskins will meet a long-time rival, the Holtville Vikings, next Friday, Jan. 29, for a basketball game.

Directly following the game the Junior class will sponsor a Sock-Hop. This is one of the many activities the class has planned to raise money for this year's Prom.

We hope both game and dance are a smashing success.

FINAL EXAMS

Many students at Mountain Empire have already started to chew nails for final examinations, especially the Seniors. For many of them, these will be their final grades sent to the colleges they plan to enter next year.

Here's hoping we all pass and the Seniors do extremely well.

The January Ladies Luncheon was held on January 20. The beautiful camellias used for table decorations were grown by Bess Christian. Guests were Lee Henderson, Rena Andrews, daughter-in-law of Rose Andrews and Dorothy Hampden, daughter of Eva Mumford. New road captains were selected and Rose Ginder will be our hospitality chairman.

A pot luck dinner was set for Saturday, Feb. 6, at 6 p.m. at the clubhouse. Birthdays will be celebrated on the fourth Wednesday of the month. Rose Ginder and Lil Leinhaupel will be co-hostess for the January Tea. Dorothy Lambert will pour. Our annual Sweetheart Luncheon will take place on Wednesday, Feb. 17. Rose Ginder, Eva Mumford, Nettie Howe, Clara Dauer and Lil Leinhaupel will be on committees.

Mr. and Mrs. William Keeling have deserted the park for their home in Mesa, Arizona. Houseguests of the Jim Carpenters were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gable of Phoenix, Arizona.

Over eating can develop formation of adipose tissue (fat) and is not useful for energy when put in storage. (Excessive deposit in tissue). You must utilize it (burn it up) to produce energy, vitality and strength, by work.

Fatty tissue stored in the body is deposited in every part, including the heart muscle, making that organ less able to function normally.

Circulation is impeded and the whole physical being deteriorates. Don't dig your grave with your teeth!
