EDUCATION PROJECT NEARS COMPLETION

The Gammas Gammas have just about completed their educational program for the coming year. Each member is assigned a country. She does research work, finds out the geographical points of view, mannerisms of the people, and all of the interesting facts about the country and then reports it at one of their meetings. In charge of the Educational Program for the year is Mrs. Verlie Boyd.

Judy and George Rios have moved from their home on old Highway 80 to the Circle trailer court in Alpine.

V. F. W. BARBEQUE

All of you who attended the V. F. W. barbecue that was held recently will remember what good food and entertainment were provided. Now is time for those who did attend and those who were not lucky enough to, to attend a new V. F. W. barbecue. It will be lasting until everything is gone.

SPECIAL V. F. W. MEETING

Attention all V. F. W. members. There will be a special meeting in the V. F. W. Hall Friday night at 8:00 P. M. All members are urged to attend.

BASE BALL TRYOUTS

Tryouts were held again last Saturday on the new ballfield. Thirty seven boys were signed up in the ten and eleven year old group. Any boy who failed to attend the first two tryouts is welcome next Saturday March 26, to register. Every boy who registers will be placed on a team.

On Sunday the fifteen through eighteen age group held their tryouts. Thirteen boys were signed. Another tryout will be held next Sunday, March 27, for the same age group to see if additional boys will show up.

Last Sunday the septic tank for the ballfield was installed. The following men put in a hard day's work; Kenny Drennon, Mr. De Long, Ed Michaels, Ted Whitt, Gene Wilcox, Basil Spears, Larry Wilcox, Gordon Gilroy, Bill House, Tom Nichols and John Gilroy.

Thanks go to Malcolm Huey who hauled our cement blocks up Saturday for the septic tank.

BETTER HIGHWAYS

A fast through Freeway to San Diego will be one step closer with the opening of bids on the new Freeway through El Cajon.

Two-and-nine-tenths miles of four-lane freeway which are being currently advertised for bid will extend between 0.2 mile west of Magnolia Avenue and 0.2 mile east of Third Ave. in the city of El Cajon, De-kema said. This will complete the freeway through El Cajon.

The bids, to be opened in Los Angeles on April 21, 1960, will provide diamond type interchanges at Mollison and 2nd Avenues, while grade-separation bridges will pass Bal-lantyne Lane and First Street under the new freeway. A half diamond interchange with ramps on the east will be constructed at Third Avenue, in addition to a temporary connection to join U. S. 80 at Broadway.

A pedestrian overcrossing at Grape Street will also be a portion of the contract. This, along with other currently budgeted or under construction projects, will provide 17 miles of continuous, full freeway between Taylor Street in San Diego and Third Street in East El Cajon.

Phil Hall, Postmaster, went on a Navy cruise to Long Beach last weekend. He said it was so foggy coming back they had to creep most of the way.

Tryouts:

March 26, 8 to 9 years, 1:00
March 27, 15 to 18 years, 1:00

GARDENER'S CHECKLIST

By the California Assoc. of Nurserymen

1. It's suprising how fast March winds can dry the ground out after a rain. Be sure to water thoroughly and not just wet the top soil if signs of drying shows up.
2. A good feeding will do wonders for a needy lawn.
3. Feed Azaleas and Camellias with acid food as they go out of bloom. Hold off on Rhododendrons so as not to force new growth to interfere with the bloom.
4. Most leafy salad vegetables and many others, too, are available as seedlings for easy transfer to your kitchen garden.
5. Start lawns now and next month. Your needs from a lawn may vary from your neighbor's. Check it out with a C.A.N. nurseryman before planting.

Rossie Schakett, an eighth grade student is staying with her aunt, Mrs. Jodie Mayes, owner of the Tulip Cafe in Alpine. Miss Schakett is formerly from Ohio and Arizona.

Al Hinkle, owner of Al Hinkle's Lumber and Ranch Supplies, is home from the hospital and is doing nicely. It's good to see him up and around.

Reenie and Al Adams flew to San Francisco over the weekend to attend a meeting of personnel of the Nicholas Turkey Breeding Farms.

Mr. & Mrs. Hugh Trail would like to thank their many wonderful friends who sent cards, prayed for and were concerned about the health of Mr. Trail. Hugh is home now and is improving.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS

In a brief meeting the Governing Board of the Alpine Union School District disposed of routine matters and approved a contract with the County to continue operation of a special training class.

They also heard a progress report on the new Harbison Canyon School and a summary of construction costs to date. The Board approved in principal the issuance of a Certificate of Attendance in lieu of a diploma to eighth grade students who fail to complete the required course of study.

They also considered briefly the advisability of a summer school and approved contracts for John McManus and Jeanette Clemets as substitute bus drivers.

ALPINE KIWANIS

By La Verne Crosby

Ki-wan-is, an Indian name meaning to build, is the name of a service club for men. This club has been in existence in Alpine since 1915, and today is a very active organization.

Without the aid of this group, many of our worth-while community projects would have never been accomplished, for with the Kiwanis support we now have our Youth Center, Baseball field, tennis court at the Youth Center and our Boy Scouts. By saying this, I do not mean that the Kiwanis alone have taken the responsibility of these projects. It took practically every organization in Alpine to start and complete these undertakings, but the Kiwanis, like so many others, have donated their time and money to these projects.

Besides the Youth Center and the new ballfield, they also have done a great deal for our youth through a committee headed by Clarence Gillson and entitled "Boys and Girls". The Kiwanis have sponsored a Little League team since the League was formed and their team won the championship in 1957 and 1958. They sponsor the Boy Scout troop under the direction of Wallace N. Kent and Clarence Gillson. They also send Christmas baskets to the needy in Alpine and maintain a children's fund to buy needy children clothing and shoes.

Vocational Guidance, under the leadership of Warren Strohte and Raymond Baker, has to do with foreign exchange students. Other committees in the club are program and music, Eugene Sauter; agriculture and conservation, James Gavin; public and business affairs, Dr. Earl C. (continued on page 5)

Your Legislator At Work

by Assemblyman Jack Schrade

Despite the Sputnik-created concern over the quality of our public system of higher education, it is still difficult for us in Legislature to work out acceptable changes in the machinery.

A liaison group from the University, the state colleges and public junior colleges spent months developing a master plan for the future of our public higher education. Because one of the proposed changes would require a constitutional amendment, two different measures were drafted for the purpose which varied mostly in length and detail as originally introduced.

Each would define public higher education as consisting of three segments, the junior college, the state colleges, and the University of Calif. The functions of each of the three would be spelled out. A new board, the Trustees of the State College System, would be created to administer such institutions, and the terms of its members fixed at 16 years, the same as University regents. A new coordinating council for higher education, composed of representatives of private as well as public colleges, would be established as an advisory group.

But when these proposed constitutional amendments first came up for committee hearings, it quickly became Gladys Jennings had a Stanley party in her home last Wednesday afternoon. Those attending were Joanne Nichols, Margie Cooper, Ruth Chynoweth, Elna Bratt, Leona Wilcox, all from Alpine, and Agnes Rice from Point Loma.

A surprise party was given Joanne Nichols Tuesday morning as a birthday present. Those who helped her celebrate were Margie Cooper, Gladys Jennings, Leta Judd, Lolaine Huey, Ruth Chynoweth and Bobby Whitt.

Wallace Way's father died of a heart attack while visit-relatives in Phoenix. He was on his way to Alpine with Wally's sister to visit.

apparent that there was practically no agreement on the recommendations of the liaison group.

A series of amendments to both measures were offered which would have the effect of removing from them practically everything except the provisions creating the state college trustees, and the length of their terms of office. It was said that these amendments were offered so that the Legislature might retain as much as possible of its authority to control the functions of state colleges.

Action on these proposals was deferred until a second meeting of the committee. At that time the group was told by our legislative counsel that the only element which would legally require a constitutional amendment was fixing the terms of the trustees at more than four years. As a result the committee promptly voted to put as many of the other changes as possible into a bill already introduced as part of the master plan program, and to send both amendments and bill out for reprint so the group could consider constitutional and statutory changes separately.

This year the Kiwanis are going all out for what they call CQ "Citizenship Quotient". This means they are promoting Citizenship, Government and more moral living in every way. They are urging people to vote and to be aware of the dangers of Communism.

The Kiwanis not only help out with youth work in the community but through their program they are learning and practicing good citizenship. Let's all help this worthy organization by attending their annual Easter Breakfast, on April 17th, at the Alpine Youth Center from 8:00 A. M. until 11:00. The proceeds from this breakfast will go to help our youth of this community.

Mrs. Harriet Lewiston, with her four children, Pamela, Calvin, Peggy and Peter are leaving Friday, March 25, to join her husband, Commander William Andrew Lewiston in Levittown, New Jersey.

Mrs. Lewiston, who owns her home on Tavern Road says that they have enjoyed their stay in Alpine, met some wonderful people, and they are looking forward to the day when they will return.

Mr. & Mrs. Murphy Collins are back from their honeymoon in Baytown, Texas, and are now visiting the bride's parents, Mr. & Mrs. Lee Roper. They will be here until Friday and then they will move into their new home in Oceanside.

Mr. & Mrs. George Kruger, from George, Iowa, visited Kenny and Leona Drennon recently. Mr. & Mrs. Kruger are Leona Drennon's cousins.

HOUSE BURNED TO GROUND IN DESCANSO

About 10:30 P.M. Monday evening the Descanso home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas F. Ricketts burned to the ground. The cause of the blaze is unknown. The building and contents were a complete loss. The fire was confined to the Rickett's house despite the nearness of other houses and buildings.

Almost a week earlier a strong wind had blown a large oak limb across the roof of the Rickett's home and caused considerable damage to the roof. Repairs to the roof were underway. Fortunately the Ricketts were staying with neighbors at the time of the fire. Insurance will cover only a portion of the loss.

Fire crews from the Descanso Ranger Station of the U.S. Forestry Service responded and aided in preventing the spread of the blaze into surrounding water shed. The Forest Service will attempt to control structural fires although it is primarily trained, equipped and legally responsible for water shed fire protection. An example of these responsibilities would be cases where burning buildings had caused fire to spread into a surrounding water shed. Assuming there is no risk of life involved the forestry service would have to control the water shed fire before attempting control of building fires.

Communities desiring improved fire protection have formed fire districts or volunteer fire departments to supplement the water shed protection.

If you think the town is being invaded by "Beatniks" Saturday night, don't get alarmed, it's just the Gamma Gammas having a "Beatnik" party in the home of Reenie and Al Adams.
