EAGLE FIRE

Over the weekend good neighbors in Guatay and Pine Valley gathered clothing and household goods to help Steve Kurczodyna, his wife, and three small children start housekeeping again. Fire destroyed their cabin home at the Eagle Mine last Thursday night. Forest Service Lookout Roy Morrison spotted the flames and called the Forest Service Fire

COMMUNITY CHURCH GUILD

BAZAAR-RUMMAGE SALE NOV. 5 Plan to save money by doing your Christmas shopping early at the bazaar to be held Saturday, Nov. 5, in Fuller Hall, on Marshall Road,
in Alpine, starting at 10 A. M.

The Ladies Guild of the Alpine Community Church have been working all year for this annual event. Proceeds will go toward the church educational building - a worthwhile project for the youth of the area.

A luncheon ($1.) will be served starting at 11:30 A. M. The main course will be a turkey casserole with homemade pumpkin pie at the end of the meal, according to Esther Francisco, kitchen chairman. Edna Schaeffer is dining room chairman.
Grace Palmer, overall chairman, announces the following chairmen:
Phyllis Sheppard and Lelie Hoggart, food table; Helene Allen and Gladys Waldon, candy; Fern Latham, plants.

There will also be a white elephant table and a rummage section with good useable clothing for the entire family.

Fighters units, but the cabin was a total loss. Fortunately Mrs. Kurczodyna awakened in time to escape with their children. Steve and his partner returned from evening work at the mine to find the cabin afire.
Although they were unable to save the building or belongings they did prevent the fire from spreading.

Many contributions have already been made to help re-establish the family home. Mrs. John Pingley, Red Cross representative, says they will help with essential food and children's clothing.

EL CAPITAN

PARENTS TO VISIT SCHOOL

It will be back-to-school night tonight at El Capitan when the parents will have an opportunity to visit their students' fourth through sixth period classes. "It's High Time to Preview Education" is the theme for the evening's P. T. A. meeting.
Special guests will be the A. S. B. officers. Program will start in the Foster Gym at 7:30 P. M.

YOUR VOTE?

We, your Editors, respect your right to make your own political decision but we offer the following suggestions to help you make decisions.

1. Do not judge any candidate by his words. Words are cheap and the least responsible candidate will usually be the most generous with his promises.

2. Do judge a candidate by his associates. Just who are his business friends. To what kind of a social crowd does he belong. What are his family connections.

3. Do judge a candidate by his record. Any fool can talk big but the things a man has done are the best indication of the things he is likely to do.

Actions speak louder than words.

Man does not live by bread alone, but by faith, by admiration, by sympathy.

MOVIE AT KIWANIS TONIGHT

The movie "Canada's Pacific Gateway" will be shown this evening at the Alpine Kiwanis Club, according to the evening's chairman, Renny Hollett. Meeting begins with a dinner at 7 P.M. in Fuller Hall.

The board of directors of the club will meet after the regular meeting.

ABOUT ALPINE

by CAROL WILCOX - HI 5-2353

Speaking for the children, teenagers and even adults of Alpine -- "Thank You" to the Alpine P. T. A. board for the wonderfully successful Halloween party Monday night. Fine organizations such as this one keep children off the streets and out of trouble. Thanks again!

El Capitan High School celebrated its first birthday October 29. The day began with a barbecue sponsored by the Lakeside Kiwanis. A sportsorama movie followed. Then a teenage dance, "The Witches Wiggle," was held in Foster Gym. Joan Rowan, junior, was named Campus Witch.

Elna Bratt and Marion Moats were awarded ten gallons of gas as first prize in the costume parade at the Gamma Gamma Halloween party held October 29 at the Al Adams home. They came dressed as African Pigmies. Members and husbands had costumes ranging from Indian to Beatnik. All report a wonderful time.

John Talamantes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rix, left October 30 for Korea, where he will be stationed for 13 months. His wife, Margie, and two children of Johnstown, await his return.

Don't forget the opportunity offered by the El Capitan Annual Staff to sponsor a page in the annual. What better way is there to do something for the teenagers of our community? Call Carol at HI 5-2353 for further information.

If a man write a better book, preach a better sermon, or make a better mousetrap than his neighbor, tho' he build his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten path to his door.

CAMPO NEWS

by FAY FARRIS GR 8-5396
The Board of Directors of the Mt. Empire Republican Women met at the home of Muriel Utt in Pine Valley on Monday, October 24, and the following were present: President, Gertrude Haskell; vice-president, Pat Chase; secretary, Muriel Utt, treasurer, Mollie Martin; program chairman, Fay Farris, and past president, Mary Kerns. The meeting followed refreshments of delicious fresh pumpkin pie and coffee. It was decided to have the next regular meeting on Thursday, November 3 at the Hobart House at 9:30 A. M., which will be a breakfast meeting--$1.25 per person, including tax and tip.

The public was invited to an ice cream social at the Eltinge Ranch, east of Alpine on Saturday, October 29, which was given for Assemblyman Jack Schrade. A large crowd attended, and the Mt. Empire was well-represented.

Aunt Minnie Spencer of Pine Valley fell on Sunday evening,

October 23, and pulled her arm out of the sockey and broke a portion of bone. She was rushed to El Cajon Valley Hospital and they were successful in putting the arm and bone back in place. She is 87 years old and broke her wrist less than a year ago from which she recovered nicely. It is reported she is doing very well this time. She was chosen "Woman of the Year" for 1960 by the Mt. Empire Woman's Club.

Mrs. Paul Andrews is now home after major surgery and a 2 1/2 weeks stay in Mercy Hospital. She lives at Rancho del Campo where her husband is a member of the of the staff at the school. We all wish her a speedy recovery.

The Mt. Empire Woman's Club surprised its members with another "Come as you are" breakfast on Wednesday morning, October 26, at the home of Ruth Lawrence in Lake Morena. There were twenty members present, and a delicious breakfast of bacon, scrambled eggs, toast, doughnuts and coffee was served by the hostess assisted by Gertrude Haskell. The mystery prize was won by Ruth Mullins. A report was made on the food sale and bazaar luncheon held by the club on Saturday, October 22, at the Fire Station in Pine Valley, and the members wish to thank everyone who attended and made the affair the success that it was.

The new square dance class sponsored by the Mt. Whirlers at the Campo Club House is meeting all the expectations of the club. The second class was held on Wednesday, October 26, and there were four full squares and a few extra. Most of the members of the class are Mt. Empire High School students and they have promised to have at least six squares at the next class on Wednesday, Nov. 2. They are a very enthusiastic crowd and seem to be having a wonderful time. Fred Geiser is the new caller and is doing a fine job.

Announcement is made of the wedding of Ronnie Merman of Campo and Peggy Nelson of Lemon Grove to be held in Las Vegas on Saturday, November 19.

The Explorer group of Scouts held a hay ride party and dance on Saturday evening, October 29, at the Stone House in Campo.

Mothers have been asked to accompany their children to the first class of ballet, tap, and acrobatic dancing at the Mt. Whirlers Square Dance Hall in Campo on Thursday, November 3, at 2:30 P. M. All ages are welcome.

DESCANSO OLDTIMER DIES
Winfield V. (Doc) Barkley, 87, of Manzanita Lane in Descanso died Sunday in a rest home in El Cajon. A native of Wisconsin, he lived in San Diego County for 61 years. He retired after 25 years as public relations executive for Bank of America. He is survived by a son, James V., Descanso, and two grandchildren. He was an honorary member of the El Cajon Rotary Club, served on the board of directors of the El Cajon and San Diego Chambers of Commerce. Paris Mortuary was in charge of funeral arrangements with Rev. L. Lax officiating, assisted by Rev. Charles Condeer. Burial will be in Greenwood. Friends are asked to contribute to the heart fund, rather than sending flowers. Services will be private.

CHECKERS: Paint ordinary bottle caps with red and black paint.
MOTH BALL CONTAINER: Punch a number of holes in an adhesive bandage can. Put a string through 2 holes near the top for the handle. Paint.

CLOTHES SPRINKLER: Paint and decorate an empty beverage can and insert a sprinkler head.
TOTE BAG: Material: plastic cottage cheese container, needle, felt, glue and cord. Using a hot needle make 2 opposite holes in sides, one in lid of a 16-oz. plastic container. Cut felt to fit lid, make hole, decorate with sequins and glue on. Run cord through side holes and knot ends on outside. Bring center of cord up through lid.

SALT BOX BANK: Cut felt strip to fit sides of salt box; applique with animal motifs. Place around box; sew ends. Cut felt top and bottom circles. Make corresponding coin slits in bottom of box and on circle (bank top). Sew on circles. Use spout for emptying.

PLASTIC TAPE NECKLACE: Snip off an 1 1/2 inch piece of tape, fold over 1/2 inch, sticky side in. Roll into small tube. Each tube is a bead. After rolling enough tubes apply red nail polish to 1/2 of each tube. When polish dries string the beads by forcing needle through tubes about 3/8 inch from one end. Bracelet can be made same way.
PICTURE FRAMES: Serving trays make excellent frames. Trim picture to fit and cement it in. Wall hangers or stands can be made from stiff cardboard and cemented to the back.

SPOOL AND BOBBIN BLOCK: 3/4 inch wooden block and 16 d. nails. Drive the nails through the block and file of points. It is a good idea to drill pilot holes for the nails to avoid splitting the block.

and adults to obtain either the first two years of college or technical vocational training for specific jobs in the community, combined with counseling services. If approved, it will provide every individual throughout our community with a better chance to develop his capabilities to the benefit of the individual the family and the country. "Everyone is agreed that success in life depends more and more upon an improved educational program," said Lewis F. Smith, district superintendent of the Grossmont Union High School District at a meeting of the Bostonia Women's Club Wednesday.

P. 8, ALPINE ECHO, Nov. 3, 1960

The community junior college brings education within reach of many who would otherwise be squeezed out by the ever increasing restrictions upon college enrollments or by the high costs involved for tuition and for living expenses away from home. Dr. Darrell Holmes of San Diego State College has estimated the college will lack facilities for 5000 students by 1966. This, combined with potential college enrollment increases from this area of 2000 in 1960 to 6750 in 1969, further illustrates the need for the junior college.

The cost per student served will be lowered if the proposed junior college district is formed. Estimates for increased property taxes of 9¢, 23¢ and 30¢ in succeeding years includes junior college service for more than twice the number of students who now attend junior colleges elsewhere. (Primarily San Diego Junior College.) At present we are charged 24¢ per $100 valuation to pay San Diego and other districts the cost of operation plus a property use tax of $300 per year per full time student. Because a local junior college district can and will operate a junior college program as efficiently and at costs as low as in other districts, the big saving to the local taxpayer will come in the cost for facilities.

The property use charge of $300 per student which is now paid will end as soon as a local district is formed. The state wide average cost for junior college buildings is $3000 per student. San Diego estimates adequate facilities can be constructed for $2000 per student. Therefore, to provide a space in a junior college plant will require an investment of from $2000 to $3000.

Although buildings serve for a

forty-year period, the cost of providing space for a student in our own district, closer to the student's home, is estimated on a 20-year basis. The cost per year would be $3000 divided by 20 or $150, plus 4% interest charges of $60, making a total of $210. This is a saving of $90 per student for classrooms if Proposition O is approved. This will amount to $2,700,000 for 1500 students over a 20-year period.

The state has adopted a master plan for higher education which will limit the expansion of the state colleges and the university. These institutions will limit their enrollments, forcing many students who need an opportunity for a college education to find a place in a community junior college. Since junior college costs are lower than in the state colleges, state funds are saved. All pay state taxes and participate in this saving.

However, it is clear that the state has allowed an unfair proportion of the tax burden for junior colleges to be placed upon the local property tax. The state pays 88% of the operation costs for state colleges, but only 29% for the junior colleges. Legislation has been drafted which would increase this proportion. Because this is more equitable, prospects of passage in the next session of the legislature are favorable. "We agree with those who want to see the financing of the junior college strengthened at the state level," said Smith.

The freedom of elementary districts to enter into different types of school district organization will be unchanged by the formation of a junior college district except that regardless of such changes, they will be a part of the junior college district. Because of the services offered by the junior college and because taxes for non-junior college areas may become greater, it is unlikely that any area included in a junior college district would desire to withdraw.

Proposition "O"
School Election

VOTERS

November, 8
1960

Formation of a Junior College District comprising same area as Grossmont Union High School District

Why Vote "YES" ?

To create a legal entity with authority to:

Bring to within a district-wide scope, from the present state-wide scope, the making of decisions regarding grade 13 & 14 education for our high school graduates.

Provide for education of pupils in 13th & 14th grades (Mandatory for J. C. Dists.) and levy taxes on property in the district to pay costs (except as paid from state funds—currently approximately 10%-30% in junior colleges).

Establish and maintain 1 or more junior colleges (mandatory for junior college districts).

Subject to approval by 2/3 of voters in a special election, issue bonds up to 5% of the value of taxable property in district, for junior college construction, and levy taxes for redemption.

Accept, expend, and repay state school building funds, subject to specific approval by voters.

Annex other districts and establish a separate governing board and administration for a junior college district.

All people benefit from the education that students obtain in our public schools, and every taxpayer pays taxes to provide it. Generally, voters and taxpayers are the same people. Therefore, everyone benefits, everyone pays, and those who take advantage of their opportunities, vote.

If every voter studies the facts - decides - then votes intelligently this election will truly express the desire of the people in Grossmont Union High School District.

This information is offered in the interest of truth in school election issues.

I have obtained it during 3 years of membership on the GUHS Dist. Citizens Advisory Committee and from my own individual research. I paid the cost of this advertisement out of my own personal funds earned while a resident of GUHS District.

Why Vote "NO" ?

To refrain from duplication of higher education facilities and curriculum that are the responsibility of state college and university establishments.

To oppose increase in percentage of education costs supported by property taxes.

To attain maximum effective education per tax dollar expended. (Existence of a J. C. Dist. does not cause lowest costs for equivalent education).

To avoid risk of a J. C. Dist. but no J. C. if this proposal wins and a subsequent bond election fails. The "big money" on both sides of this issue is being reserved for use, if necessary, in a bond election battle where 1 "NO" vote would equal 2 "YES" votes).

To minimize risk of being unable to subsequently reorganize component elementary districts according to the desires of individual communities. (Cal. Ed. Code specifies less freedom to reorganize after formation of a junior college district, than before).

To strive for self-determination in all public school affairs, by the voters in individual communities; including whether or not to be in a J. C. dist., and whether or not to have a grade 13 & 14 educational program within the community.

If men would consider not so much wherein they differ, as wherein they agree, there would be far less uncharitableness and angry feeling in the world.
—Joseph Addison

LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

Those who attended the Alpine P. T. A. carnival could not but help notice that Alpine now boasts an 'all ham-and-marrow-bone' actor in the form of Jack, the burro, who lived it up while over 300 boys and girls climbed aboard to have their pictures taken. His dear departed fellow-traveler, in the form of the mannikin burro (stuffed to us old timers) in the gold-panning department, took matters in a calmer stride.

This 'Alphonse and Gaston' combination was the generous contribution of Sleepy Hollow Ranch.

For those who were really concerned whether the camera flashlight would leave Jack wally-eyed, have no concern. Just 24 hours before, nearly 1000 children had climbed aboard him down on the ranch, and the dear old ham loved every minute of it. In fact, he can't stand to be alone. When the two burros (dead and alive) were loaded back on their truck for the return trip to Sleepy Hollow, Jack brayed... probably in protest that the evening had ended so soon.

SMILE A WHILE

by Jackie Welty

Postmaster Hall: You have too much postage on this package.

Lady: Gracious, I hope it won't go too far!

Little Boy: I don't get a holiday, and my brother does.

Man: But why don't you have one?

Little Boy: Because I'm not old enough to go to school.

Mr. Jarrett: Does the question bother you, Forrest?

Forrest: Oh, no, sir. The question is quite clear. It's the answer that troubles me.

RIDDLES:

1. What are the three quickest ways of spreading news?

2. What is white when it is dirty, and black when it is clean?

3. What has a head, feet and tail like a cat but isn't a cat?

4. Why is an orange like a bell?

ANSWERS

1. Telephone, telegram, tell a girl.

2. A blackboard.

3. A kitten.

4. Because it peels.

POLIO SHOTS AVAILABLE

Next Monday evening there will be another polio clinic at El Capitan High School. Shots at $1, each will be available in the band room from 6 to 8 P. M. Your P. T. A. with the cooperation of Dr. James Warn and Dr. Duane Palmer brings you this opportunity for your protection.

If you have not been vaccinated, you run a ten times greater risk of getting paralytic polio than those who have had the full series of Salk shots. This warning was issued by Arthur Hunt, chairman of the San Diego chapter of the National Foundation of the March of Dimes.

"People who put off Salk shots because they are waiting for the oral vaccine are taking a chance on paralytic polio," Hunt said, "for the crippling disease can strike before the oral vaccine becomes available. There is only one polio vaccine available to the public at the present time and that is the Salk vaccine."

Man who tries to do something and fails is a lot better off than the man who tries nothing and succeeds.
