GIVEN UP ON RAIN FOR GARDEN?
 The arrival of May in California usually spells an end to whatever rain we might expect to help us out in the garden. And the gardener who would enjoy his summer in the garden should start a watering program this month in earnest. Mulches will help to keep moisture in the soil. Apply them around shrubs and keep them moist at all times. Peat moss is fine for camellias and azaleas. Steer manure is recommended for roses,

DIRECTOR NEEDED FOR ALPINE YOUTH CENTER
 A director for our children's summer program is needed by the Alpine Youth Center. We would prefer a teacher or someone with similar background for the eight week session. Please phone HI -5 2068 or HI 5-2353 for salary and other particulars if you are interested.

HERE And THERE

by GLADYS JENNINGS-HI 5-3188
 Many friends of Mrs. Nellie Keller of Alpine Highlands enjoyed seeing her on TV Friday, May 7. While working last summer at Convair where she was operating a crane which was moving a missile, Mr. Hoppman, plant manager, called her down to be photographed and she was introduced to the six astronauts, one of whom was Alan Shepard. Mr. VanDeerlin of Channel 6 interviewed her about her photos with the astronauts and her reaction to watching Astronaut Shepard on his flight into space and returning. Unfortunately Mrs. Keller was bowling when the telecast was shown.

Services were held Saturday at Greenwood Mortuary for Plen Mathew, long time resident of Alpine. Mr. Mathew worked for the San Diego County Road Dept. for 15 years when he retired because of ill health. Surviving are his wife Willie, daughter Ann Buyer, two grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Cecil Lewinson reports her husband is doing nicely at home on Olivewood after leaving El Cajon Valley Hospital Saturday, May 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Arnhold with their friends Mr. and Mrs. Emil Rush were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Sauter of Alpine Hardware May 5-9 from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. After leaving Alpine they plan to spend a month traveling north and returning to Milwaukee. Mr. and Mrs. Don Bates, Highway 80, entertained Saturday, May 6, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bates (Don's brother) and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rude of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Judd of Alpine Heights spent the weekend at Balls Wencka Ranch. Boys had wonderful time riding horses, etc. The Alpine Woman's Club on

JAPANESE STUDENT TO SPEAK
 The public is invited next Sunday evening to hear Tom Shijo, an exchange student from Japan who is attending Granite Hills High School this year. He will speak at the Pilgrim Fellowship meeting at the Alpine Community Church, 7 P.M. This is Parents Night. Also the general public is welcome.

Tuesday, May 8, at their regular meeting honored their three new members, Alice Jarrett, Bea McKaskle and Elsie Blakely. The club reports 20 new members this year.

Mr. John Romaine left the hospital May 7th and has gone to visit his son in Encinitas for a while.

Mrs. Eugene Moats and Mrs. Harry Jennings enjoyed a tea and fashion show held May 3rd by St. Mary's by the Sea Episcopal Church at Hotel del Coronado and enjoyed seeing the remodeling which is still going on.

Alpine Cleaners Pony Team won 8-2 against El Cajon Saturday, May 6, at the Alpine ballfield. John Snyder pitched five innings with no hits. Don Ramsey pitched two innings with no hits. El Cajon's two runs were unearned.

Don't forget to get your tickets for the baseball barbecue May 21 and be sure to subscribe to THE ECHO as $1.00 goes to baseball on any one year $2.00 subscription.

Jane Orbon was released from Grossmont Hospital and has gone to the desert for a few days to recuperate.

Don't forget PTA spaghetti dinner Saturday, May 13, from 5:30 to 7:30 P.M. at Alpine School auditorium. All you can eat for $1.00 adults, 50¢ children. Tossed salad, spaghetti, garlic bread, homemade pies, coffee and punch. Come on, Dad, take the family out.

BARON LONG NEWS
 Mrs. Florence Barrett was very lucky Friday night when we attended the bingo game at the Catholic Church in Lakeside. We've all been trying to win the two $100. that are a feature attraction, and of course Mrs. Barrett won one.

Our softball team did it again Sunday! They took both games in the double header with the Navy. 11-1 and 14-5. Homeruns were credited to Danny Espinoza and Jack Pingleton. The girls and boys both play the Barona Indians next week. Incidentally these games will be played here and the public is invited.

4-H SUNDAY OBSERVED
 Last Sunday in observance of 4-H Sunday Randa Adams of the Alpine Champions 4-H Club led the responsive reading at the Alpine Community Church.

In keeping with the agricultural aspects of the 4-H program, Dr. Roger Larson based his sermon on the parable Jesus told about the weeds and the tares. Matthew 13: 24-30.

"When we are in danger of pulling grain with the weeds," said Dr. Larson, "we must forego the weed pulling. So before we judge others, we must ask ourselves if we might be the ones who are sowing weeds in God's grainfield. We must be sure that we are not sowing weeds before we begin to pull them."

"Then we must humbly ask God to help us to plant and to encourage the grain, to restrain our anxiety to destroy the weeds if in our eagerness we are in danger of destroying the good with the bad. Let us seek his help to encourage the good and leave the ultimate judgments to his infinite wisdom."

For the friendship of two, the patience of one is necessary.

Alpine Youth News

by CAROL WILCOX - HI 5-2353

The California Scholarship Federation sealbearers and life members 1960-1961 were announced as follows: Carin Hinkle (Alpiner), Jim Pignatelli, Judy Vincent, Hener Herms, Virginia Cobaugh, and Karen Lee. To qualify for these awards the student must receive 3 A's and 1 B in 4 out of 6 semesters. These grades must be from Academic Courses (courses designated by the high school principal as college preparatory in nature and chosen from the fields of English, mathematics, science, foreign language, and social science). One point may be received for school service. A gold seal will appear on the diplomas of these students.

Tryouts for Manoettes and Bandettes (flag and hand corps) of El Capitan High School are being held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Those from Alpine trying for the corps are: Ramona Bonnin, Pam Cady (former Alpiner), Vona Frenzel, Karen Jordan, Kathy Jungnitch, Janie Woodall and Jerri Thorpe. Those from along Highway 80 and towns adjoining Alpine are Judi Prinn and Diana Hanger. Alpine girls trying for leaders of the corps are Fran Peterson, Pam Humphrey, Joyce Dawsey, Mary Hittle, and Sherry Crane (former Alpiner). Watch for the results in my column in about two weeks.

El Capitan won the track meet against Hilltop on Tuesday. Dennis Chynoweth placed second in the 120 yard high hurdles and third in the 180 yard low hurdles. The "B" team won by a 56-39 score. On Friday the team defeated the Granite Hills Eagles by a score of 70-34. George Dun placed third in the shot put. Dennis Chynoweth did not run in this meet, due to a leg injury sustained in the last meet.

HARBISON CUB PACK TO MEET

On Monday evening, May 15, the newly re-organized Cub Scout Pack of Harbison Canyon will host a Marine Corps Color Guard and Bugle Corps at a special ceremony when the pack charter will be presented.

Dale Boettcher is the committee chairman and others who have been active and on committees include Bill Dessert, institutional representative; Mrs. Jack Casterline, Harbison Canyon PTA president; Claude Vineyard, Cub Master; Herb Thompson, Webelos leader, and den mothers Betty Dessert, Lucy McConnell, Mrs. Vineyard, and "Bert"... don't know her last name.

A great deal of work has gone into the preparation of this event and it is expected that the Canyon folks will come out in numbers. The presentation is to be at the Harbison Canyon Community Hall at 7:30 PM.

El Capitan missed its opportunity on Tuesday to put the Metro Norther League title under wraps when the Vaqueros baseball team made 6 errors to give El Cajon a 4-2 triumph. Escondido retained its chance to tie El Capitan by taking a 5-3 victory over Hilltop. However, El Cap came back on Friday and captured the Metro Northern League Title by defeating Granite Hills 2-0. Al Hinkle and Ray Homesley are members of the champion team.

El Capitan defeated El Cajon in tennis with a 16 1/2 to a 15 1/2 victory.

Miss Carin Hinkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Hinkle of Tavern Road, will receive an Outstanding Student Medallion and monetary award from Southland Savings and Loan at a dinner at the Kona Kai Club on Wednesday, the 17th. One student from each school in the Grossmont District was selected by the administrations of each school.

GOATS FOR PROJECTS

Members of 4-H and FFA clubs will be able to purchase the very best dairy goats available at the Junior Spotlight Sale of Dairy Goats at the Great Western Dairy Show to be held May 30th.

The purpose of this sale is to help promote the Dairy Goat industry and at the same time give 4-H and FFA members an incentive to use dairy goats as their agricultural project. The animals in the sale will be picked from the finest herds in the State of California. It is hoped that the sale will enable our youth to develop the art of evaluating and bidding which is so common in other breeds of livestock.

Remember that the purchasers of these animals must be bonifide 4-H or FFA members, and the animals must be used as a project.

"ADVENTURES ABROAD" TOPIC

The Rev. W. L. Truman, of the Pacific Avenue Methodist Church in Glendale, will be guest speaker at his former church, The Chapel in the Hills, Descanso, on Friday, May 12, at 8 P.M. His topic will be, "Adventures Abroad".

Rev. Truman, accompanied by four youths, went on a mission project to the Belgium Congo last summer and was there at the time the Congo was granted its independence. He and his party visited twenty-three countries, including the Holy Land.

An offering will be taken, with all proceeds going to the Building Fund.

Gardener's Checklist

by the Calif. Assn. of Nurserymen
1. Stake dahlias, chrysanthemums, carnations and delphiniums to insure against their toppling from top-heaviness.

2. Faded rose blossoms should be removed as soon as they've lost their beauty. Don't let the bushes waste energy producing seed pods.

3. Plant asters, sinningias; dwarf dahlias, marigolds, petunias and other bedding plants from nursery flats.

4. Plant cushion chrysanthemums in a sunny spot for summer-long bloom.

5. Feed roses after the first flush of bloom. Check them for new sign of aphids or other pests.

Speedy recovery wishes to Ann Kochei of Victoria Drive who is in El Cajon Valley Hospital. She underwent major surgery Monday.

Your Beauty

BY Lady Esther

If youth is on the march, Ina Balin is its standard bearer, as evidenced by her honest ambition, inborn talent and natural beauty. Following her Broadway debut in "Compulsion" and later the movie, "From the Terrace," she now takes a leading role in the latest United Artist release, "The Young Doctors," starring such "greats" as Fredric March and Aline MacMahon. In her part as a student nurse, she plays opposite Ben Gazzara. Ina, in preparing to play the nurse, studied scripts, analyzed characters and projected herself into situations. She also took the most realistic step in preparing herself — she observed the actual life of student nurses by researching at St. Luke's Hospital in New York.

What could she tell Lady Esther about this experience that would have to do with beauty? "Just the most important aspect of face and body care — cleanliness and lubrication," Miss Balin answered, smiling ruefully. "I've never been just a soap-and-water gal, but 'understudying' a nurse really taught me what too much soap can do. You never touch anything without immediately washing up, and body oil can certainly be depleted fast."

Prominently propped on her portable dressing table, we were pleased to see a large size bottle of Hand and Body Lotion. A tantalizingly fragrant turquoise lotion which has rich, luxuriant emollients that drench and lubricate roughened, sore tissue, it has a silicone content serving to protect the skin from further irritation.

Ina Balin has more than her share of youth's beauty dew, but she realizes the importance of face and body lubrication. Thanks to her faithful use, on the set and at home, of Hand and Body Lotion for minute massages, she can look forward to finishing this assignment of "The Young Doctors" and then, as soon as the director's "Print it" is called out, she can bound off to her next role, smoothly skinned and glowing, in spite of the many "wash-ups" written into her script.

DUTCH SAILORS TREATED

Saturday afternoon the crew of Poker Flats Ghost Town treated the personnel of the Royal Dutch Navy vessels Amsterdam and Pier Heim to a look at the heritage of the great American West.

The crew of cowboys, Indians and gunslingers put on a wild West show on the Navy Pier at the foot of Broadway in San Diego.

After the show the ships hosted the entertainers and presented the Sleepy Hollow Ranch with a pair of wooden shoes and a Dutch doll to commemorate the occasion.

On Sunday, May 7, five delegates of the Dutch Navy were given a tour of Poker Flats and Sleepy Hollow Ranch as guests of Hank Smith, the owner, and Herb Thompson, the ranch's public relations director.

The Netherlanders saw the Old West recreated, panned real California gold, rode in an old fashioned surrey and visited Boot Hill. Chief "Young Man Born on a Horse" who is a flat head Indian and chief of the Indians at Sleepy Hollow made them honorary members of the tribe and honored them with ceremonial dances. The new Indians were required to do the dances too.

Chief Young Man Born on a Horse also presented the Netherlanders with paintings of two great Indian chiefs to be mounted aboard the ships.

Each of the delegates was also given a picture of a great Indian chief. The paintings were donated by the well-known artist Vivian Lourey Thompson who is noted for her paintings of the West and American Indians.

The names of the Royal Netherland marines were Radarman Freddie Amen, Korporal H. W. Evers, of Her Majesty's Dutch Ship Piet Heim and Korporals W. F. Voightschmidt, A. J. A. Abbenhuis, and K. P. Wiekhart, of Her Majesty's Ship Amsterdam.

A HAPPIER MOTHER'S DAY

If you're stumped on what to give for Mother's Day, there's one thing sure: your can't go wrong with a plant in bloom. And if Mother is a dedicated gardener, it doesn't even have to be in bloom. Just give her a cherished plant and watch her face light up.

There's no lack of color in nurseries right now, so check with your nearest California Association of Nurserymen member and see what's up and out. You'll find that May is a month of plenty.

If past years prove anything, chrysanthemums in bloom will be a favorite. If you choose a chrysanthemum, attach a reminder that when blooms have faded, the plant can be cut back half way, set out in the garden and brought on again for more bloom in late summer or fall. It should be watered regularly and fed every three or four weeks until it's ready to bloom.

African Violets are an ideal gift and growing them indoors can be a wonderful hobby for the person with no outside garden to enjoy. Your note here should read: "Happy Mother's Day. Put in an East window and keep watered". Your nurseryman can give you more instructions if your gift card is big enough.

An orchid is an investment in long term enjoyment for Mother's Day or any day. A cymbidium, for instance, can be bought with a nice spray of blooms that will stay fresh for weeks on end. Cattleyas are a bit more exotic, if slightly less durable than cymbidiums. Either will really be appreciated.

If Mother likes to garden, try her with a lovely potted hydrangea in bloom that can be set out after the big day. Or give her a hanging basket full of fuchsias and brighten her garden all summer long.

Almost every man knows that he has abilities that he has never used. Most of us plan to use the best that is in us but we go through life putting it off until it is too late. There always seems to be some good reason but the real truth is that we are afraid to stick our necks out. We need some source of strength that is greater than our own--something to fall back on--something that will give us confidence and free us to become the best that is in us.

Of course it would be nice if each of us could have a wealthy influential and understanding father upon whom we could count in case we found ourselves in trouble, but few of us have even a distant relative upon whom we can depend. Yet, such a source of confidence is available to each of us if we can only learn to really believe in the religion that most of us profess. The Spirit of God should be like a great father to each of us, warm, real, a powerful source of strength freeing us from all fear and opening to us vast treasures of personal power and happiness.

Certainly, such a belief is worth having, but it takes a little more effort than most of us are willing to make. Such a belief must be more than a shallow profession. It must be a real conviction arrived at after thinking and self-examination. It is a personal thing arrived at personally and sometimes the greatest impediment to such faith is the shallow and unrealistic religious concepts that we have learned in early life.

But regardless of this a church can help most of us because in a church each of us can hear the ideas and experiences of others who have faced life's problems and from others we can learn enough to build a foundation for our own personal faith. Why not try it, friends Rev. Edgar S. Welty

The Lake Morena Woman's Club met at the home of Norma Molchan in Morena Village for its annual birthday party on Tuesday evening, May 2, and the following were present: Lucille Hoitt, Ardelle Craft, Fay Farris, Ruth Lawrence, Ave Moreland, Charlotte Northington, Marie Martin, Bobbie Hasenmaier, Phoebe Thompson, and Shirley Evans. Hostesses were Ardelle Craft, Marie Martin and Gertrude Haskell. Charlotte Northington made two beautiful cakes which she decorated herself. One of them was in the form of an open book, with flowers on one side and best wishes to the members on the other. Ice cream and coffee and punch were served with the cake. There was a gift exchange, and the rest of the evening was spent playing cards. Phoebe Thompson won the card prize. As Norma Molchan's birthday was May 4th and as she is so nice about having the club meet at her home for large parties, the members presented her with a lovely pin with blue stones.

Wednesday the Mexican Canasta Club met at the home of Marie Martin in Morena Village and those present were Jane Ham, Fay Farris, Margaret Rolland, Gertrude Haskell, Phoebe Thompson, Helen Smyth, Ardelle Craft and the hostess. Prizes were won by Jane Ham and Fay Farris.

The Mt. Empire Republican Woman, Federated met for luncheon at the Hobart House in Pine Valley on Thursday, May 4. The speaker was Dr. Gaylord Parkinson of San Diego. His subject was the Connelly Amendment, and why it should not be eliminated from the Charter of the World Court. A card party is planned for June instead of the regular meeting.

On Tuesday, May 2nd, Dr. Harold Engelhorn of Campo passed away.

He operated a doctor's office at his home there a few years ago, but had to give it up on account of a heart condition. He was feeling and looking fine and was about to open his office in Campo again. He died of a heart attack. He leaves his wife Marjory, three sons, Douglas, Stephen and Geoffrey, and a daughter Tamra of San Diego, a brother George of Leucadia, and a sister Mrs. Ruth Hershey of Campo. Our deepest sympathy is extended to them.

The Mountain area has lost another beloved person by the name of "Aunt" Minnie Spencer, mother of Jane Orbom of Pine Valley. She passed away on Tuesday May 2nd at the El Cajon Valley Hospital, and was buried on Friday May 5th. She was a member of the Mt. Empire Woman's Club for many years and was chosen as "Woman of the Year" by that club for the year 1960. She had not been in good health since she fell and pulled her arm out of the socket last year. We will all miss her very much.

Jane Orbom has been in Grossmont Hospital with pneumonia, but is home now. We extend to her our sympathy on the passing of her mother and wish Jane a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Smyth returned on April 29 from a two week visit to her brother's in Green Valley.

Ardelle Craft of Morena Village has been staying with her two grandsons in Spring Valley, while their mother is on a trip to Vermont where her husband is now working.

Harry Utt of Pine Valley underwent surgery on Tuesday, May 2, at the Heartland Hospital in El Cajon. It is reported that he is getting along very well and will soon be home.

TV BOOSTER

It is our understanding that Harbison Canyon's television repairman Mr. Wright and a group of Harbison Canyon neighbors were packing materials up Old Ironsides to build a TV echo screen. Since this takes heavy equipment the job will take at least another weekend but if successful will greatly improve reception in the Canyon. Commendable community teamwork.

party for her husband Fayet on Monday evening, May 1st. She served a fried chicken buffet dinner to 20. They were the following men and their wives: Roy Northington, Pete Cooper, Paul Fullerton, Matt Clune, Charles Homes, Roger Okins, Henry Lapham of Campo, Don Lewis of Tecate, Grady Lane, and Walter Petaja of El Cajon. Mr. Clark has just finished serving 20 years in the Border Patrol. Home movies of all the Border Patrol social activities were shown after the dinner.

Roberta Robertson and Donna LaRue honored Yolanda Rainwater with a pantry shower at the Stone House in Campo on Saturday evening May 6. She will be married to Bob Shoemaker on May 20.

The 19 month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Postma of La Posta Service Station was accidentally run over by an automobile on Monday, May 1. She is in El Cajon Valley Hospital. She suffered a skull fracture, a broken rib and lacerations. The family were getting ready to go to the funeral of Mrs. Postma's mother which was being held at Fort Rosecrans, when the accident happened. Her mother's name is Marguerite M. Welch. She and her husband lived in Dell Nielsen's house in Lake Morena for about a year. She passed away on April 27 five days after being stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage.

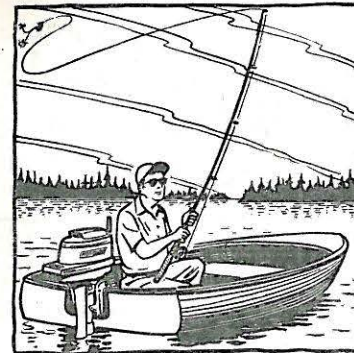

Let's Go Fishin'

BY BOB BREWSTER

Outdoor Editor, Mercury Outboards

Contrary to the belief in some quarters, the only way to stop a car rolling down a hill is not to leap in front of it and try to hold it back with brute strength.

Particularly if it is rolling well when you make your leap. Some bright lad might out-think gravity enough to yank open a door, step nimbly inside and apply pressure on the brake pedal. And stay alive a whole lot longer.

The same truism applies to fish snagging, that rapidly growing sport where numerous varieties of so-called "rough" fish are legal game in many states.

OPEN GATES

Now is the time when these fish congregate at the tailwaters of dams, awaiting the inflow of fresh food that comes to them when the flood gates are opened.

And now is the time when snaggers also congregate, standing on the bank and swishing heavy lines with big hooks into the water in the hopes of impaling a fish.

But as my earthy uncle used to say, "There's more than one way to skin a squirrel, some of them downright easy."

USE MOTOR

In snagging, the easy way is to crank up your Mercury outboard and hold the boat steady in the current by throttling down the motor, then flailing out with the snag line from the boat instead of from the bank.

It puts the snagger down closer to his subject where he can put more "yank" on the line. It also is much easier to handle a 30 to 40-pound fish from a boat than from a high bank.

Those who have tried claim trying to kill a grizzly bear with a fly swatter is considerably easier than attempting to hoist a 30-pound catfish up a high bank when he's hooked in the body.

It's not impossible, but neither is walking on water.

Snagging, for the uninitiated, is done with a heavy rod and a heavy line with a couple of huge treble hooks on the end of it. Somewhere around the hooks is hung a pound or two of lead weights.

YANKS

The snagger throws the hooks and line as far into the water as possible, then brings it back in a series of bone-wrenching "yanks" on the rod. All the time he is hoping to slam the big hooks into a big fish when he yanks.

It's a wise idea to check state laws before giving snagging a try. Some allow it and some don't.
