FIRE HAZARD HIGH IN OUR FORESTS

The Cleveland National Forest is faced with what may be one of the most serious fire seasons ever experienced in Southern California. According to Forest Supervisor Stanley R. Stevenson, forest fuels are already in an extremely dry, highly inflammable condition.

The Cleveland National Forest, which is located in San Diego, Riverside and Orange Counties, has been very deficient in rainfall for the past seventeen years. The past winter was the second driest in the 151 years of recorded weather history of San Diego. Due to the very serious drought, large volumes of the forest cover are dead and are highly inflammable at this early date.

As a fire prevention measure, Stevenson stated that all Federal, State and County fire laws will be strictly enforced.

Smoking is permitted only at places of habitation, improved camps and at posted "Smoke Here" areas.

Red, White & Blue

A few weeks ago an article was published in the ECHO which told about the Navy Fleet Reserve Association's "Operation Red, White and Blue". To get your 2x3, 50 star flag you can still contact BE 2-8295. However one of our Alpine neighbors had also started a campaign to get people to fly the flag on holidays.

The flags that she has available are also being sold on a non-profit basis. While they are more expensive they are also more than twice the size of the flags offered by the N.F.R.A. The following article will explain. Editor.

Now that we have fifty stars, do you have yours?

On Washington's Birthday, February 22nd, Mrs. Thomas E. Biggert of Victoria Drive, Alpine, looked around Alpine from her hilltop home and was struck by the fact that only a few homes had a flag flying. She decided then and there to do what she could to restore respect for the American Flag and this country's traditions by persuading friends and neighbors to display the Flag whenever appropriate.

Her first move was to try to buy a 50 star flag for her own home, but she hit a snag. She couldn't buy one because none of the stores she visited had any flags in stock.

"In fairness to the merchants, it must be said that the lack of demand was the main reason for there being no flags around," said Mrs. Biggert.

She learned that almost all flags are made in the East. but she contacted a Los Angeles specialty company who was so pleased at her patriotic motive that a bulk cost price of $3.85 was quoted which compares to the retail price of $5.95. Mrs. Biggert obtained 27 orders for flags the first day she announced their within the boundary of the Cleveland National Forest are reminded that County Ordinances require they maintain at all times, a clearing of all inflammable material for a minimum of thirty feet around each structure on their property. Stevenson stated that all Cleveland National Forest Fire Prevention Technicians are currently inspecting all structures within each county in the forest for compliance with this ordinance.

Forest users are reminded that fire permits are required before any type of fire is built or used within the National Forest. Permits may be obtained at any U. S. Forest Service Ranger Station for camping fires including use of wood burning, gasoline, kerosene or liquid gas stoves, lanterns, barbecues, and charcoal braziers.

Forest Supervisor Stevenson stressed the need for all forest users to be careful with fire at all times if we are to get through the critical times ahead without a disastrous fire.

availability at this non-profit cost price.

"One great American weapon that cannot be defeated is patriotism," says Mrs. Biggert. "The citizen that has it is invulnerable to any other "ism," and one way to keep patriotism alive is to display the American Flag and respect it. My parents brought me up that way and I know that they were right. With patriotism, actions speak louder than words."

If any citizens in the Mountain Empire wish to join Mrs. Biggert's campaign to "Show Your Red, White and Blue," you may order your 3 x 5 ft. fabric flag (50 star) complete with staff, brackets and booklet on Flag Etiquette, you make phone your reservation to her home, HI 5-3755, or to this newspaper, THE ECHO, HI 5-2616.

Canyon News

by Lucy McConnell-HI 5-3118

Mr. and Mrs. James Fowler of 604 Harbison Canyon Road announce the coming marriage of their daughter, Amy Sue, to Lindon Owens, BT3 USN, of Jacksboro, Tennessee. The date is set for May 27th when they will leave for Portland, Oregon, and reside until October when he receives his discharge. They will make their future home in Jacksboro.

Bill Wright of Rosalie Way has been trying for a number of months to stir up interest in a project of benefit to the whole community. Until recently this was about all there was to it. Two weeks ago things started to move. Mr. Wright had plans and blueprints made which he had approved by a Colorado University to build a television booster tower on top of Old Ironsides, which is the tallest spot overlooking the Canyon. This project will give everyone in this area a chance to tune in on any channel which reaches the San Diego area.

Surprisingly, there have been few backsets. All cost must come from contributions, of which there have been many but more are still needed. Mr. Wright has certainly done more than his share as has Peggy Hopkins who has been collecting money, making phone calls, as well as a good share of the leg work. Many thanks to both of them.

So far, two trips have been made, with another scheduled for this Sunday morning. Some material is already at the top and the rest will be ready to go up this time. Anyone in the community who is interested in helping, financially or with labor, can call Peggy Hopkins at HI 5-2177 or HI 5-2547.

Del and Jerry Swoveland arrived home safely from a trip to Indiana where they visited relatives and friends. They are two of the children of Mrs. John J. McConnell.

Last Wednesday evening the Harbison Canyon Boy Scouts invited all the boys and their parents to attend their meeting which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dessert. The Sleepy Hollow Ranch entertained everyone with a real oletime western shootem-up (with blanks). Herb Thompson M.C.'ed announcing four different scenes which were well-portrayed by the full costumed entertainers. The children must have saved up their laughter for a week because the grounds trembled from their uproarious reception accorded each event as it took place. Not to be outdone, the parents gave their approval by laughter and applause at the conclusion of this event. Everyone returned to the patio where another treat was in store. The El Cajon Police Department represented by Eldon Carls and Gary Frymyer gave a demonstration of fast drawing that would have put the Lone Ranger to shame. Both of these officers hold a number of championships. They described the different types of revolvers and draws as well as demonstrating them. Mr. Frymyer gave the boys advice on firearms which every parent hopes they will follow. Again our thanks to these men who give their spare time that all can be entertained as well as enlightened.

The meeting closed with a Mother's Day thought by Scoutmaster Jack Casterline as his troupe surrounded the campfire. Coffee and punch were served by the Boy Scout Auxiliary. Thanks are in order to all who helped make this event such a huge success.

Last Sunday the Harbison Canyon PTA held their installation of officers and Cub Scout Charter presentation at a box lunch held at the school.

BARON LONG NEWS

Sunday the Baron Long Chiefs played their 10th game with the Barona Indians and won 8-2. Robert Ratliff belted a homer to bring in one run. Then Jack Pingleton came up to hit another homer for two more runs. Barona's two runs were achieved by errors.

The squaws also played here Sunday with the Barona women. They played seven innings and it was cat and mouse all the way. We finally won by a score of 12-11.

We would like to thank Mr. Bert Fuller for participating in our games as umpire.

POKER FLAT NEWS

Mother's Day at Sleepy Hollow Ranch was one of the most memorable for several of the mothers on the Ranch. The regular Sunday morning service that is held under the trees was different in that the service was not only a special service in honor of Motherhood, but all married couples present were invited to come forward and renew their vows during the last part of the service.

All of the skirts put on during the day were dedicated to the mothers by Hank Smith or Scotty McTavish who alternated as M. C.

Later in the day the entire crew of the ranch turned out to aid in a hunt for Cookie Avery a small neighbor girl who was soon found asleep in a closet in her own home.

The mentally ill can come back. With enough help, they don't have to leave in the first place.

Canyon Cub Pack met at the Community Hall with a standing-room-only audience of community well-wishers. The Marine Color Guard and Bugle Corps and Captain John E. Mead, U. S. M. C. gave the program.

Daisy McCoy and Fay Farris were honored at a joint birthday party at the home of Bee Boyd at Rancho del Campo on Friday evening, May 5, and the following were present: Mollie Wilson, Helen Pate, Pauline Morton, Helen Cooper, Alice Liggett, Pearl Deines, the two honorees and the hostess. The dining table was beautifully decorated with flowers, candles and two lovely birthday cakes. The cakes were served with a delicious strawberry mousse made in a ring with whole strawberries in the center. After the gifts were opened cards were played, and prizes were won by Mmes. Liggett, Deines, Pate and Cooper.

Sunday afternoon May 7 the Mt. Whirlers Square Dance Club were hosts to The Posse, a square dance and round dance club that travels from one club to another and does not hold their own dances. They choose a king and queen each month who decide where they will visit and what costume they will wear. The girls dress alike and so do the men. Those who visited Campo May 7th were: Howard and Gayla Bluhm, Beth and Art Schueppert. Al and Virginia Alcord, Don and Gay Hill, and John and Barbara George. They had a picnic at Morena Lake before coming to the dance. Our caller Fred Geiser and his wife Wren also belong to the group. Dottie and Wally Schmick who are the Heartland Couple of the Month were also guests. Bee Boyd and Alvina Blackburn were hostesses.

The Pine Valley Fireman's Ball held at the Pine Valley Club House on Saturday evening, May 6th, was a big success. There was a capacity crowd and everyone enjoyed dancing to the music of Don Lupton's Keynotes. The club house was beautifully decorated with fireman's hats and equipment and flowers. Refreshments of cakes, coffee and cokes were served. Mary Giesbrecht was chosen queen and the runners up were Rose Wollen and Caroline Baker (Descanso); Marijo Davis (Guatay), Truscilla Strand (Pine Valley), and Anita Davis (Campo). Each of them received a trophy, a large one to the queen and smaller ones to the runners up. The girls were lovely in their formals and each wore a white carnation wrist corsages and carried a nosegay of red carnations. The queen was presented with a large bouquet of red roses. The other girls are ladies-in-waiting to the queen and will carry this title until the next Ball which will be held annually.

The Mt. Empire Woman's Club met at the home of Edna Maleski in Pine Valley on Wednesday, May 10th and 22 members and guests were present. The hostess served delicious fruited jello with whipped cream, cookies and coffee. The mystery prize was won by the president Lee Pingley; it was a lovely towel set presented by Flora Skonberg. The next meeting will be a luncheon at Hester Newton's home in Descanso.

There are still a few reservations left for the bus trip to Knotts Berry Farm and to the Live Portraits show in Laguna Beach on August 9. This trip is sponsored by the Mt. Empire Woman's Club. Anyone desiring to go should call Mrs. John Pingley in Pine Valley.

Mrs. Marceline Andrews of Rancho del Campo was guest of honor recently at a morning coffee given by Mrs. Irene Matthews. Ladies of Rancho presented 'Marci' with a floral gift certificate. She will leave Monday via jet for Chicago, Illinois, and from there to her former home in Petosky, Michigan. Mrs. Andrews will be met by her son David in Chicago and will attend his wedding which takes place in June. Those wishing Marci "Happy Landings" were:

2. Set lawn mower blades to cut grass longer than during the cooler months. About 1 1/2 to 2 inches is right for the hot summer months.
3. Plant dahlias again this month for a late show of this favorite flower.
4. Anticipate summer bare spots in the garden by filling them with annuals now.
5. Hanging baskets should be brought down occasionally for a good soaking. Immerse the whole container in water and let it drink deeply.

A PRAYER FOR THE MIDDLE-AGED

Lord thou knowest better than I know myself that I am growing older and will some day be old. Keep me from the fatal habit of thinking I must say something on every subject and on every occasion. Release me from craving to straighten out everybody's affairs. Make me thoughtful, but not moody; helpful but not bossy. With my vast store of wisdom, it seems a pity not to use it all, but Thou knowest Lord, that I want a few friends at the end. Keep my mind free from the recital of endless details; give me wings to get to the point. Seal my lips on my aches and pains. They are increasing and love of rehearsing them is becoming sweeter as the years go by. I dare not ask for grace enough to enjoy the tales of others' pains but help me to endure them with patience.

I dare not ask for improved memory, but for a growing humility and a lessening cocksureness when my memory seems to clash with the memories of others. Teach me the glorious lesson that occasionally I may be mistaken.

Keep me reasonably sweet; I do not want to be a Saint -- some of them are so hard to live with -- but a sour old person is one of the crowning works of the devil. Give me the ability to see good things in unexpected places and talents in unexpected people. Give me the grace to tell them so. Amen.

CONNECTION FEES

At the May 9th meeting of the Rio San Diego Municipal Water District the following connection fee cost was adopted for apartments, courts, duplexes, trailer parks, motels, rooming houses, rest homes: $15.00 per unit will be added to the basic minimum residence rate for each area, according to President Charles Price.

He also states that it was stipulated by the Board that these rates apply to present improvements and facilities only.

CONFUSING CRITTERS

Somewhere along the line, the animal kingdom has gotten all tangled up.

Maybe it's the scientist's fault; maybe it can be blamed on the hunter. Each confuses the other, with the hunter misnaming an animal and the biologist often accepting that common name even though he knows better.

For example, the pronghorn antelope isn't an antelope. It's a unique beast with the generic name Antilocapra, or "antelope-goat". But even the scientific name is wrong, for the pronghorn is neither.

Unlike the antelopes and goats, it sheds its headgear annually—or at least the horny outer shell. The new horns grow around perennial cores. So we have an animal with neither the bony, annual antlers of the deer nor the permanent, hollow horns of the antelopes and goats. It's simply a "pronghorn", and there's nothing else like it in the world.

On the other hand, the Rocky Mountain goat (white goat) isn't a goat at all; it's a type of antelope closely related to the Alpine chamois and the serow of Asia. Nor is the jack-rabbit a rabbit; it's a hare that belongs to an entirely different clan than the cottontail rabbit. By the strictest standards, even the cottontail isn't a rabbit, for it does not burrow.

Everyone knows that the American buffalo is a bison, and that the true buffaloes are represented by the tameish water buffaloes of Asia and the pizen-mean Cape species of Africa. This muddle extends to the little "civet cat" of the farm boy's trapline. It's really a spotted skunk. True civets, like buffalo, live on the other side of the world.

Among the birds, the common P. 7, ALPINE ECHO, May 18, 1961 are school and college aptitude tests and a cooperative English test, they do not determine whether an applicant is admitted to college, but help in choosing the right classes.

The tests are required before any student enrolling in the college for the first time may register in September.

robin is a thrush and the house sparrow (English sparrow) is an imported weaver finch. The Louisiana waterthrush is actually a warbler and the duck hawk, pigeon hawk, and sparrow hawk aren't true hawks at all—they're falcons.

Coming to the cold-blooded critters, we really spin a web of confusion. The sow bug of wet basements isn't a bug, but a crustacean related to crayfish. The horned toad is really a lizard, as is the legless "glass snake".

The largemouth and smallmouth black bass aren't bass, but sunfishes; our only true freshwater bass are the white bass and yellow bass. In many areas the walleyepike is called "jack salmon" although it isn't related to the salmon family. The more common name "walleye pike" is almost as bad, for the walleye is really a perch. It's a mess, isn't it?

The lake trout and brook trout aren't trout, either. They're charr, a fine gamefish group with definite structural differences from trout. If you want to split hairs, the Atlantic salmon isn't a salmon but a big trout closely related to the browns and rainbows.

But all this confusion in common names isn't important. It's the scientific handle that counts—the Greek or Latin handle that's standard all over the world. A translation of this Sunday name may give the most accurate description of all.

The raccoon's first name, Procyon, literally means "before the dog", while the polar bear's Thalarectos, is "bear of the sea". And the snow goose, which may nest in the bleak moors of the subarctic, has the finest of names—Clen hyperborea, meaning simply "the goose from beyond the north wind".

SUMMER SCHOOL??

There is a possibility that there will be summer school at the schools in the Alpine School District. Children in Harbison Canyon, Alpine Primary School, and the seventh graders have taken home notices asking parents if they want a six week summer school program for their children. Please, parents, let the school know your wishes so plans can be made promptly.

RAISED BEDS---PLANT THEM WITH IMAGINATION

In more than a few ways, raised beds are the show case of home gardening. They give the experienced gardener a prominent place to show off his skills. And more than that, they give an inexperienced gardener the change to create some special effects with a minimum of know-how.

The primary appeal of a raised bed is that certain trailing plants can be made to spill their blooms from it in the most fetching way. But that's not the only attraction. Raised beds put all plants up where they can't be denied, and the gardener who uses his imagination can take utmost advantage of this.

In a sense, the challenges are similar to those offered by gardening with containers, for after all, what are raised beds but extra large containers of sorts. If you take your cue from this and use the same type of accent shrubs that you'd grow in tubs, then you are well on your way to having something special.

Let's return to this matter of cascading bloom, however, for there is real fun to be had in trying it. And as the California Association of Nurserymen points out, even the novice gardener can create some professional effects this way.

The use of such plants as ivy geranium, Italian bellflower, ground morning glory, lantana and star jasmine will make an overnight green-thumb out of you if you plant them in raised beds.

Annuals are highly decorative when they have the tendency to spill. Use petunias, alyssum and trailing lobelia.

Set individual plants near enough to the edge to permit them to spill over, but not so near that they spill in their entirety. You want at least as much foliage and bloom on top as you have growing down the side. And remember, you can overdo a good thing. Don't space the plants so that they create a continuous overflow, but space them in a manner that some areas of the wall will remain visible both at top and bottom.

Botanically, the plants mentioned above will be found as: Ivy Geranium-Pelargonium peltatum; Italian Bellflower-Campanula isophylla; Ground Morning Glory-Convolvulus mauritanicus; Star Jasmine-Trachelospermum jasminoides.

LET'S LOOK TWICE

It seems so natural and easy to find fault with people. To be a critic is simple. To be able to stand up under criticism, however, is much harder. If we would stop looking for bad traits in others and look only for good, all of us would be much happier. Many heartaches are caused by fault-finding. We can usually find what we are looking for in a person.

Why not develop the habit of looking for the best in our fellow man. We will seldom be disappointed. When we get to know a fellow, we see his virtues and overlook his faults.

MEET the ALPINE STAGE

If Alpiners want a little free fun they should be on hand at 2:00 PM Saturday when the Greyhound stage arrives. We understand that a rather picturesque couple is coming for a visit to some equally picturesque folks at Poker Flats. If the Poker Flats crowd runs true to form the event may be well worth remembering but perhaps not altogether peaceful.

BARBECUE THIS SUNDAY - P. 3, ALPINE ECHO, May 18, 1961

ALPINE YOUTH CENTER Sunday, May 21, the Alpine Jr. Baseball Association will have their second annual barbecue at the Alpine Youth Center. It will begin at noon and continue all afternoon. Also there will be a carnival with all the teams playing a couple of innings. This will begin at 2 o'clock.

All proceeds derived from the barbecue will go toward paying the expenses for this year's ball season. As it was printed earlier in the ECHO it's quite an expense to operate for a season. It is hoped that everyone who can will attend. "All you can eat for $1.50; children 75¢".

The Alpine Baseball Association hopes you buy your subscription of the ECHO from one of the boys when they come to your door asking if you would like to subscribe because the association receives a percentage of the sales. Also you can sign up at the barbecue.

25th BARBECUE COMING SOON

The Pair-A-Dice grounds at Guatay will be the scene of the 25th annual barbecue pit and fiesta of the Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church of Descanso on Sunday, July 16th.

Cheer leaders were held on the 11th in the Foster gymnasium. Candidates performed before the student body and a panel of judges. The panel consisted of all present song and cheer leaders plus four faculty members. The results: varsity song—Diana Whitehead, junior; Sherry Howell, senior; Neila Vaughn, sophomore, and Gerri Poe, sophomore. Varsity cheer—Sue Harmsen, junior; Janet Mosier, sophomore (Alpine); Julie King, junior; Fred Wiegand, sophomore; and Tom Stevens, sophomore. Congratulations!!

Keith Cater has completed the Marine course of Jet School and is now attending Helicopter School. He is scheduled to return from Memphis to California in September. At least "certain" friends HOPE he will be back then! Fifteen students from Tijuana High School paid a visit to El Capitan on May 11. The group included only one girl. C. S. F. members from our high school guided them around the campus. They were invited to observe in various classrooms. The things of most interest to them were the different shops. They do not have any shops or courses pertaining to shop in their high school. They stayed for the song and cheer tryouts assembly. They seemed to have a good time.

The big talk at school is the approaching senior prom on May 27. The girls are chatting about hair appointments and formals, while the boys grunt and grumble about the fact that they are going to be broke. I think we are going to have a wonderful time at the Hotel Del Coronado.

NOTHING TO DO

Several weeks ago Wallace Way pointed out that while there is all sorts of activity for boys, Alpine now has almost no organized activity for girls. There is no Girl Scout troupe, Brownie troupe, Camp Fire group or anything going on at the Youth Center.

It seems to us that some of the mothers of girls or some organization should get together and do something about this. With the fine Youth Center facilities that are available the girls should have something that is theirs. Ed Welty PLEASE

Hate, jealousy, envy, vanity and petty meanness--all these we deplore and none in his right mind would be proud of showing such traits in his own character, yet these emotions have a way of creeping into our lives, destroying our happiness and killing pleasant friendships.

All too often clubs, organizations and even families and churches find themselves divided because someone was careless or thoughtless. Someone was hasty or sharp, or someone was a little bit jealous.

Probably none of these things would lead to any trouble at all, except for the fact that most of us take ourselves too seriously.

The thoughtless, careless, hasty things that people never intended to hurt us sting like a barb, and we slap back before we think. Such actions not only break up families and destroy friendships, but they have a way of dividing neighborhoods, defeating the purpose of fine organizations and great causes.

All communities need the productive efforts of citizens working together. We sincerely pray that you all may find it in your hearts to forgive those who trespass against you and sincerely do unto others as you would have others do unto you.

Your Beauty

BY Lady Esther

Unlike anything the title of her new picture, "The Counterfeit Traitor", suggests, Lilli Palmer is a genuine beauty. Intercontinentally famous for her distinctive looks, charm and talent, it is difficult to say which played the most important part in her success. As a dramatic actress, she shows great depth. As a woman, she personifies elegance. As a person, she radiates warmth.

Miss Palmer's career is founded on determination and work. When she first tried breaking into show business the great coach, Else Schreiber, told her, "You have no charm—you're like a schoolmarm."

Miss Palmer went elsewhere and two years later was discovered for films. This "schoolmarm" has since won honors in Brussels, Venice and Germany for her dramatic portrayals.

Inborn talent and hard work are the keys to Lilli Palmer the actress. Good facial structure and skin plus constant care are the keys to Lilli Palmer the beauty: meticulous grooming is a day-to-day, every day routine. Subtle make-up is applied to finely cleansed and moistened skin.

For Lilli Palmer, whose day calls for theatrical, casual and evening make-ups, skin care is three-fold. "I would not think of leaving a set without cleansing away make-up. I cleanse perhaps three times until no trace of foundation remains. My pores must breathe. Could you imagine a lily flourishing if kept from air and sun? The petals would wither and die. Skin must breathe... it must be lubricated. It is worth the effort."
