Serving a Growing Area of Homes and Ranches

SECRETARY FIRED BY SCHOOL TRUSTEES

Recall Petitions Gain Signatures

The petitions asking for the recall of School Trustees, John R. Reynolds, Charles Kildgore and Laurence Wilcox, will continue to be circulated in the School District for the next few days in order that every registered voter who desires to sign them may have an opportunity to do so.

Mr. Zane Dana, one of the Co-Chairmen of the Committee, states that the petitions will be accumulated the first part of next week and submitted to the County Superintendent of Schools as required by recall procedure shortly thereafter. At the present time the number of signers to the petitions is 365 with this number increasing every day.

C of C Conducting Survey

The Chamber of Commerce held a special meeting Wednesday evening, November 7, in the Alpine Fire Department building, to which had been invited a group of representative and interested members of the community. The meeting was held to present and discuss the possibility of Alpine taking advantage of the recent public works acceleration program under which the federal government offers matching funds on a 50-50 basis for civic projects. "Corky" Jones, Chamber president, briefly discussed the purpose of the meeting, and then requested Orville C. Palmer, chairman of a special Chamber committee for this program, to take over for a more complete discussion. Mr. Palmer covered the propositions and problems involved, and reported on his findings at a special meeting held recently in San Diego. After lengthy discussion, a committee composed of Roy Setser, Dick Harris, Tom Casey, Ken Jerney, Bob Wilson, Fred Rohr and Mrs. Fern Latham was organized, with Roy Setser as chairman. The committee promised instant action in delving into the possibilities of Alpine acquiring fire hydrants throughout the community.

The committee hopes through personal contact to determine the attitude and wishes of the community as a whole, with prospects of a general community meeting in the near future.

Kiwanis News

The next meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Alpine with Mr. Bob Wilson presiding and Mr. Bal Darnell as chairman, will have as their principal speaker Mr. A. Michael Young, Marine captain, retired. Mr. Young's topic will be "Youth and Communist Influence on Education." Captain Young has five children and speaks with a personal interest of a parent.

Next week's speaker will be the winsome and energetic City of San Diego Councilwoman Helen Cobb. She will speak on the absorbing story of the Salk Institute, now building at Torrey Pines.

Kiwanis meetings are held in Fuller Memorial Hall, Thursday, 7:00 p.m. Don't forget the date!

Progress Committee To Start Work

The Alpine Progress Committee, which has been organized to confer with the Alpine School Board and the school administration staff during their preparation of the budget for the next school year, will start conferring with Mr. Clyde Gilley, District Superintendent, in reviewing the preliminary material which is being assembled in preparation of making the preliminary budget.

The committee proposes to have their members thoroughly familiar with the budgetary requirements and then support an election to authorize a tax rate that will provide the funds for the educational program determined to be necessary for the District.

Mr. Auren Pierce, chairman of the committee, states that the first meeting with Supt. Gilley will be on November 24.

Alpine Little League Plans 1963 Season

During the regular November meeting of the Alpine Little League Association, plans were formulated to have members of the association contact residents of the Alpine School District to determine those residents interested in assisting the Little League during the coming season. All parents of children age eight through 14 will be among the first to be contacted.

All parents interested in supporting the Little League Assn. should contact either Marvin Chynoweth, president, or Jack Isaacs, publicity chairman. Umpires, timekeepers, managers, scorekeepers, etc., are just a few of the positions open to parents and any other residents of the Alpine School District.

Turkey Dinner

The Ladies' Guild of Queen of Angels Church are sponsoring a turkey dinner with all the trimmings at the Parish hall, Victoria Drive, on Sunday, December 9 from 12 noon until 6 p.m.

Donations, adults $1.50, children under 12, 75 cents. Everyone is invited. Tickets may be purchased by calling Mrs. Geudtner, HI 5-3356 or Mrs. Brown HI 5-3603.

March of Dimes Chairman

Helen Cobb, San Diego City Councilwoman, has accepted the post of county campaign chairman for the 1963 March of Dimes drive to be held in January. This is her second year at the helm. March of Dimes funds now go towards research and patient aid in the fields of arthritis and birth defects. Aid to polio victims also is continuing.

INTIMATE GLIMPSES

By BEA LA FORCE

Arm chair travelers are a wonderful breed. If it were not for them, travel writers and photographers would have a very limited audience and amateur travelers would lack the most enthusiastic viewers of color slides.

The dedicated arm chair traveler is one who really prefers to do his traveling at home, via books and pictures, in the safety and comfort of his own fireside, scorning the dangers, expenses and irritations, as well as the adventures of, as Satan said in the Book of Job, going to and from and walking up and down the earth. The arm chair traveller likes his trips on his own magic carpet, wafted by the breeze of some author's view of the places, always fascinating, and often about as accurate as my idea of New York City used to be.

Until seven years ago I'd never been more than 500 miles away from home and the only places I really longed to see were New York City and the Moon. I'd read books about both and went to New York City with these impressions: There were no people in New York as we know people. The citizens of the big town were Profiles, or Personalities, Characters, Denizens or Stooges. The profiles were mostly in politics; the Personalities in the performing arts; the Characters in the other arts; the Denizens operated on several levels and were featured in comic books for little children, while the Stooges worked on the TV quiz programs.

Each neighborhood was ruled by a specie curious to NYC, an alderman, a cross between a leprechaun and an octopus. Thousands of citizens were hourly trampled to death in the subways. The GREAT WHITE WAY, was a sort of paved CHEROKEE STRIP, where mobs of assorted citizens fought for a stake in the theatah.

All taxi drivers were great philosophers with hearts of gold. All policemen were fat Irishmen with simple kind hearts, thick accents and aching feet. Native New Yorkers lived on an exclusive diet of lobster thermador, cocktails, Turkish tobacco, and European propaganda.

Youth Center Has New Director

After screening several applicants, the Board of Directors of the Alpine Youth Center contracted the services of Miss Lois Inmann, a San Diego State College student as the director of the winter program.

The winter season will commence on this coming Saturday at the Youth Center and the hours are from 12 noon to 4 p.m. each succeeding Saturday. All children between the ages of 8 to 13 are eligible to participate in this program. During inclement weather the Center is equipped with many indoor games and activities to keep the children happily occupied.

SECRETARY ACCUSED OF CIRCULATING RECALL PETITION

At the regular monthly meeting last Tuesday night the Board of Trustees of the Alpine Union School District, by a 3-2 vote, removed Mrs. Marjorie Cooper from her position as secretary of the School Board. Mrs. Cooper had been filling two positions with the School, the other position being that of bookkeeper. The motion did not remove her from this position.

Veterans Represented At Local Ceremonies

Mr. Walter Furgeson, state Field Officer of the VFW was the main speaker at services held at the Alpine Cemetery in honor of Veterans Day last Sunday. Mr. Furgeson read the Veterans' Day prayer and Mr. Bert Fuller Assistant First District Service Officer hung a wreath of roses made by the Ladies' Auxiliary. During the ceremony, Mr. Ted Barton representing the Fleet Reserve Association also laid a wreath in commemoration of Veterans' Day. The American Legion, World War I and II Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Fleet Reserve Association, American Veterans, and the Disabled American Veterans, were all represented at the impressive ceremony.

Dr. Russell G. Gastil Is Featured Speaker

Dr. Russell G. Gastil, associate professor of geology at San Diego State College, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Gastil of Victoria Hill, will speak at the annual meeting of the Geological Society of America in Houston, Texas, this week. Dr. Gastil will present one of 300 papers to be discussed at the 74-year-old society.

Dr. Gastil, known as Gordon to his old time school mates in Alpine, has been teaching at State since 1959. His topic for the Texas meeting will be on a phase of inorganic geochemistry. Gordon's wife is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Manly, of Alpine Heights Road. The young Gastil's have two children.

County High Schools Accredited

Thirty-eight high schools in San Diego County and six in Imperial County have been accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges. The association, which judged secondary schools for the first time, announced it had accredited 587 high schools in California.

Honorary Mayor

Mr. Gale Gordon was sworn in as an honorary mayor of Borrego Springs at the annual installation dinner of the Chamber of Commerce at La Casa del Zorro, Sunday night. Mr. Gordon is "good old Mr. Wilson" on TV's Dennis the Menace show.

Absentee Votes

A count of absentee ballots, completed last Saturday, failed to change the results of last Tuesday's election.

Except in the races for sheriff and 37th Congressional seat, the local absentee votes followed patterns established in the election.

The motion was made by Trustee Charles Kildgore and seconded by Trustee Laurence Wilcox, who together with President of the Board, John Reynolds, voted for the motion. Trustees Fred Rushing and Stuart Day voted against the motion. In making the motion, Mr. Kildgore accused Mrs. Cooper of circulating recall petitions asking for the recall of the three Board members who voted for her removal.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Mrs. Cooper asked for an opportunity to make a statement which was granted by President John Reynolds. Mrs. Cooper stated that Mr. Kildgore was mistaken, that she had never circulated recall petitions, but that she believed that the three Board members should be recalled and that she had signed petitions asking for their recall.

In another action made by the Board, a motion was passed which made a demand on District Superintendent Clyde Gilley to surrender to President John Reynolds any piece of paper which he might have in his possession that gave Mr. Gilley authority to employ and discharge District employees. The motion was made by Mr. Kildgore, seconded by Mr. Wilcox, and carried by a 3-2 majority with Mr. Reynolds voting for the motion.

The "piece of paper" was not explained at the Board meeting but the Echo has contacted Supt. Gilley who states that to the best of his knowledge the "piece of paper" is a resolution passed and adopted unanimously by the School Board on March 28, 1959, by Trustees John Reynolds, Robert Wilson, Laurence Wilcox and Mr. Gibb, and which is a part of the official records of the School Board. The motion gives Supt. Gilley the authority to employ and discharge employees. The "piece of paper" is a part of the official records open to inspection by any person including the present members of the School Board, and how it could be surrendered by Supt. Gilley to the President of the School Board was not explained.

At the opening of the meeting, Trustee Stuart Day made a proposal to the other members of the Board in the form of a motion that on account of the lack of harmony among the people in the Alpine School District, which seems to have been brought about from criticism of the actions of the Board members, that all five members of the Board resign and that an election be called to have the people elect five new members to the Board, which in Mr. Day's opinion would eliminate the lack of unity in the District. The motion was seconded by Mr. Rushing, but failed to carry, with Trustees Reynolds, Kildgore and Wilcox voting against the motion.

Zoning Of Alpine

This is another reminder that a public meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m., next Tuesday, November 20th, in the Alpine Elementary School auditorium on Highway 80 in Alpine to explain the tentative zoning plan proposed for the Alpine area.

Past experience of zoning in other communities indicates that when zoning has once been established in an area that it is very difficult to obtain any change in the zoning of any property in the zoned area no matter how improperly the original zoning appears to have been.

It is, therefore, very important that all property owners in the District attend the public meeting.

Our Alpine Schools

As we have stated several times before, Alpine will get the kind of schools that it deserves. Also, that the citizens should either support the School Board or get themselves a new School Board.

The recall petitions appear to be obtaining a sufficient number of signatures to require the calling of a recall election against the majority of the members of the School Board. If a recall election is held, the voters of this School district, if they take the trouble to go to the polls and vote will have the opportunity of deciding whether they support the present School Board majority, or whether they desire a new School Board.

Also, by their action of either supporting the present majority or of obtaining a new School Board, they will then get the kind of schools that they deserve.

Mr. Freeland, Editor
 Alpine Echo
 Alpine, Calif.

Mr. Editor:
 Some of your past editorials on local affairs have erked me, but this last issue, with your editorial indicating "An Expression of Appreciation" has me really burning up.

You and I and the next fellow are entitled to our own opinion in any controversy whether it be local or national, however, I think the manner in which you presented your picture of the recent election outcome was completely out of place and uncalled for.

All the victors were not of my choice, but far be it from me—OR YOU—or any good citizens to mock our sacred right of going to the polls and casting ballot to our liking, by referring to it as a theatrical production.

If you wrote this "Expression of Appreciation" yourself, then I say shame on you. If you gathered it up from some other source, then I say you should be ashamed for having to hunt in such dark corners for your material.

It would seem to me that we are having enough turmoil in our own community without dragging our United States down with us. How can we teach our children respect for the duly elected representatives, including the President, no matter who the man, when you print such a trashy account of the election results? God help us, editorials like your last certainly won't.

Sincerely and patriotically yours,
 Mrs. Jerry Lou Webb
 Rt. 1, Box 324 B
 Alpine, Calif.

P.S. Enclosed is a $3 check for my subscription of the Echo. I don't want to miss a single copy so as to keep up on ONE side of the current re-call—school board news. For the other side of the hassle I go to a reliable source—my conscience.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Editor is the author of the editorial mentioned in the letter. Many things affect different people in different ways. Fortunately, we do not all think alike. If we did, it would be terrible.

Dear Editor:

As a parent, past president of the Alpine PTA and a citizen having lived in this community for 20 years, I would like to express my views, feelings and opinion of the Alpine School situation.

The hiring of Mr. Clyde Gilley in my estimation was the best move toward progress and a better education for our children, the School Board has ever made. Mr. Gilley has brought forth facts and school laws that have previously been overlooked by our School Board members. Facts such as paying insurance on a building that had been disposed of for several years, research that has taken numerous hours to save our community many tax dollars to be used to a better advantage, working long hours on school bonds, educating committees, clubs and individuals as to the great need for a full school day schedule and an additional school building, a school band was then started, later putting on several concerts. These are only a few beneficial tasks Mr. Gilley has performed for our children and their parents. Do we have to stand by and watch a superintendent with such great merits receive a slap in the face by three Board members or will we stand up for our rights as citizens and demand to be heard by a legal recall election?

I remember a PTA meeting where Mr. Reynolds and Mr. Kildgore ridiculed citizens when they asked questions pertaining to the proposed tax election. Now they have changed their tune and are echoing the suggestions of Mr. Gilley of many months ago that the public should be informed.

I would like to point out that Mrs. Margie Cooper has always been active in school affairs and by no means is a Johnny-come-lately. Mrs. Cooper did not carry a petition and on three occasions she stated to the recall committee it would be unethical for her to do so. But as a citizen she had a right to her opinion and therefore signed a petition. Contrary to Mr. Kildgore's beliefs she was acting in the best interests of the community.

Past President's Luncheon Gala Event

One of the most popular annual meetings of the Alpine Woman's Club is always that held in honor of its Past Presidents. Last Tuesday, November 13, the club was the scene of the re-enactment of this yearly luncheon which was attended by a record crowd.

The head table was graced by ten former Presidents of the club with the current one, Mrs. H. H. Johnson, as their gracious hostess. Club leaders of other years attending were, Mrs. Harold Flegal who was president in 1917; Mrs. Lars Carlson, who followed in 1919; Mrs. Tom Hill, Sr., 1936; Mrs. Josephine Sturdivant, 1938; Mrs. D. M. Walker, 1940; Mrs. Willard Hays, 1945; Mrs. Carl McCall, 1955; Mrs. Marcus Schaefer, 1957; Mrs. T. A. Smith, 1958; Mrs. Mace Bratt, 1961; Mrs. Harry Colby.

A delicious luncheon was prepared and served by the Club's Officers, Mesdames Lusk, Peterson, Westfall, Vancil, Sachse and Hollett, with the able assistance of Mrs. Ed Orbom and Mrs. Keller, while Mrs. Latham was ticket taker. Beautiful corsages were made for each of the honored guests by Mrs. Orville Palmer. The head table drew many glances of admiration for its lovely floral arrangement secured for the occasion by Mr. Keller from florists in San Diego who donated it.

A unique and entertaining program was presented by Mrs. Florence Hinto and her trained squirrels. Mrs. Hinton, a singer and musician of note, has been featured in leading TV shows. She will do her show gratis for any church group. Mrs. Hinton's little pets are delightful and amazingly well trained. She has two performing California ground squirrels, as well as a grey and a red squirrel and two others of an unusual crossed breed.

Almost one hundred members and guests crowded the club room enjoying the luncheon, the sociability, and the charming program.

CAMPO

By FAY FARRIS

Ladonna Muhlhauer of Pine Valley entertained the Homemakers Club of Campo at a ham luncheon on Thursday, Nov. 8. The club members celebrate Thanksgiving each year by going some place together for a luncheon, and it was a pleasant change to have it at someone's home rather than a public dining room. A business meeting followed the luncheon, and plans were completed for the club's Christmas luncheon and bazaar to be held at the Stone House in Campo on Thursday, Dec. 13. The luncheon will be at 11:30 a.m. and the bazaar will start at 12:30. Many beautiful and useful gifts will be available, including pillow cases and aprons. After Thanksgiving the members will start practicing Christmas songs, so that different groups in different locations can go Christmas caroling before the holidays. Practice for a stage show in which members will participate will get under way after the New Year holiday.

Mt. Empire Masonic Club met for a Thanksgiving turkey dinner at the Pine Valley Clubhouse on Friday evening, Nov. 9, with Ladonna Muhlhauer and Chris Kemp preparing the dinner, and Bess Warne doing the decorations. Thirty members and friends were present, and all enjoyed the delicious dinner and a delightful evening, some playing cards, and others just visiting. The table decorations were symbolic of fall, with orange strips down the centers of the tables, topped with ivy, yellow gourds, and chrysanthemums.

The Mt. Whirlers Square Dance Club started a new group, and they met for a class and dancing at the Mt. Empire High School Auditorium on Saturday evening, Nov. 10. Art Riding of Lakeside is the Caller, and everyone enjoyed his instruction and calling. It will be announced later if the group will dance more than once a month, and when. Anyone desiring to join the class should do so not later than on the first dance night in December.

The long weekend brought many picnickers to the County Park for what most of them felt was the last one for the year. Talked with a charming family from Chula Vista who, after hearing of the expected rain storm scheduled to arrive soon after the holiday, packed their lunch, gathered up some of the neighborhood youngsters and came to the mountains. They seemed more than a little surprised that there was absolutely no fog here. Monday was indeed a perfect holiday.

Thirty-five attended the turkey dinner Friday evening at the Pine Valley Clubhouse prior to the regular monthly meeting of the Mountain Empire Masonic Club. Mrs. LaDonna Muhlhauer and Mrs. Chris Kemp were the hostesses.

We are going to miss the Deakins family. Certainly the care Mr. Deakins took of the clubhouse grounds. He never failed to see that the shrubbery had plenty of water during the hot, dry days.

Monday Jean Turnbull took a nasty spill from her horse on Rocky Pass Road. She was given first aid treatment, then taken by ambulance to El Cajon Valley Hospital and later released. Both young people seem to be alright after their experience.

A resuscitator call last Saturday about 9 p.m. for Mrs. Isabelle Hanna of Imperial Beach who suffered a heart attack near Laguna Junction. Chief Pingley and Engineer Billyeu worked with her until the ambulance arrived, to chalk up another miracle. Our compliments to the two junior firemen who took the call. They had all of the preliminary work done in just about a minute.

Mr. and Mrs. Cinelli plan to build another home on their property just north of the home they sold.

Alpiners To Attend SD Historical Society

The Alpine Historical Society will be represented at the Fall dinner meeting of the San Diego Historical Society on November 19 by a small, but enthusiastic group.

Speaker for the evening will be Richard F. Pourade, author of the "Explorer" and "Time of the Bells," who has promised to tell the "Truth About Old Town" as topic for his talk. It seems that what we have long considered facts about Old Town are not so.

Alpiners attending are Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hall, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. LaForce, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Palmer, Mrs. H. H. Johnson, Mrs. A. L. Meyer, Mr. Ralph Walker and Mrs. Dorothy Markley.

Donations End For Clothing Drive

The Clothing and Blanket Drive of Church World Service will be over in this area by Thanksgiving. If you wish to share with the unfortunate people of the world, please bring your donations to the Collection Center at the Alpine Community Church, or phone HI 5-2273.

Your donations may be packed in cartons and labeled with the name and address of your Church.

Thanksgiving Foods For Thought

By PATRICIA RICE

The voyage of Columbus and his men was responsible for the turkey's name! (Europeans named the American bird the "Turkey Fowl" because they believed the new land touched by Columbus was India or Turkey).

"Turkey Dinners" are driven to housewives' doors in a section of Mexico City. Flocks of the birds are herded through the streets, the housewife selects one, and the vendor catches the choice with a long, forked stick.

It took 10 years striving for the Texas farmers to grow streamlined turkeys, with shorter legs, so that the birds would fit more easily into modern ovens.

Some years ago Lucile Smith picked 44 turkeys in one day in an Ainsworth Nebraska Co-operative Association Plant, which is still a record.

In the high altitudes of Bolivia, turkeys destined for the dinner tables are fed intoxicating liquor before killing. (Theory: drunkenness relaxes the muscles—makes the otherwise tough and stringy birds of high altitudes tender and juicy).

The sweet potato belongs to the same family as the morning glory.

Oklahoma Indians weave pumpkins into mats (the pumpkins are cut in one continuous strip while still moist, the strips are dried, then woven together to form edible mats, which are stored away for future use).

Hoity-Toity tables of the '80s were set with bone dishes—special semi-circular plates in which you placed the turkey bones after you had finished gnawing on them.

ganda, if they were rich. If they were poor they had to leave off the lobster. All native New Yorkers went out every night and stayed till dawn. It was a status symbol to arrive home with the milk-man.

Nobody ever went to the Metropolitan Museum except horrible hick families from hinterland, and old maid school teachers from Omaha. As to politics, Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean, was just a kept woman in the pay of the Labor Lords. And hundreds of citizens daily committed suicide by jumping off the Brooklyn Bridge and the Empire State Building.

Well, the real New York was not exactly like the books said. Later, I discovered that the author of most of them lived in Kansas and had never been to New York. Which all makes me wonder whether we should try so hard to visit the Moon. Those Moon-scapes in the books are just fascinating . . . under a cozy reading lamp.

the Board and their disposition include the following: The Board accepted with thanks a gift of 14 picnic tables and benches from the Harbison Canyon PTA for use at the Harbison Canyon School.

They adopted a disaster plan for the transportation of the school children to their normal bus stops in case of a disaster during school hours. They established a policy on the pay scale for part-time employees. They approved a list of substitute bus drivers submitted by the District superintendent. They established the minimum number of days for parent-teacher conferences to be five days. The parent-teacher conferences will be held on November 19, 20, 21 and on November 26 and 27.

Hearings Resumed

The California-Arizona battle over the Colorado River will be renewed before the Supreme Court Tuesday. Six hours will be court apportioned for attorneys for Arizona, California, Nevada and the federal government to argue their conflicting claims.

To the people of the 35th Congressional District: Words will not express my sincere feeling of gratitude and obligation for your vote of confidence. I can only say: Thank You.

But, I pledge it is a thanks that you will see in every action and vote made as your Congressional Representative. I pledge to begin my second decade as your Congressman by redoubling my efforts to strengthen our economy, local government, and personal freedoms.

These aims, reflected in your actions and votes, have brought phenomenal growth to Orange and San Diego counties. God willing, your beliefs will make our nation stronger.
