There are several other streets on which the property owners are now making deposits and which will be considered for the installation of service mains when the required number of deposits have been made.

The streets on which service mains, or on which distribution mains, have been installed, or are now being installed, and from which water service can be obtained include the following streets: West Victoria Drive, East Victoria Drive, Anderson Truck Trail, Highway 80 east from Arnold Way, Rock Terrace and East South Grade Road, Tavern Road, South Grade Road from Tavern Road to Alpine Heights Road, Alpine Heights Road and Lilac Lane, Alpine Terrace, Midway Drive, Marshall Road North and South, Olivewood, Hawley Road, West Oak Creek Road, West Blossom Valley Road, Ruis Canyon Road and Suncrest, Highway 80 from Ruis Canyon Road to Arnold Way, and Arnold Way its full length from Highway 80 to Alpine.

A chartered bus load of back-country folk enjoyed the Ramona pageant at Hemet Saturday, May 12. Sponsored by the Mountain Empire Woman's Club the crowd included Campo residents, Bliss Sinclair, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. states that the testing of the main transmission lines will commence this week. The first phase to be pumping from Lakeside through the transmission lines to a reservoir in Ruis Canyon. Next week, if the first section has been tested and approved the water will be pumped from Ruis Canyon to the reservoir that will serve Suncrest. After this section has been tested and accepted, on succeeding weeks pumping and testing will be made on the section from Lakeside to the reservoirs in Alpine.

After all of the transmission lines have been accepted and the reservoirs filled, water will be available through the service lines to those who have made arrangements for the installation of water meters along the service lines.

The District is now mailing to each property owner who has made a deposit on a meter installation, and has not paid for the installation in full, a statement requesting the payment of the balance due. Such notices will not be sent to property owners who have made payments in full for their meter installation.

Mr. Price is making arrangements for the commencement of the installation of meters. The first meters to be installed shortly after the 1st of June starting in the Alpine area.

Mr. Price requests that any property owner whose property can be served by any of the mains

INTIMATE GLIMPSES

By BEA LA FORCE

There've been plagues of locusts and of other beetles but as far as I can find out, there has never been noted a plague of cut-worms which is what we are having now. These sneaky little varmints are even eating the wild flowers and plants all over the county as well as domestic crops. Don Boyd, son-in-law of Ralph Jasper, rancher of Montezuma Valley, reports that a trip to the desert area last week showed sad damage by the worms. Two weeks before, Don said, he'd driven over and enjoyed the sight of acres of the white desert lillies blooming as they seldom do. Last week he said the same fields looked black. Upon close investigation, Don found the ground alive with cut worms; they had even eaten the stalks.

Our Alpine Gardner, Jean McCullough reports much damage around her lovely plantings, and others have asked her what to do about the pests. Claude Clerk says they've visited his place in hordes and the same complaint is coming from every direction. Ordinary methods seem to do little to discourage them. My mother says they are bad in San Diego, too. She says the best way is to dig them up and step on them. It'd take quite a bit of stepping to do the job this year.

Looking through some old books in search of a cut worm eliminator, I found one titled TO EXTRIPATE CATERPILLARS. It said: "Take a new broom and stand it in the corner of your field or garden, then throw some rocks crosswise in the other corner and say, Caterpillars clear out in the devil's name! When doing this there must be a notch somewhere. Then throw the broom away as far as you possibly can." They must have been pretty desperate.

State College to Have Symphony, Chorus

Earl Bernard Murray and the San Diego Symphony join the 800-voice San Diego State Chorus for the presentation of Verdi's "Requiem," Sunday, May 20. Murray is a member of San Diego State's music faculty, in addition to being conductor of the San Diego Symphony.

The great "Requiem" mass will be performed at 8:15 p.m., in Peterson Gymnasium on the campus. Tickets at $1.50 for adults, and 75 cents for students, are available through the campus bookstore, JUniper 2-8383.

This is one of a series of Spring Festival of Fine Arts events scheduled from May 10-27 at San Diego State.

Soloists, all well-known off-campus singers, are: Gerald Shirkey, tenor; Cleve Genzlinger, baritone; Valerie Post, soprano; and Beverly Green, mezzo-soprano.

Cost of bringing the San Diego Symphony to the campus is being underwritten by the Associated Students.

The "Requiem" was originally composed by Verdi in memory of Rossini's death in 1868. It represented for him a glorification of Italian culture in general.

New Fire Commissioners Appointed

The Alpine Fire Department now has a Board of five Commissioners with the addition of two new ones, authorized by the special election held here April 3rd, and appointed recently by the County Board of Supervisors.

The new Commissioners are, Orville Palmer, retired

Immigration officer of Victoria road who, with his wife, has lived in Alpine since May 1959, and John Saks, retired City employee of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, who has lived in Alpine since August 1960.

Both men bring a wealth of public service experience to their offices. They own their homes here and intend to remain in the community in which they are much interested.

Two new volunteer firemen have also recently been added to the local fire department. One is Jim Rorie, well known local man who for many years ran the Flying-A service station on Highway 80 at the west edge of town. He is now busy full time in his new Fiberglass manufacturing company with his partner, Hazen Alkire, and has leased his station. The other new fireman is Dick Noonan, a comparative newcomer to Alpine who has the Mobile Station next door to Bailey's Cafe.

PTA Slavic Night Pleases Large Crowd

Something different in the way of a community dinner and entertainment was presented for the PTA by Mrs. H. A. McKaskle, general chairman who was the inspiration behind the Slavic Night Saturday evening, May 12 at the Alpine Union School.

Featuring delicious home cooked foods from her ancestral Yugoslavia, once Serbia, Mrs. McKaskle PTA Foreign Relations chairman, had enthusiastic cooperation from a large committee of co-workers. She personally supervised the preparation of all the delicious cabbage rolls, called serma, and was assisted by Mrs. Charles Smith and Mrs. Robert Webb. The luscious apple strudel served for dessert was made by Mrs. Anna Jerney.

Others working on the event were, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Foster, in charge of waitresses who were the Mesdames Robert Vukich, M. L. Cooper, Mace Bratt, Boardman, Griggs, Schuets, Tom Judd and Anderson. Mrs. Judd and Mrs. Bratt were in charge of decorations. Hostess was Mrs. Al Adams. Mrs. Anna Jerney and Mrs. J. P. Sullivan worked in the

Are You Next?

Are we mistaken? Have we been having a bad dream? Or have we really been reading in the newspapers during the past few years about a large number of automobile accidents, including headon collision accidents, when one or more cars were being driven by Navy or Marine personnel, where the dead, dying and injured were scattered all over the road?

If we are not mistaken and have not just been having a bad dream, what can we do about it? It must be a wonderful feeling to be driving leisurely down the road, on your own side of the road, minding your own business, and suddenly observe a car bearing down on you on a collision course at a tremendous speed. What can you do? How can you anticipate such a condition? Of course, we should do nothing about it. Just take our chances. Are you next?

A New Twist

We predicted a few weeks ago that in the primary campaign it would be brother against brother; that is, Republican against Republican for the Republican nomination, and Democrat against Democrat for the Democratic nomination for the various State offices to be filled.

But lo and behold, we have a deviation. The Honorable Pat Brown, Governor of the State of California (Democrat) pits himself against contender Honorable Richard Nixon (Republican), and Mr. Nixon pits himself right back against Mr. Brown, as if each had already won their parties nomination, and this was the big runoff for election for the high office of Governor of the State of California. Each seemingly forgetting that there are other contenders seeking nomination against these worthy gentlemen, including Joe Shell who has been trying to attract the attention of his logical opponent of the moment, Mr. Nixon, without success.

It would certainly be a joke on Mr. Brown and Mr. Nixon if Mr. Shell should be nominated and elected.

Dear Editor:

The more people discuss the coming tax election the more issues are raised which may seem irrelevant to some but pertinent to others.

The last big election dealt with the bonds for the building of Harbison Canyon School. There are those who claim it wasn't needed; that school rooms are standing empty, and feel the increase asked for operation is as unnecessary. There are two empty rooms in the district. One reason was lack of money for another teacher's salary, so a combination class of two grades being taught by one teacher is the reason for one room being empty. If the district had built to take care of just this year's enrollment how they would have been criticized for lack of foresight a few years from now.

To the parents who feel the school is running the buses late on purpose: The school buses aren't late because the school wishes to drive home the need for more funds. The buses break down because they are worn out. Such demonstrative cooperation from the buses can be counted on:

Taxes are too high? If your taxes are high then everyone's taxes are high. Ever so many things we spend our money on are high. We are dealing with a necessity of our way of life, not a luxury. Just having a school with the doors open is not going to educate the children who are going to be the life blood of our nation. One gets the feeling that people think the little ones will walk into school, sit for six hours and knowledge and skill will permeate their minds and hands in a rather magic way because they have been to school. If this does not occur, then the blame is laid at the teacher's kitchen, while Mr. John Reynolds took tickets at the door.

A floor show was a highlight of the evening presented by a group of Polish dancers from San Diego, led by Edward P. Yacher, and including Bonny and Luck Wnuk. Joe Kraynak and Donna Marrow who donated their talents for the affair.

Mrs. McKaskle, whose parents were born in Europe, was born in the United States. She speaks the language of her parents fluently and is teaching it to her young son, 6, a pupil at Alpine Union School.

feet, then administrations's feet, then the state and on and on but never, never, at the lack of effort or interest of the taxpayer.

Another point to be aired is the salary drawn by our superintendent. Mr. Gilley was hired because he had training in a specific area needed by our district. He made a survey which if the district had hired an outsider to do would have cost from five to seven thousand dollars. He did this under salary the first year he was here. He extracted $8,500 from the state which was not in the states's plans for Alpine's building fund. He has brought his own equipment and tools to school so the district did not have to buy or hire the use of things which were necessary. The major part of his life the last four years has gone into the running of Alpine school. It is not an eight-hour a day job. His hourly wage figures out at $3.81. He is entitled by law to six assistants, he gets by with one. Alpine has received its money's worth if they will but recognize the fact and give credit where credit is due instead of undermining the school's effectiveness with petty destructive criticism.

The time to show disapproval of the school board is when the school board election comes up. The time to show disapproval of a school employee is when their contracts are up for renewal. The time and place to show disapproval of high taxes is when and where they are actually out of line. Our elementary school should and must not be made the whipping boy of all the dissatisfaction with hgovernment taxation and spending.

Sincerely,
 Citizens Committee for
 "Action"

Echo Subscriptions To Benefit Club

The Alpine Women's Club have authorized a committee to embark on a fund raising campaign. The campaign consists of obtaining subscriptions to the Alpine Echo, and the commissions for obtaining the subscriptions will be for the benefit of the Club's Benevolent Fund.

The campaign began on May 1 and the committee reports that they are extremely well satisfied with the results so far.

The Benevolent Fund is used to provide scholarships to help a local boy or girl finish college; to support the local Boy Scouts; and for contributions to the Retarded Children Fund. During the past season, the club donated $250 to the Asthma Foundation for asthma research at Scripps Clinic in La Jolla. The committee anticipates that the new campaign, together with their other means of raising money for the Benevolent Fund, will enable the club to give greater support during the coming year to their worthwhile charities.

The Alpine Echo has been gaining readership with each issue. It now goes all over San Diego County, the State of California, and there are also subscribers in New York, Ohio, Oregon, Missouri, New Mexico, Nebraska, Kansas and Canada. The committee anticipates that through their activities, friends and relatives of their membership and other residents of the Alpine area in many other states will soon become subscribers.

SD Chamber Opposes Hotel Room Tax

The Board of Directors of the City of San Diego Chamber of Commerce have gone on record as being opposed to the imposition of a hotel room tax by either the City or County of San Diego.

The Chamber's Governmental Affairs Committee undertook the study of a tax on hotel rooms after the City Council of San Diego directed the City Manager to conduct an inquiry and study of such a tax.

Based on a report submitted by the Committee, the Board of Directors unanimously passed the following resolution. That the San Diego Chamber oppose the imposition of a tax on visitors by the City or County of San Diego, since such a measure would inhibit commercial development, be a deterrent to the increasingly important tourist industry and become an obstacle to efforts to establish San Diego as an important convention center. A room tax is further objectionable for the reason that it places an additional heavy administrative and public relations burden on the community's hostilities, and at the same time makes tax collectors of those who are greeters and hosts.

The 5th through the 7th Grade students will continue to hold their fun meetings on Monday evenings and the Jr. and High School age group will meet on Sunday evenings at the Harbison Canyon Community Church. Once again the invitation is extended to all young people to join these groups for much fun and fine fellowship.

Did you see the perfectly beautiful wisteria vine in full bloom at Nellie High's? As you all know the world famous one in Sierra Madera has been cut down to make room for a housing project and I am sure that if this one keeps on we will have one in the Mountain Empire just as famous. Seems too bad these lovely spring blooms don't last longer.

The wonder of women and what they accomplish. I attended the 59th Convention of the California Federation of Women's Club at the El Cortez Hotel in San Diego. It was a long convention that seemed fascinatingly short. The delegates represented 6500 club women that have clocked up over one million hours of community work this past year. Some of our very best legislation has been instigated by this group. A wonderful experience. I wish you all could have shared it with me.

Now that the weather is clear and all that mud has dried the Pine Valley Stables are going ahead with their building program. There will be a regulation show ring 250'x125', new stables with 12 box stalls and tack rooms, a three bedroom house for the manager and three picnic areas. All this is just below the Pine Valley bridge south of Highway 80 on a 40-acre tract and will be about the finest riding stables in this area. There are at least 30 horses for rent at all times at the reasonable rate of $2.00 per hour for the first hour and $1.00 for each additional hour.

BIG OAK SPRINGS UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

An attraction for local residents, as well as people from other areas who are looking for a place to swim, picnic, and relax is the Big Oak Springs Resort on Old Highway 80 (Willows Road) about 5 miles east of Alpine. The property was the former Lemon ranch, home of the Lemon family for many years.

NEW RESIDENTS FOR ALPINE

Mrs. Charlene Brown of Alpine La Mesa Realty Company announces the lease with option to buy of the Elmer Cooke property on Alpine Terrace Road to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott. This choice property consists of a new three bedroom home on an acre of land. Mr. and Mrs. Scott have four youngsters who enjoy little league baseball. Mr. Scott is a salesman for a building supply company. They all like Alpine.

Mrs. Brown also has leased the eleven-acre ranch with two homes on East Highway 80, next to the Lazy A Ranches to Mr. and Mrs. C. Migliore and their four children. This ranch is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Dadmun of San Jose, California. Mr. and Mrs. Magliore own the Rancho Cal-Cado in Rialto, California. He is a grower of choice avocados. They want to get to the country where they can raise horses, as his ranch is soon to be subdivided.

Also newcomers to Alpine are Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ragsdale and their two daughters who rented the Jim Clements property on North Victoria Drive. Mrs. Brown also rented the nice new two bedroom home belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Basil Spears on Olivewood Lane to Mr. and Mrs. Curt and their three daughters. Mr. Curt will be based at Laguna Junction. The Curts are from Colorado.

Also newcomers to Alpine are Mr. William B. Tragsdorf and his mother who have leased for a year the Charles B. DeWitt property on DeWitt Terrace. This large three bedroom home was formerly Mr. DeWitt's home where he lived with his mother. Mr. Tragsdorf has been living in Clairmont and wants to move to a better climate.

Party for Mary Benton Peters

Mrs. John Peters (Mary Benton) was married in Iowa May 2nd, is in Alpine now for a short stay before returning to Iowa to make her home. She will be honored at a party in Fuller Hall June 2nd, Saturday evening, sponsored by the Adult Bible Class of which she is President. Hostesses for the event are Mrs. Beula Ford and Mrs. Rennie Hollett. Mr. Peters will arrive in Alpine about May 30 to attend the party and take Mrs. Peters back with him to their home in Grinnell, Iowa.

New managers of the attractive picnic and trailer park are Paul and Iva Estep whose home is at the corner of Eltinge Drive and Marshall Road. The Esteps have leased the property with an option to purchase. It has been run by Mr. and Mrs. Andy Andrews for the past two years.

Paul and Iva Estep are not beginners in the entertainment park business. They have had extensive experience in the resort management having owned and managed trailer parks for 25 years and resorts for the past 12. Prior to the Big Oak Springs venture, they had a place in Palm Springs, in Desert Hot Springs, and others, and they have had trailer parks in Chula Vista and National City as well as the Alpine-Outpost park and market which they ran for two years.

The Big Oak resort will have space for permanent trailer living and for trailer camping, as well as tent camping. They are prepared to accommodate trailer clubs, of which there are about 30 in Southern California alone. They can handle picnics for individuals or for groups up to 300. The resort will provide tables and stoves for the picnickers. There is to be a beverage and snack bar, a heated pool, and a hiking trail. Another attraction is the spring fed graceful pond which will be graced by a pair of swans. "If I can find a pair," said Mrs. Estep.

Natives of Missouri, the couple has lived in California since 1929 where they raised a son and daughter in Glendale. Both children are now married and there are 5 grandchildren. Mrs. Estep is a beginning painter, intensely interested in her art. She has worked in ceramics, china painting and Dresden work for many years and conducted a school for the latter two in Tucson, Arizona. Her Dresden dolls have won many prizes.

Mr. Estep is past president of the Alpine Chamber of Commerce, is president of the Acacia Masonic club of Alpine and a Kiwanis member. Mrs. Estep is a member of the Alpine Woman's Club, of the Acacia club, Eastern Star, and is a charter member of the Angle View Crippled Children's Hospital Auxiliary of Desert Springs. Both are members of the Sons and Daughters of America and for over 30 years have belonged to the Moose Lodge in which they have both held offices.

The Big Oak Springs Resort opening is planned for Memorial Day. It is open now, they stated, for picnics and for those who wish to drop in for a swim, but by Memorial Day many of the new plans and improvements will be completed.

Horse! Horses!

By JACKIE DALZELL

Normal people are sleeping, even the sun is still in bed. But not horse folks on their way to a show. The buzz of clipping, sloshing of water and soap, and lots of elbow grease with the brush. The creature who is receiving all of this attention is none other than the horse who, with gleam in eye, at the first chance will lay down and roll.

Now to the house to rush and get ready, dress the kids while Pop loads the equipment. Get everything that needs to go—comb, brush, extra clothes (just in case), blankets, food, safety pins and rubber bands, hats, scarfs, chaps, spurs, saddles, bridles and all the extras. Then check all the animals to be left at home. Dogs and their pups, okay; calf and pigs, too. Make sure all water and electricity is turned off. Well, it's only 45 minutes later than we had planned to leave, but we're on our way to another horse show.

The Escondido show was a grand success. Dr. and Mrs. Bob Immenschuh's daughter Sandy and pony, Little Sam, came home with two trophies. Sandy and Sam won the Western Pleasure pony class, and the halter pony class. Sandy has done all the training on Sam herself.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dargitz and children, Susan and Jimmy, are the proud new owners of the pony of the Americas filly, Peacock's Papoose, who stood fourth in a large class of mares on Saturday at Escondido.

The POA mare, Melody, owned by Mr. and Mrs. George Crabtree, and in training at Peacock Ranch, was fifth in the same class.

Church Dalzell's Joe's Thunderbird was sixth in the POA stallion class. A total of 18 POA's were shown at Escondido. There are only 65 in the state of California so far.

Jack Wilson will soon start the training of his Appaloosa stallion, Abasaukee Banjo. This is the young stallion from Montana.

The Tumbleweed Riders will hold their annual open show this coming Sunday at their ring in Lakeside. There will be classes for all. Judge is Pete Clarke from Long Beach, California.

Show Manager Norman Foster has announced two changes in the Alpine Horse Show program. One is a halter class for horses two years and under which are non-registerable which has been added to the Sunday schedule. This will be the second class of the morning. This is for horses which cannot be registered in the Palomino, Appaloosa, Pinto, Half-Arabian, Arabian, Quarterhorse, Morgan, or any other recognized breed association.

The Arabian Western Pleasure class has been changed to include both Half and Full registered Arabians. Registration papers to be shown.
