PTA HALLOWEEN CARNIVALS IN ALPINE, HARBISON HUGE SUCCESS

The Halloween Carnivals held last Thursday evening, October 31st, by the PTA groups at the Alpine school and at the Harbison Canyon school brought out two of the largest crowds for some time in these two communities.

The festivities at both schools started at 5:30 in the evening and lasted until 8:30 at the Harbison school and until 9:30 at the Alpine school. A dance for all teenagers followed the Carnival at the Alpine school with the music furnished by the Pharoahs dance combo from Harbison Canyon. These popular musicians donated their services for this affair in order that all the proceeds could go to the PTA.

At the Alpine Carnival there were many booths, including a ping pong and water pistol game, a country store, a penny pitch, a "Hit the Witch" dart game, a balloon and dart game, a "Soak the Teacher" booth, and a Pirate's Treasure booth. Supt. Paul Clay and Principal Leo Ryan took turns in the "Soak the Teacher" booth and allowed the participants to throw wet sponges at them. Board Trustees Charles Kildgore, Charles Campbell and Lawrence Willcox each manned a booth. Rich Zuelke was the Pirate at the Pirate's Treasure booth. Leta Judd played the Witch.

Bridgie Allen and her helpers prepared a spaghetti dinner and about 200 were served before the food ran out. Alice Irvine ran the hot dog, donut and cider booth and also sold out completely. Mimi-Wilson ran the Cake Walk and 15

The next regular meeting of the Alpine Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors will be held next Wednesday, November 13th, at 8 p.m. at the Youth Center.

The Board will review the Chamber's program for the next year. President Ross Mallette urges all members to attend this meeting and assist the Board in outlining a constructive program to publicize the Alpine area and promote projects that will be beneficial to the community.

C.A.P. Invites Teenager To Meeting

Mrs. Hilda Naylor, Commander of the Alpine Civil Air Patrol Squadron, has extended an invitation to all area teenagers, 13 to 18, to attend their meeting Saturday, November 9th, at the Alpine Youth Center at 1 p.m.

An Air Force film will be featured at the meeting.

INTIMATE GLIMPSES

By BEA LA FORCE

This year I mean to be ready for the holidays in time. This is one season I won't be caught with my Thanksgiving place cards unwritten, my Christmas stickers unstuck, or my New Year's resolutions unresolved. I'm beginning with the New Year's resolutions, and for the first one, I'm going to write to the magazines I take and state my irritation with one specific and growing annoyance. That is the cards they stick between the pages of every issue selling things by mail with the order card attached. It was understandable when they put in these cards for subscription renewals. But now they are selling things unrelated to the magazine at all—stereo and hi-fi record albums, plastic flower kits, maps, book club deals, and Heaven only knows what all.

This, in my opinion, goes under the heading of "invasion of privacy." When we buy a magazine, especially by subscription, it is a bargain with the publisher for reading material published by his magazine, in his magazine. It's trickery to send us a periodical, which, upon being opened, immediately flips its pages to a stiff card securely stapled inside with a sales spiel on it for some other product. I promptly tear out the card and throw it away. But this is only half the battle. The advertisers anticipated this action, so stuck a second half of card further along and this part flips its ugly face at you with the next ruffle of the pages. I wouldn't buy what this kind of device is selling even if I needed it.

Why do we put up with this thing? I know that it annoys almost everyone as much as it annoys me. I've asked many people and always get a prompt admission that the card trick burns them up. One man said he had dropped all his magazine subscriptions because of this imposition on his time and temper. He called it "an insult to adult patience." When he sits down to read, said this business man, he wants to get away from the work-a-day sales talk and all the pressure that goes with it. "I want to rest my mind and temper," he said, "but now, before I can get

Parent-Teacher Meetings Start Tues.

Parent-Teacher conferences will begin Tuesday in the Alpine and Harbison Canyon schools. Parents will receive an invitation with a notice of the time of their appointment with the teacher of each of their children.

Mr. Paul Clay, Superintendent of the Alpine Union School District urges that all parents attempt to meet with the teachers as these meetings have proved important to the children's progress. It also gives an opportunity for the parent to become acquainted with the teacher, the school facilities, and the general program being followed in each grade. Parents also have the opportunity to ask any questions which have arisen since school has started.

He states that it was necessary to cut the building into two sections in order that it could be transported to Alpine. It will be placed on a new foundation on one of the lots in his subdivision and the two sections rejoined.

PHONE COMPANY FILES RATE STUDY WITH P. U. COMMISSION

The Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company has submitted to the California Public Utilities Commission the results of a study made by them in regard to telephone rates and toll-free service areas for the San Diego metropolitan area.

On August 30 the Telephone Company filed an application with the PUC requesting increases in rates of from 15 cents to 35 cents per month for phones in this area to compensate for their increased operating costs. The application stated that a supplementary study would be made in regard to rates and toll-free service and would be submitted to the Commission when completed. The supplementary study has been completed and was submitted to the Commission last Friday.

B. L. Records, Exchange Manager for the Telephone Company for the area which extends from El Cajon to Jacumba and includes Ramona and Julian, states that the supplementary report is a proposal only for the consideration of the Commission in determining whether increased rates and extended toll-free service are justified in the San Diego metropolitan area at this time. Mr. Records says that a determination will have to be made as to whether the population and number of phones in service has increased to the point that the increased rates and

Annual Fashion Show To Be Next Week

The Annual Fashion Show of the Woman's Club to be held Tuesday, Nov. 12, promises to be quite different this year, reports Mrs. C. P. Vancil, publicity chairman.

After the pot-luck luncheon served at noon, there will be a showing of new fall styles in furs by Graf's of San Diego, models being club members Mesdames J. C. LaForce, Orville Lusk, Carl McCall, Forrest Hohanshelt, Marcus Schaeffer, C. P. Vancil, and Miss Margaret Lowthian. Mr. Ludi Graf will indicate on a blackboard how skins are used in the manufacture of garments, how designs are executed, the cutting of skins to conform to the designer's concept, as well as many other details. He will also tell what we should know about furs, the different quality of skins, the care of and how to choose the fur that gives the wearer the most joy, and his closing remarks will include a questions and answer period. Mr. Graf has graciously donated a fur collar which will be won by some lucky lady in the audience.

There will be a display of jewelry by Park Lane. Margery Tockstein will be the demonstrator and she promises a gift of jewelry to the club member bringing the most guests. Mrs. Katherine Black who is general chairman of the Fashion Show is donating a jewelry box into which Mrs. Tockstein is putting some lovely pieces of jewelry to be won by some lucky lady.

Next to be shown is sportswear by Alpine's own Cindy's Active Sportswear Shop. The new stretch fabric which has become so popular will be featured in skirts and capris. Catalina sweaters will be exhibited, as well as many other items including western outfits and children's clothes. Models for this event will be Mrs. LaForce, Mrs. T. L. Judd, and Mrs. Pat Esmay.

Rotary Looks Back 38 Years

An interesting meeting took place last Wednesday at high noon when Mr. Ernest Wright of Alpine visited the La Mesa Rotary Club.

The club celebrated its 38th anniversary and had three charter members present and the same speaker, Mr. Lawrence Klauber, who appeared at the Charter Dinner and who spoke on the same subject, "Rattlesnakes." Mr. Klauber is a former president of the San Diego Gas and Electric Company.

Out of the original charter members only three remain and although Mr. Wright is one of the oldest, his colleagues agreed that he hadn't changed much over the years, a fact he attributed mainly to his good health, his busy life on their ranch and last but not least, Alpine's wonderful climate.

He and Mrs. Wright have lived in the area for 14 years.

County Road Namer Needs Roadnaming

After the good size crowd had been waiting for Mr. Theo Yakel for about an hour at Winnetka Ranch, where Mr. Yakel was supposed to speak and answer questions on road naming in the area of Deerhorn and Honey Springs road, a spokesman called a neighbor to see if Mr. Yakel had been seen. Yes, he had been there and according to the neighbor had been given instructions for finding Winnetka Ranch.

However, he never found it and the congenial crowd merely adjourned to a pleasant neighborly confab. The hope was expressed that the people gathered could still get their questions answered but they hope they won't have to wait for the road to be named first.

WHO STORED THE ACORNS?

The big neon sign in front of Tappy's Motel on Highway 80 had acted up from time to time for the past couple of years. The sign men and electricians fixed it and it would go along okay for a while. Then last week it began flickering as never before and Motel owner, Mrs. Katherine Black, saw smoke coming from it and again called the electricians.

This time they took it apart and looked in the box under the sign. To everyone's amazement they found it full to the top of acorns which were pressing on the electric wires and beginning to burn. Mrs. Black says there was a big bucket full of the nuts. And the mystery is, how did they get in the box? The only openings in it are two small ones only a fraction larger than the acorns themselves. The box is at least 20 feet up in the air on a pole. No rat hole had been gnawed in the box. So how did the nuts get stowed away back in the box and so neatly packed?

Woodpeckers, is the guess of some folk, pack rats of others. Or field mice. We suspect the latter varmit since they alone are small enough to get inside with the loot and get it out again, and, we know our wild animals are too smart to store provisions they can never use. Maybe we should elect some to Congress?

Cub Scouts Collect Litter

If you haven't noticed as yet, the Alpine Cub Scouts of Troop 350 were busy last Saturday morning cleaning litter from both sides of Highway 80 and a section of Arnold Way.

Ten Cubs which included Mike Sansoucie, Billy Ignalls, Ricky Alkire, Tim Brant, Robert Weeks, Phillip Wedel, Charles Koon, John Young, Eric Swenson and Richie Finch. Charles Koon was a civilian helper so to speak. The Cubs, with their leaders collected one truck and one car full of debris tossed aside by thoughtless drivers.

After a beehive of activity, the boys were treated to a weinie roast at the Youth Center. At that time each Scout was presented Goodwill bags to be distributed during the week and collected Saturday, Nov. 9, in participation with the Goodwill Industries.

If you have not been contacted by any Cub Scout members and have useful items to donate to a worthy cause, please call Mrs. Tony Young, 445-3301 who will see that a Cub Scout arrives at your home with a Goodwill bag. The Cubs will be in uniform and will be wearing their "Good Turn" badges.

Women's Guild To Hold Annual Bazaar

The Women's Guild of the Alpine Community Church will hold their annual bazaar in Fuller Hall on Saturday, December 7, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. according to Mrs. Vivienne Drey, Ways and Means chairman.

This year they will be featuring their well-known and popular one pound fruitcake. Also many other useful times such as aprons, baked goods, plants and Christmas cards will be available. They are especially noted for their hand embroidered articles and rag rugs, of which there is a large selection.

Luncheon will be served from 11:30 until 2 p.m. Tickets may be obtained from Clark's Chevron Station or in the dining room for $1 for adults, children under 12, 75c.

Harbison PTA Holds Monthly Meeting

A large group attended the Harbison Canyon PTA meeting Tuesday night and received an excellent and informative presentation from the guest speakers.

Mr. Harold Gano, Administrator of the El Cajon Valley Hospital, stressed the point that hospitals are a facility designed to assist doctors. He pointed out that in an emergency a hospital will give all possible aid and make every attempt to locate your family physician and follow his specific orders before either of the two doctors on call will render more than the immediate emergency demands.

Mrs. Willman, County Health Department nurse, explained the program of eye tests, hearing tests and dental examinations which are designed to promote better health and provide health information through the schools. Mrs. Ablett, school nurse for Harbison Canyon and Alpine, answered questions from the audience. Throughout the program first aid training for parents was stressed and its value emphasized.

Hostesses for this meeting were the sixth grade room mothers.

The December meeting of the HCPTA will be the Christmas program and the next regular meeting will be held in January.

BEA LaFORCE

Alpine Writer's Novel Published

Readers of the Echo and others who have enjoyed Bea La Force's writing will be pleased to learn that her first full length novel, a murder mystery has been published in New York.

Title, "The Sound of Hasty Footsteps," the book uses a former Alpine house, the large one on Rancho del Sequan, which burned down some 12 years ago, as its setting, but, the author says, she moved the house to San Diego for the story.

The story's main character is a young woman who has always loved the old house where she lived as a child and longs to again make it her home. Mystery surrounds the place, and some people think it is haunted, but this does not deter the young woman who is impelled to secure the place for herself and her family. How she does this, and with what frightening experiences is the stuff of which the story is made. Reviewers say the suspense is excellent and the mystery baffling.

County librarian Frances Hahn has read the book and recommends it for mystery fans. It will be on the shelves of all the libraries and in the book stores this week.

Published by Thomas Bouregy and Company, Inc. of New York under their Avalon mystery imprint, the book is attractively printed and bound in hard cover. Bea says she is well along towards the end of the second book for which she is already under contract with the same company.

HORSES! HORSES! HORSES!

By MARGARET LOWTHIAN

The Pine Valley Riders horse show last Sunday at the Pine Valley Stables was a very successful event for the first show given by this organization. It is their intention to hold future shows at Pine Valley, with a two-day schedule for the spring.

Alpiner Kathy Casey, riding her good filly, April Dawn, won seven ribbons. A first in Trail horses (17 and under), a second in Bareback Horsemanship (13 through 17), a third in each Trail Horse (open) and Western Horsemanship Novice and fifths in Showmanship in Hand, Western Horsemanship (13 through 17), and Western Pleasure (13 through 17). This was the first show for Kathy and April Dawn since the Alpine Vejas Days show last August. These two did the honors for Alpine, and certainly brought home the bacon.

Dorrie Immenschuh and her daughter, Sandy Elliott, took turns showing their mare, Camelot Cissy. Sandy beat her mother's record winning two firsts to Dorrie's one. I guess there were more classes for Sandy.

The first place winners in each of the classes were: Diane Graser showing Fernella, Showmanship in Hand. Diane Myers on Willie Wampum, Bareback Horsemanship (12 and under). Diane Graser on Fernella, Bareback Horsemanship (13 through 17). Sandy Elliot riding Camelot Cissy, Western Horsemanship (12 and under). Jerry Finnerty on Snippy King, Western Horsemanship (13 through 17) Kathy Casey on April Dawn, Trail Horses (17 and under). Diane Graser and Fernella, Trail Horses (open). Rusty Hunter on Sheriff Morgan, Bareback Horsemanship (18 and over). Sandy Elliott and Camelot Cissy, Western Pleasure (12 and under). Dorrie Immenschuh on Camelot Cissy, Western Pleasure (18 and over). Shannon Clark on Bell Andy, Western Pleasure (13 through 17). Gloria Rubidaux on Camelot Night, Western Pleasure (open). Susan Shelton and Sterling Lola, Western Horsemanship Novice. Gary Finnerty on Snippy King, Western Jumping. Gloria Rubideux and Camelot Night, Registered Quarter Horses Pleasure. Lee Pitman on Batchlor, Novice Western Pleasure.

Diane Graser riding her good Arabian mare, Fernella, was high point rider in this show. Diane is a student at Frank Evans' Buckeye Ranch in El Cajon.

Speaking of Frank Evans—last Friday he showed three of our Willow Glen Farm mares in the Appaloosa classes at the Arizona State Fair horse show at Phoenix. Flurida Lea IV won the two-year-old filly class, Reserve Champion Mare, and second in the Novice Western Pleasure class. R. H. Marvel II was first in the three-year-old class, and second in the Trail Horse class. R. H. Blue Bonnett, was first in four and over mares, Show Champion Mare, and

Summer Tour For SD State Students

A meeting will be held on November 8 at San Diego State, on the 1964 summer sightseeing-study tour to Europe, Mexico and the Caribbean for potential tour members.

The 58-day tour will extend from June 22 through August 18 and covers 12 countries. Total cost of the tour from San Diego to San Diego is $1,855.

Transportation, meals, board, guide service will be provided. A course in international economics may be taken for college credit. Tour members must be high school graduates or have reached the age of 21 years.

Eugene P. Browns, professor of accounting at San Diego State, will direct the tour with Dr. Nelson Norman, associate professor of history at San Diego State. Brown has coordinated six previous college tours.

Brown said the travelers will leave for Mexico City, Jamaica, Puerto Rico, and continue to Portugal, Spain, France, Holland, Switzerland, Italy, Austria, Germany, Belgium and England.

Beginning with the Pyramids of the Sun and the Moon in Mexico and ending with an excursion to the New York World's Fair, the tour will span two continents with visits to Madrid, the Moorish capitol of Spain, to Paris during the celebration of Bastille Day, and to a ski resort in the Swiss Alps.

A stopover will be made at the Eternal City of Rome to the Basilica of St. Francis of Assisi, at the Guy Amavisca, who is the caretaker for the J. M. Cunningham's on Midway Drive, is pictured with the female bobcat which he snared on the property. The bobcat had been killing the chickens and ducks, and so Guy set a wire snare behind the barn. On Monday morning, the bobcat was found caught in the snare. She measured 56 inches from her front paws to her back paws as she is shown hung in the picture. Guy believes there is another bobcat in the area, and on Tuesday morning found more tracks, probably made by a male. He set another snare and hopes to catch the second cat one night soon. The dog in the picture is Guy's Chihuahua.

Active Organizations

Live, wide-awake, progressive communities do not just happen. They are the result of the energy and initiative of individuals and organizations.

In Alpine we have a Chamber of Commerce that is working together with the merchants and citizens of the community for the promotion of Alpine. The Kiwanis Club is actively engaged on constructive programs. The PTAs are energetic and accomplishing their purposes. The Woman's Club is a "tower of strength" in the community. And several other organizations are making Alpine a better place to live and do business.

In regard to one organization in our community, the Youth Center, we have heard criticism that it does not have a constructive program for the youth. This is one organization the entire community should support.

This is much more offensive when it happens in an old respected periodical, than in some lesser one. When the magazine your grandmother counted on begins to try to con the subscriber, it is not only irritating; it is saddening as well. One more American precept has been violated. One more affront to our personal freedom of choice. We choose the magazine because we want to read its published contents and we accept the advertising that goes with this, but we don't bargain for the mail-in sales card stuck between the pages. It's comparative to ordering a meal in a restaurant and then having the waiter shove a placard at you with the soup urging you to buy a side of beef, or a case of house paint, or a new bedroom rug, or a slip-proof girdle, or whatever, when all you came in for is a decent dinner, and you prefer to buy all these things in the market place when you need them and feel like shopping and so on. Of course, some people might like that kind of restaurant, but not me. But then I'm always sus-

My committee and I would like to take this opportunity to thank our many friends and neighbors who donated to and attended the pot-luck dinner we gave at the Live Oak Springs Resort last Saturday, November 3.

Especially we wish to thank the Litho Printing Company of Moreno Lake, Jim West of the Live Oak Springs Resort for his generosity and the entertainment, and also Father Keller for the announcement he made, which altogether made the affair a huge success.

toll-free areas proposed would be feasible.

The supplementary study suggests a schedule of increases in rates for the different types of service, and also suggests additional areas that would become toll-free.

The effect on the Alpine subscribers as suggested by the Telephone Company, according to Mr. Records, would be to reduce the monthly rate for business phones from $18.50 per month plus tax to $14 per month plus tax. A residential single-party line would increase from $6.65 per month plus tax to $6.75 per month plus tax, and a residential two-party line would increase from $5.1-0 per month plus tax to $5.25 per month plus tax.

Also, the toll-free areas would be expanded to include telephones in National City, Chula Vista, Coronado, Pacific Beach, La Jolla and San Ysidro. At the present time Alpine subscribers can reach 199,319 other telephones toll-free. The proposed change would increase this number to 273,790.

Mr. Records stressed the point that this supplementary study has been prepared by the Telephone Company for the consideration of the Commission and that it may be as long as two years before a determination of rate changes and service area can go into effect.

Halloween Carnivals Huge Success

cakes which had been donated by PTA members were won by lucky participants.

The Rancho Viejas Resort donated a hayrack, horses and driver for the occasion which were much enjoyed for a ride around the school.

The costume parade at the Alpine school was a lot of fun with the children dressed in every conceivable kind of costume. As the participants paraded across the auditorium stage the funniest costume, the tiniest participant, the prettiest costume were chosen.

Mrs. Lucille Wooldridge, chairman of the PTA Ways and Means Committee, who was in charge of the carnival at Alpine stated that she was particularly thankful to the group of teenage boys who put up the booths and helped in running them. She reported that the affair was a financial success for the PTA and wished to thank all the persons who helped in running it, and the whole community for the wonderful support.

At the Harbison Carnival there were many of the same game booths available including bowling, a fish pond, a penny pitch, a wheel of fortune, a ring toss, a bean bag throw, and a country store.

The PTA mothers prepared a dinner of Sloppy Joe hamburgers, beans and cole slaw anticipating 100 persons, and they, too, were completely sold out. The Boy Scouts had a booth at which they sold homemade cake and homemade ice cream. The Harbison cake walk had 29 cakes donated by the mothers, all beautifully decorated for Halloween, and all were won by participants.

Mrs. Marsha Strohl, mother of Mrs. Carolyn Palthe who was visiting from Willows, California, was the winner in the rug raffle. The rug was a loomed rag rug donated to the PTA for this purpose.

The winners in the Costume Parade at Harbison were Kathy Warner as the prettiest, Eddie Hommerickhouse the most original, and Randy McCann the funniest.

Mrs. Virgie Presley, president of the Harbison PTA, reports that their carnival, also, was a financial success, and stated that the cooperation of all the members was responsible.

oped as a home for the Phelps family, and it is expected that it will be completed the early part of next year.

The home is being developed on a sloping lot which will permit the foundation to be built a sufficient height to construct a partial basement under the house.

The subdivision lies on a gently rolling area sloping to the North and has an excellent view of El Capitan and the mountains to the North. Mr. Phelps has sold two 5-acre parcels, and is now having a road constructed to serve these two parcels and his own home site. Fred Rushing, local grading contractor, is constructing the road which will be graded and oiled. A water service line will be installed in the new roadway to serve the home sites from a connection to the existing Rio water main in Alpine Heights Road.

ALPINE

By DEBBIE MARSHALL

Attending a meeting of the Cactus and Succulent society of San Diego last Saturday were four Alpine ladies, all cacti enthusiasts. The Alpine Gardener, Jean McCullough, was accompanied by Mrs. Lawrence Michel, Mrs. Wm. Ellsberg and Miss Edith Cromarty to the meeting which was held in Lakeside. Every time, says Jean, they learn something about the amazing cactus and succulent families.

Mrs. John Vitalich of Victoria B.C. will entertain her Canasta Club on Wednesday next at luncheon and cards. This same group of eight women have been meeting for years at each other's homes. They include, besides the hostess this time, Mrs. George Butcher, Mrs. Willard Hays, Mrs. Carl Schweiss, Mrs. Harold Johnson, Mrs. Marcus Schaeffer, and Mrs. Alice Smith, formerly of Alpine, who now drives down from her Vista home, and Mrs. Mae McGuinness, also a former Alpine, who comes from Escondido.

Dr. J. C. LaForce and his wife Barbara, who is the daughter of the H. H. Lathams of Alpine Terrace, and their 2-year-old daughter, Jessica, and nine-month-old daughter, Allison, visited his parents at the family home, Sky Mesa, last weekend.

The Women's Guild of the Alpine Community Congregational Church had their birthday luncheon in Fuller Hall Wednesday, and spent a full day working on preparations for the annual Christmas bazaar set for December 7. The women also began to make their Christmas cakes, with Mrs. H. H. Latham and Mrs. Rennie Hollett the cake committee. These delicious cakes will be on sale at the bazaar.

The William Ellsbergs were delightfully entertained last week at the Premier of the movie "Four For Texas" as the guest of Victor Buono, one of the film's stars. Mr. Buono, a San Diego actor who has succeeded very well in Hollywood, also invited the Ellsbergs to his party afterwards where they met many "names" from the theatrical world.

ily from Lakewood over the week-end. They made a trip to Tijuana to buy pinatas to be used at Christmas time. On Sunday they made a trip to the San Diego zoo.

Mr. J. Thanner of Viejas View Lane entered El Cajon Valley Hospital on Tuesday and is reported to be doing fine.

Also in El Cajon Valley Hospital is Mrs. Louise Moore, recent newcomer to the area and aunt of Mrs. Betty Isaacs. Mrs. Moore underwent major surgery on Wednesday and is progressing satisfactorily.

CAMPO

By FAY FARRIS

Board members of Mt. Empire Republican Women, Federated met at the home of Muriel Utt last week, and made plans for the next meeting which was held this week on Thursday at the home of Rubye Clark in Descanso.

Gwen Leach of Campo was taken to El Cajon Valley Hospital on Saturday a week ago, and had surgery on the following Monday. She expects to remain in the hospital for 10 days. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Another group of members of Homemakers Club of Campo journeyed to Tecate, U.S.A., on Tuesday last week, and worked on the Christmas project. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess Mary Hutchinson, and a very pleasant day was enjoyed by the following: Josephine Hite, Letitia Hite, Jane Baxter, Marian Pearce, Lolita Pinto of Tecate. Dell Nielsen, Ardelle Craft, Phoebe Thompson, Marie Martin Marie Lindemann, Fay Farris of Lake Morena and Pearl Seymour of Potrero.

Lake Morena Woman's Club will hold a rummage sale at the Club Room adjoining the Print Shop in Morena Village on Saturday, November 9. The ladies have collected a large amount of good clothing and some furniture for this sale. Do not miss this opportunity. The hours will be 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Arvilla Leach Johnson and her two children are at the Leach home at Cameron Corners while her mother is in the hospital. Her husband, Larry, brought them over from Tempe, Arizona the day her mother went to the hospital.

Horse accidents seem to be quite prevalent in the Campo area recently. Juanita Anderson of Buckman Springs Road and her family had just acquired a horse, and one night last week it wandered away, and a neighbor telephoned them about midnight to say they had seen it. When they reached the spot it had been seen it could not be located, and was finally found in Canyon City West of Campo. While Mr. Anderson drove the car, Juanita sat in the back holding a rope wrapped around her hand which was fastened around the horses head - the horse bolted, and Juanita's hand was so badly damaged she spent a few days in the Sharp Hospital, with two broken fingers and other broken bones in the hand. Surgery was performed, and she is wearing a cast.

Pete and Helen Cooper of Buckman Springs Road are driving a new Pontiac Coupe, which was a birthday gift to Helen from Pete on the occasion of her birthday, October 31.

DEERHORN VALLEY

By ROY WALLIN

Hang onto your tractor seats on account of Goldie and Frank Gute are back! "Beeping" the horn as they passed Frank and Jane Meanea's place, they arrived just before Civic Club meeting time last Friday evening. As you probably know (and if you don't, read this!) Frank and Goldie have been up at their summer place on Pend O'Reille Lake in Bayview, Idaho since the first of July. Goldie looks and sounds as if she's in the pink of condition; and although Frank didn't get his deer, he did bag his elk. A warm welcome to you both, we've missed you!

With regard to the November meeting of the Deerhorn Valley Civic Club last Friday night in the Deerhorn Lodge... all positive action on the road-naming as well as the election of officers for the coming year was postponed until the next meeting (December 6th) so as to enable ALL members of our community to be present to voice their opinion and cast their vote. Paul Haughey Jr. has been granted permission by Walt Wolfe, president of the Civic Club, to talk to the club on present developments and future plans at Barrett Lake Estates, at the December meeting. Looks like a full as well as interesting agenda so let's all mark it on the calendar and make a point to be there! Mrs. Marta Krause was the winner of the door prize at last Friday's meeting, and that delicious chocolate and applesauce cakes were home-baked by our hostess, Jane Meanea.

This past weekend was brightened by a visit to our community of two old friends and former neighbors, Emil and Sybil Melfi, presently of Banner. Emil is looking exceptionally well in spite of his recent operation and convalescence. The Melfi's and their friends visited several friends up on the "Hill" and dropped in on the Lodge to visit Emil's handiwork there, the dual fireplace of local granite, as well as his former neighbors gathered there.

Dave Barnum's accordion coupled with the strumming strings of King Davis and Lloyd Miller provided a "sing-along" atmosphere in the Lodge last Saturday night.

Talking about Dave (you too, Sarah!), he's really in the hole over his place on Monte Robles Acres... literally, that is! Every weekend, their labors deepen the well a few feet. Let's hope that water isn't too many feet further down.

In talking to "Mac" McCalmont of P. D. McCalmont Realty in Jamul, the conversation got around to some of the local mail being mis-sent to San Quentin before getting around to Jamul... well, I mentioned the same problem in my last week's column with regard to some of the mail up this-away... figure there must be a small town served by the San Quentin post office that's similar in spelling to Jamul. Called Elaine Metivier, our post-mistress in Jamul, and sure enough there is... it's Tamal; so to avoid any future mix-up, have your correspondents use our ZIP code number, 92035.

Due to the big round-up of square dancers down in Balboa Park in the metropolis to the West of us, the Mountain Star Twirlers postponed their dance and meeting at the Lodge from last Saturday night to this Saturday night.

Continuous refreshments of punch, cookies, doughnuts, cake and coffee was served throughout the evening.

The Halloween party for the children of Dehesa School, sponsored by the Mothers Club was a tremendous success Friday. A fishing booth, dart game, bean bag game, miniature golf and apples on strings with a never-ending prize supply kept the children occupied for the two-hour duration. Continuous refreshments of cookies and punch were served. Mothers Club members assisting were Mrs. Virginia Vockrodt president, Mrs. Betty Everson vice president, Mrs. Wayne Brown secretary-treasurer, Mrs. D. DESCANSO

Plans are being made by the W.S.C.S. for a Turkey Dinner to be held on Friday evening, November 15, from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Chapel of the Hills. The menu will include Turkey and Dressing, Mashed Potatoes and Gravy, Green Beans, Relishes, and Pumpkin Pie. Donations will be $1.50 for adults and 50c for children. Mark this date on your calendar and plan to be there!

A word of thanks to the many people who worked so hard on the Halloween Carnival to make it a big success. Some of these people included chairmen and their committees for planning, those who spent an entire evening setting up the booths, and everyone who worked at the Carnival to make it so enjoyable for the children, who, needless to say, had a wonderful time!

The carpet layers were at the Chapel of the Hills last week laying the new carpet purchased for the church by the W.S.C.S. These ladies have worked hard, using funds from the Fashion Show, and the Plant Sale last Spring to make this possible.

The W.S.C.S. held a 24-hour Prayer Vigil at the Chapel of the Hills on November 2.

Mrs. Corinne Foster, formerly of La Posta Ranch left Honolulu on March 7, 1963 on a trip around the world. She arrived in San Diego last Monday at noon on the S.S. Orcades, P.O. Orient Lines. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Orbom, together with other friends took her out to lunch and visited friends in the afternoon. She returned to the ship, which left at midnight to return to Honolulu. This was Mrs. Foster's first visit back to this area for several years.

Glenn Kay will be discharged from the Army in a few weeks, and will return to his job with the U. S. Forest Service.

Our new Avon representative in this area is Mrs. Kay Baker, who can be reached by calling 445-2712. Kay took over from Mrs. Russell Wick, who is busy with their Lamplighter Gifts and Rock Shop in Guatay, which features rocks, jewelry, and various handmade gifts including children's clothes and Barbie dresses.

Mrs. Loretta Thing and Mrs. Joan Chaverria were hostesses at a Stanley Products Party at the home of Mrs. Chaverria on Oct. 30. Decorated cupcakes and coffee were enjoyed by the ladies.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wolin over the weekend included Mrs. Wolin's brother, Albert Christenson, and her niece, Miss Martha Casad of Escondido on Saturday night. On Sunday, they were visited by another niece, Miss Mary Ann Casad and a friend, also of Escondido. Also home for the day were Miss Rose Wolin, and Buddy Rogers.

Mr. Darnall has been driving the school bus due to the illness of the bus driver, Mr. Moudy.

Mr. and Mrs. Pike Hollett and family visited with relatives in Descanso last week while they were here for several days on business. Pike and Tudy are living in Pulga, in Northern California, where Pike is employed by the Division of Highways.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harper have moved to Escondido, after Mr. Harper retired as foreman at the County Road Station, due to recent illness. The Harpers will be greatly missed by everyone who knew them, and we hope that Mr. Harper will be feeling better soon. A new foreman has not been selected to take Mr. Harper's place.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Malevenda entertained with a card party at their home on Saturday evening. They reported having a good turn out, and everyone had a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Theron Eaton are the proud grandparents of a new baby girl, Tamarra Lynn Eaton, who was born November 2, and weighed 7 pounds, 4 ounces. The very happy parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Eaton of Santa Monica.

Mrs. Eadie Mae Hunsberger is tired of that "old" car that's about two and a half weeks old, and decided to buy a new Pontiac.

The Mother's Club of Dulzura gave the school and pre-school children a Halloween party after school. Later, at the Community Building, there was a party for everyone with doughnuts, punch and coffee.

Mr. Charles Rasmussen is home for a visit between trips at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rasmussen.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Bowen and Mr. and Mrs. Graham of Chula Vista were out to visit their sister, Mrs. Jay Pittman of Barrett.

Mrs. Gloria DeScala's nephew is visiting with her and her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs have a new "Chevvie."

Sir Red and Charlotte Holcomb celebrated their anniversary with friends in Tecate, Mexico.

The Mother's Club made quite a fair amount of money from their rummage sale last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Gray (Louise Newton) became the proud new parents of a boy born October 30. He has been named Dennis Wayne and has a brother at home, William Karl. Little Dennis was born prematurely and weighed only 4 lbs., 5 ounces at birth. He will remain in the hospital until he gains enough weight and vitality to be sent home. Louise and Karl are now living in Spring Valley but are in the canyon quite often to visit "Grandma Marie."

It is a pleasure to report that the Halloween Carnival was very successful and well attended. All the food was sold early in the evening and it was estimated that about 200 people were served throughout the evening. Yours truly came home with a lovely angel food cake which Cory won in the Cake Walk. Of course we

Rules Established For Orange Juice

The Federal Food and Drug Administration has announced that new rules have been established for labels used on orange juice products offered for sale.

The new rules will go into effect on July 1, 1964.

George T. Larrick, Commissioner of Food and Drug, states that the principal requirements of the new rules are that orange juice products that have been heated to destroy enzymes and microorganisms to make it keep longer shall be labeled "pasteurized orange juice" or with some similar designation and also that the use of the word "fresh" in commercially packed orange juice products will not be permitted as it tends to confuse and mislead the customers.

Beer Sale In Stadium Is Delayed

The State Alcoholic Beverage Control Department had issued a license for the sale of beer during the San Diego Charger football games in Balboa Stadium.

However, an appeal was filed by a resident of the City of San Diego to the A. B. C. Department regarding the sale of beer in the stadium stating that the issuance of the license would "put the Government stamp of approval on the use of public facilities adjoining schools and in the park for the massive selling of alcoholic beverages."

The protest will delay the issuance of the license until after the protest is heard and a decision made by the Department.

Caution Urged When Driving In Fog

With one of winter's most treacherous driving hazards—fog
 —now confronting motorists almost daily in many areas of the state, several trip on fog driving are offered by the California Highway Patrol.

Reduce your speed and turn on your headlamps. These, declares California Highway Patrol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden, rank as the first and second most important requirements for safe driving in fog.

"The state's basic speed law now states that weather and visibility are factors that must be considered in determining whether a given speed endangers the safety of persons or property," Crittenden said.
 "That means that driving at the normal speed limit is illegal if fog makes that speed unsafe.

"Headlamps must be turned on when visibility is such that a person or vehicle is not clearly dis-cernible for 500 feet. Never use parking lights instead of headlamps; they are not only ineffective but are illegal to use as driving lights."

Other tips for safe fog driving are:

Increase your following distance.
 A sudden slowdown ahead then won't find you short of room to stop.

Be alert for side traffic. A car entering from a side road is not easily seen, and a split second may save you from a collision.

Last week on Wednesday morning, a group of riders from the El Cajon Valley area trailered their horses to the Archers home on Eltinge and South Grade.
 Harold Archer is a member of this informal riding group which gets together each Wednesday and rides in a different area around the county.

Last week 15 riders participated, starting out from the Archer's home and riding through Palo Verde Ranch to the Riding and Hiking Trail and then south to a pleasant encalypthus grove where they had their lunch, and returned to the Archers. Alpiners who joined in the ride, other than Harold, were his father, George Archer, Jack Berg and Alice Irvine, both of Tavern Road.

The other riders were Chuck Mills, Mrs. Nat Eggert, Nita Hancock, Irene Brauer, Mural Brown, Bernie Gray, Billie Leith, Marvel
 Kling, Dan Young, Elmer McClain and Lester Kling. This group enjoys riding in the Alpine area, and plan to come out again before long.

The Pequeno Riders plan to have a breakfast ride this coming Saturday morning. After a two-hour ride, the kids will be served breakfast prepared by Alice Irvine who is hoping that some of the other mothers will be able to give her a hand.

On Saturday, November 16 the Riders plan to have a bake sale in the center of Alpine to help them raise the funds necessary for the organization to become a member of the California State Horsemen's Association. The bake goods are being donated by the mothers and other women who are interested

ALPINE GARDENER

By JEAN McCULLOUGH

Here in Southern California is not like in colder climates, we do not have to put our gardens to bed for a long cold winter. We just go right on preparing for another season. But this is really the time for stock-taking and renovating.

First, clear out all the old debris, dried leaves, stocks of bloomed-out plants and shrubs. Save these dried leaves, etc., which are not infected with fungus or any other diseases for your compost heap mixed with a little soil and watered enough to keep damp off in an out-of-the-way corner.

Once this cleanup job is accomplished, exchange some of the topsoil for some new fertilizer. Then you are ready to put your new plans into operation. It may be that some of your older rose bushes have become played out. Pull them out, aerate the soil where they have been, then add

COKE'S KITCHEN

Last week we began our recipes with prickly pear or cactus apples. We certainly hope you have tried them or at least put them in a "to try later box," as many of us do. I have a friend in Spring Valley who has shoe boxes full of recipes. Needless to say, some of them are tried on her family and others are stored. Many a pleasant hour has been spent scanning these recipes.

PRICKLY PEAR JELLY

Slice prickly pear pulp into large pieces. Place in saucepan and add water to nearly cover. Cook over low heat until fruit is very soft. Pour into jelly bag which has been moistened with hot water; let drip 12 hours. Bring juice to a boil, boil five minutes. Remove from heat. Skim, measure and add three-quarter sugar and one tablespoon fresh lemon or lime juice for each cup of juice. Boil until jellifying point is reached. Ladle into hot, sterilized jars. Seal at once.

PRICKLY PEAR ICE

1/4 cup sugar
2 tsp. unflavored gelatin
1 cup pineapple-grapefruit juice beverage
2 cups prickly pear puree (printed in Oct. 31 issue of Echo)
1/2 cup lemon juice
2 egg whites
1/4 tsp. salt

Combine sugar and gelatin with the pineapple-grapefruit juice, heat until the gelatin is dissolved. Add the prickly pear puree and lemon juice, cool. Turn into a refrigerator freezing tray. Set your refrigerator controls at lowest temperature. When the combination has frozen until mushy, remove to a bowl and beat well. Beat egg whites with salt until stiff but not dry, fold into prickly pear mixture. Again freeze until mushy, beat again. Freeze until firm. Makes about one quart.

PRICKLY PEAR MILK SHAKES

1 cup prickly pear puree
1 pt. vanilla ice cream
1/2 cup light cream or milk
Few grains salt
2 tablespoons lemon juice
Beat all the ingredients together, using an electric blender (or beat very vigorously with a rotary beater). Makes about three cups.

For an interesting variation, you can add quarter cup white or red Port wine to the above recipe before you beat it.

some manure and leave the places until January or February when the new roses come in.

Take a good look around for some new material for your garden. There are many ornamental grasses to give a different look to certain places in the garden; such as, around a small pool or around a rock formation. Festuca is one of the lower growing grasses. Try combining it in a parking strip with brick or coarse gravel, or try it featured with succulents. New Zealand flax is a grass-like plant with red flowers, nice to grow in with Fountain grass around a pool. These are tall enough to reflect in a pool.

Then there is the Horsetail grass, taller still, up to three feet or more. Has a great plume for a flower. It's a root creeper and perhaps better grown in a tub. There will be other ornamental grasses you will find at nurseries. Why not try out some of them just for a change?

County Mosquito Population Booms

San Diego County's freak September weather brought a population boom among mosquitoes. The heavy rains left many pools of water where mosquitoes could breed. The intense heat that followed speeded the life cycle of mosquitoes so that generations were produced more rapidly. In checking light traps, the public health entomologist found the mosquito population had apparently increased fourfold in three weeks after the first rain.

Mosquito breeding may occur in wading pools, small or portable swimming pools not equipped with skimmers and ornamental pools. To prevent mosquito breeding, recreational pools without skimmers should be drained dry every five days. Ornamental pools should be stocked with mosquito-eating Gambusia fish, available free of charge through the Mosquito Control Service at 5555 Overland Avenue. Pools not stocked with fish should be treated with insecticide weekly.

EL Cap Band Winter Program

The El Capitan Black and Gold Band, under the direction of Carl Thompson, has a busy schedule planned for the month of November.

On November 16, the band will participate in the Autumn Band Review, on the 23rd in the Arcadia Band Review, on the 24th in the Mother Goose Parade, and on the 30th at the All-Western Band Review at Long Beach. On December 8 they will take part in the Huntington Beach Review.

Last year the Black and Gold Band won a fourth place in their division at both Long Beach and Corona.

SCHRADE REPORTS ON LEGISLATION

How to shape our state government so it will best perform its many functions is a perennial problem for us Legislators. Over the years since our first session in Gold Rush days, we have spent much of our time aligning and re-aligning governmental operations and units to assure maximum efficiency and economy. New services have had to be dove-tailed into the existing framework, and changing technology and society have required frequent reshaping of older organizations.

Our 1963 regular session, like its predecessors, devoted much attention to state organization. Many proposals to add new functions or to expand existing ones were dropped into the hopper. There was also a continuance of the program to streamline the executive departments to improve operations, which was begun in 1961.

The most important change enacted into law from the standpoint of potential tax savings and efficiency was the establishment of a new General Services Department. This organization is designed to take over all of the "housekeeping" functions previously assigned to the Finance Department—such as property management, purchasing, communications and the like—and certain advisory services to other state departments, relating to management, auditing and procedures.

The idea for such a housekeeping department in California government goes back some fifteen years, when a "Little Hoover" commission first recommended it, but a similar agency in the federal government has demonstrated its value over a period of years.

Also included in the new department are the offices of the State Architect and the State Printer, and the division of administrative procedures, which handles hearings and protests in matters relating to the wide variety of state licenses for businesses and professions.

Such a department may not at first glance seem too important to the average citizen. However, it will rank as the sixth largest department of the state, will have more than 4,000 employees (mostly transferred from Finance), and will control more than $300 million in state expenditures per year, for purchasing, construction, printing, and allocation to local government. The Legislative Analyst has estimated the additional cost of the new department at $150,000. Obviously, if it is to be successful, the agency must effect economies far greater than that amount.

The record also shows that the 1963 Legislature established some 20 commissions or committees to carry on studies or pilot operations in various fields. Some 200 memberships in these bodies were provided, to be filled by appointment. The Legislative Analyst has estimated their total cost at about $1 million per year.

Most prominent during their legislative consideration were the new California arts commission of 15 members, and the office of compensatory education with a 17-member advisory commission and a consultant to study what should be done about "culturally deprived" children. Others which attracted less public attention are a workmen's compensation study commission; a commission on manpower; automation and technology; an urban policy council; and a mental retardation study council.

With all of these to advise state officers and departments, we Legislators can expect at least one or two new problems to be handed us within the next couple of years.

didn't get home with a whole cake because we ran into Kenny and his buddy while on the way to the car. Have you ever seen an angel food cake that was cut without a knife?

Surprise visitors at the Carpenter home were Mr. and Mrs. George Williams (my parents) from North Edwards, near Boron. They walked in and I was practically speechless . . . but not quite. They arrived Saturday afternoon and were able to stay until Tuesday morning which gave use lots of time for visiting.

Mrs. Faye Pipes of Tulsa, Oklahoma, is visiting the Bill Pipes family until after the Christmas holidays. She is Bill's mother and great grandmother to little Annette Cherie, daughter of Billy and Joanne, who visited here last week from Van Nuys.

Don and Carolyn Palthe entertained Carolyn's mother, Mrs. Marsha Strohl from Willows, California (north of Sacramento), last week. Mrs. Strohl was the lucky winner of the rug which was raffled off at the Halloween Carnival.

Genial Max Galligar went to work as a mechanic at the 7-Up Bottling Plant in San Diego this past week. Won't seem quite natural not to have his beaming face peering at you through your dirty windshields will it?

The teenage club has several activities planned for November. A week from Friday they are planning a skating party and on November 30 they are having a dance in the community hall. Only kids from 13 to 19 will be admitted, none younger or older. Stag 50c, drag 75c. Mike Robertson is the new president, Carol Dixon is vice president, Sheila Benson is secretary-treasurer, and Steve Michael is sergeant-at-arms. The details for the skating party will be discussed and decided upon at the next meeting, Monday, November 11. All canyon teenagers are invited to attend the meeting and participate in the activities.

Another nice surprise at the Carpenter home. Daughter Lynne and little granddaughter, Janet Lynne, arrived Wednesday to spend a week visiting with us and with the paternal grandparents who live in La Cresta.

JAMUL

By HELEN VAN NORMAN

The Achievement Awards list shows that Jamul 4H Club has reasons to be proud of their group.

Mr. Herbert Weisheit, Farm Advisor for San Diego, one of the speakers of the evening gave a "Lesson in Economics" to the 4H members. Mr. Jim Van Dusen, of the Spring Valley Bank of America talked on "Why and How to Finance."

The two gentlemen then presented each 4H member, that had accomplished his or her project for the year, the appropriate award. Twenty-three received first year pins. This is a four leaf clover with only one clover leaf green, and is worn on the green 4H hat. Mr. Weisheit presented Pauline Smith with a Bronze Star. Cheri Thompson, Cathy Smith, Bob Shook and Ron Mangels received Silver Stars. Steven De Frate received a Gold Star for six years of hard work. Ames Chapple and Paul Kistrup, Jr. received seven year pins. And last but far from least Paul Kistrup, Jr. Gold Seal Award, Field Corps, COUNTY WINNER—Steven De Frate, field Crop Medalist and Ron Mangels, Dairy Medalist.

The evening was topped off with pie, ice cream, cola and coffee and lots of smiling faces.

Chick Gfeller had the first meeting of the "Light Horse Activity" Nov. 3, Sunday and any 4H member can belong as long as they have a major project. The meeting was held at the Dedrick riding corral just off highway 94. Those present were Susie and Patty Dedrick, Christina Lorah, Kay Bennington, Karon Stone Donna and Carol Rukstelis, Ronda Brown, Ronnie Mangels, Jim Chappel, John and Don Daley, Bonnie Brand, Debbie and Denise Press, Sonny West, Robbie Shook and Mary Walker and eight guests. The next meeting will be December 1, 1963 at 1:30 p.m. This activity will include equestrian care and handling, care of equipment and trail rides.

Ronnie Mangels says the Southern California Milk Goat Assn. Inc. will meet November 10, 2 p.m. at Claudia Bess's house. All interested in milk goats are urged to attend.

Last Saturday night was a big meeting night in the life of Lyle Van Norman and his family. The La Mesa Chapter of De Molay installed Harley Barber Master Councilor, Lyle Van Norman Senior Councilor and Jim Perry Junior Councilor. After the installation there was dancing and refreshments till midnight.

MOTHER GRUNDY

By OLIVE WOOLDRIDGE

I am reproducing a letter from Peter Happe, our young friend who wants more than anything else to have a Winchester from the West. Our stories of the West are most intriguing to these people, and you can tell from the letter the almost absolute worship these people have for Americans. They are a little sceptical at first maybe, but as soon as they sense an honest friendliness from us they warm up completely with a trust that simply cannot be betrayed. The broken English and misspelling in the letter only enhance its intent and somehow bring out a truer feeling for the way they think. Below is Peter Happe's picture.

PETER HAPPE

"Leaving Karlsruhe yesterday I just met the postman and I got your nice letter. I was very enjoied to read that you arrived there in good health and good shape with all your horses.

My examinations are over and all ran well, better than I thought. Erika was very enjoied and proud! Now its only a question of time to finish my studies.

Erika did sell our 'Struwelpeter' because she got only 5500DM for him and she wanted 7000 DM. Now 'Struwelpeter' is at Baden-Baden to be trained.

I mentioned already that I left Karlsruhe and Erika yesterday. In the evening I was at home. They received me like the President of the United States. I hadn't been at home for more than half a year. I think I told you that I have a big map of California, and just arrived I looked for Jamul. You already said, that it is near San Diego and near the border of Mexico. But it is only 12 miles beeline to the border and San Diego too. Yesterday in the evening I phoned with Erika and told her of your letter and the envelope she will get from you and that the parcels in it are for Mr. Eversfield and Traders. On the 3rd of November I will be back in Karlsruhe and if it did not come before I will manage that. And of course I told her that you will send me that very gun!

You are waiting for my answer in that question and I only can say all that Don does is good and price is not too high or to expensive. I am waiting for it like a child waiting for Christmas. But I hope Don did not forget to manage the ranch and to food your horses while looking for a gun for me. So please buy it and send it over.

I will put a photo in this letter. It is made about four weeks ago when Erika's father, Erika and me were shooting clay-birds in the field where Dr. Fischer is hunting. You know "Brixli" sitting before me. I shot first time in my life on mooved aims (clay-birds), and each second shot hitted a clay bird. It is not so bad for the first time I think. When I am back at Karlsruhe in about 10 days I will send you more pictures of Erika, our horses and me.

Looking for a letter of you, for your photos, for your newspapers, and of course for that 'gun of my dreams,' with the best wishes, Your Peter Happe."

MT. LAGUNA

By KATHY McMANUS

Mt. Empire Redskins were topped by the Holtville Vikings 32-6 at the football game Nov. 1. During the first half of the game Gary Sandborn's leg was injured, he was pulled out of the game. Gary was taken to the hospital where X-rays were taken but there were no broken bones.

On Tuesday, Oct. 29 Mt. Empire Unified School District voted on a $47,000.00 bond for new school facilities. The bond passed in Mt. Laguna 25 to 1, but was defeated in the rest of the district by 26 votes. A tax override is needed in the area for a two year period so that the students in the Mt. Empire district will have a chance to get a better education. It is certainly true that the lives of these students will be very different and much more advanced in their adulthood than it is today.

Last week the Hitching Post Cafe was broken into. The thieves entered through a small window. They stole several cartons of cigaretttes and $100.00 in cash. The Hitching Post had been sold but the new owners hadn't taken over the cafe when the robbery occurred.

After the football game last Friday the Journalism class sponsored a dance. Although M. E. was defeated it was a very successful dance and everyone enjoyed themselves. The dance was held to raise funds for the 1964 annual year book.

Interested parents of Junior and Senior High School students gathered at Millie and Pat McEvoy's Tuesday evening for a meeting and party. The meeting was held in the area in conjunction with the Parents and Patrons Club in Campo.

a Turkey Dinner that's to be held at the Chapel of the Hills Methodist Church in Descanso on November 15. Dinner will be served from 6:00 until 8:00 p.m. EVERYONE IS WELCOME!

Mr. and Mrs. James Harvey, and Mrs. Harvey's mother, are taking a trip to Birmingham, Alabama for an extended visit. They plan on being gone for two or three months.

Mrs. Lilian Strand is home recovering from minor surgery. At last report she was doing fine.

Gary Sanborn, who is one of the star players in the Mountain Empire football team, was injured at last Friday's game, but not seriously. At first it was thought that he had a broken leg, but luckily it turned out to be just a bad bruise, and Gary is feeling fine now.

Virgil Lockard and Bucky Harris have gone on a short fishing jaunt. They left Monday to go to the Salton Sea.

Mrs. Jean Major is in Mercy Hospital for major surgery. We all were very sorry to hear that she is ill again. She has also been recovering from a very bad bout of hepatitis. We are all thinking about you, Mrs. Major and hoping that we will soon hear that you are well on your way to recovery.

Mrs. Ruth Mullins was hostess for a toy party at her home last Monday. Mrs. Katie Terrell was the toy demonstrator.

Mrs. George Taylor, Liz, was a week-end guest at the home of Ruth and Ralph Mullins recently, while the rest of her family took a trip to Los Angeles to visit with George's family. Liz's visit ended with a family dinner on Monday night when George and the children returned from Los Angeles.

A Bible Study group, taught by Mrs. Shirley Winkleman, had a pot-luck luncheon last Tuesday here in Pine Valley at the home of Mrs. Muriel Payne. The pot-luck was held after their regular weekly meeting.
