Exchange Students Speakers at Alpine Kiwanis Club Meeting

Miss Gerrit Hollman and Miguel Reynero, exchange students at the Crawford High School in San Diego, were the guest speakers at the Alpine Kiwanis Club meeting last Thursday night.

Miss Hollman is from Germany, and Miguel is from Argentina. They were introduced by George Parry, Principal of Crawford High School, who explained the exchange student program. Mr. Parry stated that the Crawford High students who participate in the program by attending high school in foreign lands prefer to do so during their 11th year rather than during their senior year, in order not to miss the special high school activities which are entered into by senior classes in the United States. He stated, however, that the foreign exchange students seem to prefer to participate in their senior or final year.

Each of the speakers gave a comparison of the home life, community life and school life in their home countries with those which they have found in this country. Each of them seemed to indicate that the preferred one

Schools Landscaping Committee Meets

The members of the Committee for School Landscaping held their first meeting at the Alpine school on Tuesday, May 26. This committee was appointed by the Board of Trustees of the Alpine School District to study the problem of attractive, low-maintenance, low-cost landscaping for the Alpine and Harbison Canyon schools.

Mr. Rich Zuelke was named as chairman of the committee, and the other members are Mrs. Hazel Foster, Mrs. Lucy McConnell, Larry Wilcox, Al Adams, Paul Clay, William Ossona and Clifford Owens.

A preliminary search of the ways and means of producing attractive landscaping was undertaken. Among some of the items discussed were the type of ground cover, trees and shrubs which would be best suited to the Alpine climate and soil. Also, the possibility of local residents benefitting students attending the school.

INTIMATE GLIMPSES

By BEA LaFORCE

Sitting in Federal Court awaiting selection of the jury, I look round me with respect and pride at the three dozen men and women of the jury panel from which the 12 jurors for today's case will be chosen. Today I hope I am not one of the 12. The clerk reads off the case. It is another narcotics one. Case after case on the Federal Court Calendar sounds just the same, a monotonous repetition of smuggling, selling, and using narcotics, mostly the deadly heroin. The characters and circumstances are so similar it sounds like a repeat performance; it might be a play back of the same sordid show with only the names of the players changed.

A bailiff brings in the defendants. Handcuffed together are two Mexican men and one who looks like an American, but is a Mexican citizen. They shuffle down the aisle and are seated temporarily in the jury box where all can see them. This fact in no way seems to bother them. They show no chagrin or remorse, not the least embarrassment. The white man is young, and tall, and well dressed. His posture is such a slump that his lean figure reminds one of a lazy figure S. His face, his whole manner is dull and indifferent, with occasional glimmers of a sneering smile. He lifts his handcuffed wrists up as if to make sure we can all see them as the bailiff unfastens them. The

Supervisor Bird Visits Crest

County Supervisor Dave Bird was gratified by the enthusiastic crowd which greeted him on his visit to the Crest, Thursday, May 21. Bird said, "This is the best turn-out of my current tour through the County."

Bird spoke of the unforeseen difficulties which have arisen to temporarily delay the completion of the scheduled repair and widening of La Cresta Road. He explained that money has been allotted for buying necessary rights-of-way from property owners along the road, and for the engineering needed before actual work can proceed.

During a question and answer session, involving a good number of the audience of more than 200, Bird said he was doing everything in his power to speed up this vital project. He said, "A lot of the money which could have furthered repairs on all County roads, has been used in negotiations with property owners who are asking payment far in excess of the value of the property." Bird explained that the surveying done on La Cresta Road is an attempt to find a route which will make unnecessary the purchase of some of the rights-of-way.

When asked if pressure could be brought to bear upon these recalcitrant property owners, Bird

Yard Sale Being Planned for June 6

The idea of holding a yard sale originated with Paul Brock of the Log Cabin Cafe when he was faced with clearing room in a storage building to house Mrs. Brock's upholstery business.

The storage room was filled with the accumulation of no longer used furniture, stoves, refrigerators, etc., as well as a large selection of material remnants and up-the Log Cabin Cafe to provide the store space. An eight-foot by 14-ft. walk in cooler was installed together with new, modern shelving and display counters. The plans for the remodeling were made by Mr. Paul Brock, and included the remodeling of both the new store area and the Log Cabin Bar and Cafe. Mr. Brock supervised and helped with all the work involved.

In addition to a complete stock of fine liquors and wines, such items as milk, bread, cigarettes and cigars, ice, delicatessen and beer will be carried. The store will open at 8 o'clock in the morning and will remain open until midnight. Mrs. Coyla Brown and Ben Young will assist in operating the store for Mr. and Mrs. Ratliff.

Many flowers were sent to the owners of the new store to celebrate their opening, and a guest book is being signed by all customers and visitors. Mrs. Brown states, "If we don't have what you want, we'll order it for you."

Descanso Iris Farm In Full Bloom

A new and beautiful attraction in Descanso is the Van Dusen Iris Gardens, owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. William Van Dusen. Bill and Betty, who have been growing iris as a hobby for about 10 years, started this commercial venture last year. They started planting early last summer, and now have about 150 varieties, most of which are in bloom. They plan to have as many as 500 varieties eventually. The blooms are at their peak now and will be for several weeks, but many will continue blooming through the summer and into fall, with some varieties blooming in the winter.

The Van Dusens, who have the only iris farm in the southern part of the county had a commercial display at the American Iris Society Show in Balboa Park recently, and also at the Lakeside show.

Visitors are invited to stop by their home on Viejas Blvd. in Descanso, and look at these beautiful flowers, which include most of the new varieties and colors, including black, orange, pink, yellow, violet, and blue.

By FAY FARRIS

There was quite a bit of excitement in Lake Morena on Saturday of weekend before last. Mr. and Mrs. George Fors' daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Collier and two children, Randy and Pam, arrived for a visit Friday night. They live in Kerman, California (near Fresno). On Saturday Randy climbed on the sink in the kitchen and found some pills which he proceeded to eat, but did not swallow very much, as they burned his mouth. It might have been fatal if they had not discovered him when they did, as he was about to drink some water. They started to El Cajon with him and met Sheriff Al Dart from Jacumba just this side of Alpine, and he drove them to the El Cajon Valley Hospital at about 100 miles per hour. His stomach was pumped and he was released to return home right away, although the inside of his mouth was pretty badly burned. He was a brave little boy, as he went about playing just as if nothing had happened as soon as he reached his grandparent's home.

The Mt. Empire Taxpayers Association met at the Pine Valley School on Wednesday evening, May 20. A very interesting program was put on by Vic Brown, a Farm Advisor from the Extension Service. He showed slides and talked on "Our Wildland Commodity." Some of the things he discussed were fire, forage, recreation, and the many different interests of people in relation to the wildlands. Also the complexity of ownership, including the large areas of land which are not taxed—Federal, State and County owned lands, and Indian and Military Reservations.

The WSCS installation of officers was held at the Chapel of the Hills on Sunday. The new officers are Shirley Winkleman, president; Billie Hill, vice president; Rubye Clark, recording secretary, and Emma Blank, treasurer. The following secretaries were also installed, Lola Wick, Christian Social Concerns; Mary Henriksen, supply work; Jean Richardson, children's work; Mildred Meier, student and youth work; Mildred Van Oort, promotion; Ethel White, literature and publications; Sandy Walker, spiritual life, and Shirley Dyer, missionary education. Ruth Mullins was presented with a past president's pin, for two years of loyal service as president of the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin White and family have returned home after a short trip to Carrizozo, N. M., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gabehart. Mel and Ray were in the Navy and served on Guam together. While in New Mexico, they visited a ghost town and other historic places. They visited another old friend, Mrs. Stan Wells, of Apache Junction, Ariz.

We were sorry to hear that Butch Campbell has been on the sick list and is in Heartland Hospital in El Cajon. We hope that he will be home and feeling as good as new very soon.

Also on the sick list this week is Johnny Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hill. Johnny is recuperating from a case of measles.

The PTA held their last meeting of the year on Thursday, May 21 at the school. Officers for the coming year were installed by a past president, Janis Dorman. New officers are Elva Rehdorf, president; Pat Martin, vice president; Jean Richardson, secretary; Ethel White, treasurer; Jody Barnett, parliamentarian; Marian Burrell, historian, and Ray Darnall, auditor. Plans were discussed for the school picnic, which will be held on the last day of school at Pair-a-dice. The children will bring a sack lunch, with the PTA furnishing the pool, ice cream and punch.

One day last week the Jamul Las Flores kindergarten and first grade went with their teachers, Mrs. Amster and Mrs. White, by bus to the San Diego Zoo. The eight mothers who went along provided cold drinks and each child carried a sack lunch. Zoo girls took the children on a guided tour through the children's zoo. A big hit was the seal show. If you haven't been to the zoo in recent years you'll discover a great change in the animal and bird facilities. Besides the zoo cafeteria you'll find snack counters, if you don't care to carry your own lunch.

A reminder to voters who have received their sample ballot: Primary Election Tuesday, June 2, at the Club House, rear of Jamul Las Flores Grammar School, Lyons Valley Rd. Hours 7 to 7.

At the 4-H Bonita Field Day, May 16 Steve DeFrate took Grand Champion in Beef with his Short Horn named Frosty. Bob Shook took the Blue Ribbon in Medium and Heavyweight classes, and Jim Chappel placed fourth in the Heavyweight class. Ron Mangels took red ribbons on his three goats, Nubian yearlings, judged against all breeds. Many blue and red ribbons were won by Jamul 4-Hers with their sheep.

Al Lester killed a rattlesnake near his rabbitry at his home. It was already coiled and rattling when he discovered it. Four rattles and a button.

Dan Egan was among those attending the Annual Spring Concert Friday evening at the Monte Vista High School gym. It was presented by the High School Instrumental Music Dept.

Marsha and Rhonda Nicholls, Paul Kistrup, and Ron Mangels of Jamul 4-H went to Riverside for the Regional Field Day Saturday, May 23. Parents accompanying them were Mr. and Mrs. Kistrup and Mrs. Vera Nicholls. 4-Hers judged in Livestock, Crops, and Home Economics.

Our very best wishes for Mrs. Charley Shumaker's speedy recovery. She's been down with a duodenal ulcer.

Arthur Troesch and family moved into their brand new Capri home in mid March, and his mother occupies the older Wessel home next door. At present she is visiting relatives in Ohio and attending two weddings there.

Mrs. Julia Varney, retired teacher beloved by many parents and children in the Jamul Las Flores district, is enjoying life at her home in La Mesa. She spent Sunday a week ago at Descanso with her son, clearing weeds from her 20-acres, to prevent a fire hazard.

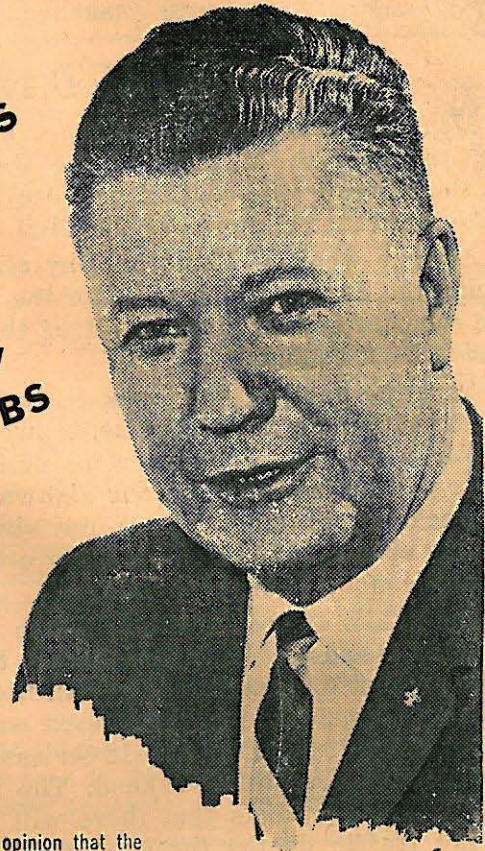

Last Sunday the Beatle Club, a group of sixth graders, had a slumber party at Loree Handley's home. After seeing a Helix movie they enjoyed a spaghetti supper. Guests were Sunny West, Marilyn Morris, Geraldine DeFrate and Mary Jeffers.

There's nothing wrong with San Diego County that a little far-sighted thinking and imagination won't cure. The way I see him, Henry Boney is a man who has the vision and enterprise needed to help San Diego County boom.

Henry Boney's success in business shows he is a capable administrator. Today we need men with his business ability to run our county government.

Henry Boney is a successful businessman. Not just capable, but highly qualified for the office of Second District Supervisor. San Diego County is fortunate to have a man offer his services. with such dynamic leadership.

DON CROSHIER—Grocer Imperial Beach

I am supporting Henry Boney for Supervisor because as his pastor I know him to be a man of high moral integrity, loyal to his church and faithful in upholding its spiritual values by his attendance, his gifts, and his services. As a close friend, I recognize in Henry Boney a man of sound business judgment, imagination, and energy—qualities I believe we need in a supervisor.

REV. HERSHEL HEDGPETH—Minister La Mesa

Mr. Boney is tops in my book and I think he is just what we need. We need a change in the Board of Supervisors and I believe that Henry Boney is well suited for the job. He is a good businessman, he's young and successful, and he's what San Diego County needs.

BOB WILSON—Service Station Alpine

Henry Boney is a successful man because of hard work and good business judgment. I feel his talents and interest can make San Diego County prosper and live up to its potential.

MRS. J. RICHARD TEAGUE—Housewife La Mesa

Henry Boney will fill the need for a full time Supervisor that will work toward solving the South Bay area's problems.

J. D. CASILLAS—Management Analyst Chula Vista

The man with Henry Boney's know-how in business certainly would and could bring this knowledge with him into the office of County Supervisor, which would be of great help in getting jobs in the county, along with business and industry.

R. PAUL REYNOLDS—Business Mgr. Lemon Grove

Henry Boney is an example of one who believes in the Free Enterprise system. His sincerity of purpose and dedication to mankind will make him an excellent Supervisor.

DR. JAMES P. VERNETTI—Dentist Coronado

I have known Henry Boney for 12 years. He enjoys a good reputation in every respect. He is a successful businessman and I am sure will do a fine job as supervisor.

ALBERT J. YOUNG—Insurance Agent Chula Vista

Henry Boney's successful background in business, coupled with his many community duties, highly qualifies him for the post of County Supervisor.

CAPT. P. H. PERKINS—Shipbuilder El Cajon

The Second District is fortunate to have a man with the capabilities of Henry Boney to offer his services to San Diego County. We could do no better.

HARRY HEARNS—Businessman Coronado

It is my considered opinion that the dynamic personality and general business "know how" of Henry Boney will be the needed boost for the economy of the entire San Diego County area. Not only will he inject new businesslike ideas into his 2nd District, but by his influence and enthusiasm with the other members of the Board of Supervisors, San Diego's total economy will, in my opinion, receive a tremendous boost.

CHARLES E. CORDELL—Insurance El Cajon

Having watched Mr. Boney's business ascend from a small fruit stand in 1946 to a highly successful grocery business, and also knowing Mr. Boney from his work in Boy Scouts and service clubs, I have grown to admire him greatly. It would be a high compliment to our county government to have him serve as Supervisor.

FORREST BAXTER—President, Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce

Being in business in the South Bay area, I am extremely interested in the future of San Diego County. Henry Boney is a successful businessman and civic leader and I feel he would be equally successful in helping build a better future for San Diego County.

JAMES H. BROWN—Insurance Chula Vista

Henry Boney's broad and successful experience as a self-made man in the grocery business qualifies him for community-wide support in this campaign. Success in the food industry depends on awareness of the needs of the public and this same awareness will be a terrific asset to those who want business-like representation in County government.

R. B. MONEYMAKER—Trade Association Mgr.

It's a pleasure to see an outstanding citizen like Henry Boney running for Supervisor. His achievements in the philanthropic and business fields are indicative of the type of work he will devote to our District.

GLADYS NELSON—Homemaker Coronado

"I became acquainted with Mr. Boney the week I arrived in California and became associated with him in business. His accomplishments in the business world certainly make him a worthy man to help run the county business."

JOE DI RIENZO—Businessman Chula Vista

An easy smile joined with strong convictions mark a man for success. That mark is on Henry Boney.

REV. JOHN K. SORENSON—Minister El Cajon

Henry Boney has tremendous business ability and his experience and personal character are unimpeachable.

GILBERT HARELSON—City Attorney City of La Mesa

Mr. Boney is the type of man we need. Progressive, successful, and with the best ideas and ideals for the county.

ALICE NEWTON KRESS—Teacher La Mesa

San Diego County would be fortunate to have a man of Henry Boney's accomplishment and ability on the Board of Supervisors. Rarely does a man with these qualities volunteer to serve his County in public office. His business acumen, courage, and vision will greatly benefit San Diego County.

BOB HELLAND—Vice-Mayor City of La Mesa

MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial Day was originally set aside as a day on which to honor the memory of the Union soldiers who gave their lives in the conflict between the Northern and the Southern states known as the Civil War.

As time went on Memorial Day acquired the status of being the day on which to honor the memory of all of those who gave their lives in all of the wars in which we have been engaged.

As is the habit of most Americans in regard to holidays, we either do not recognize, or we forget, the purpose for which our holidays were designated. A large number will be travelling on our highways this Memorial Day weekend, to other places for visiting, relaxation, attending events, or some of the other activities which are generally connected with "holidays."

The habits of the travelling public on the highways on holiday weekends result in a hazard that brings about a large number of casualties. The San Diego County Traffic Safety Council states, that based on prior statistics, four persons will be killed and 18 seriously injured in San Diego County over this weekend. The National Traffic Safety Council predicts that there will be between 410 and 490 traffic deaths throughout the country during this period.

If you must travel, drive carefully and watch the traffic.

INTIMATE GLIMPSES

Mexicans beside him do not appear to care one way or another. They make the bailiff lift their hands with one of his to apply the key. They slouch in their seats, relaxed, gaze idly about. This tells us more about our public image than all the headlines could do. When criminals from other countries can be so secure, so openly unconcerned about their crimes, so unafraid of their fate under our laws, are we fools or not? I don't know.

The white man now shows pride in his role as a prisoner at the bar. He eyes the men and women of the jury like a ham actor gazing at the audience for applause. It is possible he considers himself a hero to be admired? He pleads guilty to two counts—smuggling heroin across the border at Tijuana and being an addict of the drug. He acts as if he is playing a scene before a movie camera. Perhaps this is his problem; he needs to star was offered this role with the promise that it would bring him something approximating stardom.

Say reporters and others who know about these things: These people on trial are not the real criminals, not the true villains of the gigantic crime drama going on 24 hours a day along our southern international border. The ones who know say the real villains are the unknown powers who make victims of these bit players, we the jury must find guilty or not guilty. Hearing the testimony, we feel sick with despair. For it becomes all too clear that we have been well advised when we are told that these are only the bit players in the sordid tragedy which we see unfolding as they tell their tales. Lying, evading, showing fear now in the witness box, showing hostility, and fear, and something more—a grim and awful need to remain in the dark tunnel to which their addiction has detoured them.

The Court appoints able attorneys for the accused; these men try valiantly to get acquittal for their clients. The judge reminds the jury that in our Courts "every man is considered innocent until proven guilty." We know that in the defendants' country, the law holds the accused guilty until proven innocent. We hear the evidence; we find the accused guilty. However, the decision is not easily reached, but only after much typically American anxiety to be quite just, to be also kind and uncritical. The judge thanks us and dismisses us. But the jury cannot dismiss the problem. We take it home with us, worrying about this great land of ours, which we see being attacked from without and within. As in the old game of forfeits we cry of our country, "Heavy, heavy hangs over thy head! What can the owner do to redeem it?"

The Crest Civic Group is spearheading plans to form a citizen's group to attend the final county budget meeting. With the intellipervisor Bird, there is hope for gent, experienced backing of Suthethe continued repair and renovation of back-country roads, so vital to the welfare of the citizens who live in these areas.

Answers Charges

by both state and the United States Government.

The fact that all six mayors of the cities in Dave Bird's Second District have both endorsed and recommended him for re-election is evidence that those officials realize that his wise counsel, long experience and sound judgment are important assets and are in no way lessened by his personal handicap.

Dave Bird is not spending lavishly to seek re-election, but depending upon his friends and his past record to win another four-year term as a full-time supervisor.

Dave Bird's know-how, vigor, enthusiasm and boundless devotion to the betterment of local government and tireless efforts on behalf of all county residents add up to a people's mandate to keep Dave Bird on the San Diego County Board of Supervisors.

Mr. Parry outlined the procedure used in selecting the high school students for the exchange program. He stated that applications were made by those who desired to participate to be accompanied by recommendations, and their scholastic record and student activities record and sent to a central clearing office for review and consideration. He further stated that a large number of students in American high schools desired to enter into the program.

young adults and young people. The church family fellowship of the First Baptist Church of the Willows has been enriched through the coming of the Haymans to Alpine as evidenced by a fine family dinner occasion recently and by their going last Saturday with the young people of the church to Silver Strand Beach for an outing. "All Welcome Always" and a simple "Come and See" are to be the repeated challenge of the church under the genuine gospel ministry of Pastor Hayman.

Dear Editor:

At our regular general meeting last Thursday, May 14, our membership voted unanimously to go on record as favoring the tax override which has been recommended by our school board, and which will appear on the ballot June 2. Let's not fool ourselves, this money is not adequate to bring "frills" to our system, but is needed to maintain our present operation and provide for the replacement of worn out equipment. It would also pay for the now required foreign language program in our sixth grade classes, a new and modern physics program (which we have lacked in the past), a modern mathematics program, and an art and audio-visual room for the Junior High School which would keep the younger students in their own school area.

Don't deny the Mountain Empire youngsters these needed things. Please vote YES on the tax increase measure, Proposition F, giving our boys and girls the education they need and deserve, an education of which you and your children can be proud.

holstery material from the shop in San Diego.

The yard sale is planned for Saturday, June 6, starting at noon, and will be held at the Youth Center. A percentage of every sale will be given to the Youth Center for the purpose of buying game and sporting equipment for the Youth Clubs.

Mr. Brock has had many requests from other Alpiners to participate in the sale including Barney Ratliff, Jack Elms, and others, who are interested in this opportunity to dispose of no-longer needed items and to help the Youth Center raise needed funds. Anyone who might be interested in joining this group can call Mr. Brock at 445-2243 to make arrangements.

A sneak preview of the sale items will be given on the Friday evening before the sale, but no sales will be made at that time.

From the pre-sneak preview given an Echo reporter, almost every kind of household or yard item will be offered at this sale. Everyone is invited to come out and help the Youth Center and also to find just what you have been looking for in this big selection.

Woman's Club Enjoys One Act Drama

At its regular meeting Tuesday, May 26, the Alpine Woman's Club was treated to an excellent Reader's Theatre version of Sir William Sayroyan's one-act drama "HELLO OUT THERE!", presented by a group from Grossmont College drama department.

Introduced by program chairman Lenore Lusk, Jerry Franken, student director, under the supervision of Martin Gerrish, chairman of the college drama department, presented the cast.

The young people gave a moving and beautifully read interpretation of the well known play. Acting the parts were Kay Skerritt, as the girl, Emily, a pathetic nobody; John La Briola as a young man in prison accused of rape; and Jerry Franken as the wronged husband. Miss Skerritt summed it up well when she said the play was an abstract one, "a call of loneliness and fear." It held the audience in rapt attention. Stage manager was Kenneth Witten.

All four students were in Grossmont College's recent production of the Merry Wives of Windsor, directed by Mr. Gerrish. Miss Skerritt played Mistress Ford with admirable verve and charm; John La Briola was a wry Sir Evan Hughes, and Jerry Franken played Simple and Robin very ably. Kenneth kept his preferred role of back stage genius.

Hostesses for the tea hour were Mesdames Gladys Wotring, Marcus Schaefer, and Amanda Bauer. New members were introduced and presented a pretty gift from the President. The next meeting will be the last of the club year.

The eighth grade students in the Alpine schools descended on Disneyland last Saturday 62 strong, which was just a drop in the bucket to the crowd there, but a large group to take care of for the school personnel who went along. The money required to make the trip was all earned by the students, and was enough to give each child $5 worth of tickets. The bus transportation was furnished by the Alpine Kiwanis Club, and three cars helped with the overload. The students proclaimed it the "best" graduation trip they could have." Everyone had a wonderful time.

If you are a reader of signs we suggest you take a look at two currently decorating the door of the Alpine branch of the County library. One has with it, as well as the printed words, a bunch of keys in a leather folder. The sign says, "These were found in the Woman's Club yard. Are they yours?" Well, that's the gist of it anyhow, whether it's the exact words or not. If you've lost a set of keys better take a look. The other sign announces the fact that the library will be closed this coming Saturday, May 30 because it is a legal holiday, Memorial Day.

DEERHORN VALLEY

By ROY WALLIN

Vandalism broke out in our peaceful little community again last weekend with some juvenile or adult delinquents knocking over a cemented post and its attached chain as well as breaking the locks and doors to gain access to Leo Cochran's trailer and little red (and I do mean "RED") shed. The incident was reported to Leo Saturday by a neighbor in Monte Robles Acres; after which, Leo reported it to the Sheriff's office who are now pursuing the investigation. Leo stated that neither the contents of the shed or trailer were damaged, aken, or disturbed . . . this is fortunate; however, the fact remains that a very juvenile and senseless form of destructive vandalism occurred, and, I believe, each and every one of us should do our utmost to curtail and prevent such acts in the future by keeping an eye on our neighbors' places, and noting strange cars, people, or suspicious behavior of either cars or people.

Talked to Roy Connors of Jamul a few days ago on the proposed school unification, and he sent me the following information which allegedly gives the facts relating to the unification of the Jamul-Las Flores Union School District, which I believe is worth passing on in this column prior to our attending the community meeting on this subject tonight at the Young Christian Worker's Camp Building. "The California State Legislature has required each County Committee on School District Organization to study the school district organization of their respective counties and under the direction of the State Board of Education formulate plans and recommendations for the unification of the school districts. The deadline for such a study to be completed is September, 1964. A unified school district is one which is responsible for the education of grades Kindergarten through 12, under one Superintendent and one Governing Board.

Further enlightenment on this subject will be provided tonight by the speakers on the agenda. Mr. R. Raymond, Superintendent of the Jamul-Las Flores School District; Mr. W. Brink, President of the Jamul Community Club; and Mr. E. Brown, President of the School Board; as well as possible comments on this subject by the other speakers, Mr. H. Snodgrass, Mr. D. Bird, Mr. H. Boney, and Mr. C. Christianson, all candidates for the office of Supervisor of our District. So to get the facts, and to pave the way for future development of our community and its youth through an enlightened public, we'll look forward to seeing all our neighbors at this all-important meeting tonight!

ALPINE GARDENER

By JEAN McCULLOUGH

You may have seen some especially lovely wild lilacs (Ceanothus) growing on a friend's place and wished you had one or more like it. Well, with a little trouble and patience you could have them. Here is the procedure: having obtained the seed, put it in a pot of water which has been brought to the boiling point immediately and set the pot aside to gradually cool overnight; strain the tiny seed through a cloth or fine strainer, now take the soil you intend to plant the seed in, any good garden soil with a little finely sifted peat-moss mixed in it, put it in a pan in the oven at a temperature of 250 or 300 degree and leave in the oven long enough to kill any weed seed. I would say a half hour would do, put this soil mixture in pots or flats and scatter the seeds on it and water the soil or water the soil before you scatter the seed on it, then carefully sift a light covering of soil on the seed.

Set the flats or pots of seed in a shady place, put newspaper over them to help conserve the moisture while germination of seed is taking place. Transfer the little plants to pots or cans but it would be best not to plant them in the open ground before the fall rains come, and that's about all there is to it.

There are quite a number of residents around Alpine who have brightened up their grounds, in fact made real show places of them, by scattering broadcast seeds of those beautiful little orange and yellow daisies called Arctotis staechnadifolia, Louasinodora, Cape Marigold, or just African daisies. Take your choice of names, but try to get some of these seeds and broadcast them. They were introduced to Alpine by a lady when she came from Imperial Valley to live in Alpine a number of years ago, and what a contribution it was to our neighborhood. She deserves a real vote of thanks.

COKE'S KITCHEN

Enough about rhubarb, asparagus is another good grocery buy during the month of May.

Asparagus should be purchased by choosing unbroken tips; fresh, green stalks that are straight and 6 to 16 inches long. Brittle. No thin, wilted, old, tough or woody stalks. To prevent drying, store in plastic bag in refrigerator.

As an added tip, sprinkle grated Parmesan cheese over hot buttered asparagus. It's delicious.

ASPARAGUS A LA POLONAISE

- 2 lb. fresh asparagus
- 1/2 cup butter
- 1/2 cup soft bread cubes
- 2 hard-cooked eggs, finely chopped
- 1 T chopped parsley
- salt and pepper to taste

Prepare asparagus by breaking off tough ends. Wash well. Tie in bunches; cook upright in narrow deep pan or coffeepot. Simmer in 1 inch salted water partially covered 2 min.; then covered 8 to 15 min. until tender. Catch string with fork when lifting out. Meanwhile, melt butter until foamy. Stir in bread cubes and cook over low heat until crisp and golden brown. Remove from heat. Add rest of ingredients. Serve over cooked asparagus.

CHICKEN-ASPARAGUS-CHEESE BAKE

- 1 lb. fresh asparagus, cut up and cooked or 1 pkg. frozen cut-up asparagus, cooked
- 2 cups sliced cooked chicken
- 1/2 tsp. each marjoram and sage
- 1 cup unsifted flour
- 2 tsp. baking powder
- 1 tsp. salt
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 cup grated cheddar cheese
- Cheese sauce (your favorite recipe)

Heat oven to 350. Line baking dish with layer of asparagus. Place chicken atop asparagus. Sprinkle herbs over chicken. Stir flour, baking powder, and salt together in mixing bowl. Beat eggs, milk and cheese; add to flour mixture. Beat batter well and pour over chicken, spreading evenly. Bake 25 to 30 minutes. Cut into squares and serve hot with cheese sauce.

SHRIMP AND ASPARAGUS CASSEROLE

- 1 cup rice, cooked
- 1 lb. fresh asparagus, cut up and cooked or 1 pkg. frozen cut-up asparagus, cooked
- 3 cans (4 1/2 oz each) shrimp
- 2 T butter
- 2 T flour
- 1 1/4 cups milk
- 1/2 lb. sharp cheddar cheese, grated, salt and paprika

Heat oven to 350. Spread rice in buttered baking dish. Spread asparagus over rice. Cover with shrimp. Melt butter, stir in flour; cook over low heat, stirring until mixture is smooth, bubbly. Remove from heat. Stir in milk and cheese. Bring to boil; boil 1 min., stirring constantly. Season to taste with salt and paprika. Pour sauce over shrimp in baking dish. Sprinkle with paprika. Bake 20 minutes.

Handy Household Hints

(For Harried Homemakers)

To whip up a storm (of whipped cream), in a breeze, add 6-8 drops of lemon juice per pint (2 cups) of cream before beating. Use an eye-dropper, and count accurately—too much lemon juice will sour the cream. This method saves half your time and effort.

If your butter is hard, when you come to cream it with sugar, heat the sugar slightly. They cream like a dream.

Before boiling or scalding milk, rinse the pan in cold water. This keeps the milk from sticking and scorching.

Cream pies or custards will not become watery if the milk is scalded before using.

Cream won't curdle when poured over berries or fruit, if you mix a small pinch of baking soda with the cream before serving.

Beer is used for many purposes, but did you ever use it on your flowers? Add one can of beer to your regular garden spray mixture, and spray away. Then stand back, and watch 'em grow. Nurseries use beer on their seedlings, and a local grower of prize orchids uses nothing else. Of course, you may have a few tiddy bees and humming birds, but what price beauty?

Again—Attention all parents! There will be a combined potluck dinner and meeting at the Community Hall at 6:00 p.m., Monday, June 1, to follow through on the organizing of a community club for boys and girls of all ages. Your response, last week, was encouraging, but I am certain that there are more parents who have their children's interests at heart. All the rest of you are again urged to join the rest of us in our profound efforts to develop an enjoyable, time consuming program for our children.

The teenage club is having a bake sale in the park starting at 1:00 p.m. on Sunday, May 31, and because girls are mostly involved in bake sales, the boys have offered to do their bit and collect pop bottles. They are not only going to rid the vacant lots of bottles, but are, also, going to go from door to door to solicit donations of said bottles. Don't pass up this opportunity to support these young people in their efforts to build an already progressive organization.

MOTHER GRUNDY

By OLIVE WOOLDRIDGE
Donna and I spent a pleasant week in Tuscon with our Arizona part of the family. Partly work and partly play and most of all a nice rest. The fishing was rewarding, the cement slab for a new room went down well, and my little niece, Robin is a chatter box. I think Robin is still lonesome for Germany but otherwise is quite acclimated to the opposite climate of Arizona.

I have heard some adverse comments about Farm Journal. I wish to welcome all comments I can get, for it is new to me too, though in the mid-west it is taken for granted for families have been in Farm Bureau for generations. Perhaps here on the West Coast we just haven't considered ourselves farmers, although this is the states biggest industry. The fact that less than five percent of the population of California are farmers, or shall I say ranchers, or both, is a little surprising, though I suppose when you include or add on to this figure the connected industries such as trucking, etc., it raises the percentage somewhat. Still and all the farmer is doing a big job for our state and my compliments go to all those who preceded me and to those who are still hard at work in this field. What I am leading up to is that to me Farm Bureau is a true voice of the people and even my limited contact has shown me that here is where legislation starts, with the people and on up the line to county, state, and federal levels. All of this takes the active support of the people even remotely involved with the industry of agriculture in order to promote a true representation for such a relatively small percentage of our population, and yet such a necessary portion of it.

Among a great volume of really good reading material that comes into my hands is a Bulletin published by the California State Chamber of Commerce—I note two headlines that come right down my alley of thinking, "Fight Poverty at Home, Not at Federal Level" and "School Re-Districting Necessary"—I will stop now and delve into the articles themselves and tell you more later.

ing by the various jobs which the project would entail. The committee members agreed that the expense of hiring professional assistance to do some of the work the project requires could be greatly reduced by allocating the jobs to people of the area.

The next meeting of the landscaping committee will be held at the Harbison Canyon school where an actual survey of the surrounding can be made. A preliminary plot plan will then be drawn showing the areas to be landscaped and the types of foliage which could be used.

It is the opinion of the committee that all residents of Alpine and Harbison Canyon will agree that the appearance of the area schools is a direct indication of prosperity of the community, and that a well-landscaped school shows civic pride, moral community responsibility and encourage pride in the
