EL CAJON MOTORCYCLE CLUB STAGING RACES ON ALPINE TRACK

The Alpine Race Track on Highway 80 on the hill behind Lutz' Garage was the scene of exciting motorcycle races last Sunday afternoon. The races were sponsored by the El Cajon Motorcycle Club. Members of this club and other clubs in San Diego County participated in the full afternoon program. There were 86 contestants competing.

The races were held on a new course, approximately one half mile long, over the existing oval track and over the hills to the north of the oval. All of the course is visible from the grandstands. The course over the hills takes off from the East end of the oval, across a dip, up a steep grade over the ridge, and back down to enter the oval on the West side. A roller-coaster course with lots of thrills for the spectators.

Over 400 spectators enjoyed the races last Sunday.

The races will be held again this coming Sunday with time trials starting at 11:00 a.m., and the races starting at approximately 12:30. Admission is $1.00 for adults.

The Alpine Micro Midget Club, owners and developers of the track together with Harold and George Lutz, will open the refreshment stand on the grounds under the direction of Larry Wilcox of Alpine.

INTIMATE GLIMPSES

By BEA La FORCE

Late summer day ends, sunset turns off the heat, and quick dusk comes down with its soft greyness. A brief space of hush and waiting follows while coolness moves in on the evening air. Then all the leaves in the patio and round about us stir faintly as if released from the torpor of the long day's sunshine. It's then I listen for what to me is the opening note of the summer night's music.

I won't call it a symphony. That's too long hair and complicated for our Western scene. Let's call it a Musicale, that slightly pretentious word the self-consciously refined ladies of the Western frontier used to apply to their homemade song, and fiddle, reed organ, and viola entertainments. It opens here in the unrefined natural state in our patios and gardens, in the fields, and mesas, and arroyos, with the tentative high treble peep-oo, peep-oo of the tree frogs.

These dear little critters, nocturnal, never seen by day, rarely by night, carry the real burden of the summer night's musicale. They sing on and on with such cheer and contentment in their voices as no other singing creature can make audible for many listeners. Its gentle simplicity charms the weary, relaxing the tensions of our days too full with the idiot complexities of modern living. According to the book, the tree-frogs, Hylidae, show a close resemblance to the toads, *Bufo*idae. I love those fancy names. They go right along with musicale, don't they? I imagine our grandmas would have known them and said them

C of C Names New Directors

At the regular quarterly membership meeting of the Alpine Chamber of Commerce held last evening, the election of four new Directors for the coming Chamber year was held.

The new Directors elected are Norman Foster, Phil Hall, Fred Rushing and Bob Wilson. These new Directors take office on the first of October, following an organizational meeting of the Board in September. They will replace present Directors, Katherine Black, Richard Harris, Harold Lutz and Orville Palmer.

The present Directors who will remain in office are Ross Mallette, Jerry Funk, Paul Clay, Tom Casey and Auren Pierce whose terms of office have one more year to run.

Reports of the various committees were made to the membership, including a report of the Horse Show Committee on the outcome of the recent horse show. The report indicates that the show was a financial success.

Announcement was made that the annual installation dinner of the Chamber of Commerce will be held on Saturday, October 10th, at the School Auditorium. Tickets for this event will be available in the very near future at the Chamber office and at various Alpine business establishments. The charge

Coyote Hunt in Reverse on Crest

Last Saturday afternoon Crest riders Brenda and Skip Hermanson, Linda Szymore and Beatrice Merrifield were peacefully resting their horses in a small meadow off La Cresta Heights Road.

Three of the riders had dismounted when they heard a coyote howl nearby and immediately answered by another. Climbing onto a rock, one of the horsemen spotted nine coyote on the hill behind them. The coyotes disappeared for a moment, and then suddenly the whole pack was coming down the hill, completely silent and purposeful, towards the horses.

Mounting quickly the frightened riders took off, heading for La Cresta Road and the comfort of traffic and people, the coyotes right behind them all the way to the road.

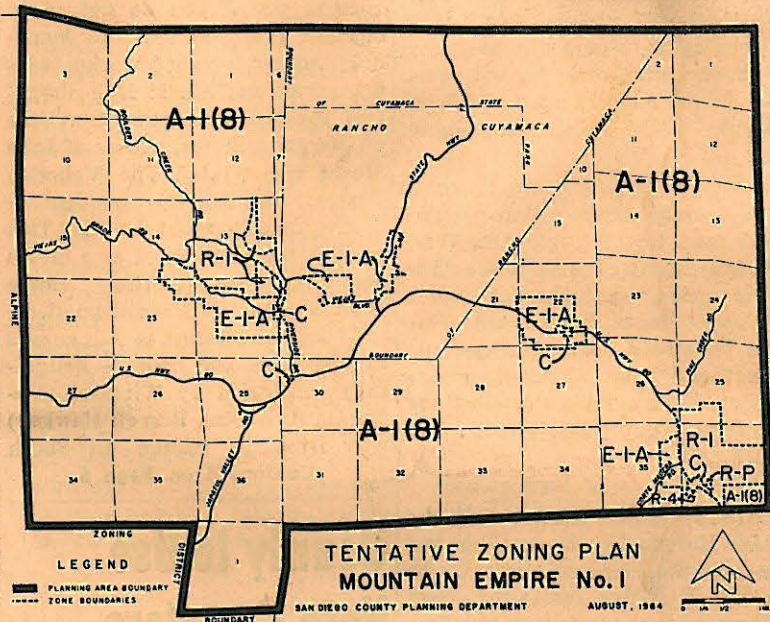

Crest residents are warned to keep their children and animals safe. Small game is scarce on the Crest and the coyotes are hungry, and hunger makes them bold and dangerous. They have been heard at night right outside of homes. A pack of nine coyotes can be harmful to children and small animals.

Pancake Breakfast Set for September 3

The Mt. Empire Republican Women, Federated, are having a Pancake Breakfast, which will be held on Thursday, September 3, at the Roberts Ranch on Japatul Road. Mrs. Granville Martin will be hostess. Mrs. V. Earl Roberts will also talk about the convention and activities, as seen from an on-looker's point of view.

PUBLIC MEETINGS TO BE HELD ON MT. EMPIRE ZONING PLAN

Two public meetings will be held in the Descanso-Pine Valley area to give interested persons an opportunity to view the tentative zoning plan proposed for a 53 square mile area lying north and south of U.S. Highway 80, extending from the boundary of the Alpine Zoning District on the west (about one mile west of Ellis Spring) to and including Pine Valley on the east.

The proposed zoning district comprises all of T 15 S, R 4 E, the east one-half of T 15 S, R 3 E, Section 1 of T 16 S, R 3 E, and that portion of Rancho Cuyamaca lying southerly of the northerly line of T 15 S.

The first meeting will be held in the Pine Valley Improvement Club Hall on Monday, Aug. 31, 1964, at 7:30 p.m. The second meeting will be held in the Descanso

Pastor Hayman says that he and his wife leave with fond feelings of affection and of appreciation for the wonderful people and the fine response given in these four

Crest Chief Warns 'Fire Kibitzers'

Crest Fire Chief Roger Dutton reports that the Fire Department is having a very real problem with people who answer the fire siren, drive to the fires and park, leaving no room for the trucks, who speed to the firehouse, creating a driving hazard, and who follow the trucks much more closely than the prescribed distance of 300 feet.

Dutton says, "We have begged and pleaded to no avail. Now this is the last warning. From now on, anyone blocking fire traffic, or hindering the parking of fire apparatus, or following the trucks too closely, will have their license numbers turned over to the California Highway Patrol, and a formal complaint will be lodged against them."

Dutton says that if the situation is not remedied, one of these days someone is going to get injured, or a fire will go out of control, because the men and equipment do not have space to function properly, due to well-meaning but dangerous curiosity.

Citizens Rights Group Activated

Having received their charter of incorporation and, with the election and installation of officers completed at their last meeting on August 18th, the Mountain Empire Citizens Rights Association, Inc. announces it is now preparing to launch a number of programs of vital interest to all the Mountain Empire residents.

This group is the direct result of the M.R. zoning ordinance which was successfully defeated last year by a majority of the local residents who objected strenuously to the severe restrictions of the county-wide zoning plan.

"This was a fine example of what can be accomplished by individuals when they are willing to work together for their common interest!" said Bill Gouge, publicity chairman for the group.

He also stated that "We have no political or special interest group ties, and are planning to hold our meetings in various localities from month to month in order to take our programs to the people. We are preparing to tackle any problem which will affect this community and it's residents economy, welfare, property rights, or common interests. We are working for the individuals and the community and are hoping all responsible thinking citizens will take an active interest."

Anyone desiring more information may write the Mountain Empire Citizens Rights Association, Inc., Box No. 6, Campo California.

Especially for those who hire help from across the border to the South of us, namely our neighboring Mexico, is a small booklet called "Home Maid Spanish."

The text is designed to give easily available language assistance to you if you do not speak Spanish and your Mexican household worker, or yard worker does not speak English. It is a simplified vocabulary treatment written by Margaret Storm, widow of John Storm who wrote "The Valladolid Drama," the story of the mother of the famous artist Utrillo. County to Use Vote Counters

The San Diego County Board of Supervisors has received a request from Charles Sexton, Registrar of Voters, on the plant of consolidating election precincts for the November 3rd general election.

The Registrar's plan calls for the consolidation of precincts to reduce the number by about half to approximately 11,000 polling places. This reduction is made possible by the use of electronic vote counting devices which will be used for the first time in San Diego County.

The plan calls for the consolidation of many of the rural districts which will require that each registered voter read carefully their sample ballot in order to determine the location of their polling place.

HORSES! HORSES! HORSES!

By MARGARET LOWTHIAN

Well, we made it through the weekend, getting home last Monday afternoon, after the big Appaloosa and Open show at Santa Barbara last Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The show ended up with 306 horses entered in over 900 individual classes, and some of the best horses California has to offer were in competition. It was a big show, an exciting show, and for us who were working it, a long, hard show—but fun.

Alpine horses brought home some of the top honors, with Poco Paul Day, owned by Melva and Ron Riley of the Palo Verde Ranch, winning the Stock Horse Stake, and Willow Glen Farm's Appaloosa mare, R. H. Blue Bonnett, won the trophy saddle for the high-point Appaloosa mare of the show. I'm sorry that there was not time to get new pictures taken at the show of these two outstanding Alpine horses for the column, so am using ones taken previously. Both horses had the top competition against them, so their wins were well won and well deserved.

Melva Riley got home from Santa Barbara in time to judge the Pequeno Riders show this past Tuesday which was held at the Irvine Ranch. Approximately 20 exhibitors competed, with the high-point honors going to Cynthia Irvine riding her nice gelding, Smokey. The first place winners in the classes were: JoAnn Villa riding Mark in both the Trail

Horse Open, and Western Bareback 12 and under. Susan Parsons riding Gypsy was first in Western Pleasure 12 and under. Nancy Sockwell on Babe took the Western Horsemanship 12 and under, Celeste Irvine riding Red accounted for the Back Alley jumping. Ellen Hood and Bonnie won the Pole Bending. Linda Moxey riding Tony won the Western Pleasure class for non-blue ribbon winners. Cynthia and Smokey accounted for Western Bareback 13 to 17, Western Pleasure 13 to 17, Western Horsemanship 13 to 17, and Balloon Busting to rack up 55 points and High-Point award.

The Pequeno Riders have accepted the invitation of the Harbison Canyon Fiesta to ride in the parade next Sunday. They will ride from the Irvine Ranch, starting Zambrano as Captain Von Trapp calls his seven children to attention, to the astonishment of Pat Myerson, Maria, in Starlight's "The Sound of Music", opening Thursday, August 27, in Balboa Park Bowl.

This artist's sketch shows a typical rest area of the type being constructed along Interstate Routes. This particular sketch portrays construction now taking place on Interstate 5 at San Luis in Merced County, 10 miles west of Los Banos. As on all major highways, these areas will be constructed in pairs — one to serve each direction of travel.

State Constructing Hiway Rest Areas

Within the next six or seven years California will have some 250 Safety Roadside Rest Areas along its State highways, under a program approved by the California Highway Commission. To implement the program will require an annual appropriation of about $300,000.

According to State Highway Engineer J. C. Womack, current status shows 46 rest areas now planned or constructed; 16 of these are in use, and 30 are included in the current State Highway budget. Construction will continue on approximately 25 units per year until the system is complete. Where possible, the rest areas will be built concurrently with highway construction. On highways where no improvements are scheduled, the facilities will be constructed under separate contract.

"A great deal of thought and study has preceded the legislation to provide these rest areas," said Womack. "Latest of the investigations and reports was a master plan and cost estimate submitted by the Division of Highways in October 1962 at the request of the Senate Fact Finding Committee on Transportation and Public Utilities.

"With the annual 82 billion miles of travel on California highways, these rest areas will not only make travel more pleasant, but can promote safety by preventing driver weariness and thereby reducing accident rates."

Three general sizes of rest areas are being provided, most incorporating sanitary facilities, water where feasible, and shade trees.

The largest will contain parking space for 20 to 30 cars and 4 to 6 trucks. They will have 6 to 8 picnic tables, and will be situated along Interstate routes and other main highways. On highways of four or more lanes, rests are provided in pairs—one for each direction of travel. One such "double" area is presently under construction on Interstate 80 near Donner Summit. The future Westside Freeway (Interstate 5) will feature six pairs of rest areas on its new alignment between Wheeler's Ridge in Kern County and the vicinity of Tracy in San Joaquin County.

The medium size units, to be located along less heavily traveled routes, will have accommodations for 13 to 18 cars, and one or two trucks. Small units with parking for fewer cars, will be constructed along highways of lighter volume. Picnic tables are optional in medium and small rest areas.

It is planned to space these areas so that in combination with other stopping facilities they will

Ashcraft States His Policy on Water

Assemblyman Hale Ashcraft, R-La Jolla, called upon National Resources Agency Administrator Hugo Fisher, to inform the public relating to his position on the Southwest Water Plan and his own personal ambitions.

"Along with almost all other legislators and water district officials, I cannot understand how ex-Senator Fisher can possibly take the stand he does on Colorado River water," Ashcraft said, "Fisher wants to give away our present low-cost water at a time when we will be needing it most.

"It is common knowledge in Sacramento that Fisher wants to become Under-Secretary of the Interior," Ashcraft said. "I think he owes it to the people of California to tell us whether there is any connection between this personal ambition and his willingness to give away our water rights. I believe that the water bill which is presently before Congress should be amended to:

"1. Permanently guarantee California's 4.4 million acre-feet of water a year from the Colorado River. As the bill is presently written, it would now limit the guarantee to 25 years," Ashcraft continued.

"2. I also believe that all western states should be included in a study by the Interior Department of surplus water area where now water could be imported into the Colorado basin. I strongly oppose the position which Hugo Fisher has taken at this time and I believe that in the event his position has changed with regard to this vital matter, he should make it clear to the people of this State of California," Ashcraft concluded.

ZONING

There appears in this issue of the Echo a news release issued by the Planning Department of the County of San Diego advising the property owners in a large area of the Mt. Empire that there will be hearings on a proposed zoning plan of their area.

A casual review of the zoning proposed would seem to indicate that such a zoning would result in a large number of non-conforming uses in the area.

Anyone who reads the daily papers must be aware of the controversies that are developed in each area as it is being zoned. The laws governing zoning are such that the duly elected County officials have very broad authority over the zoning of the unincorporated areas of the County. Many times the zoning which results from the planning of the Planning Department and the discussions at the hearings on the proposed zoning are not to the liking of many of the property owners effected.

Each and every property owner in the Mt. Empire area proposed to be zoned should attend these hearings and get first hand information on what the effect would be on their property by the proposed zoning.

Security Bank Economy Report

Paced by retail sales, real estate sales and bank clearings, business activity in the Southern California area for the month of July recovered slightly from the June decline, and continued operating at more than seven per cent above year-ago levels, M. Ross Mallette, manager of Security First National Bank's Alpine Branch, reported today.

The local economy, as measured by Security Bank's business index, rose to 142.2 (preliminary) in July. The increase was registered following June's decline to 141.7, after a record high of 143.4 in May, Mallette stated.

According to Security First National Bank's Research Department, bank clearings and real estate sales both recorded substantial gains, contributing to the increase over last month's index. Department store sales also reached a new high during the month. A decline was registered on the index in construction activity, which eased slightly below year-ago levels for the first time in 1964.

Employment in Southern California metropolitan areas totaled four million during June, the latest month available. This represents a moderate increase over the preceding month, and 94,000 more than a year ago, Mallette continued. The year-to-year gain was recorded entirely within the non-manufacturing sector, as the number of manufacturing jobs remained virtually unchanged.

Unemployment in Southern California metropolitan areas averaged 5.9 per cent of the total labor force in June on a seasonally adjusted basis. This represents the same rate as a year earlier, and compares with a nation-wide average of 5.3 per cent, Mallette concluded.

Baptist Pastor

Continued from Page 1 and one-half months of ministry, and with a sense of regret that they have to part with an endeared and enriched fellowship. The community of Alpine has been very co-operative in receiving the Haymans who have been here only on part-time weekly residence, and they feel assured that the future of the church holds promise of marked success and blessing to the community under the leadership of a permanent pastor such as should be available before long.

This Sunday's services are to include Pastor Hayman's parting message on "Held in Remembrance" at the 10:45 worship hour, a service of baptism to be observed in the afternoon at the First Baptist Church of El Cajon, and in the evening 7:30 hour a special "Sermon in Song" type of service led by Pastor Hayman. This is to be followed by a church family fellowship including refreshments. All are welcome. Mr. E. Gerald Murphy of San Diego is to be the guest organist for the evening.

New Directors

Continued from Page 1 for the dinner will be $2.00 per person. Supervisor David W. Bird will be the guest speaker and will install the new Chamber officers. Arrangements are now underway for the evenings' entertainment under the direction of Mrs. J. C. LaForce. The chairman of the Dinner Committee is Mrs. Myrtle Ho-felder, office secretary of the Chamber.

Representatives of the Western Greyhound Lines presented a talk and discussion on the bus service for Alpine. They outlined the present service, and indicated that they were aware of the inconvenient hours of the bus service now in effect. They stated that a ten-day survey of the bus needs of the area are now underway, and that upon its completion a study would be made to determine if the traffic would warrant increased service.

Public Meetings

canso Elementary School on Wednesday, Sept. 2, at 7:30 p.m. Members of the County Planning Department staff will be present to explain and answer questions regarding the proposed plan, which has been under study during recent weeks by the Department and a Planning Advisory Committee composed of citizens from the area. Members of the Committee are Jerome E. Bilyeu, Kenneth R. Farr, Charles A. Perkins, Louis C. Perna, Harold Sweet, Walter Wach and William Young.

The informal public meetings will give residents and property owners a convenient opportunity to see the tentative zoning plan, hear it described, and, subsequently, to submit written suggestions for its improvement. All suggestions will be reviewed by the Planning Advisory Committee together with the Planning Department before any plan is recommended to the Planning Commission. Before final adoption of a zoning plan for the area, public hearings will be held by the Commission and the Board of Supervisors.

As indicated on the accompanying map, A-1(8) light agriculture zoning is proposed for the large privately owned ranches and for the areas in public ownership which generally comprise the more rugged, steep terrain. E-1-A residential zoning is proposed for the more level areas where some residential development has occurred and where there is a potential for further development of this type. R-1 residential zoning is provided for the more densely populated community areas of Hulburd Grove, Descanso and Pine Valley. Commercial zoning is proposed to accommodate existing businesses and to provide for their normal expansion in the future.

The following is a brief summary of the zone classifications shown on the accompanying map of the tentative zoning plan:

A-1(8)—One single-family dwelling on a minimum building site of 8 acres. Crops of all kinds plus 25 poultry and/or small animals, plus a limited number of cows, sheep, goats or swine. Public horse stables are allowed on issuance of a special use permit. (Note: Horses for personal use may be kept in any zone.)

E-1-A—One single-family dwelling on a minimum building site of one-half acre. Crops of all kinds and a "family supply" of poultry and animals. "Family supply" means not more than 25 poultry and/or small animals, and not to exceed two bovine animals, sheep, goats and/or swine.

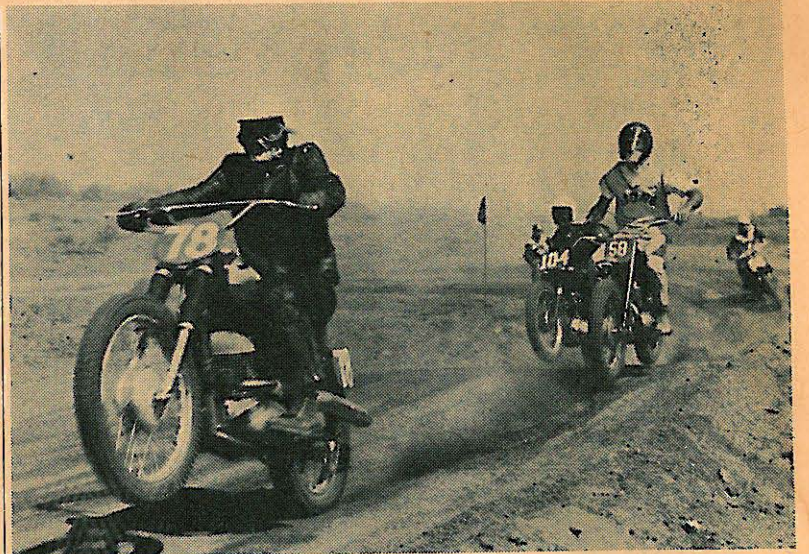

R-1—The same as E-1-A except the minimum building site is 10,000 square feet.

R-4—A one family, two family, multiple dwelling or dwelling group on a minimum building site of 6,000 square feet, provided there is at least 10,000 square feet of land area for each dwelling unit, plus hotels, institutions and hospitals, and on issuance of a special use permit, motels and trailer parks.

R-P—Multiple dwellings, apartment hotels, hospitals, rest homes, sanitariums, professional offices for the medical arts and limited related drugstore, restaurant and service organizations.

C—All residential uses except trailer parks, plus offices and all types of retail business conducted inside buildings. No minimum lot or building site are requirement.

For the convenience of residents in the area, large colored maps of the tentative zoning plan have been posted in the Post Offices at Descanso, Guatay and Pine Valley.

with little fingers held out daintily above the tea cup during refreshment time after the musicale was ended.

There are about 200 species of frogs including all those kin to the toads like our little singers. This naturalist friend of mine insists that the frogs are only calling mating signals to each other in the darkness, but I refuse to believe such dreary nonsense. Everyone knows they are singing lullabys to us pore sad humans. Did you know that the bull-frog is a native of Eastern North America? Most other frogs are found widely distributed. There is a species of hairy frog in West Africa that grows to be almost as big as our bull frog. It has coarse hair on its back and the outsides of its hind legs. There's a horned frog in the Solomon Islands that has sharp teeth in its lower jaw. They say that in our southern swamps where many frogs abound, the singing is marvelous, with frog quartets performing in perfect harmony, not at all unusual.

Last night I saw four tree frogs in the patio. They sat two on either side of the dim outdoor lamp which stands on a metal post at the patio gate. About the size of half a walnut shell; they are also near the color of an English walnut. Their faces are appealing, bright and friendly with big eyes alert and the big mouths smiley. Squatting on the horizontal rod beneath the lamp, they were catching miller moths that flew drunkenly around the light. They seemed to see me peering at them, but were not alarmed. Larger night bugs buzzed round the light and the frogs wisely let them alone, reaching only for the crazy moths. In comparison to the moths who flung themselves against the glass of the light, floundered back like woozy prize-fighters, only to fly floppingly at the light again, the frogs looked very wise and competent, balancing there on the slippery bar, bright eyes watching the hectic action of the moths. Figgered I'd rather be a tree-frog if I had to make a choice. At least they know what they're doing, while the moths, for all their pretty wings and the poesy in their honor, simply haven't a clue as to what's living and what's suicide.

Accepting his position on Bird's staff Thorn said, "I have known Dave for 15 years. I consider his representation for our district of the highest quality. He is an excellent supervisor."

Margolis is a well known builder and realtor who has been active in South Bay and Imperial Beach civic affairs. He was a Marine Corps captain during World War II. Rosado is president of the Mexican Civic Committee and legal counsel for the Mexican Consulate.

Says Rosado, "Most of the Spanish speaking people in this county live in Dave's district. They know him well. He is a man of honor."

Alley is past president of the Chamber of Commerce and a member of the South Bay Highway Development Commission.

In recent years he has been President of both the Board of Cities Conference, and of the Better Schools Committee.

Sam Harris, president of his own building company, says, "Dave is one of the finest men the county has ever had on the Board. He deserves re-election. His devotion is tops."

Bird expressed his thanks to Chapman and Howell for their campaign work while Bird was in Sacramento and Washington.

"I know that when a politician says he is humble, a few people will think that he is just acting, but I am truly humbled to see the effort that Ralph and Glen have put into getting my campaign started while I was away on this county's business at the state and national levels."

Tea Cup Readings Offered

Mrs. Helen Zaleski, who used to live in Alpine, is a talented reader of tea leaves, that ancient art of divining the future. Mrs. Zaleski has been perfecting the gift for the past 17 years. She was first introduced to it when she lived in Ohio, when one day she was given a reading by a professional cup gazer. Intrigued at once, she asked about it, and was given some guidance by the reader, then went forward on her own initiative to learn all she could about it.

Mrs. Zaleski says the reading of the tea leaves is not guesswork, but is a matter of learning to see the symbols which occur in the cup, shaped as they are by the leaves of the tea left after the tea is drained off. The tea drinker must empty her cup, turn it upside down on the saucer, make three complete revolutions with it and make a wish, after which the reader picks up the cup and studies the design which is left in the bottom of the cup. It is from this that the reading is drawn, she says.

Mrs. Zaleski is prepared to give readings to parties or to individuals for a nominal fee. She is thinking of opening a tea room if enough interest is evidenced. She says that she would make dainty afternoon tea cookies to serve with the tea and make a reasonable charge for both the refreshment and the reading. She now lives at the Emerald Palm apartments on Emerald Street in El Cajon. She will read by appointment in her home or attend your party. People who have had her readings are very much impressed with her gift.

Lively Oaks Plan Active Program

The Lively Oaks, senior citizens group of Alpine, are participating in many interesting activities. They recently joined with other San Diego County senior citizen groups on a trip to Catalina Island. They went by bus to the dock at Wilmington where they boarded the boat for the trip to the island. They had luncheon on the island followed by a side-trip to Seal Island and a ride in the glass-bottomed boat. They had dinner on their return to Long Beach and returned to San Diego by bus following a long, but enjoyable day.

This Saturday they plan to attend a Senior Citizens dance and recreation party at the La Mesa Youth Center. A trip to the Del Mar races is planned for next Monday, August 31st. Mrs. Gladys Pinkerton, Tour Chairman, is taking reservations for these two affairs. Call her at 445-3865 if you are interested.

At their meeting last Monday, the Lively Oaks were presented with an Emerson record player donated by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ferguson of Old Highway 80. Mr. Arthur Norris loaned some of his records and the group enjoyed some group singing.

The birthdays of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lyman and Mrs. Edna Barber were celebrated at this meeting.

ALPINE

By DEBBIE MARSHALL

Visiting the Julian weed show Monday were Hazel Hohenschelt who drove her car to the scene with Jean McCullough, Edith Cromarty, Evalena Mancil and Bea La Force going along to see the weeds displayed and enjoy a picnic lunch under the pine trees. The ladies also visited the Julian art show held upstairs above the room where the weed show is now running.

This weed show is in its fourth season, chaired this time by Mrs. Dawn Kirk who is also an artist with several large canvases in the upstairs show. The Julian Chamber of Commerce sponsors the show while local organizations and individuals are responsible for setting up the exhibits. One is arranged each year by the Banner Queen Ranch. This one is mostly of dried wood pieces. Among others setting up exhibits are the Apple Mountain Workshop; Girl Scout Troup 1321; the American Legion Post and Auxiliary of Julian with Myrtle Botts, librarian in the San Diego County branch library there, doing the work.

The first weed show was arranged by Mrs. Carol Hickey, now passed away, with the assistance of Mrs. Kirk and Mrs. Betty Stoner. For the past two years Mrs. Kirk has chaired the show alone.

This exhibit proves that our best possibilities lie in developing our communities natural resources, being original and local, instead of imitating others.

Local people are meeting these days at the fruit stand under the shade trees on the Brabazon Ranch on Old Highway 80 where for another of many seasons, the Monty Brabazons are offering their fine peaches and plums to the neighbors at a nominal price. Local fruit canners will be filling their winter's shelves from these well known orchards.

The Rennie Holletts are back from their trip to Canada. We saw him coming out of the Post Office the other day carrying a packing box full of mail which had accumulated during their absence. They'll be browsing through it for days, judging by the bulge of the box.

Dr. Roger Larson is home from his vacation too, and will be back in his robe in his pulpit at the Community Congregational Church Sunday. We hear he had a real fine time and is all refreshed for work again.

Philip Arend, former Alpiner, now living with his family in Novato, was visiting in Alpine this week. He came down on business with nearby ranchers who are seeking his expert advice on Wild Life management problems. Phil, who used to be with the Fish and Game Commission, is now a Wild Life consultant in private practice. He is much sought after by sportsmen who wish to develop private game preserves and clubs.

We received a postcard from the Auren Pierces from New York City. They report that they had a ride through Central Park in a hansom, and that the driver permitted Lisa to do the driving. Lisa did such a fine job the driver said he would give her a job to do the driving. Jeanne says that they are having a 'super' vacation.

A note from Dawn Watts Stanley advises us that in a recent issue it was mentioned that her father, Lorenzo Watts, was no longer living. Mrs. Stanley wishes to report that he is 'very much alive.' The statement about Mr. Watts appeared in an article concerning the Walker family. Mrs. Stanley says that her mother was a Walker from Dearborn.

On their recent trip East, Mr. and Mrs. Rennie Hollet visited with the John Peters in Grinnell, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Peters divide their time between their home in Grinnell and their home in Alpine. They report that Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Wells who have been living in their Alpine home on Highway 80 have moved to Guatay to be nearer the center of Mr. Well's territory with the highway commission.

CREST

By JANE MON DRAGON

The Crest was saddened last week by the passing of Mrs. Alta Hart, 80, mother of Mrs. John Schuettenhelm. Mrs. Hart died Monday, August 17, at County Hospital, following a severe heart attack Saturday. Funeral services were held at the El Cajon Mortuary Thursday, and burial was in Pasadena. Mrs. Hart was active in the Crest Women's Club for many years. She was a well loved person who will be missed in our community. Our deep sympathy goes to her daughter Celia, and her grandson, Ken Schuettenhelm.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jenkins were hosts at a huge bar-b-que party at Jenkins Ranch last Saturday and Sunday. The 100 guests gathered to help celebrate the silver wedding anniversary of Marc and Charolette Renne, former residents of the Crest. The Rennes spent two years in Guam, and are now home, and living in Point Loma. Their daughter, Mrs. Charlene Ebert came from Eugene, Oregon, for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. James Thurman have returned home to 279 Lento Lane after a 16 day vacation. The Thurmans spent a day in San Francisco, and had a "ball" riding the cable cars. Then on to the Oregon Caves National Monument. From there they drove leisurely to Hoodport, Washington, where they picked up son, Jimmy, and his wife Sandy, and took off on a 1000 mile tour through British Columbia for four days.

Mrs. Frank (Odie) Fransway wishes to personally thank the Crest Fire Department for its swift response for her call for help last Tuesday night, when Frank suffered a severe heart failure and could hardly breathe. Odie has been told that only the prompt and efficient use of the Department's portable resuscitator saved Frank's life. He has been on the critical list at El Cajon Valley Hospital, but Odie reports that he is improving slowly but steadily. Two sons, Jim and Robert, are home on leave, and they and Odie take turns staying with Frank. Another son, Bill, is in Germany, and is being kept posted by the Red Cross. The Fransways also want to thank the Junior Firemen who lighted the road so the ambulance could find the way.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Newman and children Beth and Richard, in one trailer, and Mr. and Mrs. John Schuettenhelm in another, returned last Friday from a two-week vacation trip to Bryce Canyon, Zion National Park and Yellowstone. "Tommy" Newman's niece, Caroline Haworth, accompanied the Newmans. They spent one night at Bear City, Utah, which all agreed was the loveliest spot on the trip. The travelers spent six days at Yellowstone, where the men caught trout for breakfast, something Celia had wished for all her life. At Huckleberry Hot Springs, the kids went swimming in 90 degree water. They saw 21 bears, some moose, and at Star Valley they watched a herd of buffalo grazing. At Reno, Nevada, they stopped for a moment's visit with A. O. Alexander, former owner of the gas station on the Hill. "Alex" asked to say "Hello" to all of the Crest. Tommy says he looks wonderful, and the Alexanders plan a visit to the Hill around Christmas. The Schuettenhelms then went on to Sacramento, and the Newmans went to Lake Tahoe, where they saw the W. S. Winberg and the "Woody" Brown families, who are there on vacation.

The Sunday School 3rd graders of the Crest Community Church spent Friday, August 21 at Dinosaur Park, Alpine. Enjoying the picnic lunch, swimming and the prehistoric monsters were Julie Conway, Muriel Kearney, Susan Soper, Chuck Stafford, Ward Gardner and Harry Kearney. Special guest was Kary Keaveney. Becky Stafford, Jimmy Hunter and Danny Conway helped the adult chaperones, Mrs. Del Conway and teacher Mrs. Beatrice Merrifield.

Fire Chief Roger Dutton says "Welcome" to new Senior Firemen Wayne Seymore, Paul Mon Dragon, Mickey Campbell and Paul

Stead. Dutton says, "There were four more fires on the Crest last week—all set by children playing with matches. If the parents will not do something about this dangerous situation, the Department will!" There is also another dangerous situation facing our firemen. Look elsewhere in this paper for the story you should all know.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hunter of 2131 Eucalyptus Drive gave a backyard bar-b-que Sunday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Sam Woen and their children and Mr. and Mrs. "Steve" Stevens from College Grove.

Mrs. Marie B. Cook of 325 Lento Lane has come home from a fabulous 21 day tour of the Scandinavian countries and a two-week trip through Scotland and England. She flew both ways, and coming home, spent a week in New York, where she attended a reunion of her sorority sisters.

The Donald Newman family made a total of 33 at a family reunion at Colton last Sunday. Relatives who had not seen one another in years enjoyed swapping news, swimming, and a pot-luck dinner.

Sunday, August 30, at the 11 a.m. service in the Chapel of the Hills, the Kennedy Family Singers will present a program of sacred music. The Reverend Donald Boone, pastor, invites everyone to attend.

Sunday visitors at the home of Al and Bernice Reynolds were Al's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Reynolds, Mark, Robin and Jill, of La Jolla. Jim is sales manager for Western Radio in San Diego.

Mrs. Pearl Glick attended the afternoon performance of the Mitch Miller Show at the Russ Auditorium in San Diego on Sunday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson returned home recently after flying south, where she visited with her son, Dr. James Johnson in Huntsville, Alabama, for seven weeks. They visited most of the southern cities in Alabama, and had a wonderful visit, before she left to fly home.

The Mt. Empire Women's Club met for a Card Party and Luncheon on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Pearl Glick. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Glick, and Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson.

Don't forget the Pancake Breakfast, sponsored by the Mt. Empire Republican Women, which will be held on Thursday, Sept. 3 at the Roberts Ranch on Japatul Valley Road. Serving will start at 9 a.m. and will continue through the morning. Donations will be $1.00 per person. Hostess will be Mollie Martin.

Mrs. Eleanor Ring, a past President of the San Diego County Republican Women's Federation, will tell what it was like to be a delegate at the recent Republican Convention in San Francisco. Mrs. Earl Roberts will discuss the convention from an on-lookers point of view. This should be a very interesting talk, so plan to attend.

Among those showing up will be Bill Wiggleton, of last year's Jr. Varsity, Robbie Shook and Walter Rosales. George Parrott, Jr., will be one of those starting Cross Country practice Tuesday, Sept. 1. Sewing is occupying the time of many of the girls, working on their school clothes. Linda Van Norman's been working on a couple of shifts and may make a winter coat. Lucky girl, having a Mother adept at tailoring. Kathleen Lowe has been sewing while her Mother busied herself painting bedroom woodwork. Mrs. Fukstelis, a working Mother, cuts, stitches the big seams and fits clothes for Lorena and Pam, and they do the finishing. Sharon Egan's Mother having 10 thumbs, Sharon early learned to sew on buttons and picked up sewing know-how. She's working on a cotton skirt and jacket with blouse. Karen and Patty Connors and Mary Ann Parrott are busy in that department also.

A country custom we like is that of naming one's home. Mr. and Mrs. Len Parnell's place is known as "Rancho Notso Grande." Another sign on Lyons Valley Rd. you may have puzzled over is "Aknos." Spelled backwards it's a family name, "Sonka."

The Rebecca Circle of Jamul Bible Church met at Mrs. Bulah Bird's home Wednesday, Aug. 19. After the meeting a bridal shower was given for Linda Whitaker who'll be the September bride of Dennis Bird. Guests included Mrs. Bird's mother, Mrs. Bergdoll and Mrs. Etta Steward, formerly of Proctor Valley Rd., a guest of Mrs. Bergdoll at an El Cajon Mobile Home. Winners of games opened and presented to Linda small housekeeping items.

 Grade road for five years. Mrs. Hawken is an exceptionally talented fine artist who can also turn her talent to the task of illustration. She worked for some years as a commercial artist, all the while training towards, and yearning to become a fine artist, which adds so much life and sparkle to the small book, which was published in Calexico by Mrs. Storm's brother.

The book is on sale at Hunter's Book Store in Grossmont Center, which store is managed by Mrs. Storm. It is also on sale in the other bookstores, and is expected to do very well since the demand for help with this particular language barrier is considerable.

Marge Gerung was in Lubbock, Texas for the past few weeks visiting her Mother. Marge arrived home last Wednesday afternoon, and still in time to finish the bowling league series with her team.

My daughter Lynn was in El Cajon for a week's vacation. She was staying with Joan Pennington. While there she went to the show twice, and spent one day at the Beach. Lynn came home Friday night, and then Joan came up to stay with us for a few days.

LET WANT ADS WORK FOR YOU

ALPINE GARDENER

By JEAN McCULLOUGH

It would be a very good time now to take stock of your garden and see what kind of flowers have performed the best for you, and which have given you the most color or satisfaction in every way for the least amount of trouble and care. For say what you will, flowers of any kind demand a certain amount of care especially here where we live and have to give them all the moisture they receive from the water hose.

Again let me stress that the greatest aid in doing this is to incorporate good drainage material in your soil. Down deep put coarse gravel and broken brick (this last holds moisture longest) or stones. Then humus of oak leaf mold, peat moss or any course material that will eventually disintegrate. Then well-rotted barnyard manure. Do this job well in advance of your planting time. Water it down well and forget about it while you plan what you eventually want to plant where and when.

Shrubs, perennials and bulbs should be given priority when planning your garden. A good place to start is at the Pine Tree Nursery on Arnold Way here in Alpine. He will have shrubs, etc., acclimated to our environment and is close at hand. This is the time to do over those Calla lilies which have multiplied. Also the Iris which should be in getting established while the nights are warm. You will be seeing lots of lilies being advertised in garden magazines, but don't go in for those exotic prize-winners the first year until you see how some of the more common ones perform for you. Lilies definitely call for good drainage. So on little beds of sand and porous soil around them. Use peat moss or oak leaf mold, but no fertilizer.

Handy Household Hints

(For Harried Homemakers)

By JAN MON DRAGON

These are your salad days. You'll serve more and better salads if you store greens washed and ready to use, wrapped in aluminum foil in your refrigerator hydrator. Ready enough greens to last a week to ten days by draining them and sealing them into envelopes of foil. They'll remain crisp and garden-fresh for as long as they last and will always be ready for tossing into delicious salad mixes.

Salads are exciting with non-green extras mixed in or parading on top. Try these for variety and interest.

Carrots curl around your finger if the shaving is thin enough. Use a vegetable parer. They chill, in ice water, and stay curled better than a permanent wave.

Mushroom disks are a delicacy. Use fresh, raw, whole, unpeeled, washed, young mushrooms, and slice either lengthwise or crosswise. Drained canned whole or sliced mushrooms are fine, too, for salads.

Raw cauliflower (or broccoli) yields beautiful, delicious tiny flowerets. Or slice bigger flowerets into wafer-thin fans. Fun!

Cucumber slices for cool summer salads are a natural. To make it more festive, make cucumber curls by slicing unpeeled cucumbers lengthwise, very thin with a vegetable parer. Spread with cream cheese spread and roll up jelly-roll fashion. Fasten ends with colored toothpicks. Chill until ready to serve.

Cream-cheese spread. Soften a three-ounce package of cream cheese with one tablespoon each of tomato catsup and fresh lemon juice. Add a bit of finely chopped parsley for garnish.

COKE'S KITCHEN

Here we are—still on vacation! Seems so odd to see rice leys and fields of safflower. Doves and pheasants are plentiful along the road. The weather has been warm in the Sacramento Valley, but like Alpine, cools off fine for sleeping.

Our family detoured two days to visit Lake Tahoe with a lovely picnic alongside Donner Lake. The boys rode a water bike around the lake—a clever apparatus for three persons which floats on pontoons.

Our trip down the Sacramento River took place yesterday; 75 miles by boat with a campout for men and boys that night. The girls detoured for a day of shopping in Sacramento and traveled back home by car.

We're having a ball, and getting brown as bears. Hope you enjoy these "northern recipes."

ing at 7:30 a.m., participate in the breakfast for all parade riders at the Harbison park, and ride in the parade which starts at 10 a.m.

Last Monday, Cynthia Irvine acquired a new Quarter Horse filly from the Rileys. She bought the 18-month-old daughter of Poco Paul Day and plans to start training her for showing next year.

A number of Alpiners attended the Santa Barbara show over the past weekend. John Bilsky did his usual outstanding job as Assistant Show Secretary and kept track of all of the trophies and ribbons, and marked the official show program. Renee and Al Adams arrived on Saturday afternoon, and Al took over the duties on the In-Gate with Renee giving a helping hand in the Show Secretary's office. As one of the two Co-Show Secretaries, the help of these friends and neighbors was greatly appreciated. As mentioned, Ron and Melva Riley attended as exhibitors. And E. L. Freeland did an outstanding job of correlating the running of the whole show and kept everything going smoothly. Wish you could all have been there. For one thing the weather was perfect, and I understand it got pretty hot here in Alpine.

be available at intervals of approximately one-half hour normal driving time. Scenic attractions and points of historic interest will be considered wherever possible.

Of the areas already in use, five are on the Interstate system. They include four between Baker and the Nevada State Line on Interstate 15 and one in the vicinity of Midway Wells on Interstate 8 east of El Centro. These are complete only insofar as parking and picnic facilities are concerned. Comfort facilities will be added within this fiscal year.

Thirteen units now under construction are also on the Interstate Highway system.

The additional seventeen slated for construction in this fiscal year are at various locations throughout the State.

DEHESA

Mrs. Byron Moore left Wednesday by jet for a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Sebourn of Fayetteville, Arkansas. The Moore's two sons, Danny and Gary, who have spent the past month with their grandparents will return home with their mother.

John Willson, Sr., has been transferred from Grossmont Hospital to the Foothill Medical Center on Chase avenue for therapy following his confinement due to a stroke. Grandpa's recovery is progressing very slow.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nellegan and son Sam of Lompoc are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett this week. Tuesday was spent visiting the San Diego Zoo.

Dehesa Valley residents are very concerned with the gunfire that has been heard about midnight the past few nights. Hunting after sundown is unlawful and the culprits will eventually be caught and prosecuted.

The Sycuan 4-H Club Barbecue, swim party and potluck was attended by 65 members and guests. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harvey hosted the affair and was the year's most enjoyable event.

Mrs. Clyde Horstman of Sloan's Canyon was surprised Monday by a visit by a group of horseback riders. Calling on the Horstmans were Kathy Ward, Randy Franks, Sandra and Robert Yates.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Stephens, new owners of Frontier Town, are busy setting up weekend camper spaces. This is a new innovation and gives the visitors a chance to spend the weekend. Western dances are being held on the second and fourth Saturdays and gives the Dehesa residents a chance to "kick up their heels" without wandering too far away from home.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Winters and children Randy, Sheila and Anetta and Mrs. Elenor Shields of Wichita, Kansas, are enjoying a ten-day vacation with the William Husky family. Daily trips have been made to the Scripps Institute of Oceanography, Tijuana, Coronado, Mission Beach and Disneyland. They plan to return to Kansas Sunday.

Rattlesnakes seem to be in abundance this year in the Dehesa area. Friday Randy Franks and David Heinz killed a large one with 10 rattles at the corner of Dehesa Road and Harbison Canyon Road. Monday Johnny Heinz shot one with four rattles near the LeRoy Potter residence and Kenny Bennett shot one in his front yard Monday that had four rattles. Caution is to be taken when walking along the roads, especially in the early evening hours and always carry a club and keep your eyes on the ground ahead of you.

Mrs. Walter Thompson and children Wilma, Walter, Elizabeth and Bruce and Johnny Heinz of the Sycuan 4-H Club attended the Dehesa 4-H Club Beach Party at the Silver Strand State Park Wednesday.

PINE VALLEY

The Houcks are enjoying a visit from Maizie's daughter and son-in-law along with the grandchildren, Kathy, Doug and Keith. Last week the group drove down to Ensenada and rented a house so they could enjoy the beach and sun. On their return home they were happy to see Elsie Parkman of Phoenix who is Maizie's sister.

The Dick Wellbands celebrated their anniversary by dinner out and a trip to the ball game, but Honey reported that their team lost.

On Saturday evening, Ted Fischer was host to a group of friends to celebrate the birthday of his sister, Betty Coleman of Camden, Conn. Hope Rankin decorated a beautiful cake in the shape of a piano. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Pete Stribling of Chula Vista and their charming daughter, Gail.

Glen and Dolly Holbert have just returned from a three weeks' tour of Canada.

According to Glen the new well is progressing very well and down to a depth of almost a 100 feet.

It was a pleasure to see Dale Le Maire again. Dale is one of our local boys who has gone far in the field of Science. He is now working in Idaho Falls, Idaho. Dale has just returned from a month's tour of Europe, where he visited his school days chum, Robert Bounce in Germany. While on the continent, Dale also visited Switzerland, Italy and France, he likes to tell the tale on himself, while in Paris Dale decided to go to the Lido for a good show and imagine his chagrin when he found he was seeing an American Western! The family always plan an outing once a year, so when Dale found he had a long weekend flew home for a visit with all. On Friday evening he was the guest at the home of his aunt and uncle, the Allen Brothertons of Alpine. Saturday evening found him the guest of honor at a dinner at the Hobart House, among the guests were his parents, the Norman LeMaire's of Campo, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Le Maire of San Diego and the Allen Brothertons of Alpine. Then on Sunday another gala affair in Point Loma and then a weary but happy boy headed back for Idaho Falls.

A big welcome to Harold and Doris Ferguson of La Jolla. They have purchased the LaMar home on Highway 80 and are just coming up on weekends at the present as they are doing some remodeling. They are most happy to be able to call Pine Valley home.

Ralph and Ruth Mullins left for Oklahoma and points east for their yearly visit but had to cut their trip short when they received word that son Albert was leaving for Johnson Island for a year.

News of the local Fire Department: The Auxilliary have decided to take the monies they received from the chances sold on the lamps to be used on repairs for the No. 3 unit, which is the resuscitator vehicle. On Friday night the boys were called out to a car fire. An Illinois lady and her son were entering Pine Valley when their car caught on fire. She had just had some work done on it and the mechanic had left a rag under the hood. Herm Fohlin, our new TV repair man at Guatay, is furnishing the speakers for the trucks at cost and will do the installing gratis. There will be external speakers and a P. A. system installed in all three trucks.

The Wally Strands were most happy to have Marilyn and Jay home for a short visit. Jay has finished his years in the Army and the couple plan to make their home in Los Angeles where Jay plans to go into the family business.

On Saturday evening, Aug. 29th the sons and daughters of Reverend and Mrs. Meir are having a reception in honor of the Meirs 40th wedding anniversary. This will be held at the Chapel of the Hills from 6:30 to 8:30.

Gloria and Norman Haggerty and two sons drove down from Lancaster for a few days visit with Evelyn and Mrs. Wagner, while here they enjoyed side trips and the finale, a picnic in the park which all of them enjoyed very much as they had not been to the park before.

DEERHORN VALLEY

By ROY WALLIN

Judging by all the vehicular activity up here on the "Hill" last Saturday and Sunday, the "Camper-ama" up at Barrett Lake Estates was quite a success. There were displays on all types of campers, campers, as well as hunting, boating, fishing, and fire-fighting equipment. Refreshments and Western-style entertainment were featured.

Might be worth your while to jot this number down both in your car as well as in your home . . . ZENITH 1-2000. Nope, t'ain't from anyone's little black book, it's the emergency number for the California Highway Patrol—and that means EMERGENCY (use their regular business number for routine calls). By asking the operator for the Zenith number, you'll be immediately connected to the nearest C.H.P. dispatch point . . . this is the best way to report a highway emergency out in our unincorporated area.

Well, we've got amateur water-dousers wielding welding roads galore—and getting all kinds of reactions! Dave Barnum checked out his place (under Sarah's supervision) and discovered he's got water everywhere 'cepting where he's digging his well. Jim Wolfe tested the sods over a bottle of beer in the Lodge . . . worked! (it was Oly so it must be the water!) With all the water witches around we need a gal called Hazel so we can call her "Witch Hazel" (oops!).

Talking about Jim Wolfe, due to reports of his Dad's feeling better, Jim's delaying his trip to visit his folks back East a few weeks.

Terry White and her family, now of Spring Valley, accompanied by Herb Evans and Annie Erickson, paid a short visit to her former neighbors last weekend. Terry asked me to convey her sincerest "Thanks" to all her friends in our Valley that lent her a hand in getting settled back here in California in the past month.

Captain C. D. Murrell, of Point Loma and Deerhorn Valley, and his youngest son, Tom, were up and around the community last Sunday, having returned the previous Wednesday from a two-week vacation trip through the Middle West. They flew to Wichita, Kansas, and then toured Kansas, Missouri, and Oklahoma by car, visiting the old fort at Fort Scott, Kansas; and took in some fishing and boating at Grand Lake in Oklahoma. Although Nan Murrell was up at their ranch over the weekend, looking the picture of health, she didn't join the boys on their trip back East.
