Motorcycle Racers Hold Racing Events At Alpine Speedway Last Sunday

For the second consecutive Sunday afternoon motorcycle racers from all parts of Southern California gathered at the Alpine Speedway on Highway 80 for an afternoon of exciting motorcycle races.

Over 200 spectators packed the grandstands and the hillsides and their cars to watch the 62 contestants participate in the afternoon-long schedule of races. The course around the track and up and down the hills to the north of the track is in full view of the stands. It provides

Collins Home On Alpine Heights Sold

The picturesque three-bedroom home owned by Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Collins was purchased this week by Mr. and Mrs. Vern Sharp of San Diego. The home is located on two and one-half acres on the west end of Alpine Heights Road and has been occupied for a number of years by Dr. and Mrs. Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharp will move into their new home in the near future. Mrs. Sharp's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel S. Jasper, plan to build a second home for themselves on the property.

Dr. and Mrs. Collins plan to move to St. Louis to be near their son and his family.

The sale of this property was negotiated by Bill Brown of the Pierce Realty Company of Alpine.

Alpine Schools To Open Sept. 14

School will start for all Alpine school children on Monday, September 14 at 8 a.m. The first day will be a full day schedule with the school cafeteria open for lunches. The busses will be operated on the same schedule, with the same stops, as were in effect at the close of the school year last June. Class hours will be the same as at the close of school. Any changes that may be required will be made during the first week of school, and the children will be notified of any changes that affect them.

This year the cafeteria will offer lunch tickets which may be purchased by the week or by the month. They will cost $1.50 per week, and $6 for four weeks. Milk for the kindergarten pupils will be the same as last year, 5 cents per day, or 25 cents per week.

District Superintendent Paul Clay urges all new students in the area who have not yet registered to do so next week. The school will be open between the hours

INTIMATE GLIMPSES

By BEA La FORCE

Most of us know better than to believe much of what we read today yet most of us also have a few select periodicals we feel we can trust. Yet half a century or less from now what will remain truth and what tripe? Discovered later, say like the year 2014, what will our matured grandchildren think, especially of our social attitudes as printed in our trusted publications? Discovered later, as I discovered the other day, this volume from the National Geographic magazine in a second hand book store. It is a bound collection of several bird articles from the years 1911-1914. Among the titles, one, Birds of Town and Country, is as good in essence as it was then and will be so 100 years from now, written by a scientist, H. W. Henshaw.

Then take a look at this piece, Encouraging Birds Around the Home, by one author Kennard, and if you still think the world is getting worse in every way, if this won't give you a more cheerful view of the modern character, then you're a gonner. At the time this article was published, 50 years ago, some legislation had already been enacted to protect migratory birds, the known insectivores, and putting game birds under Federal control. But hawks, eagles, buzzards, the California Condor and many other valuable birds were not then protected. The author of this article, who belonged to the "bird lovers" of his day, writes in a prissy affected style with coy attempts at humor. In speaking of bird enemies he states flatly that hawks should be

Coyotes Still Menace Crest

The problem of marauding coyote packs is increasing on the Crest. Growing ever bolder with increasing hunger, these "poor man's wolves" have been depleting poultry flocks at an alarming rate. A band of the coyotes pulled down a deer this week, between the homes of Dora Saunders and the Sandy Syzemores. They are beginning to appear in broad daylight.

Louis C. Lee, professional trapper, who lives in Harbison Canyon, has promised to help the Crest. There is also the possibility that special permits may be granted to certain responsible adults to allow them to shoot the animals.

Register To Vote In Nov. 3 Election

All persons who are eligible to vote and are not already registered will have until midnight Thursday, September 10, to do so.

During this period there is a weekend and two holidays, leaving a small number of days on which most registration offices are open. Among the places where registration can be made besides the Registrar's office at the Operation Center on Kearny Mesa are: Mrs. Harry Colby on Tavern Road in Alpine, the Garage at Lake Moreno, and at 1806 Suncrest Blvd. in Crest.

LARGER THAN LIFE CHICKENS NEW ADDITION AT FIBREGLASS CO.

The Fibreglass Menagerie of Alpine recently completed a new mold and produced several larger-than-life stylized chickens to add to their growing collection of fibreglass animals.

The chicken was designed by Kevin Wolff of Lakeside, and stands over six feet tall. It is an original design of Mr. Wolff's which he drew for the approval of Mildred and Jim Rorie, owners of the Fibreglass Menagerie. At the present time the chickens come in white, buff and

Alpine Sun Sold To San Jose Couple

Clarke Irvine has announced that the Alpine Sun has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Van Til, formerly of San Jose. The new owners took over the editing and publishing of the Sun on the first of this month.

Mr. Irvine was the founder of the Sun and has been its editor and publisher for the past 13 years.

Mrs. Van Til has had previous newspaper experience in San Jose. She states that it is the intention of her husband and herself to make Alpine their home and the Alpine Sun their life work.

First Annual Horse Show At Mt. Laguna

Property Owners Oppose M.E. Zoning

Property owners in the Mt. Empire area proposed to be zoned by the County at a public meeting called by the Planning Department at Descanso last Wednesday evening, voiced strong objection to the proposed zoning plan for their area.

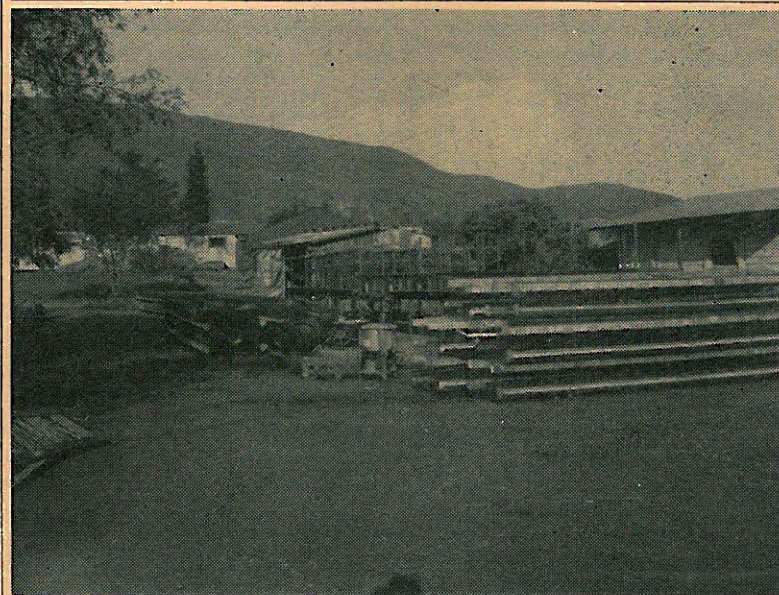

The general feeling appeared to be that the major portion of the proposed area did not need zoning at this time.

A similar public meeting had previously been held in Pine Valley on Monday evening where similar objections were made.

The next step in the program set up by the Planning Department will be the writing of letters by interested property owners to the Planning Commission expressing their views on the proposed zoning of their property.

State Senator Jack Schrade, Parade Marshal, leads the Harbison Canyon parade last Sunday morning. Kathy Falkenberg, Queen of the Fiesta, followed in the second car. The parade consisted of a number of units, including the Color Guard of the Chula Vista Mounted Police; two comical cars loaded with Cooties and Cootieffes; a large number of equestrians, some Indians, some Charros; and fire trucks of the Harbison Canyon Fire Department, sponsors of the two-day Harbison Canyon Fiesta. Work is in progress on the former Archer chicken ranch on Victoria Drive recently purchased by Bill and Charlene Brown. The chicken sheds are being demolished and all the debris cleaned up and removed, now landscaping is underway, and the house is being painted and re-decorated. The renovating of this seven-acre parcel will add to the attractiveness of the Victoria Hill area.

VICTORIA ROCK MAKES NEWS IN ENGLAND

We are indebted to local artist, Justin Gruelle, for some globe circling fame which has come to our village. It began last winter when an Australian woman visiting here, Mrs. U. H. Kuffard, was charmed with Mr. Gruelle's colored silk screen prints of local scenes which he has made into greeting cards. She was especially interested in his picture of the Queen Victoria rock on Victoria hill, struck by its strong likeness to a large statue of the former British monarch which she knew stood on a pedestal in front

Alpine Reading Club Presented Awards

Saturday afternoon at the Alpine branch of the County Library, over in the Woman's Club building, 12 children were given awards by Librarian Mrs. Elizabeth C. West for completing the requirements of the Smokey Bear reading club.

The local library is one of 16 of the county branches which formed the reading clubs for children at the end of the school year. The program required that each child should read 10 nature books, non-fiction on animals and the outdoors. The program was inaugurated in cooperation with the U. S. Forest Service and carried out by the local branches who signed up the children at the beginning of the summer and supplied the books.

Mrs. West said that 24 children came in and signed up for the program but only 12 read all the required books. Each of these 12 were awarded a special certificate, and a pin, while all 24 children got the pin whether or not they did the reading.

The Smokey Bear reading program was announced on July 8 in

Shakespeare In Final Two Weeks

The Old Globe Theater is nearing the end of its 15th National Shakespeare Festival in Balboa Park and announces that matinees will be presented Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday at 2 p.m.

Tickets are still available for all three plays, "Much Ado About Nothing," "Macbeth" and "Measure for Measure." However, it is best to plan a few days in advance for the best selection of reserved seats.

HARBISON

By LORNA FERGUSON

The Harbison Canyon Volunteer Fire Department and auxiliary wish to express their utmost gratitude to all who pitched in and made the Western Days and Fiesta the success anticipated. Our thanks to all of you.

Ruth Fox, of Descanso, was a guest in the Jerry Pepmeier home, and enjoyed fiesta activities with Patty.

Hazel Gibbs was a canyon visitor for the week-end, visiting daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Grayson.

The Richard Mossburg family of Phoenix, Ariz. are guests at the Gordon Carbaugh home. The Mossburgs are planning on locating here in the near future.

The Bill Wallace family entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Eastlick and sons, Jimmy and David, of Greenville, Penn., last week. A trip to Mexico and a tour of the San Diego Zoo was enjoyed by the visitors while they were here.

Jim Davis, of National, was Beau Carbaugh's guest for the weekend and at the fiesta.

Lynne and Criss Crissman with daughters, Bev and Jan, of Long Beach, were guests in the Glenn Carpenter home on the weekend.

Fred Osie was home from March Air Force Base on the weekend, visiting family and friends and enjoying the festivities at the fiesta.

The Western Days and Fiesta brought out many former canyonites and old friends, among these were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Palmer, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Laverty, Mr. and Mrs. Stacey Gaines and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Royce, and Mrs. Dorothy Gaines, all of El Cajon.

The Charlie Jennings family welcomed a new arrival to their home on August 22. Carlton Russell weighed in at 10 lbs. and 7 oz. and measured 23 inches long. Happy birthdays were in order the same week with Charlie and Corinne celebrating their birthdays on August 26.

The Dick Naylor family and Carl Michael took off for Pacific Beach, last Sunday, where they enjoyed swimming and a cookout.

Justin C. Gruelle, distinguished artist of Alpine, famous for his murals and portraits, member of the noted Gruelle family of artists and writers.

MEET MEMBER OF NOTED FAMILY

When asked about his work, Justin C. Gruelle, whose work as an artist is acclaimed from coast to coast, was very matter of fact.

"I haven't done so much," he said as we finished the interview, "I'm proud of my father and Johnny, but . . ." he shrugged. So it always is with really first rate ability.

A visit to his studio, where one has the privilege of viewing some of his recent canvases, portraits and landscapes, is enough to convince the visitor that here is an artist of real stature and amazing versatility. His work ranges through illustration, huge murals (we saw colored transparencies of some) for public buildings and institutions, advertising and publicity art, landscapes and portraits in oils and water colors, silk screen prints. We suspect there is not anything in drawing and painting that he can't do and do superbly.

A native of Indianapolis, Ind., Justin Gruelle is the second son of Richard B. Gruelle who was one of the "famous four" original Hoosier artists. Mr. Gruelle, sr., a self-taught artist, became one of the most noted, and respected, and beloved artists of his era. He also wrote articles on art and philosophy and was a leader in the Silver Mine art group, at Silver Mine, near New Canaan, Conn. where the family moved in 1910 when Justin was 21.

The home at Silver Mine is one that was famous as an historic old mill dating back to 1762, built on the Silver Mine River. When the Gruelles moved there, Johnny and his wife came to live nearby in a home he built for them. He was already an artist of note, a cartoonist and writer. The sister, Prudence, wrote books for children and later turned to art as well. The mother painted and was a musician. The family was an altogether creative one. It was a household of unusually gifted people.

Johnny Gruelle, Justin's elder brother, was the creator of the "Raggedy Ann" and "Raggedy Andy" books. He wrote and illustrated them. Later Justin illustrated some of these volumes now regarded as children's classics. Johnny also created the Tweedle stories, and did two books, "My Very Own Fairy Stories" and "Friendly Fairies." These two books, with their beautiful colorful pictures, were favorites of mine. I still have them in my

DON FRISCH

Crest Fireman Of the Month

Donald Frisch of 138 North Lane, has been named Crest Fireman of the Month for August.

Bob Nelson, who conducts the training program for the Department, says, "I am very proud of Don. He joined the Department with no previous experience at all. He attended every training session and paid such strict attention you could feel him concentrating. As a result his knowledge makes him a very valuable member."

Chief Roger Dutton says, "I couldn't be more pleased with Don. He not only learned methods and techniques fast and thoroughly, but he applies them conscientiously. Frisch is on the Crest during the day at present, and he has taken charge at our recent fires, and has exhibited competence, a cool head, and the ability to think fast and straight in emergencies." Congratulations, Don Frisch.

Iris To Be Planted At SD Civic Center

County Supervisor David W. Bird will sponsor a resolution to beautify the Civic Center by accepting the offer of the San Diego-Imperial Counties Iris Society to plant blue and white Iris bulbs at the west entrance of Civic Center.

The Region 15 Flower Show, hosted by the San Diego-Imperial Iris Society, is booked for San Diego in 1966. The bulbs will be in bloom at the time of the show. The entire Region includes the counties of San Bernardino, Ventura, Riverside, Orange, Los Angeles, San Diego and Imperial and the state of Arizona.

Mrs. Thelma Carrington, the show chairman, has made the offer to plant the bulbs. They would replace the seasonal annuals and provide a low maintenance flower with a longer blooming period.

Supervisor Bird will introduce a resolution to the County Board of Supervisors at its September 1st meeting to accept Mrs. Carrington's offer.

National 4-H Week Sept. 26 To Oct. 3

September 26 to October 3 is National 4-H Club Week. In California 37,876 club members and 11,126 adult leaders will observe this event, according to Bena Johnson, Home Advisor, University of California.

The head-heart-hands-health program gives youth opportunities to "learn for living," the theme of the national observance. In 4-H clubs, young people between 10 and 19 years acquire and share skills in livestock, crops, home economics, junior leadership, and many other projects.

Crest Girls Rescue Kitten

Saturday, August 29, was the day of the annual Crest Fireman's picnic. Traffic was heavy on the road, and Nancy Jane Park was packed with kids, grownups and sundry dogs. Everyone was having a good time, when a car drove past, and a man tossed a kitten out into the middle of the road, and then drove away.

Witnesses say the man, not believed to be a Crest resident, was "old enough to know better"—the kitten was not. No more than 10 days old, still squinty-eyed, it sprawled helplessly in the street, at the mercy of cars and dogs alike.

Kathy Frisch, 7, rescued the mite, made a box for it, and took it home, where it was hoped that their mother cat would accept the orphan. She wouldn't and being "over-stocked" already, the Frischs gave the kitten to Caroline Williams, who stayed up all night, feeding it from an eye-dropper. At last report, the tiny thing was doing fine.

CREST

By JANE MON DRAGON

August 28 was the ninth wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. George Behrens. Among the many congratulatory wishes and gestures was an especially nice surprise. Mrs. Gwen Jamison baked and decorated a beautiful cake for Evelyn and George. Evelyn says, "It really touched us, because Gwen works every day, and must have stayed up half the night to fix it."

The Earl Lees of 2169 West Drive had a "passel of company" this past week. Jean's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kite and their seven children were guest from Gila Bend, Ariz., and during the week Jean and her two boys, David and Chris managed to sneak in a few days' visit to Gila Bend themselves. Then Sunday night, the family gathered for dinner at Lee's to celebrate Chris' 12th birthday, which was Monday. At dinner were Jean's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robbins of San Diego, her sister, Mrs. LeRoy Amendt from Whittier, the Kites' Jean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. C. Robbins of Chula Vista, and 14 assorted children.

Odie Fransway says her husband, Frank, is getting stronger each day, and even sat up a little Saturday. That is good news for all of their friends who have been so concerned with Frank's illness. He is being transferred to Sharp Memorial Hospital for further tests, and Odie thinks he will be confined to the hospital for another month.

August 26 a group of Crest adults and children enjoyed a picnic and swimming at Dinosaur Land, Alpine. Attending were Mrs. James Hunter, Mrs. Joseph Nilles, Mrs. Ruth Acebedo, Mrs. Winnie Davis, Mrs. Beatrice Merrifield, Jimmy and Billy Hunter, Raymond Acebedo, Susan and Judy Nilles, Lorraine Pearson and Johnny Vigil.

The birthdays of Donna Dutton and Joan Nelson both fall on August 28, so Friday evening their husbands, Roger and Bob, got together and took the girls out for dinner and dancing at the Acey-Ducey Petty Officers Club at the Naval Station, San Diego. They report a wonderful time.

Evan Cramer, principal of Crest School, his wife, and five children had a fabulous vacation trip this summer. Accompanied by Evan's mother, Mrs. Amy Cramer, and Mrs. Cramer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Omer Kemp, the Cramers Continued on Page 6

JAMUL

By THERESA EGAN

The Southern Calif. Milk Goat Assn. will hold its monthly meeting at 1 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 13 at Claudia Bess's home on Hwy. 94, Jamul. All goat owners and others interested in goats are urged to attend. Along with the meeting a White Elephant Sale will be held. There will also be cakes for sale. This sale is open to the public, and donation of clothing or household or miscellaneous items will be appreciated. Drop them off at Mrs. Bess's home beforehand.

St. Pius X Catholic Church announces new Mass hours starting Sunday, Sept. 6 will be 8:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. This will give enough time between for Sunday School and for coffee and rolls in the Church Hall. These hours will prevail till next Summer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Colombo and sons Mike and Paul jetted to Calumet, Mich., to spend two weeks' vacation with John's parents and his sister and family. A brief incident during their flight occurred when the plane was grounded in Tucson because of two flat tires. The landing at Calumet was a windy one and during their stay "unusual" weather prevailed, 39 and 40 in the mornings. Beautiful country, Madeline says, and they kept going the whole time. John hadn't been back to their hometown in 18 years. The nearby copper mine was closed down for vacations and some of the workers coming home on visits were acquaintances of 25 years ago. John got in some fishing with his boys and they visited the mine.

Approximately 85 persons attended last Friday evening's Goldwater Rally at the Community Club House. Senator Jack Schrade spoke and a film "Operation Abolition" was shown. Refreshments were served, and literature was available to be looked over and selected for reading.

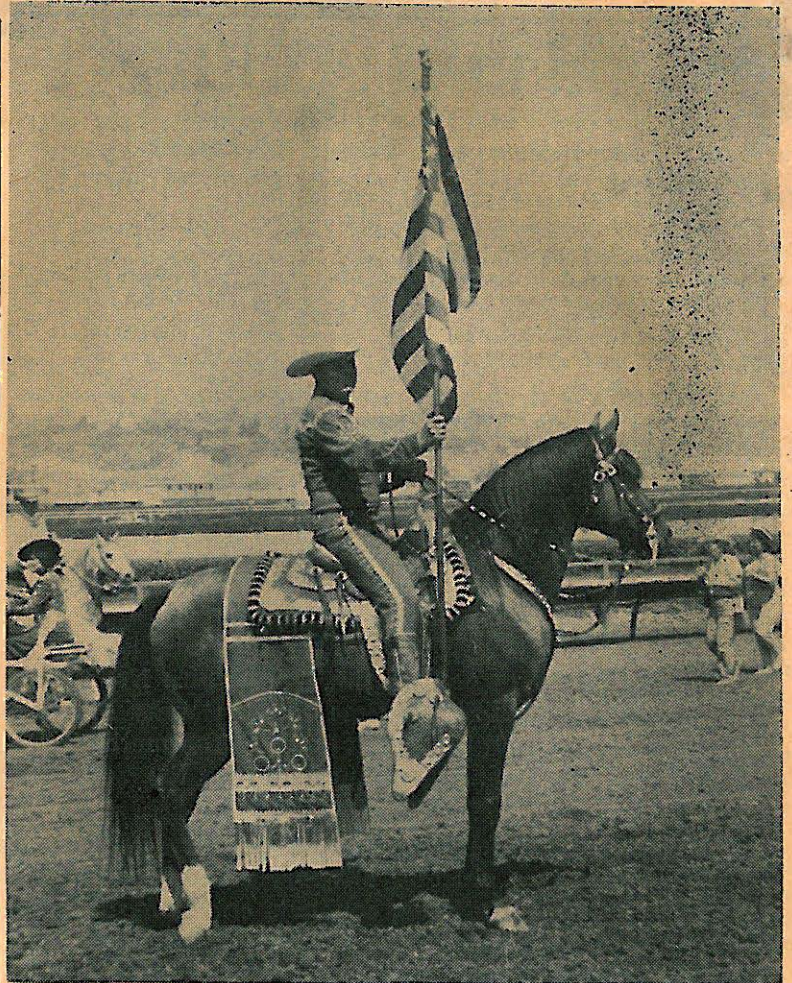

A reminder that a free film, "The Truth About Communism," narrated by Ronald Reagan, will be shown Friday, Sept. 4 at 8 p.m. at the Community Club House. Free refreshments will be served and the public is urged to attend. These gatherings are sponsored by Citizens for Goldwater and Miller—East County.

Dan Botos, Boiler Technician 2 of the USS Berkeley DDG 15 is in Viet Nam waters. His nuclear-powered ship's been patrolling the area, 13 weeks at one stretch. Scheduled to be home Sept. 10, Dan now doesn't know when he'll get home, as time over there has been extended. Meanwhile his son, Jamul's Easter Baby, David Allen whom he's not yet seen is growing in all directions.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dunn and family of Yucca Drive, residents of Jamul six years, have sold their house and left the area.

A Spaghetti Dinner will be served in the St. Pius X Church Hall from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 26. Admission will be $1.25 for adults, 75c for children. Expert Italian chefs from the San Bernardino area are putting it on, so mark this on your calendar and plan to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Troesch and family have recently enjoyed two trips to the Salton Sea with their truck and camper. On Aug. 21 while fishing, Mary waded out up to her shoulders and threw out her line. She became exhausted trying to bring in the big load on her hook and so Arthur finally helped her. Harry Harness in full parade regalia on his fine Arabian stallion, Rohmoun.

HORSES! HORSES! HORSES!

By MARGARET LOWTHIAN

Pictured with this column today is our neighbor, Harry Harness on the fine Arabian stallion, Rahmoun. The Harness Arabian Horse Ranch is located on Dell View Road just west of Fairview where Harry and Katherine Harness have been raising fine Arabians for a number of years. Harry helped in the organization of the Arabian Horse Association International, was the secretary of the organization during its first year, organized and was the first president of the Desert Arabian Horse Association, and is an accredited Arabian horse judge. The stallion, Rahmoun, is leased by the Harnesses from Mr. and Mrs. William Randolph Hearst of San Simeon and New York. He is the sire of many blue ribbon winners and is standing to approved mares.

A number of the Harness blue-ribbon winners will be shown at the coming All-Arabian Horse Show to be held at the Del Mar Fair Grounds on September 18, 19 and 20. This show is an annual event conducted by the Desert Arabian Horse Association, and this year's show is held as a Boy's Club benefit. It has proved to be one of the large All-Arabian shows in the country in the past, and this year's show is expected to draw entries from all over the country.

The Arabians put on a wonderful show for spectators with their beautiful, spirited action. The exciting costume class conducted at a hand gallop in one of the most colorful spectacles in the horse show world. This is a horse show that everyone can enjoy, and it is also benefiting a worthy cause. So mark the date, Sept. 18, 19 and 20, and plan to attend at Del Mar. We know that the Harness horses will bring home their share of the honors to prove that some of the good horses live in our area.

Last Sunday the members of the Pequeno Riders were out in force to participate in the parade in Harbison Canyon. Cynthia Irvine and Maxine Kinikin led the group and carried a large banner between them stating that the group was the Pequeno Riders. Bringing up the rear, but certainly not deservng of the last place, were Alice Irvine and Alice Villa. Without these two mothers of members of the group, this group would have fallen by the wayside as so many of the riding groups in Alpine have done. A lot of credit goes to them for all the work and assistance they have given to the organization and activities of the Pequeno Riders. Our hats are off to you both who managed to find the time in your busy schedules to take such an active part in a worthwhile youth activity.

Melva Riley reports that in addition to the filly recently purchased from them by Cynthia Irvine, she and Ron have sold three more of their Quarter horses. All have been purchased by Rancho Santa Fe people, with the good filly, Chacha, going to trainer Bob Rice.

MOUNTAIN EMPIRE ZONING

The property owners in the Mt. Empire No. 1 area proposed to be zoned at this time by the County Planning Department have had their first taste of the method used by the Planning Department in achieving the zoning of an area.

The Planning Department first develops a plan for an area, appoints a citizens' advisory committee of local property owners in the area, conducts one or more public hearings within the area, then requests that the individual property owners write letters to the Planning Commission describing their property and expressing their views for or against the zoning proposed for their property.

A public hearing is then held before the Planning Commission which reviews the proposed plan, and after due deliberation makes their recommendation to the Board of Supervisors. If opposition develops to the proposed plan, the Planning Commission may continue the hearings from time to time until either the opposition subsides, or they either approve or deny requested changes in the proposed zoning.

The Planning Commission then makes its recommendation to the Board of Supervisors, who in turn conduct similar hearings until a final determination is made by the Board.

Based on the proceedings in a large number of areas that have been zoned in the past, this procedure extends over a considerable period of time causing great inconvenience to the property owners affected in the matter of writing letters and attending hearings. And, also based on previous experience, the zoning finally adopted is with a small number of exceptions, the zoning originally proposed by the Planning Department.

As was pointed out in an editorial in last week's issue of the Echo, our Legislators have passed laws which give the Board of Supervisors broad powers in the zoning of private property. Many times the zoning results are not the type of zoning desired by the property owners affected.

Within the Alpine School District which was recently zoned there are already requests for changes which may, or may not, be granted.

INTIMATE GLIMPSES

shot on sight, and that the great horned owl "is incapable of reform." The little screech owl he also condemns along with the jays. He states that sparrows "should be destroyed relentlessly," and advises trapping stating "once they learn that you are after them with a gun they quickly desert the premises." If this is true, that the birds will vacate when shown a gun, one wonders why he goes on to say—"Traps may be used with telling effect. There are several kinds in use in this country." Can't you just see this "bird-lover" gleefully pinching off the heads of a box full of small frightened sparrows? We have special hospitals for people like this now days.

This same bird lover says of bird enemies, "Cats are undoubtedly the worst and maudlin sentiment should not be wasted on them, for they are incorrigible." He advocates eliminating cats. Period. Adding (this is meant to be humor). "They make fine fertilizer when planted about the roots of one's favorite grape vine." Red Squirrels are next, says he, and bird chasing dogs, while the list of rodents he'd do away with would leave the earth depopulated of their kind. Lastly he names snakes, which live on rodents, as well as occasionally rob a bird's nest, as creatures who must be eradicated from the bird fancier's paradise.

By standards of today's conservationists this man was a vicious fool. He and his kind earned the medals reserved for those whose efforts to "save the song birds" contributed to the extinction of some, and the near extinction of many other valuable and beautiful species. This man's article played up to the pseudo gentility of the era, the kind of bigotry admired and encouraged, which flourished among the effete. Fortunately their territory seems to have been limited principally to city parks and the East at that, and to their country homes and estates where these lovers sat in fancy gardens wearing iron staved corsets and making bird calls to tame their "little feathered friends" while being served tea by another species of bird, now also extinct, then known as the "tame domestic."

OBITUARIES

NORMAN T. FOSTER

Alpine friends and neighbors were shocked and saddened at the death of Norman T. Foster, 50, of 445 Arnold Way last Friday morning after a heart attack.

Norman was known to many Alpiners for his jovial, good-natured friendliness to everyone, and for the many community activities in which he participated.

He has served as President of the Alpine PTA, as the Horse Show Manager for the past three years for the Alpine Viejas Days Horse Show, and before that as the manager of many other shows held in Alpine and Pine Valley in past years, and for his active interest in the Boy Scouts, the Cadet Air Patrol, the Queen of Angels Church, the Chamber of Commerce and many others. He was always willing to do his share, and in many cases more than his share, in making the activities in the Alpine community successful. He was an Alpine resident since 1956, and a resident of San Diego County for the past 39 years.

Norman is survived by his widow, Hazel, of Alpine, and five children, Steven, 15, and Kathy Ann, 6, at home, Norman, Jr. of San Diego, Richard of Imperial Beach, and Dennis in the army; two brothers, Gordon of Imperial Beach and Leonard of Huntington Beach; his mother, Mrs. Anna E. McGavin of Coronado, and three sisters, including Mrs. Margaret Jeffers of Jamul and Mrs. Rita Pennington of Chula Vista.

Norman and Hazel owned the Nor Bob Trophy Company, and Hazel intends to continue its operation. He was also a motion picture projectionist and was working at the Mission Theater in San Diego at the time of his death.

Rosary was recited last Monday evening at the Paris Mortuary in El Cajon. Requiem Mass was said on Tuesday morning by Rev. Bolton at the Queen of Angels Catholic Church in Alpine, followed by interment in the Alpine Cemetery.

CLARA ELLIS

Mrs. Clara Ellis of the Ellis Ranch, Descanso, died last Friday while visiting in Newhall. She was 75, and was born and lived all of her life in San Diego County.

Services were held last Monday afternoon at Paris Mortuary, El Cajon, with interment in the Ellis Ranch Cemetery at Descanso.

She is survived by a son, Gordon, in San Diego; a brother at Mt. Shasta; two daughters at Whittier and Newhall; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

many sharp curves, steep hills and humps that cause the cycles to fly through the air. The races lap the course a number of times, and with as many as 18 contestants give the audience many thrills.

These racing events are sponsored by the El Cajon Motorcycle Club, and will be held again at the Alpine Speedway on Sunday, September 13. Admission is $1, and the refreshment stand is open.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Hazel Foster and children wish to express their sincere thanks to all their wonderful friends and neighbors for the sympathy and kindness extended to them in their bereavement.

Alpine Schools

of 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. every day except Monday and Wednesday which are national holidays. Registrants must have proof of having their polio immunization to register.

Next week will be a busy one for Alpine teachers. They will hold preschool meetings at the Alpine school on September 8 and 11 with a staff luncheon on the 8th at Singing Hills. On September 10 they will meet at Balboa Park for an all-County teachers meeting. The program on September 8 will be a workshop conducted by Janet Briggs and sponsored by the County Board of Education and will be an area meeting to explain and discuss the new mathematic courses to be inaugurated in the county schools this year.

Horse Show

are offered for both senior and junior divisions. In the senior division, 18 years of age and over, the trophies will be for Horsemanship, Best Trail Horse, Sportsmanship and the Oldest Rider. In the junior division, 17 and under, the trophies will be for Horsemanship, Best Trail Horse, Sportsmanship and the Youngest Rider.

The Horse Show on Sunday will start at 10 a.m. and will include many horse show and gymkhana events. They are: showmanship, pole bending, stake race, western pleasure, balloon spearing, key hole race, trail horse, flag race, western horsemanship, barrel race, quadrangle stake race, western jumping, western pleasure for residents of the Mt. Empire School District only, trailer race, and single pole race. The entry fee for each class is $1.

Bob Robinson of El Cajon is the manager of this event.

A street dance is planned for Saturday evening at 8 p.m. It will be held in front of the Laguna Mountain Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bruce of La Mesa, who were married on February 9 in the Community Church of Alpine, are moving on September 20 to Palo Alto where Robert has been accepted at Stanford University. Robert will spend a year working toward his Masters Degree. He is an electrical engineer at the present time working for Cubic Corporation. Mrs. Bruce, Vicki, daughter of Bill and Charlene Brown of Alpine, plans to work as a secretary. She recently completed her course at the San Diego Business College.

The Lutherans Women's Club of Alpine has collected clothes for the needy. They would appreciate hearing from anyone who might know of families, especially with school children, which could use this clothing. If you do, call Mrs. Charles Smith at 445-3652.

Fourteen members of the Alpine Lively Oaks Club attended the dance held by the La Mesa Senior group last Saturday evening. Dancing, card games and refreshments were enjoyed by the 200 senior citizens attending from La Mesa, El Cajon and Alpine. Three members of the Alpine group also joined the La Mesa group on a trip to the Del Mar races last Monday. They report that some of them bet on the horses, while others had fun just betting on paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Wiens and children, Vicki, Ralph, Jr., and Gary, spent the past weekend visiting with Bill and Charlene Brown of Alpine Highlands. The Wiens live at Corona.

Bruce H. McKie, son of Henry McKie of Alpine, was recently appointed as the District Supervisor for the San Diego area for the Midwest Life Insurance Company. The company states that Bruce is unusually well qualified for this position, having been a representative for the Auto Club of Southern California and having a business background in San Diego County for the past 12 years.

Even you're heading for the Civic Club meeting this Friday evening down at the Young Christian Workers Camp—don't—on account it's been postponed one week because of the long Labor Day weekend. We'll look forward to seeing all our neighbors as well as Mr. Bird and Mr. Boney, who are scheduled to give us their views and platforms with regard to their candidacy for supervisor of the Second District in the forthcoming November election.

Incidentally, those of us that have been victims of any type of vandalism in our community in the past year are requested to contact Mrs. Laura Haughey, secretary of the Deerhorn Civic Club, so that the letter from the club to the sheriff's office can be completed. Mrs. Haughey can be reached at Barrett Lake Estates or by phoning 468-3402 or 463-6441.

Ran into Judy and Walt Ferrero, formerly of our community, early this week downtown—looks like the little one's arrival is drawing near—they're living in Casa de Oro now, and Walt's working down at the White Service Station in Spring Valley Center. Both looked well, and said "howdy" to all of us.

We'd all like to take this opportunity to welcome Amelia and Paul Jennings of Van Nuys to our community. The couple are close friends of Vera and Herman Franklin, confirmed Deerhorn "Poison-Oakers," and became property owners in the Monte Robles section of our community about two weeks ago.

Back from a three-week vacation, looking happy and rested, are Hazel and Charles Cook, of Imperial Beach and the "Hill." The Cooks visited their son and his family in Las Vegas, as well as Salt Lake City, Jackson Hole, Wyo., Grant Teton National Park, Yellowstone National Park, Glacier Park, Mont., Reno, La Tahoe, San Francisco, Redwood City, and Orange. Hope you gave our best to Smokey, the Bear, also Yogi.

Also back from the vacation trail and up in our community this past weekend, are Toshie and R. K. "Slow-Draw" Roberts. The couple spent an enjoyable two weeks visiting the Grand Canyon, Arizona, Utah, Wyoming, Montana, Oregon, Idaho, and Northern California.

The Labor Day weekend marks the end of the vacation season and heralds the ringing of the school bell for the little people so have a wonderful time this coming weekend, but remember in both your driving and recreation activities, use your head or you might lose it.

Mrs. Carol Stout, principal of the Dehesa School was a Tuesday visitor at the John Heinz residence. She advised your correspondent that registration day is September 9 from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. If you are unable to make it during the specified time, call Mrs. Stout at the school, 444-4193 and make arrangements to register at your convenience.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Denton and family visited relatives and friends in the Santa Ana area Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Magers returned Friday from a two-week vacation trip in Colorado visiting relatives.

Howard Theabeau, custodian and bus driver for the Dehesa school has been busy the past week getting the buildings in shape for the fall term. Theabeau was married during vacation this summer to Mrs. Mary Bell Wilson of Chula Vista, formerly of Portsmouth, Va. and plans to retire on June 30, 1965 after 12 years of employment by the Dehesa school.

Mr. Robert Anderson and son, Donald returned from a deer hunting vacation trip to Utah. Bob makes this trip every year and returns with his limit of deer.

The Emery Babcock family are making plans for moving from the valley. They have purchased a new home and are waiting for the escrow to close.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ballinger have a new foster family of four to enter the Dehesa school this fall.

John Heinz and Billy Zehner started football practice Tuesday with the freshman squad at Granite Hills school. Both boys state that they have found out that they have some muscles they didn't know they had before.

Butch Harvey and Bill Rigler participated in the Harbison Canyon parade Sunday. They entered a team of horses and buckboard.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Zehner returned from a month's vacation in the East and South, driving some 8000 miles.

The Dehesa Valley junior softball team won their Sunday game with Bates Lane of El Cajon. The score was tied from the third inning on and in the seventh inning Billy Zehner hit a home run with the bases loaded. Final score, Dehesa 6, Bates Lane 2.

Get well wishes are in order for Mrs. Steve Cowan, who is home after spending some time in the hospital. We hope she'll be feeling much better soon.

Pat Richardson will leave on Friday morning on the train for Mt. Pleasant, Ia., where she will attend Iowa Wesleyan College. Pat, who graduated from Mt. Empire High School last June, plans to major in Physical Education. She will be missed by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Richardson, and her many friends here. Good luck, Pat.

Margo Faulconer has been entertaining her friend, Gloria Elliott, of Stockton, who has been a guest at the Faulconer home during the past week.

Jackie Van Oort returned home on Tuesday after spending two weeks at the Christian Witness Camp in Riverside. Jackie, who was recommended for this camp by the Descanso MYF, was one of 40 girls in the district chosen to attend.

Ellen Walters of Lakeside spent the week visiting at the home of her grandpartnts, Mr. and Mrs. Granville Martin.

Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Meier wish to express their deep appreciation and thanks for the many cards and gifts showered on them in honor of their 40th wedding anniversary open house at the Chapel of the Hills on Saturday evening, August 29. A special thanks to the committee who helped their daughter, Pat and son, Don to make this such an enjoyable occasion. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gorsline of Lancaster; Miss Esther Meier, Miss Vera Wiley of Kingman, Ariz.; Mrs. Grace McDonnell of White River, Ariz.; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Lachard of El Cajon; Rev. and Mrs. O. R. Henderson of El Cajon, and Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson of Escondido.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Rehdorf and daughters, Linda and Sheryl, of San Jose, have spent several weeks visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rehdorf.

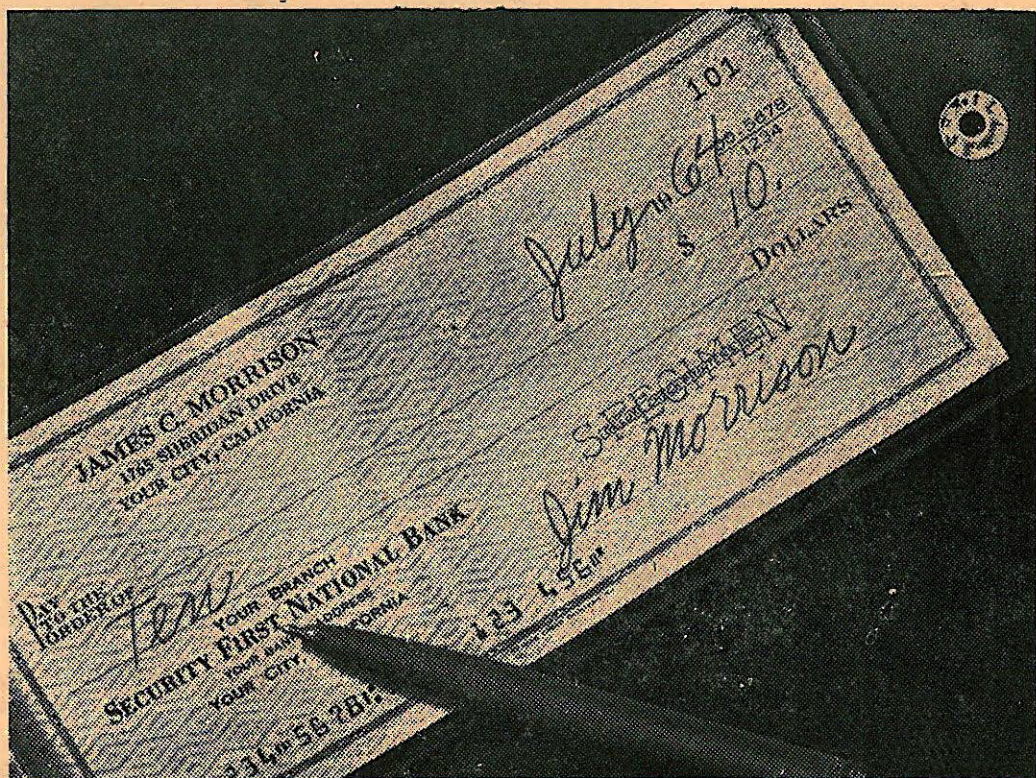

Toni Rehdorf is home after spending three days in Navy Hospital, where she had surgery on her arm. She will be wearing a cast for about six weeks. We hope the surgery will prove very successful.

drove on a five-week "seeAmerica-first" tour. They were divided into two cars, connected by walkie-talkie. Not only did no one get lost, but Evan reports it is a swell way to keep the small fry contented. They visited Niagara Falls, first, then stopped to see an aunt in Montreal, Canada, then down for two days at the New York World's Fair. Next stop, a few days' visit with friends in Washington, D.C., and a tour through Williamsburg, Va. They drove back, stopping at the Mount Rushmore Memorial, and other historic places of interest retracing the old pioneers' route West. After getting home, they took off again, and spent a week with friends on a cattle and timber ranch in Thompson Falls, Montana. Altogether, they racked-up 10,000 miles.

Drive Carefully This Weekend

"If you drive during the Labor Day holiday, you probably won't be involved in an accident," California Highway Patrol Commissioner said today.

"Most of California's motorists will come through the 78-hour holiday period unscathed.

"There will be several thousand accidents involving perhaps twice that many drivers, true enough; but measured against the state's 9¼ million drivers and 9½ million vehicles, that figure is very small.

"Of course, no figure is small enough for the driver who does have an accident. Perhaps five to six dozen persons will be killed, and many hundreds injured, over Labor Day. Statistics, ratios, comparisons—all will be meaningless for them.

"If the Patrol could identify this small but not very elite group beforehand, the problem would be solved. Unfortunately, the group could include any one of the 9¼ million people who operate vehicles in California.

"That's why we will have every available man on the highway over Labor Day, trying to eliminate the mistakes we know cause accidents.

"The best advice I can give you is: Don't make an accident-causing driving error. This way, you will reduce the chance that you will have an accident."

Construction Adds To Driving Hazards

One summer driving hazard which frequently fails to command adequate attention of motorists is construction zones, California Highway Patrol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden said.

"Construction usually climbs during the fair weather months of summer and fall, thus motorists should be on the alert for the evidences of road work call for reduced speed and extra caution.

"During 1963, there were 47 fatal accidents and 1250 injury accidents in highway construction areas, powerful evidence that drivers did not take due care in these zones."

The commissioner said that road construction "commonly means the number of available lanes will be reduced, detours may be set up, and complete stops may be required. Lowered speeds are almost always essential to cope with these other situations."

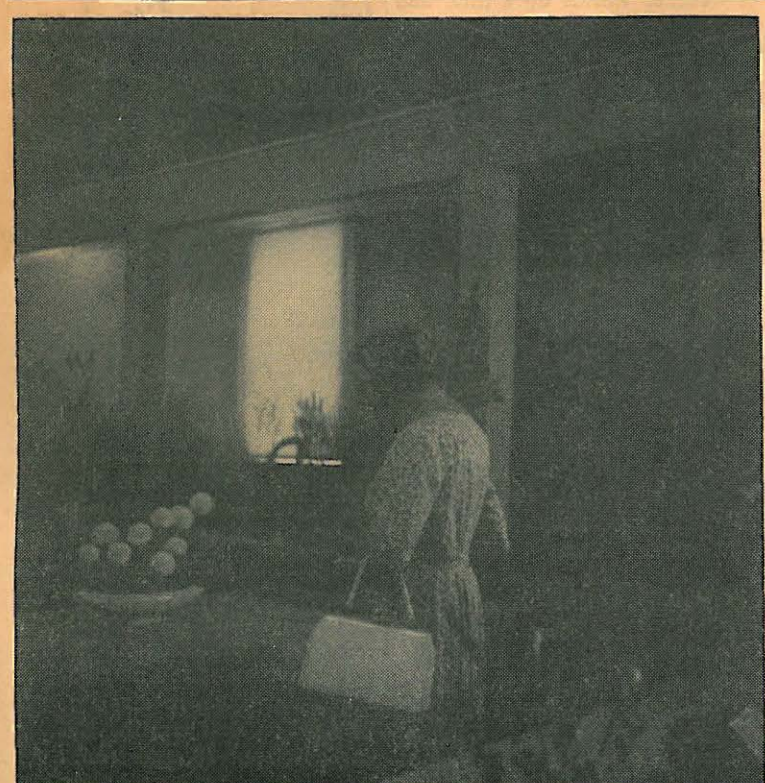

Major construction is now underway on Highway 80 between the Mountain Empire area and San Diego. Caution should be used when passing the construction zones.

ALPINE GARDENER

By JEAN McCULLOUGH

It would most certainly pay in terms of giving the home gardener a lift in spirit and a general feeling of satisfaction with the sometimes monotonous jobs one has to do to keep the garden going to take a day off and visit a park display somewhere, or do as I did on Monday the 24th in company with congenial friends, went to Julian to see the dried weed show. We saw what a lot of clever women have done with common, and not so common, weeds. There was also an art show of some merit to be seen as an added bonus.

The unusual combinations of weeds these ladies had arranged showed quite clever and artistic ability. One arrangement was fluffy mountain dandelion or thistle with branches of dried oak covered with gray lichen of unusual shape and in a container that set the combination off to advantage. Another was of just fine airy rosy weed called Persian carpet one sees along the roads, but it was in a light blue, semi-transparent bowl. The effect was very pleasing. The nice thing about Persian Carpet is that the tiny flowers retain their rosy color as long as you keep them.

Another arrangement was of heads of yarrow on short stems along with several dried grass sprays backed by a gossamer network of what originally had been beavertail cactus pads. They told us that these pads had to be boiled to remove the fleshy part so as to leave just the framework, which would be quite a trick if you cared to do it. You would have a real conversation piece if you did.

Cleveland sage sprays were used with teasel and dried dock (dark brown for accent). There were milkweed stocks used in a large, striking bouquet combined with lovely amethyst colored California artichoke heads with tall grasses to make the arrangement less severe.

We saw Mesquite twisted pods from the desert, Mountain Mahogany which is in the process of going to seed and which was all fluffy with feathery sprays that looked like strands of ostrich feather. This was used in combination with other material to make unusual bouquets. All the arrangements were in smart and unusual bowls and vases which set the arrangements off to the best advantage.

Altogether, it was a most worthwhile and enjoyable day and one long to be remembered.

Victoria Rock

Continued from Page 2 of the Town Hall in Reading, England. She met Mr. Gruelle and told him about the statue and promised to send a photograph of it to him when she returned home via England.

Months later the photograph, and a news clipping came to the Gruelles with a letter from the amiable Mrs. Keffard. When she found that she could not visit Reading and take a picture of the statue there herself, she wrote to the Town Clerk and, telling her reasons, asked for a picture of the statue and sent along one of Mr. Gruelle's prints of our rock formation with full data regarding it.

The Reading Town Clerk, did not have a photograph, so turned the request with the Gruelle print, over to the Reading Standard, the town newspaper whose editor saw a story at once and sent his photographer out to take the statue's picture. He then ran the story with both pictures, his photograph of the statue of Queen Victoria which appears here, and Mr. Gruelle's print of our local "queen" in the Reading Standard for January 3, 1964.

4-H week

This year's observance also recognizes the 50th anniversary of the Agricultural Extension Service of which the 4-H program is an integral part.

Locally, 4-H clubs are busy making plans in observance of National 4-H Club Week.

Noted Family

Justin Gruelle has also written and illustrated a very popular book for children. "A Mother Goose Parade" which many of you will know. Lavishly illustrated in color, it is one in which the familiar Mother Goose characters come more alive than I have ever seen them do in any other illustrations.

Among Justin Gruelle's murals are three painted in oil on canvas. Their dimensions are, 12 and a half by 20 feet; 9 by 18 feet, and 10 by 10 feet. They were done for the Liquidometer Corporation to hang in their building in Long Island City, N. Y. In the largest one there are portraits of 21 American scientists and inventors arranged in three broken rows that occupy more than half the canvas. Four or five additional figures, including George Washington on horseback, Daniel Boone, Thomas Jefferson, John Adams, are grouped near Independence Hall at the left in the background. The valleys and hills show early types of vehicles, among them a tiny figure driving Henry Ford's first car. "Early Birds" traces the development of American aviation with 17 portraits of the early makers of the flying machines and 24 models in the air above them. This panel has been given by Liquidometer Corporation to Western Headquarters of the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences and now hangs in their Los Angeles building.

Justin and Mabel Gruelle came to Alpine eight years ago and purchased their home on Alpine Heights where he has his fascinating big studio. Its whole north side is glass allowing perfect lighting for his work as well as showing a magnificent view of mountains, mesas and sky.

Since they have been in Alpine Mr. Gruelle has been busy at his easel. Among commissions are a recent portrait of Ruben Fleet of San Diego which hangs in the library of the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences on Harbor Drive. Mr. Gruelle also did two large panels for that building. He has done a number of portraits for Los Angeles people and some local ones. One of his canvases hangs with those of other Alpine artists in the Alpine bank.

Mrs. Gruelle was Mabel Brown of Indianapolis who was well known in music circles in the east, having been a singer in Chautauqua and she is an artist in china painting. She is a gracious hostess and a fine champion of her husband's genius. Just to tell about their talents is not really to tell about the Gruelles. I feel as an interviewer for an eastern paper said in ending her story, "I liked the gentleness of them."

COKE'S KITCHEN

Two welcome comments this week regarding the "Kitchen." Mrs. Josephine Sturdivant, who by the way is recovering nicely from recent surgery, suggests the recipes are too large especially for a lady who cooks for one or two persons. It is true, large portions make for many "warm-overs." If you have recipes ideal for one or more, why not give the "Kitchen" a buzz? They will certainly be welcome, 445-3355.

Another friend, Mrs. Ray Duffield, who by the way enjoys reading the recipes each week, sent two of her favorites for which we say "many thanks."

One remaining "northern" cake recipe which our family sampled while on vacation. It is simple and good.

Irene's Jello Cake

One yellow cake package mix. One package lemon jello, mix 3/4 cup water, 4 eggs, 1/2 cup oil and beat well. Bake in 13x9, greased, floured pan at 350 degrees about 35 minutes. Leave cake in pan and pierce with fork all over the top while hot. Mix juice of 3 lemons with two cups of powdered sugar and pour over cake—frosting melts into fork holes. Delicious.

Mrs. Duffield's Chocolate Cake

Sift 1 cup of flour, 1 cup of sugar and 1/2 cup of cocoa into a good size mixing bowl; hollow out and add 4 tablespoons of softened shortening, one whole egg, one cup of hot water and one tsp. of baking soda. Stir and then add 1/2 tsp. of vanilla. Bake in a loaf tin for 45 minutes in a preheated oven set at 375 degrees.

Cocoanut Oatmeal Crispies

Cream together 1/2 cup Crisco, 1/2 cup white sugar and 1/2 cup of brown sugar, add one egg, 1 tsp. of vanilla, beat well. Add 1/2 cup uncooked rolled oats, 1 cup cocoanut. Sift and add 1 cup sifted flour, 1/2 tsp. salt, 1/2 tsp. baking powder, 1/2 tsp. of soda—mix well Drop in small balls on ungreased sheet—leaving two inch space between each—bake at 375 degrees—12 to 15 minutes. Makes three dozen cookies.

Back To School Ice Box Cookies

Our Alpine librarian, Mrs. Elizabeth West
One cup margarine, melted—add 1 cup white sugar, 1 cup brown sugar, salt, two unbeaten eggs, 1/2 tsp. soda in three cups of flour, 1/2 pound walnuts, mix and roll in waxed paper—chill and slice very thin. Bake in 375 degrees oven for 12 minutes.

day night and Monday. Claude was visiting old friends in the area before returning home. He was recently discharged from a hospital after spending nearly a year recuperating from back surgery.

Maria McLaury was hostess for a Tupperware Party at her home on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rogers of River Road, will be leaving this community soon to make their home in La Mesa.

We're sorry to hear that Mrs. Marshall has been feeling under the weather. We hope she will be better soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dunn are the parents of a new baby boy, Timothy Sean, who arrived on August 27, at Grossmont Hospital, weighing in at 7 lbs. 2 oz. He was greeted at home by his sister, Monica, and brothers, Patrick, 3, and Michael, 2.

Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Meier returned home last Thursday evening from their vacation trip. They traveled over 5600 miles visiting relatives and friends in nine different midwestern states. Their son, Kenneth with his family was attending a summer science institute at Knox College in Galesburg, Ill. Two things of historic interest there were the bronze plaques of Lincoln and Douglas, commemorating their famous debate, and a museum, which is the birthplace of the noted author, Carl Sandburg, whose biography of Abraham Lincoln is so outstanding. One of the most interesting things on exhibit there was an original newspaper account of President Lincoln's assassination. They came through the Black Hills in South Dakota en route to Kammerer and Evanston, Wyoming, where Rev. Meier's sister and brother and their families live. The weather was so cold in Iowa that people had to turn on furnaces to keep comfortable. Even though they had a very enjoyable trip they were glad to get back home.

Dulzura - Barrett Junction

By GENNIE WALKER
Dear Dulzurians, be patient with me as I'm trying to write a good column and work too, but I think I now have the horse by the collar. I don't know what happened to my last week's column, but it was not received on time. I guess it got side-tracked between here and there.

Vacation days are just about over for some people, especially the mothers of school children. I can actually hear them sigh with relief. The children seem to enjoy the first few days of school as it means new clothes for a lot of them. I was at the Grossmont Shopping Center Saturday and it looked like Christmas.

One of our teachers, Gertrude Henderson, is back from her vacation. She usually goes to Oklahoma to visit her mother. Gertrude said that her mother was quite well and able to continue her social activities in church and getting along just fine without assistance, cause you see she is 89 years young. I had the pleasure of meeting her a few years ago and she told me some wonderful stories of her younger life. Most of our Senior Citizens are filled with beautiful memories that they will gladly share with you if you care to listen. Gertrude also got to visit one of her daughters on the Mississippi River. She says that they covered 10 states and traveled 4500 miles. She had a chance to visit the Grand Canyon in Arizona and drive through the Zion National Park. The scenery is so beautiful that it leaves you speechless. They ran into quite a bit of "rain" (that word again). Above all the beauty she says it was good to be home again. Accompanying her on the trip were her sister Vona Bowman of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Sperry of Dulzura. Welcome home you all.

The Ice Cream Social Party was held at the Community Building instead of Camp's Grove as it was planned. Guess why; yep it was too cold. We had a fair attendance considering the quick change of place. Mr. and Mrs. Erickson and their children (former Dulzurians) were there from Spring Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Van Norman and daughter from Jamul and Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Alpine for which we thank these good people for their patronage. It always helps when outside people come to money raising benefits for one's cause. All proceeds go towards our building fund as it is far from complete.

Mrs. Camp is still in the Foot-hills Hospital and progressing quite slowly. Bless her heart for all the good she was able to do for the community and people of all stages. We hope to see her home soon and be just a lady of leisure for the rest of her years to come.

Last Tuesday night was Louise Leonard's glass class, if some of you had forgotten about it. She brought my dishes she fired, that I had cut from ordinary window glass to make these novelty dishes or they make nice ash trays for gifts and such. You'd be surprised at how much money one can save through these gift-making lessons. You can do it if I can. Three ladies from Rancho La Puerta in Tecate were present. Louise told us that the Hobby Exhibitors in the Pomona Fair would like very much for her to enter in their Hobby Show so I believe she is planning on it. The best of luck to you, Louise.

The summer flu hit the Sheckler family but not seriously as flus goes. Donald Jr. got the worst end of it for awhile but now is doing fine. Hazel Sheckler left for Loma Linda to visit her sister Ola who is quite ill. We wish her a complete recovery. Hazel has been busy with her school notes and books as she is the Dulzura School secretary, she has been for many years. I hope the trip does not tire her too much plus the worry over her sister as we need her in the best of spirits. Good luck.

MT. LAGUNA

By KATHY McMANUS
Be sure to come to the Mt. Laguna First Annual Judged Trail Ride and Horse Show this weekend on Saturday and Sunday. For those who like to dance, there will be a street dance in front of the Laguna Mountain Lodge on Saturday night. Also at the horse show, don't forget to stop in at the Snack Bar, there will be lots of good things to eat. Ya' all come and bring your families. There will be lots of fun for everyone.

Visiting the Tom Huntingtons this week will be Mrs. Paul Johnson and her three children, Kathy, Colleen and Mike, from Las Vegas. Mrs. Johnson is secretary of the Air Force Thunderbirds. Also visiting the Huntingtons will be Tom's brother, Frank, and his family from San Bernardino. Up for the weekend will be Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Stephens and Mrs. Stephens' mother, Mrs. Adele Gannon, from Spring Valley. Tom and June's daughter and son-in-law, Pat and Mike Biagini, will also be visiting. Sounds like a full house, doesn't it?

A fire started about 5 a.m. on Sunday, August 30, behind the Shrine Camp. It burned about two acres before it was contained and put out. About 6:30 p.m. of the same day there was a fire in a tree in the Burnt Ranch area camp grounds.

PINE VALLEY

By ANN CONNORS HANS
(In the fuss and mess of living this correspondent came up with no news on deadline day, but since my daughter was here and the old timers will remember her column in the El Cajon Valley News, she kindly took over for me. I now give you Ann Connors Hans.)

Hello Everyone. Shades of the past, imagine your cub reporter here to say hello and write a few lines. My, how times have changed, I recall, hoofin' day and night, rain or shine to meet and greet. Lo and behold the modern day has caught up. Yes, the dern telephone. Nice to hear voices, but I do believe the personal contact was the nicest.

You wonder why? You know this modern day rat race, there are days and then there are daze and your regular correspondent is up to her ears with the daily trivials. Yep, you know her, could be a little monkey business along with everything else.

You know this hustling-bustling world. There are times when a body just becomes so weary of strife, bad news, world scene of trouble and woe. It's all too easy at times to lose faith in fellow man.

It's my privilege to report a very wonderful good deed and it enlightens my thoughts and I enjoy the emphasis, there are still nice folks. Join me, won't you in gratitude. The Hilltop Service gave the Pine Valley Fire Department's Emergency Unit a complete overhaul free of charge. I repeat... free of charge. Jack Jones donated the parts and Verne Shelton donated the labor. Thanks to these two thoughtful gentlemen, your emergency unit is ready, willing and able.

Jack Moore had a whale of a birthday party and the Moore residence fairly rocked with hilarity and fun when 25 guests arrived from all points north, south, east and west. Good cheer and a buffet supper enhanced the affair.

Winter is nigh and this community has a nice event due September 12th at the Park at 7:30. The Pine Valley Improvement Club will have a potluck barbecue. The Club will provide the firewood and beverages. Come one, come all, and bring your choice of meat to barbecue, one dish to share and your own table service.

This type of activity is one of my favorite memories. A final event to bid adieu to the Valley's summer visitors, and genial get-together. What a nice compliment to summer's end and a fine beginning for Fall.

Wear your comfy shoes, there will be dancing aplenty. I hope the weather warms up a mite and you will all enjoy this outing. What could be nicer than to extend your hand in friendship to your community and neighbors.

Back to our Fire Department. This helpful spirit by volunteers impresses me. What a better world these folks are making with their never ending vigilance.

Here are a few of their good deeds: Saturdays the men helped a lady calling from town, locate her husband who was camping in the vicinity. Sunday the men rushed to give first aid to a horse-woman who had badly gashed her knee in an accident. Saturday the men went to the assistance of J. F. Lockwood of Guatay. When they arrived they found they could not help him as he passed unto the next world. Mr. Lockwood retired to Guatay five years ago and leaves his widow, Trude and three brothers. This morning as this was being written the emergency unit was again called out to Hilltop where they helped a traveler in trouble. Many thanks to you volunteers, keep up the good work. I am sure the many you have aided and helped are most grateful, as well as your neighbors.

The pretty park was the scene of a grand outdoor barbecue for the Hobart House employees and their families on Monday evening. Among the out of town guests were Dr. and Mrs. Powell and children, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lynds of San Diego and Father Keller of Jacumba. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Walker enjoyed being host and hostess to the happy crew and no one will forget the most wonderful food and graciousness of the host and hostess for many moons to come. A visit to this lovely valley brings kind and sweet memories of a decade ago. Yipes, how time flies. It is a pleasure to breathe in this fresh clear air, to smell the fragrance of pine, to view a clouds shadow upon the mountain, the hues of dusk settle on the land. I miss so many faces, however, enjoy the new—revel at the changes. Oh, how we would have loved that beautiful green park. It is indeed a lovely addition and so inviting.

Friends all, most sorry I could not visit with you one and all. I must say adios, going to hop on my trusty steed (the rented bike), treat my Teresa to a frostie freeze, congratulate Sandy and Tony Walker on their contribution to the valley and take a spin in the park. Retrace trails of yore and countryfy my city-slicker daughter.

Fibreglass Chickens

Rhode Island red.

The addition of this new animal to the stock of this Alpine industry brings the number of individual types of animals to 14 full-sized, or larger-than-life animals, and five heads only.

The shop is currently working on another addition which will be a comical pig, standing on its hind legs to a height of seven feet, and complete with either a top hat or a chef's cap. The pig was designed by an employee, Bob Hodge of El Cajon. It is hoped that the mold will be finished and a pig cast before the middle of the month.

The Fibreglass Menagerie has been invited to have a booth at the new Convention Hall in the Community Concourse during the opening festivities of the new hall. The exhibits will be on display in the Convention Hall starting at 5 p.m. on September 15, and from 2 p.m. on each of the remaining five days of the opening ceremonies. Mrs. Rorie states that if the pig is completed in time for this display the booth of the Fibreglass Menagerie will display the new chicken, the new pig and the popular horned Hereford steer.

The first part of next week a rearing horse painted a metallic royal blue with a gold mane and tail and gold hoofs will be shipped to Parker, Ariz., for the Parker High School. The horse is a gift to the school from the senior class and symbolizes the school's athletic team, the Broncos, and is painted with the school colors. This shipment is not the first to go to a high school. Several other schools have purchased these life-sized animals from the Fibreglass Menagerie, including two bears, two lions and other horses. However, this is the first blue horse to be ordered from the Alpine firm.

At the present time Jim Rorie is on a selling trip, complete with a trailer and truck load of various animals. He left on August 5, and has traveled through Nevada, Utah, Wyoming, South Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan and is now at Strongsville, Ohio, on the outskirts of Cleveland. Mildred states that she does not know where he will head next, but that his trip is successful and that he will go where the business is.
