ALPINE MAY GET BANK SERVICE, BRANCH LATER

Businessmen, the chamber of commerce with the Alpine Sun have been seeking a branch bank here, but the chances are slim, it has been ascertained. The Sun interviewed Schuyler Hawes, manager of Valley Bank, El Cajon, who is strong for Alpine and its desire for such service, but points out the many requirements which this area is not

SEATTLE MAN BUYS; TO BUILD DUPLEXES

Albert W. Otring and wife have moved into Stella Low's house at the Willows and will start building shortly on two duplexes as rentals. The site was bought from Dorothy Clunin. Mrs. Low has bought a place in Lemon Grove and gone to live there. The Otrings are quite enthused about this locality.

large enough to meet. Primarily the charter is difficult, then a lot, building, vault doors, are all costly. Over $50,000. has to be initially laid out, with promise of a certain volume of business. likelihood of a deposit receiving office is more probable, Mr. Hawes stated, and the matter is being checked. An office here would help merchants and residents of all the back country, Alpine contends.

Mrs. Clarke McKee is spending a relaxation period in Alpine Heights Rest Home. She has been kept pretty busy since Mr. McKee passed away.

EARLY DAYS IN ALPINE! See Page 15.

BEWARE FIRE DANGERS!

As the dry season approaches so does the fire menace, warn Alpine fire commissioners. Refer to the new ordinance (Sun, Mar. 13) and check your place: clear 30 feet from buildings, 10 feet from incinerators, use spark arresters, etc. If in doubt, contact Chief Randazzo or any commissioner and help prevent grass and brush fires which might endanger homes. The fire marshall will soon start inspections.

EDITORIAL- LET'S REMEDY ALPINE'S HIDDEN DANGER!

When I first moved here in 1937 one thing noted was a lack of civic interest and the anachronism of a microphone in an aged 1899 frame building- the woman's club- our only public gathering place.

The other night this was forcibly demonstrated when a packed house enjoyed the PTA talent show by school kiddies, well emceed by Bill Mockler. Of course we have an elegant Youth center blueprinted with a 500 seat auditorium, pool, playground, etc. But what we need now is an adequate hall for use of all the area: clubs, shows, meetings, musicals and so on.

Alpine appreciates the fine cooperation of the Woman's club, but they should have a better, modern edifice. I'm sure if they would start a drive they could raise funds for enlargement, modernization, or they could sell, for enough to build on a side street away from traffic disturbance. Let's get busy for a community center! This paper would work hard to help. Who will donate a lot for it. Yes, Alpine and its splendid woman's club have indeed outgrown this antiquated relic of the "gray 90's".

FULK PLANS MOVE HERE

Don Fulk, who lives at Bostonia, plans to move soon to Alpine where all their interests are. Besides he wants to get out of traffic hazards. The other day a neighbor boy with a miniature hotrod ran down his little boy's puppy, hit a tree, landing both in hospital. The boy's parents then tabooed the scooter. Don was much perturbed-- "it might have been my son" he declares instead of the dog".

E.L. Farrin, Alpine's stonemason, is back on his feet after a dangerous bout with pneumonia. He lost 20 pounds, regained 13. He is doing just short hours of work now.

Mrs. Leif Larson, wife of the USN Lt. Comdr, and Jenny, 12, visited Alpine and The Sun Ranch where she subscribed for "that cute little paper". They are flying to Adak, Aleutians, for 12 months duty, taking the Jeep station wagon and Missy, the dog. Mrs. Larson is an accomplished painter, belongs to Alpine Artists and Writers. They were stationed for the past two years at Inyokern.

WANEMAKER HOME SOLD

Since his wife's passing last month, Clyde Wanemaker has sold his 4.15 acre place to Ralph Adams, who, with wife and four children, are moving in shortly. He will commute to Convair. They are from Pacific Beach. Sale was through Ted Brown.

Clyde bought a 16' trailer, will reside at Randazzo's park till July 1, when he sells his barber shop, then hits the trail for many places

NEW BABY FOR FULKS

Waiting until her mother's birthday May 1, a tiny girl put in an appearance at 6:27 p.m. in La Mesa hospital with Dr. Ruth Hubbert attending, reports proud papa Victor Fulk. That gives him two queens of the May. The newcomer was 1 lbs. 4 ozs, and both are doing fine. She has one sister, Margo, 7.

BOY SCOUTS WILL WORK

If you have any light tasks that a lad can do, call L. Titus, Boy Scout committeeman, H4-2479, for information. Scouts will do almost any sort of light work, using the money for good causes including their summer camp fees. And remember, a Scout is dependable, and you may be helping some fellow who needs it.

PAT ALLEN MOVES BACK

Starting work at Ryan Aircraft, Pat Allen, who runs the Alpine Barn, is now living again in this area with his wife Irene, son Frankie, and their new 5 month old baby Sharon. He is improving and fixing up the Barn for the Saturday night dances.

A squirrel looked at a freshman Then mother's eyes did meet,
"Yes, darling," said the mama squirrel,
"But he's not the kind we eat."

MRS. HOHANSHELT HONORED

A distinctive honor was accorded one of Alpine's school teachers, Hazel Hohanshelt, by being asked to act as an adjudicator at the annual vocal music festival at Chula Vista memorial bowl when 2000 children were at this big event. Five noted musical directors and professors were on the board. The Alpine teacher is noted for her outstanding work in children's choirs and other musical accomplishments. She reported the two-day session as being one of the outstanding school musical events of the year.

Jay Slater has been learning how good (?) his own cooking is, for last week-end his wife Bonnie went down to Holtville to visit their daughter Dorothy Lee who is in high school there. (Last reports are that Jay's still alive!).

The Clayborn La Forces spent last weekend at Mexicali as a brief vacation drive. Bea reports the place as being rather shocking, sordid and a disgrace to both countries.

ALPINE is growing fast and is full of wonderful opportunities in many lines. Buy land here, cash in later!

MOUNTAIN FOLK FOR HEALTH

W.L. Houghton of Valley Health Food Store, El Cajon, reports that many people from Alpine come in mentioning having heard about his store through The Sun. For their benefit he is putting on a special vitamin sale this week on A and C, two important health builders. "Life must be pretty sweet up there" he says, "for so many tell us about that Alpine country".

TWO DEATHS STRIKE HOMES

Violet and Everett Homes just suffered the loss of their fathers just a week apart, and while she was abed with that back injury, (Sun Apr. 24) but is now recovering. They wish to thank everyone for the many sympathy cards, and kindnesses shown, also for the thoughtfulness in their great bereavement.

GET READY FOR FAIR

As usual Alpine will be represented at the 1952 county fair in Del Mar, June 27-July 6, declares Mrs. Lorene Bohn, entry superintendent. Competition is in 14 divisions with $120,000. in cash prizes. If you are interested in any of the many activities and hobbies better enter.

Mrs. Robt. Kelly, Sr. formerly of Alpine sent up a subscription to the Sun for them at El Cajon after which it will be flown to Bob Jr., 2nd cl. in aviation electronics, now in Japan. Any of his old Grossmont mates wishing to write, address FASRON No. 1, % Fleet PO, San Francisco.

Manager Howell of the new Snow White Laundromat, El Cajon, says "If customer comment is a sign of ad pulling power, the Alpine Sun takes top honors, for more people mentioned it than anything else" he declares. (Thanks folks for naming the Sun.)

SCOUTS DOINGS SHOW MUCH ADDED INTEREST

Nine Explorer Scouts have been registered at Alpine, leaders announce, with new activities in all three units. Troop 105 had an informal court of honor with Scoutmaster Noel Grover awarding:

Senior Patrol Leader, Bob Randazzo; Scribe, Mike Fitzgerald; Quartermaster, Pinky Anderson; Librarian, Alfred Randazzo; Patrol Leaders, Hans Kern, Mike Kern, George Stone, Billy Kidder; Assistant Patrol Leaders, Leigh Anderson; Gary Gilmore; Alfred Randazzo, Steve Mercer.

Eagle Scout Mike Kern and Committeeman Titus got perfect attendance pins for a second straight year, Mike Fitzgerald getting his for the first season. Two new tenderfeet, Sonny McCann and Jimmy Cook were inducted.

The nine Explorers are: in addition to Committeemen Fred Rushing, Dr. R.D. Mercer, and Sam Randazzo, Bob and Dick Randazzo, Jack Boyd, Woody Stone, Leigh Anderson, Billy Ball, Phil Doren, Bob Sheedy, David Fookes. Walter Boortz is advisor; L.K. Anderson, institutional representative. Alpine Kiwanis Club is sponsoring these units.

MAY SETTLE HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Jim O'Brien of Turlock spent a large day here with the A.B. Browns, coming up from deep in Mexico with their Trailer, where they had vacationed for several months. A doctor way down there advised O'Brien to try Alpine for his asthma, so Brown took him all over the community and he may return to make his home here. Brown spent 20 years in the San Joaquin Valley, enjoyed hearing all about many areas he knew so well.

Since the Sun revealed the clarinet talents of C.E. Bennett a number of patrons at his service station have expressed interest in starting some sort of an Alpine musical organization. Anyone interested, see him. One man made a special trip down to meet him, having played in circus bands himself.

LIBRARY BENEFIT MAY 17

Every year everyone in Alpine turns out to help support the free library which has to raise funds for insurance and minor expenses. This year, Bea La Force, librarian, announces the benefit for Saturday, May 17, from 2 to 5, with a variety show and play, starting at 8 p.m. The events will be at the Woman's club. Refreshments will be served during the afternoon, with a rummage sale. Lillian Goulding's now famous little play "Swing Your Partner's", with those snappy dancers will be presented. In the cast are Jean Kern, Helene Sherman, Alice Irvine, Mary Ball, Lois Sherman, Neil Hoffman, Alice Robbins Jack Boyd, Ruby Lee Small, Mike Dearman, Elsie Mockler and David Moore.

Editor's Note- This is one event all should help in some way: take part, donate something for the sale, or drop a G. Washington into the kitty to keep up our very fine library: it's a splendid public service.

HINKLE BUILDING MORE

Al Hinkle has begun construction of the second unit for his new place on Hiway 80 just below the village. It will house lumber and building materials. He will shortly start a tractor display building for the Bolens line handled by Jim Blackton, his new manager for G.E. appliances. Forrest Hohanshelt is in charge of building. Mrs. Hinkle is getting nicely settled with her insurance business while their living quarters above are shaping up homey like with those beautiful fireplaces.

V.M. Shahan, the Shellman of Willows has added S & H green stamps, reports his surprise at so many asking for the little green dividends.

BULLETINS AT PRESS TIME

Republican women are having a rally Thurs. May 15, 8 p.m. Women's club. "Come and meet the candidates", they say.

Woman's club annual mountain carnival date set for Sat. May 24 at club grounds. Booths available for organizations, merchants, etc.

A new ruling at Sacramento that voters must pass on building funds above the voted amount, will delay Alpine's new school. Now to cost over $400,000. Another bond vote must be taken, meanwhile construction is stymied.

WRITE-IN SCHOOL VOTES

A week from tomorrow, the 11th, two regular school board members are to be elected from the four candidates. A special ballot will allow write-in of anyone you choose to replace Don Ferguson, resigned member. The county superintendent will appoint the one that gets most ballots. Also up is the tax increase, from 90¢ to $1.22 for school costs. Alpine is one of the few under-budgeted. This measure is sorely needed, officials contend.

Mrs. Natalie Hotchkiss, Short Hills, N.J., stopped over as house guest of the Frank Bornowskis last while her husband went on to L.A. on business. It is her first visit to Alpine, which she likes very much. They all have been friends for 28 years.

BURNING PERMITS: You must secure permit for grass or brush fire from J.H. McKie, Jr., real estate office, or A.E. Bennett, Texaco service station. (No burning when winds blow.)

LIBRARY HOURS: San Diego County Free Library and Alpine Civic Library, Woman's club, hours 1 to 5, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Bea La Force, librarian.

"Sir, I can't stay in class today."

GUINEA PIG GARDENER

By Hazel Hohanshelt

You haven't eaten asparagus until you have tasted the tender, juicy, green stalks fresh from your own garden. Once asparagus is planted, you can depend on its vitamin-rich yield for at least two months of every year. It takes practically no care, and very little water. For about $3.50, you can have an asparagus bed that will furnish a family of four all of that tasty vegetable they can eat, and some to give to friends. Why not get a bed started? There is still time this year.

Two flowers, perennial dianthus and scarlet flax, are brightening our garden now. You know that most flowers which bloom in early spring don't involve watering, since the seeds germinate with the first rain and continue growing throughout the winter. Even when we have little rain, they seem to adapt themselves. Come see these and I'll wager you will want them in your garden next year.

SETSERS BUY HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Setser are moving into the Russo place, Alpine Terrace, which they just bought, having lived at the Tavern for some time. He is free of the neck brace which has imprisoned him for many weeks since his auto crash. He commutes to his work at Camp Elliott where he is in charge of the machine shop and repairs.

CLASSIFIED GETS RIDE

In March Christine Dixon, Flinn Springs, ran a "ride wanted" ad in The Sun. This week she phoned that the ad paid off as she contacted a navy chief and his wife who also go to naval training center where she works. (Thanks for calling. You'll find lots of things in our little classified column.)

Dr. Frederick Breithut was operated on last week for his stomach ulcer, showed instant improvement, and is expected to be home within a week. Mrs. Breithut's mother flew back to her home in Michigan on Wednesday.

ALPINE

SCENIC ALPINE. The rains have filled many a dry pond, making lovely compositions for photofans. Here is another by Alpine's camera artist Harry S. Case, taken in the mountains above here. Many folks are mailing The Sun away so friends back east may see what a picturesque country surrounds Alpine.

DOG REVEALS MAN'S DEATH

The strange actions of a dog aroused the suspicions of carpenters working on Archie Hill's house in Peutz Valley. They investigated, found the body of Robert F. Menke, ex-railroad employee who had been dead for several days. He had lived alone with his dog since his retirement two years earlier. Survivors are not known.

CUBS DID GOOD DEED

Easter was a lot happier for little inmates of the Crippled Children's hospital when they enjoyed the colored eggs sent by Alpine Dens 1, 2 and 3, Cub Scouts Pack 105. They did the whole artistic job themselves.

Prospective blonde tenant: "This room is nice but a bit too small."

Landlord: "For you we'll put on thinner wall paper."

EARLY DAYS IN ALPINE! A picturesque snap of Marion Norcross, Hiway 80 C. of C. secretary, having a bit of fun with Dick Brotherton's horseshow entry, at her Fair Haven Farm, Tavern Rd. She's another Alpineer who came up to avoid coast fogs.

Small Boy: "Dad, here's my report card—and one of yours I found in the attic."
