ALPINE CLIMATE WORLD FAMOUS

The other day a man from S.D. was brought to Alpine for his health. He was suffering from asthma, had to take medicine frequently to prevent his actually expiring.

He came reclining in the back seat of a car, in his pajamas, wrapped in blankets. The only rental the family could find within their means was a nice trailer, into which he was tenderly moved, fell right into bed.

But something came into his face that augured well when he saw the beautiful landscape, the trees, the green hills, and the gorgeous sunset. He breathed deeply of the winey mountain air and fell asleep.

Next day he felt much better, needed no medicine. In a few days he was sitting up. In a week he was on his feet, gaining energy confidence, inspiration. Today that sufferer from dreaded choking asthma is up and around, driving his car, working on an invention, pattering around his little yard, enjoying better health than he has for years!

Now why don't some doctors or others start a nice sanitarium up here and cash in on our famous climate, "Best in the U.S."

BABY CLINIC HERE SOON

Under auspices of the PTA, a medical staff will treat school and pre-school children free at Alpine school on Monday March 30, and at Harbison Canyon on Tues. the 31st.

Mrs. Edith Davis, Peutz Valley, was rushed to Navy hospital last week with another severe heart attack. She would appreciate hearing from her Alpine friends and everyone wishes her a speedy return home.

Foreman: "Why do you carry only one plank and all the other men carry two?"

Laborer: "They're just too lazy to make two trips like I do."

her father Jos. La Shelle, noted 20th Century-Fox cameraman, came here to hold down the ranch and feed the stock, butch his own meals out in these hills which he and the Gardners so dearly love.

Incidentally his picture; 'My Cousin Rachel' is one of the five films up for the academy award. (We hope he wins.) And congratulations to all concerned, another fine baby for Alpine!

SCOUTS LEARN LIFESAVING

Friday Alpine's Boy Scouts went to S.D. where they had instruction in life saving and survival techniques at the Y, under direction of Otto Jehl. Nearest pool for all year use is this one, and it may not be too many months when the Youth Center here will have a plunge available for the young people of this area. FIRE DANGER HIGH AGAIN

Alpine and other fire officials ask that people in the back country be very careful of fire hazards since the dry spell after the rains. 'Be specially watchful of incinerators,' says H.J. REALTOR WATKINS RETURNS

In the early 40's Sidney A. Watkins came to Alpine for his boy's health, which was regained in one year. In '48, they returned to S.D., and today Sidney, Jr., is in state college majoring in music.

So today he is back, this time his wife Marjorie's health being the main reason, but he is a firm believer in the future of this community, proved by his reopening his real estate office on the corner 50' west of the Log Cabin Cafe. He is doing business as News Realty, and has already listed several choice properties and has started advertising.

The Watkins' have two other children, Barbara, who finishes college this year, and Evelyn Murphy, with two kiddies, living in La Mesa. She went to Pasadena college.

Watkins, a real live wire, is from Boston, where he was in the building business for 13 years, then 6 years in S.D. He still has his contractor's license, expects to eventually add a complete building service here. Welcome back, Sidney!

SCHOOL GROUNDS BEAUTIFIED

Everything at the new Alpine Union school is readying for moving next month. One feature noted outside by local folk is the start of the landscaping that will make this new plant so attractive. The terracing has been completed and many small trees and shrubs planted. Patios are also being beautified. Supt. Frank Brown is about the busiest man in the county, seeing that all is in readiness as the work progresses so that the move will come off as scheduled.

POTTED PLANT SALE

As a money-making project the Alpine Women's club has worked diligently to pot and grow some beautiful Lily of the Valley, Snow Drop and Hyacinth bulbs. They are all blooming and make wonderful gifts. Snow Drops are 50, the others $1.

At their last meeting the sorority had an especially enjoyable time raffeling beautifully wrapped white elephants. Everything was sold and a nice sum of money was turned over to the treasury.

Don't forget to call Ruth Rooklidge H4-2180 if you have rummage for the sale March 18th. The money will help some worthy girl scout go to camp this summer. McCARTHYS BUY, TO BUILD

With but two years to go for retirement, Chief Torpedoman, W.H. McCarthy U.S.N., and wife Gladys E. have decided to live where the sunshine spends the year, having just purchased 3½ acres on Foss Rd. They are living in the Bergstrom place which was recently sold to J.M. Beebe, owner of Glenn's cafe, Bostonia. It was said that Beebe would remodel for a cafe, but he told the Sun, 'That is not so-- I might do that in several years. We just bought it as an investment'. The McCarthys will eventually build. He was born in S.F., she hails from L.A.

PTA HONORS GORDON WILSON

The third annual honorary life membership in the PTA was awarded recently to an old timer, Gordon Wilson, Alpine Store, for his many years of generosity to local school children. He well deserved it. The PTA is now 7 years old. Mrs. John Sheedy was first president in 1945. Election occurs in April.

Sunday the beautiful George Daley ranch, Jamul, was enjoyed by a number of riders, three from Alpine being Jack Sheedy, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pratt and Alex Clitsome.

Paul Whiteman and his trailer have come to stay for awhile or longer at Foster's Trailer court.

WAYNE CALDWELL ELATED

Gov. Warren has named Bernard R. Caldwell, deputy Chief of Police at L.A., to succeed the late Clifford E. Petersen as state highway commissioner. Bernard is Wayne's elder brother, has been in the L.A. office for 10 years.

When Wayne, (Empire Market), heard the news, he promptly called L.A., asked for his brother and when he answered said 'Is this the commissioner?' Bernard said 'who the blazes is this?' and Wayne promptly replied 'Just your little brother calling to congratulate you'. Both had a good laugh.

TUPPERWARE PARTY PLANNED

If you have little children that love to drop drinking glasses just to see them break, then this party is just the thing for you because Tupperware is something new, soft, pliable and really unbreakable. Little tots can even throw them at windows without shattering results. Next Wednesday the 18th, 2 p.m. at the home of Alice Irvine, Evelyn Murphy, representative of Tupperware, will display the entire line. A delightful afternoon is assured but please phone H4-2394 if you can come.

BAND DIRECTOR HALL HERE

A brief visit has just been made by Chas. J. Hall and wife, (Phil's brother) of Tucson Boys' Band, to make further arrangements for the 50 odd members to base here this summer while playing dates around S.D. for a fortnight. This is a fine project of Mr. Hall's: on which The Sun will have an illustrated story soon.

Wayne Caldwell took a quickie vacation trip to Las Vegas.

April 1 by the new owners, Cecil M. Starling, his father-in-law, Jim Alesi, and son Mike Alesi.

Barney and Agnes Ratliff, owners of the property, sold only the cafe business, which they purchased just six years ago in March, 1947. They also own the corner opposite, where Watkins' realty office is, and the new Empire Market and the postoffice.

'We plan featuring real Italian dishes along with the many other items on the present menu as steak and chicken dinners' says Starling. Jim Alesi is experienced in this line, having run a big cafe in Detroit, with the others, is at present in the grocery line at La Mesa, living in S.D.

Starling, advertising man and presently in the building contracting business, plans eventually similar activity here. They are looking for a location so the family can move here soon. (See Aug. 28 Sun)

BAL DARNELLS IN CUBA

After a hurried trip to Cuba, Bal Darnell returned to Virginia, got his wife, drove to Florida and flew across to continue the important mining work he is doing for a big outfit, his father reports. They stored the car in Florida, do not know how long they will be gone.

The Fulk brothers, Alpine Hardware, last week entertained three carloads of their old friends from the mid-west. Ted McWilliams, Francis Jenkins of Gramby, Colo; an uncle, C.J. Fulk, Al West, Connie Rae and family of 2 girls. Two outfits dug in at Don's in Bostonia, one at Vic's here Al will spend the winter here, may settle.

If any folks in Harbison Canyon have news for The Sun, please give a ring to Laura Howard, or if you see her, just whisper in her ear. Her phone, H4-2846.

BATES BACK AFTER 24 YEARS

When he was here in 1929 rebuilding the phone line between S.D. & Imperial Valley after the big fire, W. A. Bates thought Alpine about the loveliest place he had ever seen, so last week he and his wife, Gladys, returned in their trailer to stay awhile, unhitching at Foster's Trailer Court. Welcome home.
