WATER HERE IS MAIN PROBLEM

The main story last issue on the urgency of ample water for the entire southland, and Alpine in particular, brought out a lot of comment, mostly approving, a bit critical.

The duty of a newspaper is to arouse the citizenry to the most urgent problems, needed improvements and so on. The American Press has been fearless, rugged, forward in its treatment of such civic matters. The Sun intends to point out Alpine's problems just as if this were a metropolis. As we see it, the water situation here is the chief problem affecting the growth and prosperity of Alpine's soaring population.

Only last week Escondido, Valley Center, Carlsbad and other communities were at work on this problem. We must face it, and we must meet it before it overtakes us.

Water today means less trouble, expense and anxiety tomorrow. While we do have an ample supply in wells for the present, we must plan on bringing in water for future growth. It might come from the Colorado, the Feather river, King's creek above here, or from some other source. Every property-holder, business, and organization should work in unity for the promotion of ample domestic and irrigation water for this area.

Recently Mrs. H.A. Bostwick held a plastic party in her home on Ethel Trail. Enjoying the games and demonstrations were Mes. Klipp, Stevens, Batson, Falkenburg, Sample, Weaver, Baker, Riley, Hughes and Dana Westbrook. Betty Fox was the demonstrator.

St. Philomena Altar society holds its next session at the home of Mrs. John Vitalich, a potluck patio luncheon, on June 15, Monday.

A trio of Alpine horsemen enjoyed the big ride to Hemet, a 5-day trek: Arthur Pratt, Alex Clitsome and Jack Sheedy.

Marilyn Bibles has moved into one of the Homes' cottages on Hiway 80.

Dr. C.A. Porter, L.A. and S.D. was a visitor at the Sun office last week, seeking a location to make permanent out-of-city headquarters for his national health education work.

Mrs. Elvina Colburn, whose verse was in Mar. 26 issue, writes stories, too, has had two accepted and published in Trailer Travel Magazine, national publication of the growing trailer industry.

DESCANSO PTA ENDS YEAR

The Descanso PTA looked back upon a season of unusual accomplishments. Few community organizations of less than 10 months standing boast a list more worthy of things done. This is a salute to each of the many busy persons who have so generously given time and effort to make of Descanso a better, more wholesome place for their children.

An observing man about town reports that only two flags were displayed, correctly too, in Alpine's business strip; Bob's Texaco station and Alpine Bakery, the latter being closed.

Mrs. C.O. Tanner is back from a flight to Minneapolis where Daughter Barbara French gave birth to her second child, a girl, making two.

BUSINESS MEN AT CABIN

Reports on traffic problems and other vital matters were aired at the regular monthly luncheon of the Alpine Better Business association Monday at the Log Cabin, with Al Hinkle in the chair. This is just one more lively little organization working for the betterment of this community; is satisfied that this area has a very bright future, and that present planning will facilitate every phase of living here during the coming decade.

An incinerator fire caused a small bedlam at the Aubrey Smith place when grass ignited, threatened a trailer and the Smith house, but the Alpine fire boys got there in time.

Hard luck has plagued Claude Bailey twice recently; his car was hit and smashed, now he broke his foot when he stepped into a hole in the surf, will be in a cast for several weeks.

Mrs. Carl Fechner, Chicago, planed in Sunday evening for an indefinite stay at the Sutton Health Foundation, reports Dr. Wayne Sutton, director.

BIG RANCH PROPERTY SPLIT

For several years the 193 acre ranch owned jointly by Gordon Wilson and Cecil and Eddie Lewinson, above Honey hill, which was on the market as a whole, but is now split up and will be sold in small parcels, Cecil Lewinson reveals. Wilson took over the improvements and 60 acres while the Lewinsons retain 133 acres which will be sold through Sidney Watkins' News Realty. The Wilsons are moving in June 15 to make this landmark their home, turning over their Alpine store apartment to son Jack and Mimi and their two kiddies, they already having moved in.

MISS DOWD, PIONEER, DIES

Last week mass for Miss Katherine Dowd, 74, who died of cancer May 23 in a S.D. hospital, was said in St. Philomena church, followed by burial in Alpine cemetery. Paris Mortuary was in charge.

The popular manager of the Tavern was nearly as prominent a landmark as the ancient hostelry she operated for over 30 years, having come here with the owners, the Milleners, in Dec. 1922.

She was born in Omaha, only survivors being two cousins there. Previously she had run the Grand hotel, Imperial City. Miss Dowd was well known for her civic interest and club activities, and had many friends in the county.

WANT A SCOUT? CALL TITUS

Lawrence Titus, genial reporter for El Cajon Record and officer in Scout work here hands out the notice that spring cleanup time is here. If you want a boy to help, give him a call at H4-2479. All work guaranteed, besides you'll have the satisfaction of helping these splendid lads earn the money that will give them camp funds later on. Everyone should help out in scout work.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Toothill of W. Springfield, Mass., are spending a week with the Ed Bikes, who will observe their 25th wedding anniversary on June 16. The quartette visited Tia Juana to attend the Masonic barbecue last Saturday.

Cpl. Thos. Bornowski, young brother of Dr. Frank Bornowski, with whom he had talked on his ham radio only recently at Okinawa, called up from Vista this week, having arrived suddenly on leave. He is visiting their parents.

Everyone is complaining about the high fog weather, some blaming it on atomic tests, but folks who know realize that May and June are always dark months all along the Pacific coast. That has nothing to do with smog conditions in L.A. & S.D.

Cecil Smyth, Victoria Dr. has signed with the air force.
