

Water District Plan Moves Swiftly

SEE QUESTIONNAIRE INSIDE

This area's water problem is speeding toward a solution--provided the people of Alpine get busy at once and fill in the questionnaire in this issue and get it to the Alpine Chamber of Commerce, which, with the Sun, is sponsoring the move

THE RECENT REVOLUTION IN CUBA CAME WITHIN FOUR BLOCKS OF THE DARNELL APARTMENT IN SANTIAGO, WITH PLENTY OF SHOOTING. BAL FLEW IN FROM MOA BAY TO BE WITH MARIE. here to get Colorado river water through the machinery of the proposed Alpine-Flinn Springs Water District, (See last issue).

This preliminary survey via questionnaire will not obligate any property owner, but is merely a test balloon to see how much land needs it and how many want water. If, when all queries are in, the situation looks favorable, petitions will be circulated, which will start the actual ball rolling to give Alpine water.

Chas. Manuele, who with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Cundari started the idea, gave an enlightened talk before local Kiwanians last week, who also are working for Alpine water. Now is the time for every resident of Alpine to talk water!

Cpl. "Are you and your wife on speaking terms?"

Sgt.: "Well, I'm listening again."

CHURCH RETREAT FOR ALPINE

It has just become known that a choice tract of 249 acres on South Grade road, an entire mesa extending to within a few blocks of the business district, including the beautiful Sidney Wright homestead with the pine grove which he planted, will eventually become a quiet retreat for the Los Angeles Diocese of the Episcopal Church.

This tract has been deeded to the church by Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Wright, pioneers, and members of that denomination, to become effective upon their demise. This pleasant couple have been civic minded from their first coming here many years ago, Mrs. Wright being a life charter member of the Woman's club.

The property has the home and other structures, many fine old oaks and other trees, flowers, three good wells and is sequestered from traffic noises. The church is to be congratulated upon the promise of this choice property.

WAINRIGHT WILL LIVE ON

It was with no little emotion that many Americans read of the death of General Jonathan Wainright, here of World War II, who was left to face the terrific fire, torture and anguish of Bataan in those heartbreaking early days of the war.

He and his valiant men won undying gratitude from the people of this country for their bravery in holding off the enemy and delaying his timetable in the Pacific.

We perhaps did not give General Wainright his just due in the eight years since war's end. That is not uncommon. Heroes achieve their great deeds because they are heroes, not for the plaudits of the world.

Would it not be appropriate for Alpine, a tiny spot on the map, to name a street after this fine man? The Sun hereby suggests that we ask the Supervisors to name old Highway 80, from The Willows to its convergence with the new highway above, Wainright Boulevard. It has no name since 80 left it an orphan.

NEW CHURCH OPENS SOON

Dr. Roger Larson, back from his Oregon vacation, will reoccupy his pulpit in the initial service at the beautiful new Community Church Sept. 20th.

Mrs. Margaret Montgomery, Pomona, has completed the beautiful altar and recedros she produced, and the splendid new structure is ready. Dedication will be next month.

Biography of a four-time widow: She married a millionaire, then an actor, then a preacher and then an undertaker. One for the money, two for the show, three to make ready and four to go!

DEATH CLAIMS HARRY CLARKE

Following a second major operation for an abdominal ailment, Harry Clarke, 56, popular operator of Florence's Market, died in Mercy hospital on Aug. 25 at 3:40 p.m. His wife Florence, who had been at his bedside day and night during the ordeal, was there when he passed on.

Clarke, native of Minneapolis, would have been here five years on Sept. 1, as the market opened on that day in 1948. He had been in business in S.D. for 20 years, dealing in liquor and groceries. Mrs. Clarke will carry on, and make her home here, where the couple have many warm friends and patrons from up and down Hiway 80.

Rosary was on the 27th at the Ryan-Sullivan Chapel, S.D., and Requim Mass was celebrated the next day in St. Joseph's Cathedral, Fr. Tullio Andratta, of Alpine, in charge. Entombment was in Holy Cross cemetery.

Clarke was noted for his geniality and his talented hobby of building miniature trains, one beautiful example of which is admired by many visitors to the market where it reposes on a high shelf across one end of the building.

WOMANS' HOBBY SHOP TO OPEN

Mrs. B.A. Pellegrin (Isobel Darnell), has taken the former shoe shop, next to Alpine Bakery, where she will open a unique headquarters for ceramics, wool, yarn and cotton hobbies, will teach those interested. The shop will open Oct. 15, after remodeling and decorating. A future plan is to teach textile painting and other interesting artistic hobbies for the ladies of this community.

TWO SCHOOLS START MONDAY

With heavy registration closing tomorrow, and the new and old buildings on both sides of Hiway 80 ready to open Monday, Supt. Frank Brown and his staff is ready for the big day.

Kindergarten and grades 4 through 8 are in the new structures; 1, 2, and 3 in the old school. The staff has been increased to 16 teachers, with junior high division: 6, 7 & 8 grades, first time here.

Mrs. Elizabeth Setser is principal of the juniors. Teachers are Mrs. Mildred Haskins, kindergarten; Mrs. Setser and Mrs. Astrid Graham, 1st grade; Mrs. Myretta Snyder and Mrs. Mabel Trant, 2nd; Mrs. Nell Ibach, 3rd; Mrs. Elsie Bike, 3rd and 4th combination; Mrs. Francis Gastil, 4th; Mrs. Hazel Hohanshelt, 5th; Mrs. Elna Huey and William Doerr, 6th; Mrs. Anita Wright, 7th; Paul McGuinness, 8th.

Special teachers; Chester Powers, shop one day a week; Mrs. Flavis Evenson, vocal music supervisor, John Metzger, instrumental and band. John Paul is the coordinator. The two secretaries: Mrs. Effie Dietrich and Mrs. Dolores Lawhead. Bus drivers; Wm. Gallbach, Rev. Albert Schoonover, Wm. Ingles, E. Charbonneau.

In the cafeteria will be Mrs. Myrtle Jackson and Mrs. Hilda Linne. Children in the old school desiring cafeteria lunch will be transported by bus. Chief custodian is Wm. Little, assisted by Charbonneau and Mrs. Oda Mae Purkiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hendrick are spending a delightful vacation motoring up the coast, taking their time.

Mrs. Louise Doane, wife of the operator of the desert curio shop, is home in S.D., from an operation.

Redd: "The doctor said he'd have me on my feet within two weeks."

Green: "And did he?"

Redd: "Sure. I've had to sell my automobile."

RICKMAN DEATH CLAIM OUT

The suit for $101,044. damages in the death of Park Robert Hadfield (Rickman) Alpine, on May 23 at Anthony home during a ballgame, went to the insurance firm which saw no liability by S.D. County, reports the county counsel, so it was recommended to the supervisors to reject the claim. However the suit could be pressed, it was stated.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Skinner and Mrs. Orville Cooper, Long Beach, relatives, are visiting W.B. Thorp for a few days.

STOLZ REALTY OPENS

Spic and span is the newly decorated real estate office of August Stolz, ¼ mile east of the P.O., opposite the Alpine Coffee Cup on Hiway 80. The Stolz family came here recently from San Mateo, bought the Stauffer place. He will handle residential, commercial and agricultural listings, has already gotten quite a number. His phones are now in, Harrison 4-2360 & 2236. National magazines will be used for advertising with Alpine's incomparable climate featured.

Mrs. Hosmer McKoon, who has been recovering from a long illness for some months, is now living in S.D., subscribed for The Sun. 'Have enjoyed reading it so much-will never forget our kind friends in Alpine'.

Diana and Steve Winslow are back from the east. She went by train as far as Salt Lake City to meet him, driving home to Temple Rock Ranch. Both are glad to be back, too.

The Clifford Bentons had weekend guests from Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mintle. He and Cliff were mail carriers in the early days back home.

LINNE OPENS FIXIT SHOP

One of the opportunities listed by The Sun has been taken advantage of by G.O. Linne, Victoria drive, who has started the Alpine Repair Service in a small shop on Hiway 80 above Jim Blackton's TV shop. For six years he operated a similar place in S.D. until he and his wife built their home here. He is already busy filing saws, doing lock and key work and will handle about any kind of electrical and mechanical repairs. A welcome addition indeed to Alpine's growing business district.

Glyndon Loomer, one of those rushing first aid to the flier who crashed the school a few Sundays ago, is missing his blanket from the scene. If anyone has it, kindly contact The Sun.

Jerry Myers reports that they have just applied an attractive pastel green sheath of asbestos shingles to their Tavern Road home. Jerry is Alpine's popular Chevron stationman.

NAVY CHIEF BUYS HOME HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Creson have moved into the Stewart place on Hiway 80 which they just bought, coming from La Mesa, previously E.C. Creson is a retired chief gunner's mate, now on active duty at the destroyer base. He is from Tennessee, his wife Frances, from Chicago. Her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Enslow, is making her home with them. The place has 5 acres, which they are fencing, and otherwise improving. They are seasoned rockhounds, have a small trailer for desert trips.

THOMAS LEE PASSES

Former Pinkerton Detective official Thomas Lee, 75, was given funeral services at Bonham Bros. Mortuary, followed by cremation. He died in S.D. where he came from Ottawa in 1920, was in business in National City for many years. Surviving are his daughter, Mrs. Mabel Bellamy, Chicago; son Frank Lee, Berkeley, and five grandchildren.

California's Highway Patrol says that each year 6000 drivers are in fatal and injury accidents merely because they disregarded traffic signs and signals. It does pay to believe in signs!

Clarke and Alice Irvine, Cynthia and the twins are back at work after a four day jaunt to Costa Mesa where they attended the August session of Pacific Trailer Club, of which he was one of the founders 13 years ago.

Jim Blackton reports that The Sun has some enthused readers up at Guatay, a woman coming in last week after seeing his TV ad, to buy a lovely new $200. Admiral and antenna.

CAPT. SHAWCROSS DIES

On Monday week last, Descanso was saddened by the sudden death of Capt. David Shawcross, following an emergency operation. On Aug. 15, he had quietly celebrated his 85th birthday. For several years he had made his home with his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sharman.

A few hours after the Captain's death, Mr. Sharman suffered a stroke and was rushed to Mercy hospital by Co. Jere Snyder in his station wagon. At last reports Mr. Sharman was holding his own.

TWO KINDS OF WATER WHAT?

If you want to read a very interesting story about a man who has come up with something new in the water problem, read the last issue of Buyers' Herald, in which Bill Mockler interviews the Simi valley man who has 69 wells on his ranch, tapping deep 'primary' water, not 'secondary' precipitation moisture. It's well worth reading.

Betty Markey, choir director, Community Chapel of the Hills, Descanso, spent a week at the annual choir camp at Cedar Glen. She returns with new ideas and plans for the winter choir schedule.

The Wilson Bellonis, with their new baby, have moved to Hermosa Beach where he will teach. He was at Descanso.

Mike and Alice Leibert are entertaining their grandsons, Tommy and Davis Leibert, of Brawley.

Mr. and Mrs. E.G. Zabel, who recently opened the Car Clock Clinic, have taken the Weiwei adobe house near Rorie's.

Victor and Margaret Fulk with daughter Margo are now settled in Granby, Colo. running a store. Their apartment over Alpine Hardware is now occupied by the new owners, Anne & Gene Sauter.

SHERMAN WEDDING CANCELLED

Everything had been prepared for the wedding of Lois Lynne daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Sherman, formerly of Alpine, last Sunday to Edward Hagberg, in La Mesa, but the Shermans sent out a note 'the wedding has been cancelled.'

Of interest to this area is the report by University of California that the rising salt content in coastal water areas is something about which nothing can be done. It will increase with pumping which is certainly not on the decline. Due to lack of rainfall, wells all over the southland are gradually declining. This means that drastic action will have to be taken within a few years.

JEANNE LEWIS IN ARABIA

In a newsy letter a former Alpine school bus driver, Jeanne Lewis writes The Sun of the highly interesting times they are having in Arabia. Her husband is in the oil business. On a thrilling 3-month vacation they visited Europe, N.Y., Spain, and many smaller places including Jackson Hole, Wyo. where H.E. Sanders, also from Alpine, is running the Teton Chinchilla Ranch.

'We are getting along fine here. I like it very much. The kids have wonderful schools and are thriving. We plan our next vacation to Kashmir, India, or maybe Africa. We have PTA, boy and girl Scouts, clubs, etc. much as any small community back home. A lot of grownups may not remember me around there, but I know the swell bunch of kids on each will. Would love to hear from any of my friends. Keep the dandy little paper coming, $2. enclosed'.

Address her Mrs. Luther S. Lewis, C/ Aramco, Box 409, Ras Tanura, Saudi, Arabia.

We can only reiterate with the S.D. County Traffic Safety council that '15 traffic deaths in the first half of August is a grim reminder' and so on. Let's all slow down.!

Forrest Hohanshelt has completed repairs on the old school where the plane crashed in recently, injuring the Bostonia pilot who is now nearly recovered. The $600. damage was covered by insurance.

Mike Kern, Janet Manly and Manuel Maddox spent a week at the Pilgrim Fellowship camp, near Beaumont, last week.

Fred: "Let's give the bride a shower."
Frank: "Great! I'll bring the soap."

KENNELS BUSY PLACE

Betty and Lester Jones, he's in the navy, are getting their Viejas View Kennels really going, with the addition of a number of dogs and cats of pedigreed lineage. They are taking animals from anywhere in the U.S. now, coming in by plane, for boarding and grooming. Jones has one lovely smoke Persian that has learned to put her paw through the wire, turn a screendoor catch and walk blithely out! They are on old 80, above the Willows.

PTA GETS GOOD START

Mrs. Jerry Klipp, program chairman, Alpine PTA, has slated a fine list for the 1953 season meeting next Thursday, the 17th, 8 p.m. in the school auditorium, announces Wm. Doerr, president. This year's theme is 'A New School Brings New Opportunities'.

Teachers Mildred Haskins, Elizabeth Setser and Paul McGuinness, will speak on 'Our Teachers'. Mrs. Flavis Evenson will speak on the choir, and John Metzger, on instrumental music and the band.

Malcolm Huey is building three more small dams on his ranch off Tavern rd., to conserve rainwater. He goes in for cattle and a fine orchard.

The Jos Stauffers who sold their home to August Stolz, new realtor here, are now at home in Capistrano where he is again putting the scenery on canvas.

Clarizetta Standen, E.C. Record newsgal here, with husband Robt. and son Jeremy, have moved from the Neely cottage to the Manly house, Alpine Heights.

Mrs. May Devore flew to Chicago to spend two months with her four sons, after which she goes to Vicksburg, Miss., and way points.

Mother: "What are you doing?"
Jimmy: "Nothing, mother."
Mother: "You're getting more like your father every day."

ANTON AND McROBB ACCIDENTS

Last week young Billy McRobb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McRobb, Descanso, was kicked in the face by a horse on the Oliver Ranch, which McRobb manages. After undergoing surgery by the outstanding plastic surgeon, Dr. Paul P. Pickering, and a few days rest in La Mesa Hospital, Billy is now at home and recuperating steadily.

Another patient of Dr. Pickering's from Descanso was Persis Anton. While climbing a tree Persis caught hold of an 11,000 volt wire, was severely burned on the left hand and left thigh which was against the tree. Again Dr. Pickering performed miracles and Persis is about her usual activities.

HINKLE SHOWROOM FINISHED

Construction of the attractive new appliance display room adjoining Al Hinkle's lumber and ranch supply business on Hiway 80 has been completed by Forrest Hohanshelt. Trimming is being put on and goods moved in for the grand opening which will be announced in next issue. His three chief brands, Kaye-Halbert, Admiral and Sylvania are now on Display along with other latest appliances.

Ralph and Agnes McGuffie are perked up after a week's vacation. Her sister, Margaret also took off, while McGuffie's drug store was closed for the period.

Mrs. Ansell has been entertaining her sister, Mrs. W.M. Tipple, Santa Ana, for a fortnight.

Mother: "So you're not afraid to go to the hospital—that's a good little boy."

Little boy: "But I ain't gonna let 'em palm off a baby on me like they did you—I wanna pup!"

DIRECTORY IDEA SUPPORTED

Last issue's announcement that the Sun would soon publish an Alpine directory, with names and occupation, street and number, phone, with a complete map of this area, has met with instant approval from residents and businessmen here and down below. Details to be given in an early issue.

Don't forget the new bank hours, 10 to 3 daily except Saturday. You can't get or depotit dinero on Saturday, a good day to stay out of traffic anyhow!

DOWDY GIRL ESCAPES INJURY

Little Linda Dowdy somehow was thrown from Sue's horse via the clothesline, landing in an orange tree along with some line. She suffered bruises and rope burn and, with some shock, a lot of scare!

Mrs. Doug. Walker was stricken Sat. week with pleural pneumonia, rushed to Balboa hospital. She has improved steadily, hopes to be home soon.

Father: "I'm busy, son, be short."

Son: "I will. I am."
