HIRE SCHOOL BOSS TONIGHT

A special meeting of the school board is slated for 8 tonight to "offer contract to candidate for office of district superintendent", says the notice. Board president John R. Reynolds could not divulge details, but said "it is a California man".

SCHOOL GETS FEDERAL CASH

Congressman Jas. B. Utt, (R-35th Dist.) airmailed the Sun that Alpine School District has been awarded $12,302., of which $9,226 is assured. The balance is gaged by adjustments as required by attendance data and availability of cash.

DEVELOPMENT IN ALPINE IS REFLECTED BY IMPROVEMENTS AND BUILDING IN TAVERN ROAD AREA. ALSO ALPINE HEIGHTS. THIS DIRECTORY SIGN BUILT BY CARL MCCALL SHOWS BUSINESS GROWTH. THE SUN'S CARD IS NOW BEING PAINTED. THIS IS AT TURNOFF FROM HWY 80 OPPOSITE LUTZS GARAGE, LOOKING EAST.

BANK BUILDING IS GLAZED

M.H. Golden, contractor, is making fast progress on the new Security First National Bank Branch here, all the plate glass having been set. The outside is being painted and interiors are being finished for the opening in mid-May.

M. Ross Mallette, who has been named manager, is a regular visitor, and is about as deeply concerned over the building as if it were his own home. (See last issue).

Ed Farrin, of Rock Terrace, is in the hospital in critical condition. He has suffered ill health for several years.

Art Exhibit Opens

Mrs. Katherine Black, owner, Tappy's Motel, 2337 Hwy 80, has given the community something toward advancing culture--

Creaghe Wins Trophy

Alpine has won a bit of fame, for one of its resident CHP officers, Ronald C. Creaghe, 2221 Tavern Road, a specialist 5/c, USA Reserve just won the individual Grand Aggregate Tyro trophy in XV USA Corps pistol matches at Ft. Ord.

He shot 2500-55x out of a possible 2700 to beat all other reservists and active Army personnel who were entering for the first time.

He served on active duty with the army in Korea from 1952 until 1955 with both the 187th Airborne Regimental Combat Team and the 11th Airborne Division.

Creaghe has lived here two years with his wife Betty, a music teacher and their three young children, raises and trains retriever dogs.

a small art gallery. It is in the former realty office of two rooms and lobby. She is working it up with Mrs. Erna Earle, contributing artist who acts as hostess for the center.

The gallery, which now has quite a collection, growing daily, is open from 1 to 4 except Monday. Local painters are invited to exhibit, details from her, 445-3808.

DENMARK SETS EXAMPLE FOR CUTTING TOOTH DECAY

Parents of Aarhus, Denmark have set the pace in the war against the appalling rise in dental caries by giving the door to candy in schools. Following a vote of 95.6% for a proposed ban on sweets in the school, 600 pupils will go without.

Officials felt they could not put on such a drastic campaign for good teeth without backing of parents, but the solid support is great encouragement, say officials.

An inspector said that the effects of eating too many candies can be seen all too often in the Aarhus dental clinic. He added that breaches of the ban will bring a stiff talk by a teacher.

What America needs is more of this kind of progress, regardless of whose financial toes are trod upon. Morals and ethics demand that our health and that of our children comes before profits.—CI

Files Bankruptcy

The US Dist. Court reports first meeting of creditors and last day for filing objections to discharge, in the case, having been adjudged bankrupt by petition, of Ella Opal Tipton, also known as Ella Opal MacLean, Mrs. Robt. Tipton, jr. and Ella Opal Castro, 4570 Alvarado Canyon Road in SD.

Arline Rossi, referee, says the meeting will be in Room 131, US Court House 325 W. F Street on April 4, at 9 am.

ASSESSORS BUSY HERE

Kenneth W. Cluff, senior appraiser out of the EC office of John McQuilken, county assessor, was a visitor in the Sun office Tuesday, while working on this part of Tavern Road. He has two deputies busy in Alpine, W.D. Carroll and Robt. Kuntze.

In the near future they will hold an open meeting here to explain procedures, maps, and so on, on this year's work, which is progressing satisfactorily.

Then there's the purchaser with the very used car who returned it to the lot with the complaint that every part of it made a noise — except the horn.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hughes who have lived at Pine Log Apartments, 2514 Hwy 80, have just been named managers by the owner, Mrs. H.W. Dempster of SD. Hughes is an airman 2/c at the USAF radar station, Mt. Laguna. They have lived at Pine Log three months, six in Alpine. Both are from NY, like Alpine fine-- 'there's no snow' they say.

TOP TALK

By Cynthia Irvine

Mr. Ken Riley, Editorial Training Dept., SD Union, Tribune and several other newspaper men voted El Capitan's Horizon one of the most newsy of all county high school newspapers they looked at. He did say that we need to have it printed better and that pictures would help a lot and maybe this will happen. Anyway, we all like it.

This year our band members have sold over 2,000 boxes of candy since the sale began in February. With the money the band is going to buy new uniforms.

If you are planning on going to summer school this year you can get applications at the office. You can go to any high school in the Grossmont District and still have the credits which makes it nice.

We went down and visited Mr. and Mrs. Berg who moved into the Benson place on Tavern Road. He is going to raise horses but hasn't made up his mind which kind he wants. He is interested in Arabian and quarter horses. He bought a real pretty Palomino shetland for the kids to ride and is he ever full of pep. We saw him running around in the pasture kicking up his heels.

I was over in Alpine Monday and went by to see Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cassity. They said good-by to me as they left for Butler, Mo. on Wednesday. They used to be our neighbors on Tavern Road and knew my old horse Lightning. We hated to see them go but I'll bet they will come back here as our climate is 100% better than what Butler has.

Bob Alcorn came to shoe my horse Smokey Tuesday and he told us he had moved to Lakeside. He used to live up on Willows Road but as most of his customers are around there he thought it would be easier on him and gas.

Always listen to the other fellow's troubles so you can tell him how much worse yours are.

Name Market Manager

Ed Rowan, 57, with 40 years' experience in the meat business, has just been named manager of Florence's Market, 2262 Hwy 80. He has been in charge of this department for six years, moving to Acaçia Lane in 1958, where he lives with his wife Elaine, and son Tim, 13. Another son, Robert, 19, is at a photo college in Santa Barbara. The Rowans are natives of Chicago, came out in 1947.

sister, Mrs. Ruth Harmer, Santa Rosa, with their spouses, have been here since before the funeral. "We chose Ed because he is well known here and knows the market, plus his reputation in that department, and believe it better to have a local man manage the business", they said.

"We couldn't think of any other place to live" the Rowans say, and enjoy their home and similar hobbies of gardening and bowling, "and you can say Alpine needs a bowling alley" Ed added. They are members of Queen of Angels Catholic Church, and are active in civic affairs.

Florence's will continue the same policy and service with its capable, pleasing staff: Coyla Brown, Pat Dinius, Lee Elms, Carl Rose, Al Stebbins and Tom Mathieson.

right in the eye but she didn't have her glass on so it only hurt her.

We visited Ken and Vivian Douglas and then ate dinner at Hobart House. Boy it all was a lot of fun and did we get wet and cold. Mama brought a change of clothes but we got them wet too so stayed that way.

Marian Bell's cousin Bonnie Beasley came to visit our school last week. She was chosen to be one of six children from San Bernardino to visit Lakeside and Alpine schools to see how we do things.

Donna Schwenck was real happy Monday. Her mother came home from Kansas City with her granddad's car. He died two weeks ago and didn't need it any more. Donna was plenty glad to see her she told us.

Jackie Ralston's grand father died after he was run into by a car. He lived in N. Dakota and got two broken legs and some other things happened to him so he didn't live. Jackie didn't go back as it was just too far to go.

Jennifer Edwards moved from Peutz Valley where she used to live to SD.

We all went to the El Cajon Theatre last Monday and saw the Disney Show "In Search of the Castaways". It was swell. Daddy said the camera work was wonderful and he likes Maurice Chevalier and we like Haley Mills.

LETTERS FROM READERS

Dear Mr. Irvine: In regards to the controversial mix-up over the school tax, and who is who on the school board.

I was present at the last meeting at which there was quite a number of Alpine citizens. All stood and recited the Pledge of Allegiance to the United States of America. Will you please note the word indivisible means, cannot be divided? we may not agree, but must not be divided. Remember "United we stand, divided we fall".

There must be a group of at least six men or women in the District that can pull together. Please "think" before it is too late.

Respectfully,
 Verb Echols

LOCAL MARINE AT SEA

One of 24,000 Marines that took part in last week's exciting exercise with 40' ships, was Lance Corp. Sam Cater, son of the Paul D. Caters of the Willows. He serves with Helicopter Squadron 363.

SNOWBALLING WAS ENJOYED BY HUNDREDS OF KIDS AROUND PINE VALLEY SUNDAY WHERE BIG, FLUFFY FLATES FELL. HERE IRVINE GIRLS, WITH SUN EDITOR POSE WITH THE OLD FORD STAGE, AN ANTIQUE IN FRONT OF FAMED HOBART HOUSE WHERE CROWDS DINED ALL DAY.

IRVINE TALKS TO KIWANIS

Next Wednesday at 7, the Sun's editor will be guest speaker at the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club's breakfast meeting, hosted by Tommy Thomas, editor, of that bustling community. He will relate excerpts from his forthcoming book "Early Days in Hollywood" where he published the film capital's first weekly magazine and acted as the first publicity writer for Charlie Chaplin and Harold Lloyd.

Veterans should get exemption claims in by May 6 for the coming year's tax bill in SD County. Contact Bert Fuller here, or the assessor in EC or SD. This must be done annually.

Last Monday night my horse got loose while I was taking a music lesson at Miss Burdett's and Nancy Sockwell saw her go by with her tail flying. Her brother Rickie went out in the corral to get Babe to go after Red but Babe didn't want to go so I threw Rickie twice. He got his arm all scraped and hurt his back so he couldn't go to school. We were real sorry for him but worried about Red. It was dark and we didn't know what she would do. Mama came and got me and after dinner we started to saddle up to go look for her when she walked in the yard, not even hot! Boy Mama was real happy to see her.

We all went to Susie Bittner's 12th birthday party Friday night and stayed over night. We had a lot of fun and didn't go home till 4 on Saturday. We were going down the back way to see a horse and had to climb over a fence. Well, Susie and I got over but when Cecile was half way across the old lady on the hill saw us and turned on the electric fence. It scared Cecile so that she fell to the ground and really hurt her elbow. It wasn't a nice thing for her to do as we didn't know she didn't want us to cross the fence.

Regarding criticism: It requires skill and labor to erect a building, but any idle tramp can burn it down. Only God can form and paint a flower, but any foolish child can pull it to pieces.

WELCOME SIGNS ARE BEING PAINTED BY C OF C TO GIVE SPRING CLEAN-UP LOOK TO COMMUNITY. JOHN ESTES, RETIRED SIGNMAN OF SPRING VALLEY DOES THIS MOSTLY FOR FUN AS PUBLIC SERVICE WITH BUT MOFEST CHARGE. HE'S BUILDING BOAT TO SAIL AROUND WORLD.

WELTY FOR SCHOOL BOARD

Edgar Welty, former Alpiner who published the Echo here, has filed for Grossmont District School Board. He lives in LM with his wife and four children.

He is a former minister, is executive secretary of Community Church Ministerial Assn. has taught at SD City College and Mt. Miguel High. He is a graduate of the University of Toledo and a WWII Navy vet.

"Pay your taxes with a smile," says an optimist.

Wish we had known that last April 15; we sent cash.
