SCHOOL BIDS ACCEPTED

At the adjourned meeting of the school board Monday night they accepted two bids, handled several minor items of business.

Raymond D. Haas of SD got the contract on building the Canyon room for $74,878.79, with some deletions: AC pavement, electric items and the movable platform, which will come later.

Cabinet improvements at the Alpine School are to be done by American Seating Co., and the Harmon Co., for $10,000.

400 See Cycle race

Alpine Speedway enjoyed a record breaking crowd of 400 from the Southland Saturday night at the motorcycle races on the fast little track which had been improved.

Next event will be Saturday night, Aug. 3, says George Lutz, one of the promoters. "We built a new jump which afforded a lot of thrills.

Summer School Near End

Only two weeks remain for summer school at El Capitan as it finishes on Aug. 6th. Photo shows the genial bus driver, Wm. F. House, who has taken Alpiners to school every day of the season. He is a busy man, too, being a fire commissioner and active in the Victoria Drive group plus working with a taxpayer's association in Pine Valley and here.

BIRTHDAY PARTY AT LOG CABIN

A tasty dinner, a group of friends and the famed hospitality of the Ratliffs, owners of the Log Cabin Cafe, made the 58th birthday of Gino Danieli, a real event on Thursday evening last week. "We had a wonderful time" says Dino, "and Agnes and Barney really outdid themselves in giving us a fine time-- including the dinner".

Young Jordan Comes Home

Mr. and Mrs. O.E. Jordan, Tavern Road, enjoyed the homecoming of their son Steve, who is serving in the USAF, having been transferred to Mt. Laguna Radar Station from where he now commutes. The photo shows him in his natty uniform, with his sister Karen, at left. She is majoring in math at SD State, will be graduated next year, then go on to teach that subject. Mrs. Jordan works at a market in East SD.

Jordan, senior, recently back from treatment at a VA hospital in San Fernando is confined to his bed, but making recovery, was overjoyed to see his son.

His sister, Mary Reiley of Charlotte, NC, came out to enjoy the Easter holiday with the family.

Fair Largest County Event

According to Norrie West, public relations head of the SD County Fair at Del Mar, June 24-July 1, "it is the largest event in our county with a record attendance of 348,002 and entries of 31,000 last year".

From today's indications, it will hang up another record this season with already much interest being shown by folks all over the Southland.

ROWAN SCORES AGAIN

A diligent young student of photography, Bob Rowan, son of the Ed Rowans, Acacia Lane, is on the way to becoming a nationally recognized expert in professional photography. His parents have just received word that he made an unusual score in a recent exhibition. It was in Battle Creek, where he is now living. He entered six beautiful 16 x 20 color prints and all six were accepted. He won a blue, a red, and a ribbon of honor with plaque for outstanding print achievement from the Michigan Professional Photographers' Assn. at the convention. He was among the top few that made high points. Rowan is a graduate of the nationally famous Brooks College of Photography in Santa Barbara.

Bob has a subscription to the Sun so he keeps up on what is going on among his many Alpine friends. He passes it on, says people show a great interest in the tiny newspaper.

Mrs. Sara Schiek, Mrs. Donn Griswold and Mr. and Mrs. Allen drove to Ensenita last Friday to attend a WWI meeting and enjoyed the trip up and back.

Mrs. Frances McTaggart, Alpine's new massage therapist, who is starting this week to take patients at the office of Mildred Bredesen, DC, Tavern Road. The McTaggart's are long-time residents of this area, came to Alpine last fall to make their home permanently and she says "just love it and wouldn't live anywhere else." She offers Scientific Swedish Massage and steam baths which help a nyone suffering from nervousness, that tired feeling, overweight, insomnia and many of mankind's ills. (See her a d this issue).

DANCE AT CANYON SCHOOL

From 8 to 11, Friday, May 6, the first annual square dance of the group that has been using the new multi-purpose room at Harbison Canyon School takes place, according to Mrs. L.D. Campbell, chairman.
