Be Glad You Live in this Fine Climate!

Ask almost any San Diegan if he knows Alpine. Right away he will exclaim "Sure, and it has the best climate in the US by government-report".

Likewise thousands statewide who have driven through will remember that sign and the beautiful country in which we live. Some have come here for that reason.

And for the same reason, perhaps millions of motorists passing through saw and remembered those welcome signs at the eastern and western town limits on Hwy 80.

How about we who live here? Do we really appreciate our most salubrious climate, the quiet and peace of these hallowed hills? I believe we do. This week we had it drawn to our attention forcibly when LA reported consecutive mornings of dense fog which made driving hazardous, caused airport shut-downs, and coughing and wheezing among those suffering from asthma, emphysema and old age.

Visibility was down to a half mile with a ceiling of below 200'. San Diegans groped in the misty stuff. Gillespie and other airports were closed.

But Alpiners looked down on top of this muck, smog and dirt, with but a thin scrim overhead, brilliant sunshine later. In the afternoon smoke from the big city drifted in, but it was, like the Sun's motto "When the weather's bad here it's worse everywhere else."

Yes, most of us do appreciate our wonderful climate!-CI

TO DEDICATE CANYON SCHOOL

On Feb. 1 at 7:30 pm the new $74,000 multipurpose building of Harbison Canyon School will be dedicated in honor of Mrs. Mary Jane Legler, teacher, who died recently. The structure was accepted at Monday night's board meeting.

Courtesy is contagious. Let's start an epidemic.

OUTPOST GETS NO DECISION

Stanley Chambers, owner of Outpost Market and Trailer Park, 4008 Hwy 80, told the Sun Tuesday night after the supervisory meeting that they had taken his request for variance to rebuild the grocery above the freeway access road, under advisement.

Interstate 8 will take his shop, trailer park and well. He wanted to give up the park, build a new store northward to serve the Willows.

the body, and Drake Sanders read the charter. They had been the moving spirits in organization.

It is intended primarily to serve as a community forum through monthly meetings and a news-letter with committees to work on various projects. It is non-partisan but may invite political figures to speak. The idea is to promote the civic, educational and general welfare of Alpine, ranging throughout the postal and school districts or greater Alpine. Dues were set at $5. a year.

A brief talk on the tax rise here was made by Clarke Irvine. His twin daughters Cecile and Celeste played the guitar and sang while the audience was arriving.

Horse Talk

By Cynthia Irvine

All Pequeno Riders and anyone wishing to join, please be at our house tomorrow at 10:30 for an important meeting. We have to elect officers for this year as we didn't get a chance to do it before. Everyone was too busy or away, so be sure to come.

Susie parsons had quite a surprise when she returned from Kansas City after Christmas. Someone had gone into her corral and deliberately cut the mane off of her horse Lolita. Then they went over to Hagen's and did the same thing to one of their horses. Somebody has to be off their rocker to do a mean trick like that.

Last Wednesday Uncle Leonard drove down from San Jacinto with our little Shetland pony Taco and we all were so happy to see him. If I can find a pony cart somewhere reasonable I might try to train him to it but they are hard to find so will wait and see. He is up for sale and if someone should want him than that will be out.

Mr. Mac's wife and her son Keith drove down Sunday from Newark to sort of straighten things out here. Then she is going to live in Salem, Ore. with another son Kenneth for a while to see how she likes it. We all went over Monday and visited and were so glad to see her. She said she would be back to visit but wanted to get

Club to Dine, Dance

Tomorrow night, instead of its Thursday meeting, Alpine Kiwanians will dine, install, then dance, at Marie's Cafe, 15505 Hwy 80, According to Mark Schaeffer, secretary-treasurer social fellowship will be enjoyed from 7:15 till dinner at 8, followed by installation of officers for 1966, then dancing with a live orchestra. Ross Mallette, president, will be in charge.

away and just rest up.

Linda Rushing won a fourth in the novice class at Fallbrook Sunday riding Bob Robinson's Jay George.

Vicky Hughes got a new horse named Jim and he is a buckskin.

Mrs. Rash's mare Scarlet, who was bred to Pinkey Lee, is expecting to foal April 1st and they are all looking for a buckskin.

Libby Wake's dad sold the little Welch pony they had.

The Alpine 4H Amigos horse group cancelled their ride until Jan. 30th because Wilma Peters will be out of town and couldn't make it.

We have two saddles for sale. One is a 13 inch padded seat and the other is for a pony. Call 445-2394 if you are interested in seeing them.

We were down at Tommy's the other day and he has a pretty nice used homemade horsetrailer for sale, we'd surely like to have it.

Mrs. Ruth Stroebel, badly injured in a head-on some weeks ago, is out of the hospital and again living in her trailer at the Outpost. She is on crutches, but is making nice recovery.

mailed to subscribers only". So they are changing to 2nd class at the PO. They are giving a bonus also, a $2. order at Florence's Market with each new subscription for a year at $2.50.

4-H JUDGING DAY

Saturday, Jan. 22 will be a big day in the lives of 4-H Club members in the SD area, as this is their special day. They judge six items and then give reasons for their choice:

1. Proper shirt and tie for a sports coat.
2. Proper curtains and draperies for a room.
3. Plain muffins.
4. Electrical socket and plug.
5. Proper hems in cotton dresses.
6. Proper contains and wraps for freezing.

Several cars from Alpine will transport members to Grant School in Escondido where the affair is held.

So civic leaders say YC should secure new location so it can come alive with projects for youth as drag races, model plane field, ball and other game areas and so forth, including a permanent horseshow ring for use by riders every day for training and so on.

Note- We'd like to see a swimming pool and a tiny airpark so local fliers could land here and visitors might fly in. The government says every village should have an airpark. -CI

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile & Celeste Irvine

Paul Anderson was so happy Saturday when she got to come home from the hospital. She went in Monday to see what was causing her face to be- come paralyzed. She had stuck an eye- last brush in her eye and thought that it could have affected her but the doctor said no. They told her it was caused by a vein in her neck getting enlarged which cut off the circulation.

JoAnn Villa is sure proud of her new bowling shirt which is white with blue trim and has Elks Club printed on the back. They sponsor her bowling group.

Cynthia, Celeste and Maxine Kin- ikin finally got up enough nerve to go and have their ears pierced and now they are all glad they did.

DonFordney is expected home from the submarine service sometime next month and his family can hardly wait.

Deanna Richey and Mike Merrill announced their engagement but will wait to get married till he is out of the service. Mike gave her a ring Christ- mas Eve.

Jody Sutton's dad is in Grossmont Hospital with something serious. The doctors don't know what is the matter with him but he is feeling a lot better and that is good news.

Ginny Payne who is a student at Grossmont College is working part time as counselor at McCall's Ranch and really likes it.

Tuesday afternoon Cynthia and I were out riding and we saw Louie, Wake's dog get hit by a car and he was thrown about 20 feet. He landed and came up yelping but otherwise didn't seem to be hurt too bad. He had some blood on his mouth and might have been injured internally but haven't heard how he was. Mr. Barrett used to own him and gave him to Wakes.

Ronnie Short with his new Christ- mas bike. He could hardly wait to come over and show it to us and he is mighty proud of it.

Mary Reyes moved from Harbison Canyon to San Ysidro last week, and Sonya Anderson, also from the Canyon moved to SD with her 7 brothers and sisters.

Dorothy Rash has a new female Chichuhua puppy named Chiquita to take the place of their dashshund that some stole recently.

Candidates for chairman at Town Council meeting face each other, center, Bill Hagger, and Maj. Ben Polak, while Jack Elms at podium, acts as temporary chairman.

Strike Delays Apparel

The transit holdup in NY City has delayed arrival of new spring clothing ordered by Alpine's Active Sportswear, reports Mrs. Mary Lacko, who operates it with Mrs. Virginia Scott.

They spent the week-end in LA at the style show in the Biltmore Hotel viewing many new clothing ideas, some of which they ordered for their shop, which they report doing a steadily increasing business.

Because the multipurpose room just completed at the HC School was not finished the Canyon children held their Christmas program at the Alpine School December 15th. The affair was well attended but news was not given out to the Sun until now and as this was an outstanding event we felt it deserved a story.

Robert Gaston, 6th grade teacher, conducted the choir and his wife played the piano for the entire program. Soloists during the evening were Debbie Dana, Lynn Thorp and Michael Koeth and the 3 kings from the Nativity Scene who sang solos were Darryl Crain, Andrew Clark and Clyde Jennings.

PTA TO PRESENT AWARD

On Feb. 8th at 7:30 in the School Auditorium, Alpine PTA will present their annual honorary life membership at their Founder's Day program.

This year something different is being done by allowing the public to participate in picking the person who has accomplished most for the community in the way of youth activities, community spirit and accomplishments. The decision of the committee will be final and only one Life Membership is awarded yearly.

Entry must be in the hands of the committee not later than Jan. 20th. Mail facts to Founders Day-Honorary Life Committee, % Mrs. R.E. Webb, Rt. 1, Box 324 B, Alpine.

The application should have name, address, phone, years in Alpine, submitted by and your phone number.

ENJOY BIRTHDAY DINNER

Saturday Maj. Ben E. Ploak USA (ret.) and Mrs. Polak, of Nido Agulia entertained at dinner to honor the birthday of his mother, Mrs. Ben Polak of LM. Present were Mr. & Mrs. B. James Polak, Cynthia and John, also of LM.

Tomorrow the Alpine and HC Track team are going to Santa Ana College to compete. Robert Gaston and Jack Ades of HC will transport them up from this area. Other SD members will attend the affair as part of the AAU.

publishing from January, 1952.

Buyer is Roy E. Canedy and wife of Tacoma, Wash., presently wintering at Namara Inn, Del Mar. They have come to this area for the past 29 years, lived for 1½ years in their diesel yacht the Electra, moored at the Kona Kai Club. For some time they have considered maintaining a home, selected Alpine for its salubrious climate.

We love the exotic trees and shrubs on the place" Canedy said when the Sun called him Monday. "We hope to improve the water supply and will do more landscaping as this will now be our permanent winter home".

Canedy is a retired residential contractor, owns two golf club properties around Tacoma, also has two yachts, a 96-footer and one of 110 feet, which they put out under Canada Yacht Charters, the craft going as far as Alaskan waters. They have a residence in Gig Harbor, Wash.

When asked if he planned any development, or sale of parcels, he said no, but plans building a new home next year. The present care-taker, Robert Walsh, will remain in charge.

Otto, retired as an official of a large NY drug firm, bought the ranch with its 4-bedroom home, rental house three dwellings, huge patio, fireplace and barbecue, pool, bath house, gardens, garages, barns, workshop, tennis court, which Jack Sheedy sold Otto for $75,000. He later acquired the Hwy 80 frontage from the Higuera's who had built a small store which they ran as Raintree Market, then moved to Descanso. The store is vacant, and is for rent.

There is also a small building which Sheedy let local Catholics use as a chapel till they built St. Philomena's, 815 W. Victoria in 1952.

Otto, who lived here with his wife who later died, had two sisters, one of whom died, the other resides here. He had willed the huge estate with other assets totalling $1½ million, to the SD Zoo, the NY Zoo, and the American Museum of Natural History in NYC.

The SD Trust & Savings Bank trust office represented the sellers and the brokers handling the deal were N.M. Grieco of SD and Anthony Misuraca of SD and Alpine, and Henry McKie, jr., of Alpine.

Monday saw a record attendance at the YC with 51 enjoying the potluck, games and fellowship. Membership is now 143 and 1966 dues payable.

Lillian Lore told that if 25 will go, they may see Cinerama Holiday on Jan 26; 25 hands were raised, so it's on.

Outgoing president, Mrs. Jeanette Smart told of the year's highlights of the club and Myrtle Hoffelder installed the new one, Mrs. Jime Pinkerton, and the other officers.

Former Alpiners, Amanda Bower is entertaining her sister Ruth Lefavor from Duluth, Minn for the winter. If she likes it out here, she may decide to move out permanently.

Buy Here, to Build

Two half-acre parcels on South Grade Road, formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Sedita of La Mesa, has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Ward Court of Eastview, Calif. The Courts bought the land as an investment and plan to build two new homes when he retires.

Sale was made by Charlene Brown of Brown Realty here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fordney, Willows Road, were happy to receive word from their daughter Noreen, that her husband George Haydon had been promoted to assistant manager with Travelers Insurance Agency.

Presents Old Glory

Saturday Mrs. Goldie Vancil, past-president of Mt. Auxiliary, Veterans of WWI, donated an American flag to the Linda Vista Boys' Club in their clubhouse there in memory of her late husband Pete Vancil.

Presentation was made through the 19th Area of WWI veterans, which has undertaken the giving of flags to boys' or girls' clubs in the area. Larry Adams, club president, accepted the colors. Making presentation on her behalf was Albert Quicker of EC, 6th District Americanism chairman, Veterans of WWI.

At the ceremony were also present Harry Parker, 19th area commander, and Mrs. Parker, of EC; Gail Cotton, 19th Area president, and Earl Cotton, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hansen, of Vista, and Mrs. Charlotte Berry of EC, and many boys of the club.

After the donor raised the colors, a tour of the fine club was made around its 2-3/4 acres, with pool, ballfield, archery range and other facilities. "It is a fine setup" she told the Sun, "and the boys enjoy their workshop where carving is taught, also a basketball court and space for other games".

Skin diving is taught, as well as Camp life and fishing activities, she added. "There are pool tables and many other games as well as a TV set. Operating cost is furnished by donations, and the price to any boy is only $1. a year. There are from 1700 to 1800 boys enrolled, and the building was crowded with lads of various ages, all having fun," she concluded.

A famous nutritionist says we are what we eat. Nuts must be a more common diet than we ever imagined.

Dining and dancing Sunday through Tuesday is the new feature being put on by the Petrucelli's, who just bought Constantino's well known cafe, 156 E. Main in EC. They will feature entertainment by "The Casuals", with accent on fun.

Joseph Petrucelli and his wife Elda are associated in this family project with a brother Robert, and Ellen, and Joseph's son, Leonard and his wife Marcia. Leonard plays the lead guitar in the musical group. The family lives in Clairemont, but will soon move to EC and take part in the progress of the town. Their aim is to werve the valley Alpine and the back country, high lighting genuine Italian food.

Lawyer, "Are you suggesting, sir, that this man is a thief?"

Witness: "Well, I wouldn't say he's a thief, but if I was a chicken I'd sure roost high."
