Deny Arnold C-Zone

SAN DIEGO (CNA) County Planning is holding to the line with a vengeance, for Friday it denied a reclass from R-3 (limited apartment) to C (light commercial), for Will Kellogg to build one of his Alpine Apartments so it could later be converted into a store.

Kellogg claimed "Arnold Way would become a business street because it leads to Tavern Road, the main access road to the interchange on Interstate 8

BIG OAK IS SOLD

A group of LA investors will take over operation of one of the county's most popular recreation spots, Big Oak Ranch with Frontiertown, 1723 Harbison Canyon Road. It will be managed by Woody Canady, also of LA. They start on April 20, plan enlargement and improvements, according to Mrs. Winifred Klipp, of Klipp Realty, LM, who handled the deal. Helping Others Much in Evidence Here.

Perhaps Easter week with its inspiring story of the great sacrifice of a Man, that others might live and profit thereby, is appropriate for a thought on how the world still values the human impulse to render aid to others.

The Book says that greater love hath no man than that he lay down his life for another. Helping others is that in a lesser degree.

Which brings us to the event we have in mind. When a young flyer crashed in Alpine last Wednesday, Mrs. Neda Hill, of Alpine Realty Co., and a longtime resident here, was driving by with Mrs. Jerry Webb. They were horrified to see the crash, stopped, and hastened to the scene. They got the injured woman into the car, rushed her to the hospital in EC, and when the doctor said the man should come in for an examination, Mrs. Hill drove back to the scene, explained to the pilot, (they were in the Sun's photo), then rushed him to the hospital. His wife had only cuts and bruises, so both were able to leave.

Such examples of "otherism", are an inspiration to all, and here in Alpine we have seen many such examples, proving that it's a pretty fine old world after all! -CI

Horse Talk

By Cynthia Irvine

Sure have some nice news to report. Tuesday Alice Villa was coming home from Florence's Market when she saw Mrs. Roy McClinton and her son Keith, so Alice backed up to say hello. She came down from Northern California and plans on living in Alpine again. She missed all of her friends here and we sure missed her so are real happy to know she is back. She told Alice that Cathy Casey's Mare April Dawn didn't have her colt, Cathy had her bred to Harness's Arabian stud and everyone was sure fooled. She had even made arrangements for the colt to be born on the Davis campus where she is going to school.

Ready for Family Fair

The 4th annual Lakeside Family Fair at El Cap HS opens tomorrow at noon, runs till 10 pm, and Sunday till 6 pm, open to the public with no charge.

Featured will be homemaking, with many prizes, 50 major exhibits in Foster Gym, an art show, games and rides with almost continuous entertainment. Teen dance bands will play.

A number of young folks from Alpine will be on the program, which should be enjoyed by parents and El Cap youngsters from here. It is sponsored by the Lakeside Chamber of Commerce, with Jack Whittinghill as chairman, Dr. S. S. Sloan, director of programs, and Mrs. J. P. Greve, homemaking chairman.

Mrs. Rodney Becker, she is daughter-in-law of the Ralph Beckers who own Shell Station at the Willows, left Monday with three children for Pierre, S. Dakota to be with her sister, who was in an automobile accident and badly injured. Her husband will join her in May when the freeway takes over their land.

Anna Rhinehart, instructor, is working for the kids to make it the best yet.

Melva and Ron Riley are really happy with Skipper Beau, their 3-year old stallion. Skip won first place in his class Stallions of 63 Saturday when his trainer Ben Smith took him to Santa Barbara. Melva says "he won a beautiful halter and we are really pleased with the results Ben is getting".

Monday R. R. Sayers of Alpine Heights Road called and asked if we knew anyone with a missing bay mare. It didn't take much checking to find the owner, Mrs. Olga Zuelke, who had been out looking the entire day. We called Barbara Peterson and she helped us out as Mrs. Zuelke had called her.

GIRL FOR FORDYCES

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Fordyce are the proud parents of a baby girl born Monday night in Grossmont Hospital. Lisa Marie weighed 8 lbs, is 21 inches long, and their first born. Eddie is a student at El Cap, works for his father. The young couple live on the Ball Ranch, Tavern Road.

MILK GOAT MEETING SUNDAY

The Gene Thompson Ranch, Valley Center, will be the spot for a regular monthly session of the So. Calif. Milk Goat Assn, says W. P. House, of Alpine, secretary, who raises fine milk goats. A number of goat fans from here plan to attend. Today at this location they are finishing a 2-day show.

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile & Celeste Irvine

Last Wednesday Jimmy and Jean Rhea (he is our substitute mail man) were in their front yard when she spied a big rattler. She called Jimmy and he got a rifle and shot it. The snake was over 4 feet long and had 9 rattles. Last week-end Brian McCall killed two on their ranch. There was a bumper crop last year and it looks like this year will top it. If you see one and haven't anything to kill it with, it's best to leave them alone. They are faster than you think, and will try to get away, so be careful and chances are you won't get hurt.

Last year Tina and Nita Miller got two baby goats from Donna Schwenck for their 4H project and Tina's was mysteriously killed but Nita's lived. Last week she went down to feed it and found it dead. Someone had put a rope around its neck and somehow it got up on the fence and hung itself. It is too bad it had to happen that way.

Don Fordney was able to be home over Easter and brought two buddies from the USS Razorback with him. They left Monday and went out to sea so will be on maneuvers for sometime.

Mama was talking to Mrs. Moya last week and she told her that someone had walked into their yard on Tavern Road and stolen the gasoline tank off of her truck that she uses all of the time. It is too bad that people who steal can't be caught and made to pay by hard work. Our Uncle's miniature golf course in Hemet was robbed twice in the same week. The police found several boys who admitted the first robbery and their dad simply paid for the things instead of making the boys work it out. In ancient times they cut the hands off of thieves they caught, it was drastic but very effective, and if still practiced would make people think twice before they took something that didn't belong to them.

April Mansfield is thrilled with her new blue Chevy II. It has bucket seats and was a birthday present. She got it at Hatch Chevrolet.

The Coopers had some sad news last week when their little dog Tammy got bitten on the neck by a rattler. It didn't have a chance so they shot it. Was too bad and is always hard to lose an animal. Two days ago Johnny Findel killed two on his ranch so be extra careful from now on.

Mike Webb came back from his Colorado River trip with crimson feet and ankles. He is fair skinned and the hot sun plus being exposed really burned him but Mike says "sure was worth it".

CHILD BAPTISM SUNDAY

Parents who have children they wish baptised in Community Church are requested to contact Dr. Roger Larson, 445-2110. This Sunday the ritual will be observed, he says.

Diets are for persons who are thick and tired of it.

AN UNUSUAL display of African artifacts is owned and displayed here by Eric Heuschele, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hargens. Eric holds unusual African zebra skin drum from Kenya. His father sends these interesting items to him and Eric has a stuffed armadillo, frog, turtle, Masai sword, clay figures found in a grave and numerous swords and knives.

WHEN A MAN puts his foot down, his wife's probably finished vacuuming under it.

PAUL SPIRES MARRIES

Paul Spires, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Spires, W. Victoria Drive, was married recently to Joyce Salsberry of EC in the home of his sister Mrs. Roy Patchett. Paul is working in Civil Service part time, attending school every day and the young couple make their home in El Cajon.

YOUNG HOUSE TO UMPIRE

 Tuesday Alpine Woman's Club was serenaded by 96 Alpine youngsters with Barbara Cameron as director. Because of the size, Mrs. Cameron split the group in two with the smaller singers performing first and the program was enjoyed by everyone. "Mrs. Cameron has done wonders with the children" says president Goldie Vancil but "she is well qualified as she has a masters degree in music".
 Hostess for the day was Mrs. Ted Keller assisted by Gladys Wotring and Fern Latham. They served the performers refreshments and Mrs. Keller says "they all were so pleased".

ROSE SHOW TODAY & SUNDAY
 Flower lovers from all over the county are to enjoy the 39th Annual Spring Rose Show, Conference Building, Balboa Park, from 2 to 9 Saturday, 10 to 6 Sunday.
 Amateurs are invited to exhibit, entries accepted from 7 to 10:30 am Saturday. Admission is 50¢, servicemen free. First, 2nd and 3rd class ribbons are awarded. Alpine is usually well represented. Call 222-7695 for details.

DON'T FORGET TONIGHT
 This is deadline night for your federal and state income tax reports, so officials urge you to get them in the mail today for sure to avoid penalties. Best way to pay is with personal check which comes back as a receipt.

CRASH ON TAVERN ROAD

While turning north into Tavern Rd., from Huey lane at noon Wednesday, Mrs. Emelia H. Kelley, Alpine, collided with a southbound car driven by Jos. L. Simpson, 7940 Cinnabar in LM. None was injured, but Mrs. Simpson had a right bruised shoulder, the Kelley car hitting it on that side. CHP Officer Kincheloe took a report on the scene. Lutz Garage towed the Kelly machine to the shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Rhea and Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Lore, both of Tavern Road, took a trip to Borrego Desert last week-end to see the flowers. Mrs. Rhea says "the blooms from the ocotillo were unbelievable and the desert was a mass of colors". They spent the day and had a wonderful time and "no heat" she says "just beauty everywhere".

TO TAP AT FAIR

Three five year old youngsters from Alpine will get the thrill of their young lives when they perform at the coming Del Mar Fair June 26th before a huge audience. Kathleen Petersen, Leslie Huey and Lori Ostrander are among students from Merlin Studios who will get the opportunity to display their talents.

The secret of good oratory: Be bright, be brief, be seated.

CofC MEETS WEDNESDAY

Wednesday night at 8 in the Fire Hall, Alpine Chamber of Commerce, holds its regular monthly session with Pres. Fred Rushing in the chair. Main topic is discussion on naming old Hwy 80 when Interstate 8 freeway supplants it. (See last issue).

Although the chamber requested the county to name it Alpine Blvd., last year, some want to reverse that decision and give it a more rural name. (See last issue for details and March 25 for editorial).

The public is invited, says Rushing, whose committee will report back preceding open discussion.

KEMO BIRTHDAYS IN WEEK

Last Thursday was Dottie Kemo's birthday and Hubby Mike surprised her with a nifty new golden Mustang from Pearson Ford. "Yep, I was 29 again", she says, "and what a birthday present!"

She tells how Mike revealed his secret to one of their children said "Now promise not to tell Mama", but the child of course went to Dottie and told the big secret, which she promptly relegated to the joke pile, so it was a real surprise.

Tuesday Mike had his birthday-- "he's 39 again", said Dottie, "And I got him a pair of Mustang trousers! Kemo works at El Cap HS, moonlights at their Dottie's Hillbilly Tavern, 2538 Hwy 80.

Gives Memorial Organ

A new electronic pipe organ which is attached to the organ purchased two years ago in such manner that the music plays through to produce the beautiful pipe organ sound, has been presented to Community Church by Dr. Roger Larson, its pastor. He gave it in memory of his parents.

The Guild has also made a contribution in honor of Dr. Larson's mother who visited here many times from her home in Portland, Ore.

CONVENTION HUGE SUCCESS

Yesterday seven members of Alpine Woman's Club attended the convention of Southern District of Federated Woman's Clubs in the Town & Country Hotel in SD. Mrs. Goldie Vancil, Club president, attended with Mmes. Black, Colby, Orbom, Lusk, Cushing and Adams. The affair was an all-day session with banquet in the evening. Mrs. Vancil says "was very interesting and we all enjoyed it so much".

STEWART DAUGHTER IS MOTHER

Mrs. Carol Stewart, 1600 South Grade Road, is elated over news of the arrival of a 7#, 13 oz. baby girl on March 29, to her daughter, Mrs. R.B (Susie) Cary, whose husband is now training as a helicopter pilot in Ft. Wolters, Texas where they live. Susie spent some of her childhood here when the family lived in Alpine, rode a horse all over the area.

AGAINST SCHOOL UNIFICATION

The board voted unanimously Monday night against the mandated unification of local school districts into one district.

They opened bids on furniture, decided to hold for further study.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rose entertained their nephew Buster Barrey, 13, who spent Easter week with them. His parents drove down from Culver City Sunday to pick him up. Buster loves Alpine and worked in their nursery the week her was here.

freeway". He can appeal.

Planners claimed that "To encourage strip commercial zoning along streets leading out from town, is self-defeating and contrary to good principles"

Note- It might be pointed out that Arnold Way already has business from Hwy 80; Alpine Realty, Market, post-office, service station, cafe, trucking yard, bank, drugstore (building), -lumber yard and church. -Ed.

and Mrs. Jos. Stephens, who have run it for some time.

On the drawing board is a trailer and camper park adjacent to the western street. The original Big Oak Ranch will be reserved for large and small private parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Moya entertained their son David and his family over Easter week-end, also celebrated his son Rickey's birthday with a trip to Green Valley Falls where they all hiked, fished, had an egg hunt and as Mrs. Moya says, "had a ball and came home tired but happy." David drove down from Riverside, plans to make SD his permanent home now. Mrs. Moya's mother, Mrs. Dolores Riveroll of SD also accompanied them on the Sunday outing, loves Alpine, spends as much time here as she can.

Mr. and Mrs. George Haydon and George's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ovall Haydon of Pacific Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon of Linda Vista, spent last week-end with Mrs. Haydon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fordney
