FINAL DAY OF fun and workshop was enjoyed by Alpine youngsters last Thursday at Youth Center under able direction of Mrs. Lynn Lipetsky and Mrs. Emelia Kelley. Children made their own scrapbooks and covered waste baskets to take home. Project was huge success say leaders. In Mrs. Kelley's photo Mrs. Lipetsky supervises balloon game to wind up the activities.

Elderly Caught in Social Security Bind!

A senior citizen sent me a marked copy of the SD Labor Leader for Sept. 9, with a thought-provoking story by Sidney Margolius: "Doctors are Charging the Elderly More".

We have no gripe about SS or the MD's. We think both are doing the best they can, but-- some bugs should be worked out.

Briefly, the writer points out that elderly people who had long waited for Medicare to help solve their health expense problems found that some anticipated benefits may be cancelled by rising fees for them.

He reports one woman, who pays $3. monthly for benefits, as having now to pay $10. for an office visit instead of a previous $7. Some reveal jumps from $5 to $10, specialists going from $10 to $15.

Fees went up last spring, the medicos evidently getting ready for Medicare. They claim they are merely eliminating cut rates previously given moderate-income oldsters, now that Medicare helps pay bills.

One bind is that doctors can insist on the patient paying the fee himself, thus saving paperwork. One angle is that this plan helps the physician avoid the restriction of "reasonableness" on how much he can charge. Example:- a doctor may ask $350 for an operation, but the law allows the Administration to consider that a reasonable fee should be $250.

"In that event" writes Margolius, "Medicare then takes the disappointing path of private indemnity insurance, paying only part of the bill, with doctors usually charging more than the fee allowed by the insurance policy".

One person on Medicare told me that "Doctors charge $25. just to get you admitted to a hospital".

The sad part is that "total medical-care costs have gone up over 4% in the past 12 months, compared with 2.8 for the full living cost index", the Labor Leader writer concludes.

Perhaps we all should study how to live and eat for better health so as to avoid sickness! -CI

The Alpine PTA Executive Board met Tuesday in the newly decorated Teachers' Room at Alpine School. The beautiful, new furnishings were direct result of PTA efforts last year and were much appreciated by the staff.

"Tuesday will be the annual "Getting to Know You" potluck dinner and the public is cordially invited to attend at Alpine School at 6 pm", says Mrs. Lee Widmer, program chairman.

"Each family should bring their own service, lots of their favorite hot dish, salad or dessert. Coffee and beverage will be furnished. A special invitation is extended to our senior citizens who are young in heart. Come with the whole family, meet the teachers, the PTA officers and chairman and your neighbors, new and old" says Mrs. Howard Presley, president.

Horse Talk

By Cynthia Irvine

It looks like Alpine horse enthusiasts are going to have a permanent ring at the YC at last, and thanks to Doris Scully and her persistence. She got the ground levelled and by Monday 1/3 of the posts were in. Jack Hoistad drilled till he broke something on the digger and then Mary Reed, Mike and Rick Peterson, Charles Jerney, the Scully boys and their parents finished putting the posts in. The railing will be here by Friday so good, straight nailors are needed to put them on. Volunteers can call Doris at 445-3803 and can do the job in a short time.

This is really a worthwhile project and is so necessary. Sure hope enough manpower comes through. I have been pulling for Doris ever since I first heard of this project and am all for it 100%.

Tommy Gault left Alpine last week so he could enroll in school and was fortunate to sell the Palomino mare & her colt to the Salizars who are going to move into Gault's house this weekend. This is nice for the horses and the Salizar children have others so it is going to be nice for them.

Mrs. Elizabeth Rash has her mare Scarlet and buckskin colt up for sale as she hasn't time to ride and someone might as well get some use out of her. She is 16 hands high and is only 7 years old so call her if you are interested. The colt is out of a registered quarter horse.

Lisa Pierce just missed high point at the horseshow Saturday. Sandy Elliot took it in the Junior division.

Our Los Caballos trip was simply wonderful. We want to thank Eileen Dun's sister Peggy Moran for staying up there with us and doing the cooking. We couldn't have gotten along without her. Friday night at midnight Eileen, Tommy Judd and Pam Weisbach left for home. They made it in 7 hours and were glad to get back as they were real tired. Mama came up Friday and spent the night with the twins and April Mansfield. Saturday Bill McTaggart and I drove into El Cajon and rented a trailer to bring our horses home as Wendy wasn't feeling up to par and I thought it best. She is still a colt and it was a strenuous trip but we enjoyed every minute of it and are planning on going again. Next time we go will trailer up and back so we can ride all day. The countryside is fabulous and the racoons scamper down the trees after dark and are tame enough to feed by hand. I had a mother and her babies come begging for food almost every night. It is truly a beautiful spot.

Don't forget the big Pine Valley horse show Sept. 25th that Hazel Foster is manager of and Nadine Gonzales is the judge. Nadine came to one of our Pequeno Riders shows and judged and we all liked her.

This is an all trophy show and entry fee is $3. per class, also is a trainers point show.

Sunday a delightful party was held for Father Wm. Mediavilla, who was taking Fr. Bolton's place while he was away on two months vacation. The padre is leaving for his home in Quito, Ecuador, this week, will stop to visit friends in Indianapolis before the last flight home.

The interview in the Aug. 12 issue of Alpine Sun about Father Mediavilla and his wonderful work there, brought many responses from thoughtful Alpiners. The clothing and donations were packed and shipped, and he enjoyed his stay here, met many fine people.

TWO ALPINERS ON TRIP EAST

Mrs. Jeanette Hinkle and Mrs. Maud Bratt are off on a 60-day bus tour to the midwest where they will visit friends and relatives. Their first stop, Brazil, Ind., where the latter will visit till January. Mrs. Hinkle will stop over in Oklahoma and Texas, where she will attend a reunion at her alma mater, Baylor College, going on to South Carolina, then home in about 60 days.

Robert Ostrander, owner of Empire Market, who had major surgery last month, is up and about, even supervising around the store, expects to don the harness again soon.

Next Fwy Trial Oct. 17

Roger Sullivan of LA, attorney for many property owners along the freeway route whose land is being condemned, reports that the next trial starts Oct. 17th involving the Rushing place.

The old Shell service station owned by the Ralph Beckers, is set for Oct. 24, and the Mills (Alpine Sales Yard), and the Exharos land, are scheduled to be tried together on Oct. 31, he told the Sun.

All the air shots, which are being used at the trial, were made by Editor Irvine, flying with Al Smith of Smith Realty here. The ground and interiors were made jointly by Cynthia and Celeste Irvine.

Mrs. Janet Smart is visiting her children in Indianapolis.

McCall-Adams Nuptials

Mrs. Blanche McCall is back from a flying trip to Seattle where she attended the marriage of their son Barry, to Randa Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Adams, 555 Alpine Heights Road.

It was a civil ceremony with Judge Hoar reading the vows. The newlyweds honeymooned to Victoria, will make their home in Lynwood, near Seattle, where Barry is employed by a cement construction firm.

"Things are booming up there" Mrs. McCall told the Sun Wednesday, "and everywhere you see signs out for help wanted. Barry is resuming his flying in order to get his private pilot's license. His brother Bruce, who works there, and wife Trudy, attended the wedding".

Want Young Musicians

"We have not had any kids from your area in recent years, but many come from much farther away---- Oceanside, for example", invites Mrs. H. W. Rubottom, secretary, Civic Youth Orchestra, in a note to the Sun, "and we would be particularly interested to find any advanced young musicians in your territory".

Auditions for this orchestra and its prep training group will be tomorrow at Grossmont College. Standard is musical maturity, rather than age. Interested youth are invited to call, 466-3285.

Pat Mitchell Recovering

Pat Mitchell is recovering slowly from the back injury she sustained recently when her horse ran into another. She was transferred from Valley Hospital to Alpine Convalescent Center she and her husband own and operate.

Ray Lewis Foils Death

When his eastbound car plunged down a steep bank on Hwy 80 below Lutz's Garage at 8 Tuesday night, Ray Lewis, son-in-law of Geo. Vanlue of Bob's Texaco Station, barely escaped death.

Dave Woodruff, editor of the Mt. Empire Chronicle, following Lewis, saw him swerve to the right and disappear. He stopped, then alerted Mike Heuslein at the garage. Someone picked up Lewis, took him to Vanlue's home, where an ambulance rushed him to an EC hospital. He was treated for face cuts, bruises and discharged Wednesday.

Officer R. G. Pryde of the CHP was at the scene. The Sun photo does not reveal the terrific impact as it is so steep and studded with sharp boulders which demolished the car.

Lewis was married to Vanlue's daughter Pat only last May, 20, had been employed by the Daley Corp., at Jacumba on the freeway.

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile & Celeste Irvine

Fidel Hyde gets to come home from the hospital this week we are pretty sure. He had to undergo more surgery on his right hand and lost the middle finger. The index one was removed several weeks ago and we only hope this is the last time he has to face such an ordeal. His mother said he would be home as his hand looked better and all the swelling was gone, but it has been a long, drawn out affair.

He was bitten on his finger July 5th and has been in the hospital two long months. He missed returning to school but will go back as soon as he is able. His mother said he hadn't given up the idea of being a cartoonist even though it was his right hand that the snake bit. He is learning to write and draw with his left and "is doing real good" she says. Fidel is the foster son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Guion, Japatul Valley.

Pilots from Alpine plan to fly or drive to the big Fly-In at Ramona Airport tomorrow and Sunday, put on by the Experimental Aircraft Assn., Chapter 14, of SD, reports William R. Smith, publicist.

Martin Jensen, one of the few fliers that made it to Hawaii in the tragic Dole Race of 1927, will be met by two old friends, Al Smith and Editor Irvine, both of whom flew with Jensen at Honolulu. Jensen is to make a talk. There will be movies, a cookout, contests and exhibits. The public is invited, no charge.

The brush fire at Palo Verde last Thursday was quickly put out by state and local fire boys. It didn't have a chance to get out of control.

Mrs. Emile Sachse is in NY visiting relatives while her husband stayed behind to look after their ranch.

"WHO'S THE SWELL man you was just talkin' to?" asked Tony, the bootblack.

"Aw, him and me's worked together for years," answered Mickey, the newsboy. "He's the editor of one of me papers."

PLANNING TALK TONIGHT

An interesting question-and-answer period will follow a talk by a speaker from County Planning at this evening's regular session of the Town Council. It starts at 8 in Fuller Hall, 1346 N. Marshall. The public is invited.

The Council is offering a series of monthly, informative, community-oriented programs to stimulate interest in Alpine activities and to present current problems facing the community.

Sun Prints Legal Ads

Recently a man called the Sun to ask if it can print legal advertising.

The answer is affirmative. The Sun has printed them continuously since it was awarded adjudication in Superior Court on Nov. 12, 1959, No. 238120.

This adjudication is currently on record with the County Recorder. So if you have any legals, as certificate of fictitious name--where your full name is not used, as "Mary's Millinery"--you are required by Sec. 2466, Civil Code, to file a certificate giving full name and address, etc, and to be published weekly for four weeks, in a legal newspaper such as the Sun.

The Sun will handle the whole task for you, blanks, recording, advertising affidavits, etc., at a nominal rate.

CHURCH BUILDS STORY From 1

"We will make the buildings fit into the mountain-western theme of the community", Fr. Satrang said. When in operation it will have quite a number living here. It is thought that the development will be made at the south end of Olivewood Lane, using the picturesque, wooded site where the Wrights lived for many years.

The southwestern portion of the acreage is where the Alpine Flying Club, founded some years ago by Clarke Irvine in an endeavor to get an Airpark here, and is presently working on it with Al Smith, realtor and flight instructor who is assistant manager at Gillespie Field. The runway has been okayed by federal, state and county authorities who made trips here to study the plan.

"If we can get the airpark with a runway for light planes" says Smith, "It would mean a gradual solid development for light planes, boys' model plane events, gliding, perhaps ballooning and so on".

Fred Rushing, president of the chamber of commerce says they would probably boost the project along with others in Alpine for it would mean much to the growing economy of the area.

BOARD ENGAGES TEACHER

Monday's session was short for Alpine school board which handled routine matters, chief one being the hiring of Mildred Long of SD as part-time kindergarten teacher at the Canyon school. She has taught in Poway and Ramona, teaches piano at her home.

Mex. to visit his mother Mrs. Ella Yandell, will be home as soon as his brother is out of danger. He had an enlarged blood vessel in his head which has stumped the doctors and may require surgery.

CHOOSING A POOL TO FIT EACH FAMILY

Once having decided to enjoy the pleasures of owning their own swimming pool, a family must decide what type and size pool they should buy. Faced with a bewildering array of sizes, shapes and designs, a wise decision could be extremely difficult to make.

Trained Blue Haven representatives solve this problem quickly and easily. From their knowledge and experience, they help each family choose the right pool to meet their individual family needs.

Since no two families are exactly alike, no two Blue Haven pools may be exactly alike. Are there small children in the family? Then, this Blue Haven pool must be planned for their enjoyment. Is there a potential diving champion waiting? His needs must be met. Would the family enjoy the relaxation of a therapeutic aqua-massage? This feature can be included. These and many other questions must be answered to make certain that every Blue Haven pool will be a perfect leisure-time center for family fun.

Next, the area in which the pool will be located is carefully surveyed. The size and shape of the lot, the landscaping and the decor of the home and grounds all must be taken into consideration. Because a Blue Haven pool is a permanent addition to the home, it must be carefully planned to be a beautiful and integral part of its surroundings.
