Frankie Laine was Jolly

A full house at Marie's Restaurant, 15505 Old Hwy 80, greeted singing star Frankie Laine Friday night, enjoyed dining and meeting the jolly star who was guest of honor.

The evening was planned by the Frankie Laine International Fan Club with Jackie Delp in charge. Reason was that Dave Newton, program director at KFMB and Barbara Kunce, won the celebrity auction dinner for two, with

Honor Team

Saturday, Nov. 26th Alpine's Pop Warner team will have the honor and privilege to play football with Tia Juana's Pop Warner boys. This was culminated at Monday night's meeting with Mexican officials when Frank Sortino, coach for Alpine, was asked if the team would come and play.

Due to contract limitation, the genial singer could not entertain, but the Alpine Twins, Cecile and Celeste Irvine had the honor of entertaining Laine and the guests. Editor Irvine was emcee. There were many from Alpine who enjoyed the unusual evening.

Ready for Freeway Bids

Completion of plans and specifications for the last Alpine section of Interstate 8-- the new freeway-- are ready for contractors to figure on, the Division of Highways told the Sun this week. Advertising for bids will be made early in December, so things should be moving along to put the community closer to SD and EC.

Local School Does OK Without U.S. Aid!

The idea that this country needs less government is being shown right here in Alpine, federal dictatorship, that is. For the school district last year declined an application for a federally financed program in language arts. Trustees told administrators to design a program for consideration.

Principal Leo Ryan went to work on it, presented the program to trustees who authorized it for grades one through three. All who have studied it, like it, and the county is filming it for introduction at a national education conference next year.

Under the federal plan only 2% of students would benefit, while in the local program, 100% are benefitting, Ryan states. The local district has financed it all, about $6,000 being spent.

Design is to develop all language skills, including reading, writing, speaking and listening. Equipment includes tape recorders, players, listening posts for four pupils, film strips and projectors.

The whole program is set up by the teachers, is put on with aid of higher graders who help teachers, giving them extra learning. Thus primary students get much more attention than otherwise.

Credited with success in this grass-roots educational endeavor are Supt. Paul Clay, school trustees and Principal Ryan. Maybe the Alpine plan will spread around the country! -CI

HAM REBUILDING FRONT

The Shell Station, 1925 Hwy 80, under lease to Bill Ham, is having its face lifted and a new, higher front built. Ham, who also has a station in EC, reports that business is steadily increasing. He used to be here, has another place at Lake Morena.

Sunday night Alpine's hard fighting Pop Warner team will meet Balboa in Granite Hills High School under the lights. This is the last game of the season and officials hope for a good turnout.

The score was 20 to 33 Sunday when they played Oceanside and "the parents and friends who came and supported the team was excellent" June Sortino told the Sun Monday. The boys were taken by bus, and families drove down.

After last Saturday's game team members showed their appreciation to June Sortino by presenting her a sweat-shirt and hat with "Coach Mama" printed on the back. She was thrilled and is quite proud of her boys and says "their loyalty, morale and cooperation has been outstanding".

Manuel Moya, timekeeper and official spotter for all of the games was given a big thank you by everyone.

Eighth grade team members will be glad to know that Joe Till, head coach from El Capitan will be on hand at Granite Hills Sunday night to spot potential talent for his freshman team.

The awards banquet has been postponed a week because of the Mexican game but it is scheduled for the end of November and at that time trophies and awards will be presented to the boys by a Charger member.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sortino are entertaining her sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pamplin and children from Oakhurst, Calif. for Thanksgiving. They are driving down, will spend the week-end here, are planning on taking in the Pop Warner game between Tia Juana and Alpine.

the animals down at their ranch in Sleepy Hollow except the stud, Pat's colt and two others, Woodie bought a beautiful red and white 4- horse trailer to accommodate his new string and is real proud of his new herd.

Wilma Peters is happy to have her mare Sassy and new colt in Alpine now as she is boarding them with Howard Barrett. She put King, the sorrel she just got from Texas, out to pasture on Bob Frank's ranch. She hopes to breed Sassy to Son of Joe Blair who is a great-grandson of 3 Bars. With the colt so close, Wilma can start training the little filly, has great plans for her.

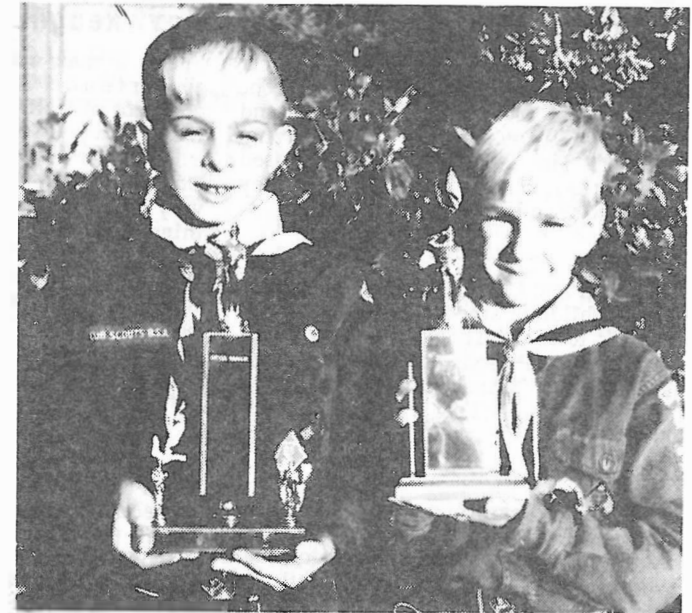

Margaret Lowthian and Eugene Freeland, Appaloosa breeders, left Friday for Sweetwater, Texas, to attend the Appaloosa Finals there. They took Blue Admiral and Witanka and will be gone for two weeks. They were in Phoenix last week and Blue Admiral took four firsts out of five classes and one third while Witanka placed in all of her classes.

A donkey named Flapjack was a local resident here until his owners Stephen, Don and Barbara Brookes decided he wasn't a horse and sold the jack to some people in Lakeside. They had raised him from a baby, but this summer on vacation they got to ride their uncle's horses so decided the donkey wasn't horse enough so they are looking around for the real thing!

The Vickers recently sold Tequila, the young colt April Earickson was training before she left for the Big Foot country and now all they have is her sister's horse Yank.

Alpine Cafe has set new hours: 6: a. m. to 8 p. m. daily with Friday and Saturday closing at 10 p. m., report Ervin and Alice Fitzgerald, new owners. They are planning on a Thanksgiving dinner next Thursday, turkey and all the trimmings.

THE SMILES on Stephen Brookes, 9, and Kenneth Weidel, 8, Alpine Cub Scouts, show their pleasure at being chosen outstanding "Boy of the Month" from Den One and Two. They excelled in general behavior, cooperation, achievements and contribution to their group and were the first to receive this monthly award. The trophies will revolve and winners will have their names engraved on the base. At their Nov. 25th meeting two more boys will be picked for this fine achievement.

RUMMAGE SALE COMING

As soon as enough saleable items are donated to the Pop Warner Rummage Sale, a date will be published. They are in need of small items such as vases, brick-a-brack, etc. and Mrs. Marty Parsons, 445-3606 or Mrs. Vic Vickers, 445-4429, will pick up the things so just give them a ring.

To benefit the Pop Warner football team, Mrs. Vic Vickers held a successful dress party put on by Mrs. E. Murray who showed the Queen's Way line of clothing. The party lasted Thursday afternoon from 1 o'clock on and a nice amount of cash will be turned over to Alpine's team.

Gov. Reagan Sounds Good!

For a man accused of having no experience for the high office of governor of California, Ronald Reagan, Wednesday morning addressing editors of the AP at Hotel del Coronado, really acquitted himself very well, listeners thought. For one thing he is economy-minded, is for school unification repeal, lower taxes on homes, de-centralizing of government, no business inventory tax, and promises a "no deal" administration. If he lives up to his objectives, there will be no question about a second term!

END FOREST CLOSING

Recent rains having soaked the brush, Cleveland National Forest is now open, reports Supervisor Stanley R. Stevenson. A high fire hazard is gone, unless Santa Anas dry the moisture.

Closure has been on since July 1. Rainfall has ranged from a low of 1.22 in the northern part to 2.5 around Descanso.

It is interesting to note that 1-inch rainfall means 100 tons of water on each acre. One gallon weighs 8-1/3 pounds, while a cubic foot, or 7 1/2 gallons, weighs 62 1/2 pounds.

Dear Clarke:

Just a little note to let you know that it was a real pleasure to see you and your fine family the other day, and especially to note how hail and hearty you remain and how well all of you folks look.

I think it is wonderful the way you keep up your enthusiasm for and interest in life, and the way you and the family express yourselves through the Alpine Sun. I want to read some more of it, so here's my little old $2. for a year's subscription.

Hope to see you again ere long, and in the meantime here's my best regards and wishes for success to you all.

Sincerely,

By Cecile and Celeste Irvine

Well, our band did it again Saturday when they took first in Division B at the annual Band Review in Hawthorne with 55 bands competing. We wish them lots of luck tomorrow when they go to Long Beach to compete in the All Western Band Review.

Don Fordney is looking forward to being discharged from submarine duty this month. He has put in 3 years active duty and hopes to attend Grossmont College when he is out.

The two lion cubs that escaped last month, when the truck they were being transported in overturned, are still at large and strange as it may seem, are still in the same vicinity. After the rain Monday, Nov. 7th neighbors around Bert Fuller's home saw their tracks and know they are still around.

They were being trained for movie work and are quite valuable but they have had a taste of being free and I guess the owner has given up hope of capturing them.

Chuckie Smith, he injured his neck this summer in a swimming pool accident, finally got to take the neck brace off. He has had it on since the end of summer.

Ellen Hood and her friend Pat Holleran are leaving Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving on the Colorado River where Pat's parents have a trailer.

Anyone interested in getting a beautiful kitten free? Mrs. Elizabeth Fordney has three that she would like to find homes for. Call 445-2831 and ask about them. They are partly house broken and have some angora in them.

Richard Irey got a job in an electronics plant in Salt Lake City and likes it a lot. He is staying with some relatives there.

Mrs. Jim Madson nearly had a dead Bedlington Terrier last week when she came home to find that Magi had chewed through the electric cord on the bathroom heater. There was a big burned spot on the floor and they know she got a good shock but otherwise she wasn't hurt but there was enough current there to kill her.

Patches, Lynn Kinikin's terrier had five puppies last week and as soon as they are able to eat by themselves she wants to find homes for them.

Tuesday afternoon our pet chicken got out of the yard and two young dogs caught her and had a tasty meal as she was young and tender. We had made a real pet out of her and Daddy even taught her some tricks. We are really all sad about it as we really thought she was a goner. But what a surprise we had Wednesday morning when we went out to feed the horses. There she was still alive. The dogs had chdwd all of the feathers off of her back but otherwise she was ok and we are all happy about it.

Accident statistics prove that the general run of pedestrians is too slow.

Town to Host A Honeymoon

Alpine's chamber of commerce is going in for a bit of romance. In a few days it will be host to an Army veteran of 12 years, S/Sgt. Carroll Meuse, due home from Vietnam, and his bride, who will drive up from their Yuma home for a belated honeymoon.

Nearly 2 years ago the soldier, on his way to duty, glimpsed the beautiful hills of Alpine from a bus, thought it resembled those of the Bavarian home where his wife Berta lived. So he thought it would be just the place for their eventual honeymoon.

From the war zone he wrote the chamber for information and why he wanted to enjoy their honeymoon here, and could he send money ahead, and if the chamber could make reservations and so on. Letter writing followed with the result that the local body plans a fine honeymoon for the 32 year old soldier and his bride.

So next Tuesday evening at 6:30 in the school auditorium, a community potluck will be on for Meuse and his wife. The chamber provides turkey and ham, Alpiners to bring a covered dish, salad, vegetable or dessert and their own table service.

Sgt. Meuse will show many color slides of interesting spots he shot in Viet-Nam, following the dinner.

"Everyone is cordially invited" says Dr. Robt. Burak, chamber president.

Their week at a local motel will be paid for by the chamber which will also give them a tour of the county and places of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rowan, Acacia Lane, announce the coming wedding of their son Bob, 22, to Lynne Fraser, 19, of Battle Creek, Mich. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fraser of that city.

Tuesday Mrs. Rowan and son Tim, who is to be best man, are flying to attend the wedding in the Trinity Lutheran Church Nov. 26th. Bob's mother will stay on another week but Tim, a junior at El Capitan, will return.

Bob, a graduate of Brooks School of Photography, Santa Barbara, went east last year when an opening with Krums Photographic was offered him.

Lynne is a sophomore in college, majoring in interior decorating. Both will continue with their education as Bob is aiming for his Masters in photo.

The young couple plan a week's honeymoon, will come to California to meet Bob's father when time permits.

Mr. and Mrs. Vic Vickers are entertaining their daughter Sue Blain and her three children, Karen, Robbie and Cathy over the holidays. Sue recently moved to Alpine from Torrance, is living on Marshall Road, is quite happy to be near her folks. Their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Wood are driving down from San Gabriel for the festivities also.

When they heard that Alpine was playing Tia Juana next Saturday they were thrilled and are looking forward to the big game.

Mr. and Mrs. George Haydon (she is Fordney's daughter Norene) are starting to build their new 2-bedroom home on the acre below the new one just completed by her parents.

Famed Artists to be Here

Tuesday Alpine Woman's Club will be honored with the presence of two well-known artists at their annual Art Show in the clubhouse at 2 p. m. Sam Jacoby, famous portrait painter, who has his studio in the Spanish Village, will demonstrate his talents by using Mrs. Earl Woodall as a model. Mrs. T. A. Smith is in charge of the program and has studied under him. Jacoby also teaches adult education classes.

The other well-known artist and TV performer is Betty Faulkenstine of SD who will demonstrate quick charcoal sketches at 50¢ a sketch and the money taken in will be used for the "Pennies Art Fund Scholarship" which sends a talented student to school.

All local artists are invited to bring their work to display and Mrs. Smith asks that the items be brought on the 22nd between 10 and 1 so that they can be properly displayed.

Mrs. John Rule is hostess for the day.

ALPINE TOPS ITS QUOTA

Al Adams, co-chairman of the United Crusade here, turned over $1,232.28, well over its quota of $900 or 37%, to Mrs. Paul Blake, secretary of the LM east county office. Adams is president of the YC here which is a UCS supported agency.

ALPINERS VISIT SO. AMERICA

A delightful tour of South America is being enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Rood and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lyman. They plan on being away several weeks and Rennie Hollet and his wife, who came down for the winter from Canada, are staying in the latter's home till they return.

78 AT LIVELY OAKS MEET

The YC was packed Monday when a record crowd came to the Lively Oaks session; 78 senior citizen members and guests, reports Mrs. Emma Holmes.

Supt. Paul Clay of the school exhibited a picture of the El Cap Band which is to play in the Rose Parade Jan. 1, seeking funds to help expenses, so $8. was voted.

Mrs. Allie Vigneault entertained with slides of some of her many dolls, and a history of the years gone by.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Westfall, Hwy 80, are entertaining her mother and father, Mrs. Bert Runcorn, of Alpine, her niece Sharyl Hopton from SD and Mrs. Alpha Simning from EC for Thanksgiving.

The Westfall's have three sons, Gordon, with the air force stationed in Germany, Johnny at the AFB in Omaha and Danny, a senior at El Cap. John is expected home in January as his four years in the service will be completed and he plans to return to school. He called his father last week to wish him a happy birthday, also gave them the good news of his release January.

Warner game ever played in Mexico, a wonderful opportunity for Alpine youngsters to represent their country. Also it inaugurates this type of activity between the two countries.

Alpine was chosen because this is its first year and Tia Juana officials were proud they accepted as they are only beginners too, and "the competition will be exciting for both sides" Sortino says.

The entire Alpine team will leave the Youth Center at 10:30, arrive at the border, meet the Mayor of Tia Juana and be escorted by the police to the stadium. Anyone wishing to go and does not have transportation, call Frank and arrangements will be made.

PTA SEEKS NEW LIFE MEMBERSHIP

The honorary life membership for Alpine PTA will be presented to some worthy resident at the Founder's Day Program in February. Last year the decision was made by the general public and the PTA committee feels that the same method be used this year. Anyone who has devoted time and effort to the betterment of Alpine in any activity can be nominated. Send applications to Leata Judd, Rt. 1, Box 97, Alpine, for the committee to pass on.

Mrs. Carrie Pruitt and Mrs. Ida Estell, Woody Mitchell's aunts from Hemet are visiting them at their home on Holly Road. Mrs. Estell also brought her son and daughter along.

A 2-MAN reunion was pleasing to Jack Brown, Alpiner, who met Frankie Laine at the dinner in Marie's Restaurant Friday night. Brown was special effects man on the "Rawhide" TV program when they were recording Laine's fine singing.

Mrs. James Weaver of Penticton, British Columbia, arrived via air Sunday for a three-month visit as the guest of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pekary and daughter Diann.

Virgil Wake and George Dillard are leaving for El Centro tomorrow to hunt pheasants together as the season opens and they want to be there early.

T. A. SMITHS ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. T. Aubrey Smith, South Grade Road, are hosting their relatives for the coming holiday. Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hendrick, their son Ernest and wife Penny and their infant daughter will also come. Mr. and Mrs. Omar Paton of EC, Penny's parents, will drive up from EC and another son, Jamie's wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Pierce, of LM, will come.

Jamie is attending the University of Oklahoma, will drive home during the Christmas Holidays for a nice visit, and can't make it at this time but his mother says "it is his birthday so we will phone him and all wish him the best by long distance."

SMITH REALTY MOVES OFFICE

This week the store from which Mary's Apparel Shop moved, 2249 Hwy 80, and only 2 doors west, was occupied by Al Smith Realty, formerly at 2251½. The building is owned by Geo. Butcher. With Smith are Attorneys Walton and Klosterman, also the office of H & R Block, tax experts, who are active January through April, with Pat Naud in charge.

Fulk to Visit Here Soon

A pioneer Alpine businessman, Earl V. Fulk, who put up the building now occupied by the hardware store, and ran it for several years as the Earl V. Fulk Co., writes the Sun that he hopes to visit Alpine this fall: "Dear Clarke: Could you send my little newspaper to this address Scotsdale, as I hate to miss getting it".

Mrs. Fulk had an operation last February and her doctor advised taking her from the east out to Arizona for a few months.

"It sounds like Alpine is growing and you know I still own the store building and the filling station there and have a warm place in my heart for Alpine".
