Christmas This Week!

An Alpine family enjoyed a unique Christmas this week. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bowles, 1492 Tavern Rd., held up celebrating that day, kept the tree lighted for their son Cpl. Alan Bowles, 19, who arrived last Thursday from Viet Nam.

A family Christmas dinner was enjoyed Sunday with Allan's girl friend Kathy Hall, of National City, whom he met at Calvary Baptist Church there before he left for duty. Also

Lutz Buys Frontage

For future development, sale of a piece of land with 700' on Hwy 80 adjoining Lutz's Garage on the west, is in escrow for Harold Lutz, owner of the garage which he built. This is where Tavern Road will cross to the interchange. It totals slightly over 3 acres. C. Cross was the seller.

Lutz sold the back portion of his land for the freeway, moving his house over on a rise west of his garage which he is now remodeling. Photo on 9.

present were his brother Terry, 15, and a cousin, Mike Youngdale, and his friend Rose Carney, with Virgil and Ann Youngdale, all of National City.

Cpl. Bowles came on his 30-day leave by air after 13 months in the war zone, arriving at El Toro, via Okinawa where he changed planes, spent 5 days.

Bowles is a truckdriver at Naval Supply Center in SD since 1942 except 3 years which he spent in WW2 in the

WILLINGHAM PLACE IS SOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Papenfus, of B. C. Canada, have just purchased the 3-bedroom home on 1½ acres, with a fine well on Tavern Road. Seller was Jack Vickery, realtor of SD, 5486 El Cajon Blvd, in SD, who bought it from A. L. Willingham two years ago. It was built by Virgil Ring. It is leased to Lt. Richard Hageman. The deal included a

TAVERN ROAD LOSES TREES
For a week Davey Tree Surgery men have been topping many dead eucalyptus along Tavern Road, near South Grade Road. They were using a big "bucket" crane-truck which operates by hydraulic lift from a "stick" similar to an airplane, in the bucket. The man hoists himself about 30 to 40 feet to top the tree. So they would not topple over the wrong way and endanger high voltage lines of SD G & E, the man uses a "throw" line, snags the upper part of the trunk, then runs it down to the men who pull the sawed off part over into the field. One big leaning tree was so heavy they had to yell for more brawn to pull on the line. Photo shows woodman felling entire smaller tree which was totally dead. Those with life had their dead tops cut off and Monday woodcutters finished felling them all.

Romney Accents Religion for Whole U.S.

"This universality of our religious philosophy is the primary reason why we have the opportunity to make a lasting contribution to human wellbeing and human progress".

That highlighted an inspiring interview recently by Godfrey Sperling, Jr. in the Christian Science Monitor, one of the world's greatest daily newspapers.

Romney, a leading GOP possibility for the presidential nomination, says that despite what the "sophisticated" or "cynical" may say in criticism, he is going to continue to speak out on religion. "The country needs a rebirth of faith", were his words in Sperling's

The Sun believes that Romney, who is a good Mormon, is correct, when he was quoted "Now this country would not be as unique as it is-- politically, economically, and socially-- if it weren't for the fact that the Declaration of Independence is essentially a religious document."

What made it "so lasting and universal", he said, "in its meaning and importance was its religious base: the fact that the authors recognized that we were all the children of a creator, endowed by Him with inalienable rights."

He mentioned President Teddy Roosevelt as having no reservation on "talking about the religious base of the American Constitution".

Lastly he pointed to our religious foundation, which is "the key to eliminating human discrimination and injustice and the establishment of a society where all have fully realized the American dream... that every person, regardless of race, color, religion, or national origin, is entitled to equal opportunity for full personal development and contribution and to be recognized for what he intrinsically is, rather than for what he has."

If you want to read a great book get "The American Dream", by Michael Foster, at the library. It makes Yankee blood a lot thicker! -CI

RAIN HITS MANY CARS

Here is one badly clobbered machine that Mike Heuslein at left, towed in for Harold Lutz, owner of Lutz's garage, Hwy 80 at Tavern Rd, after the Sunday rain. At left is pickup belonging to Beeson's Disposal Service, which slid off a road, hit a pole, smashed the front end. Several others were pulled in Sunday night by Lutz's Garage.

While on board the amphibious force flagship USS Estes, Chief Personnel man Joe Pantoja, USN, son of Mrs. Sofia Castillo, Alpine, was promoted to his present rate. His ship, homeported in SD, is with the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

BYRON J. SMITH

Funeral services were in Greenwood Mortuary with Dr. Roger Larson officiating for Byron J. Smith, 77, who died in EC Valley Hospital.

The Smith's came to Alpine in 1941, lived on Willowside Terrace. He was born in Wilson Township, Mich, was a life member of Saginaw Masonic Lodge and belonged to Alpine Community Church. He was a retired Travelers Insurance Co. engineer in Kansas City Mo. before coming here.

Survivors besides the widow, Letty; four sisters, Mrs. Nora Shulke, Miss Mabel Ruth Smith, Mrs. Nellie Hines and Miss Isabel Smith, all of Alpena, Mich; one brother, Lester A. Smith, of Seattle, Wash; a daughter, Mrs. Marguerite Conrad; one son, Byron N. Smith, both of Kansas City, Mo.; and four grandchildren.

Daughter Marguerite flew out from Kansas City to be with her mother, will return home this week.

BOY SCOUT WEEK COMING UP

Feb. 7-13 is nearly here with many county-wide events for the fine young men who make up Scouting in the area. It is the 57th anniversary of the movement. Motto is "Scouting rounds a guy out... teaches him good citizenship... gives him plenty of confidence... gives him self-respect... makes him a leader".

WHEN ONE of Susie's little friends came over to see her, she found the youngster playing with her new set of dishes.

"Are you washing dishes?" she asked.

"Yes," replied Susie, "and I'm drying them, too, 'cause I'm not married yet."

HORSE TALK

By Cynthia Irvine

The Silver Spur Rodeo in Yuma is coming up Feb. 11 and 12 and it is one we don't like to miss so are making plans to attend. Mr. Barrett already has Bar Mack over there. Dawn Byers is going to ride him in the parade and then the Grand entry. She is working out and getting him in shape for the big event.

Ginny Panye's boy friend Steve Byerley got out of the Navy last week & is spending a few days with her family in Japatul Valley. While he is there he is helping to train the 2-year old mare Misty. Mrs. Payne bought from Doug Fordyce recently. It won't be long and she will be ready to ride.

CHURCH TO HEAR MISSIONARY

Miss Martha Jacobson will be the guest speaker at the Assembly of God Church, 1929 Arnold Way, Feb. 2nd at 7 pm, reports Mrs. Eva Bailey, pastor.

Miss Jacobson, an Imperial Beach girl, has spent the last 10 years in Nigeria as a missionary where she organized Bible schools and translated the bible into simplified form so she could present it to the natives. She also taught three years of English and many of her students are now preaching and carrying on the work she started.

Paula Anderson is trying to get a corral built so she can bring her pinto home from Fordyce's where she is boarding him. They moved from Midway Drive and the house they rented from Cox hasn't a corral.

Melva and Ron Riley took Skip Beau over to Yuma last week-end and he came home with a Reserve Champion.

I saw Missoula Arrow in Howard Barrett's pasture and wondered if he had bought the Appaloosa from Margaret Lowthian. When we talked to him he said "no, am taking care of the horse for Wilma Peters." We have not had a chance to talk to her but if she did buy the animal she will have a well trained horse as Missoula Arrow was trained by Frank Evans and brought home plenty of trophies.

Nine adults showed up for last Saturday's ride and all report a real nice time.

Woodie Mitchell moved the colt and Appaloosa stud from their home on Holly Road to their Sleepy Hollow Ranch on Dehesa Road. He now has 11 horses down there.

Here is map of new Interstate 8 Freeway as shown through Alpine. At left or west is Peutz Valley Road, going under the new pavement. Next is Tavern Road Interchange, with Tavern and Frontage Road going off to west, and southern side going south to give entry to old 80 that will be called Alpine Blvd.

Next is W. Victoria Dr., shown passing over freeway which goes on east to E. Victoria which goes underneath to rejoin Alpine Blvd. with a short frontage road to the west.

Finally the Willows Interchange shows how motorists will have access to frontage roads, Willows Road, and the Viejas Reservation to the east.

This means a lot of traffic now entering Hwy 80 via South Grade Rd. and Arnold Way, will go via Tavern Road, which will be shorter and faster than the old routes.

This new freeway map will be shown on the revised map of Alpine published occasionally by the Alpine Sun, a new one to be out soon. Subscribers will receive it as a supplement to the Sun, and it will be on sale at 10¢, 15¢ postpaid. Order now if you wish copies.

For realtors and other businesses desiring to give out maps, a space will be left for stamping in the name, cost to be $1.50 per 100.

Mandy Payne is back in school and hopes she is over Mono for good. Her mother is waiting for the results of the tests taken at Navy Hospital before they know for sure, but in the meantime she is feeling fine.

Donna Schwenck was thrilled Friday when she earned her tennis letter and her team beat Santanna the same day.

Debbie Place thinks her little black puppy was picked up by the dog catcher last week. He disappeared the day he was to go for his rabies shot and he hasn't been seen since. He wasn't hit on Tavern Road or they would have seen him. If you can't keep your dog in a fenced yard, then you have to tie him up and this makes the dog unhappy. It is better to give him away than have him go to the pound. They hold the dog for a month at your expense so it is wise to keep them home. We all will be glad when this rabies epidemic is under control so we can let our pets out now and then.

Paula Anderson was glad to get her pet cat back again. After they moved to Tavern Road they couldn't find him. Saturday her mother and Mrs. Payne went down to look for him and he was at their old place on Midway Dr. They finally got him in the car and brought him home but he was really scared.

Yvonne Randall came home from the hospital Sunday afternoon and is able to be up for a little while. She is gaining strength and feeling lots better. Her brother Dickie Greathouse gets to come home from Naval Hospital on weekends.

Friday night 10 friends of Randa Adams McCall surprised her with a baby shower at the home of Eileen Dun, Victoria Drive. Eileen's mother made us a delicious dinner and Randa was thrilled with the baby gifts she received from my sister and I, Beverly and Linda Nichols, Marion Bell, Donna Schwenck, Jackie Ralston and Susie Salizar.

CARE OF THE BODY

By Frances McTaggart

The average American eats entirely too much. There are probably a few people who eat too little but on the average nine out of ten persons over-indulge. Most of us eat 3 meals a day plus snacks, and at least one coffee break. This tends to fill the stomach to capacity.

The demand upon the digestive organs is greater than it should be when food is introduced into the stomach before the preceding meal has been thoroughly digested.

People with slow digestion require from 5 to 6 hours to empty the stomach. This is doubly true if hard to digest foods are eaten. It should be remembered that the stomach is a muscular sac which grows weary from working just as any muscle does.

A good rule to observe is to take no food into the stomach if part of the preceding meal remains. The presence of remaining food acts as a ferment and hinders digestion of the following meal.

Eating a little less is also easier on the heart, the diligent never-ceasing worker.

MEASLES CLINICS PLANNED

Dog owners came from all over back county last Wednesday to have Dr. Arnold Samter immunize their pets against rabies. Here he is about to give one dubious customer his first shot. Vaccination is required by law before license can be issued.

UNUSUAL HONOR FOR MISS NOBLE

Just before leaving for another 2-year tour of duty at Perris Island, S.C. in the WMC, Sgt-Maj. Betty Noble, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Walker Markley, was presented with a surprise commendation. It was signed by Maj. Gen. Hochmuth, for her outstanding leadership of 1st Sgt. of the W.M. Company, from March 1965 to Dec. 1966.

She will retire to live in Alpine after 22 years in the WMC.

Mrs. Markley is back from a week's pleasant visit with her other daughter, Sue, and husband, S. S. Rogers, in Corona.

Bob Burrell, manager, Stallion Oaks Ranch, Boulder Creek Road, reports they had 1½" of fine rain Sunday night. They hope to bulldoze the proposed airpark runway shortly.

CONVERTING HOUSE TO MAKE 7 NEW RENTALS

Mrs. L.B. Sublett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Smyth, came by train from Pama, Texas, to visit them, spent a few days here then left Thursday to visit her brother Kenneth and family in Kearney Mesa. She leaves for home tomorrow.

Today movers are lowering main house and outbuildings on the Broni property, 3220 Hwy 80, where 7 rental units will soon be ready for occupancy.

Structures were moved down from freeway site, were first donated by the Bronis to the Catholic Church at Viejas Reservation, but due to impossibility of getting dwelling around one curve, idea was abandoned.

The Broni family is planning on a fund to secure a library for the reservation and will establish a scholarship in dietetics.
