Woman slays 3 rattlers!

Sunday was a balmy, peaceful ordinary spring day around Alpine. Mrs. Thelma Cuyanus, of Laguna Beach, was up for the weekend at her place, 1305 E. Victoria with her calico cat Mona, a 7-year old loving feline.

She went down the hill among the boulders to cut some brush and weeds. Mona followed as usual. Then she heard the cat meow and hiss, her usual alarm when something is wrong. So she went over to where Mona was crouching and there, coiled and glaring was a big

DU PREEES BUY MORE LAND

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Du Pree, who recently bought and moved into the Hake place, South Grade Road, just acquired more property adjoining their home which gives them a total of 3.2 acres. Ned Hill of Alpine Realty handled the sale, owner being Ruth Jones of SD.

Du Pree runs Allied Carpets, 4995 Weeks Ave. in SD. They have a son, Ronald, 17, a senior at El Cap HS who will join the service soon. They plan rattler. Mrs. Cuyanus, a native of Tennessee, is no coward, so she quickly picked up a branch and despatched the snake.

Before she had gotten her breath, she heard a rattle, looked around, and there was another, perhaps its mate. So she quickly broke its back with a stick, when she spied another, a much larger one coiled at the foot of a bush. So without wasting any time she aimed carefully, whaked it, broke its back.

PO REFLECTS MORE GROWTH

Postmaster Haakon Magnussen told the Sun yesterday that mail service here shows steady growth and the need for larger quarters is getting near critical.

There are just over 500 users of PO boxes, and a few under 500 on the rural route, with about 20 in general delivery. The study the department instituted to see how soon a larger building will be needed is progressing, he adds.

BAKERY OPENING DELAYED A WEEK
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Grube were all set to give this community their Alpine Home Bakery for Mother's Day Sunday, but due to a new plumbing problem & a few other little tasks, they had to delay one week. They expect to be ready by Sunday, May 21. Their attractive red-roofed sign in front is all done and they have painted the building, landscaped the front.

GYMKHANA SHOW TOMORROW

The annually sponsored C of C Gynkhana show will start at 8:30 tomorrow at the YC ring with Mrs. Frank Scully as chairman. Ringmaster is Barney Barnett and as the California State Horseman's Association rules are being used, that means in dress also, so contestants must wear a long sleeved shirt and tie to be acceptable.

Alpine Riding Club will run the show with club members manning booths, and taking care of the day's activities.

During the lunch break a comical event with adults only participating will be the highlight of the day with a trophy going to the winner.

WIN TWO TROPHIES

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hart, Palo Verde Ranch, were the recipients of two 2½ feet beautiful bowling trophies won when they placed 2nd in the Lemon Grove, Oak Park League at the huge Bowlero. Out of 16 teams the Hart's made second place, plan on entering the summer session.

Mrs. Hart came down with a bad case of flu, could not be present when the winners were announced, so her husband Don accepted her trophy for her, then received his.

KINDERS LEASE CLUB ALPINE

Calvin D. and Virginia T. Kinder, of 2520 Hwy 80 have just leased for 3 years Club Alpine at 2502 Hwy 80, from the owners, Mrs. Hayes Robinson and her son Hayes, (Bub), who have operated it for some time. The Kinders took over on Friday and have lived here for four years. Mrs. Kinder will operate the place in the daytime as Kinder is busy with Balboa Fence Co. in EC and will be on duty nights.

SPEEDER JUST MISSES DEATH

At 3:25 Friday a 1067 Mustang east-bound driven by Milton N. Sandlefield, of the USS Halsey, passed 2 loaded school buses on Old Hwy 80 just before the Dunbar Lane stop at the curve, failed to make the curve, went over the bank, landed in a concrete culvert.

The car was totalled and the driver terribly injured, was rushed to EC Valley Hospital for surgery, later sent to Navy Hospital. He lives with his wife at 2221½ Eucalyptus Dr., in EC.

CHP Officers J. D. Truitt and J. Anderson were on the scene, took some measurements of the heavy skid marks, estimated the speed at 91 to 98 mph. It was reported that the driver had had a drink, but was not under alcoholic influence enough to be cited.

Note- We hate all auto accidents, but this one was a good thing for the youngsters in the buses-- they saw how horrible and bloody a wreck can be, and how speed can be so dangerous. CI

Ruth Widness is home from a two weeks trip that took her to Chatsworth, Tustin and La Mirada to visit her three daughters and their families. She returned home last week.

CALF DRAWING SATURDAY

The annual Glenview Feed Store calf drawing will be tomorrow at 2 with a beautiful 2-months old animal going to some lucky winner. George Palmer, owner, says it isn't too late to get your tickets which can be had from the store until the drawing.

Last year's winner was Dennis Dart, of Lakeside, who raised the young steer for beef.

Car crash helped teach young drivers!

Friday a youth in a new sporty car flashed past two buses of students homeward bound from El Capitan HS, on Old Hwy 80, near the curve at Dunbar Lane. He failed to make it, sped over the bank, dropped into a culvert, but see photo and story on next page.

This sad accident sparked the idea of showing a prize-winning editorial from the Westport News, Westport, Conn., by J.L. Brosius. It took a $500, second prize in the annual newspaper safety writing competition sponsored by American Trucking Associations, of Washington, DC. It is timely as a high percentage of the nation's auto wrecks are due to drinking drivers.

The Accomplice

When Stanley Miller left his house he was miffed with his wife. It was darned inconsiderate, he thought, to send him out for a loaf of French bread to go with the spaghetti just the minute he got home from the office.

"You'd better hurry," she fretted, "or the stores will close...so don't take off your coat."

He didn't ... and he didn't say goodbye, but he did close the door with such determined emphasis that it almost got the dog in the nose.

The engine turned over with a growl that exactly echoed Stan's sentiments... "she could have called me at the office," he mused...

"Hey, Dad, wait...I wanna go..." hailed young Stan, age 10, who hurriedly slammed down his bike as he arrived back from his friend's house where the gang was trying out slot cars on a brand new miniature race track.

Senior Stan didn't feel miffed anymore. In fact, an aura of well being came over him. He liked being with the boy who talked of gears and motors and smelled like the outdoors and was panting like a puppy from the fast bikeride. He even noticed, as he turned out of the driveway, how nice the house looked with the eaves outlined in red and green lights.

Two blocks away, the light turned from red to green and Stanley Miller started across the intersection. Another driver, not drunk, but with one more under his belt than he was accustomed to, didn't notice the light change.

It was a mess. The kind that gives you the creeps when you come upon it. Two ambulances, a wrecker, police, flashing lights, gawking people and two cars so flattened in front...that you wonder if anyone got out alive.

One did. A father who required extensive hospitalization and who, in some ways, never would recover. His injuries were too extensive to permit him to attend the funeral of his namesake. The driver at fault also paid the highest price and left his own sad story.

Deadly Mixture

This accident didn't happen in Westport, it happened everywhere. You could write a thousand different versions of it...each with the same villain: alcohol. Other things cause accidents, it is true, but some of them aren't so easy to eliminate arbitrarily.

Every year safety experts seek new ways to warn drivers that death rides the highway and that drink is his accomplice. Uncork all the cheer you want, but afterwards don't try to navigate with a two ton metal weapon.

HORSE TALK

By Cynthia Irvine

Have been looking forward to the Gymkhana show tomorrow and my mare Coco caught her foot on the barbed wire and can't be ridden. Dr. Immenschuh came up and bandaged her hoof and leg but it takes time to heal so will just watch this year.

Shirley and Bob Evers have their small reservation horse up for sale. He is a gelding, full of spirit and yet gentle enough for a child to ride. They only want $100. so call 445-3666 if you are interested.

The three Compton children were as disappointed as their mother Mary Jo when Walter came home Friday night with-out the promised quarter-horse. He and his mother took a trip up to Portland to bring back the animal and didn't have any means of getting it here so he is going up again May 26th with a trailer so there won't be any more broken hearts.

Dawn Byers drove over from Yuma to enter Howard Barrett's quarter-horse Bar Mack in the Viejas Days horse show. She didn't win a trophy but came off with some ribbons and had a lot fun and a nice week-end.

Lisa Pierce was the only Alpiner who entered and she walked off with two trophies which was nice as she has lots of competition. She also took a second, 3rd and 5th during the day.

JoAnn Villa came home Sunday from the 4H show with a beautiful trophy she won for horsemanship. She also took a 2nd, in Western Pleasure, 2nd in Texas Barrels and 3rd in Key Hole. Mrs. Rash loaned her a trailer so she could get Mark down to the show. Jackie Reed took her gelding Spooks down and walked off with some nice ribbons, too. Bob Alcorn judged and JoAnn says "there were 40 or 50 kids in the show so it was some stiff competition."

I have a nice Welch pony for sale that is well trained and very gentle. Call me at 445-2394 early in the morning if you are interested. I leave work by 8:30 so an early call will get me.

JoAnn Villa and her mother are real busy getting a corral up at their new house. They are moving this week-end to the Olivewood Lane home where Mr. and Mrs. Paul Spackman are moving out.

"Boy, oh boy, am I in trouble!" exclaimed one farm youth to another. "And all because my wife-to-be is deaf."

"How's that?" asked his friend. "Well, when I proposed to her I had to yell so loud that the girl across the road is suing me for breach of promise."

HERE are 7 of contestants during one class at Viejas Days horseshow at YC ring. Cars and horse trailers were crowded on play area of school above. Everyone had a fine time.

DICK BROTHERTON RETURNS

After an absence of several years during which he lived in EC, Richard Brotherton and wife Lana with their children Patrick, 5, and Teresa, 3, are back in Alpine at the family residence, Tavern Road. He is superintendent for Witt Plumbing in EC.

Young Brotherton came here in 43 with his family when he was 9, grew up here. His father, Allen Brotherton died a few months ago and he bought the home on 2 acres, from the estate, the widow, Mrs. Naomi Brotherton now living at Alpine Apartments.

New Couple Arrive

Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Huggett of South Weymouth, Mass. have rented a nice 1-bedroom home on Rock Terrace Rd. from Mrs. Charlene Brown of Brown Realty. They rented the place after writing the Chamber of Commerce asking if there were any rentals available. When told there were, they rented the place sight unsee. They are sending 3 boxes by parcel post in care of Mrs. Brown to hold until they arrive.

OPTIMIST BREAKFAST TOMORROW

Don Roccaforte will be acting chairman at 7 a. m. Saturday when the new Optimist Club has another session in the Log Cabin Lounge.

"Breakfast is 'a la carte', he says, and all interested in forming this club are invited". For details call his barbershop, 445-4103, or drop in at 2253, Hwy 80.

LOOKS LIKE NO TAX HIKE

At Monday night's session of Alpine School board, reports Supt. Paul Clay, the 1967-68 budget will not call for a rise in the tax rate.

Discussion was made on the tentative budget of $316,000 for next year, this year's being $313,000, he added. Present rate is $1.98 on $100 assessed value.

Here's closeup of the three reptiles killed Sunday by Mrs. Cuyms. Middle one, longest, was 4' long, with 11 rattles and button; one on right had 9 with button and one on left had only 4 as the rest had been broken off.

Everyone should know what a rattler looks like-- diamond back, with flat, diamond-shaped head. If not stepped on or gotten too close to, snakes will slither away. Warn your children, for they are coming out now.

Cathy and Debbie Lewis, grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Clark, Tavern Road, had a fun day at the beach last weekend while Clarks fished off Crown point. They landed several 3# croakers that "were delicious eating" they all said.

Daddy took us to see "Catch Me if You Can" Thursday night at the Old Globe Theatre and we thought it was wonderful. We hope to go and see "Doctor's Dilema" before it closes on the 14th. We just love live plays as we are both drama students and learn a lot.

Little Mathew Scully got his hand stepped on Sunday by his brother's horse Thunder. His mother rushed him to EC Valley Hospital for treatment, and x-rays showed no broken bones, but he really got his fingers mashed.

Mr. James Dyer took Doug Payne, Terry Barrett and his son Larry up to Cal Poly last weekend to a soil judging contest and they had a fabulous time.

Ginney Payne surprised her parents Friday night by getting a ride to North Island for the weekend from Camp Sggs. Md. where she is stationed with the Waves. Her mother took her back down Sunday and she hopped a ride back on a Navy P-3.

The YC is looking for a nice used jute box and they don't care how old it is. There isn't one in the Center now and a lot more kids could show up if they had one as it can be stuffed with current records and it would be really appreciated. Call Al Adams if you know of one or have one to give away. It would be for a worth-while project.

John Bilsky, left, and David Beach, smile for Sun's cameraman. "How many times have you clicked a camera?" queried announcer Sam Siciliano, columnist with Daily Californian. "Oh I've lost count" replied Editor Irvine, "but I've been clicking since I started when I was 9, or about 65 years ago! I had my first camera given with a knee-pants suit up in Salem, Ore., where my dad published a paper and I helped him around the shop".

VAN DEERLIN BILL ON PHONES

It is revealed from Washington that an estimated 30 obscene or harassing phone calls are received daily by people in the SD area. To combat it, Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin is introducing legislation that would provide fines and jail for those convicted of making such calls across state lines or in DC. This estimate was given Van Deerlin by Pacific Telephone at his request so he could prepare the bill.

CARE OF THE BODY

By Frances McTaggart

DID YOU KNOW THAT--

Too much liquid taken with food creates fermentation in the stomach. The excess liquid taken with meals dilutes the digestive juices making them weak to do their work and the food lies in the stomach until this fluid is absorbed. Best way to avoid this is to drink 20 minutes to a half hour before meals.

Foods made up of too many mixtures taxes the stomach. By using simple meals and natural foods the stomach performs in a more relaxed manner thereby making you more comfortable after a meal.

Meals eaten too close together cause sour stomach (heartburn). If a new meal is added to the remains of a previous one, fermentation results even though the food is nutritious. The stomach needs time for good and thorough digestion before the next meal. A little rest for that tummy between meals pays off. Then your next meal is so much more enjoyable. At times some of us eat not because we're hungry but because the clock says its lunchtime. Not everyone digests food in four hours. Some of us take up to six hours so we should govern our eating accordingly.

A farmer was involved in a costly lawsuit which carried the threat of imprisonment. "I know the evidence is strongly against my innocence," he told his attorney, "but I have $50,000 in cash to fight the case."

"As your lawyer," he was assured by the attorney, "you'll never go to prison with that amount of money".

And he didn't. He was broke when they convicted him.

Railbirds spanned the ring at the horse show, all intently watching the contestants. Old and young had a fine time.

SENDS DRINKS TO BOY AT WAR

One of the Geo. Grube sons, Ronald, 22, radioman aboard the USS Pickering, a destroyer now off Viet Nam, is having a high time with a carton of cool-aid sent by his father, in which he put some copies of the Alpine Sun.

"There were 72 packets of the drink, pre-sweetened" says Grube, "and the boy is enjoying it as he does not drink coffee, although Ron says he has taken to using China tea. All the fellows took a lot of interest in reading his tiny home town newspaper".

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Simms, parents of Mrs. Billie Hart, are getting ready to take their annual 3-months summer trip up north. They try to avoid the summer heat and have enjoyed all of the previous trips besides keeping cool.

"I don't know, son, what would you have?"

"Five sousand bucks."

BENEFIT HELPS YOUNGSTER

Saturday night at the Alpine Campe Rancho Resort, Willows Road, a big, jolly barbecue and fun night was sponsored by owners David and Thelma Arnst for their grandson Mike. He was accidentally run over by his mother Mrs. Mary Holtz at the Arnst's home in La Mesa when he got out of the car and ran around in back of it. The back wheel went over his chest and head causing extensive damage. The benefit was to help his family defray the huge medical expenses. The child has to have therapy for some months to come but is improving.

Then she called The Sun, although the office is closed Sunday, Editor Irvine happened to be outside - filling the mower to cut weeds, so she told her story and that's how these pictures were taken.

Note- Not knowing anyone that eats rattlesnakes, we buried them for her after removing rattles for souvenirs. But you better warn children not to play around rocks these days. It isn't everyone that knows how to kill one. A sharp hoe is the best weapon- CI
