MISS ALPINE IS MISS HIGGINS

It was a great show! That was the concensus after the entertaining first annual Miss Alpine Contest, sponsored by the chamber of commerce on Mrs. Nikki Menconi's idea.

DUCKS FOR EASTER, TOO

Last March we bought 2 baby ducks for our children at Easter. We watched them change from downy black balls to fluff that peeped, into mature feathered mallards. The drake has brilliant green and purple to contrast with his grays and browns while the hen is dressed much less brightly so that she is better camouflaged.

She laid her first egg when she was 6 months old. That was on Aug. 31, 1967 and since that day she has laid 219 eggs! She has missed laying an egg a day only 4 times in these past 7 months. Duck eggs are good to use in cooking or baking.

We have been so pleased with our ducks that I have incubated 20 eggs that we hope will hatch in time for Easter. Anyone who would like to have one, give me a call and I'll save one so that you can have it as a surprise for Easter morning. Call 445-4367.

YOUNG ORATORS WIN AT OPTIMIST

The first oratorical contest of Alpine Optimist Club "went off like we'd been having it for years", says Pres. Frank Scully. The lads were enthused, coached by Bob Gaston, teacher.

The Log Cabin Cafe was packed and all enjoyed the fine talks of the boys. Judges: Dr. Robt. Burak, Atty. Andy Rehberger, and Mrs. Bea LaForce, with Gaston as timekeeper.

"All the credit goes to Leo Manolacos and Al Adams who put in a lot more work on it than we realize" added Scully.

Gov. Herm Sundquist and Past-Gov. Duane Smith, with their wives, attended. The baseball committee reported a windfall of $180. which will help get the season underway.

MARTIN LUTHER KING HAS NOT DIED IN VAIN.

While there be some that think that God is dead, millions know that there lives a great super-mind that governs the universe. How could it be otherwise?

Most of us have been or heard the funeral, memorials, and excerpts from his life and work, so it is not necessary here to quote many of his sayings and the details of the sad and dastardly assassination.

But a white man has compounded the sins of the white man against the Negro Race, and it will take years for it to be righted. But our one hope is that the death of this great and good man will help to bring both White and Black to their senses and to appreciate the great laws of the universe and try to emanate love and friendship; splendid job at the funeral. Arthur Godfrey on his radio program gave a moving eulogy and observations.

The sympathy of every person goes out to Mrs. King and the family. Martin had said so many things that will last for years. His dream; his trip to the mountain top; his dedication; his love-- all attest to the fact that he belongs, as someone said, to posterity. Like Gandhi, when shot, King no doubt would have said to his slayer "Brother, I forgive you".

We hope this sad event will awaken the younger Negro population to the error of their ways of violence, burning, looting. Love will accomplish more.

As Adm. Leslie Gehres, SD Republican County Central Committee chairman stated: "The assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King has removed from American life a great and dedicated leader in the cause of social justice and has silenced a desperately needed voice of moderation in a time of turmoil and violence. Just as the rifle fired at President John F. Kennedy was aimed at every citizen so was the rifle fired at Dr. Martin Luther King aimed at all citizens of good will. In life he awakened the conscience of the nation. His violent death will stir the nation to make real his dream of liberty and justice for all. We pledge ourselves to do all within our power to advance the cause of equality for which Dr. King died."

We fervently hope and pray for this. -CI

ALPINERS FELT STRONG QUAKE

When the temblor hit this area Monday evening at dinnertime, many rushed outdoors--best thing to do-- and felt the long shaking earthquake which registered 6.4 on the Richter scale. Alpiners were shaken up quite a bit as it lasted a full minute. No damage was done and none was injured, but many were scared.

Another little one hit the area at 10:32 Tuesday morning, felt in EC and in SD. Also no damage was done.

EASTER GREETINGS POSTAGE 6¢

Legislation which started Jan. 7, cut the 4¢ rate for all greeting cards, reminds Postmaster H. T. Magnussen. Mrs. R. W. Kinsman is completely recovered from her stay in the hospital that required 3 operations. Says "am feeling fine" and happy to be home. Her husband just bought her a new 2-door Catalina Pontiac that is white and she says "it drives like a dream".

FULLER SUFFERS 2 FAMILY DEATHS

The hardest week in Bert Fuller's life came with the news that his 83-year old mother died last Monday, and on Saturday he received a wire that his brother, CWO Delbert Fuller, 49, AP, USN, was killed in Vietnam when the helicopter he was piloting was shot down. Cdr. Fuller USN ret., is the only one left in his family. He was in WW2 where he escaped from a POW camp in Corregidor.

HORSE TALK

By Cynthia Irvine McTaggart

Woodie Mitchell drove back from Arkansas last Thursday and brought Pat's white stud Comet and his horse Lucky with him. Pat is having her's trained so should be able to get in some nice riding this summer.

Sunday Steve Morse phoned and said a sorrel Shetland pony had come into his yard with a rope and pulling a stake with him. He wondered if we knew who the pony belonged to but as it was up at the Willows we didn't know. Later that day someone from the Nicholiason place came down and got him.

Ron and Melva Riley are really thrilled with the performance of Skip Beau. He only has 1/2 point to win before he will be AQHA Champion and he sure deserves it. They have spent a lot of time with him and it pays off. He also just won 2 Grand Champions at the last two shows he attended.

Don't forget the Pequeno Riders Horse Show Saturday, April 20th. Entry fees are 50¢ and ribbons through 6th place. We will have Western and Gymkhana. Maureen Carrell is judging and we still have to find someone to help her time so if you are interested in helping call 445-2984.

The following Saturday the Alpine Riding Club is having another breakfast ride that is free to members and guests. It is to acquaint new-comers and non-members with the club and its activities. After breakfast a small business meeting will be held and then the ride begins. Plan on attending as it will be nice.

Doris Scully is trading her mare for one that has been bred to a liver chestnut. The horse is a dark bay so should have a nicely colored colt.

Brent Holmes is out looking for his 12-year old gelding again. Last week he broke the fence down and Mrs. Jerney rescued him and Monday he took off again. Brent lives on the Brabazon Ranch up by the Willows so if you see or hear about his horse be sure to let him know.

If anyone would like to donate some cupcakes for our horseshow April 20th to help pay for the trophies please call 445-2394 or 445-2984. They would be appreciated very much.

LUNCHEON FOR SPAIN'S OFFICIAL Chairman Chas. Cordell of the SD 200th Anniversary is getting the big event off the ground in fine style. Today they are guesting Manuel Fraga Iribarne at a press luncheon in the Kona Kai Club. He is Minister of Information and Tourism, from Spain, with his official party. Next year this area will be alive with all sorts of events to celebrate the 200th Anniversary.

THEY MADE CONTEST SUCCESS

Here are four who made Saturday's Miss Alpine Contest go over so well, with the judges' choice, seated, Catherine Higgins.

From left, Mary Fitzgerald, who was raised here, now of LM, who narrated; Chuck Owen, emcee, who is popular announcer on Radio KSON; Dr. John S. Campbell, president, chamber of commerce, who accepted the plan and directed the show, and Mrs. Nikki Menconi, whose idea it was, and who was hard-working chairman of committee.

Dick is just back from 11 months in Germany, left Sunday for the north, to fly to Vietnam. Mike returned recently from a hazardous stint of a year in the SE Asia country, is now working with his father in their printing and sales business.

Others at the affair were, besides another son Jeff, Editor Irvine, wife Alice, and twins Cecile & Celeste, who played the guitar and sang. They had been taped by Merrill and sent to both boys when they were overseas. Also present was Miss Barbara Avery and Keith Cater.

MT. EMPIRE REJECTS POWER BUY

Stockholder members turned down the $1,194,726 offer of SDG&E to buy their Mt. Empire Electric Cooperative by a vote of 480 to 219 reports its president, Wm. Ketchan of Jacumba.

A two-thirds approval vote of the 1250 members would have approved the sale. About 550 voted Saturday in a big tent at Mt. Empire HS. A former offer in 1966 was rejected by the board.

ALPINERS ATTEND CONVENTION

Phyllis and Sharon Vale, teenage daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Vale are in Long Beach this week attending a convention of Rainbow Girls. This is statewide and is held in the Long Beach Arena. The Vale girls were thrilled when their parents drove them up Sunday as 22 friends of theirs from Sonoma drove down for the meetings. Over 2,500 girls from all over California are attending the big affair.

The woman was terribly jealous. Every evening she subjected her husband to a searching inspection, if she found a hair on his coat there would be a terrible scene. One night she found nothing so she screamed "You were out with a bald headed woman!!"

Mr. & Mrs. Ed. Rowan, Acacia Lane are mighty proud over the news from Halifax, Nova Scotia, where their son Robert is living with his wife, that his picture was chosen for the Easter Seal campaign there.

Young Rowan had four out of four photographs chosen for the annual Professional Photographers Convention in Michigan last month. All won prizes, one blue, 2 red, a silver medal, and another for outstanding number of points.

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile and Celeste Irvine

My sister and I are glad the Miss Alpine contest is over and all of the suspense and excitement that went with it is done. We don't know Cathy Higgins but wish her all the luck and success that goes with the title. We enjoyed being in it and were happy to see so many Alpiners attend, and know it will grow into a much looked-for annual event.

Last week Sandra Landstedt was chosen to be ASB president of El Cap HS and they had the inaugural banquet at the Campus Chuck Wagon last Thursday night.

week. He had to be rushed to the doctor as his mother thought he was having a heart attack. He had pushed a car the other day and pulled a ligament across his chest which caused his heart to act up. He is ok now but has to take it easy until the muscles return to normal.

Cynthia sold her aquarium and all her fish to Mrs. George Allen's sister Mrs. Mary Millard who lives just a house away from us on Tavern Road. She bought it for her daughters little boy who lives in Long Beach and was thrilled to buy it.

Mrs. Dick Ladd was saddened last week when her little Doxie Dumbo got chewed up by a big German Shepherd. She took him to the vet but it was too late as he had internal injuries.

Timmy Rowan is back on crutches. He just got his ankle out of a cast last week and started to play basketball again when he was accidentally bumped and knocked down. This time he was lucky and only has a sprained ankle and torn ligaments but he has had his share of casts.

We just had a letter from our Aunt Adele and she said she is a grandma for the first time. Our cousin Marilyn Thompson had a baby boy last week and we sure are thrilled.

Richard and Diann Irely are anxiously awaiting their baby that is due the first of June. His mother used to be our neighbor, just recently moved to Chula Vista when her husband died.

Just learned that the winners of the Miss Alpine contest get to be on the Bob Dale show this afternoon at 4 and we are looking forward to going. Cathy Higgins, Cecile and Marty Hoy get to be on the Bob Mills program April 29th, then on May 18th Cathy, Cecile, and Marty are riding in the big Armed Forces Day Parade in San Diego.

ALPINE AIDS 200th SD YEAR

Vast planning for a gigantic celebration in 1969 of San Diego's 200th Anniversary is underway all over the county and Alpine is starting to do its part, reports Mrs. Gladys Pinkerton, past-president, Alpine Lively Oaks Club and director of its famous Hillbilly Band.

"We had as our guest at Monday's potluck lunch", she reports, "Mrs. Earl Nottingham, who is co-chairman with Mrs. Frank Curran, wife of San Diego's mayor, who explained the huge program that is planned".

with Mrs. Pinkerton. They visited the Sun office to leave data on the year-long celebration which will be highlighted by the International Guest Extravaganza on Feb. 28, 1969, in which Alpine will take some part. They will have an all-day program, luncheon, and banquet with a parade of guests in full regalia of their native lands.

Mrs. Pinkerton is representing the speakers' bureau of the United Senior Exchange for the 200th, through clubs, notices and contact of individuals who will be on hand to help promote the big year.

"It is hoped you can embrace some unusual project which will draw special attention to our community", she invited. Call or write 445-3865, or Rt. 1, Box 370 A, Alpine.

They had a difficult job to assess the value of the 11 comely young contestants, came up with a solution.

MARTIN LUTHER KING

To the Editor:

Martin Luther King has gone from the earth's scene felled by an assassin's bullet, I feel a deep sense of personal loss although I was never privileged to meet this great man.

Dr. King has taken his rightful place at the side of all the other saints and martyrs, men like Peter and John in the time of Christ, and Mathatma Gandhi in this century.

I have always believed that history repeats itself; his life and death were pre-determined, the name Martin Luther himself held ominous portent, and indeed he was a king, even more to his own race. To me he was a modern Moses endeavoring to lead his people out of a land of bondage; he epitomized the lines of the song "LET THERE BE PEACE ON EARTH AND LET IT BEGIN WITH ME".

His death now poses a challenge to his followers; will they let the radical forces prevail, which would be tragic for America, or will they pay tribute to the memory of this modern messiah by continuing his philosophy of non-violence?

Which way America? the handwriting is on the wall. We have been weighed in the balance and found wanting. This generation has the God-given opportunity to change this worn-out philosophy of inequality, so that this old world can indeed become Utopia to millions of humans yet unborn. -
