HATS OFF TO NATION'S SAFE TRUCK DRIVERS.

President Johnson proclaims May 12-18 as 1968 National Transportation Week and the country should honor the men who pilot trucks across the land and have fewer accidents than the general public.

Professional truckers have far fewer wrecks than any other group on the highways. Trucks account for 16.1% of registered vehicles in the US, but only 10.9% are involved in accidents, says the National Safety Council.

Autos, on the other hand, make up 81.3% of vehicles, but account for 85.5% in accidents. A study of 104,000 mishaps showed 70% were non-preventable on the part of the truck driver. In fatalities, 80% were non preventable.

As the result of industry training programs, these men today are "defensive" drivers, ever alert for other drivers' mistakes, and are highly skilled in driving their own big or little trucks.

It is hard to realize that the trucking industry is the 2nd largest in the US, next to agriculture, annual revenue being $11.1 billion in 1967, grown from nothing in 1900 when someone first strapped a box on the back of a horseless carriage and gave this industry its start.

By 1904 there were 700 trucks, most converted from autos. In 1920 there were over a million, and today there are 15 million! Now 3 out of 4 tons of freight are moved by truck: everything from lingerie to space vehicles!

And trucks pay their share for highways, about $4 billion yearly in federal, state and local user taxes. And their expenses are great: 21 billion gallons of fuel, 371 million gallons of oil, 21 million tires, 5 million gallons of paint, and many other items, used by their more than 8 million employees!

Courtesy and safety are their watchwords. They have a "10 commandments" for driving, topped by "Give other motorists the breaks that you wish they'd give you". Yes, let's salute America's truck drivers! -CI

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rix, South Grade Road, are elated over the birth of two grandsons, born 10 days apart. Their daughter Byrdine Catlett gave birth to a son, their second, April 15th in EC Valley Hospital and their son Raymond and his wife Sharon had a baby boy April 21st. Byrdine named her baby Cory and Sharon named hers Wm. Robert.

START PAVING FREEWAY ROADS

Monday big trucks carried hot mix from the new local plant of the Daley Co., to pave access roads, first being the Tavern Interchange one that goes west north of the freeway. They will start on the E. Victoria one this week, reports Jerry Smith, resident engineer, who says the job is going fine and on time. W. Victoria will also be paved this week. The big plant is turning out around 2000 tons daily. All access roads will be asphalt-concrete paved before the freeway gets its surfacing. It is nearly to grade now.

CANADIANS BUY HOME HERE

Carlton W. Farrow, former chief of police in Windsor, Ont. Canada, with his wife, have just bought and moved into the home formerly owned by Mrs. Bradley, where Mrs. Julia Cook lived till she died last summer. It is on So. Grade Rd. next to Mrs. Jean McCullough's place.

YOUR CofC AND YOU

Dr. J. S. Campbell, president, is hereby thanking the community for its cooperation in making the 7th annual Viejas Days a great success.

"So many worked so hard and gave so much" he says, "hence we all are grateful and hope that we may repeat it next season".

Mrs. Grace Palmer, chairman of the spaghetti dinner at the Woman's Club, and her committee said the dinner was a huge success.

Mrs. McQueen reports she and the teachers are grateful to the good people of Alpine for their help in making the Flea Market a successful venture. The Teachers can be proud of a job well done.

The horseshow and gymkhana were the best ever making more money than ever. The chamber now has operating funds. THANKS YOU ALL!

JODY SUTTON TO MARRY

HORSE TALK

By Cynthia Irvine McTaggart

Friday night we all went to the 2nd annual Indoor Rodeo in the SD Sports Arena, and enjoyed every minute of the show and especially the "Saga of the West" which was a fully scripted and rehearsed 10-minute production built around a herd of genuine Texas Longhorn steers, covered wagon with mules with a cattle rustling scene and hanging. We heard that Sunday's performance had some sad events with one cowboy getting kicked in the head and another getting a broken leg but Friday's show went off without incident.

We had gone to the press party the night before and had met several of the cowboys, some officials and Miss Rodeo America so had a little preview of the show. Chuck Henson and Wes Curtis were the clowns and Punkey, Curtis's 17 year old daughter even got in the act. We went to El Cap together and know her.

Pat Fulmer had a narrow escape Saturday. She had turned off the electric fence so the little kids next door, who were having a party, wouldn't get shocked if they touched it. The filly discovered it off and walked right over the fence and when Pat went to get her she heard a car blow the horn and off she went. It was just luck that she didn't get out in the street and get hit before Pat could catch her.

Celeste's little filly Angel cut her face and leg on the chain link fence and Dr. Immenschuh had to come up and sew it back in place. This is the second time Angel had to be sewed up, last time it was about 4 inches of her lip.

I have been working out Sultan, the beautiful Arabian gelding Jack Berg has for sale. Here I was on my way back to his ranch when Mama snapped this nice photo. The horse is beautiful, well trained and will make his new owner mighty proud.

My sister has her practically new bronco Western saddle for sale. It is a roughout with semi-square rigging, has a fiberglass tree and is a nice saddle with padded seat. After she bought it she decided she didn't want a roughout and hopes to sell so she can buy the one Woodie Mitchell has in the front of his store. Asking price is $130 and call 445-2394 if you care to see it or are interested. It cost $169.95 without tax.

MOTHER'S DAY SUNDAY

Sunday is Mother's Day, so this may remind you to not forget the greatest lady in your life, your own mother, she who gave you life, nurtured you, watched over you, sacrificed, and above all-- loved you dearly. You may get her flowers, candy, books or other gifts and cards, but try to see her, or if she is in another part of the world, phone her long distance.

LIVELY OAKS DOINGS

Monday's meeting brought out 26 members to enjoy the day playing cards and having fun. Next week the group is having their monthly potluck luncheon and if you bring a guest, "Please have them bring a covered dish" asks Mrs. Emma Holmes, president. Lillian Lyman and Eve Coppock are hostesses for the day.

The money that the club made at last week's horse show was turned over to the Youth Center for the building fund.

Miriam Schultz is on the sick list, would like to hear from her many friends.

The annual bus trip to Del Mar is getting underway and "if you plan on going, make reservations early" says Mrs. Holmes.

The Citizens are sponsoring a card party June 3rd that is open to the public with Eve Coppock, 445-3669 and Mrs. Grace Palmer, 445-2316 taking reservations and also acting as hostesses. It is $1. per person and there will be table and door prizes and is from 1 to 4 in the Youth Center. All proceeds go to the building fund.

BANK'S BIRTHDAY PARTY TODAY

Luther Mohr, manager of Alpine Branch, Security First National Bank, is today observing the institution's 5th birthday with an open house from 10 till 5:30. Refreshments are being served and at 4:30 live entertainment by the Irvine Ranch Twins, Cecile & Celeste, will be presented. They will sing some Western and folk songs with the guitar.

MRS. COLBY INSTALLS

"A Dream Come True" was the theme used in by Mrs. Manila Colby, past president, Southern Dist., Calif. Federation of Women's Clubs, in installing officers of the new Las Donas Past-Presidents Club at a luncheon meeting at the Top Shelf Tuesday. The group has 80 members.

EAST COUNTY FAIR LOOMS BIG

Wayne Johnson of the EC Jaycees which is staging the annual East County Fair, May 29-June 2, says that the largest variety of exhibits ever shown here will be on display this year. G. M. will have its Cheve Truck shown in an inflated structure on the grounds.

"Already the exhibit tent is 85% sold and the outside space is 98% taken" he says. Details from 444-2942 or 447-3979.

Entries for the fair's queen are beginning to come in. Two from Alpine are already entered: Cecile Irvine, sponsored by the Lively Oaks Club, and her twin, Celeste, sponsored by Alpine Optimist Club.

More from the back country are expected, says Johnson. See last issue for details on entering.

SCOUT FAIR TOMORROW

From 11 to 6 Saturday Boy Scouts will have their big day in the county, for at Del Mar fairgrounds Scouters are putting on their annual Scout Fair with over 200 exhibits and a show with John Gary, TV & recording star, in the grandstand show.

Children under 18, accompanied by an adult, are admitted free. Ticket sale is soaring, so if you want to see some fun and excitement, be there tomorrow. It's a really worthwhile show of what Young America is doing-- on the good side-- that is.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sevcik leave Saturday for a months tour of Alaska and Canada, their first there. They go by bus, train and boat and are looking forward to a wonderful trip and vacation.

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile and Celeste Irvine

We both were sorry we couldn't stay at the horshow Saturday but had to go to Channel 39 and cut Saturday's tape. We also missed Sunday's show because of being on the big birthday party that Radio Station KOWN put on in Felicita Park in Escondido. We had to be there by 10 and didn't leave till 5 so that sort of shot the day. The show was broadcast live from a grandstand in the park and we entertained along with Smokey Rogers, the Julian gunfighters the Cumberland Peapickers and lots of bands. Over 6 thousand people attended the affair and free beer and pop was brought in by truckload. We got a big charge out of signing autographs for little kids.

Pat and Woodie Mitchell and their daughter Imogene and her family drove over for the afternoon and had a good time. It was the first time we had seen Fred Williams & his Julian Gunslingers in action and it is sure packed full of action and excitement. They are moving part of their operation down to Pat and Woodie Mitchell's ranch in Sleepy

This evening in Fuller Hall the Acacia Club, made up of Masonic families, is putting on its monthly potluck at 6:30. All Masons and their kinfolk are invited. Doretta Brown will show some slides of her recent trip to the Northern States.

"Don't forget that you must have 2 rearview mirrors" reminds Capt. R. Gautsche of the CHP, "and one must be outside on the left. A new 1967 law calls for this added safety measure."

ALPINE IN ARMED FORCES PARADE

Starting at 10 in SD, the big Armed Forces Day Parade next Saturday, May 18, will this year have two carloads of Alpiners, plus some others. First will come Boy Scout Troop 105 with Larry Glavin, Troopmaster.

Then a car driven by Dr. J. S. Campbell, president of the chamber of commerce, with Nikki Menconi in the front seat. In the back, Miss Alpine, (Cathy Higgins), with the first two runners-up, Cecile Irvine and Marty Hoy.

A second car, with Supt. of Schools Paul Clay who is Lt. Gov. of the Kiwanis this district, and with him, Editor Irvine of the Sun. In the rear will be Miss LeNore Widmer, PTA president; Mrs. Grace Wilcox, Woman's Club president, and Mrs. Emma Holmes, Lively Oaks Club president.

Following will be the new Girl Scouts with their leader, Mrs. Kris Vale.

Lukens Pontiac is graciously furnishing the two automobiles.

SUN CAN RUN YOUR LEGAL ADS

Many do not realize that if they operate under a fictitious name or one that does not show actual names of owners, they must file a certificate with the county and run it in the paper where the business is, for 4 weeks. Also if your certificate is 5 years old, it is void and must be redone. The Sun has the forms and takes care of the whole matter at a reasonable cost, including affidavits for bank, county, etc.

No doubt the happiest couple in Alpine Wednesday was Robt. and Nikki Menconi-- of Nikki's Shop, Hwy 80-- for their son Gary, 16, arrived by bus from the Northwest where he had been on a ranch with relatives. They brought him over to the Sun office where a photo was made of the jolly trio, for next issue.

MOATS ENJOY HAWAII

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Moats are back from a delightful two weeks visit to the Islands where they went to visit friends and enjoy a holiday. They spent a week on Oahu and another on Maui, took in all of the places of interest. While away Mrs. Moat's sister Alice Lacher looked after their home in La Mesa. She had driven out from Pittsburgh for a vacation.

At Ft. Ord Pvt. Jack L. Stotts, USA, 20, son of Mrs. Mary R. Stotts, 563 Glenoaks Dr., completed a wheeled vehicle course in which he trained to repair engines and chassis components.

Gomez, with a third going to her sister, Maria.

The three medal winners went to Escondido to the North County dress review and modeled their own outfits.

ALPINE TO BE ON US AIR CHARTS

If you see a bevy of attractive women wielding paint brushes atop Al Hinkle Lumber tomorrow between 10:30 and 5, you will know what they are doing, for it is the El Cajon Chapter of the famed Ninety-Nines, Inc., an international organization of women pilots who have volunteered their labor to paint a directional symbol to aid pilots in knowing where they are when passing over.

Dr. John S. Campbell, president, chamber of commerce, says they are sponsoring the painting, which was sparked by Auren Pierce. The symbol will be an arrow pointing due south, 270 degrees, with SEE in big letters meaning Santee (Gillespie Field), and 12 miles, so the pilot knows he's only a short hop from the landing field.

Mrs. Carolyn H. Coulthard is chairman of the air-marking, with Mrs. Veronica Chambers as chairman of publicity. They visited here Tuesday, were photographed with Editor Irvine, the county's oldest pilot.

The charming lady pilots who will be painting tomorrow besides the above mentioned: Mmes. Wesley Bachman, Fred Breise, Richard Campbell, Florence Fraser, Ron Hill, Leah Liersch, Frank Ritchey, Robert Sanders.

This means that when the next FAA chart comes out instead of a mere dot for Alpine, it will have Alpine and the symbol, so all may know this spot, which is 116.46 W. Longitude of 32:50 N. Latitude!

Congratulations, Alpine, and thanks to those gals of the famed 99's.

E. H. BAREFOOT

Funeral and burial was in Alum Bank, Pa., last week for Edmund H. Barefoot, 56, of Tavern Road., who died on the Wednesday before. EC Mortuary was in charge of local arrangements. Survivors: a son, two daughters, all out of state.

handled by the handicapped.

"The handicapped youngster" says Durham, "loves to express himself in color; he can realize enjoyment and fulfill a need for accomplishment. The silk screen procedure is a beginning one which can be developed into a full-time vocation-- into fields of industrial advertising and printing".

The display was recently seen at the Instructional Aid Center in SD City Schools where they were enthusiastically received.

Mrs. Elizabeth West, librarian, has been putting on these monthly art exhibits for some time, welcomes any local artist to take part. Library hours: Thursday, 1 to 5, Saturday, 10 till 2.
