BETTER MEN MAKE BETTER NATIONS

"If all the world of young men could be Boy Scouts, we'd have a much better world" epitomizes the talks made Monday night at the Eagle Scout Award Court of Honor.

Henry Boney who made the presentation to Bob McMann, told how the police, judges and other law-enforcing officers, including the armed forces, show that Scouts just do not get involved.

"It is possible to change America, to have less crime, vandalism and such events if more boys were given the opportunity to become Boy Scouts", stated Boney, who has served many years in Scouting.

From the SD County Council of the BSA, came L. W. Leroy Cornie, assistant district executive of the Grossmont area, which includes Alpine. He took part in the rare presentation of this award.

Emceeding the program was Verne Iverson, local teacher, of Troop 105 Committee, institutional representative, shown in photo at podium as he read Eagle award to young McMann and his parents, at left.

MISS CAMPAIGNER IS UNIQUE DOLL

Mrs. Allie Vigneault, trailerite of Alpine, is an ardent hobbyist in dolls, has a large collection, keeps on adding to it, derives much pleasure from this unique hobby.

Here is her photo of Miss Campaigner, one of the most unusual. She is a 20" modern hard plastic doll with pretty blue eyes, long lashes, and brown curly hair. Her blue dress is covered with campaign buttons from all parties, and many different presidential campaigns. It would be impossible to name them all, but they include Garfield, Arthur, Landon and Knox, Wilkie and many others. In one hand she holds medal and presidential button of Pres. Dwight D. Eisenhower's inauguration, while in the other it is Harry S. Truman. In her hair she has a large picture button of Franklin D. Roosevelt and a small American flag.

COLOR GUARD WAS SNAPPY

First event on interesting Eagle Award program Monday night was presentation of the Colors-- Old Glory and the BSA flag-- by quartet of enthusiastic young Americans. From left: Phil Wedel, John Kochel, Keith Kelley and Tim Kochel. After the program they retired the colors in fine style, then posed for the Sun.

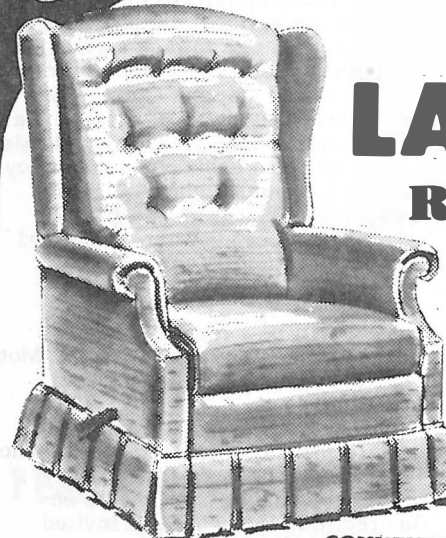

"Men that reach the highest and the quickest in all walks of life have been Boy Scouts", declared Henry Boney in his speech, "and men all over the land work many hours a week with our Scouts, helping to mold them into better men".

Louis Pick, realtor of EC, formerly with Don Bates Realty here, is in El Paso, Texas by car with his wife for a visit with daughter Lois Hennessy and their 8 children. While he is away Cindy Palmer is running his office.

U. S. NEEDS CHANGES, IN ELECTIONS, TOO!

It seems that everyone is disgusted with politics this fantastic election year. Many do not even care to vote. Others say they are sick of the tawdry politicking, that they may vote for Wallace, just to get away from the old haranguing candidates.

While the polls are usually fairly accurate, there could be many upsets when the count is all in. Concensus seems to be that Wallace will get a much larger vote than most observers look for,

STOLEN CAR FOUND HERE

Betty J. Matthews, 3124 Via Amata Center, SD, who had her 63 Rambler station wagon stolen Saturday, picked it up Monday at Lutz's Garage where it was taken after being found at the Willows. The ignition switch had been taken out and the CHP is working on the case. Emelia Kelly, bookkeeper at the garage said to the Sun Monday that "Willows Road and Anderson Road seem to be a 'hot bed' for abandoned cars." They look in these two locations first when a vehicle is reported stolen and usually come up with some lead.

HORSE TALK

By the Double C's

Anyone interested in a brand new ladigo saddle/ It has a 5-year guarantee plus padded 15" seat and fiberglass tree. If you want more information on this nice piece of tack, call Maureen Carrell, 445-4436.

Alpine Riding Club is sponsoring car washes once a month at the YC for $1. a car to help make money for their club. Dates will be announced later.

JoAnn Villa came over Sunday and showed us her new saddle and martingale which has buck stitching all over. It is quite beautiful and JoAnn is real happy with it.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Goss, newcomers to Alpine, bought the donkey Mr. and Mrs. Gillis had for sale. Mrs. Goss is going to break him to ride as she has had horses before and knows how to go about training him.

Gary Menconi took his horse down to Sunny Evans ranch in Santee to have him sell Baron. Sunny went to Colorado last week on a hunting trip and said he would look around for a nice quarter horse for him. Gary is keeping his fingers crossed as he wants a nice horse and something he likes.

Vicki Hughes has her two horses for sale as she is moving and can't take them with her. One is a 5-year old mare, half palomino and half quarter for $175. and the other is a 10-year old buckskin gelding she wants $125. for. We don't have her phone number but she lives on Anderson Road, so it isn't hard to find.

Newcomers to Alpine are Mrs. Barbara Branton and her 4 children. Her only daughter Robin has two horses and is interested in joining Alpine Riding Club.

Steve King, his parents bought the Wake property last summer, just bought a pretty green-broke quarter horse filly named Debbie. She is out of Direct Wind and he is enjoying the workouts with her. His little sister's horse Mindy is part quarter and part appaloosa. Both are members of Alpine Riding Club.

Alice Moya has a nice saddle for sale for only $85. It has a 15" seat and is real comfortable. Call 445-4135 for details.

Judy Lewis, she is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Clark, Tavern Road, got bucked off Friday while she was riding on the back of a friend's horse. She sustained a concussion and a bruised leg, while her friend only got a few bruises. She has her own horse but this time was riding double. The horse bolted and bucked at the same time, so neither could stay on. They were lucky they weren't hurt worse.

Linda Rushing's horse Maxey will be out of commission longer than she expected. When he injured his hoof several weeks ago on something sharp the vet had to remove most of the frog so he has to grow a new one before she can ride again. This will take several weeks which is too bad.

LeMAY IS GREAT AMERICAN

Despite the other candidates' slurring remarks about Wallace's picking Gen. Curtis LeMay for his running mate, the American Independent Party is backing the pair stronger than ever, declares Al Smith, chairman of the SD area committee.

The general created the world-famed Strategic Air Command during the Truman presidency, built it into a global fleet of nuclear bombers capable of 24-hour alert and instant retaliation.

Eisenhower appointed him vice chief of staff of the USAF and Kennedy made him chief of that important office. He remains America's outstanding airman, does not want to use nuclear weapons but says "We can win the war in Viet Nam with conventional weapons. I would like to see the war settled by negotiations, without the use of any weapons at all. I'd rather talk than fight any day".

Final advice to voters: "Do not scratch Marvin Griffith's name off your ballot (vice-president), just vote for Wallace, which means LeMay also".

Members and guests of Alpine Oaks Mobile Estates enjoyed a box supper and Halloween Party on Wednesday in the Recreation Hall. Ray Wieveg, general chairman and his committee worked hard to make the party a lot of fun for all guests.

POSITIVE LEADERSHIP SHOWS RESULTS

There must be a reason the 35th Congressional District is prospering. It is growing faster than any other in the nation. Why do so many people want to move and settle here? Why are entire industries relocating into the 35th District? Five Congressmen now share the District formerly served by only one.

Why has this area, constantly filling and refilling with new residents, continued to re-elect one man by overwhelming margins for the past eight terms?

There must be a reason... and there is!

Respected by his colleagues, those who observe his work most closely have this to say:

"Congressman Utt has repeatedly stood for fiscal responsibility; firm responsible opposition to the Communists; and for law and order for our nation." (Admiral Ben Moreell, USN (Ret.))

"If every member of Congress voted like Congressman Utt, there would be no Federal debt, inflation would not be a problem, our National military strength would not be in question, Americans would be paying lower taxes, and our wives and children would not be in constant fear for their safety." (Charles A. McManus, Exec. Dir., Americans for Constitutional Action).

On Tuesday, November 5th, cast your ballot where it will count.

Paid for by Utt for Congress Committee,

Hazel Hohanshelt was one of 6 California authors entertained by Follett Publishers, of Chicago, at a cocktail party at El Cortez, and dinner at L'Escale on Shelter Island last Friday.

The party of 20 included several So. Calif. librarians, Yolanda Federici, Director of Literary Research; Carole L. Fernow, Director of Library Service and Esther K. Meeks, Editorial Director of the Children's book department of Follett publishers.

Hazel and Mrs. Meeks have had a happy relationship of over 10 years when her initial book "Old Sam, Thoroughbred Trotter" was first published in 1956, and its sequel "Old Sam and the Horse Thieves", out in 1966. These two tomes have gained national recognition.

DEDICATE FLAGPOLE AT McCALL'S

All are pledging allegiance to the flag, about to be raised by Daniel Ferbal, of Mexico, a teacher at the school. At left is Dr. Roger Larson who said the prayer of dedication.

It was a most impressive occasion. Carl and Blanche McCall, 27-year residents of Alpine, who came here from La Jolla in 1941, felt that "everyone in the country should display the Colors every day to show appreciation for the many liberties and advantages we have, and that America is not entirely sick, but is forging ahead in every way".

Stand up and be counted before they lay you low and count you out!

Marion Bell is working in the dietary department of Grossmont Hospital and likes the job real well. She has to commute but says "it is so interesting" she doesn't mind the drive. Her brother Dave and his wife Debbie are expecting their baby sometime in November and can hardly wait.

Howard Presley is back in school after major surgery to remove his spleen. He was confined to the hospital and home for 6 weeks, so is mighty glad to be able to go back.

Eddie and Peggy Schwenck are back from a week's vacation to Utah where they went deer hunting. They bagged a nice one the first day out, so will have some good eating for quite a while. They left their little baby boy with Eddie's mother who enjoyed keeping little Kenny.

Next week the SD Humane Society is sponsoring an obedience training class for dogs. An experienced trainer will teach an afternoon class on Wednesdays starting at 1 pm, for 8 weeks. There will also be evening classes for those who can't make the afternoon session. There is a charge of $8. for the 8 weeks and you have to register in advance. Call 298-9887 and let them know that you plan on attending as they take only so many in each class.
