They were all out presenting the magazine Awake!, published by Jehovah's Witnesses which in-

MANY ENJOYED DARNELL TRAVELOG

Friday night a large audience took a fascinating colored slide journey to New Guinea with Alpine's mining engineer, Bal Darnell, pioneer in this area. The 1½-hour show was in the school Auditorium, presented by the Kiwanis Club, with no admission. "If he puts it on again, don't miss it," said Supt. Paul Clay. Some of the mining scenes were at 11,000 feet, helicopters being used in the task.

Lajoie, who is a pilot, lives with his wife and sons Jeff, 10, and Craig, 8, in the house built by Jack Hargens, who sold to the Frosts and is now owned by Mr. Kemsey, who plans to come here to live in August when the Lajoie lease expires.

"We worship in Kingdom Hall, on Hwy 80 in Guatay", declares Lajoie, "where Fred Hedger is in charge of the little church with 39 in the congregation". All are invited to attend Sundays at 10 a. m." he says.

 MANY ENJOYED
 ART EXHIBIT
 A balmy week-end favored the new Alpine Area Art Assn. when 14 local artists showed their handicraft and talents on the parking lot of the Woman's Club. There was everything-- oils, water colors, pastels, various craftwork-- to intrigue viewers and buyers.

Like the earlier Artists & Writers who showed here, the trees became gallery "walls" where beautiful works were hung and inspected by local folks and many passers through who stopped to have a look.

Any car will last a lifetime, if the driver is reckless enough.

VOTERS WERE JUST SCARED OUT ON PROP. 9

Back in WW2 Roosevelt said "The only thing to fear is fear" Which applies today the same as then.

Since the election we have talked with many taxpayers who said they voted for Prop. 9-- the so-called "tax trap" -- but that the voters simply got scared by the opposition's clever campaign against it.

Many were in a funk, trembling with plain fear, afraid that they would have to pay more taxes than ever, when this measure could have reduced property taxation.

Mrs. Margaret Coffee, campaign coordinator for #9, charged that the "no" people have made illegal filings of contributions. In part she points out that "We know that in San Francisco these allotments were set out by the campaign managers, Whittaker & Baxter; Banks, $225,000; oilmen, $225,000; utilities, $125,000; airlines, $50,000; railroads, $50,000, shipping, $40,000; trucking, $25,000, and $1.2 million from other sources."

The "Yes" campaign showed that the three largest oil producing states paid these amounts of the total state budgets from oil severance taxes; Louisiana, 30.84%; Texas, 16.91% and California, .03%.

To quote their campaign card: "Don't be fooled! By the special interests, their lobbyists and tax spenders. They will try to fool you into thinking that additional taxes for schools and welfare can only come from sales and income taxes".

So the trembling voters went into the booths and voted out the measure that could have reduced their property taxes.

When a family living in an ordinary home must pay from $40. to $80. a month for taxes alone, it is high time that something be done to relieve this scourge on the American home. People are losing ambition to own homes. When taxes become unbearable, we are on the way to some kind of a revolution! - CI

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scully hosted their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kirsch and son Steve to Thanksgiving Dinner along with Mrs. Scully's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Santoro.

TWINS TO SING ON COFFEE BREAK

When the Irvine Ranch Twins entertained the news media and guests at the press party last Monday week for the 35th Annual Electrical & Home Appliance Show in Cafe del Rey Moro, Raff Ahlgren, who knows the family, came over to their table and made arrangements for them to appear on his popular Coffee Break show. They will sing on Wed. Dec. 4, starting at 8:30 a.m. on Channel 6 TV.

DON KENEVAN TO TAKE BRIDE

Tomorrow at 10 a. m. the Wedding Mass will be celebrated in the Queen of Angels Catholic Church, W. Victoria Drive, for the marriage of Clementine Nelson and Donovan Kenevan, both longtime members of this parish, with Fr. Bolton officiating. A special guest, Dr. Roger Larson, of Community Church, will be a participant with the pastor.

The choir in which Mrs. Nelson was a member for 9 years will sing the High Mass.

In attendance will be Suzanne Fisch of San Diego, daughter of the groom, and Paul Koziol, of S. Dak., nephew of the bride.

Out-of-town guests expected to attend: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nelson, from N. Dak., son and daughter-in-law of Mrs. Nelson; Mr. & Mrs. Dick Cooper, daughter and son-in-law of Kenevan, and many close relatives and friends.

Mrs. Nelson has been housekeeper at the rectory for 14 years, 10 of which Fr. Bolton has lived here. Kenevan is a retired Alpine school bus driver for many years.

A small reception will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenevan for relatives and close friends.

PAYNES ENJOY REUNION

ALPINERS GET HUGE CATCH

This shows the filets of 85 fresh-water fish caught on the Colorado last week by Jack and Ruby Sptat of W. Victoria, just back from a brief vacation.

"All were caught in one day" he told the Sun when handing in this picture which proves his fish story!

Note- How about the chamber of commerce- of which Jack is a director-- coming up with the idea of building some kind of a lake here which would attract fishermen, boat fans and families with kiddies to wade and swim? Alpine needs some park and recreation facilities. Ed.

'HELPU HELPUS' IS PO SLOGAN

"If you help us, we'll help you, or 'Helpu Helpus' is our motto especially this year", declares H. T. Magnusson, postmaster at Alpine's burgeoning mail depot. Both sides may help each other in getting the big Christmas load over with, which is starting already, he adds.

"More than ever we need your help, cooperation, early mailing, proper addressing and the use of ZIP codes", says Magnusson, who, with his jolly, efficient family of workers is already preparing to handle the growing piles of holiday mail. One more point, when dropping Christmas cards in, kindly tie-out Alpine and outside pieces. That helps a lot.

HORSE TALK

By the Double C's

Lori Moxey is thrilled with her new registered quarter mare filly who is only 2½ years old. She is out of Rito Joe and El Sun Rey, and Lori already rides the horse, and has great plans for her.

Anyone have a small horse they want to sell? Evette Kluczewich wants one, mare or gelding, she is not particular. Call 445-4114 if you have something that is not a Shetland. They had one and sold it, and now want to try a horse.

is out of a registered quarter horse and a race horse, Call 445-2980 for particulars.

Our breakfast and horseshow Sunday was a great success as usual, with a good turnout at both events. The public was invited to the breakfast for only 50¢ and where can you get a complete meal for that? More horse enthusiasts should turn out for these affairs. They get you acquainted with newcomers, also club members, and are always reasonable. Winners will be announced in the Dec. 6th Sun as this one had to be printed on Sunday, too late for the results.

Little Bart Catlett is still looking for a pony saddle. If you have one for sale, call his parents, 445-2837.

2ND LARGEST EGG RANCH IS HERE

Most Alpiners do not know that this area has the second biggest egg ranch in the back country, shown above. It lies in a pretty valley off Japatul Road southeast of town. It is owned by the Campbell brothers, Chas. C. of Palo Verde Ranch, and Fred H. of EC.

The local brother is on the school board. With his wife Rose, he has 3 children: Laura, 9; David, 6, and Anne Marie, 4.

The ranch occupies 50 acres, has 20 layer buildings with 125,000 hens. At left are 4 grower houses with 7500 young hens, and 2 brooder structures with 35,000 wee chicks. They buy from several hatcheries in the Southland. Picture was made from Japatul road, looks northeast.

Foreman is Chester Harshman, who works with 8 employes processing the 2,400,000 dozen eggs laid in a year! At supermarket average price of 40¢ a dozen for all grades and sizes, money total would run around $960,000.

The ranch started operation in 1959. Today it uses 125 tons of feed a week. Part of the operation is automatic. Eggs are cooled then trucked to Wesco Egg Farms plant, 15305 Old Hyw 80 below town, where they are graded, processed, packed, refrigerated and shipped to all parts of the country. Wesco is owned by the Campbells and several other ranches.

The only one larger than Campbell's is Today's Egg Ranch on Chocolate Summit above Dunbar Lane. Another about the size of Campbell's is in Campo, and there are numerous others around this area nearly as large. Egg production is high because of the fine weather conditions.

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile and Celeste Irvine

We were surprised to see Bill McTaggart, sr., walk into our house Friday morning. He flew down from Ashland Thursday, so came over with all of the news from Cynthia, Bill and baby Julie.

They love Oregon, in fact, they have us almost convinced to move up. There is lots of skiing in the winter and he said the climate around Ashland and Medford is very like Alpine. We hope to go up sometime in the spring and see for ourselves. He said Julie was almost walking, and mimicking everything, and as sharp as they come. Sure wish we could see them but 900 miles is just too far to dash up and back in one weekend, and that is all we have right now. Maybe during spring vacation we can go.

Here is a good buy if you are in the market for a car to tear down and work on. Doris Scully is selling a 1960 Plymouth for only $75. It has good

MORE ABOUT SOCIAL SECURITY

When I needed teeth extracted my dentist thought it best that I be hospitalized as I was going to have dentures. I know SS would not pay for the dentist, but I was surprised when the hospital refused to bill Medicare for its charges. Were they wrong?

A. No. Where a patient is hospitalized for noncovered dental treatment, neither the professional services of the dentist nor the inpatient hospital services are covered by Medicare.

My mother needs help with her SS claim but has been ill and unable to visit the office. What should I do?

A. A visit to the office is preferred, but many matters can be handled by mail or telephone. If this is not possible, and your mother cannot travel to the office, a representative will visit at her home.

For other details the EC office is at 570 N. 2nd; open from 8:30 to 4:30, till 7:30 on Wednesdays. Phone 442-0851, Sumio Oto is district manager, James Seale, field representative.
