NEW FAMILY OF FOUR ARRIVES

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nielsen and two sons have just purchased the nice home on Olive View Road, owned by the Owen Waltners who, with their family have moved back to El Centrol Sale was by Anna Jerney, manager of Alpine Realty Co. Waltner formerly owned Valley Trailer Supply in EC., has one in the valley city.

TO BALLOT ON WATER TUESDAY

A proposed $200,000 bond issue will be voted on Tuesday by 35 property-owners in a 500-acre area near Hawley Road, reports Ed Houser, engineer-manager of Rio SD MWD.

The old water system, run by the Ed Fletcher people, would be repaired and improved, and run by Rio. If it passes, an improvement district will be formed, independent of the Alpine one which is a part of Rio. In the offing is residential development.

TAX EXPERT IS ALSO CRAFTSMAN

Here is jolly Pat Naud, in charge of the H & R Block Tax Office, 2140 Hwy 80, who, in odd moments, wields an efficient hammer and saw. She built this handsome and functional front desk from an old one cut in two, topped with formica, and trimmed in metal.

"It has plenty of knee room for our customers", explains Pat, preparing for income tax time.

BUYS 7 ACRES, PLANS DWELLING

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McDonald have just sold their choice 7 acres on Tavern Road, to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dawson. Sale was by Betty Hodges, of Alpine Realty Co. The Dawsons plan to build an attractive home.

The Southern gentleman was embarrassed that his wife made moonshine, but he had to admit he loved her still.

Here are two pretty little pixies that presented visitors with carnations at the huge Gustafson Christmas party Sunday in their well known furniture store in SD.

YOUNG HINKLE BECOMES ENSIGN

Alfred D. Hinkle, 24, son of the Al Hinkles, on graduation from Officer Candidate School, Newport, R.I., was commissioned an Ensign in the USNRF. His wife is the former Gretchen Polster of San Jose. To make this grade he had 565 hours of instruction in various naval procedures.

4H YOUTH TOILED

Here Mrs. Anna Jerney, who ran the Thanksgiving dinner in Fuller Hall with Martha Schwenck and members of the 4H club, points out some victuals to be served the throng that enjoyed the free feast, an annual affair. Nobody in Alpine was lonely or hungry on that day.

C.A. Rollberg, sr., and wife are back from a trip with camper over to Little Pass and Blair Valley in the desert where they had Thanksgiving. "It was mighty windy, but beautiful" he reports.

"JOEY," screamed the mother, "did you fall down with your new pants on?"

"Sorry, mom," Joey replied, "there wasn't time to take 'em off."

THE GOOD THAT MEN DO LIVES AFTER...

My friend Upton Sinclair who died at 90 last week, and had 89 fine books to his credit, did a lot of good for America that is living and will live forever after his death.

He lived long enough to see many of his ideas become law, ideas for the good of the underdog, the working man, the people, that have made our country a better place in which to live.

CHAMBER NEEDS YOU!

H. T. Magnussen, president of the chamber of commerce says "If you are not a member of this body, you should be."

"Alone a man can do little to build and maintain this nation's strength", he says. "But men working together can build community strength. Your local chamber, the place where members are putting their minds and shoulders together to improve the community, has great 'carry back' benefits to you, your business, and Alpine. Join now and help!"

The present war on poverty is not new, for Sinclair had that plan some 30 years ago. Many will remember his Utopia plan when he ran for governor here. I was on his committee in LA, worked hard for it, but like other legislation, the opposition scared the little people so they voted it down. (See editorial last issue).

When the author was but 28 his greatest book "The Jungle", came out. In that novel he exposed the deplorable conditions in the Chicago stockyards. Shortly after Congress passed the Pure Food & Drugs Act. It is still protecting the American public.

He went out after big business as a Socialist, and he aroused the public so much that the vested interests could not defeat his inspired legislation. If you want to enlighten yourself, read his startling book "The Money-changers", and "The Brass Check", or "Damaged Goods". And if you want to know how depressions happen, read "Upton Sinclair presents Wm. Fox". This book he presented to me. It tells how the Morgan big business octopus made the 1907 panic and others.

Yes, Sinclair started the move, very modern today but modern back in 1906, with Dr. Sylvester Graham, to protect the public from fraud. He was a living example of the old saying "The pen is mightier than the sword". -CI

WANT ACCESS ROAD TO LAKE

Jack Spatz, director of the chamber of commerce, and an ardent Isaac Walton, is working on the project to get a gravel road from Peutz Valley down to El Capitan Lake where there is good fishing.

"Why should we have to drive over 20 miles to Lakeside and up El Monte Road to get to the lake when we could get there in a few minutes if we had even a rough road down from here?" he queries.

Jack talked to Assemblyman John Stull who says "I'll do all I can to get such a road".

"Alpine has many fishermen who could enjoy this lake, and it would be a fine thing for Alpine", avers Jack.

HORSE TALK

By the Double C's

To help raise money for our annual party Dec. 20, our riding club is sponsoring a Christmas cookie sale Saturday, Dec. 14, in front of the Empire Market. If you haven't time to bake this year, now's your chance to stock up, as we hope to have all kinds to select from. Come early as home made cookies sell fast.

The next day, Dec. 15, is our last and final gymkhana show for 68 and starts at noon with breakfast at the YC earlier. Trophies for the past three shows will be given at the Christmas party. The three top riders so far are Celeste Irvine, Julie Adams and Mike Scully, but several other members are running close and could take over so it is anybody's race.

A classified ad in the Alpine Sun helped Paula Anderson sell her pinto gelding last week. She wanted to go to Washington, DC, for a job and couldn't leave the horse, so ran an ad and sold him.

Lisa Pierce bought a jumper two weeks ago and he is in training now with Dick De Matteis of Rocking H Ranch, Tavern Road. As soon as he is finished out, List hopes to show him.

Mary Lou Sands, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Wilcox, is now living in San Antonio, Tex., with her husband and two little girls. They bought boarding stables with 30 stalls and are in business. Mary Lou, always an enthusiastic horse lover, has 4 horses of her own. Her husband Tony, is a SGT. 1/c in the Medical Corps.

Karen Rash has her 4-year old colt for sale. He has had quite a bit of fraining but needs finishing. Call 445-4010 if you want more details. Asking price, $250.

At our last bakesale, some one took home Maureen Carrell's glass pie dish that she had baked a pumpkin pie in. If you have it, please return to her or call 445-4436 as she needs it.

Joan Spackman has her two Shetlands for sale, one fine stallion and the other a mare, in foal. She has to sell them soon as she has to move and can't take them with her. Call her at 445 2772 for details. She also has two saddles so if you are looking for a pony for Christmas, better call quick or they will be gone.

Monday night Alpine Riding Club is holding a meeting at the Irvine Home, 2229 Tavern Road, to make plans for the Christmas party to be held at the Adams home Dec. 20. Celeste is the chairman and if you want to help with arrangements, please come, 8. p. m.

NEOPHYTE HAS FINE DISPLAY

With but three years of instruction behind him, Casey Deren of 1511 Alpine Terrace, is receiving plaudits from art lovers for his nice display of oils, December's contribution to the monthly displays now in progress at Alpine Library.

Deren, who has lived here a year with his wife Kathy and their 1½-year old daughter Ruth, is a teacher in SD schools. In January he will attend Cal Western going for his master's and Ph.D. in Human Behavior and Psychology.

"My lack of artistic talent and experience have occasionally led me to moments of discouragement", he explains on a sheet below one of his paintings, "but the kind and reassuring words of my wife have led me to persevere. It is to her that I attribute the success and satisfaction of my hobby". Which proves the old theme that behind every successful man there is a woman-- wife, mother or other inspiration.

He started 3 years ago in Oakland, later studied Oriental techniques while stationed overseas. His present instructor is Paul Crutcher of SD. He prefers landscapes, having already annexed one first ribbon.

"Painting is a journey into originality, like sculptering, writing verse or music, is an avenue of expressing personal creativeness", he declares. "Stop in and enrich your inner self at these exhibits," invites Librarian Elizabeth West, "hours are Tuesday & Thursday, 1 to 5 and Saturday, 2 to 4.

OLDTIMERS RETURN FOR HOLIDAY

John & Holly Chapin, former members of Community Church, who left here 10 years ago after living on Hwy 80, later on Arnold Way, now of Orange, spent Thanksgiving renewing old friendships, dining with Rennie Hollett and Dallas Lore. Chapin, retired from the USN, called the Sun to say "hello". They returned home Friday. Many will remember them for they fancied cats, had quite a number.

GET OUT THOSE HOLIDAY LIGHTS!

Mrs. John Titus, chairman of the chamber of commerce Christmas Decoration Spirit and her aide, Mrs. Emelia Kelly, have started enthusiasm for the annual lighting contest which opens Monday, Dec. 16, entry deadline. There are two categories: home and business.

"Glow little Alpine, Glimmer", is the slogan, and all residents are urged to make the town really glimmer. There is no need for blanks, just phone your entry: Mrs. Titus, 445-4166 or Mrs. Kelly, 445-2967.

Judging takes place till Dec. 22, and trophy awards made on that night. Lights should go on at 5:30, till 10, right up to Christmas. "And keep them lighted till Jan. 1, to herald in the SD 200th birthday", they say.

Awards will go to grand prize winners along with six others for originality, creativity and best use of lights, including honorable mention for best use.

The best way for business to keep on the upgrade is to stay on the level.

POSTAL ROUTE PATRONS CAN HELP

Christmas mail, cards and or letters, either at the PO or on the rural route, should have 6¢ stamps affixed, advises H. T. Magnussen, postmaster.

"We want to expedite your mail" he says, "so it will aid us if rural patrons will affix stamps on all matter, and remember, sealed or unsealed, it must carry 6¢ stamps".

"Lastly, mail early during this month, and use of zip code will also hasten delivery," he adds. And to help the carrier, be sure that mailbox has your name and number plainly painted on it.

3000 ENJOY XMAS PARTY

Bob Gustafson who lives with his family in Alpine, with his father, Marvin, who operate Gustafson Furniture, EC Blvd. at 30th in SD, staged their third annual Christmas party Sunday in their lovely store.

The place has been in operation for 42 years, has friends and customers all over the Southland and Arizona. Guests were there from everywhere including Yuma and Phoenix, Imperial Valley and LA.

It was a huge success with music by live groups and the organ, and a cafeteria-style tasty buffet lunch, starting at 2, lasting till evening.

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile and Celeste Irvine

We just learned that Mr. and Mrs. Jack Berg are back in California. He and his wife went to Thailand last year on business and have just returned. They are presently living in SD with their son, but have property here, so just might come back and build a new home.

Nellie Keller called us from Chula Vista Monday with the sad news that her little Chihuahua, Peppy, had died in his sleep. She has had a lot of bad luck with her dogs these past few years and we feel sorry for Nellie and Ted. She now has a little Minpin that Mrs. Eve Murray gave her, but says "if anything happens to this little puppy, I won't get any more". It is just too hard to take. We know how hard it is to lose a pet when you get attached to it.

We are looking forward to Christmas vacation, as we plan a skiing trip to Big Bear. Daddy doesn't want to go, so will remain home, and Mama will drive up with us. We can hardly wait, and then in April we are going with the Ski Club to Mammoth Lake. Should be exciting.

Mary Fitzgerald was lucky again when she was chosen to appear on the House of Pancakes float in a cute costume. She was Princess of the parade in 1966 and has had lots of interesting things happen to her since then. She also has been lecturing to Girl Scouts on beauty and makeup as she is a graduate of Patricia Stevens modeling school, is presently working for them in their SD office.

Rosalind and Juan Montano are happy with their new baby boy she named Mike. Her last name used to be Cooley.

Bob McMann is driving around in a new 67 Malibu, is thrilled with the car. He is attending Grossmont College and also working part time, so needed a car.

Frances Bispo, 1968 Dairy Princess, is here in SD this week visiting, will appear at the annual Eggnog party sponsored by the SD Milk Council.

Don't forget to get tickets for the calf drawing George and Maureen Carrel are having on Dec. 21st. Every time you buy something at their Hay and Grain store, 2424 Hwy 80, you get a ticket and have a good chance of winning, so get your food and vet supplies through them and keep your tickets for the drawing.

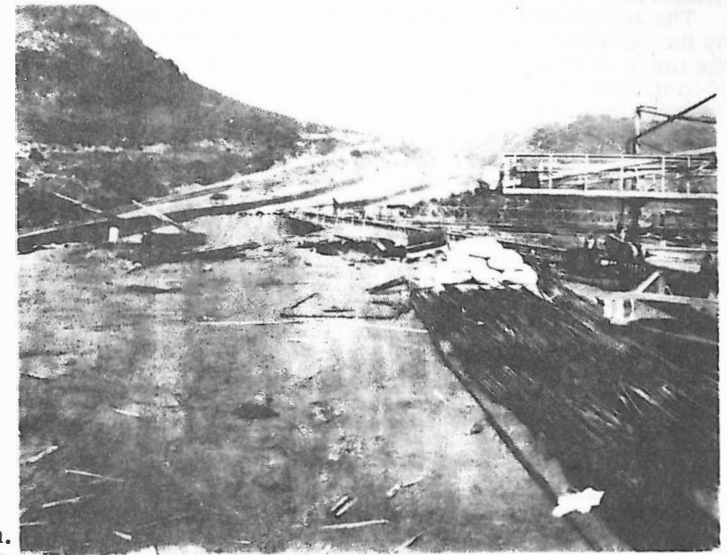

Anyone want two part German shepherd dogs, 2 1/2 years old and also very good watch dogs? Call 445-2394 or 445-2415 if interested. Our neighbor, Roy Provence, moved to SD and can't take them, also doesn't want to take the dogs to the pound so needs to find a home for them this week. One is a male, the other female.

Little Angela Fordney is celebrating her first birthday next Wednesday and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fordney, Hwy 80, are having a real party for her. Our little niece, Julie McTaggart, is also going to celebrate her first birthday but not until Dec. 23rd.

FINISH FWY BRIDGES

Here is one of the final links in the Alpine section of US 8, the two Peutz Valley bridges. The one on the left is finished, while the machine at right is smoothing out the concrete ready for final topping on the westbound lanes.

This links the stretch below to the upper end of the present freeway, which will be connected and opened next month.

PRESS PARTY OPENS EGGNOG ERA

Thursday night news media-- newspapers, radio and TV-- gathered as guests of the SD Milk Council at its annual press party in the Vally Ho in S.D., to usher in the festive season.

Present was pretty Frances Bispo, 19, the 1968 California Dairy Princess from Merced, in SD for a week. They had close to 400 guests. Wednesday the young lady enjoyed a tour of the SD Zoo, accompanied by a dozen children while she bottle-fed milk to many baby animals.

When the minister asked a small boy how he liked his first church service, the child replied, "The music was nice, but the commercial was too long!"

DON ARCHER MARRIES

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Farr, 9221 Pemmar Road, Santee, announce the marriage of their daughter Frances Farr, 19, to Donald Archer, 20, of 1533 Lilly Ave., EC. The wedding took place on Thanksgiving Day at 11:30 in the Guardian Angels Catholic Church, Carlton Hills, with Father Smith officiating.

Best man was Don's brother Jimmy, with the bride's sister, Mrs. Madelyn Arnold, as maid-of-honor. A reception followed in the Farr home.

Don and his family lived in Alpine for 10 years, only recently sold, moved to EC. He is with the Helix Water District. After a brief honeymoon, the young couple are making their home in EC. Don graduated from El Cap while Frances was a graduate of Santana.

INSTALLATION FOR OAKERS

Alpine's senior citizens, the Lively Oaks Club has slated their installation of 1969 officers for Monday next in the YC with Mrs. Emma Holmes, president, to be chaired as reelected prexy.

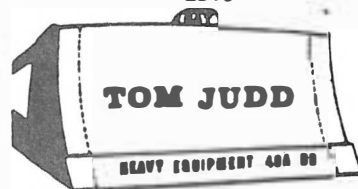

A ham potluck lunch will precede the ceremony, so "bring a dish for 5, we furnish the ham" she invites.

On the 23rd they will have their Christmas and birthday party for those whose natal day falls in December.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zimmerman and their committee had a delightful Thanksgiving dinner for the residents of Alpine Oaks Mobile Estates, served over 65 people.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lipetsky and children entertained her sister, Mrs. Ginny Baird and children and her mother Myrtle Jackson, who drove down from LA to spend Thanksgiving weekend with them.

TRY THIS IF YOU CAN'T SLEEP

Sometime ago your editor for some reason woke up around 2 a. m. and tuned in the radio to see what was on. We got the Night Owl show with an adept conductor, Ron McCoy, on KFI, the "turned on station" in LA, 640 kw.

It is on from 11:30 till 4:30, and has been going all over this hemisphere on that 50,000 w station for over 18 years. People call in from everywhere, chat, talk on many topics, ask questions, air their beefs and what not, plus someone always reminiscing about the early days in show biz.

That intrigued me so I called in to Ron one morning and told him about naming Ramon Navarro who was recently murdered in Hollywood. So he quizzed me a bit and now wants me to come up and be a guest on his show.

So, if you have a sleepless spell, tune in Ron and listen to the fascinating talk-show that he presents. In time you'll naturally get sleepy, but not from the show. A spoonful of honey will aid insomnia better than anything we know of; get the idea from Vermont Fook Medicine!

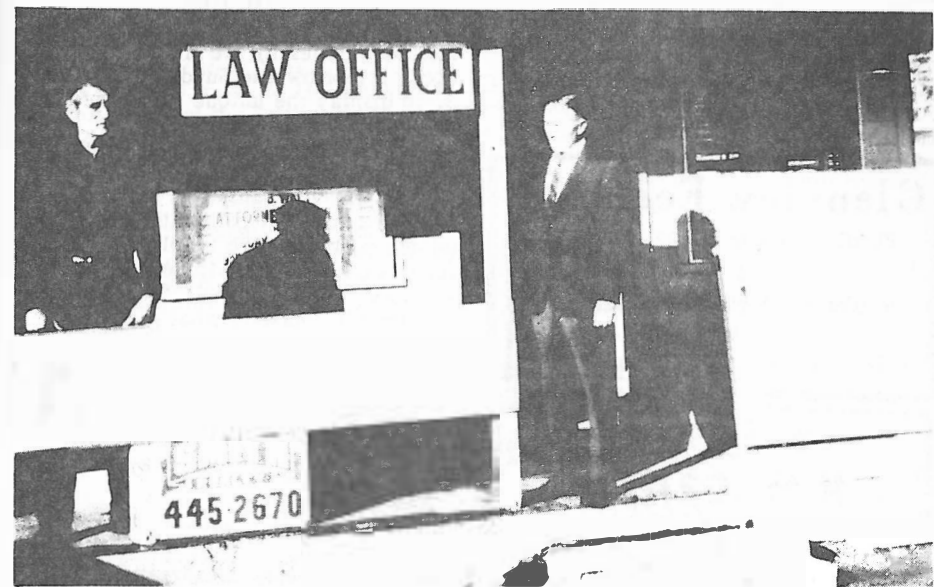

REXALL SAVES TEDIOUS TAX WORK

Jerry Funk, owner of Alpine Rexall Pharmacy, 2109 Hwy 80, has just installed a new departure service for customers by using data processing on all charge slips, thus saving the customer the work of listing deductibles for his annual income tax return.

"This new computer service is free and will save a lot of time", says Funk.

SMITH REALTY IN NEW OFFICE

Alpine business is moving up Hwy 80 a bit for Al Smith who has a realty office here recently went eastward to 2530, next door to Dick Mason, signman, also moved to this area from downtown.

Here Smith is shown at right, with salesman, Archie Frogge, who lives nearby, keeps the office open most of the time.

"Our main quest is for listings" they both claim, "we have callers for homes, lots, acreage-- one man wants 1000 acres near to Alpine".

REPUBLICANS MEET THURSDAY

William F. House, publicity chairman for Mt. Empire Republican Assembly, announces that the December meeting will be held Thursday, in Fuller Hall with a potluck dinner starting at 6:30. "Everyone attending please bring a cooked dish or dessert and your own table service. Coffee will be furnished", House says.

The program will be presented by Dr. Roger Larson, pastor of Community Church, who will show slides of his recent trip to Jerusalem.

PLANNING OPEN HOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Swordloff (Dr. Mildred Bredezen) are holding open house tomorrow and Sunday from 10 to 3, to display the unique line of products from the Constan Company.

All of the cosmetics and cleaner items are organic. Dr. Bredezen also will display the Sculptress bra and Fashion Figure control garments plus Je-unique Fashions. She is sole distributor for this company in Alpine, and invites you over, also to sample the cosmetics and see for yourself, what they have to offer.

MURRELLS HAD HOLIDAY HOUSEFUL

Thanksgiving was a delightful day at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Murrell, managers of the forthcoming Vista Alpine Mobilhome Estates, 2400 Hwy 80. Their son, Gary E. Saylor, his wife and three young ones of SD were up for dinner. Also their daughter, Mrs. Hermine Hull and daughter, from Orange. Two more guests, The Rev. Donald Rice from Marion, O., and his brother, Ray, of SD enjoyed the family day.

FIRST PUBLIC SHOW OF SUN STILL

One fascinating exhibit at the recent home show in SD was a domestic solar water still made by Horace McCracken, head of the Sunwater Co., of SD. He produced distilled water from plain city water in the still, operated by a battery of electric spotlights producing heat equal to that of the sun, then iced it and many partook of the fine drinking water. This is the first time McCracken's product was publicly demonstrated and it created a lot of interest.

Note- The Sun has one of these producing 1 gallon a day, of pure water, used in the home, darkroom and in offset printing. -Ed.

ALPINERS HELP UNICEF

"The Christmas card sale in front of Lakeside postoffice to benefit Unicef has done remarkably well" says Mrs. Jerry Lipetsky of Alpine. Helping on the project from here are Dorothy Hem, Harriet Lewiston, Lori Arndt, Marty Parsons, June Bowler, Glo Newton, Betty Lee Brooks, Barbara Svensson and Marcie Hem.

All money taken during this sale goes to Biafra and is a worthy cause. Mrs. Lipetsky says "if you haven't gotten your greeting cards, come down and browse, they are truly beautiful".

WOMAN'S CLUB PLANS PARTY

The annual Christmas party put on by Alpine Woman's Club will be held Tuesday, at 1:30 in the club house. Bea LaForce has charge of the program with Mrs. E. J. Orborne acting as hostess.

President Grace Wilcox reminds members to please bring a white gift for the needy and also a present for their own gift exchange.

THERE ARE two times in a man's life when he doesn't know anything about women—before marriage and after marriage.
