TWO MORE FIREPLUGS PAID FOR

At the last session of the fire board outgoing Chief Ron Cook was authorized to order four tires for Pumper Truck No. A-4.

Rio SD MWD was also in line for a check of $962.56 for two more hydrants, one at Anderson & E. Victoria Dr., and one at Tavern Road and White Oak Drive. Other current bills were ordered paid.

RAIN, FLU, WATER DELAY FREEWAY

While they had planned on opening the Alpine section of US 8 on Monday, Dec. 30, target date has been set up cautiously till Jan. 15, Jerry Smith, resident highway engineer told the Sun Tuesday.

"Several things conspired to delay it", he states "first the rains, then the flu, and an under-drain installation at the W. Victoria bridge where the water table rose so that we could not open the road there."

LUTHERAN YOUTH WORKED HARD

Vicar Lyon and his wife shown here with a group of young people from Lutheran Church decorated the church for Christmas, then had a feast at the rectory, integral with the church. Christmas was a festive occasion here.

He says that the Daley people are doing a real good job all the way. Paving is finished at Peutz Valley bridges, Tavern Interchange done, so the entire stretch to the Willows is ready.

As to an opening ceremony, that is up to Alpine people as the C of C.

Alpine Postoffice is 102 years old, having been started by Whitney the grocer in 1877. Mail came up weekly from El Cajon on horseback.

4Hers ENTERTAIN

Alpine's busy 4H Amigos brightened the day for one building at Alpine Convalescent Center when they went up Tuesday and sang Christmas songs for them, also presented each patient with a gift they had requested.

In the evening several cars with members went caroling and then enjoyed a party at the home of Donna Schwenck afterwards.

DESCANSO MAN WINS CALF

Ton LaNier was the winner of the calf Saturday morning given away by George and Maureen Carrell, owners of Carrell's Feed Store. Other winners were Robert Webb, Pat Weaver, Mace Bratt, Kim Kendricks, D. W. Payne, Fred Moler, and L. Seaman. All were nice prizes and the Carrell's said "drawing was a huge success and everyone seemed satisfied."

POSTMASTER THANKS PATRONS

We wish to thank the public for its fine cooperation in getting the mail through ahead of the big rush", says Postmaster H. T. Magnussen, "and your postmaster and able crew thank all the patrons for their help. We also wish to thank the Sun for advising you how to cooperate to get the mail through with the least difficulty".

SHE CHOSE CALF WINNER

TO REVEAL XMAS LIGHTS WINNERS
Christmas Eve the judges in the chamber of commerce lighting contest will have made their decisions and the Sun will print the list of winners in next week's paper, with some photos.

EDITORIAL

WHEN WILL WE BE FIGHTING IN KOREA?

The country is mighty thankful today that the valiant navy men of the Pueblo are home with their families. Nobody knows what price we paid for their return.

But we are going to have to return to Korea to fight again and lose a lot of young Americans? At least South Koreans are wondering about how to stop Northern Communists from infiltrating southward.

Since the armistice of 1953 they have annoyed the southerners by attempting to set up bases for guerilla warfare, same as in Vietnam. As is well known, they are in Cuba, working on Mexico and Latin America.

It seems that the Communist seeds are about to bloom all over the earth; it has bloomed in close to a third of the world's population in the 50 years it has been going. It has liquidated millions, and thousands are dying every day in countries that have never had a free election since their confiscation.

Our boys coming home from Vietnam, which is just another Korea (with no-win policy), have seen the works of the develish plan, and that is why they are so ardently for being in Vietnam. These young fellows don't talk much, but you can learn from them. Apathy by America might just be its downfall.

We have plenty of apathy right here in our school violence and destruction. Law enforcement officers are paid to enforce the laws of the land. Why should anyone go free who sabotages costly books, buildings and so on?

We should arrest and jail most of these miscreants, plain criminals, who might be put to hard labor in rebuilding what they have destroyed. And why should a jailbird become a lecturer in colleges? Or an avowed Communist be allowed to speak on that dastardly topic.

Well, this is our last issue for 1968. We hope 1969 is better, and that you personally enjoy a happy holiday. -CI

CANCER SOCIETY HAS "IQ" BUTTONS

New year resolutions to stop smoking inspired the American Cancer Society to issue unique "IQ" (I Quit) buttons for those who turn over this new leaf. The societ's new state prexy, A. K. Jonas, is in SD with these buttons for distribution. To those who keep the pledge for a year a nice certificate will be sent, he says.

John and Leah McCarthy are hoping her mother, Mrs. Louella Anderson is well enough to spend New Years' with them. She fell and broke her back last August, was in Sacramento at the time, has been in bed in a rest home in that city since the accident. Her home is in San Diego, and if possible, will make it to Alpine for a nice visit with her daughter and family.

Entertaining Alpine Optimists at their jolly dinner Saturday night in Log Cabin Cafe were Cindy Ann Byers, playing Christmas pieces on the accordion, music being held by Randy Hine, her cousin. Kids made quite a hit with the club.

Robert and Lynn King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim King, Tavern Road, spent some time with them Monday night when they drove down from Los Angeles for a short visit.

Carol and Dale Greathouse entertained his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Greathouse of Chula Vista, their son Dick and wife Suzanne and daughter Vonnie at Christmas dinner Wednesday.

SEWER IS FUTURE PROBLEM

Here is a photo made at the last session of the Chamber of Commerce with H. T. Magnussen at the helm. Treasurer Jack Spatz reading his report. As postmaster he is pretty busy there, plus all the problems of the chamber.

"The sewer is our first one for 1969" he says "As we must enlarge to take care of growing population. We will have to tie in to Lakeside, or go into the metropolitan. If we enlarge our own, which must be soon, it would cost over a million. If we do not get the federal grant by March 1, taxes could go sky high".

Chairman Clayborne La Force is working on this in his planning committee.

WELCOME 1969 STALLION OAKS

Ed Torgersen and Tony Hutchins, his manager, are planning a gala New Years Eve party at that popular guest ranch, Descanso, from 8:30 p.m. Tuesday till 2 a.m. Jan. 1, 1969. They will have special music for the evening and a good time is promised for all, come in masquerade, they invite, more fun.

HORSE TALK

By the Double C's

The Christmas party our riding club sponsored at Al and Reenie Adams' ranch last Friday night was simply fabulous. The food was good and the entertainment kept the party going at a fast pace. Most fun of all was breaking the Santa pinata and it took little Carolee Reed to be the first one to spill the candy. Her sister Jackie won first prize, a nice rope halter, for the "Guess Who" game with Bob Menconi winning the boobie prize.

Julie Adams, Celeste Irvine and Mike Scully were trophy winners, coming in for high points for the three gymkhana shows the club held the last 3 months of this year. Jackie Reed came in 4th but didn't get a trophy. President Mich Reed presented all those who participated in the shows with a horse medallion. Members thought this a nice gesture and they were appreciated.

Mama was Santa wearing a suit that Nikki Menconi made and it was quite authentic. All in all, it was a memorable party with lots of good fun and all that went truly enjoyed themselves.

Because of the rain and cold spell before our car wash that was scheduled for the 21st, Tom Judd, chairman, postponed it until a later date. People don't want to wash their cars if there is a possibility of rain so he will set another time and we will have posters out so you won't have your car washed the day before ours starts. Tom and his crew turn out nice jobs for only $1. so "patronize the washers" says President Mich Reed, and you won't be disappointed."

Because their children haven't ridden the Shetland mare, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Glavin are selling their two ponies. One is a year old pinto Stallion and the other is his mother, a nice brown mare in foal. She is expecting in May and both would make a nice investment for someone interested in training the little male. Call 445-3870 for more information.

Tina, and Nita Miller and their friend Laura were out riding Friday and got caught in the unexpected snow storm Alpine had. They hurried home but said it was out of sight and they enjoyed seeing the huge flakes coming down.

Mrs. Frank Scheik arrived home from Tulsa last week after a month's vacation there where she stayed with her daughter. Her husband flew back to meet her and they returned together. Was a first flight for her, his second and both enjoyed the flight home.

WILL LIGHT UP FOR 200TH YEAR

Alpine is to join in the ambitious program of the SD 200th birthday year by keeping lights glimmering around the community along with the entire county. It is called the Warm Lights of Welcome to visitors from all over the world who will converge here in 1969. They suggest leaving Christmas lights up but insert yellow, amber and white globes for the yule colors. According to Chas. Cordell, president of the 200th, over 50 Kiwanis clubs have embraced this program.

Doug Payne, Japatul Valley, and his family spent the holiday with Mrs. Mary Tidd of San Diego, had a delicious dinner and memorable time.

NICE PARTY FOR OPTIMISTS

The husband-wife dinner at the Log Cabin Cafe Saturday night was a jolly affair for Alpine Optimist Club with a full house to enjoy the fine meal and good fellowship.

WHY MORE TRAILER PARKS?

The growth of mobilhomes, says industry chiefs, is lower labor costs and more stable prices. One says labor is but 10% of his cost, against about 50% for homebuilders. Those costs have climbed 35% since 1958. He still gets the same price for his 700-sq. ft. trailer! Another reason is the steady rise in land taxes which are really hurting homeowners today.

HONEYMOONERS TO LIVE HERE

Mr. & Mrs. Clark A. Chafee, were here Tuesday from Klamath Falls, Ore., to visit here daughter, Mrs. Barbara Voyles, of 50 Willowside Ter. Her husband, Gary Voyles, works at North Island. They have an infant son, James.

The Chafees were married recently, came here on their honeymoon, desire to live in Alpine, visited the Sun office at Irvine's Trailer Estates, where they made arrangements to park their trailer in the near future. Chafee is a retired lumber mill man. They learned of Alpine's fine climate through the daughter who loves it here.

Jeanette Smart, former Alpiner, is here for the holidays staying with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Justin Gruelle, Lilac Lane. She will return to her home in Indianapolis Jan. 7th but is presently visiting friends here. Monday the Lively Oaks are having a party in her honor and all senior citizens are invited.

A good match is any marriage where the bridegroom is a man with money to burn.

JOGGING COMES OF AGE IN SD

The City Council has ordered the Recreation office to study a proposal for designating jogging trails in Balboa and other SD parks. Joggers have been using bridle trails but often find cars, motor-scooters and motorcycles using them, which is dangerous.

Note- Alpine should have some designated horseriding routes as youngsters often are endangered by cars going upwards of 60 mph along county roads. We do some jogging on our ranch, but would like to see trails set aside all around this beautiful community. -CI

Happy New Year to you all and guess 1969 will be another one filled with excitement and unusual happenings.

We are thrilled, as is everyone in the US, with the news of the Pueblo crew being released to their families. What a Christmas present that was.

Cynthia called and said Bill had given her a beautiful German shepherd puppy for Christmas and all she had done since was take movies of Julie, who was a year old Monday, and the new pup. She hasn't named him yet but will come up with something appropriate soon.

Tom LaNier of Descanso was the holder of the lucky ticket Saturday at George and Maureen's calf drawing.

He lives in Descanso, buys all of his feed supplies from their feed store here.

Alpine's Brownie troop had a delightful Christmas party last Thursday at the YC with a gift exchange grab bag. They reported a lot of fun during the afternoon.

Our friend Emily Nemechek got married Dec. 14 to Jim Risser in Lakeside Community Church. Her sister Margie was one of the bride's maids and another sister, Nancy, was soloist. Emily graduated from El Cap with Cynthia.

Yvonne Randall is back from Honolulu where she went to be with her husband Randy, who took his R & R there. He gave her a beautiful set of luggage for Christmas. Yvonne said coming home they hit a storm over the Pacific and she was never so scared in her life, was glad when they touched down in San Diego.

JoAnn Villa is working with her new steer and finding out he isn't as docile as a lamb. Saturday she got a rope burn when he charged out of the barn, was lucky she didn't get any broken fingers. He is her 4H project for this new year coming up.

Quite a few Alpiners have been hit by Hong Kong flu and one was little Matt Scully who had to spend Friday in bed and couldn't attend the Xmas party. Elizabeth Fordney is another and there are many others still in bed.

Donna Schwenck went out Friday in the snowstorm to check her ewe and found she had a baby. It was fine and had snuggled up to its mother all dry and warm. Donna said "it made quite a picture".

Don't forget to put a circle around Jan. 14 if you want to have your dog vaccinated against rabies. That is the time the vets will be in Alpine to give you dog a shot and remember you can't get a license for him unless you have this certificate first. It only costs $1.50, a saving of $3.50 if your vet does it.

HOPES TO LIVE HERE

Visiting Editor Irvine last week were these three, from left; Al "Papale", (Hawaiian for hat) Derby, who was born in the Islands, his daughter, Suzanne Gertrude, and her husband, David J. Shore, of SD.

How Al came to know the Sun was through the Night Owl program on Radio FKI in LA when its witty conductor Ron McCoy talked to Irvine on the phone regarding the Ramon Novarro murder. Derby heard it, being a Night Owl himself, so called from his home in Weaverville, wrote a letter, then came up to meet the former Honolulu newsman now publishing America's tiniest newspaper.

Shore, an electrical engineer, was for years with General Dynamics, now works for the Navy in SD. They all like Alpine, and Al might come here to live to be near his daughter, and numerous friends he has around the area.

He is an old pilot, grounded due to a stroke, but is improving on natural foods and other health measures. He flew an ancient Jenny at Ventura, but first aircraft he saw was on the polo field in Honolulu about 1911, flown by Bud Mars, "and they had to taxi it around by having men push it", he says, "The first hydroplane was flown at Pearl Harbor by Tom Gunn, a Chinaman. It took two days to get it off, then it just cleared the kiave trees".

Note- We hope Al moves up to Alpine as he is good for more interesting stories of the early days of flight.

HOUSING SHORTAGE WORSENS HERE

Until Alpine Village opens its first units of a 290-house project about Jan. 15, there will continue to be a difficult housing shortage here and all over the county. This is borne out by the Economic Bulletin of the SD C of C. "The housing shortage in SD is worsening, and the building boom will continue without interruption unless retarded by money difficulties or prohibitive construction costs". Interest is up, which may slow things.

STURDIVANT REELECTED IN ARIZ.

From Phoenix comes word that B. V. Sturdivant, Alpine pioneer who lives in Yuma where he operates theatres, and is president of the Yuma County Chamber of Commerce, has been named again to the presidency of NATO of Arizona, after being reelected by acclamation. His term goes through 1969. Sturdivant is Yuma County's "Man of the Year".

Also president of the Citizen's Association On Arizona Courts, Sturdivant declared that "the import which motion pictures has on the mores of society can not be over-emphasized".

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sandell, Eltinge Drive, entertained their son Gary, his wife Jayne and 3 children, Suzanne, Gary and Heidi for several days before Christmas, then drove up to their home in Downey for the holiday, spent the weekend with them.

Coming up before the 25th was Mrs. Sandel's brother Wade Farmer, and his wife Amanda who drove out from SD to visit with Gary and his family. All reported a happy time.

LANE HOISTED FLAG TO TOP!

After being daily hauled to half-mast in protest of the Pueblo's captivity, Richard Lane, Alpine builder, Tuesday hauled his colors to the top as the crew of the Pueblo was freed.

"Every day I set her at half-staff" he says "and said a prayer that the crew would be released, and it so came about".

Lane was publicized on TV, radio and in the press for his adamant position on this topic.

AIR SHOT REVEALS LOCAL GROWTH

Monday when the east wind cleared the air of pollutants and it was ideal for photography, Editor Irvine and Al Smith flew over area and made some high photos.

This, at about 7000', shows how downtown Alpine is growing, with the freeway nearing completion for opening next month. It looks west, Victoria Road, bridge at right where freeway goes under, now being paved, the last stretch in finishing stages.

In foreground note new Vista Alpine Mobil-home Estates with 151 spaces and old Dinosaur Park wooded area separating the two sections.

NEW FIRE CHIEF ON NEXT WEEK

January 1 Alpine will start the year with a new, professional, paid fire chief, Dale Bennett, reports the board of commissioners of Alpine Fire Protection District. His starting salary is $8400. a year.

He attended last session, outlined a part of his schedule when he assumes his new duties, coming from the EC department. He will reside in the apartment, to be enlarged, at the station, with his wife and two youngsters.

Al Adams, president of the Youth Center, told the board that a legal monument will be set indicating property lines before the new building is started on the station.

LOWER LONG DISTANCE RATES

Pacific Telephone noted with this month's bills-- which reflected the raise allowed-- that calls may now be made anywhere in the state on Saturday for the lowest discount night rates and they apply all weekend, from 6 p.m. Friday to 6 a.m. Monday. Other reductions have been made and ultimately 10¢ calls will be free.

Note- The holiday rate was also nice as you could call anywhere in the US for only 75¢ minimum. That was a real bargain! -Ed.
