Completion of the 5.7 mile stretch of I-8 through Alpine now links the Mountain Empire with the city by minutes, instead of miles; only 30 to SD, 15 to EC.

THEY DEDICATED NEW FREEWAY

Here is the Sun's photo of ribbon cutting by Miss Alpine, Cecile Irvine, last Thursday week, when notables gathered with quite a number of local folks to see ceremony.

From left: Don Walker, president, Interstate 8 Chamber of Commerce; Supervisor Henry Boney, Miss Alpine, Jacob Dekema, state highway engineer in charge of SD district, and H. T. Magnussen, president, Alpine Chamber of Commerce sponsoring the event.

Opened May 22 in ceremonies officiated by C of C president H. T. Magnussen and Daley Corp. Engineer Gus Jepeson, the 7 million dollar highway represents a record completion of a total 35-mile route from SD to Deadman's Curve.

According to Wesley G. Mohr, senior vp and general manager of the Daley Corp "The work went smoothly, thanks to your community cooperation. We built one of your first roads in the 1920's and it was good to be back in

POWERS FIGURE SALON OPENS IN EC

Mountain misses, who used to have hour glass figures but the sands of time shifted the weight into one spot, will discover new methods to slim and trim at the new Elaine Powers Figure Salon in El Cajon, 566 N. 2nd.

Managed by noted figure consultant, Kathryn Dawn, the glamorous spa features modern exercise equipment manufactured by them, an easy-to-take program of weight reduction, and a month-to-month membership plan.

Mrs. Dawn, formerly assistant manager at Elaine Powers in Escondido, re-

Kathryn Dawn, manager of the newly opened EC salon, demonstrates for Sun lensman, the various figure control machines they have to offer members.

David Fleming, district supervisor, adds that the Elaine Powers program is designed to make weight reduction "effective and fun". He invites all readers of the Alpine Sun and members of local Tops Clubs to be his guests at the Salon for a free figure analysis and consultation. Free guest passes may also be obtained by calling the Sun, 445-4640.

HWY ENGINEERS DESERVE CREDIT

At left is Jerry Smith, resident hwy engineer who worked through the building of this stretch with the Daley firm, till he had to go down to SD to direct the widening of 394. He was succeeded by Chet Coolong, who carried the big job through to its dedication last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hannan, Tavern Road, spent the holiday weekend in El Cajon visiting their daughter Marie Murphy and family, report a nice time with their grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Brown enjoyed a visit from their eldest son Franklin who said hello to many old friends here on Wednesday and Thursday. He is a chef at a big cafe in the LA area.

FREEWAY PROVES A BLESSING IN DISGUISE!

When Interstate 8 began to shape up a lot of people started thinking that Alpine would become a ghosttown.

But this menace proved to be a blessing in disguise, for now that it has been in operation since March 16, residents and businessmen have found that removing heavy traffic from Hwy 80, made the thoroughfare a real small town business street known as Alpine Blvd.

The beautiful 3 up lanes and 2 down lanes of I-8, so finely engineered, with a slant to the esthetic, and so well constructed by the Daley people, is making Alpine one of San Diego's finest residential suburbs.

The metropolis, and El Cajon, can hardly grow westward, nor south, and the north areas are fast filling up. Hence eastward strides the urbanite to seek the peace and tranquillity of the hills, via the easily negotiable freeway.

Today you may go 65 from I-5 in SD all the way to Deadman's Curve, some 35 miles, with no slows or stops. It is still 15 to EC and 30 to SD, but the time has been cut so that you may get to the city in 28 to 30 minutes, to EC in 14 to 17, and not invite a ticket from the protective officers of the CHP.

Yes, our little town of perhaps 4500 today can hike along the road without having coattails swished by speeders. And they can walk across Alpine Blvd., in leisurely manner without dodging traffic. Sunday it proved that point, for the freeway relieved us of that thundering herd of homecoming motorists that used to prevent one's crossing Hwy 80 to go to church or to a store, or go from north to south and back.

Yes, freeways are wonderful, but we still have the threat of air pollution from gas-driven cars and trucks. Wouldn't it be an ironic joke after we have spent millions on freeways, if we all died off in a few years from emphysema and other respiratory diseases which the smog is charged with producing?

Ah, me, thanks for a breath of good fresh Alpine air! -CI

Pat and Floyd Naud and two little daughters entertained his brother Burford and wife Kay over the holiday. They drove down from Irvington, Cal. had nice weather and a perfect visit.

This shows the final bit of paving the Daley people did just prior to opening the last of Interstate 8 east of the Willows overpass. The machine is operated electronically, operated by the engineer's guidelines, thus securing a more even and perfect surface than men could do with machines. It is followed by rollers and edgers which finish the fine highway.

EXPO GATE TO FEATURE 200TH

The great So. Calif. Expo in Del Mar has always accentuated the Spanish-Mexican motif in its decor, but this year it is stressing the 200th anniversary with special decorations.

The main gate, says Mgr. R.J. O'Connor, will implement that image to honor the founding of San Diego with a Mission facade and a rotating "coin", 12' in diameter, which bears famed Don Diego on one side, the 200th insignia on the other.

CHICAGOANS VISIT ALPINERS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leinhaupel, Alpine Mobile Oaks Estates, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rudolph who drove out from Chicago to celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary by making a tour of the western states in their travel trailer. They spent 5 days with the Leinhaupels, saw a lot of SD, loved the climate and had a wonderful visit. The two couples have been long time friends for 40 years.

HORSE TALK

By The Double C's

Excitement reigned supreme Thursday at our ranch when Daddy came in at 6 a.m and said our expected colt was born. We hit the floor a-running but didn't make the scene on time. The beautiful fawn-colored filly was already on her feet and looking for breakfast. We were disappointed but were thrilled it was a little girl and will eventually be a sorrel as she has pure white hooves. We had steady streams of visitors all day and Nikki Menconi was the first, took movies of the little baby Daddy named "Sunup" as the sun was just peeping over the mountain when she made her appearance.

Nikki rushed home so as not to miss her expected colt but had to wait 26 hours for her big event. She called us at 8 a.m. Friday and we had to drive 3 miles to their ranch. When we got there, the little filly was not yet up but already born. The father is Polka dot Panda, has a beautiful blanket but the little one came without spots. Gary, Bob and Nikki were thrilled it was a female and we are all happy evernthing went so well for both mares.

Tonight the Lipizzan show opens in the Sports Arena and will run through Sunday in case you are interested. We wouldn't miss it for the world, are going tonight, as they are our favorites among horses. This is the first time the Royal Lipizzan Stallions have appeared in SD and not until this year has a female rider been allowed to attempt the Capriole leap with one of the white horses. This is considered to be the most daring and difficult the horse performs, so get your tickets and drive down to the SD Sports arena for a thrilling evening of entertainment.

Then the following weekend the famous Clydesdale Horses, sponsored by Anheuser-Busch will make their appearance in the arena June 15 for a 3-day showing and parade.

Sad news to report. Gena Bentley, 10, one of SD County's best riders, lost her horse Schwinn Friday night. He came down with hepatitis and there wasn't a thing the vet could do to save him. He tried but it was fruitless. Gena's grandfather gave the quarter horse to her 3 years ago before he died and she has been winning on him ever since. We know how she feels and sympathize.

Another sad event is the passing of Princess- Mandy Payne Pscholka's 16-year old mare she has had all her life. The mare was sickly after the birth of her colt last month and the vet couldn't find anything wrong with her. Might be she had the same thing that took Schwinn off. It has been going around and many horses in this area have been sick but luckily have recovered. Mandy's dad is returning to Kansas with her colt and their stud Red, is leaving the Shetland stud behind for John Clark to sell. His number is 445-2140 if you are interested. The pony has been trained to a harness and will put a cart, also is very gentle. Sounds like a nice animal for a young person. Payne sold Gracie to his niece so is all ready to go the first of the week.

TO CHOOSE EXPO QUEEN JUNE 10

The annual dramatic climax of some 10 weeks' of keen competition among 25 queens of various areas will be June 10 in SD when the 1969 Fairest of the Fair will be chosen. This is the 24th annual pageant. The winner will reign over the 80th So. Calif. Expo in Del Mar, June 25-July 6.

Each comely queen will be carefully judged in swimsuits and formals, says Doris Boyar, Fairest director. They will be scored on two interviews as well, competition starting at 2 p.m., Bob Mills of KFMB-TV Sun-Up emceeing. Winner gets $500 in cash plus $2300 in prizes.

Miss Alpine, Cecile Irvine, is the contender from here, having won her queen title on April 28 at the chamber of commerce contest.

ART CLUB INSTALLS

A delightful potluck with installation was Wednesday at the Alpine Hobby & Rock Shop, with a good attendance enjoying the meeting.

John Titus takes over the duties as president with Glo Newton, Betty Brooks, Mary Reed, Elna Bratt, Sabin Gray and Elizabeth West in other offices for the year.

The lively club is planning many interesting shows and events for the rest of the year, invites all to come and have fun with them.

In a note enclosing renewal check, Miss Juanita Foster of Denver, niece of the late Grier Anderson, Alpine pioneer, says "I'd be lost without the Sun and all the good news it brings weekly about so many good friends there."

HWY ENGINEER LAUDS THE SUN

In a letter to Editor Irvine, Jerry Smith, resident highway engineer, who has been on the freeway job in this area, paid tribute to the minute coverage and photos the Sun has given its readers on this phase of the fantastic new Interstage 8:

Dear Mr. Irvine:

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate you and express my sincere appreciation for the news coverage on the new freeway construction. Your photos were excellent, especially the aerials.

A well informed public is the hallmark of a conscientious newspaper.

I would like to particularly comment on the outstanding pre-opening coverage that you did, which resulted in a minimum of confusion to the traveling public.

I thank you, the Division of Highways thanks you, and the public thanks you.

Very truly yours,
G.V. Smith, Resident
Engineer

Note: The Sun is grateful to friend Smith for this letter which Editor Irvine greatly treasures. It is an award in itself. And the Sun hereby thanks Engineer Smith and his staff, and the Daley people, for cooperating in giving the Sun the news all the time on this remarkable freeway job. -CI

SAMUEL MAIDEN

Graveside funeral is planned on June 10 at Alpine Cemetery for Samuel Boyd "Breezie" Maiden, 68, who died in his apartment, 1539 Tavern Road Thursday of last week. He was a GM2c, USN, had served 20 years, retired on disability in 1940. He had lived here many years, later resided in a trailer, which burned in 1963. He had been ailing for the past year.

Survivors; a niece, Mrs. Jane Bonner, and a cousin, Mrs. Fluorley McCormick, New Bedford, Mass., and a sister of his late wife, Dorothy Maiden, Mrs. Mary Gomez, of SD. He died intestate, the public administrator finding $956 among his personal effects and a bank book showing $3600 on deposit.

DANA FOLLOWS DAUGHTER IN DEATH

The tragic death of Debbie Dana, 13, on April 24, after battling 12 days for her life, was given by friends for the suicide Thursday last week of the father, Zane Dana, 40.

The surviving daughter, Sharon, 16, came home from school, found the house locked at 8710 Harbison Canyon Road. She had the poultry ranch foreman get in, only to find the body of Dana. He had died from a gunshot wound in the chest, which the coroner's office said was self-inflicted. Notes were also found. Dana was manager of the ranch owned by his sister and husband.

Dana, native of Evant, Texas, had lived 16 years here, some time ago changing his name from McNutt, the family name. He had been in the Sun office only last week, told how the tragedy of Debby had deeply perturbed him. He was a fine citizen, had done much in civic work, was well liked.

Graveside service by the Rev. C.L. McPherson was Monday at Alpine Cemetery, EC Mortuary in charge. Surviving: widow Shirley; daughter, Sharon Joy; 5 sisters, including Mrs. Ruby Rogers and Mrs. Glen Biggerstaff, of EC.

PILGRIM FELLOWSHIP PLANS SALE

To help raise money for a movie projector, the Pilgrim Fellowship, the Youth organization of Community Church, is staging a Country Store on the Woman's Club parking lot tomorrow starting at 9 a. m.

They hope to have all kinds of merchandise, some baked goods and plenty of white elephants. Mr. and Mrs. Al Brereton, in charge, say "come early and avoid the rush".

RORIE ANIMALS NOW WORLDWIDE!

By Marilyn Lee

Jim and Mildred Rorie just completed a special order for The Ponderosa Ranch of TV "Bonanza" fame; nine quarter-horses, two mules and two oxen. Only Hoss and Little Joe won't have to feed these critters; they are lifesize animals made of fiberglass, a unique art of Rorie's local Fiberglass Menagerie.

The stars of "Bonanza", Lorne Greene, Dan Blocker and Mike Landon, own an actual Ponderosa Ranch resort in Pine Village, Nev., and, like most of the Rorie's customers, will use the animals to draw attention to products and special events.

22 years in Alpine, seven in business, the Rories have achieved world-wide note for the design, sculpturing, molding and manufacturing of 8-foot bears, 7-foot lions, 6-foot gorillas, 5-foot chickens and 4-foot poodles! Their towering achievement was a personal order from Roy Rogers for a 21-foot replica of Trigger, 2½ times exact size, 100 days in completing, which now rears atop the Rogers Museum in Apple Valley.

The Rories welcome visitors to their factory at 2345 Alpine Blvd., especially children who love to be photographed with the animals. But now and then a prankster finds this giant zoo irresistible. Recently two Navy boys "borrowed" two cows from one of Rorie's dairy exhibits. Two days later, however, both were mysteriously returned. "Probably had a terrible time getting them on board ship," explains Mrs. Rorie.

Mrs. Betty Jasensak, she is with the Smith Realty here, is back at work after a bout with pneumonia, was a week in the hospital recovering. She was taken sick while on a trip to Kirksville, Mo. where she went to attend the funeral of an uncle.

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile and Celeste Irvine

We are all getting excited about the Fairest of the Fair contest with Cecile as one of the contestants and want all to know it is open to the public, no admission, in the Scottish Rite Masonic Memorial Center, across from the May Co. It should be quite an event.

Mandy Pscholka is thrilled, her husband Danny is home from Vietnam. He arrived today after flying from there last week. He came via Okinawa and then San Francisco where he jetted home to see his little 4-month old son Douglas Carl whom he has never seen. As soon as they can get away they are driving to Beaverton, Ore, where his parents live and will make their home there. Danny is going into business with his father, who is a builder.

JoAnn Villa was all smiles last week when her steer Barney took a first at the East County Fair. He was beautiful, weighed 900 pounds, was a monster. She sold him there, made a nice profit and was quite happy to have it all over.

Anyone missing a young black female Labrador with a flea-collar on? She came to Graf's home last week & when they shooed her away she went over to the John Pringle's and made friends with their children. They don't want the dog but if she is yours, call Pat and Floyd Naud are enjoying their new Siamese kitten named Ding-a-ling, says he is a riot and acts more like a human than a cat. Mama used to raise them, so we know the Siamese.

Lynn Kinikin spent the weekend with her sister Maxine and family. Charlie's brother Dwight was out from Milwaukee, so they went to Disneyland for the day and enjoyed a fun time.

We asked Carolee Reed how she got a puffed lower lip when we saw her at Nikki's Friday. She fell off the bars at school and landed smack on her face, was lucky she didn't lose some teeth in the mishap.

Just out of the hospital again is Yvonne Randall; we quit counting. Anyway, this time she had her toes operated on as the ligaments were not right and she got the stitches out last Thursday, can get around a little but said it really hurts, but her toes are not straight, so that counts a lot.

Lori and Kenny Fidler drove to Anaheim with their mother this past weekend to see their grandmother and say goodbye as they are leaving the 18th for N. Carolina. Their father is coming home in two weeks and he hopes to be transferred east.

Janice Douthit spent the weekend with us, and as the water in the pool was up to 80, we swam night and day, also went to the fair twice and had a super time.

Anyone interested in getting an 8 weeks old German shepherd pup free? Ev Shilts, who bought Sleepy Hollow Ranch recently, has several to give away to good homes. Call 445-2859 if interested.

DALEY BUILT ROAD IN 1920!

Here is an old snapshot made by one of the Daley Corporation men back in 1920 when they constructed the early road here before it was called Hwy 80.

In those days they had no heavy earth-moving machines like they used on I-8 here, just opened. Men and mules or horses pulled "Fresnos", a scraper-dumper that leveled the earth in laborious manner.

If anyone knows these workers of 49 years ago, drop a line to the Sun so it may be printed. Also historical notes are desired. This was kindly loaned by Don Daley of his firm.

FIX FINAL FIRE BUDGET JUNE 16

As advertised legally in the Sun May 2, the adoption of a preliminary budget was promulgated, with hearing on final budget for fiscal 1969-70 set for June 16, at 8 p. m. in the fire station when the board meets to fix the final one. Any taxpayers in the fire district may appear then and be heard regarding it.

The budget is available for inspection for the station till June 16, says Wm. F. House, board secretary.

Formerly it was required that the budget be advertised in the local paper, but now it is not mandatory hence it is not so printed herein.

Flagmen along Hwy 80 above Deadman's Curve are still an important part of the job that Morrison-Knudsen Corp. is doing while building the new freeway.

Here traffic has to be held up while blasted rocks are moved following a shot on the mountain above the dangerous curve. But next year when the new route is opened this hazardous stretch will return to the rocky wild.

BUSINESS UP SAYS BANKER MOHR

Local activity in trade, says Mgr. Luther Mohr, of Alpine Branch, Security Pacific National Bank here, is up over last year, and the outlook is bettering. A 2% increase was shown for February, he adds, with later increases, which shows the economy is in good shape.

It's not the minutes you put in at the table that makes you fat; it's the seconds!

COMMUNITY IS UNIQUE IN PEOPLE AND HISTORY

By Marilyn Lee

Alpine is a modern town with a pioneer personality. It is only 15 minutes from El Cajon, 25 from San Diego, but it is miles removed from city pace. The people here are sturdy and serene; they hurry not and they smile a lot. They live free and they love the outdoors. Here there is more outdoors.

Alpine's 4500 citizens are hikers and horsemen, ranchers and hobbyists, retired and youthful adventurers, who find in Alpine a chance to relive a leisurely chapter out of early California. Here is their mountain mecca. Rugged beauty. Fresh air, Open spaces. And history in every dell and glen.

For there is a tradition here that wherever you find an oak tree or a stream, you find relics of Alpine's first natives, The Kummee-is Indians, whose descendants dwell on nearby Viejas Reservation. And in the heart of town stand memories of pioneer-settler days, the Alpine Tavern house, which burned some years ago, and the Library, replete with rococo, echos of when Alpine was a lively stop on the stage-coach route to the mines of Julian.

Alpine is historic but not provincial. It is growing. A 151-unit mobile estates opens next week, 3 new tracts of ranches are underway, Sleepy Hollow and Shady Rock will accommodate many summer campers. The annual Viejas Days Horse Show drew over 1500 entries this year from as far as Phoenix.

The town's newspaper, the Alpine Sun, billed as "America's smallest newspaper" is now large enough to be read throughout the county. A forward-gazing chamber of commerce, 75 robust businessmen and 20 civic clubs, keep Alpine peaceful but progressive, as steady as its 78 degree year-round climate.

With its slogan "Best Climate in the US by Gov't report", the town is known nation-wide for its salubrious weather, all year round, which affords almost instant relief for those with respiratory troubles. Many thrive here when they would only exist elsewhere.

But most of all, Alpine is a town of interesting people. Roger Craig, Dodger's pitcher winning two World Series, now coaching the Padres; Jim and Mildred Rorie who manufacture fibreglass animals, standing 21 feet tall; Dr. Frank Bornowski, blind chiropractor and ham radioist; Bea LaForce, playwright; Helen Ellsberg, photo-journalist, and many, many more happy residents.

It is best summed up by one of Alpine's leading citizens, age 80, who hikes 5 miles a day, raises horses, carves his own furniture, and flies an airplane:

"We have room to pioneer here."

ALPINE'S SON IS STAR IN ITALY

There is one mighty proud father here, Cyril D. Reed, 64, of 2201 Alpine Blvd. whose talented and handsome son, Dean Reed, 30, now in Italy is starring in the cinema.

This summer a bevy of south county girls will be met in Rome by the "Zorro" of Italian movies, a Denver-born actor singer who reached there via Spain and South America.

Reed's father, a champion checker player, who lives alone in a trailer here, is a substitute general education teacher with El Cajon Valley School District.

"How Dean got started was unusual" says Reed, "his first recording was the result of a hitchhiker he'd picked up on his way west who took a liking to him".

The fellow introduced Dean to the head of a recording firm which signed him at once. Then he did some work on Dick Clark's Bandstand, Bachelor Father and Steve Allen's Tonight Show.

"The boy received so much fan mail from So. America he went down there to sing. From then he was on his own", Reed explains. He sang in Acapulco, vacationed in Mongolia and India, and was mobbed by young fans in Russia where he sold over 4 million records.

The 8 coeds who will meet young Reed leave on July 5 for a 6-week's European trip with Russell Goucher, principal of Greenfield JH, his wife, and daughter Candy. They hope to see Reed making movies. One he recently finished was "Zorro", plus some Westerns.

Young Reed lives in Rome with his wife, Patty, a former Miss Carlsbad, and their little daughter. He recently won an Italian award for best western actor. He has two brothers, one at Colorado U, and one in the Antarctic.

"And if you know any checker fans", says Reed, "I'd love to have a few games. Call him at 445-4677; it's your move!"

Recent newcomers from SD are Harold & Carol "Dodie" Vincent who are making their home at 2237 Tavern Rd. He is with Universal Boot Shop in SD, moved here to get out of the city where they can enjoy the great outdoors and be closer to nature.

Harold is a native of Mineral Wells, Dodie of Denton, Texas, have been in the county 8 years. His hobby is collecting artifacts, hers needlecraft. Both love animals, birds and fish, having all in their collection, plus a pair of rabbits.

A veteran of Korea, Vincent served in the Army. Remarking on how they like Alpine since moving here April 1- "We love it, and have met so many friendly folks".

I-8 CHAMBER TO MEET IN PV

Don Walker, head of the old Hwy 80 chamber of commerce says they will meet at the Charcoal House in Pine Valley on June 26. A film of the new PV bridge will be screened, a speaker to be announced.

Sometimes a nation abolishes God, but fortunately God is more tolerant.

DO THE REDS HAVE A LOCK ON AMERICAN SURVIVAL?

While Communist nations gird themselves with nuclear arms for the "inevitable final conflict" with the Free World, their agents in America sow doubt, division and defeatism among their intended victims.

Through the skillful use of propaganda, and a network of fronts, the Communist Party of the United States is mobilizing massive opposition to the President's plan for the defense of our Nation.

So effective is their program that they have been able to delude well meaning persons persons who do not realize that they are jeopardizing not only the survival of America, but that of the entire Free World.

The Soviet Union and its satellites are armed camps. They maintain large standing armies with full corps devoted to rocketry, the most modern fleet of missile-equipped naval ships, and an advanced air force of gigantic proportions. They stand ready to rain atomic destruction across the United States the minute we lose the capacity or the will to defend ourselves.

Meanwhile, their cities in Russia are protected by rings of anti-ballistic missile systems the same systems they oppose our having to defend ourselves!

The situation is serious . . . your survival is at stake, along with that of your nation. Already, Congressmen report mail running as high as 15 to 1 against the "Safeguard" anti-missile defense system.

Only prompt action by you, and other concerned citizens, can conserve this defense of our lives, our children, our homes.

Write to your congressman and senators today. Tell them you want to be neither Red nor Dead. Tell them you want all the protection our technology can devise. Our wealth, our liberty and our lives depend on the action we take now.

At the freeway dedication Alpine's school band, directed by Wayne Mendro, rendered several pieces before & after the impressive ceremony. This group has worked hard and is able to present some fine music for local doings.

GRACE MERZ

your wonderful climate. Your weather is great, but your rocks are sure hard". Mohr refers to the 2 million pounds of ammonium nitrate used to blast through hills of solid blue granite between Tavern and Willows Roads, which was so neatly done by Daley that it has become a scenic spot.

Says Mohr: "We also used 4 million cubic yards of materials and totalled 900,000 man-days of work over a 2-year period. Most effective was the use of a combined seed-fertilizer-affixative on the freeway slopes for beauty and to prevent soil-erosion."

Legislation is now pending in the Public Works Office to use non-operating rights of way for mini-parks and commercial enterprises, which will offer Alpine an added bonus to its already modern freeway system.
