TROPHIES FOR FINE YOUNG FOLKS

Kiwanians Saturday had a rather inspirational breakfast at 7 in the Log Cabin Cafe with Pres. Elect Lee Widmer in the chair. It was the presentation of awards to two 8th grade students for outstanding scholarship; left center, Ronald Lawson, 14, and Terree Naud, 14.

Two leaders of the Kiwanis Key Club of El Cap HS, were on hand to make brief talks on how desirable and

STARGAZERS MEET HERE SATURDAY

June 21 the SD Astronomy Assn., says Mike Sullivan, publicist, will hold another star party at the east end of Olive View Road. "We will have many large telescopes for viewing such bodies as the moon, planets, stars and so on. Viewing begins at dusk", invites young Sullivan, "and the public is welcome".

Tonight they have a free meeting in the Aerospace Museum, Balboa Park, with Richard Larson, top winner in SD

ALPINE LUTHERAN CHURCH NOTES

The Sunday School will meet through the summer. All grade-school children are invited to attend at 10:15 am to study "The Story of God's Love". This is a collection of Bible stories which bring out the love that God showed to sinful man.

The Bible Class meets at 10:15 am to study an introduction to the Bible. The aim is to promote a greater familiarity with it.

Four new members were received into membership May 25: Linda Hensel, Christine Siekmann, Ronald Smith and Shirley Sutton. The congregation held a potluck and swim party in honor of the confirmants at the Charles Smith residents.

Sermon Text for Sunday will be Romans 8: 18-23. Vicar Curtis Lyon will preach.

ART CLASSES START

Every Tuesday at 9 a. m. Isobel Pellegriin, well known Alpine artist, is giving classes in pastels at the Art Chalet, 1321 W. Victoria. Then Thursday from 9 to 12 Skip Whitaker is teaching oil painting. Classes are sponsored by the Alpine Area Art Assn. at the Chalet, which Mr. & Mrs. John Titus own. "The shop is open from 11 to 6 daily and all interested in art are welcome to sign up for instruction or just come in and browse", says Titus, prexy of the club.

TRAILERS MOVING INTO NEW PARK

Mgr. Wm. Murrell of Vista Alpine Mobile Home Estates reported yesterday that handsome new portable homes are moving in, 8 coming in Monday. Paving is all done and sealcoating is progressing. Landscaping is going in and reservations coming in daily.

RECREATION KEYNOTE TO BACK COUNTRY FUTURE

When county planners met here the consensus was that Alpine and the Mt. Empire had a distinctive future! Recreation.

That is being borne out today with the recent purchase of Sleepy Hollow Ranch by the Shilts Brothers who are developing it into a big resort for horse-minded families. This story was in last issue.

Another in Alpine is the leasing of Shadyrock Ranch to the Tollard Family who have reopened it with everything that this popular place enjoyed in past years. It is already drawing visitors to family-style recreation from all over.

One of the largest resort spots now is Stallion Oaks Guest Ranch, Descanso, where last week Ed Torgersen opened his Old West Motel, a unique setup, described in today's Sun.

Two large developments for easy living in downtown Alpine are now open and filling with families and retirees. One is Alpine Village Apartments with 70 of 290 proposed buildings completed and partly filled. The other is the 151-space Vista Alpine Mobile Home Estates, with beautiful and spacious homes on wheels being moved in daily.

Both places have nice recreation halls with kitchen facilities and so on; pools, games and other fun facilities. The tranquillity of Alpine and environs will be enjoyed by these many newcomers.

Now being prepared for grand opening soon is a big acreage project, Rancho de los Arboles, off Japatul Road. Country living for those with families, horses and time for leisure, and plenty of recreation, will be the theme for that beautiful spot.

Farther back country locations are busy with various parks, dude ranches, and other entertainment projects.

New I-8 freeway is helping all this and will continue to give San Diegans easier access to the wonderful recreational facilities of our beautiful mountain country with its superb climate.

PRINTER'S SON WINS AWARD

Chas. Miller, 15, son of Robert and Agnes Miller, owners of Alpine Printing Co. has won honors as a sophomore at El Cap HS. He has the gold medal for outstanding English writing, an annual award. He was the only one there to get it.

A classified ad will sell it, 75¢ 2 lines.

3 NEW COLTS ARRIVE HERE

Here is one of three newly born foals in Alpine, Dusty, which came recently to the Dick Brotherton rancho, Tavern Road.

With the little beauty are the Brotherton kiddies, happy as can be; Theresa and Mike. Their faithful collie in foreground. The mother foaled early one morning in May.

Wayne Whiting, who went to school here, the son of Mrs. Maud Whiting, is now assistant manager at Cinema Grossmont.

HORSE TALK

By The Double C's

We have been so crowded the last two issues we didn't have room for all the new colt pictures, so will try to get one squeezed in this issue. Our little sorrel filly is 3 weeks old, the same as Menconi's that was born May 30th. Now Jerry and Wayne Brown have a beautiful little Appaloosa filly that didn't come spotted but Jerry is sure she will color out later.

Doris Scully sold Ginger, the 8-year old mare she has had for sale, to Dick and Lona Brotherton. She is the mother of Doris's little stud yearling buckskin and throws good looking colts.

Don't forget to contact Nikki Menconi if you are interested in taking riding lessons. She has a very good instructor and will begin them the middle of July, if enough sign up.

Maureen Carrell, in charge of the Alpine Amigos 4H Horse Club, invites any and all horse enthusiasts between 10 and 19 to get in touch with her at the store or call the club prexy JoAnn Villa, 445-2395. They have lots of activities planned such as campouts, rides and shows, so if interested, get your call in and join. Sounds like a lot of fun and will give you something to look forward to this summer. Wish we had the time but are booked almost solid this summer with our own activities.

McCALL'S ENJOY NORTH

A delightful 10-day trip to Seattle has just been completed by Blanche McCall, her grandsons Horst and Mark, Bouncer Marshand, David Lewis and Eve Brady with Ellen Hood driving. They spent some time in the redwoods, took the 6-hour Skunk Train out of Ft. Bragg to Willits and back, visited Hearst's Castle and enjoyed the entire trip. Horst stayed with his parents, Bruce and Trudy McCall, while his sister Lisa, 5, and brother Johnny, 11, returned with Blanche to spend the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gonday of Lakeside, former Alpiners, left Wednesday on a wonderful vacation. They plan stops in Dallas, Baton Rouge, New Orleans and Florida and many New England states before returning.

Dozens of happy camper and trailer fans enjoyed the grand opening on Flag Day at Stallion Oaks in the new campgrounds. Lots of kids were enjoying themselves in games, riding, hiking, swimming and -- eating! Ed Torgersen, owner of the big picnic ranch says the opening of I-8 has brought many more out to his popular place. It will be still easier to reach when the stretch at left is opened with Japatul Road offramp, by-passing Deadman's Curve.

EXPO ESTA MUY FANTASTICO!

In keeping with the 200th motif, Del Mar's big So. Calif. Expo has been termed in Spanish, fantastico, or fantastic. This it looks to be from all indications.

"Greatest entertainment ever", is the slogan, with two big names from show biz: Jimmy Durante and Dale Robertson. Dale, on stage in the grandstand for the first six nights, brings a fine singing voice and a real Oklahoma drawl. Jimmy with his famed nose and madcap clowning will appear on the last six nights. Both shows are free.

Besides the above there is the colorful 6 day champ rodeo with thrills galore. Another feature is the amazing pole climber, Danny Sailor. The whole expo opens Wednesday with scores of new games, rides and other entertainment.

And when feet get tired there are many free shows to see, the Don Diego Varieties, marionettes, mariachis, showboat Dixieland band, the shaded gigantic world famous flower show all under cooling shades.

For the ag-minded there is the livestock exhibits with $100,000 in prizes. The world's largest horseshow goes on for the full 12 days. The junior livestock auction is June 30.

Yes, there is something for everybody at the big expo and to list it all would take a couple of pages. One thing sure, you can't see it all in just one day.!

At last week's session of the Kiwanis Club, reports Pres. Luther Mohr, Lee Widmer was named president, to be installed with other officers this fall. He is with EC Awning & Mfg. Co., lives here with his wife Shirley.

Others elected: Curly Collier, 1st vice-president; Chas. Campbell, 2nd vp; Leo Ryan, secretary; Bud Manion, treasurer. Besides these, directors named: Don Anderson, Paul Clay, Bud Cooper, Ray Darwell, Bob Wilson, Red Robbins.

SCHOOL'S OUT! DRIVE EASY

This is the great week for kids. Vacation is here. But it is no vacation for careful driving as plenty of youngsters will be playing, running, dashing across the road, so take it easy at the wheel, say safety officials. "Admonish your children to be careful" they say, "especially in running out from parked cars."

Believe it or not here are 10 little German Shepherd puppies, first littler of a fine dog on Sleepy Hollow Ranch, recently reopened by Everett Shilts and his wife Gloria with his brother Ted. (See last issue).

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile and Celeste Irvine

We are all getting excited about the big Del Mar Fair which opens next Wednesday. We get to work in the Polynesian booth and have been busy making costumes for it. Sure sounds exciting and it will be fun to be at the fair every day till it closes July 6th. We are staying in Del Mar so it won't be hard to get to work on time every day, and we hope our parents come down on weekends and see the Expo, as it is more extravagant than ever before, we hear.

Cecile took Carolee Meachum's place last Saturday night at the huge Square Dance convention and she and Don Diego gave some good talks on the fair. Carolee had to go to a wedding and couldn't make it.

Glo and Bob Newton named their new Siamese kitten Clancy. Their dog is called Murphy so that is quite an Irish combination.

Lori and Kenny Fidler left for North Carolina Wednesday to make their home there. Their dad got home from Vietnam and they have been visiting and having a good time since his return.

Theresa Shesser flew out from South Carolina to spend the summer at McCall's Ranch School summer camp. She was a pupil there when she was 5, is now 16 and is looking forward to a good time.

Laurie McGrath attended a shooting match at Ventura last weekend and got 300 points out of a possible 300. She did better than all the boys present, is a real sharp shooter. She took firearms in Grossmont College last year and we hope to get in that class in September.

Hal Hundley bought some cows from Malcolm Huey and they got away and raced down Tavern Road. He had quite a time corraling them but finally got the critters back in the pasture.

Glo and Bob Newton are thrilled with their new Siamese kitten. They are partial to this breed, had another they brought with them from Anaheim.

David Greathouse may have to have surgery on his feet as he has a callous on the sides of both that the doctor said was caused by a piece of bone coming loose. He went to see him Monday, will probably have them removed as soon as school is out.

The Cadman Park Recreation Council is sponsoring a 3-day Talent Contest, June 27 and 28 with winners from both days competing on Sunday. Trophies will be awarded to the 3 top acts in each age group. Judges are show business people.

The show is in Clairemont HS Auditorium, 4750 Ute Dr., SD. Tickets are only 50¢ per person. Call 445-2394 if you are interested in going, as we have some here to sell. Sounds like it would be a fairly inexpensive entertainment, plus helping the council out with their expenses.

As soon as Alpine gets some nice weather again kids will want to go swimming and are glad Shadyrock is again open. It only costs 50¢ if you are 14 and under, 85¢ if you are 15 and up. You can spend the day, have full use of the picnic grounds and there is a snack bar so everything is all in one place. We all have had some wonderful memories there.

Bob, Gary and Nikki Menconi spent the night watching for this baby to be born to their mare Trinket. Little filly had a bit of trouble standing those first few minutes but was soon looking for her dinner. She was born May 30 at 8 a. m.

OUT OF ARMY, BACK IN BUSINESS

Edw. J. Patton, 27, of 9764 Los Coches Road, recently back from Army service, has started County Radiator Service there and is glad to get back working. His construction business was wiped out when he left EC for the war. He is married to Judith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Leeper of Lakeside. He served two years, suffered a broken foot three times.

DESCANSO DOINGS

One of the Mountain Empire's most fun-filled and colorful events is coming up on July 5. It is Descanso's Country Fair and Picnic, an all-day festivity that will feature sack races, games, rides, country-western singers and dancers, arts and crafts booths, country cookin', Pioneer dress and a Model-A car parade.

Says Ron Blodgett, chairman of Descanso's active Booster Club, which is sponsoring the event: "This will be a good ol' fashioned country fair for the whole family to enjoy. The entertainment will be tops from a hillbilly band, folk & country and western singers, games and races. The booths will feature country wares of our own local artisans, including hand-knitted afghans, antique dolls, wood carvings, and paintings."

Mrs. Howard Cornman and Mrs. Mike Martin, co-chairmen for the picnic, also announce a luscious, home cooked ham dinner: adults, $1.50, children, 50¢.

Adds Blodgett: "The fair and picnic is a spirited community effort to raise funds to restore our famed Town Hall, now over 70 years old. Part of our mountain heritage, the hall is redwood-pannelled with floors made of planks from an old covered wagon, a colorful reminder of pioneer times. Our Booster Club, now 30 families strong, is working to preserve this historic place. We invite all our mountain neighbors to join us on July 5 for a fun-filled day of country fun."

Jack and Alice Devine, residents of Lakeland, will take over proprietorship of The Fast-Draw Tavern on July 1. The former owners of the lounge for 7 years, John and Angie Radmer, will now relax and enjoy their garden and mobile estate in Alpine.
