JUNE FULLER IS MARRIED

Community Church was the setting Saturday afternoon for the wedding of June Lenore Fuller and Jonathan Weldon Knight.

Miss Fuller, daughter of Mrs. Doris Fuller of Alpine, and Mert L. Fuller of Downey, was attended by her sister, Mrs. Isadore Tarantino, matron of honor; Misses Kathryn Minuto, Lynn Williams, Elizabeth Knight and Deborah Knight, bridesmaids; Laura June Taran-

SLEEPY HOLLOW OPEN

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Shilts and his brother Ted announce the official opening of their ranch to any and all horse enthusiasts. They say "come up and camp, ride, hike or just plain loaf". They have plenty of horses and ponies to ride and if you like, bring your own horse and trailer they say.

Their ranch-- once known as Poker Flats, at 399 Dehesa Road, which is at the south end of Tavern Road, just be-tino, flower girl; and Steven Fuller Tarantino, ringbearer. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Weldon Knight of Dunbar Lane, was attended by Geo. Titus, Andrew Knight, Daniel Noble, Robert Windrem and Phillip Bunch. Candlelighters were Kenneth Wedel and Daniel Wasson; organist, Mrs. C. Donald Cost; and guestbook attendant, Miss Arlee Noble, cousin of the bride.

The ceremony was conducted by Dr.

low the junction with Japatul Road. From I-8 take Tavern offramp, go south on Tavern Road.

Says Shilts, "there is plenty of parking space available for all of your weekend needs. Ranch is on the Calif. Hiking and Riding trail so you can take off in any direction and enjoy a fun time. The weather is ideal and all you have to do is come on up".

Roger Larson, assisted by Capt. William P. Lane, ChC USN (Ret.) of Oceanside, a Catholic priest and close friend of the family.

A reception was in the lounge and patio of Jane Dunn Hall.

Among the many out-of-town guests were Miss Jody Downing of Hysham, Mont.; Mr. & Mrs. Ted Marsh and daughter Jill, of Sheridan, Mont.; and Miss Mildred Taess of Petersburg, Va.

June was graduated from Kearny High School, attended Grossmont College. Jon, a graduate of ECap HS and Grossmont College, is attending SD State. After a wedding trip to Carmel and the San Francisco Bay area, the couple will reside in La Mesa.

Frequently the Sun used to say "Alpine needs a riding academy", but now it has one at Sleepy Hollow Ranch where horses may be rented and boarded.

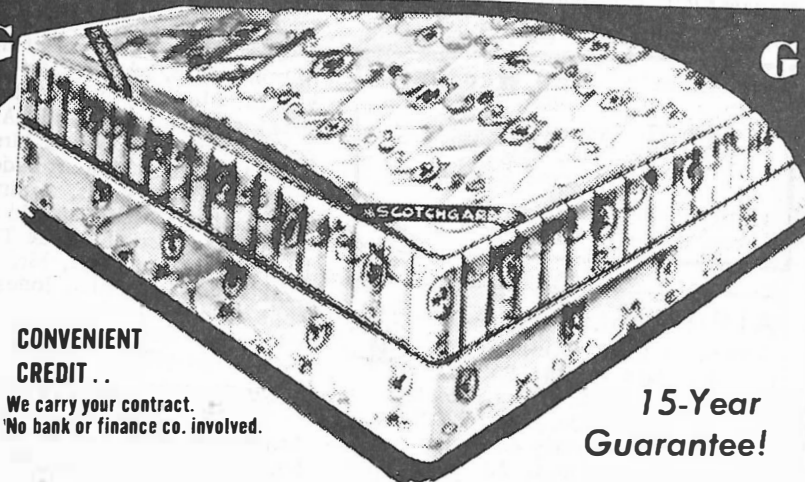

June and Jon Knight walk down isle of Community Church after wedding ceremony Saturday.

IT'S A BOY FOR THE BURAKS

On Father's Day in EC Valley Hospital a fine 6# boy was born to Mrs. Robt. Burak, wife of Alpine's popular medico. His name is Richard Lee.

Somenow Miss Linda Hensel's name was not on the list of new families moved into Vista Alpine Mobile Home Estates. She is the daughter of Mrs. & Mrs. Paul Hensel.

ALL COUNTY SHOULD BE PROUD OF EXPOSITION.

The great Southern California Exposition-- SD County Fair at Del Mar-- now nearing its end on July 6, Sunday, after a splendid opening on June 25, will go down on record sheets as probably the best and biggest ever in its 80 years.

At a recent press party for news, radio and TV media, we had the opportunity of shaking hands and renewing a longtime friendship with Franklin Barnes, president of the board of directors of the 22nd District Agricultural Assn., which stages the big show. The nine directors were on hand at the opening. Barnes owns the famous Manzanita apple ranch in Julian.

"These directors serve without pay" Barnes told me, "because they are interested in the Exposition and the job is a challenge representing big opportunity to be of service to the community".

We think that the board and its manager R.J. O'Connor, have put on a great show. This year's seems to be the finest of all, and the largest. The county should be mighty proud of this achievement.

"There have been many changes and great improvements since the years I first served on the board," Barnes said. He has served 15 years as a director.

"We have tried to grow as fast or faster than the county, and our steadily increasing attendance (over 400,000 in recent years) reflects the success we have enjoyed."

They do not try to make a profit, just break even, and do not levy taxes, but do get revenue from the 42-day horse racing season there.

You have only today, July 4th, till Sunday only, to see the myriad beauties, exhibits, and everything that has made this one of the greatest county events, and one of the finest in the West. Don't miss it! -CI.

ARCHERS CELEBRATE 50TH

Mr. and Mrs. George Archer, formerly of Eltinge Drive, now of Santee, celebrate 50 years of marriage tomorrow.

Their 5 boys and wives are honoring them with a reception in Veterans' Memorial, 136 Chambers, EC, at 2 pm Saturday, July 5.

Because they did not have addresses of all their many friends in Alpine, invitations were not sent, but the Archers wish to extend an invitation to any and all who would like to come.

They were married in 1919 in Omaha, Neb., lived there until 1954 when they came to SD; moved to Alpine in 1958 and only recently to a large mobilhome in Santee.

Mrs. Archer met George in kindergarten, moved away when she was in 3rd grade, didn't see him again till she was 15. From then on it was only George till they married 4 years later. George was an employee of Fairmont Foods in Omaha till they came west.

NEW PASTOR ARRIVES

The Rev. C.L. MacPherson, his wife and 3 daughters, Pamela, 13, Tammy, 11 and Terri, 9, have just moved from Chula Vista to 617 Francis Drive in the Canyon where he has taken over pastorate of Community Church. He did not tak anyone's place, as the office has been filled for the past several months with guest speakers.

He is attending Linda Vista Bible Seminary in EC, will report the Canyon Church's activities from now on in the Sun, is currently working on a big revival for month's end.

HORSE TALK

By The Double C's

Alpine is growing so fast we just can't keep up with all of the horse news.

The biggest this week is Sleepy Hollow opening to the public. This is one of the greatest things that ever happened to Alpine. You can trailer your horse there, camp overnight and take off in any direction for a beautiful ride, or rent a horse and camp if you haven't your own animal. They now have over 20 horses and intend to get a lot more, so there won't be any waiting for them to come back before you can ride. Sounds great to us. We have friends that would love to come and ride but we only have 3 and one is a baby so that just isn't enough. We know they will make the ranch a huge success.

Maureen Carrell's donkey Snowball got a little frisky last week and threw their friend John Wermcke off. He broke his arm but was game enough to get back on after he had a cast on and have his picture taken with a sign "this is how it happened"!

Stephen Brown's beautiful registered stallion colt is coming along nicely after his near fatal accident May 21. He got his hoof caught under some metal sheeting in his corral and before they could stop him had nearly cut it off. Dr. Detrick treated him and had a lot of hope for his recovery. Stephen has taken care of him every day and there won't be any ill effect or permanent damage when it is completely healed. The colt's father was Sutter Showboy, a famous world jumper, so you can see why the whole family has been concerned. These things happen in spite of good care, and he was lucky as the colt is quite valuable.

David Haag, 9, from Simi, Calif. is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wievig of Alpine Oaks Mobile Estates. He likes the pool best and is enjoying his vacation.

Mildred Wilson has a nice gentle kid's horse for sale. She is broken to ride, 7 years old and quite small. Call 445-3054 if interested.

Margaret Lowthian is slowly building her Appaloosa herd up again, has about 10 mares and 5 babies, most with blankets.

RODEO, DANCE AT STALLION OAKS
Ed Torgersen, progressive proprietor of Descanso's Stallion Oaks, will host holiday festivities today, Saturday and Sunday at the ranch. A lively western rodeo is scheduled for this afternoon: a country-western- "Mod" dance with "The Pony Express" band slated for tonight and tomorrow at 9; and a week-end of camping, hiking, riding and outdoor fun for guests.

The holiday "Happening" celebrates two new additions to the ranch; a 50-unit mobile park and a new rodeo ring. Ed, who opened his Old West Motel on June 14, says summer reservations are coming in steadily and that already the colorful old-west buildings are a "must-see" on the SD visitors list.

Famed for its fine cuisine, the Oaks just added the culinary talents of Emilio Vecchione, originally head chef for some of the finest restaurants in Europe. Says Ed: "Now we can offer veal scallopine for Italian Cowboys."

Distressed father to teen-age daughter; "Young lady, either that dress is too short or you're not in it far enough."

Here is George Carrell, of Carrell's Feed store, with his wife's cousin, Judge Martin Anton, who trailered two fine horses out to visit George & Maureen over the 4th. The judge presides in Magistrate's Court, which includes 7 townships in N.J.

ALPINE FIREMEN THANKED

WOOD ART AT LIBRARY IN JULY

Al Jones is displaying some of the things he made, now on display at the library this month. Al has a heart condition which compelled him to retire from active work several years ago. After trying numerous other hobbies, he settled on making items of manzanita and other woods. Al and his wife are natives of Wyoming, came here in 1956, now live on Alpine Heights Road.

He is wearing a necklace made from tiny cubes of different woods which he carves, polishes, strings. Above is an olivewood cane and various other objects that he has created.

VIGNEAULTS ATTEND SHOWS

Allie and Blackie Vigneault have been making the doll shows lately, with trips to Long Beach, Idyllwild, Baldwin Park, Anaheim and Laguna Beach. The Baldwin Park Doll Enthusiasts had a "PeeWee Doll Convention" of one day on the 25th, and the SD Doll Club chartered a bus for this affair, stopping off at Hobby City in Anaheim, and Laguna Beach.

Idyllwild is beautiful this time of year, with many people enjoying the sun and fun. Allie visited the Al Veasie's who have purchased the old Idyllwild Inn, which has been vacant for seven years. Mrs. Veasie's Doll Museum is already open to the public, as well as other shops and the beautiful lobby of the Inn is available for parties. The new name is "Idyllwild Shop-Inn", with 7 nice shops displaying and selling art, jewelry and other handcrafts.

Enic Bowles, Tavern Road, is back from Springfield, Mo. with Pastor Tom Hix of the Calvary Baptist Church of National City. They drove, stopped in Texas, visited friends, then attended graduation ceremonies at the Bible Baptist College there.

Mrs. Bowles stayed here, got their home ready to paint so both have been busy this week finishing up the job which looks quite professional.

DICK DeMATTEIS MOVES

In order to expand his growing training and boarding stables, Dick DeMatteis has moved from Hale's Rockin' H Ranch, Tavern Road, to 10 choice acres he is leasing from Margaret Lowthian just off Alpine Heights Road.

His 150 x 100 all-pipe ring is in and complete with 12 corrals. He will continue boarding, training and giving lessons in riding, English and Western, also jumping.

Name for new adventure is Hilltop Training and Boarding Stables.

NEW HOME FOR MIKE McCALL

Monday Rio water workers were busy on South Grade Road at the eastern end of the McCall Ranch School property running a 1000' main to serve the new home of Mike McCall and his wife Dora. In a short time they and their two youngsters will be moving in. They are building a unique A-frame house.

SENIOR KING, QUEEN AT FAIR

James Pinkerton, king, and Grace Morley, queen, were presented by the United Senior Exchange in a court on the Community Stage at the Expo in Del Mar Thursday last week.

Don Diego and the Fairest, Carolee Meachum, made the announcements. Julia Sachse carried the king's trophy and Katherine Stout the US Flag. A record crowd of 750 heard the Hillbilly Band under direction of Mrs. Jas. A. Pinkerton, and their music was greatly appreciated.

Residents of Alpine Oaks Mobile Estates and friends of Blackie Vigneault helped him celebrate his birthday Saturday evening, with a party, refreshments and a slide program given by Allie, "These Wonderful Years". The slides depicted the life and times since 1900 to the present date, and were enjoyed by all.

LETTERS TO EDITOR:

Dear Clarke:-- This is surely beautiful country. The weather has been wonderful since we've been here and the fishing is fabulous. Norman was transferred up here from Florida by his company so is working on the big new Boeing plane, the 747. We both like Washington very much. Say hello to all.-- Grace Buchmiller, former Alpiner.

Luther Mohr, manager of Security bank is on a 3-week vacation by car with his wife and 3 little girls to his old home in Iowa. Morse Olmstead, who was 25 years in the Escondido branch, is taking his place till Mohr returns on July 8.

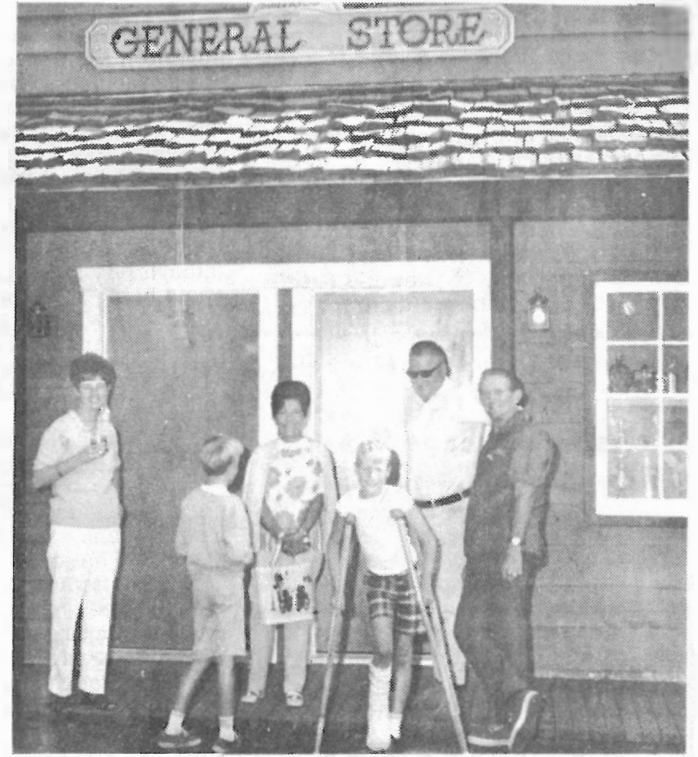

OLD WEST MOTEL IS BIG HIT

This shows one of the unique units of the motel just opened at Stallion Oaks Ranch, Descanso by Ed Torgersen. Each unit-- jail, bank, barbershop and so on-- is strictly early pioneer style, with fitting decor inside and of course modern in every respect.

"We're booked solid for the next few weekends" says Ed and his jolly manager Tony Hutchins, "which shows how people like the antiquity of Stallion Oaks, yet it is so modern, even to the trailer park".

One June 26, residents of Alpine Oaks Mobile Estates enjoyed a bus trip to the Exposition. All were thrilled over the displays and shows, especially the Polynesian dancers, and Alpine's own Hillbilly Band.

and they are spectacular. We met Dale Robertson and are looking forward to seeing fabulous Jimmy Durante when our parents come to the fair this weekend. Will be quite an event in our lives.

Seems like there has been one big event after another this year and now the big circus opens at the Sports Arena July 15 which features dozens of acts from distant lands. The show runs through July 20 so get tickets early and avoid being disappointed.

Gorden Westfall is expected home from Germany next month. His three years in the army will be up and it hardly seems possible that he has been gone that long.

Donna and Norman Dickman are back from their honeymoon and really enjoyed their trip to Tahoe and Northern Calif. They said the weather was beautiful and called home almost every day to say hello.

Little Matthew Scully had chickenpox last week but got out without too much scratching and wasn't sick a day. His brothers already had it so he was the only one with spots.

Our brother-in-law Bill McTaggart was coming back from Eureka the other day and thought he saw Ellen Hood and McCalls driving north. He told Cynthia about it and sure enough we had a story about them driving up to Washington to see Bruce and his family. Was funny that he should be in the right spot at the exact time she passed.

Steve and Colleen Jordan are in Turkey. He is stationed there, and they bought a car last week so they could take some trips and see the beautiful countryside.

Mama had a nice chat with Nellie Keller last week. They are moving out to California City as soon as Ted retires next year and are looking forward to going. Nellie and Ted are former Alpiners, will be remembered by many friends here.

Some people don't think that our jokes are very funny, but I threw some on the fire the other day and they just roared.

TRAILER HORSES HERE FROM N. J.

How's this for a cross-country vacation to ride your own horses?

He: "I think I've seen your face somewhere else."

She: "No sir. It's always been here on me."

DESCANSO DOINGS

Over 500 families are expected here tomorrow at Descanso's Country Fair & Picnic. The public pioneer-day begins at noon with races, games, booths, contests, parades, dances, shows and country cooking going on throughout the day. Added to the entertainment: "June & Frank" and Jo Morton, folk-singers of TV note; Lehua Mallory's "Birds of Paradise", Tahitian dancers; The Mountain Empire Players and Band.

Chairwomen Pat Martin and Joanne Cornman agree, "The booths will be great fun, packed with gift ideas." Some of the booths and their chairmen are: The Peanut Gallery, cartoon-drawing, Mrs. Gore & Mrs. Harper; The 4H Club White Elephant Sale; The Boy Scouts Green Thumb garden; Teen Bazaar, teen-made tissue flowers, stuffed toys and jewelry; Woman's bazaar, hand-made baby clothes, household items, Gert Roeder and Stella Burroughs; Antique Bottle Display; Jim Martin, Chris Garboni, Ray Roeder.

A special thanks to: Mike Martin, Ron Bowman, Norman Salter and Barney Barnett for getting the grounds and hall ready; and to Booster club spokesman Ron Blodgett, for his tireless efforts.

See you at the Fair!

Mrs. Clinton Black is confined to a wheel chair, is able to get about only with the help of a nurse who comes in weekdays to help her.

ARTISTS DID A LOT OF WORK

Mr. & Mrs. John Titus, who bought the Alpine Hobby & Rock Shop, 1321 W. Victoria, revamped it, gave it the name of Alpine Art Chalet, report that they had a fair turnout Saturday for a workday, cleaning up. It is getting busier all the time with new folks moving here, they say.

Tuesday Isobel Pelligrin gives lessons in drawing and portraits with pastels. Thursdays Oil painting is taught by Skip Whitaker. "Beginners are most welcome", says Mrs. Simone Titus, "and now that we have the potter's wheel, some are going in for that craft."

ALPINERS MAN HAM RADIO

Charles Miller and Darrel Broker, members of EC Amateur Radio Club, spent the weekend in Julian manning station WA6EGS under emergency conditions there. The Gillespie Field emergency van provided power for the group and the young men found the weekend profitable and quite a lot of fun.

Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Miller, Alpine Printing Co. and Darrell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Broker of Tavern Road.

W. H. Wilson, Allie Vigneault's uncle from Memphis, Tenn. visited with Allie and Blackie for a week. He is 85 years young - his first trip to California. He travelled by bus so he "could see the countryside", and returned by plane, his first flight. He was thrilled by all he saw in SD County, especially the waterfront.

BEST COMES FIRST AT VISTA

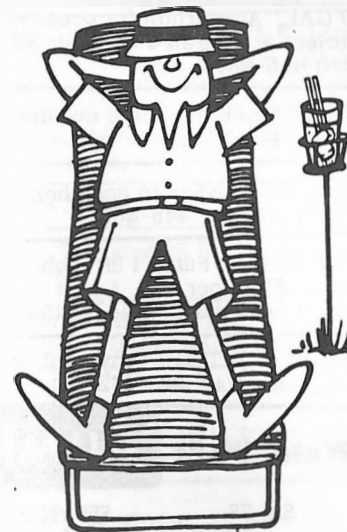

Here is Rupert H. Best and wife Birdie, and the handsome mobilhome which was first in at the fine new 151-space Vista Alpine Mobile Home Estates, 2400 Alpine Blvd.

He is a native of Utah, she of Idaho. They moved up from SD mostly for the famous climate here. He is with the Mulheusen Co. in EC, is retired from the USAF having been an aviation metalsmith.

They have 3 sons, 2 married, one in SD State. Mrs. Best is interested in music, is a singing member of the "Tempos" a trio, also belongs to the SD Choral Club, some members of which live in Alpine. Their son Von at State College was voted the most valuable on the basketball team, broke scoring records for the season, all time high for 10 years!

Randy Hine, talented son of Leo & Dotty Manolakos, came off with four ribbons at the Del Mar fair for his lamb, reserve grand champion of the FAA class; made 4th overall, a fine score.
