FINE ARTS FIESTA WAS FINE

One of the most delightful of the year's large parties was a big success Saturday evening when around 100 guests enjoyed a Mexican dinner and talkfest at the beautiful and spacious grounds of Mr. & Mrs. Auren Pierce by Viejas Lake in Palo Verde Ranch.

THOMPSONS SELL HOME

Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Thompson, Alpine Blvd., have sold their 2-story, 3-bedroom home to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Francis of Pacific Beach, together with 1½ acres, moved to Dr. Bredesen's ranch where they are renting a cottage.

The house is already occupied by the Francis's son and his family who are in the process of refurbishing the home.

Sale was by Anna Jerney in cooperation with Sierra Realty of Santee.

Warburton, with three mariachi musicians standing. The Mexicans played popular numbers from the southern neighbors during dinner and afterwards for dancing in the patio.

Nature added to the glimmering lamps around the grounds, by staging a brilliant lightning display over the eastern mountains. Twinkling lights from across the lake added to the unique dec-

GUSTAFSON HAS OUTDOOR SALE

Due to a press goof last week the Sun ran an ad for Gustafson Furniture, EC Blvd., at 30th in SD, for their big Parking Lot Sale "Now in Progress", but it was not on till right NOW. The Sun apologizes, as Bob Gustafson is a good advertiser and a very good neighbor. Also it is hoped no customers were disappointed. The big sale is on from 9 to 9, Saturdays, 9 to 6.

SCHOOL BOARD SESSION WAS WARM

The awarding of a 5-year transportation contract was of primary interest at Monday's regular school board meeting. Since this represents an expense of over $33,000 annually for just daily transportation it was an important decision. This, the second bid opening became necessary when the count y rendered the first (July 14) as invalid because of a technical error in the original advertising. All prices being made public at that time made a "secret" competitive bid impossible. These irregularities, the reference the representative from the Aztec Bus Line made to the awarding of this contract as being "beclouded" and the short-lived flash of sharp words the board exchanged with the representative of the Goodall Bus Line created an atmosphere that was less than routine.

Of the four companies who originally participated in the competition only Aztec and Patchetts resubmitted bids. Though Patchetts was not the lowest bidder the board felt that the nominal difference represented would not warrant a change in contractors in view of the satisfactory service that Patchetts has provided during the past five years. The vote was unanimous.

Note- It seems a farce that the board may legally refuse the low bid in favor of another firm which is what made this meeting rather hot. Why spend money to advertise and monkey with bids when the low bid is turned down?

Pat Doogan of Aztec was present, told the Sun "I was amazed by the award because the lowest bidder was eminently qualified to do the job". His firm, founded by an Alpiner, A.L. Willingham, was low bidder. Doogan has over 27 years experience, says most contracts are for one year, not five.

J.E. Ruane, of Goodall was present, but did not re-bid, endeavored to explain some points on the matter, but was ordered to sit down, being out of order. None was present to represent Patchetts, which is a firm in Newman, Calif.

Ruane told the Sun "As far as competitive bid procedures in this district go, they do not exist". His firm has been in business for 13 years. The matter leaves the taxpayers in a quandary. -- CI.

Through a classified ad in the Sun, Robt. Stevenson, in charge of Dart Ambulance Service here, has employed Ken Barth of Shadyrock Ranch as part time attendant.

POOL SERVICE HERE

Because Ken Bowden of EC saw "Alpine needs a pool service" in the Sun, he and his representative Eddie Schwenck are opening local branch of Insta-Clor Pool Service for the many poolowners here, (over 50).

Bowden, who has been in the pool business for 4 years, 3 of which he has been owner, is well qualified to give pools a complete chemical service using a gaseous chlorine which eliminates eye smarting and irritation, keeps the pool sparkling clean.

Eddie Schwenck, long time resident here, will take complete care of a pool. They have three they are servicing now here hope to add more to their fast growing service company.

Ken Bowden hails from Idaho Falls, is married, has two sons, Jeff, 3½ and Scott 2½. Eddie is married with one son, Kenny, 14 months old.

The Richard Merrills, printers, of 105 Willowside Terr., are elated over the news that their son Sgt. Richard, Jr is now on duty at Schofield Barracks, Honolulu, after serving in Vietnam.

A mountaineer on his first visit to the city was fascinated by the asphalt streets. Scraping his feet on the hard surface, he remarked to his son: "Well I can't blame 'em for building a town here. The ground's too derved hard to plow anyhow."

DIRKSEN'S DEATH SHOWS NATIONAL TRAVESTY.

When America's talented, astute and lovable old Sen. Everett McKinley Dirksen died Sunday, his demise proved how the US is living a cruel travesty of humaneness, honesty and wanton love of money.

Day after day on radio and TV we hear those asinine, farcial commercials advertising cigarets. Then follows shortly a usually well done equal time ad against smoking.

Every time science comes up with new proof that cigaret smokers are more likely to get cancer of the smoke inhalation route, the tobacco barons who love money more than their fellow men, shout their heads off.

Dirksen paid the penalty for being a chain-smoker. First he had to have a lung removed with its cancer. Then he died. He did not have the resistance and pure blood to overcome the shock. Too bad.

Thousands of others, young and old today, are paving the way for the same kind of an awful death sooner or later. Talented Nat King Cole whose songs are still being enjoyed around the world, paid a like penalty for the same reason.

For 16 years in Hollywood I published Let's LIVE Magazine and we never accepted a tobacco, liquor or drug ad. We put the inspiration of our thousands of readers nationwide above money, and the policy of the magazine, now the greatest on health and nutrition in the country, remains the same. (Get one in a health food store.)

Smokers become callous-hearted and callous-minded, for they will smoke whether it irritates you or not-- they just don't care. The nicotine, tars and poisons seem to harden their arteries that go to the brain, heart and lungs.

No matter how much the tobacco industry yells that smoking is not hazardous, as the surgeon general says, people are dying every day from its effects. Emphysema, heart ailments and other diseases are growing.

Yes, America has lost a good and true citizen, and we mourn for him. I just wonder how many tobacco tycoons smoke? -CI

RUMMAGE SALE TODAY & SATURDAY

Finish of the big rummage sale the Woman's Club put on recently will be today and tomorrow, reports Mrs. Connie Johnson, chairman.

"There were a lot of fine things left over and we have received more" she says "so get over to the clubhouse and take your pick".

"Many antiques, books of all kinds dishes, cooking wear, small electrical appliances and things and stuff that will delight you. Get there early and avoid the rush" says Mrs. Johnson.

KELCO FIRM IN 40TH BIRTHDAY

Last weekend the Kelco Co., of SD enjoyed their annual family picnic at Holiday Ranch, Old Hwy 80, with over 600 present, report the owners, Mr. & Mrs. Crusoe. The firm observed its 40th anniversary also.

SCHOOL TAKES UP MONDAY

Sept. 15 will see Alpine schools back to work, reports Supt. W. Edward Brown, the busy new head of the three plants here. Since arriving Aug. 1, he has been getting hold of the reins, turned over by retiring Paul Clay, who is moving up north.

Shadyrock Picnic Ranch is a busy place these warm days as kids are getting in all the swimming and tanning they can before school opens Monday.

Here, on springboard ready to make splashing dives, are Jimmy and Charlie Ward, and under the board are Connie Pence and Linda Arketa.

The Tollard family which runs the popular resort say business has steadily increased since they overhauled the place and reopened early this summer.

WHITAKER OILS
ARE ADMIRER

Sunday from 4 to 6 a steady stream of art lovers passed through the little gallery of the growing Alpine Art Chalet, 1321 W. Victoria to inspect and admire the many canvasses done by W.O. "Skipper" Whitaker, noted painter of EC, who has done much to promote art in this area.

at the Chalet, holding one of his oils, an attractive seascape. At right are John & Simone Titus, owners, and hard workers for art in the community.

Many out of towners were there, meeting old friends among the group of local artists who attended the delightful reception.

ART ASSN. MET WEDNESDAY

A mass "paint-in" was enjoyed by members and friends of Alpine's busy art club when they met Wednesday at the Art Chalet, 1321 W. Victoria Dr. for their first meeting of the new season. They meet on first Wednesdays at 7:30 in the Chalet and Mr. and Mrs. John Titus, owners of the busy spot, invite any and all interested in art to attend.

HORSE TALK

By The Double C's

We didn't do as much riding as we had hoped this summer, and now it is over and back to school we go. It isn't the most exciting thing we can think of doing but the best right now. We are following through with our criminology major and hope to enter that field when through.

Celeste has been trying to work her 3-months-old colt Sunny but that little girl has a mind of her own, is unbelievably big for her age and as strong as her mother. She just doesn't want to be trained, so it is going to take a lot of patience and time before Celeste gets showable results. The filly is quite beautiful, quick to learn and is going to be a nice horse when grown but in the meantime my sister will have a few rope burns and blisters to show for her effort.

Nikki and Bob Menconi were thrilled to find a wonderful buyer for their Appaloosa gelding Polka Dot Panda. Debbie Holland of Spring Valley, who is only 15, fell in love with him and bought the horse last Thursday. This is her first one, as she has been riding her girl friend's animal. She has saved for a long time and finally found just the right horse for her. Debbie plans on working Panda all winter and then showing next summer. She has a mighty fine animal for that, with several months of professional training in back of him to stand out. We are all glad he got a nice home.

The Menconis, who are leaving Alpine this month, are leasing their ring at the Willows for several horses to be put in so it won't stand empty and if and when they return, will have a place ready for them.

Lisa Pierce showed her new mare Miss Cool at the 3-day Poway Horseshow and came away with a 2nd place. The horse is a hunter-jumper, is 7 years old and Lisa's pride and joy. She goes to Vista this weekend for another show and we wish her lots of luck.

April Earickson's mother has made arrangements for her horse Sanchez to be shipped to Alpine this coming week from Boulder, Colo. so she will have something to ride. She likes Yank, her sister's gelding, but this mare is her first love.

SQUARE DANCE IN PV

All square dancers are invited to come and have fun at the Pine Valley Community Clubhouse, Saturdays, 7:30 to 10:30 beginning Sept. 13. "If you are a beginner, need brushing-up or are advanced, come and have a good time" says Mr. and Mrs. Marcus McManus, who are presidents of the club.

Ken Pribyl is caller and the Mt. Laguna Stars are moving down to PV so more dancers can be accommodated.

Here is Mrs. Ruth Davidson, of Alpine Oaks Mobile Estates who drops in at the library every week to present her copy of the Wall Street Journal for interested readers. She inspects the new Ranchos of SD County map that Elizabeth West is now displaying. The map is quite interesting, showing the many ranches around the county with numerous brands.

Cy Murphy, father of Pat Fulmer, Tavern Road, spent several days here visiting them, enjoyed the beautiful warm weather. He hails from San Diego.

NOEL LOOMIS

Services were Wednesday in Paris Mortuary Chapel for Noel M. Loomis, 64, of River Road, Descanso, who died Sunday in Grossmont Hospital from a brain tumor. Cremation followed. He was a native of Wakita, Okla., wrote many books on western life, was known worldwide for his doing MSS on a lino-type, pulling proofs which he submitted to publishers instead of regular typed copy. His last occupation was assistant professor of English at SD State. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge in Douglas, Wyo.

Survivors: widow, Dorothy M.; a son a daughter, three sisters and four grandchildren.

Last Sunday a party was given to honor his 80th birthday. Present was Christine Hem Edmonds, husband Jim and four children. An airplane 3-dimensional cake was designed and baked by Chris for the occasion, the significance being Grandad Coontz's first jet flight.

The Edmonds recently returned to SD after an absence of 7 years. Jim, who has his Ph.D., from Cornell, will teach this fall at U. S. International U. at Cal Western.

Also enjoying the party was Sandie Hem, wife of Sgt. Ray Hem, who is in Thailand, and their 2-year old daughter Angela.

SCHOOL MAY GET $20,000

There will be a special meeting Sept. 22 in the school auditorium at 8 to further explore the advantages which might be gained by applying for E. S. E. A. funds under Title I. W. Edward Browning, new district superintendent, advised that the district would be eligible for $20,000 to be used for low achievers and culturally deprived students.

It was decided the October meeting of the board will be in Harbison Canyon in order to promote more interest in school responsibility as well as unity between the two areas.

Browning announced that individual room assignments will be posted in advance on the office window.

The meeting was adjourned till Sept. 22 at 8.

BOB ROWAN LANDS JOB WITH WMU

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rowan of Acacia Lane are elated over the news from their son Bob, in Kalamazoo, that he had just accepted a fine position as staff photographer for Western Michigan University there. It is a 66-year old school. During vacation and weekends he will ply his free-lance photography in which he has done well since graduating from the photography school in Santa Barbara.

Bob just returned from a fortnight's vacation in eastern Canada with Richard "Rick" Johnson, of Lakeside, during which they made photos and gathered material for magazines. It was Rick's first trip over the border, but Bob had run a studio in Halifax, N. S. a few years ago. Rowan is a graduate of El Cap. Johnson says the Canadian youth are more concerned in getting ahead in the world than are the Yankees.

CATLETTS MOVE TO RIVERSIDE

Bob and Deannie Catlett, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rix, left for Riverside last week with their two young sons. Bob is entering the Baptist College there for a 4-year course in the ministry.

They sold their nice new home on Alpine Heights Road, will live in an apartment till he is through school and is placed.

23,000 OLDSTERS GET TAX CHECKS

Sen. Jas. R. Mills, D-SD, reports that 1969 Senior Citizen Property Tax Assistance checks totalling $3 million have been sent to 23,000 SC's. He reminds that Oct. 15 is filing deadline for 1969 claims. Only those owning homes with income of less than $3,350 are eligible. Details from PO Box 1588, Sacramento, Ca. 95807.

DAUGHTER VISITS MRS. KELLY

A jolly weekend was had at Mrs. Emelia Kelly's home on White Oak Road, when her daughter, Bernadette and husband Richard Giambruno drove down from Stockton with their infant son Christopher.

A small family reunion was enjoyed at a patio barbecue with Greg Kelly and Jheri Jabben, Harold and son John Lutz, and Keith Kelly, who was in for a short time from duties at Carl's Shell Station, plus Editor Irvine.

Flying home for school next week will be Tommy, Susan, Cindy and Beth Kyle, children of Joan Spackman, Victoria Dr., who were in Maryland visiting relatives.

ALPINE GRADUATES FROM CHP

Robert J. Polzen of Alpine was graduated from the Calif. Highway Patrol Academy in Sacramento on Sept. 4. He is assigned to the El Centro Area office of the Patrol.

Polzen, a graduate of Mt. Empire High in Campo, studied police science at Grossmont College. He was a member of the air police, USAF, stationed in Okinawa from 1963 to 65.

Before joining the Patrol he was a school bus driver for Grossmont High School District in El Cajon.

By Cecile & Celeste Irvine

If you haven't already seen the Shipstads & Johnson Ice Follies, don't fail to get tickets and see it. We went Friday night and sat entranced at the fabulous show. The costumes were positively beautiful and the underwater sequence with its electronically operated turtles and seals was unbelievably real.

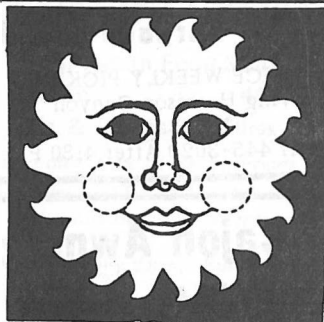

We got a big charge out of the two clowns Biddy and Baddy, their first US appearance, and Frick, who has been with the Follies for 31 years, made us all laugh.

The show runs through Sunday, so if you want to be royally entertained and see Peggy Fleming go through her effortless routine, get tickets and go.

Rattlesnake season is still with us as Miek Scully can testify. He killed one 51" long last week with a stick (all he could get his hands on) and his brother Peter killed another almost as big the same week. When out walking or riding, just use care and usually they will glide off into the brush.

Mrs. Dolly Madson, former Alpiner, was surprised and pleased when her Siamese mother cat Lark presented her with 6 beautiful kittens. She has raised them for years and said never had she seen so many in one litter. Maybe it is a record for this breed. Anyway, she has them for sale so if interested, call us for her phone number.

Ginny and Mark Schutzer are thrilled over the news of a little nephew born Aug. 31 to his brother David and wife Paula. They named him William, is their first baby.

Gary Dewey enlisted in the Navy last week, is now in training at the NCT in SD, says he likes the service fine.

Bob Catlett gave his beautiful German shepherd dog Duke to Jesse Jones who fell in love with him and the dog has plenty of places to run, is thrilled to be off the leash.

Sgt. Gary Pierce was home for a week from Abilene, Texas where he is in the USAF, flew both ways, had a nice week here with his family.

Mgr. Al Dumont of the Aero Drive-in says they are screening one of the best family films in a long time: "Ring of Bright Water", made on the Scottish coast. It features a pet otter and a couple, Bill Travers and his wife, co-star of "Born Free", Virginia McKenna. "It is in color" says Al, "and has been making records in LA".

Volunteer firemen were called to extinguish a small grass fire on Olive-wood Lane Sunday. It is believed boys started it.

Housewives must be getting stronger. Five years ago they had to carry $10. worth of groceries in the cart to the car, now they carry it in their arms.

PTA AND A HI-HO SILVER!

Ladies standing outside kindergarten rooms all over America that first day of school will probably be divided into two distinct groups. One will be trying to maintain a brave smile and appear nonchalant. They will have an awful lump in their throat and an exaggerated feeling of no longer being needed.

Their minds will show flashbacks to the day they brought this baby home from the hospital. Then will come the inevitable picture of this same baby being escorted down the aisle to be given to some unworthy stranger in marriage. These mothers can usually be identified because they keep their sunglasses on, clutch a damp handkerchief and bite their lower lip a lot.

The second group, on the other hand, is even easier to spot. They display a fiendish grin that simply cannot be camouflaged!

Now-- to this scene the PTA rides up on a white horse and provided the national cure all-- a cup of coffee. I, however, being of suspicious nature (and present at the last board meeting), suspect their motives are twofold. The coffee and smiles are to welcome all parents to Alpine School and kind of take the edge off that first morning, but note the membership chairman and the room representative chairman (she accepts room mother assignments) with ready pen and paper. Could they be planning to take advantage of this emotion-charged situation.

In all seriousness (that's how to create a new mood) the PTA is really going to be playing an active part in the growth of Alpine Schools. At the September executive board meeting Principal Kirby outlined two areas where this organization could really contribute: (1) To help provide draperies that will darken the rooms of the primary school to show movies and (2) to prepare and distribute a policy handbook. This will be a brief publication describing "school etiquette" It would create a uniformity allowing the school to function smoothly as well as put parents more at ease by knowing the preferred protocol for many situations.

At the same meeting the carnival preparations showed signs of solidifying with an emphasis on providing entertainment Halloween night which will appeal to a wider age range-- would you believe 3 to 103?

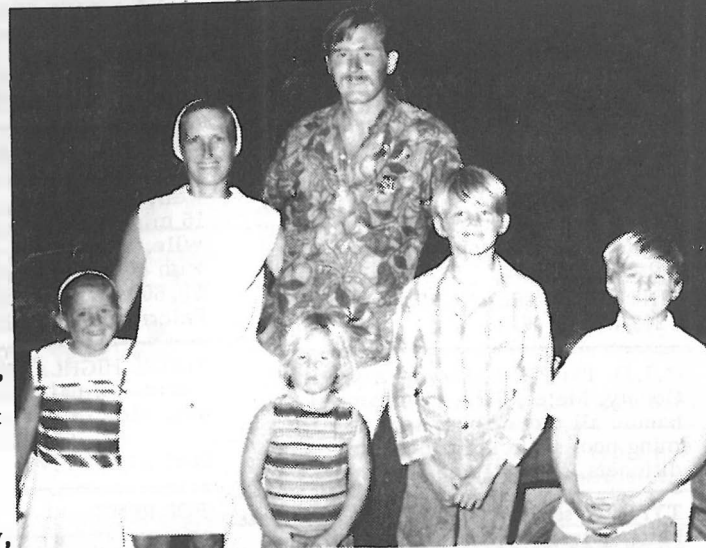

"Remember all parents in the vicinity of the school auditorium Monday morning are most warmly welcome. Come have coffee and if you are so motivated-- join us" invites their publicity chairman June Smith.

SMC Earl Westbrook, USLN, has left for a year's duty in Vietnam. With his family he came here July 1 to live on the Fred Anderson place, Deer Springs Road. (Sun, July 11).

BRUCE McCALL VISITS PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Carl McCall enjoyed a jolly visit from their son Bruce, his wife Trudy and their four youngsters who departed for Seattle Saturday evening.

Trudy and the kids drove down two weeks ahead, enjoyed the ranch, then Bruce flew down and all went home by car, as shown in photo. From left; Lisa, Trudy, Carol, Johnnie and Randy, with Bruce standing beside his wife. An older son, Horst, not shown, remains this winter at the ranch. Bruce renewed his Sun subscription as "It tells me all that's going on in my home town" he avers.

Mrs. Katherine B. Jenney, Tavern Rd., enjoyed a 3-day holiday visit with her daughter Sharon, and husband Tom when they drove down from Sacramento where he is going to law school. Sharon works for the phone company.

JAPATULLERS ELECT 4-H ROSTER

Monday evening at the Shepard ranch, the Japatul 4-H Club elected officers for the coming year: Steve Wilson, president; Jean Matson, vice-president; Debbie Luhnnow, secretary; Patty Wasson, treasurer; Colla Ross, songleader, Dan Wasson, sgt-at-arms; John Luhnnow, corresponding secretary and phone committee, Beverly Ross.

Jean Matson told of the recent Davis trip. Refreshments were served.

Johnny Talamantes arrived home from Vietnam Monday, has been already stationed in Concord, N.H. where he will take his wife Marjory and two sons, John, 14, and Joey, 4. He will spend his leave with the family and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rix of South Grade Road, before driving east.

BUSINESS WOMEN NAME ALPINE

Mrs. Charles E. McHone of Alpine has been named Woman-of-the-Year for the Harbor of The Sun Chapter, American Business Women's Assn. She will compete with contestants from other states for the national title at the US convention of ABWA in Detroit on Oct. 19.

The purpose of the group is to provide scholarships to deserving young women, in an effort to advance them in business and improve employer-employee relationships through more efficient service to business.

Opportunity seldom calls on people who aren't worth a rap and who can't stand a knock.
