WARNS ON FAKE CENSUS TAKERS

Adele Kratka Miles, 5th district census field supervisor asked the Sun to tell residents that some boys have been picking up census forms from unsuspecting people. "Every worker has a US ID card; make anyone asking for your form to show it", she adds.

Dr. Roger Larson of Community Church, with Mr. and Mrs. Al Haines, are in San Bernardino as delegates to a conference of United Church of Christ, today through Sunday.

SEWER BONDS APPROVED

Tuesday 208 or 57.9% of the 359 eligible voters in the Alpine Sanitation District, cast ballots on the $580,000 sewer bond issue. Approving were 183 to 25 or 85%, a wide margin as 2/3's majority is required.

The election was a special, approved by legislation which Gov. Reagan signed last month following county supervisors' discovery that they could not nullify the negative first election last October which was decreed in violation of the election code by Chas. Sexton, registrar of voters.

When Lynn Kinikin of Eltinge Drive was married on April 18 it brought a family reunion of the Max Kinikin family, oldtimers here, for the other daughter, Maxine Cabella flew out from Milwaukee with her cute little son Joey. Here is the family, from left: Maxine, Lynn, Mrs. Kinikin, the little boy and Kinikin, with his happy grandpa smile. Maxine flew back home the following week.

This means that Alpine can go ahead with plans for new connections, building and growth which had been stopped by the Water Quality Control Board after finding that the effluent from the local system emptied into Alpine Creek which flows into El Capitan Reservoir. Connection will be made to Lakeside, which has been approved for transfer to Santee, with eventual

BEESON SUFFERS HARD LUCK

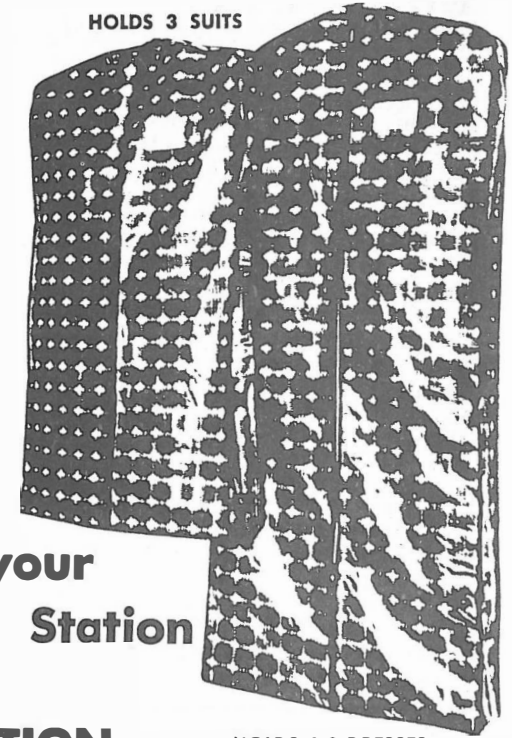

A broken shaft has just been fixed on one of Beeson Disposal Service trucks up at Mt. Laguna, but another which caught fire in Pine Valley is out of commission for a time, has to be rebuilt.

"We are striving to get back to normal, but with the labor problem and these mishaps, it's real tough" says Beeson.

EDITORIAL

THE COUNTRY YOU SAVE WILL BE YOUR OWN!

Excerpts for a guest editorial by Assemblyman John Stull, R, Leucadia, from his current Capitol Report:

We have in recent weeks seen mob rule exemplified in its highest degree, and I, for one, am ashamed to say that it was permitted to happen.

The radical factions on our campuses, led by militant anarchists, both student and faculty members, have caused serious disruptions to our educational system to the detriment of those law-abiding students who are in school to learn.

We have seen one of our two legislative houses close down for a day because of the threat to the safety of themselves and their staff. Instead of deliberating over some of the major issues facing California, we are forced to debate over whether or not we should be in Cambodia or whether the armed forces should be recognized for their heroism.

We have seen our campuses of higher learning closed, All of these incidents are caused by the extreme radical attitudes of an elite group of militant anarchists who have in their plans the destruction of America and its institutions of government and education.

This destructive force created by a nucleus of extremists has posed a serious threat to all Americans.

There is no more time to pretend the danger does not exist. If the battle for America is not to be fought in the streets, show the flag NOW.

Above all, do not give up the fight. Be as noisy in your patriotism as the revolutionaries are in their nihilism. Demand that the American Cause is supported. Write not only your own legislators in Washington and Sacramento, but others in positions of influence. Do not let a bunch of creeps put you behind any kind of curtain.

The country you save will be your own!

RALPHLYN FREY ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Frey of New Era, Oregon, announce the engagement of their daughter Ralphlyn, 18, to Michael A. Hattan of Gladstone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hattan. No wedding date has been set.

Miss Frey will be graduated May 29 from Canby Union HS, will be employed by Pacific Bell Telephone.

Hattan, who attended High School in Gladstone, is assistant circulation manager for the Oregonian there, West Linn and Oregon City.

The Freys lived at 2221 Tavern Rd. for 10 years before moving to Oregon. Ralphlyn is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Frey of Alpine Oaks Mobile Estates.

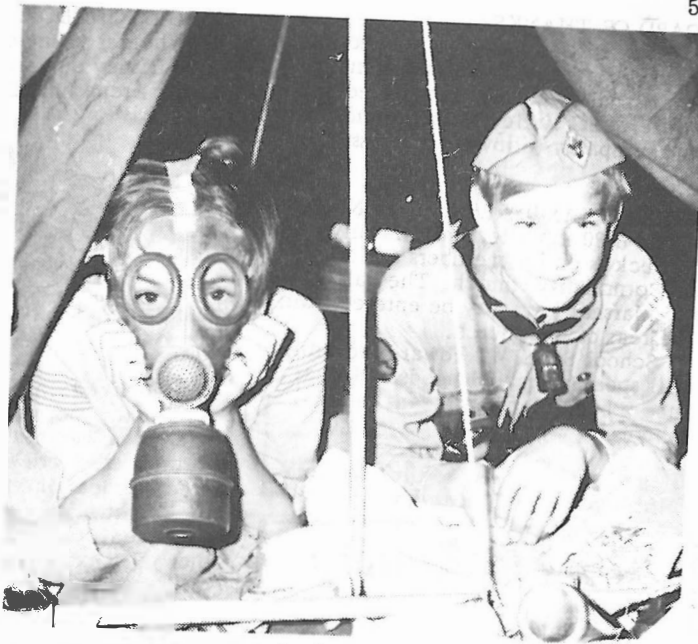

The young bride complained to her mother about her husband's drinking. "If you knew he drank, why did you marry him?"

"I didn't know", the girl replied, "until one night he came home sober!"

SCOUT BOOTH INTERESTING

Scouts from Troop 105 with leader Leroy Wedel and Mrs. Wedel, put on an interesting display at Scout Fair Saturday. Here Charles Bingham and Kenneth Wedel pose for Sun lensman in pup tent. Display showed right and wrong way to set up camp and keep it neat, clean and attractive.

GREAT HOME SHOW STARTS MAY 19
Opening Wednesday in Community Concourse, the 33rd annual Spring Home Show of the Bureau of Home Appliances, will as usual attract many thousands from all over the county till May 24, reports Pres. LeRoy A. Bellwood of the bureau.

Pete Wood, show chairman, says this one will be twice as big as any ever put on, for the first time features a 6000 sq. ft. indoor garden lighting show, plus a complete 6-room modular home and other special displays, also frequent theatre demonstrations of homemaking arts.

"We'll also have 25 Fairest of the Fair queens, all acting as hostesses and taking part in fashion shows. Opening day hours are 6 till 10:30, thereafter daily 1 till 10:30. Prices: adults, $1. children free with adults. J. Clark Chamberlain, bureau director and show manager, says discount tickets are obtainable at Safeway stores.

MAGIC KINGDOM HERE IN JUNE

Whether young or old, you will enjoy "Disney on Parade." It opens in the Sports Arena June 2-7, is a new concept in live family entertainment.

Mickey Mouse and all his cartoon friends will come to life for 10 performances. More than 100 Disney characters appear and their antics are sure to delight all.

In addition to the Disney fare, the show also has unique specialty acts to thrill everyone.

Arena officials are still looking for a SD family with the most children who get to attend a performance as guests. If you qualify, write them, 3500 Sports Arena Blvd., SD. 92101

Tickets are now on sale and call for special discounts for groups.

Ruth Burdett was surprised Sunday when Linda Tyler, her mother and Marie Armstrong Berry paid her a visit. Marie, former Alpiner, now residing in a rest home said she enjoyed receiving the Sun so much, a gift from Ruth, that she reads and rereads it, then passes it on to the nurses. Even the cook likes to read it!

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Frey enjoyed three days in Norwalk, Cal. visiting daughter Caryl and husband Frank Mazurek.

Could you give your own child a confident answer to that question? Or do you wonder yourself how your family would get along without a father? Life insurance, of course, was developed to help solve this very problem. And modern policies make it possible for almost any man to give his wife and children the basic financial protection they need.

I am interested in providing you with the kind of life insurance you really want and need — and can afford. You'll be surprised how many of your family's future problems I can help you solve.

Sunday McCall's Ranch School puts on the annual horseshow in their ring on South Grade Road with Ellen Hood, instructor, in charge. The show is open to the public and Bob Alcorn of Lakeside will judge.

Starting at noon Sunday, the 7th annual barbecue and gymkhana show is to be in Jamul horse ring sponsored by St. Pius Church.

Seems like May is an ideal month for shows so you have your choice this Sunday. The Crest is having a fun show for only $1. a class with ribbons to 10th place and is open to the public.

Call Barbara Jones, 445-4009 if you are looking for a good kid's horse or one for a teenager with a little more pep and ginger. She has two to choose from, wants to get rid of only one.

The TV repairman was trying to locate the trouble in the set. Just then the six-year old came dashing home from school.

"I'll bet," he said, "if you'd clean out the dead cowboys from the bottom of the set, it would work again."

ANTICS OF THE ARTISTS

By Mary Ann Williams

The May meeting of the AAAA was last Wednesday week at the Alpine Art Chalet in the evening. Officers for 1970 were elected: Elizabeth West, president; 1st vice president: Simone Titus; 2nd vice president, Betty Kuphaldt; 3rd vice president, Mary Ann Williams, Secretary, Betty Van Duzen; treasurer, Sabin Gray; historian, John Titus; Hostesses were: Mary Reed, Fern Sandell and Betty Van Duzen. A hearty welcome to Caroline Allbee, Betty Timson and Pauline Smith. Betty Timson added a new note to the Alpine Art scene with her distinctive and different display at the Art Mart.

J. Milford Ellison gave a most enlightening talk, and left applications for entry in the SD Fair June 24-July 5. More on this later or call at the Art Chalet for forms, deadline for filing is June 6.

Artist-of-the-month for June will be Betty Brooks. In the meantime don't miss the Creative Stitchery Showing at the Chalet during May.

Shows at the Chalet for artists-of-the-month, first thru last day. Public shows at Security Bank, Alpine Village, Log Cabin, Alpine Beauty Salon, Kap-sala's Cafe and Tip's Barber Shop.

Classes... Monday, closed; Tues. 9-12, pastel portrait, Isobel Pellegrin. Wed. all day work shop, Erna Earle, water colors. Thursday 9-12, oil painting, Skipper Whitaker. Friday 10-12, creative stitchery. Saturday 1:30-3, young peoples' art. Betty Brooks.

Clint Scott is now working with his son-in-law Ron Niccum, dealer who runs Alpine Shell Service. Mrs. Scott is working as bookkeeper for Joe Collins, developer, who is building several homes here, including one on South Grade Road for the Scotts to occupy about Aug. 15, when they move up from Lakeside.

SHOWS

It took a lot of paper work to keep Announcer Sam Siciliano supplied on the mike at both horseshows at the YC ring.

JOE LYMAN

Services were Sunday in Community Church, for Francis Joseph Lyman, 82, of Alpine Village, who died on the Wednesday. Cremation followed with burial in Ft. Rosecrans National Cemetery, Lakeside Funeral Chapel in charge.

The Lymans had lived here nine years, coming from New Mexico where they resided for 30 years. He was a native of Kenosha, Wisc., had been a civil engineer, later a farmer.

Survivors, besides the widow, two sisters, Elizabeth Lyman and Emily, in Kenosha. He was a member of the Kiwanis, Acacia Club, Lively Oaks, Veteran of WWI, and a trustee of Community Church. Donations for flowers were sent to the heart fund.

In middle are the two Sweetwater bridges. The left is 560' long, the right, 630, going east. The left, 39' wide, the right, 51'. Height is 130' over the river. Bridge Engineer Jim Beers is happy over progress, paving to be done soon.

Robt. Winterbourne is resident hwy engineer with Bob Horst of EC as assistant. Also on job were Irv Knight of LM and Jim Mick of EC. Others were Chad Blake of SD and Bob Breidenbaugh of LM, in charge of extensive drilling operations.

LIVELY OAKS DOINGS

The regular monthly potluck was enjoyed Monday by 24 members and their guests. Mrs. Bessy Eby was brought by Janet Baub of Vista Alpine and introduced.

The club will miss Grace Palmer, president, who left for Idaho to be gone a month.

MRS. ANJANETTE LITTLE

Another Alpine pioneer has departed her beloved community, Mrs. Anjanette G. Little, 89, of Japatul Road, who died Sunday in a convalescent hospital in EC. Service was Wednesday in Paris Mortuary Chapel. She had been ailing since before Christmas, was hospitalized April 3. Cremation followed. Mrs. Little would have been 90 in a few days. She was born in Hulburt Grove, Descanso, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Gregory, early day ranchers. Her husband, Guy Little, a horticulturist, died some years ago. They had lived on Japatul Road since 1918, where they cultivated vineyards and orchards, raised milk and meat goats. For some time they ran the winery here for Mr. and Mrs. Harold Flegal, now the site of Alpine Village.

Until recently she had maintained a branch county library in her home, which was also a polling place in elections. Only known survivors, a nephew, Clyde Jones, of LA, and another elsewhere.

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile & Celeste Irvine

We were certainly proud of our school last week when unanimously we voted to stay open during Gov. Regan's 4-day shutdown to curb campus disturbances. We have had some demonstrations but after President Burnham talked to us, we were only too glad to be one of two schools in SD County to remain open and do so without incident.

The Scout Fair in Del Mar was simply fabulous with probably every Scout in the organization there. It was so crowded you had to weave your way through the kids to see the displays and all of the interesting things they had. We thoroughly enjoyed it, had a ball.

If you haven't seen the art show in Fashion Valley, don't miss it. It is simply unbelievable to see the creative ability of people, and a lot of them were young. We watched in wonderment as a young artist made glass figureines out of molten glass rods. Another boy made unusual clocks out of burnt wood using horse shoe nails for numbers on the dial and other unusual things. We could have spent the day looking at all of the many ways people use scraps of metal, wood, and old cars to create beautiful works of art. We don't know how long this display will be there, but don't miss it.

George Buell has been accepted by Biola University in La Mirade to attend the fall session.

We stopped by Mary Hollywood's Saturday to see her and learned she was in Ireland on a visit, will be home next week. She used to live here, ran the rest home on Alpine Heights road for years.

Mike Scully got appointed by John Stull to attend the California Maritime Academy in Vallejo. He starts classes Aug. 11, is thrilled with the appointment. He took tests and was interviewed and investigated before being accepted. It is an honor and his parents are quite proud of him. The same day he received his appointment word came from his brother Frank serving in Vietnam with the Marines that he had made corporal.

MRS. NASON CHORAL PRESIDENT

The SD Choral Club will have installation of officers in the King's Inn at a luncheon next Thursday, at which Mrs. Alexander Nason of the Highlands, will become president. Mrs. Ruby Best of Vista Alpine is also an active member, will take part in an original parody as part of the entertainment.

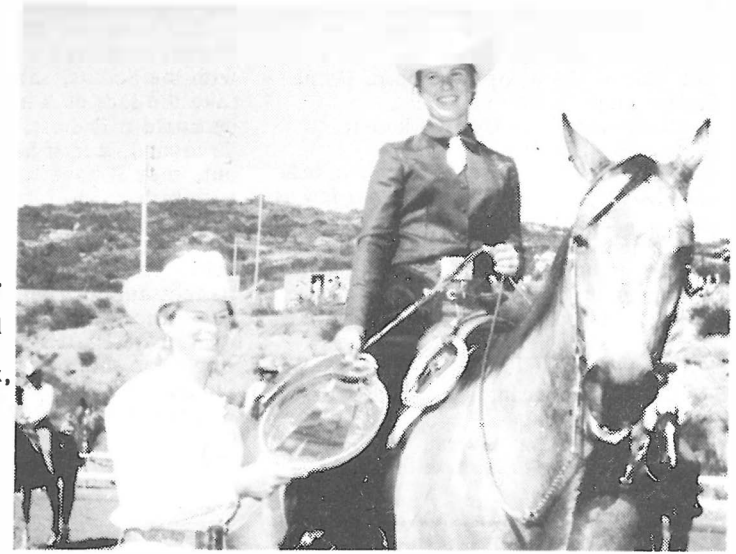

An interesting open house, art & hobby show, will be on at Conservation Camp Cima, 13 miles south of Julian this Sunday, from 10 till 2. The public is invited to inspect this facility run by the state. Firefighting will be one feature, as inmates are trained in this,

GIRLS SHOWED FINE STYLE

From Vista, was Jan Mithke, receiving her award, for first in Stock Horse Open class at Sunday's show, from Miss Alpine. Jan owns Kemo Saby.

Many winners were from around the county including Fallbrook, Lakeside, E.C., Ramona, SD, Bonita and other areas.

High point horse was "Four on the Floor", owned by Susan Wagner, Vista.

A chip on the shoulder often indicates that there is wood higher up.

FORREST HOHANSHELT

Private graveside services for Forrest A. Hohanshelt, 69, were Monday in Alpine Cemetery. He died Friday after a lengthy illness, had been a resident for 44 years.

Hohanshelt was a native of Iowa, a building contractor, he built the Alpine postoffice, Empire Market and more than 20 homes here. He was building inspector for Alpine and Harbison Canyon schools.

Forrest was an honorary member of Alpine Kiwanis Club, and treasurer of Alpine Cemetery Association for many years.

His kindness and gentle nature endeared him to all who knew him.

He leaves his widow Hazel, two sisters, Mrs. Hugh Divine of Lemon Grove, Mrs. Walter LaFortune of EC and a brother Zelman of China Lake.

MOTHER'S DAY AT VISTA ALPINE

Over 60 turned up for the special Mother's Day breakfast in the recreation hall at Vista Alpine Mobile Home Estates, reports the managers.

Chefs were Jack Currie, Robert Pinto and Al Straka.

They voted to have another one real soon, with the men in charge, as it was such a success.

The white elephant sale netted $35. for the group's treasury. Ruby Wilson, publicity chairman, reminds all of the potluck Saturday night.

DESCANSO DIGEST

Old boys can still be boys! For Bill Cochran offered to help Ron Blodgett with the Scouts, said he would like to take the lads on a hike just to see if he could still do it. Bill is the youngest 73 around, and if he does take them out, they'll have to hustle to keep up with him.

The Scout program was in a bit of a bind last week, but due to some really public spirited citizens, it is back on its feet and making good. Remember, our manpower comes from boy power!

Barbara Hiatt started the ball rolling when she took over as den mother for the Descanso Cubs. Red Hiatt will be Cubmaster. Nina Crow will be den mother for the kids from Guatay and PV. Rich Hulska took over as Web-lo leader and after the top spots were filled, other parents came forward and Pack 151 now has a full committee.

Snap Coffin who had held the program together for the past year all by himself, reported that he had to give up the job of Scoutmaster. Ron Blodgett took over, has two nice boys of his own so will be sure to take a deep personal interest in Scouting here. Chet Dorman remains as committee chairman and Messers King, Forbis, Morejohn, Stevenson and Galindo make up the troop committee. Coffin promised to stay active in the troop as an I-R.

A bunch of ladies worked at Mrs. Ethyl Cochran's house last week getting prizes ready for the July Fourth Descanso County Fair. They enjoyed a good old fashioned potluck, including some TOPS gals!

Mrs. Allie Vigneault is back from an exciting 3½-day charter bus trip to Sacramento to attend a doll conference, an annual event for five western states. Last year's was in SD. "Great trip, but trying as we rode at night", she avers.

VIEJAS DAYS AT SECURITY

Everyone in the bank during Viejas Days wore western costume and smiled, as shown here by Betty Noble, one of the tellers, serving a customer at her window.

The bank enjoyed its 7th birthday on May 6, finds that projected business is right up to snuff, according to Manager Luther Mohr.

Betty recently moved into her splendid new home on Willows Road where she now resides with her mother, Mrs. Dorothy Noble Markley and her USMC buddy, Bettye Hollis.

SUN WELCOMES LOCAL NEWS

Every organization should have a publicity chairman, one who will write, or type (double-spaced, please), news of their group, and send it in to the editor for publication-- without charge, of course-- in your community newspaper, the Alpine Sun, now in its 19th year of service to this area.

The sermon went on and on. Finally the preacher asked: "What more, my friends, can I say"?

From the rear came a hollow voice: "Amen!"

FORMER ALPINE VISITS

Nikki Menconi, with husband Bob, moved to Yakima last fall, flew back to SD to visit her many friends here this week, is staying with Joe and Pat Schultz of La Mesa. The husbands were on the same submarine 16 years ago, have been friends ever since.

Nikki was in business here, sparked the Miss Alpine contest which is in it's 3rd year, has paid off well for Alpine. Nikki and Bob take the Sun to keep abreast of what's going on here.

SCHOOL WENT WESTERN, TOO

Here is an outstanding example of how local schools dressed for Viejas Days. From left, Corey Warner, 13, and sister Debby- 15, children of the C.L. Warners, 115 W. Noakes in the Canyon.

Supt. Ed Browing, staff teachers-- everyone, wore colorful western duds and had a good time.

The Warners go in strong for real western atmosphere.

KATZ RECEPTION FOR DA ENTRANT

At 10 today in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Katz, 1215 Adobe Lane in EC., they are enjoying a reception-coffee for Ed Miller, candidate for district attorney. Katz is owner of Alpine Villa Cottages, which he plans on razing to build a modern apartment complex.

WE GIVE GREEN STAMPS

HOSS SENSE

By Cynthia McTaggart

This week will give you a few points on one of the reasons your horse rubs the skin off his neck or other parts of his body.

If you notice your animal rubbing a lot and scratching be sure to check for lice. The neck, mane and back parts are the most frequently infested. Lice are small parasites that live on the skin surface and will cause the loss of hair due to rubbing. If you run your hand along the place with the hair rubbed off you will sometimes see the creatures imbedded in the skin.

Animals with long hair that are not groomed properly or not at all are the most susceptible. Lice may be spread through direct contact and by equipment and stables that have not been cleaned or sprayed.

The parasites occur most frequently in late winter or just before summer shedding. Stables may remain infested from year to year if not properly cared for. Good grooming, clipping and disinfection of equipment is the best means of preventing them.

If you see small white eggs stuck to shafts of the hairs you should clip the horse and burn the hair. You can buy a disinfectant and bathe your pet with this. You will probably have to do this several times before you get rid of them but don't worry about getting them on you, they are only interested in your horse.

If you buy a horse that has lice, be sure to segregate him and get rid of the pests fast. Your pet will appreciate the relief and you will keep others in the corral from being made miserable by scratching.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Your Editorial concerning the unfairness of some of the zoning laws, and citing as an example the Naud Trucking Co. on the corner of Arnold and Petra opens the door for a presentation of some views of the majority of Oak Glen homeowners, as evidenced at the recent hearing before the Planning Commission, at which time the Naud rezoning request was denied.

This area was zoned 1-A more than two years before the Nauds purchased their property here. Several new families have either bought homes or property to build upon with the understanding that the Zoning was 1-A.

We do not understand why anyone would move into a community and expect to have one particular plot rezoned just for their own selfish wishes, and especially to ask for an industrial zoning (M-2) in this agricultural area, and thus becoming an annoyance to everyone else. These trucks are a definite traffic hazard as they are parked on both sides of Arnold Way at night and on weekends; the entire neighborhood is awakened at 5:30 each morning when these truck engines are warmed up before leaving; Saturdays and Sundays are filled with constant noise of mechanical work in servicing these trucks; and then, also, there is the extreme fire hazard caused by the storage of large quantities of fuel and tires, as well as the welding operations in the maintenance of these large earth-moving trucks.

For obvious reasons, I must ask that my name be withheld.

Note- We talked to Mrs. Naud who said they bought the place as the realtor said it was unzoned, which they believed. They store no fuel but keep it on a rented lot in EC. Welding is electric, noiseless. And parking on the road is legal. Furthermore none has complained to Nauds who had a petition signed by 51 in favor of their operation. -Ed

LUTHERAN CHURCH NEWS

Pentecost Sunday, May 17, is the third of the three great Christian festivals. At Christmas we thank God for sending His Son into this world to redeem all mankind from sin, death and the devil. On Easter we sing anthems because He by His resurrection proved that He had finished the work of redemption which the Father had given Him to do. Pentecost is celebrated in commemoration of the outpouring of the Holy Ghost and the founding of the New Testament Church.
