MOBILHOME MAN BUYS, MOVES HERE

Although he is the largest dealer in his field, Bert Caster, of EC, has just bought and moved into the fine residence owned by Arthur Norris at 1969 Lilac Lane, reports Carolyn Vanek who handled the deal for Alpine Realty. With Caster is his wife and three lovely daughters and Mrs. Caster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Trisko. The newcomers sold their homes in Montebello. Caster has the big mobilhome lot at Broadway and Greenfield in EC.

SEWER CONTRACT IS SIGNED

The engineer on Project 5005 for Alpine Sanitation District new work, has completed his review of the project and will now proceed with designs. Surveyors will shortly be in the area to complete surveys, announces C.J. Houson, director. Formal contract with the consulting engineer has been signed. "Citizens are requested to cooperate with surveyors", says Houson, "particularly where they may have to enter private property to complete their

He is a native of NY City as is his wife. Two years ago they visited friends in 1000 Oaks, but detested the smog from LA, so came to SD, found Alpine which appealed to them, resulting in its being selected as a future home. They hope to buy or build soon.

West's background contains such company positions as stage agent, NY Metropolitan Dept., manager, and chief Eastern States Underwriters. He then decided on an independent career, developing his own general agency at E. Setauket, a place of significance in the Revolutionary War.

Then last year, desiring to enjoy more outdoor living, he sold the agency and made the trek west. "Alpine is the place to live" he avers, "and we hope to help in its sound growth".

After a tedious round of bouts with codes, delays in material and equipment for his dozy Alpine Inn, 2225 Alpine Blvd., jolly Buster McDonald, owner and chef, is smiling broadly with his growing list of customers. Pictured here he is busy in the immaculate kitchen, well lighted, ventilated and quite sanitary.

This is his 12th cafe in many years of experience in this line and this one will probably be permanent as he loves Alpine. He completely transformed the Inn into a modern establishment which was known for many years as Alpine Cafe.

SCHOOL COSTS SOARING TO MAKE HIGHER TAXES

Editor's Note:- This enlightening resume of the local situation was prepared specially for the Sun by Adm. Frederick Nelson, president of Alpine Taxpayers' Assn.; its treasurer, Jas. H. Shaw, and Robt. Pellegrin, advisor on tax matters. It is something to ponder.

On June 8 the assessor notified most Alpine property owners of new and higher assessments. Increases ranged from 15 to 150%, the average around 40%.

This action resulted in an indignation meeting in the school auditorium. About 100 property owners attended and the Alpine Taxpayers' Assn. was formed. Its purpose was to attempt to secure reductions and to combat increased taxes at any level.

Unfortunately Alpine has attained the dubious distinction of having one of the highest tax rates in the county. Due to the improvements it has voted itself, the costs are largely frozen. While county government is the agency most often condemned for high taxes, its 1969-70 rate was only $2.35 per $100 valuation out of total rates of almost $12. The biggest bite was that of the schools with combined rates amounting to $6.63 per $100, or more than half of the total tax.

The Alpine Elementary school rate was $1.696. About 10 days prior to the school budget hearing on Aug. 3, Adm. Frederick Nelson requested a copy of the tentative budget from the school superintendent. He has served as an educator in addition to his career in the Navy, and Mrs. Nelson has been a member of the school board of Coronado.

In the May 1 Alpine Sun it was reported that an elementary school budget of $577,000 was being eyed-- that this represented a jump of $100,000. It was further stated that an enrollment of 900 was expected, an increase of 100 pupils. At the Aug. 3 meeting the superintendent read changes in the proposed budget ending with total of approximately $670,000 or an increase of about $90,000 over the $100,000 jump predicted on May 1.

The superintendent was questioned from the floor as to the need for this large increase, and it was pointed out that the people of Alpine, had, unlike most other parts of the country, supported their schools by voting bonds in June for new construction.

He replied that the budget was entirely apart from the school bond issue, and that the amount required was due to an expected increase of 150 pupils. This figure was up 50 from the increase predicted on May 1. The superintendent answered questions by Admiral Nelson relative to an item of $2000 for carpeting, and the reason for the increase in school principal salary. He pointed out that two principals would now be required. The budget was thereupon

BIG RECEPTION HERE

This evening a lively wedding reception will take place in the Alex W. Nason home, 1985 Oak View Place, Alpine, when their niece Susan Diane Hespeler becomes the bride of Kenneth W. Howard of EC.

The wedding will be in St. Kieran's Catholic Church on Greenfield Dr. with the reception immediately following in the Nason home for the 200 guests.

Susan is a graduate of SD State while her husband-to-be is a music teacher, will be teaching this fall in 29 Palms, where the young couple will reside.

Vicar Curt Lyon and wife, who were at the Lutheran Church two years ago, are spending a week here as guests of Mrs. Bertha Sutton. She is the artist who painted the beautiful windows at the church. The Lyons' are renewing many old friendships.

Tip's Barbershop, 2530 Alpine Blvd., has a full day from 8 to 6, with Saturday to 5, and is closed Monday, he reports, says business is growing steadily as people read his ad in the Sun.

SCOTT HAS FINE CREW AT SHELL

Recently taken over by Clinton C. Scott, Sr., the Alpine Shell Service at Tavern Road & Interstate 8, is going along great.

Scott, and his wife last week moved into their splendid new home on South Grade Road, is delighted with everything, is a staunch believer in Alpine's bright future.

HORSE TALK

By The Double C's

We sure want to give a big thanks to Doug Benson who rounded up our horses Sunday night at midnight and put them back in their corrals. We were not home so appreciate such good neighbors, only hope we can return the favor sometime.

Theresa Brotherton came over Monday on her darling brown and white pony named Coco. She just got him, is having a ball riding with the neighbor kids.

Little Matt Scully is going to return the black shetland stud they got for him to ride. The horse is just too much for a little 6 year old, in fact, is so full of it they can't go in the corral and Steve Brown sold Snooper's Red Baron, the beautiful 5-months old stud we had pictured in the Sun recently, to Dick and Barbara Miller. They are neighbors, want to raise him for show. They also breed Great Danes, have a large kennel there.

Rae Wakeman, 12, is looking for a nice horse to buy that is reasonable. They moved to Alpine last week and haven't a phone so if you have one to sell, please phone us, 445-2394 and we will give her the message.

Mary and Mark Lopez are looking for a reasonable Welch or Shetland to buy. They have a horse their older brother rides but want one they can us. Please call their neighbor Robin Branon, 445-4554 and she will give them the message.

Jerry and Wayne Brown leased Snooper B to Tina Taylor of El Cajon who is going to raise the colt for her 4-H project. The Browns bred the mare to their beautiful appaloosa Eagle's Frosty Rogue.

We just learned that JoAnn Villa is the proud owner of a beautiful 15-month old registered quarter stud. He is a sorrel with light mane and tail. He is out of Crown Twist by Hard Twist with Texas Saber by Texas Sunny Jo as the dam. She has been working with him, hopes to enter in halter classes this fall with him. The horse is a local one, but has been out to pasture in Escondido most of his life, is quiet and easily handled so we know JoAnn has a winner on her hands.

Getting old is merely a matter of feeling your corns more than you feel your oats.

EL CAPITAN READY TO OPEN

R. E. King, administrative vice-principal, invites Alpiners and others who plan on attending, to be sure to note the following:

"All students new to the attendance area of El Capitan High School and who have not yet been programmed for the fall semester are requested to appear at the school on Sept. 3 or 4 to discuss their schedules. Counselors will be on duty from 8 am to 3 pm on those days.

"If students wait beyond the 4th of Sept. their choice of classes will be almost eliminated. It is imperative that they appear to be programmed on either the 3rd or 4th if they are now to the area and have not been scheduled."

Note The Sun would like to have a student, chiefly in journalism, to act as reporter for Alpine young people in that school. -Ed.

Jenny Lane, wife of Dick, who has been in ill health for years, was rushed to Grossmont Hospital for extensive tests last week, will be there for several days.

BIG TAX RELIEF REPORTED

Assessor E.C. Williams says at present 155,000 homeowners receive the $750 exemption and 36,000 veterans get the $1,000 one, which means a tax relief of about $13,780,000. He has all data on tapes so if the new tax bill goes through, the added relief can be quickly calculated.

FORMER ALPINE HONORED

Ted Keller, formerly of the Highlands, was honored by his supervisors at North Island last week when upon his retirement they hosted him to a surprise party at the CPO Club at North Island. As a going away present they gave him a rod and reel, tackle box and a desk set, were sorry to see him leave. Over 100 of his friends and co-workers were on hand to wish him well.

Their nephew Sgt. Herbert Eggers arrived in LA from Vietnam last Tuesday, was met by the Kellers and driven to their beautiful mobilhome in California City where he spent a delightful week with them. He left for his home in Indiana where his wife and 3 children reside, will be stationed in Louisville, Ky.

CORRECT THIS ON YELLOW PAGES

Due to Hilderbrand Richfield Service being so much delayed in opening, he was using his residence number, 445-5021 which was erroneously put on the Sun's directory for the station number. So please insert the correct one, 445-5118 when you wish to call the station.

Over 400 extras of this useful directory were printed for added distribution, showing how Alpine is growing.

If you wish an extra copy or two, send a stamped, addressed envelope to the Sun, no charge, 2255 Tavern Road, Alpine, Ca 92021.

Another correction for your list is the telephone of J. W. England. Should be 445-4942.

SAN DIEGANS BUY, TO BUILD

Escrow just closed on the sale of a choice acre site in Victoria Hills formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. John C. Strong of SD. New owners are Larry and Nancy Brass of Collwood Blvd., SD. Larry is a computer engineer for Fryant-Smith. They plan to build a lovely new home soon. Sale was made by Joe W. Graham, salesman for Brown Realty.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Brown, who operate an appaloosa horse ranch, Bell Bluff Road, were thrilled when this little stud arrived May 4, making a total of 18 horses for them. This baby's father is Eagle's Frosty Rogue, with Cahava's Mineola B as the dam, has a beautiful leopard blanket. His name is Saulalito's Pat Hand. Their third foal turned out to be a filly born May 6 out of Pima named Cochina Doll.

Alpine needs a good fixit man.

STEAK NEARLY FINISHES MAN

Choking on a piece of meat Saturday night in the Log Cabin, Eddie Andrews, 68, of Julian, was saved by quick thinking of Bertha Bowles, former waitress there, who extracted the somewhat too large bite from his throat. They called the fire station which made it there in just one minute, brought him back to consciousness with the new resus citator. "It was a real close call" said Chief Bennett, "it pays to phone at once in any emergency".

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile & Celeste Irvine

We hate to report that our Canadian trip was a bummer but it was. We did enjoy driving up the coast with a stop-off at Solvang. That place has grown so big you can't even find a parking and it was boiling hot so we didn't stay.

We had dinner in Fisherman's Warf and then headed north on Hwy 1 to Crescent City where Celeste's boy friend Russ Whitaker met us on his bike and she rode with him to their resort in Gasquet. We had a gorgeous swim in the Smith River, was so clean and blue and deep we couldn't believe it. We spent the afternoon there, then drove on to Medford, Ore. We were within 15 miles of Cynthia and Bill's ranch when our Chevy engine burned up, was lucky it didn't happen on those hot curves coming over the mountains. Anyway we got a ride into Medford and Bill helped us get the car to a garage where it sat till Friday night getting repaired. Our trip farther north was cancelled because Mama couldn't spend that much time. We stayed another week with Cynthia and Bill and came on home. The trip must have been jinxed because Mama even had trouble flying home. They couldn't land in LA because of so much congestion and had to circle for 15 minutes till the field was clear. There were so many people trying to get home each plane was held up while standby passengers got off and regular ones got on. Well, so much for our vacation.

Eric Miller, Jim and Nellie King's 8-year old great-grandson has been spending his vacation enjoying the Zoo, Sea World and Disneyland, celebrated his 8th birthday with them.

Paul Kuphaldt is working toward his pilot's license, is a mechanic at Gillespie Field, loves flying.

Jack White and his bride Marcia moved from our park because she had a 2-year old son. They put their 12' mobilhome in the Flinn Springs Mobile Lodge where they take children.

We received a nice card from Carl McCall who went to England to meet Blanche. She ended her African cruise in Southampton and they both flew home on a 747. report a fabulous time.

Lynn Kinikin Wilson and her father flew to Milwaukee last week to visit with Maxine and her family, had a delightful time.

LIVE GARDENERS MEET TONIGHT

Alpiners interested in naturally growing vegetables may attend an enlightening session when the SD Organic Gardening Club meets in the Floral Building, Balboa Park at 8 pm tonight with the club open at 7 for questions answered by Veep Paul Canady. He will be speaker of the evening on care of fruit trees. The public is invited.

FALLACY OF PROGRESS?

At the Friday night meeting of Alpine Historical Society in the Woman's Club, presided over by Richard Zuelke, president, with Mrs. Dorothy Long, secretary on duty, the speaker of the evening, Richard Rypinski, Del Mar councilman, spoke on "Is Bigger Better?" An appreciative audience heard his interesting talk.

"We were all born stewards of the earth" he stated, "and have been working full-time preserving it", meaning the present situation of pollution and so on.

He showed the mistaken idea of expansion: "American tradition that growth means progress is a fallacy" he said, explaining how the ecology and environment are diminishing with so-called progress.

The group will elect shortly, and anyone interested is invited to join in the work. Directors will be elected.

MORE INFLATION, SAYS KIPLINGER

In a letter to the Sun, Stanley R. Mayes, assistant to the president of the famous Kiplinger Washington Editors, Inc., says:

"Dear Mr. Irvine: The recent boom of the 60's-- the biggest on record-- will be followed in the mid-70's by a new and perhaps even bigger boom. And with it, more inflation.

This may be hard for you to accept under today's conditions. But the fact remains and those who do prepare for the new boom ahead will reap big dividends for their foresight... and avoid the blunders others will make.

So as the Boy Scouts say "Be prepared".

passed without discussion by the Board. Although most districts have to propose increased budgets due to inflation, larger enrollments, and higher wages, some economy-minded districts have been able to curtail such increases or at least hold them to minimal amounts.

La Mesa reports a budget of 11% higher than last year. National City has announced a budget slightly lower also. El Cajon reports a $.07 dip in tax rate due to a 20% higher assessed valuation. Alpine, with its 40% higher assessed valuation could have logically expected a reduction in its school tax rate. Apparently it was decided however to treat the large amount of money developed by the higher tax base as a windfall for the schools with none being returned to the property owners in the form of a lower rate.

Based on the superintendent's statement that the cause behind the higher budget is the addition of 150 more pupils, it will apparently cost $1200 per pupil for the new ones (150 students x $1200 -- $180,000-- approximate increase in the school budget.) And when next year's budget is prepared, the starting point for increases will be about $670,000 instead of the approximate $477,000 for the school year just ended.

THANKS ON BASEBALL

The Alpine Little League would like to thank everyone that made the bakesale Saturday a big success. When the money was all counted we showed a profit of over $80. A special thanks goes to Florence's and Empire Markets for the space, and also to Ozzie Brems for the fine work on the signs. Watch the Sun for further events.

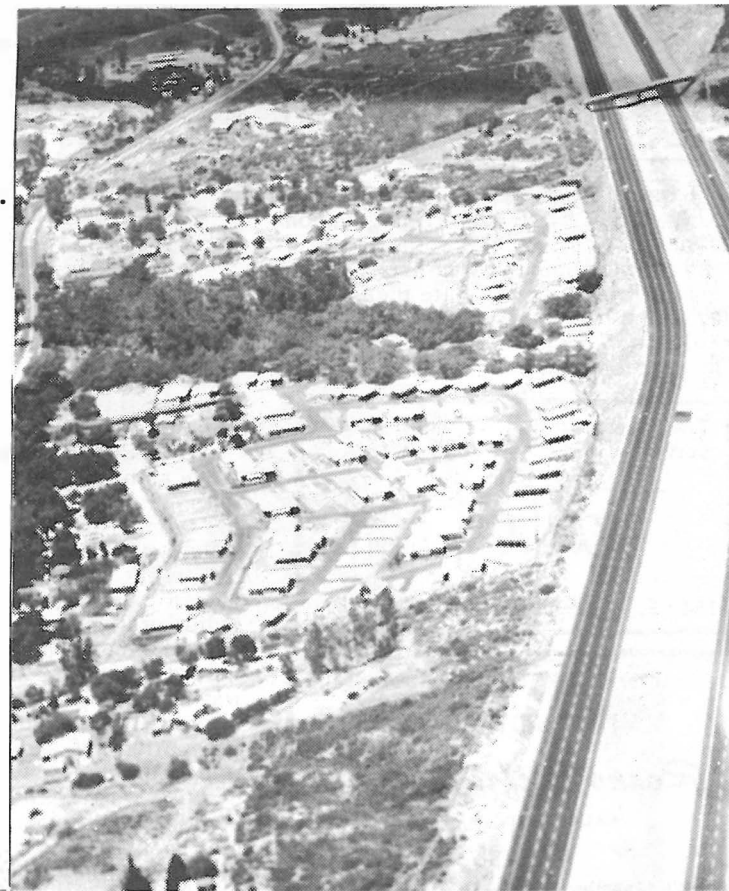

The five "B's" of middle age are Baldness, Bridgework, Bifocals, Bay windows and Bunions.

VISTA ALPINE FILLS STEADILY

Here is a recent shot by Editor Irvine when flying over downtown Alpine. This looks west showing Vista Alpine Mobile Home Estates in foreground, Alpine Blvd. at left, I-8 at right with W. Victoria bridge in upper right.

The estates are now housing 86 families with 9 reservations, making the total soon 95, nearly two thirds full for the 151 space park, report the managers, Ira & Lydia Hargrove.

This fine property was developed by owners, MGI, with Christopher D. Sickles of SD president.

BAKESALE HUGE SUCCESS

Saturday mothers interested in the Little League put on a bakesale in front of Florence's and Empire Markets and cleaned up $72.85. The money will go for uniforms next year, will include older boys to 16 years if enough finances can be taken in before the season opens.

HOSS SENSE

By Cynthia McTaggart

Summer seems to be a time when everyone is doing a lot of riding and on most trail rides you will come home with ticks on you and your horse.

Most horses will tolerate them but if the numbers increase they will get restless and begin rubbing and scratching. If the animal is badly infested he will bite and lick the area causing raw spots. Small ticks may become engulfed in the swelling area making it hard to remove them. Tick bites heal slowly.

These insects will attach themselves to the ears, neck and flanks but can be found on all areas, sometimes down inside the ears and under the stomach and legs. Our old sorrel gelding had them inside his ears so bad it took weeks to clear them up. He probably had had them for years and it was quite by accident that we discovered them at all.

All three stages of the tick can be found on your horse so the size will vary from the tiny larva to the engorged female, a half a centimeter in length.

When there are only a few present they can be removed by simply plucking them off, being careful to remove the head. You can twist them out carefully, not pull straight out. If the head does break off be sure to remove the broken part. You can put a drop of iodine or kerosene on them and they will back out. The head should be removed or it will continue working its way in making a nasty sore but most of the irritated areas will heal with little attention once the whole tick is removed.

When you return from a ride go over your horse with your hand rubbing the hair back and this will reveal most of the ticks. If he is on pasture check him once a week to be sure he is clean. Be sure to check his tail as under the hair is a good hiding place.

There are some sprays that can be used to kill these pests but it is really easier to remove them and be sure they are gone.

When you remove them, be sure they are killed and not just dropped on the ground. Some females will lay eggs under debris. Drop them in a little kerosene or water, but be sure to get rid of them.

"Man, I just saw a ghost down there in the graveyard!"

"Did it give you a start?"

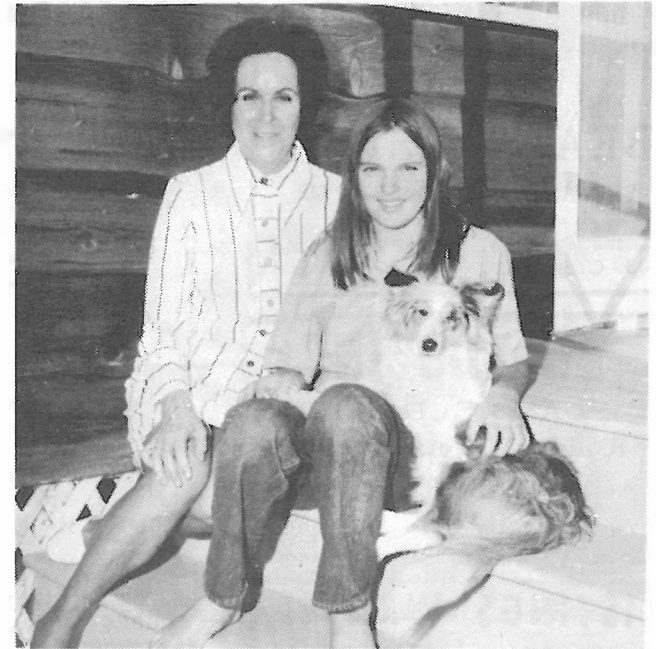

"I didn't need one, Man!"

SHE CHOSE ALPINE FOR HOME

A native Angelino, Mrs. Elva Wakeman, has just moved into the cottage at 2237 Tavern Road, with her charming daughter, Rae, 12, coming from Lemon Grove. She chose Alpine because of its fine climate and as Rae, a native of Tacoma, is a lover of horses and she plans on owning one soon, this was the place to live. She will attend 7th grade when school opens.

Mrs. Wakeman is with Credit Research Bureau in SD, having lived in the area for six years. Previously lived in Hawaii for four years.

funds for the project. The act provides for a 25% grant from state funds to assist in building sewer facilities.

The US matches this grant with another 25%. In addition, the federal government still will contribute the 30% grant that was included in the original presentation made at the time of the bond election which Alpine passed.

Therefore, if Proposition 1 passes in November, grants will be at the 80% level rather than the previously assumed 30% level. The wording of the law is such that Alpine will be eligible for the larger grant even though their bond election took place before the bill was passed.

AR-TEASE-TIKS!

By Betty Moore

Surprise! The experiment has been completed and is ready for all to behold. After bending a few nails, drill bits, and tempers, a frame of Manzanita branches is complete and is beautiful. With Simone Titus doing a bit of artistic sawing, John Titus, a bit of artistic nailing and assembling, and Betty Moore providing the background blah! A most beautiful and unusual frame emerged.

Call to all artists! And anyone interested in frames? The rustic effect is perfect, the colors in the manzanita branches gives the picture the necessary decollete. For surprising effects, your pictures can be enchanted by these branches. Try it and see. Frame is on display at the chalet, 1321 W. Victoria Dr.

September is the month for photography. All interested in hanging their exhibits contact John Titus. This art is coming into its own, and recognition for the artists involved is gaining new ground.

LANE SEES ENGLAND

After being gone from his native England for 36 years, Richard Lane of S. Marshall Road spent nearly two months there visiting sisters and relatives, said he saw many changes.

He just returned this week from a delightful trip with his son Joe Deakins of Southfield, Mich. They went 200 miles into Canada on a fishing trip, came home with a beautiful catch.

SUNRISE today 6:13; sunset 7:32; moonrise 3:13 pm, last quarter, Aug. 23. Did you see the partial eclipse of Luna on Sunday night? About 41% obscured the upper part around 8:45 maximum shadow.

Family reunion was enjoyed by Jim and Nellie King this week when they entertained Mrs. King's sons and family.

In photo are, from left, Venola and husband, Wallace Kohl, from Oregon; his brother, Ellis, of SD; Mrs. King's great-grandson, Eric Miller, Grandma King, and Judy Kohl, Ellis' wife. The family enjoyed a wonderful week of visiting and sight-seeing.

HATS OFF TO MRS. BISHOP!

Since starting the 3rd carrier route here, residents have been invited to move mail boxes across the road, but most are dilatory, says Bettye Hollis, carrier.

"But We salute Mrs. Verna Bishop, 807 E. Victoria Drive for she gout out and dit it herself, the first on that street, for which we are thankful".
