PROJECT OPEN HEART WAS GREAT

It is said that one who does good is happier for helping others. That is true, for these smiling folks have done their bit to aid fire victims.

From left: Hal Walker, Mrs. Gloria J. Faupel, Project Officer 2nd Lt. Francis J. Clark; school nurse, Mrs. Richard A. Nelson, and Supt. Ed Browning.

The project was by Mount Laguna Air Force Station, home of the 751st Air Defense Group, culminating its

FLORIDANS BUY IN DESCANSO

Jim and Irene Stevens bought the old Descanso Catholic Church property, The Stevens are from Port Richey, Fla. and they are working, cleaning and remodeling. "These are the most charming people and hard working" says Carolyn Vanek of Alpine Realty, who handled the deal. "This should be a must to see in the future what with the gorgeous pine trees that surround the property."

Walker is a technician up there, lives in Vista Alpine MHE: Mrs. Faupel is wife of the station commander, Col. Fred C. Faupel, jr. She and Lt. Clark handed over the money and goods to Browning and Mrs. Nelson for distribution to needy families displaced in the fire.

HOME FEDERAL HERE SOON

A branch office is being planned for Alpine to be open one day a week to accommodate the 500 or more depositors here. The bank is negotiating now for property to put the mobile bank on, will eventually lead to a permanent building.

Park Rider and Richard Fritzer of Home Federal gave an interesting and informative talk to the chamber, outlining their plans for future facilities here. Both speakers said Alpine is on the verge of tremendous growth.

ALPINE HAS AMBULANCE

Al Curtis, who owns and runs Pacific Ambulance and Sickroom Supplies has placed an ambulance next to the Chamber of Commerce building, 2131 Alpine Blvd. to meet the demand for the growing area.

Curtis has his vehicles equipped with the latest life-saving devices and they are dispatched on a 24-hour, 7-day basis with the crew rotated.

Pacific Ambulance is the only service here, already has the phone, 442-0514, is ready for any emergency. The company maintains 4 ambulances and 4 sickroom locations with 30 employees in SD County, has been established since 1964, with rental and service for professional as well as home convalescent needs.

Curtis starts advertising this week in the Sun, proves once again that Alpine is growing daily.

SLEEPY HOLLOW REOPENS

Four Grossmont College boys, Stephen Montijo, Noel Quintana, Mike Brown and Khy Griffin, all formerly of La Mesa, have leased Sleepy Hollow Ranch from Ev Shilts, owner, and are open for boarding horses.

The ranch has 16 private indoor stalls, pipe corrals and is on the hiking and riding trail, has over 80 acres of trails which lead in any direction for nice rides.

"If you don't care to go riding but want to work your horse, we have two lighted rings with bleachers" says Montijo and "the ranch is only 2 miles from the center of Alpine, 399 Dehesa Road, just below Tavern Road."

Friend: "How did you invest it?"

Business man: I used it to pay for a telegram home for more money.

FIRE RADIO FUND AT HALFWAY MARK

Downtowners had a free Western concert by the lively California Country trio who attracted much attention Saturday forenoon in front of the PO to help raise $9,000 to buy radio equipment for the fire department.

Joe Collins, chairman of the project for Kiwanis, reported Wednesday that they had made the halfway mark and more cash was coming in.

In photo he points to the thermometer, with its $9,000 top, with Joan Cockayne, who was chairman of the reception, and fund raising event last week for Alpine's volunteer firemen.

HOW LONG WILL US STAND FOR SKYJACKING?

Last week the flight that we take to visit our daughter Cynthia in Medford, Ore., (SD to Portland by United) was pirated to Cuba via a Tijuana.

Just how long is America, and other nations, going to stand for this? We maintain a costly United Nations that seems to have no more power than a tap on the wrist to any country that does wrong. If it had teeth, it would place sanctions against Cuba or any other nation that allows these pirates to bring a big plane in and go free.

The US could do something in the economic field that might bring the dictator to his senses. Some have said that we are fighting a corrupt war in far-off Vietnam against communists, when we have the same only 90 miles from the US. But we did not go in to "save" the Cubans!

Putting armed guards aboard planes is not the answer, for seldom could one get a bead on the hijacker and shoot without endangering the lives of others, perhaps the entire plane.

If American know how, brains, science and ingenuity cannot find a way to stop it, we should be ashamed of ourselves. Oh yes, we have put men on the moon, flown space vehicles to photo Mars, and we plan, and know how, to do so much with electronics, computers and push-buttons. Now why can't we put together some sort of an electronic or high tension electric device that, when a pirate says, "take us to Cuba", the stewardess, or the pilot, or someone could press a button and flash-- the criminal would stand transfixed, or in a cataleptic condition as in hypnotism, unable to move. Then he could be disarmed, handcuffed, and jailed upon landing.

I shall send a marked copy of this to the FAA in Washington, and to United Airlines. Maybe something could be worked out to stop this "high-handed" criminality! - CI

BENNETT INJURED AT SMALL FIRE

Tuesday of last week Chief Dale Bennett and firemen were putting out a small grass fire on the Claude Bailey property at the Egg Hut, 2721 Alpine Blvd. when he was accidentally struck on one shin by a tool. It became badly infected so the doctor put him to bed, but Wednesday Mrs. Bennett reported that it is healing nicely.

ALPINE PLANS ON PLANNING

Pres. John Titus of the chamber of commerce has appointed an important new committee with co-chairman John Ness, nurseryman, and Charles E. West, insurance man recently from NY. It is a Citizens' Planning Committee for Alpine. While sponsored by the chamber, it is an entirely separate entity, explains Titus.

In a confirmation letter to the pair, Titus wrote: "Your mission will be to work with the County Planning Department to develop a comprehensive plan for Alpine, developing the resources, and protect the natural beauties of our community, leading to a planned and controlled development of the area."

THESE BUYERS HAVE CONFIDENCE

This note is from Carolyn Vanek of Alpine Realty, who handled a home sale right after the fire:

"The house at 455 Silverbrook Harbison Canyon, was in escrow at the time of the fire. The first Tuesday after the fire, the phone was ringing at the time I walked into the office. When I answered was surprised to learn that the buyers of the Canyon property wanted possession of the house! I simply couldn't believe it, I did not know if the house was still there, but it was! Anyway, the new owners are Edward M. Guffey and Meredith J. Mason. Former owners being Michael and Marilyn Gegaz. By the way, the buyers moved in that week after the fire, believe it or not."

FIRST DAY AD RENTS HOUSE

Charlene Brown of the realty office phoned early Monday to cancel their rental ad in the Sun because "We rented it the first day the Sun came out. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mosier are now in our place at 1452 Rock Terrace, will be here till they get into their new home after theirs was burned", she reports.

GRANDDAUGHTER FOR DON & YULA

If Mrs. Yula Harris, who smiles a lot every day to her many customers at Alpine Western Wear, is dishing out some extra grins of late, it is because she and her husband Don are the proudest grandparents around. WOULD YOUR FAMILY INHERIT mortgage?

A HOME

... or an unpaid

Wouldn't you like to know that no matter what happens to you, it would be possible for your family to retain their home?

New York Life's Mortgage Protection Plan insurance can give you this assurance—lets you know that if you should die unexpectedly, your family would get immediate cash to help pay off the remaining mortgage.

Cost is surprisingly small. If you're a father age 30, for example, less than $4 a month in life insurance premiums can provide enough cash to help pay off a 20-year mortgage for $10,000. And dividends as declared can be used to further reduce premium payments. See me for details now.

CARNIVAL WAS BIG SUCCESS

After all the tiny goblins and ghosts were safely tucked in bed on Halloween night, Mrs. Warren Armbruster and her committee took time to see where they stood financially with their annual carnival. After all expenses, the PTA, who put it on, cleared $400. This is their money-making project, will help pay for Christmas,

OLDEST ALPINE NATIVE PASSES

Funeral was last Friday in Taft, Ca., for Walter Albert Schmidt, 81, the oldest living native of Alpine, having been born here on Mar. 18, 1889. His parents were Ludvig and Anna Schmidt, from Germany. He was the youngest of six children. He was born on the 160-acre family ranch, grew up here, attended the original little 1-room school, graduated from 9th grade.

He went north in 1909 according to his son-in-law, Chas. J. Warnock, of SD, who married Olive, one of Schmidt's two children. He worked in the oilfields near Bakersfield and Coalinga, later settling in Taft. There he ran a photo studio till his death, having been a photographer since boyhood when his sister gave him a little Brownie box camera. He learned to play the violin also.

In 1917 Schmidt returned to SD, married Olive Marie Peterson, brought her to Taft, where they lived at 315 North St. Besides the daughter in SD, his widow survives plus a son, Walter, A. jr., of Taft, six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Schmidt's father being an expert stonemason, many present day Alpine homes show his handiwork in foundations, buildings, walls and so on.

for the fun of it. They have 100 ribbons and 25 trophies to award to best riders plus stops along the route for refreshments. All of the money goes to the American Cancer Society. For information call SD, 233-5426. If you happen to be in the area and don't have a horse, you can reserve one so think about going.

Cynthia had a scare last week. Julie got into Joker's corral and he jumped at her. He was only playing but he might have hit her seriously. He did step on her foot but bet it is quite a while before she gets in with him again. She won't be 3 till Christmas so it is hard for her to understand he isn't like her old faithful Smokey.

In the Arabian monthly newsletter they had quite a compliment for all those people who helped evacuate horses and so so much for those burned out. Was nice to read. They also had an article about how to join the AHSA if you are planning on showing horses in local or larger class A shows. The yearbook and monthly newsletter is $15 a year, is well worth it as it gives you valuable information about showing your horse.

Starting this month Mildred Martin of Spring Valley is starting an auction, will have a real auctioneer with horses, saddles, tack of all kinds and livestock. Her first one will start at 10 Sat. Nov. 14th and last till everything has been sold. If you have anything to sell or are interested in buying something or a horse, call 461-5522. The auction is open to the public and she plans on having these every week so plan on going if you need something.

Mrs. Connie Novaro who with husband Chuck owns and operates Alpine Oaks Mobile Estates, will be happy to have the cast off her leg. She broke her ankle 6 weeks ago while shopping in a store here when she tripped over a box, lost her balance and fell.

"Donations of anything from a dime to a dollar or checks for more" says Collins, "may be left at the bank or with any of us". Additional stunts are planned to raise the balance for the much needed radio gear.

TRAILERITES HEAR MISS JEFFERS

Friday night last week in the clubhouse at Rancho Sierra, Maryanna Jeffers gave a dissertation on Shapenspear's Hamlet. Everyone enjoyed it so much that Lavina Carpenter thought Alpiners "might like to hear about the talented and charming Maryanna. She is a beautiful, greeneyed blonde, a freshman at State, majoring in drama."

Maryanna recently returned from abroad where she visited Jim & Muriel Knight and family in Cardiff, Wales, where the Sun goes to them each week. The Jeffers bought the Knight home on Dunbar Lane when they left for England.

It takes a smart man to conceal from others what he doesn't know.

A couple of weeks ago we were in Riverside shopping and in a candle shop we saw two of Tere Ireys' posters on the wall. When she was in NY she sold photographs to this giant poster company and now they are in most candle shops throughout the US. We were sort of thrilled as she is one of our best friends, was Miss Oceanside last year.

Friday afternoon Cece ruined our chances of taking the badminton tournament in Grossmont College. She and I were the best, had taken all of the girls so far and had it sewed up for sure when she fell during a jump for a birdie and turned her ankle. Mama took her to Grossmont Hospital for x-rays and they showed a break in the arch. She has it in a cast to her knee, will be hobbling around for 6 weeks. To top it off we have two singing jobs in the LA area that are fantastic and she will have to do them with the cast on. We all have gaily decorated it with colored felt pens so it will stand out like a light. Too bad it had to happen now but anytime it is bad for a thing like that. Daddy decorated it with a cartoon of Charley Chaplin for whom he was the first publicity man and his likeness was unbelievable.

We are all glad proposition B passed giving $6 million dollars to preserve the land and provide a wide-open range for jungle animals. The new compound in San Pasqual valley has proved that zoo animals adapt quickly back to their natural state, their health improves and they will begin to breed, thus save many species that face extinction if left in zoos for the rest of their lives. This is a wonderful change for cooped up animals and we are glad to see it. This type of preserve is becoming more and more popular as rides through the area keep the park up and eventually, we hope, will completely eliminate zoo cages.

We wonder where all of Alpine's Ticks or Treators went Saturday? We only had about 10. Was it because of the poison scare or did the carnival offer more attraction and keep the kids off the street, by providing a lot of fun and entertainment.

Gary Menconi was in Alpine this past weekend on a 30-day pass. Told friends here that he had been transferred to a sub for the rest of his tour of duty. His dad is on one that returns to SD this week.

Tuesday afternoon Don Bates rescued a beautiful male cat from the middle of Alpine Blvd. It is full grown, has three bells on a collar and is blind. Friends of the Bates are caring for the gray cat until his owners can be found. Contact them if he is yours.

FIRE TOOK SOME GOOD CARS, TOO

One sad sight in the Canyon, aside from burned homes, was this family car, ruined by the hot flames which swept through the picturesque glade.

Many funny stories are coming out of this holocaust, which somewhat tempers the heartbreak that so many suffered.

PSA AIDED FIRE VICTIMS

Spectator rides over the burned areas at $5 by PSA, netted $7,000 to aid displaced folks of the back country reposit Bob Roteleweski of the airlines PR staff. They turned the money over to two qualified agencies to help, the Crest PTA and St. Pius X Catholic Church at Jamul who are doing a lot for the poor people that lost their homes in the fire.

Note- If we gave awards for best commercials on the air, we'd give it to PSA for their lilting chorus that sang about "how you gonna keep'em on the ground after they've flown PSA". -Ed

SPOOK PARTY BIG SUCCESS

The annual Halloween party by residents of Alpine Oaks Mobile Estates was another triumph. Winners of the costume party were Bill Hadden, who came as a teenager and Blackie Vigneault who won a 2nd for his costume of Bluebeard. Betty Campbell won a first in the women's category with her Civil War costume, and Ruth Wiseman a 2nd for her Indian dress. Two special prizes went to Honey Wellband as Mrs. Fu Manchu and Sue Chittick as a society editor.

Salutes go to Allie Vigneault who was in charge of entertainment and the party, Dorothy Lambert for her refreshments and Norman Clark and Jessie Wievig for colorful decorations.

"The party was a delight and all who attended had a real good time" says Mrs. Vigneault.

HONOR CAMP FEEDS WILD LIFE

Supt. L. W. Athey reports that Barret Honor Camp, an island in the burned back country, has some new boarders besides the 102 inmates; deer, quail, rabbits, squirrels and birds. The men who get only 65¢ a day, dug down, contributed $68. for feeding them. Some have even $5. The men built plastic drinking pools, are feeding hay, milo and grain, have expressed much interest in the creatures.

REVISE ON LIBRARY HOURS

Last week it was printed that the new hours at the library were 1 to 5, instead it is 1:30 to 5, Monday and Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, with a 6 to 8 p. m. session Tuesday, says Elizabeth West, librarian. Saturday remains the same, 1 to 5 and Wednesday is closed.

NEW DEPARTURE IN ANTENNAS

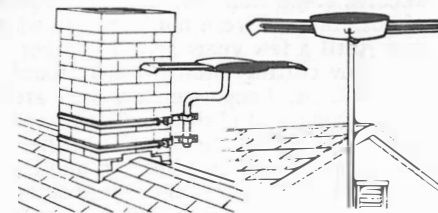

George Lengbridge (Shorty to his friends), who has spent over 50 years in radio and TV since the early crystal sets, now serves Alpine and the back country, has just acquired exclusive sales for a fantastic new electronic TV antenna. It is the Winegard of Burlington, Ia., which does away with the bulky, expensive high ones, brings in many channels that the old ones fail.

"Mommy, please let me go to the circus so I can see the mondeys."

"Imagine, you want to go see the monkeys when Uncle Tom has just come to visit us."

by magic-- which it really is. It works fine for both color and plain.

Installation is quite simple, merely fasten to roof, under eaves, to chimney or even in the attic. See his ad elsewhere this issue.

Minister T. E. Roberts, Jr. of the Lakeside Presbyterian Community Church will share his experiences of a recent trip to the Holy Land and Europe at the Open Door for Dialogue accompanied by slides. Everyone is welcome.

AR-TEASE-TIKS!

By Betty Moore

An unusual and beautiful display at the Alpine Art Chalet, 1321 W. Victoria Dr., is the lapidarian exhibit of Artists Sabin and Mary Gray. Stones and rocks gathered from all corners of the US, polished and formed, made into rings, bracelets, ear rings and other items of delight. Pins inset with turquoise, pearls, etc., made into pretzel and oblong shapes, any design or setting, this can be done by the Grays. Long-time best seller at the Chalet, make beautiful gifts for Christmas.

One feature of special interest in their display is the wind chime hanging above the counter made from an unusual material, obsidian.

Millions of years ago during the Cenozoic era lava spouting from mountains solidified into glass. Indians living in the area found these pieces, made arrowheads, knives and other implements necessary for their survival. Wonder if they knew about wind chimes too? The needles come from one of the rare forms of obsidian and were not known to white man until a few years ago, a lumber company cutting through a road found the artifacts. Long, slender, delicately glazed pieces of obsidian. The couple use a wire rotary wheel to clean the lime scale on the needles, an application of clear laquer makes them shine. To sit and listen to the delicate tones as they tinkle in the wind is soothing music to frazzled nerves.

P. S. New member of the association is Helen Ellsberg, Alpine's artist in photography. Welcome aboard Helen. We are happy to have you.

Perhaps the oldest celebrant at the Log Cabin Babe's Birthday Party last week for October folks was Mrs. Nellie King, shown with Murray Muncill, owner, giving her a congratulatory hug on reaching a lively 73 on the 23rd. With Hubby Jim, she attended with Clarke and Alice Irvine, owners of Trailer Estates where the Kings have lived for six years.

Blanche McCall, dynamic principal of the well-known school, is attending the University at La Jolla taking a course in professional photography under direction of John Wagganein. Blanche is an avid world traveler, has been interested in photography, hopes to improve her techniques through this special class.

MUSCLES, LIGAMENTS AND TENDONS

The horse, like us, has two types of muscles, voluntary and involuntary. The voluntary, those that you can work at will, are the ones which attach to the joints throughout the body. The involuntary ones go on working all the time without you having to tell them to.

Some of the involuntary ones would be those with which you breathe, the heart muscle, which is the most important. It can go on for years without stopping. There are muscles in the pupils of the eyes that enlarge and contract from different shades of light. The voluntary muscles do tire easily and have to be rested where involuntary ones don't.

The muscles extending down the upper legs end in points. These points are tough, string like tissues called tendons. These attach to the covering of the joint, which is a similar tissue called a ligament attached to the bones themselves.

Most voluntary muscles are in pairs, with nerves attached. In each pair, one muscle opens the joint and the other closes it, the two help each other to make the motion smooth.

One difference between a horse's ligaments and ours is that of the ones covering the leg joints. A human cannot go to sleep without lying or at least sitting and leaning against something. This is not true of the horse. The ligaments covering his hocks and other large joints are make like hammocks, and support the horse when he is asleep, even though he may be standing.

The horse's muscles are like ours in the way that when we undertake any type of new exercise we must do it slowly and work at it every day until our muscles are used to the new strain. This is why you should work a young colt until his muscles are used to the new exercise. A horse will get stiff and sore just like us. If you remember this while you are working your animal, it will make it a lot easier on him, and will prevent any lameness from straining.

INCREASE SPEED ON FREEWAY

The highway office has placed signs on I-8 allowing motorists to go 70 mph, from just east of Greenfield Drive in EC, and to just west of Japatul Road, easterly end of the freeway, reports Jacob Dekema, district engineer. He says this is a result of a study to fix reasonable and safe limits and facilitate movement of vehicles.

There are two big problems before city people today, where to park and where to jump.

It is not the duty of a small rural newspaper to report much about the elections, but in doing the citizen's duty of voting, your editor made a picture of one of the staff at Precinct 1, in the Youth Center. So here is Clerk Ruth Mary Heckerth, tacking up the lists in front of the building beside the door. There was a fine turnout for balloting here, with a lineup at times.

RAY WIEVIG

At presstime Wednesday it was learned that Ray Wievig, resident of Alpine Oaks Mobile Estates, dropped dead of a heart attack. He and his wife Jessie came from Pacific Beach three years ago after retiring from the postal service there.

During Alpine's fire he stayed close to his ham radio, did what he could for the community.

CROWDED PO FACING CHRISTMAS

While billions go for war, America's roads, schools and many other things, including the Alpine Postoffice, need attention. Here H. T. Magnussen, PM, is biting his fingernails, plotting and planning how they can see their way through another Christmas rush in the same overcrowded building.

"It looks hopeless" says H. T., "but we'll muddle through somehow". One thing is sure, he has a fine staff to work on this heavy package! Remember, help them by mailing early-- daily and for Christmas.

The wettest November in Alpine's record was in 1965 with 7.76 inches. In 1956 there was none, only a trace in 1962 and numerous ones with less than an inch; greatest daily was in 1937 with 6.03.

LETTERS TO EDITOR:

Dear Friends:

Many changes have taken place in our communities since this time last month. We were among the fortunate and are humble and grateful to our many friends and the Almighty. Americans are the most wonderful people on earth.

We had a few days of rest up in the redwoods. George was so weary he returned to our home late in the day, after hearing the fire had been stopped short of the Canyon, he'd been home 15 minutes when it broke loose. I left with flames licking in the car windows and it was 5 hours later before I knew George and our son Carl had not perished. We love each other and our "hill" a little more.

Was happy to hear Alpine fared so well.

Please let my customers know I am back in business.

Sincerely,

--Evelyn Behrens

CREST PLANS PANCAKE BREAKFAST

To help replace the Crest Boys baseball equipment and uniforms, the association is sponsoring a pancake breakfast for them in Nancy Jane Park. They start serving at 7:30, will end at noon. Donations are $1.25, adults, 50¢ kids and the mothers preparing the food say "you can have all you can eat". It is open to the public and several Padre Baseball stars will be there to help serve.

Additional information may be had by calling 444-5052. The baseball team lost all of their equipment in the recent Crest fire.

Blackie Vigneault's mother had to be rushed back to Kyser Hospital this week with complications after suffering a heart attack 10 days ago. She is 86, will be placed in a rest home when she is able to be moved.

Politeness these days consists in offering your seat to a lady when you get off a crowded bus.

THANKS, FOLKS, THANKS!

Dear Friend Clarke: Kindly add me to the subscribers for your tiny but powerful little paper. Think of you often, and the good work you are doing for your fellow men. May it go on for a long, long time.

Hope to see you again before too long. Regards to you and yours.

Respectfully, Emma D. Crow,
Photo was made when she visited the Irvines here recently, driven up by Mr. and Mrs. Dana Winter with whom she lived in SD.

Note- This is from a dear old friend whom we knew when we published Let's Live Magazine in Hollywood. She was then Emma D. Snow, had a health emporium at Ocean Beach. Thanks a lot. -CI

Elva Weisiger and sister Azaléa Young, of Encinitas, are back from a camping trip to Sequoia and Yosemite parks, visited Medford, Lassen and Ashland, had a fine trip.

CLUB TO HEAR FOREST RANGER

In view of the disastrous fire the Woman's Club has changed their Nov. 10 program. Jim Bridges, ranger with Cleveland National Forest, Descanso District, will be guest speaker. He is going to tell about the fire damage, with slides to illustrate, which should be of interest to anyone in the area. The program starts at 1:30; refreshments will follow.

In addition to the program, there will be a crafts table. Members are reminded to bring homemade items.

PROJECT OPEN HEART Story From 1
S/Sgt. J.G. Trumble of EC. After the fire had destroyed 300 homes and 200,000 acres, Sgt. Trumble and concerned base personnel contacted their home town newspapers, Rotary, VFW, Legion, chamber of commerce, and other civic groups, to enlist support.
The results were gratifying, with responses coming from all regions of the county. Special thanks should go to Mrs.
Judy Bayley, manager of the Hacienda
Hotel in Las Vegas, whose personal ch check accounted for nearly one-third of the total. Because of the generosity of Mrs. Bayley and the other thoughtful contributors, the families of the Alpine area can be assured of a happier holiday season.
