Randy Hine Wins First Place In Essay Contest

ALPINE — Twenty-five entries were judged in the Woman's Club Conservation Contest. Tuesday the winners were announced at the regular meeting.

They were: Randy Hine, first prize; Jan Hagen, and Cindy Brown winning a special prize for originality.

The judges, composed of Mrs. Jeanette Hinkle, Mrs. Lawrence Michel, and Mrs. Elizabeth West, Alpine librarian, had great difficulty in choosing the winners as there were so many fine papers. Although not among the top three, Nedra Lacour's fine essay deserves special mention.

The first prize went to Randy Hine because he wrote about forest, water and soil conservation and the danger of fires.

Smokey Bear was on hand to award the prizes and a special program was given by Jerry Webb, Judy Ellis, Wannetta Cushing, and Renie Adams.

On Page 8 of this paper you will find Randy Hine's prize-winning essay.

The incident occurred last Friday night on Japatul Valley Road.

ANIMATED FERRY DISPLAY TO BE AT DEL MAR FAIR

DEL MAR — "Ebbtide," a nostalgic depiction of a turn-of-the-century Coronado ferry, will be the San Diego County Fair special display at this year's fair, June 25-July 5, manager Roy Welch announced today.

The animated display, featuring a crowded ferryboat entering its slip is now under construction by Fair Designer Jack Carr.

"We are dedicating this display to the hundreds of thousands of people who have ridden the Coronado ferry for more than half a century," Carr explained.

Carr said the display will feature 50 18-inch-high people, many of them animated, a horse and buggy and an early-day automobile, all produced in the Fair's design department by Carr and his assistants.

The ferry-boat, 20 feet long, eight feet wide, and 10 feet high will be a composite of a number of Coronado ferries that operated around the turn of the century.

Fiesta Set For May 15th Freeway Maps To Be Shown

By ROSE M. SWEET

CAMPO — Residents of the back country, east of San Diego, have been busy for several months preparing for the second Annual Gymkhana and Fiesta to be held at the Mountain Empire High School in Campo on May 15th.

The affair will be sponsored as well as prepared and presented by the Mt. Empire Parents and Boosters Club and other residents of the county.

Last year the Gymkhana and Fiesta de Abril, proved so successful it was decided by the membership to make it an annual celebration. With this idea in mind, work crews have been constructing a permanent gymkhana horse show arena adjacent to the Mt. Empire High School gymnasium.

The land for the arena, approximately two acres, was generously leased to the school for $1 for five years by Ed Roberts of Campo. Mr. Roberts' kindness is particularly appreciated as all funds rained by the Gymkhana and Fiesta will be used to benefit the students at Mt. Empire junior and senior high schools.

School funds are allotted in direct ratio to the property values in the area where the school is located and the Mt. Empire schools are in a low assessed area. All allotted funds are wisely used for a good scholastic program, and there is nothing for athletic equipment, audio-visual aids, uniforms, etc. The dedicated parents and boosters feel the young people should not be penalized because of their home locale and endeavor to supply the so-called "frills" that city children receive in the normal course of being educated.

Clay Stuart of Mt. Laguna is general chairman of the Gymkhana and Fiesta this year, assisted by his co-chairman, Mrs. Tom Huntington, also of Mt. Laguna.

'FOOD AND YOU' SCHEDULED FOR ALPINE DATE

ALPINE — A short course entitled "Food and You" sponsored by the T. O. P. S. (Take Off Pounds Sensibly) Club of Alpine, will be given at the Youth Center. There will be four meetings in May. These will be held Wednesdays from 10 a. m. to 12 noon. The first date is May the 5th and the subject will be "You and What You Eat."

The speaker will be from the Agricultural Extension Service of the University of California.

Anyone wishing to enroll may call 445-2361.

Coffee will be served and child care will be available.

MRS. POLAK IS HOSTESS AT LUNCHEON

ALPINE — Officers and chairmen of Edgemoor Geriatric Hospital Auxiliary for the past year and the coming year were entertained at a luncheon on Wednesday by the newly installed president, Mrs. Benjamin Polak.

The setting for the luncheon was Mrs. Polak's new adobe home at Palo Verde Ranch, Alpine.

The luncheon gathering was also a regular board meeting and new and past chairmen exchanged information regarding the work of Edgemoor Geriatric Hospital.

SAN DIEGO — Aerial maps showing the proposed alternatives for future Interstate 8 freeway between 0.6 miles west of Japatul Valley Road and 1.1 miles west of Laguna Junction, are on display at the Pine Valley Fire Station, the Division of Highways office at 4075 Taylor St., San Diego.

A public hearing to discuss the proposed route has been scheduled for 2 p. m. Tuesday on May 4 in Room 358 at the San Diego County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway, San Diego.

Jacob Dekema, District Engineer for the Division of Highways, stated that the purpose of the aerial map display is to better acquaint the public with the proposal prior to the hearing.

Dekema emphasized that the Division would welcome any information which would assist in planning for the proposed freeway. A complete transcript of the Tuesday hearing will be made and presented to the California Highway Commission to aid them in making a decision on the future location of this freeway, concluded Dekema.

The odds are one in 100, the experts say, that you will have a home fire during the next year — and one in 20 that you will have a fire within the next five years.

Think these odds are worth gambling on? Every day, fire strikes some 21650 homes or apartments of Americans who gambled and lost — a yearly total of over 600,000 residences.

Of the 11,900 Americans who fell victim to fire last year, well over half — 6,550 — died in home fires.

Nearly one-fourth of all fires are caused by matches and smoking, says the American Insurance Association.

The second cause of fire is misuse of electrical equipment. You can minimize this fire hazard in your home by keeping your appliances, lamps, extension cords and sockets in good repair. And avoid the use of multiple outlet plugs. If you have too many appliances on a single circuit, you can easily blow a fuse or cause a fire if the overloaded wires become hot.

Another potential fire hazard can be minimized by keeping the heating unit in your home in good condition.

A spring clean-up job can mean you have taken a giant step toward making your home fire-safe.

Take these steps:

Clean out your attic and throw away accumulation of things for which you will never find a use.

Caution smokers to use care with cigarettes in bedrooms.

Throw out old papers and containers that may have accumulated during the winter.

In the kitchen, check the cooking unit, and make it a point to clean accumulations of grease in the broiler or oven regularly.

Throw out all trash in the basement and keep combustibles away from the heating unit.

Remove any oil drippings on the garage floor.

Conduct a family fire drill and see how quickly everyone can get out of the house.

If there are small children or elderly people in your family, make sure that a responsible person is assigned to the job of seeing that they get out of the house quickly.

Then in case of fire or any other emergency, the chances of anyone getting hurt are minimized or greatly reduced.

And, don't let spring clean-up be a once-a-year job.

Keep your home spic and span at all times.

And you will have taken a major step toward achieving a fire-safe home.

AMERICAN BIKE MONTH FEATURED IN MAY

Along about the turn of the century, bicycling reached the dimensions of a craze in this country and abroad. Cycle clubs on a coeducational basis were formed everywhere and were the source of lasting fun for young and old. Cycle racing found a vast audience. There are people still active to whom the old high-wheeler brings back nostalgic memories.

In time, the bike fad ran its course. Use of the cycle was pretty well confined to the very young. But in recent years, it has again found its popularity increasing. Bike clubs have been coming back in many places. Bike sports, formal and informal, are attracting a respectable following.

That gives significance to American Bike Month, which is scheduled for the May 1-31 period. Its purpose is both simple and important: "To help make cycling healthier, happier, safer and more fun than it already is." The bike rider of today lives in a world that is vastly different from that of fifty or sixty years ago. Streets and highways are thronged with automobiles and every one of them offers potential disaster to the carelessly ridden and handled bike. The rules of bike safety must be thoroughly learned — and undeviatingly followed.

Cycling is a healthy sport and a fun sport. It's good to see it on the upswing once more. And the heavier the emphasis on safety, the better it will be.

TODAY'S WORD DEFINITION

APATHY — Without pathos, emotion. Lack of emotion. Lack of interest; listless condition; indifference.

HOW MOTHER'S DAY BEGAN

While thousands of Americans will be sending flowers by wire to honor Mom on her day a week from Sunday, few realize how far back into history the roots of Mother's Day extend.

The Greeks and Romans chose the Ides (15th) of March to honor a universal mother — Mother Earth. Instead of a corsage or a boutonniere, every member of the family wore a garland of leaves as they danced in the streets.

Many ancient nations worshipped mother-goddesses; in fact, some scholars think this was man's earliest form of religion. But the ancient Germans went a step further. They thought there was something divine — literally — about all women and mothers were sometimes regarded as living goddesses!

Mom has been treated like a queen, if not quite like a goddess, on many occasions since. By old English custom mid-Lent Sunday was "Mothering Sunday" when people went back to the "mother church" of their baptism and also visited their mothers with flowers and other gifts. Small rich pastries called "mothering cakes" were popular presents for mama.

But it wasn't till May 10, 1908, that mothers were formerly honored anywhere in the United States. On that day a Miss Anna Jarvis sponsored a church service in Grafton, West Virginia to honor her late mother and other mothers of the community. After an intensive letter-writing campaign, she saw Mother's Day recognized in every state in the union by 1911 and in 1914 President Wilson proclaimed it a national holiday.

Flowers have been connected with Mother's Day from the very beginning. Miss Jarvis' mother had loved carnations and they became the official Mother's Day flower.

Though floral tributes are probably the most popular Mother's Day gifts, modern mothers receive everything from dahlias to dishwashers.

On May 9, American mothers will collect an estimated one-and-a-quarter billion dollars worth of gifts!

Even ancient German mamas, "goddesses" though they may have been, never had it so good. But then, American mothers have earned every penny of this annual tribute. There are 63,616,058 individual mothers in this country — and they are raising, or have raised, 131,810,351 children!

These mothers include women of all ages — young marrieds pushing spoonfuls of pabulum, PTA mothers worried about the new mathematics, working women beating the rush hour home, and grandmothers who, going full circle, are back pushing pabulum to their grandchildren.

Most mamas of pre-school children find motherhood a full-time job. Those who work outside the home number only 11,182,455 — as compared with 29,930,338 working marrieds who have either older children or no children at all.

But whether or not she contributes to the family income, Mama is sure to be honored May 9 in almost every American household for the good job she has done. Whatever presents she gets, she is apt to feel like a famous mother of Roman legend, Cornelia.

One day a boastful lady called on her and displayed a flashy array of jewels — then asked to see Cornelia's jewels. Cornelia promptly sent for her two young sons and told the visitors "These are my jewels — in which alone I delight."

OUR TELEPHONE IS OUT OF ORDER AND we are cut off from the outside world. ORDINARILY, WHEN YOUR TELEPHONE ceases to function, all that is necessary is a request for help addressed to the proper person in authority and the problem is easily solved by experts accustomed to coping with such situations. But I am afraid to call the phone company. If they ever discover what we have been up to we would never be allowed to have a telephone again. DURING THE HARROWING COURSE OF remodeling our home, our telephones have changed position so often without the sanction of the Telephone Company that I find it difficult to remember where they were installed originally. Walls have disappeared and partitions fallen so often that all I am really sure of is that we had one instrument downstairs and one upstairs. That is, we had only two until recently when Robert purchased from some unidentified source, a hand set which he proudly brought home and installed beside the living room couch so that I could relax in comfort and converse with friends and relatives. This new set is a bit odd in appearance and extremely temperamental. You cannot dial an outside number but if you place your call on the kitchen extension, you can dash quickly over to the couch and complete it.

MY DAUGHTER AND HER HANDSOME husband came over one evening and Robert displayed our new acquisition to Dennis, who was immediately interested. "I wonder why," he mused, you cannot dial an outside number. Maybe the instrument just needs cleaning or something." There was a gleam of anticipation in his eye, "I flunked telephone school at Fort Ord," he said, "Let's see what I can do with this." Robert was appalled. Robert and Dennis poked and prodded, replaced scattered portions of telephone, switched connections, patched wires and Dennis said "Everything looks all right. Let's try it." And there was nothing. Not even a dial tone. Just dismal silence. And nothing ever since. Our problem is: What do we tell the telephone company? Should we hide our illegal phone and just claim that our line is out of order? Should we confess our sins and take our punishment, however severe? Should we just do without a telephone from now on? And what happened to all those other people? Meantime, it is a long way down the road to the nearest phone booth!

ents she gets, she is apt to feel like a famous mother of Roman legend, Cornelia. One day a boastful lady called on her and displayed a flashy array of jewels — then asked to see Cornelia's jewels. Cornelia promptly sent for her two young sons and told the visitors "These are my jewels — in which alone I delight."

FOR THE WIFE WHO FORGETS

If it's your job to take the family car to the garage for periodical maintenance and tune-ups, the latest gadget for automobiles could be a life-saver for you. (The man of the house usually loses patience with the spouse who forgets.)

This ingenious device as described by Purchasing Week tells you when your car is due for service. Installed on the dashboard, it ejects a card at predetermined intervals to remind you that it's time for lubrication, oil change, tune-up, etc.

Food For Thought

If you like to eat, here are a few things to ponder.

Meat has always been important in man's life and the featured dish at his table.

For centuries, ham has been one of the choices for spring-time feast days. It was a pagan custom to celebrate the advent of spring and, because supplies of fresh meat were low at this time of year, choice pork cuts were preserved in the winter for the feasts.

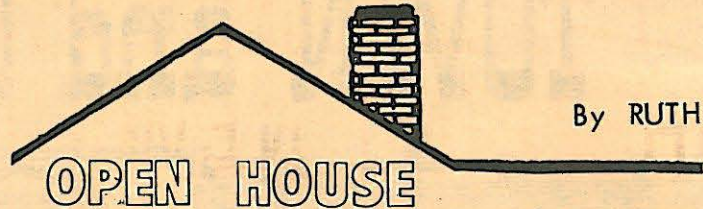

The use of lamb for such occasions traces back to the dawn days of Greece and Asia Minor. The lamb was the first animal born in the spring and became the symbol of new life and purity. For these reasons, it was a sacrificial animal and is referred to often in the Old Testament.

Today, meat still holds top spot on the family menu and tips on diet, cuts and care of meat are of top interest to every housewife. If you don't expect to use ground beef within two days after purchase, freeze it. Make individual patties and wrap them in freezer wrap. You can then cook a patty on short notice without having to thaw the whole package.

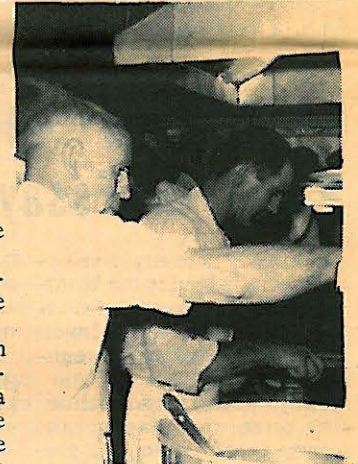

To feel your tip-top best in the morning, you need to eat a "real" breakfast, protein foods such as bacon, eggs, ham and sausage. Your most productive working hours usually are in the morning.

Although an ancient food, meat is still man's favorite palate pleaser and a top food value.

Church News HIGHWAY 80 REPORT

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF THE WILLOWS

Plans for Church Family Week are progressing. Special events will take place on various days during the week of May 2nd to the 9th.

The Woman's Missionary Society is in charge of the special events that will take place on Mother's Day, May 9th.

This Sunday (May 2nd) is "Invite A Family Sunday" and will open the Christian Family Week.

The church wishes to thank the community for their co-operation during the recent bake sales. Florence's Market is to be especially thanked along with the Security First National Bank. The young people tithe their money and they made $71 in the combined sales. The money also goes for the Congo project.

The Disneyland trip taken last Saturday was most successful and it is hoped that it will become an annual affair. Over 18 young people took part.

The Men's Fellowship will hold their breakfast on the 8th of May at 8 p. m.

In the future plans will be a Sunday devoted to "Rural Life Sunday" at which time plans are in the works for a presentation of a prize-winning program by a 4-H group. Also scheduled will be film about rural life in the State of California at the Family dinner on the 21st.

(From the Mountain Empire Ambulance Service, Pine Valley)

April 24, the sheriff called the Mountain Empire Ambulance for DAVID M. THOMPSON, 93. Mr. Thompson is a resident of Jacumba. He was taken to San Diego General Hospital and is reported in fair condition.

April 24 the sheriff once again put in a call to the M. E. Ambulance Service for FRANK BIALOBRESKI, a private in the U. S. Marine Corps. He was taken in to the El Cajon Valley Hospital for emergency treatment in connection with an accidental gun shot. The accident happened in Pine Valley. He has since been taken to the Navy Hospital.

If You Live Here...

IF YOU LIVE HERE . . .

Shrubs that have finished blooming . . . need feeding now to develop strong new growth. Lawns should be fertilized now and pay particular attention to chrysanthemums and fast-growing annuals and perennials.

A good pair of hedge shears . . . can be the gardener's best friend. Even if you don't have a hedge, they're worth the investment for shearing back ground covers and perennial edgings after bloom. Use them on alyssum, ajuga, candytuft, chamomile and snow-in-summer.

Geraniums . . . are blooming in pots at the nursery and this is an excellent time to add them to your collection.

If you're a . . . hillside gardener, bind up soil on banks with the kind of ground covers that root as they spread. Small, well-rotted plants set out close together now will be well-established and "holding their own" by the time fall rains come. Aafon's Beard, New Zealand Sheep Bur, vinca, ivy, and Dwarf Chapparal Broom are a few excellent ones, and your local nurseryman can recommend many more.

Perennials that can go in now . . . are pinks and carnations, penstemons, verbena and fibrous begonias. This is the time for starting chrysanthemums, so check at the nursery for varieties that will bloom from now 'til Christmas.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES OFFER SUNDAY LESSONS

The spiritual requirements for release from guilt and suffering will be examined at Christian Science church services this Sunday.

Subject of the Bible lesson is "Everlasting Punishment." Included in the scriptural passages to be presented are these verses from Ezekiel:

"Make you a new heart and a new spirit. . . . For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: Wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye.

The common idea that success spoils people by making them vain, egotistic and self-complacent is erroneous; on the contrary, it makes them, for the most part, humble, tolerant and kind. Failure makes people cruel and bitter. — Somerset Maugham

NEW SHOP OPENS FOR THE ARTISTIC

EL CAJON— A new Knit and Lapidary Shop has been added to the growing Second and Broadway area in El Cajon. Located in the Bostonia Shopping Center "Carmen's Knit and Lapidary Shop" at 1297 Broadway, will be operated by Carmen Bowles.

Carmen has stocked a very pleasing range of sport, novelty, dress, 4-ply and conventional yarns in Mohair, Wash and Wear, all wools and mixes. The array of colors is most striking as you enter the shop.

Pauline Denham, Fleisher, Spinnerin and Columbia Minerva lines are carried. In addition to the usual instructions that are given with the purchase of yarn, Carmen will style your selected garments and might suggest innovations that will further enhance its individuality. Beginner's knitting classes will be offered.

The Lapidary Section carries a modest stock of quality findings and cutting materials, featuring Tourmaline from the famous Hymalia Mines of Mesa Grande. Beginner's classes in this art will also be given. A full line of Great Western Equipment has been installed and may be used on an hourly rate basis.

Wake Up To Spring

OATMEAL PANCAKES
Makes 7 to 8 pancakes

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 cup milk | 1/4 cup rolled oats (quick or old fashioned, uncooked) |
| 1 egg | 8 slices crisp cooked bacon, crumbled |
| 1 tablespoon melted or liquid shortening | |
| 1 cup buttermilk pancake mix | |

Place milk, egg and shortening in shaker or bowl. (If melted shortening is used, add after mix.) Add pancake mix and oats. Shake vigorously 10 times or mix until batter is fairly smooth. Somewhat lumpy batter makes light pancakes. Sprinkle each pancake with bacon. Turn when tops are covered with bubbles and about 1/4 cup batter onto edges look cooked. Serve hot, lightly greased griddle with butter and syrup.

Good morning, spring! Mmmm — fresh spring air makes us start the morning early with a brisk walk, bicycle ride or the morning chores. — And spring go-getters deserve a breakfast to match their energies like these menu mates: Oatmeal Pancakes and fresh tangy rhubarb.

Yes, it's springtime in the kitchen, too, where mom's favorite box of pancake mix helps make these pancakes so quickly. Add rolled oats for a rich nutty flavor that teams so well with the crispy bits of bacon sprinkles on each pancake before it's flipped.

When the go-getters come in for breakfast, the sunshine of Oatmeal Pancakes dripping with butter and syrup will greet their smiles. Spring mornings are a perfect time to take advantage of a convenient pancake mix, mom. The family will agree. — And remember, your quick pancake mix will help you say "Good morning, spring" so quickly!

The Eighth Graders gave a surprise birthday party for Mr. Gibson. Everyone had a nice time.

Saturday, March 8th, the Eighth Graders will hold a car wash at the Flying A Service Station. The money they earn will go for their graduation trip.

We were all sad to hear that Shirley Kihn and her family will be moving as soon as school is out, as they sold their house.

Andy Carbough broke her ankle last week when she was broad jumping after school at home.

The Sage Riders held a horse show Sunday at Triple J Ranch in Blossom Valley.

Saturday the Eighth Grade is going to the El Cajon Bowl. They are going to spend the morning there.

Pam Weisbach bred her mare Chee Chee to Sharon Beck's stallion, Rayo.

Everyone is happy the days are longer and the weather is nice. A lot of the kids can't wait for the pool at Dinosaurs Park to open.

Vickie Bray enjoyed herself Saturday when she went over to Penni Palthe's to swim in the cool water. Good way to keep cool, huh?

Hey! Tired of washing windows, gardening, need a baby sitter? Just call 445-3369 and rent a slave.

Funds are to be used for the Eighth grade graduation trip.

NEW MISERY FOR MOTHERS

Hold your ears, Mother. Merchandising Week informs us that some glutton for punishment has developed a juke-box for home use. Marketed by a Swiss firm the unit features push-button selection of 40 . . . yes, 40 . . . seven-inch records. Yeah, yeah, yeah!

Sergeant Edwards said, "Army Airborne is only for the tough ones, for it takes a rugged guy to get in — and stay in — this elite military unit."

If you think you're good enough to join this most select group of fighting men, visit Sergeant Edwards at the Army Recruiting Station, 356 N. Magnolia Ave. in El Cajon or phone 442-5700.

SPEEDOMETER ACCACURY IS CHANGED BY TIRES

SAN DIEGO — The use of oversize tires on a vehicle can alter speedometer readings as much as five to eight miles per hour, Captain R. Gautsche commander of the California Highway Patrol's San Diego area, said.

"Speedometers are geared to the size tire which was original equipment on your car or truck. Replacement with larger tires will give you a speedometer reading below your actual speed."

The local Patrol commander said that in recent months his officers had stopped a number of drivers who were surprised they had been exceeding the speed limit. Their vehicles were equipped with oversize tires.

"Speedometers on some vehicles are geared to the front wheels; others through the rear wheels. Thus oversize tires on either front or rear could affect the speedometer reading, depending on the make of car."

HERE IS THE ESSAY THAT WON

WHAT CONSERVATION MEANS AND WHAT CAN I DO ABOUT IT?

By RANDY HINES

To me conservation means protecting our natural resources.

There is much I can do for conservation. I can help to educate citizens who have the privilege of using our forests, to appreciate the value of our forests, and to protect them.

The causes of most forest fires are by smokers who flip a lit match or cigarette into a wooded area or unattended brush or trash fires, that spread to near-by woods. These fires are difficult to control and are dangerous.

Forest conservation is related to water and soil conservation. Trees slow down the runoff of rainwater and checks erosion. This helps to keep loose soil from clogging up rivers and streams. Trees, grasses and other plant life play an important part in the circulation of water and thus help to conserve it. If these grasses, trees and plants are destroyed, water would run off as soon as it falls, taking away valuable soil. Rapid runoff often causes floods. I got my information when I went on a field trip to the Laguna Mountains. I also helped to plant 150 trees.

HERE AND THERE (From Pg. 7)

Mrs. Marilyn Austin, incoming PTA president, is the delegate to the annual PTA convention being held May 4, 5 and 6 in San Diego. . . . Mr. Evan Kramer, principal at the Crest School, and Mr. Floyd Johns and Mr. Ray Slater, teachers, will attend the "all men's" dinner to be held on May 4th at the El Cortez Hotel. . . . Rev. Woodhouse is confined to El Cajon Valley Hospital for a couple of days getting a much needed rest while the doctors probe around to see what makes him tick (physical examination, to you) . . . We are sorry to have to report that William Cogswell passed away. He was well known in Kiwanis circles and had lived on the hill for the past five or six years, having come from the east. Survivors include his daughter, Mrs. Clay Patstone, four grandchildren and one great grandchild. We offer our sincere condolences.

GIRLS, YOU SHOULD have seen the beautiful gown that Mabel Gilman wore at the dinner the evening that Harvey won his fabulous pomotion! It's our guess that this fine couple is going far and Alpine should be proud of them. . . . We were very sorry to hear that Bea La Force has been taking care of Clayburn recently — for the reason that he has just had TWO major operations! He has been a very sick man, but is well on the way to recovery, a fact that certainly makes us all very happy. . . . Mike Harmer and his lovely wife and family have been on a fine two-week vacation in the north part of the state. They planned to be in San Jose and Santa Rosa for visits. . . . Alan Bowles who works at Jerry Funk's drugstore, has joined the United States Marine Corps and another lad from our area was reported to have gone to Los Angeles for his physical and test for the Armed Services. He is Ronnie Arnold, son of Jack and Lee Elms of Alpine. We wish these young men a lot of luck in their future with our armed services.

YOUR INCOME TAX REVIEWED

This column is published by the Town and Country News as a public service. It is prepared by Los Angeles District of Internal Revenue Service on the basis of the questions the people of Southern California are asking IRS.

Q. I mailed my return in just under the deadline. How long will it take to get my refund?

A. You should receive it by the end of June if your return is complete and accurate and is not selected for audit prior to the allowance of the refund. This is several weeks longer than it takes to process refunds when returns are filed early in the filing season.

The reason for the delay is the sheer volume of last minute returns we received in Los Angeles. During the final week of the filing season we received an average of 250, - 000 returns a day.

Q. In the rush to get my return in the mail, I forgot to enclose my W-2 forms. What should I do, bring them into your office?

A. No, please hold them until we contact you. You will be asked to supply these forms and any other information needed for processing your return.

Q. I forgot all about my casualty loss deduction when I filed my return. Is it too late to claim it for 1964?

A. No, you may still claim whatever deduction you are entitled to for 1964. Take another copy of Form 1040 for 1964 and mark it "amended" at the top. Then fill it in showing all the information required as well as the deduction you forgot on your other return. File the amended return as soon as possible. In computing any refund due to you, take into account any refund on your first return.

Q. I'm filing an amended return which will give me a lower balance due than the return I originally filed. What should I do about this balance? Stop payment on the first check and send along another?

A. No, do not send another check with your amended return or stop payment on the first one. If your amended return is accurate, you will receive a check for the difference between what you initially paid and the correct balance due.

Q. What records should I keep to substantiate my 1964 tax return?

A. You should keep all the documents necessary to support the items you have listed on your return as income, deductions and exemptions. Cancelled checks, receipts, sales slips, copies of Forms W-2 and 1099 are some of the records you should keep.

You may be asked to supply this documentation if your return is audited.

Q. I filed my return before my neighbor but he got his refund first. What's the reason for that?

A. There could be a number of reasons. One might be that your return was incomplete and had to be set aside for perfection. This would happen if you had neglected to enclose required W-2 forms, did not list your tax account number, forgot to sign the return, or made a mathematical error.
