

School Musical Is A Big Success

It rained last Wednesday night. But although it dampened the landscape, nothing could dampen the spirits of the wonderful youngsters who were performing in the auditorium of the Alpine School. For there, the students of Alpine Elementary School, under the direction of Barbara Cameron teacher at the school, were presenting the delightful Gilbert and Sullivan H. M. S. Pinafore. By no means an easy task, still the familiar music rang forth as though these young people were experts.

Delightful costumes had been prepared for the evening's performance and each young person looked the part of a character from the H. M. S. Pinafore.

The large audience that braved the weather to see the performance, were delighted with what they saw, and applause rang forth after every number.

The Alpine School and especially the fine teaching staff, is to be commended for undertaking such a project. It was evident that the boys and girls are learning to understand and appreciate the finest music.

The following students took major parts in the production:

These two charming young ladies were in the cast of the H. M. S. Pinafore given by the Alpine Elementary School Wednesday evening. They are Amanda Clinton and Anita Bowler.

Popular Demand Berkeley Eruption Brings Change

ALPINE — Jerry Harmer, genial owner of Florence's Superette Market, announces that he is changing the days for his weekly specials.

Beginning this week, the specials you will see in the Town and Country News will be effective from Thursday (the day the paper is published) through Monday of the following week.

"Last week we had many calls on Thursday for our specials," Jerry said, "and after considering the matter with my wife and our manager, Mike Harmer, it was our opinion that we can best serve the community in this way."

The popular market located at the east end of town, has just recently added a large freezer unit that has proven to be very popular with the ladies of the area. Everything from ice cubes to gourmet foods can be purchased from the new ultra-modern unit, the second one to be installed in San Diego County.

So Jerry and Mike and all the gang at Florence's, remind you that the specials are on — TODAY!

Advice Given Expert On Student Affairs Praises Local College

GROSSMONT COLLEGE — College students across the nation "want in on college management" and Grossmont College should "begin the conversion now and not wait for a Berkeley eruption."

This was one of several pieces of advice given to the Grossmont faculty and administration recently by Dr. E. G. Williamson, dean of students at the University of Minnesota. Considered by many the nation's No. 1 expert on student activities, he was employed to survey the local college activities program.

Students should be members of what are now strictly faculty committees, Dr. Williamson asserted, adding that unless the best students are found for the membership, there is no point in doing it.

He also urged faculty staff-time for informal consultations with students and that members of the student board of representatives be made "teacher peers" in the college orientation course.

Dr. Williamson's second piece of advice concerned "student puzzlement" about the right of the faculty to "impose" new standards of culture on them. The Minnesota dean said he had to remind the students that "college is not a filling station" and that college instructors "are in the business of changing wants. Continuing inquiry is the essence of the college experience. That is where the high school and college style of living differ."

Dr. Williamson told the faculty and administration that "you need some new type of persuasion to convince students not to resist what the faculty rightly expects of them. Students really want to do what is expected of them; the trick is to do it without seeming to violate their sense of freedom."

As to conformity on campus, the consultant said the number of students on a campus who are live wires does not matter. "All you need is a thoughtful number. If you don't have any beatniks, you should create some for the contrast and comparison that are necessary on a campus. Students must be impressed with the virtue of individual differences."

Dr. Williamson praised the college orientation course, the Griffin Players' production of "She Loves Me," the college newspaper, the counselling services and the organized activities.

Easter Egg Hunt Is Planned

ALPINE — Children of all faiths, are invited to join with the children of the First Baptist Church of the Willows in an Easter Egg hunt to be held on the grounds of the Church, Saturday, April 17th at 10 a. m.

Bobbie Whitt is chairman of the event and she announces that plans are moving forward, for this fun and excitement.

Among the eggs that will be there to find, will be one beautiful golden egg. This will bring to the lucky child that finds it, a lovely Easter basket.

Parents and children are urged to remember the date, Saturday, April 17th, at 10 a. m.

1965 Receipts Show Increase

ALPINE — The 1965 Christmas Seal campaign closed exactly $5,303.22 ahead of the previous campaign, Paul Clay, Alpine area chairman reported yesterday.

Receipts were just $2,579.60 behind 1959, the most productive year to date. The campaign closed March 31.

He said 63,494 contributors throughout the county gave $147,212.83 to support the Tuberculosis and Health Association of San Diego County in its efforts against TB and other respiratory diseases by way of patients' rehabilitation, medical research, public and professional education, and case-finding programs.

"One factor is very encouraging," he said. "This time although we had nearly 4,000 fewer gifts than in 1959, there was an increase in the size of individual contributions."

"The average gift in 1959 was $2.10 and in the 1964 campaign it was $2.29."

"We do not close campaigns until the end of March because substantial gifts are received between the first of the year and the end of March. This year we received $25,767.63," he said.

Groundbreaking Postponed

HARBISON CANYON — The groundbreaking ceremonies scheduled for this Sunday (April 11th) have been postponed because of the poor weather conditions. An announcement will be made soon concerning further scheduling for the New Thunderbird Rodeo Field.

PUBLIC HEARING SCHEDULED

SAN DIEGO — Room 358 of the San Diego County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway, in San Diego will be the scene of a public hearing that will be held by the State Division of Highways where a discussion will be held regarding a possible relocation of a portion of Interstate Freeway Rt. 8.

The portion to be discussed is between 0.6 mile west of Japatul Valley Rd. near Descanso and 1.1 miles west of Laguna Junction near Pine Valley.

District Engineer for the Division of Highways, Jacob Dekema, said that the purpose of the hearing is to keep the public informed on highway matters and to obtain information which will assist the Division in planning for future development.

The needs of the community, both economical and cultural, must be evaluated before a recommendation to the California Highway Commission is made, Dekema said.

A complete transcript of the hearing will be made and presented to the California Highway Commission to aid them in making a decision on this future freeway location.

Editorial

Last week this newspaper published its first edition under the new banner, "Town and Country News." There were many reasons for the change of name — reasons upon which we will not dwell. Suffice it to say that it was our studied opinion that the change would be of benefit to everyone.

We were not prepared for the wonderful response which we received from the first issue of the Town and Country News. We have had countless phone calls along with many personal greetings, from our friends and neighbors. To our gratification, these friends and neighbors have overwhelmingly accepted and expressed their approval of the new name.

It is our pleasure to say "thank you" to each one of you who have been so kind as to give us your support. We shall endeavor in the future, to make this newspaper one of which the community can be proud. And we shall always endeavor to serve the wonderful people who live in the foothills and mountains of Southeast San Diego County.

April 12 makes it official again; baseball still is our national game. The majors start their season then and they'll be getting the big crowds and selling the peanuts and popcorn and crack-erjack.

In California, of course, the big question will be, can we get another world title? Will the Dodgers come back to glory? Will the Giants finally live up to their promising talents? Will the Angels sing of victory?

From our position of no authority we can make only a hedging prophecy. Perhaps the Dodgers will with a will, the Giants may with Mays, and you can't deny the Angels have a Chance.

FRIENDS THAT ARE WORTH KNOWING

National Library Week begins April 25. The purpose is to encourage lifetime reading habits and increase everyone's use of libraries.

Certainly greater use of our libraries is a goal worthy of the most widespread approval. Each of us should consider it a personal goal and one to be imparted to our children. The future will belong to those who possess the hard won prize of knowledge.

Libraries have been established to serve almost every community as a result of individual philanthropy; as part of the facilities provided by local government bodies; or in connection with school systems, colleges or universities. In our libraries on the pages of books and on micro-film and recordings, can be found the sum total of information and wisdom which the human race has been able to accumulate since the dawn of recorded history.

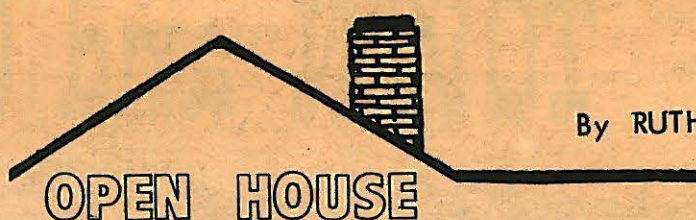

A friend is one who gives a helping hand when needed. On this basis, our libraries hold friends of incomparable worth.

The library waits to lend us the wisdom of the ancient philosopher that we may apply it with proper consideration in our own lives.

The library can unfold to us the healing arts of modern medicine; the wonders of space; the esoteric realms of physics, electronics, and mathematics.

And on problems of everyday life, they have useful and good advice to give us on practically any situation that we face.

These friends are the books on our library shelves. Let's get to know them better!

OPEN HOUSE

By RUTH FULLER

I am not really a good housewife. I must admit that I am an indifferent washer of dishes, an occasional scrubber of floors, and I get through my essential tasks as rapidly as possible so that I can get to the ones I really enjoy. Like re-arranging the bookshelves.

We have quite a few books and somehow it is impossible to find any given book when you want it. From time to time Robert will remark somewhat fretfully: "You work in a library, why can't our books be in some kind of order?" And I always make a good beginning. The trouble is I can spend hours crouched in front of a book case and never get further than the top row. Inevitably I find a good book and leaf through it while dusting off the cover and never get anywhere at all with arranging the set of Dickens we inherited or putting the encyclopedia in order. I really try, but it looks as though we will have to put up forever with complete confusion — Shakespeare and Tarkington and Herb Caen and Mark Twain mixed up with Earl Stanley Gardner, Louisa May Alcott and William O. Douglas with no thought at all for Dewey's wonderful system.

Another thing I find it absolutely impossible to do is to sort out our really huge collection of photographs and get them in chronological or any other sort of order. We have old albums which are falling to pieces and have missing pages; I have boxes of unmounted snapshots taken over the years which I am always planning to get together suitably for posterity and I never get it done. I become bemused and enraptured over pictures taken long ago of my daughter, Pat, as a baby, all mixed up with her high school and college graduation record and then when I come across the wedding pictures I am lost.

I spend the time running upstairs to show Robert some particularly delightful item, exclaiming "Look at this — isn't this cute — or adorable — or funny," as the case may be. Family pictures taken on trips, eventful occasions, you know how it is. The assortment of pictures of long departed pets — I enjoy my nostalgia thoroughly and come to a start to realize it is time for dinner — back they all go into their various boxes to be coped with next time. This is fun, but I am getting nowhere organizational-wise.

And how about the time-honored pastime of re-arranging furniture? This is, of course, something which is common to all housewives, but I am willing to bet that I hold some kind of record for time and energy spent shifting chairs, sofas, tables and other assorted goods and chattels. As a rule, I am never really happy with the new and changed scene and after suffering with it for a day or two I am quite apt to put everything back where it was originally.

This not only confuses Robert, but has, I have noticed, bothered the pets as well. Once we had a cat who was truly a lovely cat with predominately Persian attributes but he was not as bright as some others we have lived with. We had a coffee table on which he loved to sit in the evenings, and I moved it. When he rounded the corner, sailed through the air to his accustomed spot you never saw such a surprised cat or one with such hurt feelings. Which probably proves nothing much except that it is wise to warn the whole family before instigating radical furniture changes.

It is more fun to do the things you want to do and I am beginning to realize how Robert feels when he comes home and says "This weekend I am going to really straighten up my shop and arrange my tools before I do anything else!" So what if it never really gets done — this weekend I plan to spend my time re-arranging my record collection — the albums may get dusted at any rate, while I play and re-play all my old favorites.

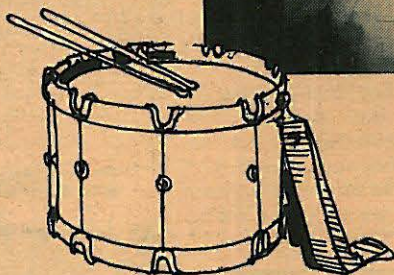

There is a certain relief in change, even though it be from bad to worse; as I have found in traveling in a stagecoach; that it is often a comfort to shift one's position and be bruised in a new place. — IRVING

On the left is Mike San Soucie as the "Admiral" just after the makeup man finished his job. Waiting his turn for beard and other magic transformation is Mark Launt member of the singing cast. Performance was given by the Alpine School.

Rich Zuelke is the "man of the hour" as he uses his artistic ability to make the children look the part of the characters in Gilbert and Sullivan's H.M.S. Pinafore. Here Jim Blocker and Mike Putnam get the treatment.

SPECIAL "HERE AND THERE" LEFTOVERS

PHILIP G. WALLAN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wallan of South Grade Rd., left Tuesday morning for an 18-month tour of duty in Guam. Philip, who will celebrate his 19th birthday this month, has attained the rank of Hospital Corpsman 3rd class, which is quite an accomplishment for so young a man. He will be stationed at the Naval Hospital on Guam. . . . Virginia Spires and her daughter Mary Lou Patchett and her grandson, Kevin, spent last week in Phoenix visiting with Virginia's mother, Mrs. G.T. Bergfeld.

If You Live Here...

If . . . you've been passing up azaleas because you can't give them shade, ask the Pine Acres Tree Nursery in Alpine about the Sun Azaleas or Southern Indicas that actually prefer a good amount of sun.

Set out . . . citrus this month in a well drained sunny location that's protected from wind. The very popular dwarfs make excellent container plants. Both dwarf and tall kinds can be trained as espaliers.

Don't . . . depend on April showers to do your watering for you. (However, at this writing, it seems we'll never have to water again!) Instead, pay close attention to deep, regular watering as temperatures increase. Plants need constant moisture to support soft, young growth.

Set out your . . . trees and shrubs from containers now. For an excellent, low ground cover, ask your nurseryman about the new "Blue Carpet" juniper. It's an intense, silvery, blue-green color and grows no higher than 10 to 12 inches. Highly drought resistant.

SPRING HAIRDOS

Shorter and sweeter is the news in spring hairstyles. According to experts, short, shaped hairdos curl around the ears in a fetching, feminine fashion.

YOUR HANDWRITING SECRETS

With tears in her eyes, May's mother (whom I had known well for over twenty years) asked me to tell her what I thought might eventually become of May if something were not done for her. I carefully explained that handwriting had no way of predicting the future, however that it was my opinion that a 16-year-old girl who had this type of personality might, within the next five years, end up as an inmate of our state mental institutions or as a juvenile delinquent as a prostitute.

CHARLIE COLE

"Oh, no! Not a prostitute!" the mother exclaimed. Then she related how less than two weeks previously when she and May had a long talk she had asked the girl what she planned to do if she kept on as she was at the time and May replied, "Well, really, I'm not worried. I can always be a prostitute and can stay in bed late in the mornings and not have to work hard."

Occasionally the analyst has a very sad or unhappy experience in analyzing the handwriting of people who have suggested that she consult a psychiatrist or perhaps someone skilled in handling such situations and to do so as soon as possible that treatment be started in time to be of some avail.

A psychiatrist was consulted and the girl has been undergoing treatment for some time. She has been transferred to a very restricted private school and progress is being made in her rehabilitation.

This happens to be one of the cases in which heredity has been more pronounced than environment, as her environment in this foster home had been on a very high plane with a great deal of love, affection, and care being given the child since she was seven years of age. However her parents and parental aunts and uncles all have deviate character records in our county.

I am most grateful that this type of analysis is one of the rare exceptions that makes the analyst very grateful for the more normal and interesting ones that he has to make, of so many very fine persons.

What are some of the good things that your handwriting portrays? Ideas For Weekend Coffees

Take a cue from the sophisticated career adults and the young marrieds — invite friends for Saturday coffees. It's a pleasant way for men and women to enjoy engaging conversations and perhaps some folk singing. A simple home-baked treat served with cups of steaming hot cafe au lait, American style, will please all. The coffee, prepared with instant coffee, has superb flavor to appeal to all.

Banana Nut Bread

- | | |
|---------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|
| 1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour | 1/3 cup fresh or reconstituted frozen orange juice |
| 2 1/2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder | 1 egg, slightly beaten |
| 1/4 teaspoon salt | 1/3 cup shortening, melted and slightly cooled |
| 2/3 cup firmly packed light brown sugar | 1/4 cup coarsely chopped nuts |
| 2 cups crisp oat flakes | |
| 1 cup mashed banana | |

Sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar into bowl. Add remaining ingredients. Blend just until flour is dampened. Pour into a well-greased 9x5-inch loaf pan. Bake at 350° for 60 to 65 minutes. Cool in pan about 10 minutes; then turn out onto rack to finish cooling. For best results, wrap bread in wax paper and store 12 hours or overnight before using.

Folk Singer Coffee

- | | |
|----------------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| 3 tablespoons premium blended instant coffee | 4 cups hot milk |
| | Unsweetened whipped cream |

Place instant coffee in heatproof pitcher or other utensil with pouring spout. Add hot milk and stir until dissolved. Sweeten to taste. Top each serving with about a teaspoon of whipped cream. Makes 1 quart or 6 servings.

WARNING IS GIVEN TO HOUSEWIVES

In connection with National Poison Prevention Week the National Safety Council reports a peculiar accident involving two housewives in separate cases. Both were using an ordinary toilet bowl cleaner. Not satisfied with the way it was removing stain, each one added some household bleach and stirred with a brush. One died quickly — the other spent a long time in the hospital.

A U.S. Navy medical newsletter tells about 20 people being overcome by gas or gases released from a cleaning mixture. Investigation revealed the mixture included a well-known liquid household cleaner, chlorine bleach and ammonia.

What happened in the above cases was that a poisonous gas was liberated when the users decided to use a mixture of two or more common household cleaning agents. When the widely used household chlorine bleach (a sodium hypochlorite solution) is combined with an acid or acid-producing substance, such as toilet bowl cleaner or vinegar, there is a sudden release of a quantity of chlorine gas. Likewise, when a chlorine bleach is mixed with ammonia, lye, or other alkaline substance, the action will liberate a highly irritating gas.

If the gas is inhaled, in either case, it can cause serious injury and possibly death. Accidents of this type have occurred not only in the kitchen and bathroom, but also in the cleaning and treating of the water in swimming pools.

Don't make the mistake of thinking that because certain household products are good and useful the combination of two or more of them will do a better job than one alone. Very often mixing them is useless and unnecessary, since combined they will not make the job of cleaning easier nor give better results; and sometimes combining them may be disastrous. Follow the safe rule — use chemical cleaners as the manufacturers direct on the labels and keep in mind some scouring powders now contain chlorine bleach.

Don't mix chlorine bleach with toilet bowl cleaners, ammonia, lye, rust remover, vinegar or oven cleaner.

They are also anticipating the fine work they feel can be done with the Rev. Lowell Smith who will be making calls on members when he begins his work on Tuesdays in Alpine. He will also hold a youth confirmation class at the Woman's Club at 4:00 p. m. and at 7:00 in the evening, the Sunday School teachers will meet.

Ladies of the church will meet April 12 at 7:00 p. m. at the A. P. Sutton home at 2636 Hwy. 80, Alpine.

Trailer Living

By LILLY LEINHAUPEL

Alpine Oaks had a Bingo party on Saturday, April 3rd, planned by entertainment chairman Mabel Thompson, with an assist from Nettie Howe and Lil Leinhaupel. All present enjoyed the mystery prizes and the delicious refreshments.

The monthly ladies' luncheon for April will be held on April 21st with Dorothy Lambert as chairman.

Easter breakfast at Alpine Oaks will be under the supervision of Eva Mumford.

Dr. Louis Dyer of Rancho Bernardo came down to celebrate his birthday with his daughter and her husband, Pat and Martin Weideman.

Admiral and Mrs. J. Ginder entertained Mr. and Mrs. Stacy W. Ayers of Prescott, Arizona.

All of the folks at the church are looking forward to the Community Easter Egg hunt which they are holding for all children Saturday, the 17th. They expect a fine turnout and invite all to come.

The highlight of the season will of course be the services on Easter Sunday. They will begin with a sunrise service and climax with a worship service at 4:00. Watch for further announcements of the activities for this special day.

PRACTICAL

Church-going can become a habit—people should practice it for goodness sake.

Col. and Mrs. R. Christian had as guests Mrs. M. Howard and daughter, Lynn, of San Diego.

Welcome back home to Alice and Ernest Groombridge, who had taken an apartment in La Mesa for several months to be with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lambert of Dyer, Tennessee. The Lamberts are former residents of San Diego.

Newcomers to Alpine Oaks are Mr. and Mrs. William Conklin from Centralia, Washington.

KIDS KORNER

Harbison Canyon

By BARBARA PRESLEY

In Mr. Ade's class they are growing crystals and plants. They are also making a rock display and have many interesting rocks. Another group is studying the human body. They are making model cells to represent the cells in the human body. Those are very interesting subjects.

Mrs. Snyder's class has added on to their groups in reading. The groups are Poetry and Creative Writing. These are needed additions.

Mr. Gaston's class is having a dress up day every Monday. A dress up day is where they come to school dressed in their Sunday best. The purpose is to set a good example in neatness. Good for you sixth graders.

The Sixth grade girls were to come home from the girl's track meet with a 2nd place, especially Kathy Sanders who won it. Too bad though that Vicky Shaw had her head over the line so that the Shuttle Relay team was disqualified. Better luck next time.

Lynne Thorpe and her family went up to Arizona Friday for the scooter races. They were planning to enter.

Barbara Presley (yours truly) was a guest of Martha Farmer's last Saturday. Martha and I went on a hike. We ran into lots of poison oak.

Alpine School

By JOYCE DINIUS

We are sorry to report that Joyce Dinius suffered burns last Thursday morning. She was warming herself in front of the open oven when her nightie caught fire. She ran and was finally caught by her sister who was able to beat out the flames. We have not been able to contact Joyce by phone but we wish to extend our best wishes for a full and rapid recovery.

On April 7th in room 5, Mr. Ossana's sixth grade will present a miniature horse show.

These will be models only and no more than three horses are to be presented by one person.

Included in the contest will be American Saddlebred, Tennessee Walking Horses, Quarter Horses, Arabian Horses, Palominos and Burros.

BY-LAWS ARE AMENDED

ALPINE — At a meeting of the Board of the Alpine Youth Center held Monday night, the by-laws were amended and adopted.

The new amendment to the by-laws, Article 3, Section 3, reads as follows:

"The Youth Center shall be used for youth activities and all manner of civic, community and public enterprises."

No school age activities will be held during Easter vacation week.

HERE and THERE

WE'VE HAD SOME complaints about "Here and There" and "All Around." Seems folks have to read everything in the column before they can find their own news. We've been scattering the news from all the areas through the whole column. We'll have to admit that we planned it that way. We were sort of hoping that everybody would read everything. All of us here in the foothills and the mountains, would like to know each other better. And it seemed to us that if we scattered everything a bit, we'd all get to know everyone. Well, maybe we scattered it a bit too much, but we still hope we can keep you reading the whole column. Because we think our readers are just as interested in their neighbors as we are, and we hope we can all get to know each other better.

A PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE course is being held at the Harbison fire hall each Tuesday from 9:30 until 11:30 a. m. Anyone aspiring to hold an organization office at the present or in the future should take advantage of this course for the knowledge to be acquired. . . . The Fire Department Thrift Shop had a real successful opening day on Saturday and the auxiliary wishes to take this opportunity to extend their thanks to all those who were so helpful in making this possible.

THE PHOTOGRAPH on the right, is a sort of side view of the new wing of the Convalescent Center. We wonder if Alpiners realize how much this beautiful facility does for all of us. Not only does it advertise Alpine, its wonderful climate and exceptional beauty, but it also adds greatly to the economy. We are fortunate to be blessed with this fine service and we can only wish it continued success now that the added facilities make room for so many more people and so many more services.

MRS. GEORGE FORS of Lake Morena drove to Santa Barbara recently to bowl in the State Tournament with her former team from Uron. They bowled three games on Saturday afternoon and six games on Sunday. Evelyn reports she bowled her average and enjoyed the trip very much, as well as being with her old teammates. . . . Ladonna Muhlhauer of Pine Valley also drove to Santa Barbara on Friday March 26 to attend the funeral of her father. Our deepest sympathy is extended to her. . . . Have been informed that Mrs. Louis Barrish (Fay) of Pine Valley was released from the hospital week before last and she is recuperating from her auto accident at the home of her daughter on Mt. Laguna. She is wearing a brace and is in considerable pain from her back injury. We wish her the best. . . . There have been a number of Copper Parties in Lake Morena — one was held last month at the home of Mrs. Victor Tarwarter and it was hosted by Mrs. H.G. Skonberg and another will be held at the same place this Saturday, April 10th, hosted by Mrs. Axel Lawrence. . . . Mrs. Louis Baldwin of East Highway 94 entertained the Homemakers Club recently and a large group attended the delicious potluck luncheon and enjoyed the fun meeting. The club will soon go on its annual Desert Breakfast and the members are looking forward to same. . . . Bee Boyd and your reporter enjoyed a mystery bus trip recently, given by the Cottonwood Country Club of which Mrs. Boyd is a member. Forty one made the trip which ended at the San Luis Rey Country Club where a golf tournament was held by those attending. After the tournament a delicious dinner was enjoyed in the lovely club house and the trophies were presented. Each non-member was given a Titleist Golf Ball.

JOSEPHINE STURDIVANT WHO is an old time resident of Alpine, is back in the hospital very seriously ill with pneumonia. We all certainly hope she is on the way to recovery, and we are all thinking of her. . . . And on the sick list recently have been two teachers from the Alpine School. In fact, they had their accident the evening of the lovely musical at the school auditorium. Seems the rain played a part in an accident they were involved in also, and Jan Russell and Dora Fletcher were shaken up. Dora won't be back until after Easter vacation as she was injured.

ROY WALLIN ASKS, Who said the Big Rain of '65 wasn't gonna git here!! I think all us back-country folk deeply appreciate the liquid gold that's been showered down on us the past week. Really does a body good to see the creeks running and the ponds and lakes filling once again, reminiscent of the back-country that was. Let's hope this is a sign of the times as the cycle shifts. . . . In case you didn't know it, we've got a real genuine celebrity in our midst yep, "Two-Gun Noel Kelly" is a weekender up on Monte Robles Acres and has been for some years. Noel's been doing some commercials for those new-fangled horse-less carriages on Channel 6 of late. . . . Good to have Win and Cec Sellers back on their ranch from the mighty metropolis of the Angels, up NOATH! Also seen traversing our boulevards this past weekend were Betty and Ralph Okey, part owners of "Hidden Valley Ranch," and their daughter, Vicki. . . . At the monthly meeting of the Deerhorn Civic Club last Friday night, cards were signed and sent to Ray Hughes, who recently suffered a heart attack and Agnes Amundson who was recuperating from a throat infection. A speedy recovery to you both from all the "Hill-Folk." The progress

Dr. Bill

Tobacco smokers are the most inconsiderate of all people. They require everyone to pollute their bodies with nicotine poison. Even newborn babies and infants that cannot protect themselves or get away from the polluted air, are not immune from the poison; even the unborn infants blood is saturated from the instant of conception on, and expectant mothers who smoke give the poison to their unborn children direct without it being modified by the air.

Is it any wonder that cancer and many other types of diseases are becoming progressively more frequent?

Sincerely, Your DOCTOR BILL

Luck plays favorites, but never to those who depend on it.

A BUBBLE

Check the foundation of the ladder of fame - the risk may not warrant the climb.

JEAN DANZL AND HAZEL FOSTER DISPLAY FINE TROPHIES.

NOR-BOB TROPHIES IS ONE OF ALPINE'S UNIQUE BUSINESSES

ALPINE - One of the busiest women in Alpine is Hazel Foster who is carrying on with the business established by her late husband and a partner back in 1961. Shortly after the business was started the partner moved away which left the entire project in the hands of Norman and Hazel.

Upon Norman's untimely death last year the entire responsibility then fell upon the able shoulders of Hazel who has successfully maintained the shop. She has one full-time helper, Jean Danzl, of Harbison Canyon, who is equally talented in designing trophies and emblems. These two women do the selling, demonstrating and engraving on all types of trophies and carry a complete line of fine trophies.

The business keeps these two industrious women very busy for they are constantly making contacts, showing merchandise, and then following up with the actual work to finish the trophies and other products they offer. A large part of their business is providing trophies and ribbons for horse shows and bowling leagues.

They carry bowling shirts, all types of trophies and ribbons, and a nice selection of silver gifts, including trays, bowls, goblets and such items. You are cordially invited to stop by Norbob Trophy Co. on Arnold Way at the corner of South Grade Road and inquire about the merchandise offered locally which saves you that trip to town.

HOME ECONOMIST Eastern District

SAN DIEGO GAS & ELECTRIC CO. suggests

The April Cooking School theme will be "Springtime Favorites" and we will have lots of new recipes and food know-how to share with you.

At the first Cooking School we will take a "New Look at Spring." Spring Lamb is especially tasty and economical now and so we'll prepare an Exotic Leg of Lamb that has an oriental touch. We will demonstrate another recipe, Chicken Breast Saute with New Potatoes (the wine in the sauce makes it deliciously out of the ordinary). We will have many other vegetable, dessert and salad ideas.

Our second meeting will cover "Springtime Specialties." Among these will be Ginger Glaze Baked Ham, Carrot and Celery Casserole, Lobster and Artichoke Casserole and more salads and desserts.

The programs are scheduled for April 13 at 10 a. m. and our second program will be held April 27 at 10 a. m. Both will be held in the Gracious Living Center of SDG&E's Eastern District Office, 104 N. Johnson Street in El Cajon.

Join us, won't you? It's fun and you may even win a door prize. Admission is, as always, free.

HARBISON CANYON DANCE IS SET

Serving will begin promptly at 5:30 and continue until 8:00 p. m. followed by dancing to the tune of a Western band. There will be door prize drawings throughout the evening.

Tickets are available from any fireman or auxiliary member and will also be on sale at the door.

UNOFFICIAL REPORTS SHOW HEAVY RAINS

ALPINE - Unofficial rain reports from all over Alpine vary as to the storm total of our most recent storm. The reports range from 4.85" to 6.5" depending on the random samplings which were reported.

SURPLUS

Even the men who can make both ends meet are getting bored - they keep hoping they can overlap a little.

HERE AND THERE (From Pg. 7)

on the community directory was reported and the president, John Amundson, showed slides and gave a running commentary on his vacation trips to Mexico, Knotts Berry Farm, Disneyland and various other vacation spots. . . . The activity of the Sheriff's patrol cars last Saturday in our community was a concentrated segment of the county-wide search for William Tahl.

THERE WAS QUITE a rash of accidents during the wet rainy weather. Jim Whitt's nephew went over the bank near the chicken ranch on Highway 80 Thursday afternoon. As far as we can find out, he was not hurt. Then Friday afternoon, Dennis Davis of San Diego went over in the same spot, and there was another car in the ditch at The Willows and we understand the car was badly damaged. It certainly should mean that all of us should drive more carefully even when it isn't rainy weather.

AT THIS WRITING Hazel Allbright is in E.C. Valley Hospital recuperating from a ruptured appendix. She wishes to thank her many friends in Descanso for the lovely flowers and cards. . . . Those howls from the yard of Pearl Glicks last week were being made by her cocker spaniel, Ebby. Seems Ebby was having her toenails clipped. . . . Used to be kind of fun to dodge the chuck holes on River Road when there were only a few of them. It's no fun anymore, it's impossible. . . . There's a pretty good rumor going around that our little Raintree Market will re-open around the 1st of May. Many have missed having it open, especially on Sunday. . . . If a lady knocks on your door this week or next, please answer, as our local gals will be going door to door to remind us to keep the school tax we now have to continue next year, come election. . . . Mr. Dewey and wife Wally Poulson returned this week from a month's vacation in lower Mexico. By the way, if anyone is interested in playing bridge, Mrs. Poulson would like to hear from them. Leave a message at the store. . . . Our predictions of two weddings in March at least was half way true. Bob Bibb took the vows but we were sorry to lose him and his bride as they moved down to the Willows. . . . Just a reminder to our school children. That complete set of Encyclopedia Britannica is still at the Chapel of the Hills study. If any questions are bugging you, please feel free to drop by and look up the answers. . . . Your reporter is hoping the culprit is apprehended who shot the nose off a young buck over Boulder Creek way and left it to die.

SPENDING THE DAY with a former Alpine resident, Mrs. S. S. Worley, in Pomona, were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Rood, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lyman and Mr. and Mrs. John Peters. Mrs. Worley lived on Victoria Drive and is now living at the Mt. San Antonio Community for retired folks. The group toured the lovely Congregational facility and also took a trip around the Rancho Santa Ana Botanic Gardens of the native plants of California. After spending the winter in Alpine, the John Peters' left last week for their home in Grinnel, Iowa. It is always nice to have these folks with us and we'll be looking for their return again next year.

DON BENNETT (RUTH Carman's son) left for Bremerton, Washington where he expects to be stationed for six months. Wife, Genelle, (Harbison Canyonites) and son, expect to join him about the first of June. . . . Terry Lynne Ferguson spent the weekend visiting her great aunt, Frances Barta of El Cajon. . . . Welcome to our community, David Mossburg, who hails from Phoenix and has come here to be employed by National Steel. David will make his home with brother Dick and family. . . . We're happy to report that Fred Adame Sr. has returned to his home after a suspected heart attack. We're glad he is better.

SEEMS THAT WE goofed a bit when we said that the ranch in Descanso was the only one that raised the Charloais breed of cattle. Although they probably are the largest herd, we understand some are raised on the Brown Ranch in Julian, the Williams Ranch in Japatul Valley, the Moore Ranch in Lyons Valley and the Wisemann place in Japatul-Campo area. We'll have to get around to see these cattle too, when we have the opportunity.

THREE HUNDRED PEOPLE went with the Auren Pierces on their most recent ski trip to Sun Valley. This was a "learn how" skiing trip, and according to reports, these Pierces really learned how! Jeannie also learned how to knit on the train going up to the fun in the snow, and according to her, she is ready to turn around and go right back for more! Oh, yes, the 300 people were on the train, not actually in the Pierce party!

OTTO MILLER IS proudly beaming these days. He will soon celebrate his 84th birthday and he has been presented with his seventh great-grandchild. And this time it's a boy! The mother is Barbara Anderson and father is Robert Anderson. And one of the reasons he is so proud is that the name of the lad is - yes, you guessed it, David OTTO Anderson!

THE LARGE CROWD headed down to the Security First National Bank in Alpine could have been going there to pay their taxes - or they might have been going to see Evelyn. Seems when we mentioned last week that she had moved to Fletcher Hills, we neglected to say that her husband went too! And Evelyn has been mighty busy these days, answering questions. In case anyone hasn't had a chance to see Evelyn in person, all is well. We just ran out of space and didn't have room to include hubby last week! . . . And speaking of Evelyn, George and Evelyn Behrens (she's the Evelyn of Evelyn's Beauty Shop on the Crest) had as their houseguest last week, Mrs. Ann Reynolds of San Diego. Mrs. Reynolds formerly resided in the Crest.
