

Firemen Display New Truck C of C Meets

ALPINE — The town turned out to watch their fire fighters show them the new equipment that has been purchased to better protect our people.

Sunday afternoon was open house at the fire station. All who came were able to examine the fine new pumper that is now a part of the local equipment because of the farsightedness of the men who have been involved in solving the problems concerning fire in this area.

A remarkable demonstration was given by the able volunteer firemen as they showed the power of the new pumper. Details of the demonstration were given by Jack Blankenship, Fire Chief, who explained each maneuver. On hand to aid our local firemen was the Forestry Service with an interesting demonstration which was of great interest to the large audience.

Preceding the demonstration, the Alpine Amigos 4-H group, held a ceremony for Commander Rusolph Oeser and Paul V. Black.

Several weeks ago, this group, with the aid of the Alpine Chamber of Commerce, purchased and planted a tree in memory of Cmdr. Oeser. In 1962 the 4-H group planted a tree for Paul V. Black. The two trees will remind all who see them of the two men who gave so much to Alpine.

Mr. Black was responsible for the siren that is part of the fire system here. He also had a great deal to do with the building of the fire station, as did Cmdr. Oeser.

The pumper that was on display Sunday, was there due to the long-term planning of Cmdr. Oeser. He was also in a great part responsible for building the Volunteer Fire Department and did many other things that make the Alpine Fire Department what it is today.

The 4-H Amigos' ceremony for Cmdr. Oeser follows:

"Mr. Oeser entered the Navy as an Ensign in 1914 and he received his commission in 1917. He made Commander during World War II.

"Commander Oeser was skipper of a submarine and was in command of a Yangtze patrol. He built radio stations in Siberia and Alaska. Commander Oeser saw duty in the Philippines, South America and Mexico.

"he served his country during two world wars and had a varied career in the Navy.

"Commander and Mrs. Oeser built their home in Alpine when he retired in June of 1942.

"He became fire commissioner on March 10, 1953 and resigned August 1, 1961.

"Commander Oeser was active in the Alpine Kiwanis in which he was awarded a life membership and the Alpine Masonic Lodge.

The following is the devotional.

"Oh Lord, help us:

"To be glad of life, because it gives us the chance to love and to work and to play and look up at the stars;

"To be satisfied with our possessions, but not contented until we have made the best of them;

"To despise nothing in the world except falsehood and meanness and to fear nothing except cowardice;

"To be governed by our admirations rather than our disgusts;

"To covet nothing that is our neighbor's except his kindness of heart and gentleness of manners;

"To think seldom of enemies, often of friends and every day of Christ. . . ."

ALPINE — At the last Alpine Chamber of Commerce meeting, a discussion was introduced by Mrs. Robert Earickson concerning the need for bringing new business to the Alpine area.

Mentioned particularly, was the fact that there are few places here that young people can go to for employment.

Jerry Porter, member of the firm that has purchased acreage for a retirement center, in discussing this project with the Town and Country News, is also anxious that a portion of their property be used for some sort of a business. Although their primary interest is the retirement center, the firm which he represents is open for suggestions as to how to best use about ten acres of the land that will not be occupied by the center.

Mr. Porter is also interested in the young people of the area and his firm is willing to build for lease, if anyone is interested in starting a new business in Alpine.

Mrs. Earickson was appointed chairman of a committee to further explore this field.

In other matters, the Chamber discussed:

—The fruitless mulberry tree purchased by the Chamber to be planted by the 4-H Amigos club was discussed and it was felt a short ceremony honoring Paul Black and also Cmdr. Rudolph Oeser would be in order.

—The committee headed by Ronald Van Til to beautify and promote Alpine was also discussed and Mr. Van Til reported that some of his committee members have been lined up.

—The Postal Department has not allowed a commemorative cancellation stamp, and it was decided that Phil Hall head a committee that would have designed, an envelope honoring the Post Office here which will celebrate its 100th anniversary, November, 1965.

—The Mother Goose Parade was discussed and it was decided that Alpine would begin their efforts a little earlier this year.

—Paul Nichols reported that all was going well with the Horse Show committee.

Resident Country Deputy to Cover Alpine

ALPINE—Beginning the first of August, Gaylord (he prefers Steve) Stephan, will begin his duties as a resident country deputy in Alpine.

This area has long felt that a law enforcement officer would fill a great need in the community.

Sheriff Joe O'Connor announced the move at the dinner meeting of the Alpine Kiwanis last Thursday night. He also announced that more men are being added to the El Cajon substation, which will directly affect this area, as the patrol areas will be made smaller and there will be better service in the East County.

Country deputy Stephan will be patrolling the Alpine area exclusively. He will not be on call for other communities.

Stephan was born in Michigan and raised in Silver City, New Mexico and has been in security work since 1937. His most recent assignment was as Chief of the Police Force at Straza Industries, La Mesa.

He has won many trophies in regional and state championship competition for marksmanship. He has been associated with the National Rifle Association for approximately 20 years.

Stephan enjoys as hobbies, guns, coins, fishing and hunting. He recently bagged two mountain lions in Prescott, Arizona, Bob cats, mountain lions and coyotes are the only animals that he hunts. He wears as his side arm a 41 Magnum. "I hope that I never have to use it," he remarked.

Stephan is interested in young people and would like to teach those who are interested, tips and safety features in handling fire arms as well as tips in hunting and fishing.

Stephan lives at Flo Drive and Arnold Way. He is a widower, having recently lost his wife.

Where should a newspaper stop in reporting what to the community, is news?

Vacations are news, no doubt about it. But is it fair for us to give details of a trip for a local resident, when their home will be unattended? It's no secret that those who make burglary their way of life, watch newspapers for just this kind of "news." True, this may not have happened in Alpine recently — but it does happen.

Therefore, it is the policy of this newspaper, not to mention a vacation of a local citizen until AFTER that vacation is over.

Many unscrupulous publications do not care about the consequences that may result in giving forth information of this kind, just so they may fill a little space. However, rest assured, that unless the person involved requests that their vacation be in the paper before they leave on their trip, we will never violate a confidence.

And that leads us to another question. What do we do when a prominent business man — or anyone, for that matter — asks us to withhold certain information about their business, their plans, or other information that they consider to be of a private nature? What do we do when someone is ill and the family of this person asks us not to publish details of the illness?

So far, we have yielded to these requests without question. It was our feeling that there were things that belonged to people — things that we as a newspaper, had no right to print with permission.

However, we have begun to adjust our thinking on this particular phase of this business, specially when we find that all publications do not think this way. Therefore, in the future when we are asked to withhold information, it shall be our policy to delve just a little deeper and make sure that the information is not public information. But if we decide that it is public information, we shall print the particular item. If the information is actually of a private nature, you may rest assured that the Town and Country News will not betray a confidence.

THE STATE OF California, out of the goodness of its heart, has twice in my lifetime issued me a license permitting me to drive a motor vehicle upon its streets and highways. This does not increase my faith in the good judgment of those persons in charge of the Department of Motor Vehicles. I probably would never have owned a car at all, if my younger brother had not prevailed upon me to buy the last of the Model A's because he needed transportation and I was working and earning money and he wasn't. So enchanted was he with this black coupe with bright red wheels that he offered to give me driving lessons. We spent some time creeping carefully around the block, and then he lost his head and we went further afield. The first thing I did was sail around a corner and run into a manure truck. White and shaken, my brother said "I quit. Somebody else will have to teach you."

OTHER PEOPLE TRIED, including friends and a couple of uncles who had braved the battlefields and survived — they even had medals for bravery, but they found excuses to stop instructing me. Finally a girl friend with nerves of steel volunteered, and after an entire summer, she pronounced me ready for my driver's test. I tried three times — once I stalled on a hill, once I ran a boulevard stop, narrowly missing a huge moving van and I never really mastered parallel parking. The fourth time I made it because the official in charge valued his life and I miraculously did everything right.

I'VE NEVER HAD a traffic citation because I creep cautiously and surreptitiously down seldom frequented roads, and never encounter policemen. Nobody wants to ride with me; my daughter Pat once said, "Mother, when you are driving, just let me know and I'll stay safely indoors."

NOT LONG AGO there was a televised test of driver's skills which everyone I know urged me to take and I watched the program and marked my paper along with Robert and when I saw my score I was discouraged and disheartened — what made it worse was that Robert's score was well-nigh perfect. I have to face the fact that I am a menace in the driver's seat.

NOW I AM wondering whether, as a good citizen, I should go and voluntarily surrender myself to the Division of Motor Vehicles on the grounds of general ineptitude, or if I am careful and stick to that little-travelled side road I use to drive to work every day I might be justified in keeping my license. I am tired of spending sleepless nights and I must come to some conclusion soon. Perhaps I will write a letter — it will begin: "Dear Abby: I need your advice. What would you do if you had discovered you were the world's worst driver, but really needed a car to get to work everyday? . . ."

IT WASN'T ENOUGH that the Clyde Buttrell home was endangered by fire two weeks ago, their youngest son, Eddie, found matches and a jug of gasoline and proceeded to try and burn out an ant hill in the yard. The gasoline jug ignited and Eddie is minus eyebrows and part of his hair plus having been burned. However, Eddie promised to leave both matches and gasoline alone and let the ants go their merry way. . . . Mrs. Mildred Glynn, with her brother David Bonsor of Chula Vista, recently returned from a three week vacation which took them to Colorado where they visited a sister, Mrs. June McKibbey and family in Denver, and to Nebraska where they visited their father, W. E. Pierce in Lincoln. Highlight of the trip for Mildred was the meeting and seeing her daughter-in-law and grandchild for the first time. Son Vincent arranged to bring his family from Binghamton, New York, to Denver for this visit. Sights that impressed the two travelers were the Royal Gorge, the Cave of the Winds, and the Garden of the Gods. They also enjoyed breakfasting in the Cliff House. . . . Ruth and Bob Carman have been entertaining Ruth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gordon of Duncan, Arizona. Don Bennett, Ruth's son was also on hand for a few days to greet his grandparents. The Carmans and Gordons drove to Barstow over the weekend to visit Ruth's grandmother, Mrs. Nora Fortney. . . . A gathering of friends at a potluck dinner at Jack and Jean's Cafe, one evening last week, surprised Zoia and Charlie Cobb on their 38th wedding anniversary. . . . Virginia, Tommy and Jackie Hettinger were canyon visitors from Thursday until Sunday, having driven over from Imperial to take in the Cobb anniversary party. Jackie was Jeff Wise' guest while Tommy and Virginia were guests in the Skee Scott home. . . . I understand via the grapevine, that a certain avid reader of the Town and Country News was terribly disappointed when his sister and brother made the column near the 4th of July and he did not. Well, we will try not to let it happen again - Jeff Wise was a guest at the Rio Hardy and of the Morris Hettingers for two weeks. . . . Jack and Flo Roberts recently returned from a visit to the Bay Area where they visited with Jack's father, Nelson Roberts, and stayed at his ranch, Las Fuentes y Las Cimas, at Hollister, Calif.; visited with Jack's sister, Mrs. Dorothy La Bends and daughter, Gail Montoya in San Lorenzo, and enjoyed an evening of night clubbing in Hayward. . . . The Ambrose Jones family have returned from an extensive trip to northern California. They made Sacramento their headquarters and stayed with Ambrose' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jordan, also spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Reynolds (Ambrose' brother). Just to name a few of the many interesting places they enjoyed: Sutter's Creek, Mt. Shasta, Mt. Lassen, Yosemite and Sequoia National Parks. They traveled to San Francisco, crossed the Golden Gate Bridge, viewed San Quentin from the Richmond Bridge and took a ride on one of the famous trolley cars. A trip through Tiega, Yuba and Senora Passes, where the scenery is beautiful, was enjoyed, also Fiddletown, an old mining town that dates back to the 1870's. On one of their jaunts they drove to Reno and enjoyed the hospitality there. Party came home with a cornet (bugle) that Mr. Jordan presented to her, and one he had used to blow taps on during World War 1. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lightner and daughter, Carol have been guests in the Virgil Sanford home, and upon their return home, (Hastings, Nebraska) Linda will fly with them via jet, to spend some time. . . . Mrs. Lois Brown of Walnut Creek, is a guest in the Francis Berkebile home. She is Mrs. Berkebile's sister. . . . We are sorry to hear that Mike Koeth has been a real sick boy with poison oak. Hope you are on the mend very soon, Mike. . . . We are happy to welcome the following families who have recently moved to our community: Mr. and Mrs. Warren Ates and family of five from Paradise Hills, Chula Vista; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Thomas and son, Jimmy of San Diego; and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hoff of Chula Vista.

Along with Mrs. Frances Hunter, Mrs. Rita Nelles and Miss Julia Jump, a farewell party was given for Mrs. Mary Kidwell at Park's Cafe in Bostonia. Then she held a farewell party for Vickie Matlock. Those attending were Sharon Syzmore and sisters Lynda, Laurie, Valerie and Pam, with fudge, brownies and ice cream. After a few days on the Crest, the visitors will drive on to San Francisco. Originally he was from Toledo, Ohio. . . . Three small lads were apprehended on Sierra Vista for starting a brush fire. The fire department had to hand them over to the arson department of the sheriff's office as a necessary warning to any children who want to play with matches. Chief Roger Dutton emphasizes the danger of fires in this dry season and reminds homeowners, again, to keep the area around their homes cleaned up. Training sessions are now in progress at the Crest Volunteer Fire Department and anyone interested in becoming a member should contact Chief Dutton, 442-4906. . . . Long-Time Crest Resident Succumbs

THE CREST — Alvin Rice, native Californian and a resident of the Crest since 1939, died July 15 in El Cajon Valley Hospital. He was well-known in the community for his interest in all the residents. For many years, Al and his wife were proprietors of the Hilltop market and in past years they have faithfully fulfilled their tasks at the Crest Post Office.

Al's garden was one of the best on the Crest and he always gave vegetables to his friends. While not a joiner of organizations, Al could be counted on to work for any worthy project that would be of benefit. His quiet good humor and neighborliness will be missed on the Crest.

Graveside services were held on Monday at Greenwood Cemetery with Al's friends and relatives present. Four generations of survivors were in attendance.

interesting and were enjoyed by everyone.

The monthly C. A. rally was held at the La Mesa Gospel Tabernacle Monday the 26th. Charles Stuckey was the guest speaker.

We invite everyone to attend the Young people's service every Sunday at 6:30 and the service after at 7:30.

Poetry is - A Many Splendored Fling

By MARINE KRAMER

As I have said before, poetry is something you write because of being inspired by someone or something. Sometimes because of something you feel and want to say. These two recent poems I wrote because of the passing of Edith Van Til's lovely Mother—this one I would like to dedicate to her—and the other, because of the timely topic of Viet Nam and the need for us to understand why we must be there and why our young men are sacrificing their lives.

THE HARVEST

We cannot keep forever the harvest that we reap
More often than the times we smile, there is a time to weep.
There isn't always sunshine, the quench of thirst is rain
And so it is with joy and peace, they temper times of pain.

The rose is not without the thorn, yet it does not mar its beauty.
And so it is the petals fall when the rose fulfills her duty.
It's plain to see there is a plan, I find it so, don't you?
That all we love must leave us, as someday we leave too.

But there is joy in living, much wonder far beyond
We haven't even touched yet, reach out before it's gone.
Grasp and even feel and hold them, they are all around us
We are as much a part of nature's plan as the mystery that surround us.

Marie Kramer

FREEDOM ISN'T JUST A WORD

Every day I awake at dawn, turn back the covers, stretch and yawn. I dress and turn to each daily task and then my thoughts begin to ask. How have our boys started their day? Has there been time to sleep or even to pray? Have they slept in their clothes, wrinkled and soiled? Been on the alert with a finger coiled around a trigger ready to squeeze?

Hardly daring a breath yet whispering, "Please Dear Lord don't let it be today, when this is all over, let me walk away." I'm sure every one of us wants to live, yet knowing at times ourselves we must give. But, just like our boys, this too is our cause, so during our day, take time to pause, stand for a moment and silently pray, "Please God, watch over our boys today." Some I know have given supreme and more will fall before the dream of freedom is realized for all of man. But with brave men like these, I KNOW that it can!

IF MR. or Mrs. K. W. Claybaugh, P. O. Box 552, Alpine, will go to Florence's Superette, they will find that they are the winners of $2.50 worth of groceries. This offer is good until Monday night.

Know Your Newspaper Better

Are We Fair in Our News Reports?

We think we are. In our news columns, we do our best to bring you facts only . . . without expression of personal opinion of reporters or editors.

We Always Do Our Best

. . . to give you both sides in our news reports, if there are two sides. Or three sides, if there are three. Everyone deserves fair representation in a news report.

Who You Are Doesn't Matter

. . . if the publisher of this newspaper were caught speeding on Main street . . . or anywhere else . . . you'd find it reported in this newspaper . . . more than likely on the front page! And so with the banker, the baker, the candlestick maker . . . and the advertiser, too. Business accorded this paper does not buy protection against news reports.

This Is Only Right . . .

To be fair, a newspaper must report what happened . . . to whom . . . where . . . how . . . and why—without regard to who it is . . . or his position . . . or how much money he has . . . or how good a friend he is of the editor. This is this newspaper's news policy—a policy we believe fair and equitable to all.
