Deadline Nears

ALPINE — October 6th will be the deadline for securing tickets for the coming installation dinner of the Chamber of Commerce. All area residents are invited and urged to attend.

Pictures Donated to Local Club

ALPINE — At the first meeting of the Alpine Woman's Club, two lovely pictures were given to the club by Isabelle Pellegrin and her brother Balfour Darnell. They are the daughter and son of the late Belle Darnell. Mrs. Darnell was a member of the Alpine Woman's Club and a past president of the club.

The pictures are pastels, painted by Mrs. Darnell's mother. They were painted at the Detroit zoo where the elder Mrs. Darnell went to paint the pictures from real life. The story is, that each time Mrs. Darnell visited the zoo, the animals would assume the same position and she became well acquainted with them.

The pictures are in the original frames and were brought from the Darnell home in New Jersey.

The Woman's Club accepted the pictures with enthusiasm and were deeply grateful for the thoughtfulness of Balfour Darnell and Isabelle Pellegrin.

Bond Needs Told

GROSSMONT COLLEGE — The Grossmont College color slide story of the October 19th bond election was presented last week to the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce, La Mesa Lions Club, Casa de Oro Mens Club, Spring Valley Kiwanis Club, Lemon Grove Soroptimists, Foothills Council PTA, Alpine Chamber of Commerce, Santee Lions Club, Santee-Lakeside Rotary, Fuerte PTA, Fletcher Hills PTA and the Alpine Kiwanis Club.

Organizations interested in seeing the slide presentation should call the Grossmont College Campus Completion Committee information office, 465-1761 to arrange date and place. The film (16 minutes long) or a 10-minute chart presentation will be presented "anywhere, anytime," according to the campaign speaker's bureau chairman, O. W. "Bud" Miller.

Women Meet for First Session

ALPINE — The first meeting of the Alpine Woman's Club was held Tuesday, president Goldie Vancil presiding.

The first meeting was the annual "ingathering" for the Needlework Guild. Each member of the Club brought two new garments. The reason for two garments is "one to wash and one to wear" and they are donated to organizations caring for the needy of San Diego County.

Mmes. Colby, Stearns and Lore were hostesses for the day, and several guests were presented.

The club meets every other Tuesday during the club year.

Musical Instruments are Needed at Tecate Mission

Just this side of the border at Tecate, California, is a mission — a mission that was built with faith. Rev. Ed Whitford and his wife Mary, felt the call to work with Mexican people. He gave up his job and moved to the Tecate area where he could do this work.

Ed and Mary have adopted four children — all of minority races, and all with physical handicaps. When they started the soon to be completed mission, Rev. Whitford had $10 in his pocket. Now, completely through faith, and without the financial backing of any group or church a fine mission has been built and will soon be ready for use for both sides of the border.

Not only has Rev. Whitford begun a work that he has felt called to do, he has created a great deal of good will between the Mexican and American people.

Many Alpine area residents have gone to the Tecate Mission to worship and to help in any way possible. Now they want to help once again.

The mission has only a very old and very dilapidated piano — one that is almost impossible to fix. There is a fine organ available in Alpine, at a very reasonable price. Many of these people who know Ed and Mary would like to help by purchasing this organ for the sanctuary.

Therefore there has been a fund started for this need. Marie Kramer is heading the committee and she will be happy to take any donation for the organ. Her address is Rt. 1 Box 319, Alpine, or she may be reached at 445-2003. Gifts may also be sent to the newspaper office, P.O. Box 8, Alpine.

It is hoped that many will respond to this need. The good will and friendship that has been created between the people of Alpine and the people of Tecate has already been of great benefit to both countries. Many small gifts will do much to continue this fine spirit of friendship which is so needed in these troubled times.

Excess Overtime Eyed

WASHINGTON — Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin (D-S.D.), pointing to an "undue" volume of overtime hours at the North Island Naval Air Station, this week urged the Navy to raise the job ceiling at the base and thus provide some 350 jobs for unemployed San Diegans.

Van Deerlin made his plea in a letter to Graeme C. Bannerman, assistant secretary of the navy for installations and logistics.

The Congressman said he had verified with the Bureau of Naval Weapons reports he had received from the North Island Association, an employee-management organization, that the station workload has "rendered inadequate" the job ceiling of approximately 7, 900.

The workload rise, Van Deerlin stressed, could not have been foreseen, but has been caused by the national situation.

"I am under the impression, however," Van Deerlin told Bannerman, "that the Bureau of Naval Weapons feels that an increase of 350 to 380 jobs would be desirable. . . This would result not only in probable savings and an increase in efficient work, but also in the employment of men now idle and drawing unemployment compensation."

The Congressman pointed out that San Diego County's unemployment rate was 6.9 per cent for August.

Speedway Report Made Public

In order that our readers may be completely informed in matters of interest to the community, we are presenting a just-released sheriff's report.

We present this report so that our readers may better evaluate the motorcycle controversy.

SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT
San Diego County
DEPUTY'S REPORT

Victim or Complainant: Alpine Speedway, Highway 80, Alpine, San Diego, Calif., 8-21-65.

TO THE SHERIFF:

At approximately 8:30 P.M., 8-21-65, the undersigned contacted Mr. LUTZ at the Alpine Speedway, Highway 80, Alpine. Mr. LUTZ stated there were motorcycle races held about twice a month on this track, the date being whenever there were no other races scheduled at other tracks, also that the contestants raced for trophies not cash. During the period of approximately 40 minutes I observed four races with approximately eight to ten participants in each race. These were various types of racing motorcycles, varying from small to large engine machines. As is customary in this type of racing the machines are unmuffled and the noise level is considerably above that allowed on public streets. The track is a 1/4 mile TT course.

Mr. LUTZ further related that the races were held from 7:00 P.M. to 11:00 P.M. Soft drinks and sandwiches are sold but no alcoholic beverages. There is a ticket booth at the entrance where admission is stated as being $1.00 per adult, 50¢ for juniors, and kids' free. There appeared to be approximately 150 to 200 people present.

The general parking and pit area for race participants is not lighted. Also the pit area is not segregated by any barrier, allowing free access back and forth by the general public. I observed adults drinking beer in the pit area. There are no uniformed security officers employed by Mr. LUTZ.

It is the undersigned's opinion this activity does not meet the standards required for the best prevention of police hazards. As example, the unlighted, unguarded public parking encourages thefts. The unsegregated pit area allowing spectators to roam at will among racing activity is a liability for injury. The lack of uniformed security guards encourages the consumption of alcohol by minors.

The undersigned was directed to check this activity as a result of numerous phone calls to the Sheriff's Department complaining of the noise and disturbance of the peace caused by the race activity. A Mr. CUNNINGHAM was contacted at the raceway and after talking to both he and Mr. LUTZ it appears the situation requires further verification as to proper permits. Both parties indicate this matter is being brought before the proper authorities, so in view of this no further action was taken.

Respectfully submitted,

Comedy at Globe

SAN DIEGO — An island-hopping tourist lives in a self-created zany and bizarre world in the opening production of the Old Globe Theatre's twenty-ninth season. The marathon titled comedy "Oh Dad, Poor Dad, Mamma's Hung You in the Closet and I'm Feelin' So Sad" opens Tuesday, October 5.

The Arthur Kopit farce will be staged nightly except Monday for a limited run. A new performance schedule has been established by the Old Globe Theatre. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Sunday night performances will begin at 8 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays will be at 8:30 p.m.

Dinner Slated Saturday

JAMUL — St. Pius X of Jamul will give a spaghetti dinner on Saturday, Oct. 2. Serving will begin at 4 in the afternoon and continue until 8 in the evening.

The donation for the dinner will be $1.25 for adults and 75¢ for children.

To reach the St. Pius X Church, travel east on Hwy. 94, six miles east of Spring Valley to Jamul. Turn north (left) on Lyons Valley Rd. or Jefferson St., and it is one mile to the church.

"Oh Dad, Poor Dad, Mamma's Hung You in the Closet and I'm Feelin' So Sad" is a widely acclaimed new comedy which has been successful on Broadway, off Broadway and throughout a national tour.

Editorial

We join with the Alpine Chamber of Commerce in supporting the bond issue that will be presented to the voters on October 19.

Education is the foundationstone of our democratic way of life. There is a need for our young people to have as much education as possible and we feel that our local college can supply this education.

There is a need for the construction at this college as it is greatly overcrowded. The enrollment will be higher in the years to come.

Therefore, we endorse and support the efforts of the Grossmont College Campus Completion Committee. We strongly urge a "yes" vote for the bonds that will provide the needed facilities.

A heartening call came to our office this week. A very good friend of ours — an elderly gentleman, told us how many really good and kind people there are in Alpine. And what he says is true. There are many many wonderful people that do so much for others. He cited the case of a woman who took a neighbor to the hospital and called for the neighbor when it was time for him to go home. Another woman we know sees that her neighbor, an older citizen, gets a warm meal almost every evening. And there are countless others who are always doing so much for someone else. As he said to us, if you are kind to your neighbor, he will be kind to you. How very true!

Alpine Welcomes

New Residents

ALPINE — Escrow just closed on the sale of the nice ten acres with a four-bedroom home located on Southgrade Rd. and belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Weber.

The new owners, Mr. and Mrs. Ancil M. Garvin are from La Puente, Calif. They chose Alpine because of our wonderful climate. They have a daughter, Kirby 17, and a son Ancil Bernard 22, who just left Sept. 14 for a hospital ship based at Viet Nam. He is a corpsman, studying to be a doctor and has been in the Navy four years.

Mr. Garvin is foreman of the body and fender shop at Hatch Chevrolet Co. He has been doing this work for 23 years. Mrs. Garvin is a bookkeeper.

Mr. and Mrs. Garvin plan to remodel the 4-bedroom home and later build a new home on one of the acres with trees on Southgrade. The sale was negotiated by Charlene Brown of Pierce Realty Company, Alpine.

FORMER RESIDENT TAKES BRIDE

Mr. and Mrs. Jeremy Rytz Standen are making their home at 7759 University Ave., La Mesa, following their marriage Sept. 26th at The First Methodist Church in El Cajon. A small reception in one of the social rooms of the church was given by Mrs. Walter Fee of El Cajon and Mrs. John C. West of Alpine.

The bride is the former Pamela Jean Durow, daughter of Mrs. James Woodall of San Diego and an honor graduate of El Cajon Valley High School. The groom is attending San Diego State College. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Standen of El Cajon, former residents of Alpine.

Mrs. Standen was attended by Miss Leni Carol Kirk of Santee as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were the Misses Kathleen Rice and Marian Hamm of El Cajon. Mr. Standen was attended by Mr. Carlos Montecinos from La Paz, Bolivia.

LOCATIONS SELECTED FOR FIRE HYDRANTS

ALPINE — At the Fire Commissioner's meeting held on September 20, the fire commissioners and the committee for determining the location of fire hydrants was completed and will be sent to the Rio San Diego MWD for further study and advisement.

There are approximately 32 hydrants proposed to cover the water mains under the present program with approximately 22 to be installed at this time. Fire Chief Jack Blankenship is in charge of this hydrant location committee. Also at the meeting a five year reciprocal aid agreement with the State of California for fire protection was signed.

A letter to Jacob Dekema, of the California State Highway Department has been sent advising the department of the burning rules and regulations within the fire district requesting compliance during construction of the new freeway through Alpine.

I HAVE ALWAYS been fond of my brother-in-law. He is an extremely nice person; he is charming, he is handsome and intelligent and as far as I know he has always been good to my sister. So when he called us the other day to ask if we would care to go to the beach for a picnic, we were delighted, and agreed that it was a wonderful idea. It was then further proposed that we build a fire and cook our supper and this was also most acceptable. The more I thought about it, the better it seemed — in fact it was a tremendous inspiration. A fire indicates use of wood, and we have got more wood scraps lying around than were ever collected in one spot before. We have scrap lumber in the yard and on the porches — even in the house. It will take years to dispose of it all even though we have a fireplace and burn all we possibly can. We have been praying for a long, cold winter so that we can get rid of some of this vast accumulation.

AND SO I set to work loading up the station wagon with all the wood it could accommodate. There was barely room for us in the front seat by the time I got through but my porches and yard were clear of scraps and I was very happy.

WE HAD A lovely picnic. We built a roaring fire and I kept surreptitiously piling more wood on when nobody was looking. The food was delicious, and we enjoyed the sea air. Somebody protested that the fire was too hot and I had to stop piling fuel on it, but I didn't care, really, we'd unloaded all that stuff and it could just stay there as far as I was concerned — it was off my hands. We declared the event so successful it was proposed that we do it again, and I agreed with enthusiasm; I said I would provide the wood.

WHEN THE PICNIC was over we left the others on the beach half-heartedly making preparations for departure. We decided to make the most of the change of scene and we drove around the beach for awhile. The lights on the water were beautiful and we had a pleasant ride. Finally we headed home, telling each other fervently that we had had a marvellous time. I was happy. I knew my front porch and yard were clean and clear for the first time since we moved into our little house.

WE PARKED THE car, went down the front steps to the door and there on the porch neatly piled and accumulated, were the remains of that load of wood we had taken to the beach. On top of the pile was a note. It was from my brother-in-law and said: "You forgot the rest of your wood and I knew you would want it." And this is why I am not speaking to my brother-in-law any more.

Poetry is - A Many Splendored Thing

By MARIE KRAMER

I would like to acknowledge the letters and phone calls of the many friends who let me know they enjoy this column and thank them for their encouragement. My joy would increase if I could inspire more people to write poetry. Let yourself go. Test your courage and apply it. I'll be waiting to hear from you.

MY COUNTRY KITCHEN

Fresh baked bread, all brown and gold
Snowy white clothes, ready to fold,

Baby in his high-chair, happy as can be Kettle is boiling, time for tea,

Pussy on the hearth, pretending to nap
Mother in the rocker, mending in her lap,

They say in the city, liv'en-is fine
But in my country kitchen,
Contentment is mine.

MY FIREPLACE AND I

The fire glows and crackles
The burning logs ignite
Andirons, like staunch soldiers
Seem black against the light

Wood-smoke climbs the chimney
A ghostly feather plume
How I love the scent of it
Wafting through the room

Now bright coals all gather
As greying ashes fall
Little flickers bravely dance to patterns on the wall

Memories all beckon
Thoughts of blessings mine
Mingle with the warmth and scent of canyon-oak and pine.

Now the fire is burning low
To thoughts I say goodbye
My thoughts tonight known only to my fireplace and I.

PARENTS GROUPS UNDERGOING CHANGES

(Submitted by the El Capitan High School)

El Capitan parent groups this year have taken on a still newer look than in the past. Have you noticed the difference to this point? If not, then perhaps a quick skimming through the following information will be of help to you. Take the time to read it.

First of all, there are no unit meetings of the PTA scheduled unless there should be a real reason to have one.

Secondly, we have organized our PTA into seven area groups, one for each of the elementary schools that feed El Capitan and each area has an area chairman in charge.

Thirdly, we are placing great emphasis upon parent area meetings where you will get a chance to ask all the questions you have in mind about the school program, for the principal, vice principal and a counselor will attend every area meeting. Some such meetings are being planned so dads can attend if they care to.

Fourthly, we plan to have grade level meetings such as the one being planned now, for all senior parents and students where problems important to seniors will be discussed. . . problems of graduation, college entrance, scholarships, career conferences for those not planning to go to school, will be discussed. One such meeting will be held in Alpine for Alpine parents and another at El Capitan for Lakeside parents. These will be evening meetings.

So, it looks like the PTA is here to serve your needs, and it needs your support to carry on. Consider joining and promoting the above programs.

What will your membership money do? It will be used for scholarships, student activities, student awards and student welfare. In addition, it will help for the mailing of a monthly newsletter to your home telling what is going on at El Capitan.

PTA business? A thing of the past! It will never rear its head at any parent area or grade level meeting. This is all taken care of the fourth Monday evening of each month at a special meeting just for that purpose. Everyone is welcome.

We hope this new approach to parent participation in the school program meets with your approval for we do need, want, and profoundly desire to have you working closely with the school your children attend. Support our plans by joining our program now. Send in your $1 for membership.

The Birthday Tea at Alpine Oaks on Wednesday was a most enjoyable afternoon. Co-hostesses were Rose Ginder and Lil Leinhaupel. Honored guest was Rose Andrews who was so pleased to see only one candle on her cake. Hattie Wilcox poured. Highlight of the afternoon was a message on a record from the founder of the S.S. Hope, telling us about the ship and also thanking the ladies for our contribution.

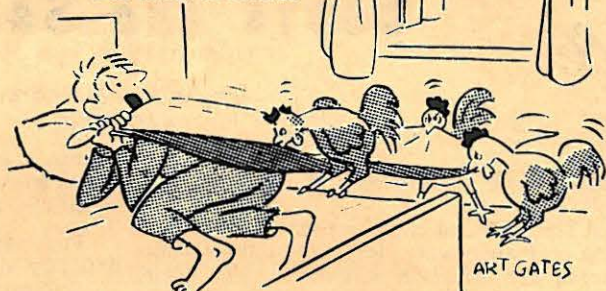

The Morgan Wards are home again and glad to be back after two weeks at Brea.

Our most sincere sympathy goes out to Mr. Kelsey Doll on the loss of his sister up at Redding.

We are all so sorry about our friends Mr. and Mrs. George Staub leaving the park. Mr. Staub's daughter, Ino Bogema of Anoka, Minn. will make a home for them with her. Our best wishes go with them.

Judge and Mrs. Elmer Heald are leaving us to go back to their home in El Centro. It was nice to have them with us for the summer. They hope to come back again.

Master Criston Amundson, along with his parents, came to Alpine Oaks to visit his grandparents and auntie, Rev. and Mrs. John Amundson and Karen Jo.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Carter had as a houseguest on Thursday, H. J. Knudsen of Omaha.

Latest word from the campers, Mabel and Bill Thompson, comes from Big Basin. They are enjoying their trip and both are feeling great.

Know Your Newspaper Better

Dear Editor:

Now This Is What I Think!

Did you ever write a letter to the editor?

It's fun to see yourself in print. But actually, you're not writing to only the editor. If he prints your letter—and he probably will—you are really writing to all the thousands of readers of this newspaper. That's a substantial body of readers, but don't let that scare you . . . write as if you were talking to just one of them.

What Do You Write About?

Perhaps you are really mad at the editor and want to tell him off on some opinion he has voiced. Perhaps you can't contain yourself any longer on some important local issue. Perhaps you just like to sound off now and then on topics of current interest. Whatever you choose, the "letters to the editor" column is your opportunity to speak your opinions.

We Welcome Good Letters

In writing them, please follow the rules printed at the top of the letters column. These rules ask that you keep your letters reasonable in length, reasonable in tone . . . free of defamatory matter. Remember, the editor must "boil down" your letter if too long, and will take out statements that are libelous . . . even though the letter has your name printed underneath.

Plenty of Topics

It's really fun to write to the editor. We don't recommend that you become a "chronic" letter writer, but every now and then we'll be glad to hear from you . . . taxes, highways, elections, the legislature, streets, parks, schools, city government, accidents, safety, business . . . scores of things to write about!

All Around Alpine

Has anyone seen "Teddy"? Teddy is a medium size dog belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Rundeck who live at 518 N. Glenoakes here in Alpine. He has been missing almost two weeks now and the Rundecks are just lost without their pet. He had two collars on—one that carried his license and a new flea collar. He is white with cream colored ears and resembles a Husky dog. If you have seen Teddy, won't you please call the Rundecks at 445-2956, or call this paper. You would make some people awfully happy!

Al Hinkle has been getting in a little deer hunting lately and we understand he got into more than he had gambled for the other morning. He stepped into a hive of yellow jackets, and he must have looked like he was doing the "Jerk" until he finally got rid of them.

And incidentally, Al is featuring a new supply of plastic ware at his hardware store. He has pails, containers and many other things on display. And with winter coming, Al reminds you that he gives free estimates on roofing material and roofing installation.

The merchants uptown were pretty upset last week about the dust that was created by the State crew that was fixing Hwy. 80. We hear that the sand that was dumped was more dust than sand. Maybe there is a better way—seems there should be.

We will soon be having new neighbors on Holly Rd. just off Victoria Dr. They are Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Roethel who will be moving from Dulzura in a couple of weeks. They are retired and they have three Sardinian donkeys. They are sisters and the breed comes from an island off the coast of Italy. We'll look forward to welcoming the Roethels to Alpine.

DEFEAT OF ORDINANCE

The proposed changes to the county zoning ordinance were defeated by the County Board of Supervisors last week. The entire horse community can be thankful for it. The uniting of the animal enthusiasts of the county played a major role in defeating the issues.

The uniting of the horsemen within the county was due to the efforts of a few dedicated individuals such as Don Perkins of Descanso, and F. C. "Johnny" Johnson of La Mesa. At their own expense these men printed and distributed 5000 flyers explaining the changes. Next they organized a mass meeting of the horsemen at Westgate Park which was instrumental in defeating the ordinance. All we can say is, "Thank you Don and Johnny for a job well done."

JULIAN APPLE DAY PARADE

Sunday, October 3rd, the town of Julian will host the annual Apple Day parade. The parade is always a gay colorful affair in which many of the county's finest horses participate.

HORSE SHOWS

BENEFIT HORSE SHOW, October 10th.
Approximately three weeks ago, Warner Snow, a friend of all horse lovers, was seriously injured in an accident with his truck and camper. He is presently recuperating from two broken shoulders, eight fractured ribs and punctured lung.

A benefit horse show for Warner will be held at the Sunnyside Horse Show ring on October 10th. There will be 28 classes, covering both equitation and gymkhana is enjoying Alpine very much and is busy making new friends here.

For those newcomers who have not registered to vote, Mrs. Harry Colby on Tavern Rd. can take care of this for you. She would prefer that you call before you come and her phone number is 445-2888.

There have been some complaints concerning the Greyhound service here in Alpine. A chat with Cliff Telfer, terminal manager, brought the information that they hope to have another agency here. There is a flag that can be raised that is located by the McCoy Realty, just across from Florence's. If that is used, the driver should not pass anyone up. Also, we will have a supply of schedules soon and will place them uptown where they will be available.

events, and a large Grand Entry made by the many friends of Warner, who participated in parades throughout the southland.

The trophies and ribbons are being donated by his many friends. The show judge is Al Garcia. The announcers will be Noel Kelly and Matt Clark.

SUNNYSIDE SADDLE CLUB, October 17.
The Sunnyside Saddle Club will host a horse show on the 17th at the Sunnyside show ring. The show will be presented with a new flair, two show rings are to be utilized simultaneously, one for equitation and the other for gymkhana.

Twenty-eight classes will be held, including five breeding classes. There will also be a Western Pleasure Sweepstake; this event is for all first and second place winners of the Western Pleasure division.

Noel Kelly of KSON is the show announcer. The horse show judge will be Barbara Rossall of North Ridge, California. The horse show is approved by the Junior Horsemen's Association, the H. E. C. and the Southern California Gymkhana Association.

HORSE SENSE

When training or showing a horse in roping or gymkhana events, it is wise to make the horse stand quietly for a few minutes after each event or training period. This is relatively easy to teach an untrained or "green broke" horse but will require more patience with an older horse which is inclined to be more nervous. You will find that both the horse and rider will benefit from this.

HORSE NEWS

Any news of coming horse activities will be welcome.

HERE and THERE

THE CREST

THE CREST CIVIC meeting was held in the Crest Woman's Club with several topics of interest under discussion. Regarding a sheriff on the Crest, we were told there is a 10 p.m. curfew and if we see anyone out after that, except on their way home, the sheriff's office should be called. As we all know, there is very little for our teenagers to do in the way of recreation on the Crest and a place of recreation is badly needed for them. At the meeting, in order to start the ball rolling, a collection was taken. The Woman's Club needs to have restrooms on the premises in order to be used for recreational activities. Let's all try and remember these teenagers need our help and they will be the adults of tomorrow.

THE FIRST PTA meeting of the year was held Wednesday night at the Crest school. It was a big success and the attendance was larger than in the past two years. Mrs. Marilyn Austin, the president, gave a talk on the PTA convention that was held this spring and made each and every one there feel as if they had attended the convention. Nancy Sanford, program chairman, gave the details on the programs scheduled for the coming year and Mrs. Ohlsen, the kindergarten teacher won the award for having the most mothers and fathers present. Everyone greeted Mr. Womack, the new principal at Crest School.

THE CREST WELCOMES Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stead and family, Paul Jr., Terry and Sharron, who have moved to their new home at 229 Lento Lane. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schumaker and family will move in to their new home at 140 Lathrop Lane and we welcome them also. . . . The Crest is sorry to see Mrs. Jane Ratelle and family leave for they will be missed.

DEHESA

MR. AND MRS. Cliff Kurtz spent an enjoyable Saturday evening dining and dancing to the music of Lawrence Welk at the Paladium in Hollywood. . . . Louisella and Russell Klaesson have returned from their vacation in Mexico. They had a relaxing week fishing and camping near San Isidro. . . . All Dehesa Valley residents are reminded of the community potluck to be held this Saturday at Big Oak Ranch at 6:30 p.m. Bring your own table service, a potluck dish and a cake (for games later on in the evening) and be sure and bring any newcomers to our valley. . . . Welcome back to Mrs. Joan Falter who is teaching the first grade class this year at Dehesa School and a welcome also to our new intermediate class teacher, Mr. Joe Garfinkle.

THE CATECHISM CLASS for children has been resumed at Queen of Angels Catholic Church, Alpine, with Mrs.

Louisella Klaesson and Mrs. Pat Riggs of Dehesa, in charge of two groups. They invite all children of the Catholic faith to attend the classes. . . . Twenty-five children enrolled in the National Rifle Association gun safety class held at the Dehesa School, Monday and Tuesday evening. The class is being sponsored locally by Dehesa Valley 4-H Club as a community service activity. Mr. I. B. Benham of El Cajon was in charge. When the ten hours of instruction are completed, the young people are given a written examination, and upon passing, may apply for a California Junior Hunting License.

SYCUAN 4-H CLUB held installation of officers at their last meeting at the community hall in Harbison Canyon. The club's recent membership drive resulted in the enrollment of fifteen new members. . . . Sycuan 4-H Club members from Dehesa and Harbison Canyon have returned from the Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona with the following ribbons and placings: 4-H Market Lambs, JoAnn Benson, 2nd; Johnny Franks, 2nd; Randy Franks, 2nd; 4-H Sheep Breeding, Kathy Vockrodt, 2nd; 4-H Junior Calf, John Franks, 5th; 4-H Senior Yearling, Kathy Vockrodt, 4th. While at the fair, Kathy Vockrodt's grade Holstein cow gave birth to a beautiful, husky calf which she named Stormy.

MOUNTAIN EMPIRE

MR. AND MRS. Cravens from Summerton, Arizona were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. David Lindemann in Morena Village last week, and Mrs. Lindemann asked the Lake Morena Card Club members to an informal card party on Tuesday evening while they were there. The Cravens have date palms on their property and they presented each one present with a coffee tin full of delicious dates. . . . Mt. Empire Woman's Club met in Pine Valley Park last week for a potluck luncheon. The next meeting will be held October 13th at the home of Edna Maleski in Pine Valley. A representative of San Diego Gas and Electric Company will conduct its usual cooking demonstration for the group and all members are urged to attend. . . . Daisy McCoy of Lake Morena came home from the hospital weekend before last and is improving quite rapidly.

IT IS ALWAYS surprising when one learns about a special gift and hobby of a person and Mrs. Busley of Cameron Corners is no exception. She takes snapshots of scenery in black and white, takes them home and paints enlarged pictures of them with oil paints. They are all very professional looking. . . . New residents of Lake Morena are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Newell and their family. Mr. Newell is the new superintendent of Mt. Empire High School District. Mrs. Newell teaches at Mt. Laguna Elementary School, and one daughter teaches in Hayward, California. They have another daughter attending Mt. Empire High School and a son working toward his doctorate at University Of California in Berkeley.

HARBISON CANYON

ALICE DOERING, LONG time resident of the canyon has turned her home over to son Paul and his new wife and has traveled to Los Angeles to visit friends, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ochoa. From there she will go to Imperial where she will visit in the Maurice Hettinger home. Upon returning to this area she will look for a place to settle at the beach. Alice will be missed by her many friends but we all hope she will be happy in her new surroundings. . . . The Maurice Hettinger family were guests in the Skee Scott home over the weekend, having driven from Imperial to be present at the Doering-Rivera wedding. . . . Jack Roberts had the most exciting birthday of his whole life, on September 22nd, 1'm old. First of all, wife Flo served dinner to relatives who were on hand for the event. More guests arrived later to enjoy ice cream and cake. Jack was presented with three lovely cakes, many birthday cards and gifts. The climax of the whole evening was when a long distance telephone call came through from San Francisco from Jack's father and brother to wish him happy tidings.

RUTH AND SKEE Scott are entertaining Skee's cousin and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vander Hyde from Grand Rapids, Michigan. They are being shown the sights of San Diego and outlying areas. Saturday the day was spent at the zoo, Sunday the group enjoyed a cruise around San Diego bay and on Monday they all traveled to the Imperial Valley and Yuma and from there a trip to Los Angeles was planned. . . . Marge Hiatt, little Toni, and aunt Vicky Dillon have rented a place of their own on Cochran Trail. The gals have been busy for the past couple of weeks papering, flagging down furniture trucks, painting, flagging down furniture trucks, and moving and flagging down furniture trucks. The reason for all this flagging down of furniture trucks is, as Mary Strobe put it, no one, but no one, in the whole canyon seems to know where Cochran Trail is. Well, we do and that little house is looking might sharp, gals.

MR. AND MRS. Danny Mishler, after having spent a month visiting parents and friends here, have left for their new home and station at McCord Air Force Base, Tacoma, Washington. They say the surrounding country there is beautiful so the David Mishlers are already looking forward to visiting with them in the coming year. . . . It's a Happy Birthday to little Dawn Ferguson who celebrated her third birthday sharing the traditional candle-lit cake and gift opening with brother and sisters. . . . Raffle tickets on a ceramic Christmas tree are on sale and can be purchased from either Jack and Jean's or any firemen's auxiliary member. The tree is on display at Jack and Jean's and the drawing will take place at a dinner, now in the planning stages, sometime in early December.

4-H CLUB HOLDS FIRST SESSION

DEHESA - Last Thursday night, the Sycuan 4-H Club of Dehesa and Harbison Canyon, held its first meeting of the year. Forty young animal enthusiasts were present. The club inaugurated the new officers for the coming year. They are: Jo Ann Benson, president; David Carlin, vice president; Claudia Jennings, secretary; and Ricky Aubachan, treasurer. At the next meeting, Thursday, Oct. 21, the 4-H farm advisor Herb Whiteside, will achieve awards to the members who earned them last year.

Harry Carter Dies

Harry Carter, 55, who for 17 years operated Harry's Garage in Guatay, passed away Monday night. He had been ill for a month and died of cancer. Carter operated a tow truck out of Guatay for many years and was well known in the area. Services are pending. The Rosary and Mass will be held at the Blessed Sacrament Church and burial will be in Alpine. Survivors are his widow, Fay E.; sister Maudie Rogers of San Diego; and mother, Rutti Ramsey of Guatay.

No Smoker Policy Offered by Farmers

A new Non-Smokers policy has been pioneered by Farmers New World Life Insurance Co., a member of Farmers Insurance Group, it was announced today by Chuck Hester, local Farmers agent. The policy, introduced during September, makes life insurance available to non-smokers and to former cigarette smokers who have not smoked for the past two years, at lower premium rates than those offered to smokers, Hester said. Farmer's development of the new policy was triggered by the mounting proof of the company. These studies showed that the mortality rate for male cigarette smokers for all causes taken together is nearly 70 per cent higher than for non-smokers. The Non-Smokers policy represents only one part of the Company's continuing study of the changing causes of mortality, Hester said.

Qualification Made Easier

It will be easier for San Diego County residents to qualify for social security disability insurance benefits as a result of changes made in the law this year, Arlyn B. Carr, Social Security District Manager has announced.

In the past, a person has been considered disabled only if his impairment was expected to be of long-continued and indefinite duration.

Now a person can receive disability benefits if his disability impairment is expected to last 12 months.

However, Carr stressed that there is no change in the degree of impairment which is considered disabling, and no change in the amount of work required for benefits except for blind persons disabled before age 31. The disability work requirement generally is that a person must have social security work credit for five out of the ten years just before he became disabled.

Beginning in September, 1965, benefits may be paid to persons who have been disabled for six months or longer, even if they expect to recover from their disabilities. All claims filed after June, 1965, and those not yet decided as of July, will be considered under the law.

Workers under 62 who become entitled after 1965 to both social security disability insurance payments and workmen's compensation benefits may be affected by a new "offset" provision in the law. This provision prevents a disabled worker from getting more in total benefit payments than he earned before he became disabled.

Another change in the law permits a person who has started receiving retirement benefits to become eligible for monthly disability payments if he becomes disabled before reaching age 65.

For more information about the changes in disability benefits, write, phone or visit the San Diego Social Security District Office located at 3211 Fifth Ave. The telephone number is 293-5550.

Shortage in Viet Nam?

ALPINE - In a call from Fred Irey the paper was advised of a situation in Viet Nam where some of our fighting men at times are unable to receive comfort items such as razorblades and stationery items. The call was referred to the American National Red Cross.

The area field director told this paper that several hundred Red Cross field directors and assistants are in Viet Nam distributing these items. The task is extremely difficult due to the type warfare they are engaged in with small groups isolated in out of the way locations and away from main supply lines.

Mr. Irey's son, Richard, is in Viet Nam with the 155th Gun Battalion of the 3rd Marine Division.

Mr. Irey stated that his son wrote of being air lifted with equipment from one place to another as needed with his fighting unit.

'Unreality' Discussed at Sunday Service

"Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes; . . . turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity."

These verses from Psalm 119 form the Golden Text for a Bible Lesson on "Unreality" to be read in Christian Science churches this Sunday. Passages from the Bible and the Christian Science textbook will bring out some of the different ways in which men discover the supremacy and

ALPINE LIVELY OAKS REPORT:

By JULIA SACHSE

The fish fry at the Alpine Lively Oaks was a real success. The fish fryers were the Mmes. Brabazon, Leimgruber and Palmer. A delicious potluck was served. Patriotic songs were sung accompanied by Mrs. Olive Cassidy playing a small organ loaned to the club by Mrs. Erna Earl. Rev. William Bray gave the invocation.

Forty two members were present. Mr. and Mrs. Conklin and Miss Viola Manning are the newest members. The membership is now 128.

A very favorable response was received to the offer of a trip to Disneyland on Oct. 13. This is open to all senior citizen membership. The cost is $13 round trip. The entrance is free. Attractions at Disneyland are half price.

Rev. Bray of the First Baptist Church of the Willows spoke on the aims of the United Community Fund. One of them is to have all our community and surrounding areas strive to raise a fund for the Youth Center.

Highlight of the afternoon was the performance given by the Hill Billy Band.

Miss Marjorie Breeden is asking for some copies of the National Geographic. The club has a varied selection of current magazines which may be circulated.

The club has obtained three new card tables through the redemption of green stamps donated by members.

Has anyone a piano which the Sr. Citizen's Club might use? It would be so welcome.

The Alpine Fire District has granted the club permission to use the room at the fire station each Monday 10:30 to 12 noon and 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. It is planned to use the room for study groups. All senior citizens, whether members of the club or not, are invited to participate.

Peutz Valley Homestead Story Told

By RUTH LORING FOLGER

(Editor's Note: We are indebted to Dorothy Michel of the Willows, for seeing that we are able to present an accurate picture of Peutz Valley here in the Alpine area. She and her sister, Ruth Loring Folger, came to Alpine as children. Both have warm memories of this area as it was around the turn of the century and the early 1900's. We hope to be able to present more of these wonderful memories at some future date.)

This is the Peutz ranch house around the turn of the century. This was the house built by Nicholas Peutz on the homesteaded property. The home of Paul Davis of Peutz Valley has replaced this home.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Peutz standing in front of their porch on the old homestead dwelling.

My memory of the Peutz family is like a jigsaw puzzle — well shaken up. The mix of experienced events and what was learned from others can be put together, however.

Mr. Peutz was a German who came to this country after he was adult. He had a trained profession — that of a charcoal burner in the Black Forest, and seemed to have a general farm knowledge. He must, somewhere, have accumulated some capital for when the area west of Mt. Viejas was opened for homesteading he was able to build a good three-room house with an attic, a fairly large barn, and he had wire for fencing. He also had a team of horses, tools and seed. He and the other men who were also homesteading down the valley, made a road from the cemetery down to the valley bottom — a steep grade.

One can estimate how he worked to clear the brush from the fields he planted to hay and grain, fencing it with the typical crooked fence posts made from the larger brush which supported three or four barbed wires.

This dark, stocky, bearded man must have been extremely intelligent as well as very energetic. By the time our family came to know him, he had several enterprises going that brought him income. He had married, after he was fairly well established, a woman he had never seen, but with whom he had corresponded. There must have been a mail-order bride system of sorts at that time (between 1890 and 1900) for another homesteader at the end of the valley was reported to have done likewise. However, there seemed to be some sort of a mystery surrounding this resident that was never explained to us.

When Mr. Peutz met his wife-to-be at the railroad depot with his team of horses and big ranch wagon, she knew she was going to a place where there was a house, a barn with cows and pigs, a flock of turkeys and chickens, and other animals. They were married at once and started the long, dusty ride from San Diego to Alpine — thirty-five miles. Mrs. Peutz confided in my Mother many years later, that she was overcome with terror when she finally saw where she was to live. I assume that she had been in the U.S. for some years prior to coming west to marry — possibly working as a domestic, as many German girls did after they arrived. She spoke a pure English and was well versed in homemaking. She possibly was quite a bit younger than Mr. Peutz, but to my childish eyes, a man with a beard always looked old, so this is pure speculation.

Arriving at the homestead, she had no escape, so she pitched in and worked with her new husband. She became a wonderful helpmate to this somewhat silent, but truly good man. They were a wonderful pair of people when we came to know them.

Our contact was generated through our habit over the years, of buying a live turkey on Thanksgiving and Christmas from Mr. Peutz. He always brought to San Diego, for the holidays, a wagon load, doubled decked, with wooden crates filled with turkeys to market. In some way he came to have an arrangement with my father Mr. Loring, as a business agent.

In that very small and pioneer village of San Diego, around the turn of the century, the store labeled Loring's Book Store, had other interests besides books. It served the colony of Scandinavian people who had established a settlement in and around Ensenada, Baja California, Mexico. Someone had to be their receiving and shipping agent. There was a gold mine thereabouts, and the Johnson family worked it and my father was the secretary and treasurer of that enterprise. He received the gold and sold it or shipped it. A small steamer went between San Diego and Ensenada every week, I believe, and the store served as a go-between banker. This type of service was perhaps the relationship that served Mr. Peutz.

Between turkey deliveries, the charcoal that Mr. Peutz made in his homemade charcoal oven on the ranch was brought to town when there was a wagon load. It was sacked in burlap bags and sold to the firm of Hardy Meat Co. I remember being told that they were anxious to get all he could make from the live oak wood as they found it superior for smoking hams and bacon. There was a third cash income from the sale of oak leaf mold gathered under the old oaks where it had been collecting through a lifetime.

During one of these visits Mr. Peutz must have mentioned something about the adjoining homestead being abandoned. There were at least five places where an attempt had been made at homesteading and making a living, but the only other one that survived beside the Peutz homestead was the Phieffer ranch up on the northwest shoulder of Viejas mountain.

When the Loring property was acquired, it had an abandoned cabin and an orchard up on the highland nearer the Alpine Center. Adjoining this level part was another abandoned cabin we called the Frenchman's which was probably another failure. Just how we came to purchase the 640 acres cornering on the Peutz homestead, I never learned, but Mr. Peutz was engaged to build a small house and barn for the horses down in the valley. He also made the road between his home and our place. None of this would have been possible without him.

By the time my Mother with her family first spent the summer at camp, we had a good little house near the stream and overlooking the whole of Peutz Valley to the west. We were about a quarter of a mile east of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peutz and were dependent on them for much of our food. This must have been about 1900. The Peutz ranch was well established with vegetable garden, fruit trees, and livestock. Mrs. Peutz made wonderful bread for us and we children walked down every day with milk cans for the fresh milk, butter and cottage cheese. Nothing could have been more perfect. My father would drive up with a light buggy and fast horse for a few days at a time and occasionally a week. When we left at summer's end, Mr. Peutz took care of the place.

One year as we were packed to leave, I begged to be allowed to stay with the Peutz couple. Somehow, I was permitted and my quarters were in the attic room where a stiff and shedding deer hide served as a rug. I was perhaps seven years old. I remember some conversations about missing school but I was allowed to stay until the family arrived the following summer.

They were very good to me and I had a lovely companion in their white bull terrier who went with me everywhere. I sometimes helped churn the butter in the tall wooden churn on the front porch and would bring in buckets of water from the well. There was a "milk cellar" dug deep into the ground across the driveway from the kitchen, with steps that led down to the screen door. Inside the light was dim as it came from a rather narrow strip of screen under the pitched roof. There was a long three-tiered table that held the wide shallow milk pans where the cream was always skimmed each day. It was cool there and had its own special atmosphere. Every week Mrs. Peutz had her regular customers for butter and cottage cheese in Alpine Center. I often drove up with her and it was quite clear she was a very well liked and respected person.

On Sundays we went to church in the little community building that served the center in many ways. There was a small organ that was pumped by a small boy about my age. There was a quiet and comforting feeling of mutual support in that place. There were good people in this quiet and sleepy little village. Many two-storied homes were to be seen, well painted and with gardens and flowers. There was an Inn (Shepherd's?) and a general store with the Post Office. One of Mrs. Peutz's customers was a Mrs. Duff who lived in a large two-storied house. Mr. and Mrs. Duff had been missionaries in China. I was told they were retired, and he may have been the minister on Sundays.

No one could have been kinder to a child than these two quiet and deeply religious people. I never heard either say a harsh word and while my constant questioning as I trailed him about his work could have been a trial, Mr. Peutz always answered my questions with patience. They were hard working people and always gave a sincere expression of heartfelt thanks to God as they sat down to the evening meal. They had no dogma but a whole hearted faith in the goodness of God.

Our wonderful summers at camp came to an end when Mr. Peutz died one winter. Mrs. Peutz told my Mother he had a habit of cracking apricot and peach pits and eating the kernels. A doctor told her, too late, that they were poison. She sold the ranch, (I think to someone named Foster) and then moved to San Diego where she had a little house on Robinson St. Later, my mother told me she married a widower who had five children. She had always grieved that she had no children during her marriage to Mr. Peutz. I feel sure she must have been a wonderful mother to this family.

TRANSPORTATION AGENCY
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
DIVISION OF HIGHWAYS

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the State Highway Engineer, Room 406, Division of Highways Building, 120 South Spring Street, Los Angeles, California, until 2 o'clock p.m. on Friday, November 12, 1965, at which time they will be publicly opened and read in Room 2 of said building, for construction on State Highway in accordance with the specifications therefor, to which special reference is made, as follows:

San Diego and Imperial Counties, between Boulevard and 1.5 miles east of Imperial County Line (11-S.D. Imp-8-R67.8/R77.6, R0.0/RL.5), about 11.5 miles of 4-lane freeway to be graded and paved with asphalt concrete on aggregate base and 5 bridges to be constructed.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein.

Plans, specifications, and proposal forms to be used for bidding on this project can only be obtained at the office of the State Highway Engineer, Public Works Building, Sacramento, California.

Plans and specifications may be seen at the office of the State Highway Engineer at Sacramento, at the offices of the District Engineers at Los Angeles and San Francisco, and at the office of the District Engineer of the district in which the work is situated.

No bid will be considered unless it is made on a blank form furnished by the State Highway Engineer and is made in accordance with the provisions of the Standard Specifications and special provisions.

The Department of Public Works, in accordance with the provisions of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (78 Stat. 252) and the Regulations of the Department of Commerce (15 C.F.R., Part 8), issued pursuant to such Act, hereby notifies all bidders that it will affirmatively insure that the contract entered into pursuant to this advertisement will be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder without discrimination on the ground of race, color, or national origin.

The Department of Public Works reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

This contract is subject to the Work Hours Act of 1962, PL87-581, and implementing regulations, as further set forth under "Federal Requirements" of these special provisions.

Minimum wage rates for this project have been predetermined by the Secretary of Labor and are set forth in the special provisions. In the event there is a difference between the minimum wage rates as determined by the Secretary of Labor and the prevailing wage rates as determined by the Department of Public Works for similar classifications of labor, the Contractor and his subcontractors shall pay not less than the wage rate which is the higher of the two.

Abbreviations used in the schedule of predetermined wage rates in conjunction with employer payments listed in the right hand columns are identified as follows:

Table with columns for abbreviations (ph, pwh, pph, phw/p, psth, psthw, psthwp) and their meanings (per hour, per day, per man day, etc.).

Employer payments other than those itemised herein, as defined in Section 1773.1 of the Labor Code, are to be paid in accordance with the terms of the collective bargaining agreement applicable to the type or classification of the workmen or mechanics employed on the project.

Overtime, Sundays and Holidays - not less than one and one-half (1 1/2) times the basic hourly rate plus applicable employer payments. The holidays upon which such rates shall be paid shall be all holidays recognized in the collective bargaining agreement applicable to the particular craft, classification or type of workman employed on the project.

Copies of all collective bargaining agreement relating to the work as set forth in the aforementioned Labor Code are on file and available for inspection in the office of the Department of Industrial Relations, Division of Labor Statistics and Research.

Attention is directed to Section 7-1.01G of the Standard Specifications providing for employment of apprentices on the work. Every such apprentice shall be paid the standard wage paid to apprentices under the regulations of the trade at which he is employed. Information relative to employment of apprentices shall be obtained from the Director of the Department of Industrial Relations, who is the Administrative Officer of the California Apprenticeship Council.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 1770 of the Labor Code of the State of California, the Department of Public Works has ascertained the general prevailing rate of wages and employer payments for health and welfare, vacation, pension and similar purposes in the county in which the work is to be done to be as follows:

Woman Attorney Retires in Alpine

ALPINE — In a lovely little home on Hwy. 80, just west of Tappy's Motel, lives a charming little lady. She is Marjorie Breeden, resident here for about ten years.

Miss Breeden is active in many things in Alpine. One of the groups that interests her is the Alpine Lively Oaks and the other special interest is the Alpine Community Church.

Interesting and articulate, Miss Breeden holds the attention of her visitor as she tells of her hopes for Alpine — and of her belief in Alpine, and its future.

A practicing lawyer for about 20 years, Miss Breeden was the first woman graduate from the Law School at the University of South Dakota. She practiced with her father in his office until his death, and was then on her own.

She was also on the State Code Commission in South Dakota and was the Law Librarian of the Superior Court there. One year was spent traveling in Europe.

When Miss Breeden moved to California, she brought her mother with her. Her mother lived to be 101 years old.

Miss Breeden has many interests, among them her gardening. She is active, interesting and a delightful person. She boosts Alpine and is eager to see progress here. With more people like Miss Breeden, Alpine can certainly move forward to better things in the future.

First Meeting Set For Alpine Amigos

ALPINE — The Alpine Amigos 4-H Club will hold its first meeting October 6 at 7:30 p.m. in Fuller Hall.

All youth 10 to 19 are welcome to visit or join.

Wilma Peters will direct a new project concerning horses which will be of benefit to all the young people.

SERIES ON YOUTH CENTER SLATED FOR EARLY RELEASE

Beginning very soon, the Town and Country News will have a series of articles on the Alpine Youth Center.

We expect to go back into the history of the Center, find out who was responsible for the acquiring of the land and give credit to all who had a part in the establishment of the Center.

Then we expect to go into more detail concerning what is being done now for the youth of the area, and project into the future.

We are presenting this series for the benefit of the town and the benefit of our young people. We are hoping that it will accomplish a great deal of good for those who will be the leaders of tomorrow.
