RABIES FOUND

ALPINE - Dr. R. J. McFarland, DVM, confirmed rabies in a young fox shot and killed on the property of J. M. Cunningham last week.

Various reports of several animals (foxes) shot in Alpine apparently with rabies had been unconfirmed.

However, the process for being sure that an animal has the disease often takes a great deal of time.

The Town and Country News talked to the County Veter-inarian concerning the dan-ger. He warned that all parents should make sure that their children understand that they must not approach a wild animal. For that animal may not only have rabies he may have other diseases.

When asked if cats (the domestic type) could catch the disease, he replied that if a cat were bitten, it was entirely possible. However the nature of a cat is such that it would more than likely not come that close to a rabid animal. But as an extra pre-caution for the family and for the pet cat, it should be vaccinated for rabies. He suggested that persons con-cerned check with their regular veterinarian.

Lakeside News Starts

We've been hearing rumors — and we imagine our friends have been hearing the same

Therefore, we want to take this opportunity to once and for all clear up a misconception concerning the continuance of the Town and Country News.

As many of our friends know, the Merchants Association of the Lakeside Chamber of Commerce has requested that our corporation, which is called the Alpine Echo (sole stockholders, Ronald and Edith Van Til) publish a newspaper for the Lakeside area.

When we were asked to take on this new venture, we were more than delighted to do so. It will be called the Lakeside News and have a circulation of over 7,000. Alpine residents will also receive the Lakeside News as a supplement to the Town and Country News.

We are not leaving Alpine. Alpine is our home.

We are proud and pleased that Lakeside should want us to publish their paper. We will do the best job that we can possibly do for them, and continue to make the Town and Country News a quality newspaper.

Editorial

The time of year has come when many of our friends and residents go on vacation.

We would like once more to stress the policy of the Town and Country News concerning these vacations.

As a responsible newspaper, we will not print the fact that someone is GOING on vacation. When this fact is made public knowledge, often burglaries and vandalism

Consequently, we will publish only the fact that our neighbors have RETURNED from vacation, unless they specifically tell us that they do not mind, as they will have that they do not mind, as they will have someone stay in their home.

At the close of the school year I take this opportunity to express my thanks and ap-preciation to you for all the cooperation and understanding you have given us this past year. It is indeed unfortunate that we cannot always have such glowing reports of our Alpine young people. It seems five of our high schools girls were suspended for misconduct last week from El Capitan High School, Fortunately, most of our high school boys and girls have been brought up to behave like ladies and gent-lemen and we know that these are in the majority. It is us-ually a small minority that attempts to give a town a poor reputation. We are sure that our honor students, our athletes, and cur outstanding young people more than make up for these few.

By RUTH FULLER

ROBERT HAS SOMETIMES commented that we are not making much progress in our remodeling chores because I do not "participate" as much as I could. Participating usually means carrying bricks and helping build walls and I admit I am not very good at this sort of thing. I feel badly about my shortcomings and when we decided recently on another major project, Robert said we might investigate the possibility of another bank loan for home improvement and I was in town one day, passing the institution which holds our mortgage, copes with our checking account and has a firm grip on our savings, such as they are and I gnp on our savings, such as they are and I felt my golden opportunity had arrived. "I will," I thought, "save Robert the trouble of negotiating a loan — I will attend to the matter myself and he will be proud of me for participating." The desk by the door was occupied by a dignified official, and the sign said MANAGER. "This is my man," I said, and when I greeted him he responded amiably, rose and said "What can I do for you?"

HOUSE

"ROBERT," I SAID, "has told me how pleasant you are to do business with - and I know you must think we are crazy, spending so much money on our project, but I do think in the long run it will be worth it our problem now is that we don't like the upstairs bedroom we built with the last loan and we are going to move downstairs again

"I - I DON'T think I quite understand," said my new friend frowning a bit - "move downstairs?"

YES," I SAID, "but this time we think we will build two bedrooms downstairs and use the upstairs room as a sort of study and family room — we will keep the upstairs bathroom, but make it somewhat smaller and so we will have to rebuild the downstairs bathroom again....

'I - I DON'T really feel I follow you

"I KNOW," I said sympathetically, "it does get complicated, doesn't it? But know it will all come out right eventually. Of course, excavating into the hillside for extra work shop downstairs will be a problem, but we'll have to have it, because when we built the room upstairs and abandoned the bedroom downstairs we turned it into a workshop and what a lot of remodeling we'll have to do now! Then of course there's the laundry. First it was downstairs and then I decided I'd like it upstairs, but that didn't work out and now it is back downstairs again but we will have to build a laundry room, since we can't have it in the bedroom, can we?"

"NO - NO, I guess not, but please, just a minute....

"DON'T WORRY," I said comfortingly, "we won't really need too much money, with Robert doing most of the work....

"MADAM!" SHOUTED MY captive audience, wiping his face with his handkerchief, "I'm trying to tell you I'm not the man you want to talk to - that gentleman over there, the one slipping out the back door — ah, I guess he just went to lunch; perhaps you could come back later - better still, send your husband in? I'm sure we can do business.

I GUESS I'D better just stick to cleaning up scrap lumber.

HAS YOUR

Fictitious Firm Name

BEEN LEGALLY REGISTERED?

The requirements of Section 2466 of the Civil Code, says "Every person and every partnership transacting business—under a fictitious firm name—must file a certificate stating the names in full and the place of residence of such person and the member or members of such partnership—such certificate must be published, once a week for four consecutive weeks."

If you have neglected this procedure, do you realize that the name of your firm is not protected and that you are not entitled to maintain suits for collection, or for other purposes, in the courts of the State of California?

TOWN and COUNTRY NEWS Alpine's Legal Newspaper

Take care of this important matter NOW by having the Town and Country News publish the certificate. The cost is small, but the filing and publication is something that should not be overlooked. We'll be glad to provide all necessary forms and take care of both the publication and filing for you.

By MARIE KRAMER

Today I would like to devote some time and type to a man who has just retired from the Navy. He is Boatswains Mate, GARLAND REEVES, who has given over 22 years of service to his country. He saw action during World War II in the Armed Guard as Navy Gunneryman on a Merchantship and also in the Korean War aboard the USS Cavalier, A.P.A. 37. He has been attached for three years as Beachmaster, Unit One, and the last three years as instructor at the Amphib Base, Coronado.

He lives with his wife, Joyce, and three daughters, Kathleen 18, Cynthia 15, and Michele 14, at 8825 Los Coches Road, Lakeside.

We wish to thank you Mr. Reeves for the role you have played in the unique way of life that is America. You have dedicated your life to the things that make life worth living and now we hope you will have time to enjoy and appreciate your life as a civilian American. God Bless You!

We are happy to report that Fred Irey of Tavern Road is feeling better and we know he will be cheered by the home-coming of his son Corporal RICHARD IREY who has been in Chu Lai, S. Viet Nam for the last thirteen months. His other son, A3/C J. W. IREY is stationed at Minot AFB in North Delects. North Dakota.

Your Mom is getting a box ready with the goodies you asked for so I just thought I'd tip you off it will be on its way.

We hope by the time this paper reaches him that A2/C TERRY WAGNER will be on his way to his R and R. He writes his Mom that he is looking forward to going to Bangkok. Terry is stationed at Tan Son Nhut AFB in Viet Nam.

There isn't a prouder dad in Alpine than Jim Sockwell as he received just in time for Father's Day an arc welding set sent to him by his son, S.P.4 JAMES R. SOCKWELL (Rick).

Rick is with the "Screaming Eagles" of the 101st Airborne Division, who have been making the news the last two weeks engaged in battle with the Viet Cong.

Mrs. Sockwell sends her son a box every week and hopes they will catch up with him. He sure looks forward to receiving them as I am sure all the boys do.
